Five new members were received at the Congregational Church Sunday by letters of recommendation from their various pastors. The persons were principally new residents of the city. They were admitted at the congregation meeting held at the close of the communion service.

INTER-STATE FAIR.

Getting Things in Readiness for Show Which Commences September 26.

Former Mayor Welling G. Sickel, of Trenton, returned to that city Friday, from Newport, whither he went for the purpose of securing entries for the horse show which is to be a feature of the Inter-State Fair to be held at Trenton, N. J., from September 26 to September 30, inclusive.

His success with the greatest horse-owners of New York, Newport, Philadelphia, Bryn Mawr and Wissahickon was such as to insure a horse show at the Inter-State Fair which will compare most favorably with the most important exhibitions of this character held in the East.

Secretary Mahlon R. Margerum was at the Bethlehem Fair, Pa., Thursday and Friday, and at that exhibition he succeeded in securing a string of fast horses as entries in the superior racing programme which has been arranged by the Inter-State Fair Association.

Entries in the live stock departments of the Fair are being received in greater numbers than last year, and there will be many exhibitions of interest to those of this section of the State who attend the Trenton Fair. The list of exhibitors in the poultry, sheep, swine, pigeon and pet departments insures a presentation of these classes of live stock which will be even greater than that of 1902.

The Inter-State Fair grounds are at this time ready for the Fair, all workmen having completed their respective duties the latter part of last week. The large exhibition buildings have been completely renovated and painted, and their condition will add greatly to the charm of the largest and most complete display of home products ever seen in this section of the United States.

The women of New Jersey have shown their interest in the Fair by liberal entries of home work, and when their efforts are arranged in the display cases the exhibition buildings will be a veritiable art gallery, showing the handiwork of housewives and the girls of every county in the State.

Kuroki's Name.

Several French soldiers, survivors of the Chinese expedition of 1856, are responsible for the statement that Gen. Kuroki is in reality half French. His name, they say, is properly spelled Curique. According to the story of these soldiers, a French officer, Capt. Curique, while serving in China in 1856, married a Japanese girl. A son was born to them, who was given the Japanese name Kuroki, corresponding to the French Curique. This son, it is said, is Gen. Kuroki. Capt. Curique died last year in France.—London Hour Glass.

STORM DOES MUCH DAMAGE

Most Destructive Rainfall in Years Visited Plainfield Last Night.

CITY IN DARKNESS

Electric Light, Telegraph and Telephone Systems Injured—Trolleys Tied Up and Streets Flooded—Other Damage.

Not since July 28, 1897, has such a storm visited this vicinity as that which started at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon and waged until 4 o'clock this morning. It raged the worst from 2 until 4 this morning and the loss will foot up to hundreds of dollars. In fifteen hours the rainfall was 6.70 inches, while the total rainfal during the storm seven years ago was but 5.52 inches in twenty-four hours.

Richmond street, from East Front street to East Seventh street, was a veritable canal until late in the morning. Here, as in other places near the brook, the water spread over the entire roadway and stood some six or eight inches in depth. Under the railroad bridge on Richmond street, there was standing water all yesterday afternoon, hampering the trolley cars. In the early morning down-pour the water swept further and this morning extended several hundred feet along East Fifth street.

East Seventh street at Richmond street was heavily flooded. The brook swept over the bridge here and poured over the roadway, extending up and down the street. The courts of the Cedar Brook Tennis Club were flooded and washed out. Above Richmond street, East Seventh street was especially treacherous. Sewer contractors here had left the roadway soft, and beneath the standing water was thick mire. A wagon of the Watchung dairy, sunk to the body in this mud near Richmond street, and was deserted.

At Putnam avenue and Richmond street there was also half a foot of water, extending completely through to Watchung avenue. A heavy tree, completely uprooted, fell across the trolley wires at the lower Putnam avenue switch, tearing wires from the poles and breaking the feed wire, wrenching off guys for some distance along the track. The brook, level with the banks of its channel between Putnam and Watchung avenues, spread over backyards and lawns, and considerable water entered the cellars. Beyond Watchung avenue, the brook spread over the low meadow and considerable part of Cedar Brook Farm was submerged.

Weather Prophet John Nagle reported today a record-breaker in the rain-fall between the hours of 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon and 4 o'clock this morning. The fall was 6.70 inches, which has not been reached before in thirteen years, the length of time official records have been kept.

Grant and West End avenues were, as usual in heavy storms, a river of water, helping to swell Green brook to abnormal size. On the northside of West End avenue the water washed out the roadbed for a distance of twenty-five feet and the lowlands back of H. C. Compton's residence was completely covered with water. The highest point was reached at about 5 o'clock. After that the water receded steadily until during the morning hours then there was an almost normal condition of the stream which separates the city from the borough.

Letter-carrier E. T. Dunn, who lives at the corner of Grove street and Linden avenue, started out at his usual early hour to collect mail from the letter-boxes. Although the street lights were out and the storm was raging hard he did not think it necessary to carry a lantern, believing that he could get along without it. At the corner of Duer street and Lincoln place he actually got lost. He decided to return for a lantern, and it took him almost an hour to reach his home, during which time he had a most unpleasant experience.

As a precautionary measure, the employes at the electric light plant of the Public Service Corporation, in this city, the electric current was shut off between the hours of 2 and 3 o'clock this morning, except in the business section of the city where the wires are underground. This action was taken because of the falling trees and many broken wires throughout the city and borough.

Manager Charles W. Runyon reports that 200 telephones were put out of business.

Though heavily weighed down and subjected to severe strain by wind and falling trees, fire alarm wires stood the strain generally through the entire city and the system was open during the entire night. The taps from time to time this morning were caused by electric and 'phone linemen disentangling wires.

The local trolley company was severely crippled by broken wires and deep standing water. Not a wheel moved in the entire system during the early morning downpour, but the through line commenced operations this morning. The first cars began to run on schedule time at 10 o'clock and at that time the through line was entirely open, though accurate service could not be secured until afternoon.

In the borough the damage was wide-spread and in many cases seriously interferred with the operation of the electric light, trolley, telephone and fire alarm systems. Numerous instances were seen of large trees uprooted by the fury of the wind, huge branches cast across the streets amid a tangle of broken wires, to say nothing of damage to the macadam pavement of the streets themselves.

The only break in the borough fire alarm system was that on Manning avenue caused by the fall of a tree not far from Watchung avenue.

Two electric light poles were carried down by falling trees in the Prideville section, one on Greenbrook road, west of Harrison street, and the other in the grounds of Col. John F. Wilson.

On upper Duer street, the evil effects of cutting roots of trees in grading were shown by the fall of several large trees which put that section of the electric lines out of commission. Vine street, Grandview avenue, Washington avenue and Grove street were also heavy sufferers in the general wreck.

According to John H. Tier, the level of the lake above his dam was higher than ever before, the greatest stage coming to within two inches of the lakehouse floor. At that time the water flowed two feet deep over the entire dam.

The flood made itself felt at the Somerset street mill also, threatening at one time to wash away the old sheds in the rear of it.

FLIM-FLAM MAN GOT A FORTY-DAYS SENTENCE

NEW YORK NEGRO TO REST AT FORT DODD FOR A TIME.

Ralph Ball and a companion, both negroes from New York, worked a trick bet on Joseph Dunham, also colored, who is employed by Salmon C. Baker, the West Fifth street printer, yesterday morning and Ball was sentenced to forty days this morning by Judge Runyon as a consequence.

The two men accosted Dunham on West Front street in front of the First Baptist church and while talking, one borrowed a knife from the other, remarking that Dunham would find it impossible to open the knife and offering to bet two dollars on the proposition. Dunham put up his watch in lieu of the money, only to find that the knife was "fixed." He told the men to come with him and he would redeem the watch in money, but when they met a policeman he had Ball arrested, the other chap having skipped in the meantime.

Legal Victory Not Complete.

Proceedings in suit instituted by Wolff & Co. against Charles Utter, of this city, resulted in the award of $170 from a claim of $270. The case was heard Tuesday at the District Court at Elizabeth and the decision was rendered by Judge Atwater. The action was brought to recover an unpaid bill for goods sold Utter since his residence in this city. Francis J. Blatz, Esq., Utter's attorney, sought partial discount on the grounds that Utter was at the time an employe of the firm and was privileged to certain commissions. He won his point and the Judge gave the decision announcing a discount of $100.

No Band Concert.

Benjamin LaVere decided today, that owing to the condition of the weather, to postpone the band concert announced for tomorrow night. If the weather will permit it may be given next week.

—A hundred and twenty-five baskets of choice white and yellow peaches on sale in the morning at Neuman Brothers'. Prices 75c, 85c, $1 and $1.25. An opportunity for preserving.

DUNELLEN SUFFERS FROM DESTRUCTIVE STORM

STREETS FLOODED AND TROLLEY LINES TIED UP.

The storm at Dunellen was the most severe of recent years. Some large shade trees were literally stripped of leaves and in many places the sidewalks and streets were blocked with large limbs. Green brook rose very rapidly and passage between Dunellen and Greenbrook was practically impossible. A small shed attached to Charles Kirby's residence was blown down and all the street lights were out. Considerable damage was also done at New Market.

The first trolley car from Plainfield reached the Rock avenue switch a little before 11 o'clock. The water around the switch was still a foot deep at noon and cars will not get all the way through until tonight. The through cars have also been blocked by the high waters. The Bound Brook cars were able to run on schedule time.

Y. M. C. A. RECEPTION TO BE PLEASANT EVENT

MARTIN KORFF'S ORCHESTRA TO FURNISH MUSIC FOR THE AFFAIR.

Martin A. Korff, leader of the Y. M. C. A. orchestra, has offered to contribute a musical programme with the entire orchestra on the occasion of the reception given by the Association to Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Robbie and to Physical Director Frederick J. Henckel, Saturday evening. On that occasion, the programme to be rendered by the orchestra will be as follows:

"Japan's Triumphal March," Vanderloot; overture, "The Fairy Queen," W. Tobin; cornet solo, selected; oriental intermezzo, "Ramsa," Comstock; trombone solo, "Beautiful Home of Paradise;" intermezzo, "Katunka;" vocal solo, selected; valse suite, "Voice of the Flowers," Smith; descriptive selection, "Old Louisiana," Michaelis; march, "The Flower Queen," Korff. The programme will be rendered in the Association Hall.

Invitations has been extended to all members of the association to be present at this reception, which will be of a pleasant, informal nature.

Special entertainment of an informal nature has been arranged for by the committee, consisting of O. S. Rogers and Dr. Norman Probasco. Mrs. Joseph Phillips, Mrs. John Valiant and Miss S. Lena Bass will form the reception committee and refreshments will be served by a committee from the women's auxiliary of the Association, of which Mrs. Joseph W. Gavett is chairman. The entire building will be thrown open for the occasion and the decorations will consist of bunting, plants and cut flowers.

Street Work Needed.

The time is not far distant when the street committee will have to devise means for the permanent repair of West End avenue, between Front street and the brook. A heavy rain washes out the road-bed and gullies are washed on the side of the road. Too much is expected of the avenue in the way of carrying off surface water from Grant avenue, East and West Front street, while there is only one storm sewer of ordinary size in the avenue to do the work. Yesterday's rain resulted in more or less damage to the street.

To Build on Leland Avenue.

Permits for erection of a two-story frame house has been granted to Michael Wunderlich, of Leland avenue, and work of erection will be commenced at once. The building will measure twenty-four feet square. William Dally has charge of the mason work and William D. Bird is the carpenter.

High School Building Commenced.

Mason work on the new city High School at West Ninth street and Arlington avenue, was commenced yesterday by Tallamy Bros., the subcontractor. The hewn stone foundation tiers are now being placed in position and if the weather be favorable, the first tier should be completed in about ten days.

Mr. Mack Did Not Bet.

The Daily Press was imposed upon yesterday with a report that Lewis C. Mack, of Somerville, had bet $500 on the West End team winning the game with Plainfield on Saturday. In justice to Mr. Mack a denial of the report is made.

TO PAVE ENTIRE STREET

Councilmen Believe That P. S. C. Should Bear Expense.

IMPROVEMENT HELD UP

Committee Meeting Tonight Likely—Why City Should Not Pay.

It is quite likely that there will be a meeting of the street and finance committee of the Common Council either tonight or tomorrow night to confer with a representative from the Public Service Corporation concerning the proposed improvements on Watchung avenue, which includes the laying of vitrified brick and the possible laying of double tracks.

The matter of paving the avenue with vitrified brick is necessarily held up until some word is received from the trolley company as to its intended action. The company is desirous of putting new rails in the avenue before the permanent pavement is laid, and now that there is talk of laying a double track, there is even a greater degree of uncertainty. As yet the company has not deposited $1,200 with the city treasurer, its share of the expense for paving the avenue with brick and the work cannot be started until this is done. There has been no meeting of the street committee recently and no word has been received from the Public Service Corporation about the improvements.

There is a feeling among the members of the Common Council that if the trolley company is anxious to lay double tracks from Front and Somerset streets to the corner of Watchung avenue and Fourth street, it should be willing to pave the entire street with vitrified brick, as specified. It is possible that the company may never be able to get this privilege again upon such advantageous terms, as future Common Councils might demand even more than this. Another thing, the city has now decided, chiefly at the request of the trolley company, to lay a permanent pavement on Watchung avenue, it is believed that no better opportunity is in sight for making the whole improvement at once and thus prevent a tearing up of the street at some future time.

It is argued that inasmuch as some property-owners along the proposed line of improvement have requested the laying of a double track, the trolley company may say that the city should not require the laying of a permanent pavement the entire width of the street. This counts for little, as the Common Council is not compelled to allow the company to lay double tracks in accordance with the petitions, and if it is so anxious to improve its service and relieve the congested condition on Watchung avenue, many believe that the company should be willing to pave the street for the privilege of occupying additional room in the street.

President R. I. Tolles has expressed himself in favor of adjusting matters to prevent the crowded condition on the avenue, but he wants the city to get all that is right and fair in the matter. It is quite likely that today he will communicate with the trolley company and ask them to send a representative to a meeting of the Councilmanic committee, one who will have some authority to speak for the company.

The city is anxious to start the work of laying the brick pavement, but as the company is equally concerned in the improvement, it does not feel like going ahead until some word is received from the company. There is an opinion that the company will be willing to act fair and no doubt agree to pave the street for the privilege of laying other tracks. Such improvement would do away with a whole lot of trouble in the future and be a benefit to the company as well as the city.

Repairing Trolley Tracks.

A gang of laborers from the Public Service Corporation's track repair headquarters at Picton Junction, are at work taking the wrinkles out of the West Front street trolley tracks. The old fish-plates which are small, four-hole affairs, are being replaced by heavier, six-hole plates. As the rails have to be drilled to accommodate the extra bolts, it is quite a tedious piece of work. Considerable fault is being found by the residents along Front street because the work necessitates the tearing up of the macadam which was in perfect condition on this thoroughfare.

1,600 MILE TRIP TO ATTEND A FUNERAL

MOTHER AND SON RUSH ACROSS CONTINENT TO BE AT OBSEQUIES.

After a journey of 1,600 miles across the continent from Dawson, Iowa, Thomas M. Muir and his mother, Mrs. Andrew Muir, of Essex street, arrived this morning to attend the funeral of William Muir, another son of Mrs. Muir, who was killed by an accidental fall. On arriving at Dawson, Iowa, at noon on Monday, where they had gone to visit relatives, Thomas Muir was handed a telegram announcing his brother's sudden death.

Within three hours he and his mother were rushing East again, she not knowing that the injured boy had passed away. A conductor on the C., R. I., and P. road telegraphed to De Moines requesting that the Wabash express be held until his train reached that point explaining the circumstances. Fifteen minutes after its regular time of leaving, the Wabash express pulled out of DeMoines with Mrs. Muir and her son, Thomas, aboard. Not until they reached this city, did the son tell his mother the sad news. She broke down completely.

Rev. L. R. Howard officiates at the services held at Hope chapel this afternoon. Interment will be made at Hillside.

MISS FREDERICKSON NOW MRS. ASSENFELTER

DAUGHTER OF SERGEANT CHRISTIAN FREDERICKSON A BRIDE.

Notwithstanding last night's gusty rainstorm, the Netherwood home of Christian Frederickson was bright with a profusion of flowers and shaded lights amidst which the brilliant costumes of the guests who were gathered to attend the wedding of Miss Christina Fredericka Frederickson and Walter Assenfelter. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. W. C. Snodgrass, pastor of the First M. E. church. Miss Emma Lewald, of Netherwood, was bridesmaid.

After a wedding tour through Canada, in the course of which a visit will be made at the home of the groom's sister in Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. Assenfelter will make their home at Dunellen.

Mr. Assenfelter is a train baggagemaster on the Jersey Central and has been residing at Dunellen for some time.

G. O. P. HEADQUARTERS.

Rooms in the Babcock Building Chosen and Campaign Arrangements Completed.

The committee appointed to select Republican headquarters in this city for the fall campaign, has decided upon rooms in the Babcock building and has rented two large front offices on the second floor. By the first of the week, the headquarters will be equipped and ready for service during the entire campaign. Arrangements have been made to hold the Republican city convention there. The committee will place a campaign transparency before one of the front windows.

George Ball Withdraws.

In the interests of harmony, George Ball, of Fanwood township, has decided to withdraw from the race for a Republican Assembly nomination. A host of political friends in this section of the county and particularly in Plainfield will regret his decision, but Mr. Ball declares that as his supporters would have to carry the fight to the convention floor he prefers to sink his own ambition in order that the present harmonious condition in Union may continue during the present important campaign.

Athletes Choose Officers.

The Athletic Association, of the North Plainfield High School, elected these officers yesterday: President, Clarence Hand; vice president, Otto Mueck; secretary, Leo Kenney; treasurer, Carl Steiner; manager basketball team, M. K. W. Heicher. The officers and Mr. Hiecher will at once draft a new constitution. The basket ball team will begin practice at the Y. M. C. A. October 1.

Inspected Proposed Trolley Line.

Mr. Pack, of Jersey City, superintendent of construction of new work for the Public Service Corporation, accompanied by H. C. VanEmburgh, of this city, made a tour of inspection of the proposed trolley line between this city and Metuchen today.

FAILED TO RECOGNIZE NEGRO AS HER ASSAILANT

MISS DAVIS HAD MAN ARRESTED, BUT HE WAS RELEASED.

Miss Annie Davis, who was robbed on West Seventh street last Saturday evening while on her way home, by a negro, notified the police yesterday that she thought she recognized one of the employes of the Truell Inn, on Park avenue, as the assailant.

A policeman was detailed by Chief Kiely to meet Miss Davis on the street not far from the Inn and after a short time the man seen by Miss Davis yesterday, came along and was placed under arrest pending an investigation. He was perfectly willing to submit his person and rooms to a search, which failed to bring to light the stolen articles and further claimed that he could prove an absolute alibi, which he did to the full satisfaction of the authorities. As a result the man was immediately released and the investigations of the police are being directed in another channel.

ASSEMBLY CHAMBER HANDSOMELY DECORATED

STATE HOUSE COMMISSION AWARDS CONTRACTS FOR THE WORK.

The New Jersey State House Commission has awarded the contract for the painting and decorating of the Assembly chamber and Assembly committee rooms to J. D. Margerum, of Trenton. The contract price for the work is about $3,700. The painting and decorating is to be commenced immediately.

The walls and ceilings of the Assembly chamber and committee rooms are to be painted in rich leather tones with gold ornamentation, making a very pretty effect.

The corridors leading to the Assembly chamber are to be painted to match those recently painted in the other parts of the State House.

The State House Commission approved of the changes being made in the State library. In addition to these changes there will be new glass put in the ceiling lights, in order to give more light to the place. Cathedral glass of light tones will be used.

The dome of the Capitol is to be gilded. The contract will be given out later.

SCHOOLS CROWDED.

Special Arrangements Necessitated by Unusual Enrollment in the City Schools.

With the abatement of the confusion attendant upon the opening of the city schools, it now becomes evident that the new enrollments exceed any of previous years. At the High School, conditions have become so crowded as to necessitate two sessions for some of the pupils, while at the Irving School fifty new pupils are entered.

The Bryant and Washington schools are also crowded, but arrangements have been made for the accommodation of all pupils.

Van Blocked Trolley.

A large furniture van belonging to the Englander Transportation Van Company, of New York, was stalled at the Clinton avenue trolley switch from 10:45 to 12 o'clock last night, blocking trolley traffic during those hours. Finally with the assistance of trolley employes the van was moved to one side of the road.

Livery Concern Change.

Dr. Lewis S. Pocock has sold his share in the livery business of the firm of Pocock & Co. to his partner, Harry B. McDonald, who will continue the business. Dr. Pocock is arranging for a pleasure trip to Ohio, after which he will devote himself to his veterinary practice.

At Firemen's Convention.

John Cose, Wm. H. Addis and Wm. T. Newman, delegates from the Plainfield Exempt Firemen's Association, and Jerry Foss, Frank Schuck and Edward Terry, of the North Plainfield Fire Department, are attending the annual State convention of the Firemen's Relief Association being held at Atlantic City.

Educational Board's Sale.

The house and barn standing on the rear of the school property, corner of Somerset street and Park place, will be sold Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock to the highest bidder. Further information can be obtained from Dr. J. H. Cooley, chairman of committee from the Board of Education.

NAME BLACK FOR GOVERNOR

Democratic State Convention Convened at Trenton at Noon to Take That Action.

CHUNKS OF HARMONY

J. R. Hardin, of Newark, Temporary Chairman—Change in Choosing the State Committeemen.

Charles G. Black, of Jersey City, member of the State Board of Taxation and the equal taxation commission, will be nominated for Governor by the Democratic State convention which convened in the State street theatre at Trenton today at noon and he will make the run on a platform that will declare unequivocally for equal taxation.

John R. Hardin, of Newark, is temporary chairman of the convention and William K. Devereux secretary. The temporary secretaries are John P. Dullard, of Mercer; John H. Mattson, of Somerset; Ralph Sayers, of Bergen; John O'Rourke, of Passaic; Edward Grosscup, of Gloucester and John J. Matthews, of Hunterdon.

The Plainfield delegates are Walter L. Hetfield, Sr., Clarence E. Teel, J. V. F. Dilts, J. E. Martine, H. W. Marshall, I. G. Hulburt, Elmore D. Moffett and Charles Yaeger. The North Plainfield delegate is Alonzo D. Townley. David J. Carney, the North Plainfield leader, arrived last night.

The nomination has been drifting towards Black for months and became certainty after the meeting of the State committee last night at the Trenton House.

Democratic delegates from all sections of the State began gathering at the Trenton House yesterday afternoon, and by early last evening hundreds of the party workers who today will name the candidate for Governor of New Jersey had assembled at the hostelry. In many respects this pre-convention gathering of Democrats was remarkable. In the first place, it was unusually large, several county delegations having their entire membership there.

There is a spirit of enthusiasm and certainty of victory on State issues that augured well for a successful outcome of the contest. One of the most pleasing features of the gathering was the very general desire, as expressed by the delegates, to put party success above personal adhesion to any particular candidate.

State Chairman Gourley has announced that the committee has decided to recommend to the convention that a change be made in the method of choosing the members of the committee, by which they will be selected in each presidential year at the convention held in the spring to choose delegates to the National convention. This will enable the new committee to get together and organize before the opening of the campaign in the fall. In the opinion of the State leaders this will be much better than the present method, and the new committee organized at the State convention in September when the campaign is well under way.

Former Senator Smith, when pressed for a statement in regard to the man likely to be named for Governor, he said pointedly: "I have no personal choice in the matter but with Hudson so strongly Democratic I deem it wise to accede to the desires of the party here."

No Independent Ticket.

The independent ticket in the Fourth ward, spoken of a few weeks ago, did not materialize on Tuesday at the primaries. This ticket was supposed to be put in the field by the friends of temperance in that ward, principally those who interested themselves in the fight last year against the saloons there. Mansfield Smith was picked as a candidate for the Common Council.

Primary a Farce.

In New Providence township, Union County, not a single vote was cast at the primaries on Tuesday. The only candidate for nomination was William Lutz, Republican, who wanted to attend the Congressional convention, but no ballot was put in the box for him.

—Both & Co. will be closed all day Monday, September 19, on account of holiday. 9 14 4

POINTS FOR THE BUYERS

Special bargains in this department to make room for the fall styles. You can get in this part of the store until 9 in the evening any night.

A World's Wonder.

We often hear of the seven wonders, though in these times there are perhaps one hundred times that number, and perhaps the most popular wonder region in this vicinity is Mauch Chunk. Mauch Chunk is high up in the Pennsylvania mountains, and the several peaks have wide outlooks in every direction. A main attraction is the Switchback Railroad, the road forms an eighteen mile loop over and around the mountains, and is a very novel engineering feat. The first incline extends up Mount Pisgah to a height of 1870 feet above tide water. The car then bowls along a decline for several miles only to reach the base of another mountain which is climbed to a height of 1580 feet above tide water. The descent to the home stretch lies through a beautiful valley, and when the journey is finished the tourist is rather anxious for a renewal of the experience. On September 18, 1904, the New Jersey Central is to run a popular priced excursion to Mauch Chunk, the rate for the round trip to be $1.50. Special train leaves Plainfield at 9:20 a. m., arriving at Mauch Chunk early in the day, and as the return trip does not leave the Mountain City until 5:40 p. m., there is plenty of time for exploring the charms of Mauch Chunk.

STRAIN TOO GREAT.

Hundreds of Plainfield Readers Find It So.

The hustle and worry of business men,
The hard work and stooping of workmen.
The woman's household cares.
Are too great a strain on the kidneys.
Backache, headache, sideache.
Kidney troubles follow.

A Plainfield citizen tells you how to cure them all.

C. H. Lippencott, of 39 Chatham street, says: "I was a victim of kidney complaint and dreadful backache as bad in damp weather or when I caught a cold, that I could not get about. I was in the hardware business at this time and the heavy lifting and being on my feet so much greatly aggravated the trouble. I was at my worst when I concluded to try Doan's Kidney Pills and I got them at L. W. Randolph's drug store. It only required a few doses to convince me that I had the right remedy. My backache disappeared before I had finished the first box."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name Doan's and take no substitute.

BOOK NEWS.

It is planned to issue on Thursday of each week items of library news. This will frequently take the form of book lists, such as lists of books recently added, lists on special subjects and like topics. Frequently the lists will be annotated, the aim being to make these annotations of real service to the reader, by giving him the opinion of a trustworthy critic as to the value of the books or a few words as to their scope. Borrowers should keep these lists. The Plainfield Public Library will furnish to anyone making application a list of its books on a given subject.

PARKER IN NEW YORK

Judge Leaves Esopus on John B. McDonald's Yacht.

MUCH SECRECY ABOUT THE TRIP

No Notice of It Given Until the Arrival of the Sapphire—Important Conferences to Be Held at Astor Hotel.

ESOPUS, N. Y., Sept. 15.—Judge Parker started for New York at 9:00 o'clock on board the yacht Sapphire, which is owned by John B. McDonald of New York. With him were Jas. McDonald and Arthur McManus, the judge's private secretary. The party planned to reach New York at 7:00 P. M. and to anchor the yacht off the foot of West Eighty-sixth street. Judge Parker has engaged apartments for himself and secretary at the new Hotel Astor.

In order not to be disturbed Judge Parker did not make known any of his plans for the trip until the Sapphire arrived at Rosemount at 5:30 p. m.

At his apartments at the Hotel Astor Judge Parker expects to meet a large number of political friends.

No plans have been made for him to visit Democratic headquarters, nor have arrangements been made for a reception of any character whatever. While Judge Parker was packing up for his trip, Smith M. Weed of Plattsburg, N. Y., arrived at Rosemount to confer with the candidate. He was taken on board the Sapphire and put ashore at Poughkeepsie. His visit here is thought to mean the cementing of factions in Clinton county, N. Y.

REPUBLICANS CELEBRATE.

Semicentennial of Party's Birth Observed at Saratoga.

SARATOGA, N. Y., Sept. 15.—Rain which fell in torrents did not prevent a good attendance at the Republican party's semicentennial. The desire to see and hear such well known men as Senators Charles W. Fairbanks and Chauncey M. Depew attracted enough people to fill nearly all the seats on the floor of the convention hall, with a fair sprinkling in the gallery. The two senators sat at the front of the platform with the presiding officer, and both were loudly cheered when they came in.

The celebration was brought about by a committee composed of surviving delegates to the first regular Republican state convention issued from Albany, and arrangements for the celebration originated with William Barnes, Sr., of that city. Occupying seats on the platform were 125 white haired veterans who voted for John C. Fremont.

William Barnes, Sr., opened the meeting. Frederick W. Seward, son of the famous war secretary of state, William H. Seward, presided. Besides Senators Depew and Fairbanks, among the speakers were Murat Halstad, secretary of the first Republican national convention, and Lieutenant John C. Fremont, son of the first Republican candidate for president.

SARATOGA CONVENTION.

State Senator George R. Malby Elected Permanent Chairman.

SARATOGA, N. Y., Sept. 15.—When the Republican state convention reconvened permanent organization was effected by the election of State Senator George R. Malby as permanent chairman.

Mr. Malby's address was chiefly devoted to state issues. He discussed at length the progress of the state—in population and industrially and financially. Quoting figures, he affirmed that the Republican administrations of the past ten years had greatly improved the management of the state charitable institutions, had advanced the cause of good roads and of agriculture as had no previous state government. He pointed to the practical abolition of the direct state tax and warmly eulogized Governor Odell.

At the conclusion of Mr. Malby's remarks the credentials committee reported. Their report was adopted, and the platform was called for.

Complete Returns From Maine.

PORTLAND, Me., Sept. 15.—Complete returns of the vote for governor in Monday's election show a Republican plurality of 27,130 against 33,384 in 1900. Cobb (Rep.) for governor received 78,460, Davis (Dem.) 51,330. The vote in 1900 was: Hill (Rep.), 73,470; Lord (Dem.), 40,086. The figures for 1904 show a Republican gain of 4,990 over four years ago and a Democratic gain of 11,244, or a net Democratic gain of 6,254.

Fairbanks to Invade Davis' State.

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—Senator Fairbanks and Senator Scott of West Virginia will leave Washington tomorrow morning on a private car to make a campaigning trip through West Virginia. Both senators will make about a dozen speeches each through the state, the first one to be at Wheeling, which will open the Republican campaign in that state.

Republicans Nominate Peabody.

DENVER, Colo., Sept. 15.—The Republican state convention renominated Governor James H. Peabody by acclamation. Senator Newell withdrawing from the contest.

Diplomatic Reception at Panama.

PANAMA, Sept. 15.—The first diplomatic reception in honor of President Amador and his wife was given last night at the American legation. Many prominent Panamans and Americans and other foreigners attended the reception.

KUROPATKIN'S STORY

Russian General Reports to Czar on Liaoyang Battle.

GENERAL ORLOFF'S DEFEAT FATAL.

His Failure to Hold Sykwantun Forced Entire Army's Retreat. Guns and Baggage Successfully Removed.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 15.—Under the date of Sept. 11 General Kuropatkin reports to the emperor as follows:

"It is now possible, from the details of the battles since Aug. 26, in which various army corps participated, to furnish your majesty the following report of operations:

"On Aug. 26 the Manchurian army occupied three groups of positions, the first at Pettsu and Anping on the left flank; the second at Liandiansan in the center, and the third at Anshanshan on the right flank. The same day the Japanese assumed the offensive along the whole front. At Liandiansan all their attacks were repulsed, and on the left we retained our principal position at Anping. After a desperate battle the Japanese, however, succeeded in securing the position at Pettsu, thus threatening the line of retreat of the corps along the Tan river. Simultaneously a turning movement by considerable forces of Japanese was observed on the left flank of our position at Anshanshan.

"Taking advantage of our positions at Liandiansan and Anping in order to gain time and inflict severe losses on the enemy, I withdrew all the army corps from advanced positions to Liaoyang.

"In consequence of the mountainous nature of the country on our front and the bad condition of the roads toward the south, the two days' march toward Liaoyang was of the most difficult kind, and only the devotion of all the troops on the east front enabled it to be carried out in good order. Only after incredible difficulties was it found possible to drag all the guns without exception and all our baggage through the passes. Some of the guns were carried through the mountains by infantry. Difficult as was the retreat through the passes, under pressure from the enemy, the march across the open country was still more arduous. The left and center columns succeeded in getting all their artillery and baggage to Liaoyang.

"The march of the right column, which was obliged to cross westward to the railway, where the country had suffered most severely from rains, was especially difficult. Considerable forces of the enemy followed the rear guard, which maintained a stubborn resistance. The guns of one of the retiring batteries began to sink in the mud. Every effort was made to save them. Twenty-four horses were hitched to each piece, companies of infantry assisting with ropes. The horses and men, however, sank so deep that it was necessary for the comrades of the latter to haul them out. General Rutkovsky remained so long covering the extrication of the guns that his force lost heavily, and the general himself and Colonel Raben, commanding the Fourth regiment of east Siberian sharpshooters, were killed. Notwithstanding all efforts it was finally necessary to abandon the guns.

"On Aug. 29 the army concentrated at Liaoyang. One corps took a position on the right bank of the Taitse river, while another held the left bank.

"On Aug. 30 and 31 the Japanese attacked our advance positions with great energy, but everywhere were repulsed with enormous losses. There was desperate fighting on our left flank and center, accompanied by a number of counter attacks, resulting in bayonet fighting, and I was compelled to reenforce the fighting line with the special reserves and the general reserves.

"During Aug. 31 it could clearly be seen that a considerable force of General Kuroki's army had crossed to the right bank of the Taitse river. Owing to attacks on our left on Aug. 30 and 31 it was to be supposed that the main body of Kuroki's army had been told off to turn the left flank of our position and attack our line of communication. In consequence I resolved to withdraw the advance troops to the main position and concentrate a large force against Kuroki and attempt to hurl his army back upon the Taitse river. Only at certain points was this carried out successfully.

"At nightfall, undisturbed by the Japanese, we commenced the evacuation of our advanced positions, which already had rendered great service in weakening the enemy by enormous losses. Thanks to the sufficient number of bridges and the manner in which the roads leading to them had been laid out, all the troops destined to take the offensive were safely on the right bank of the river on the morning of Sept. 1. The enemy did not occupy our abandoned advance positions until the evening of Sept. 1, when they opened an artillery fire upon Liaoyang. No trophies of war fell into the hands of the enemy.

"I adopted the following plan of operations: Having crossed to the right bank of the river, the army had taken up a position between the village of Sykwantun and heights near the Yental mines, which it was intended to occupy with all our detachments, composed of thirteen battalions. Taking the position near Sykwantun as a pivot, it was intended that the army effect a movement to flank the Japanese positions, which extended from the Taitse river near the village of Kwantun toward the Yental collieries. Offensive operations began when all the troops had taken up their allotted positions.

"The night of Sept. 1 the commander of the corps on the right flank sent a dispatch stating that the Japanese having taken the offensive and occupied the district northwestward of our Sykwantun position, which was of great importance to us, the Russian regiment holding the district was forced to retire, and I was obliged to change my plans in order to retake the lost ground the following day. It was not until the evening of Sept. 2 that the entire mountain village of Sykwantun was in our hands.

"At first our attacks did not succeed but the fighting was continued with unabated vigor even after darkness had set in. We repeatedly gained possession of the heights, but were finally compelled to withdraw temporarily. Many of our detachments became mixed up, and in the disorder unity of command was rendered very difficult. Leaders of individual detachments, however, continued the attacks time after time and at last succeeded in occupying the desired position, thereby attaining the object of the operations of our right flank. As soon as the left flank in the vicinity of the Yental mines on Sept. 2 (Orloff's detachment) occupied the heights to the north of the mines, holding a strong position facing south, he opened fire with two batteries and engaged the enemy in an artillery duel. Orloff's right flank was then four miles from the left flank and the remainder of the army. In order to aid our troops holding positions near Sykwantun Orloff sent part of his force from the hills and attacked the enemy in the direction of the village of Sakhumoon. This movement was carried out in cornfields. Our men met with a frontal and a flank fire and, losing their bearings in the cornfields, began to retire. The troops remaining in the hills also retired westward.

"By that time Orloff's detachment was within a mile and a third of our other forces. Orloff himself was wounded, as also was General Fomin, who subsequently died.

"After the evacuation of the position which had been intended to serve as a basis for our attack the Japanese extended northward and occupied the whole range of hills and the Yental mines. Samsonoff's sotnia of Cossacks dismounted and defended our positions with the utmost courage, but were gradually driven back.

"The enemy was now established in an extremely strong position on the hills, and it would have been too hazardous for our left flank to attack them in view of the losses sustained in the previous five days. We therefore withdrew to the village of Tallenko, and I decided to retire to Mukden, the retreat being accomplished on Sept. 7. The evacuation of Liaoyang began and was concluded the morning of Sept. 4. All our equipment was removed, but there was no time to save the commissariat reserves, which were sufficient to last the whole army eight days. These were all destroyed. The pontoon bridges were dismantled and carried off by the troops, while temporary pontoons were burned and the railway bridge wrecked. The army retired in perfect order. The enemy attempted to pursue, but were repulsed.

"Precautions were taken on Sept. 3 and 4 to prevent a turning movement from the east. The Japanese to the southward took no vigorous initiative, but General Kuroki assumed the offensive to the eastward. Our detachments holding positions at Tallenko sustained a furious night attack, which was particularly desperate on Sept. 5. We retained our position, but suffered heavy losses, one regiment, which bore the brunt of the fight, losing 500 in killed or wounded.

"By evening of Sept. 5 the danger of a simultaneous attack on our front and left flank had disappeared. The removal of our artillery, transport and baggage trains was effected in the face of immense difficulties, but was successfully concluded. Our retirement on Mukden on Sept. 7 was covered by a strong rear guard of cavalry.

"We abandoned nothing from Aug. 30 up to the time of our arrival at Mukden. Our engineers worked with the greatest devotion. Throughout all the fighting they rendered invaluable service in making and repairing roads and assisting in the railway traffic."

Didn't Find the Conemaugh.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—The navy department is informed that the cruiser Tacoma, commanded by Commander R. F. Nicholson, has arrived at Rio de Janeiro, having cruised from San Francisco down the west coast of South America and around to the Brazilian port in search of the missing merchantman Conemaugh, which has not been heard from since her departure from a Chilean port several months ago. The Tacoma failed to find any trace of the missing steamer and has practically abandoned the search.

Interparliamentary Union Adjourns.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 15.—Brussels was formally selected as the next meeting place of the interparliamentary conference, and the date was left to the executive council. The conference then adjourned sine die. The members of the union continued their tour of the country as guests of the nation. Kansas City will be visited first.

RESULTS AT BRIGHTON.

Duryea Entries First and Second In Produce Stakes.

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—The H. B. Duryea entry, Princess Rupert and Rose of Dawn, ran first and second at Brighton Beach in the second half of the $15,000 Produce stakes, that for two-year-old fillies. They were coupled in betting and held at 2 to 9. The stable declared to win with Princess Rupert, and Rose of Dawn was under a pull all the way. Seven fillies started in this race, and at the lifting of the barrier Princess Rupert went to the front followed by her stablemate, Rose of Dawn. The entry ran first and second all the way, Princess Rupert winning easily by a length. Rose of Dawn was a length in front of Raiment. Summaries of results:

First Race—The Lady Rohesit, 7 to 5, first; Cascine, 8 to 1, second; Bob Murphy, 8 to 1, third. Time, 1:13 2-5.

Second Race—Paulaker, first; East Kelston, second; Numeral, third. Time, 4:40.

Third Race—Little Em, 5 to 1, first; Jane Holly, 10 to 1, second; Garnish, 7 to 1, third. Time, 1:47 2-5.

Fourth Race—Princess Rupert, 2 to 9, first; Rose of Dawn, 2 to 9, second; Raiment, 12 to 1, third. Time, 1:15.

Fifth Race—Sonoma Belle, 4 to 1, first; Cincinnatus, 4 to 1, second; Councilman, 4 to 5, third. Time, 1:54 2-5.

Sixth Race—Sir Brillar, 8 to 5, first; Santa Catalina, 9 to 2, second; Saulsberry, 20 to 1, third. Time, 1:08.

New York Wins Again at Creedmoor.

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—New York riflemen carried off first honors again in a military target competition at the Creedmoor range. Six of the Empire State's Seventy-first regiment of citizen soldiery won the $300 trophy, presented by E. A. Cruikshank, and $75 in cash, constituting the leading prize in the Cruikshank trophy match. The winning score was 567 out of a possible 630. The team representing the First regiment, national guard, of the state of New Jersey, finished a close second with 563. The second prize was $50. The third prize, $25, was captured by the Seventh regiment of New York. Two teams from the United States marine corps engaged in the contest and made good scores.

Favorites Win at Highland Park.

DETROIT, Mich., Sept. 15.—Favorites again took the greatest share of the spoils at Highland park, four of the seven first choices getting home in front. The all age race of seven furlongs and the steeplechase, which were the features of the programme, were won by Aden and Trenct the Mere respectively. Both were the top weights of their fields. Trenct the Mere carried 16 pounds and romped away from a field of good jumpers. The big surprise of the day was Watchguard, winner of the second race, for which he was a 15 to 1 chance. Track muddy; weather clear and cold.

Harness Racing at Plattsburg.

PLATTSBURG, N. Y., Sept. 15.—The light harness races at the Clinton county fair here were unusually interesting. In the 2:29 pacing race Frank Wicker of Ticonderoga, N. Y., was suspended by the judges after the second heat for pulling Carmine, a bay mare owned by ex-Congressman Wallace T. Foote, Jr., of Port Henry, N. Y. Thomas H. Moon of this city was substituted as driver. Carmine then won the race handily, taking the three next heats. The judges awarded Moon $125 for his work and suspended Wicker for the season.

Fatal Accident at Hawthorne.

CHICAGO, Sept. 15.—In the steeplechase handicap at Hawthorne Galba, which was coupled in the betting with Schwarzwald, fell at the ninth jump, broke his leg and was put to death a few moments later. Jockey McHugh, who rode Galba, was pinned under the horse when he fell, but escaped serious injury.

TO DESTROY THE LENA

Japanese Cruisers Said to Lurk In the Pacific.

SO KUROKI'S KINSMAN ASSERTS.

Count Osichi, Now In St. Paul, Also Declares That Russian Vessel Was Injured In Sea Fight Off Vladivostok.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Sept. 15.—Count Yama Osichi, a young Japanese nobleman, accompanied by an extensive suit, has passed through St. Paul en route to Seattle. Count Osichi is a distant relative of General Kuroki. In speaking of the Lena incident in San Francisco he said:

"I heard two weeks ago when in Washington that the Lena was watching for vessels bound to Japan from Puget sound, and I also heard that two light cruisers of my country had been detailed to take the ship. They followed the Lena when she broke away from the Vladivostok squadron, and the facts that will come out when the officers of the Lena make official reports to their government will show that somewhere in the vicinity of Redfield reef, hundreds of miles west of Cape Flattery, there was another action that has not been heard of so far.

"The Lena is badly damaged, I understand, but the ship is being so carefully protected from investigation by her marines and the United States government that the nature of the injuries cannot positively be determined. I am certain that the injuries are the result of gun shots and that the gunshots were inflicted by our little cruisers.

"Somewhere off to the westward of the Farallone islands I am confident there are two Japanese cruisers patrolling the coast, watching for the attempt of the big Russian to come out. The captains of the ships know that the United States government will not allow the Lena to remain longer than is absolutely necessary to complete her repairs, and when she leaves the Golden Gate there will be a sea death for her."

ENGLAND TAKES A HAND.

Flagship Grafton Ordered to Watch the Russian Cruiser Lena.

VICTORIA, B. C., Sept. 15.—H. M. S. Grafton, flagship of the Pacific squadron, which left here some days ago to get her annual heavy gun practice at Comox, returned unexpectedly to Esquimalt early Tuesday, making the trip from Comox to her Esquimalt moorings under forced draft and in record time. She is now in Esquimalt harbor making ready for sea and will not finish her gun practice at present.

The cause of the Grafton's return from the trip to Comox is connected with the sudden appearance of the Russian armed auxiliary cruiser Lena at San Francisco. It is understood the Grafton is under cabled orders from the British admiralty to protect British shipping on the American side of the Pacific at all costs. It depends upon the decision of the United States government regarding the Lena whether the Grafton will proceed south to watch and if any British merchantmen be molested capture and sink her.

Should the American government's decision be an order to the Lena to quit San Francisco harbor within twenty-four hours it is expected the Grafton will leave Esquimalt harbor at her best speed with the object of intercepting the Russian vessel off the California coast.

A significant circumstance connected with the Grafton's sudden and unexpected appearance at Esquimalt is that all shore leave has been indefinitely suspended.

The Lena Inspected Again.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 15.—Another and more thorough inspection of the Russian cruiser Lena was made by naval engineers in order to furnish the state and navy departments with more complete data concerning her boilers and seaworthiness. In the event that the Lena is dismantled she probably will be laid up at the Mare Island navy yard. Rear Admiral Goodrich has been directed by the navy department to offer the navy yard to Captain Berlinsky for that purpose.

Health Inspector Sent to Ithaca.

ITHACA, N. Y., Sept. 15.—In response to an appeal from Health Officer Crum for assistance in preventing an epidemic of rabies here, the state department of agriculture notified him that Dr. S. H. Bennett of Brooklyn has been appointd special inspector for Ithaca with power to use stringent means for handling the situation. He arrived last night and with the assistance of Dr. Crum and city officials immediately began an investigation. It is feared that several who have been bitten by dogs may develop hydrophobia.

Marshall Field Not Ill.

PARIS, Sept. 15.—Marshall Field of Chicago, who, according to a report published in the United States by a news agency, has been seriously ill in this city, was seen in his apartments at the Hotel Bristol. He laughed at the report of his illness and said that he took a slight cold a few days ago and, feeling indisposed, decided to remain indoors owing to the rainy weather. Mr. Field said that he felt so much better that he expected to leave for London on Friday of this week.

Prince Bismarck's Condition Critical.

FRIEDRICHSHUHE, Sept. 15.—The extreme weakness of Prince Bismarck is causing the greatest anxiety even among those who do not accept the cancer diagnosis and who on that ground held out hope of the patient's recovery.

Plainfield, N. J., Sept. 15, 1904.

Odell's slate will be broken if Platt plays "rough house" in the present campaign.

Good advertising is usually the result of good judgment. Very few successes result from the following of set rules. All rules have exceptions and the experience of advertisers go to show that advertising rules have a great many more exceptions than have rules in other lines of business.—Ex.

Not in years has there been such a storm as visited this city last night and early this morning. Much damage was done to the electric light, telephone and telegraph systems and many fine trees along the thoroughfares were blown down, but the greatest injury was done to the streets, for which Plainfield is noted.

For the convenience of the public, The Daily Press has arranged with leading merchants in this city and surrounding towns to receive want advertisements for this paper. Regular office rates will be charged and the same prompt attention will be given as at this office. Branch offices for the reception of such advertising are given in this column. The Daily Press has long enjoyed the reputation of giving the most satisfactory results from this class of advertising. Ask your neighbor what paper is the best for "want ads."

Some may consider it funny but it is quite the reverse when you think soberly how few people really know the lines of our patriotic songs. At a recent meeting of a local political club, the members of the organization began to sing "America" but when the first stanza was finished there was a pause. No one seemed to know the words of the second stanza. It is safe to say that the majority of those present could recite the lines of the latest popular airs, but when it came to repeating the words of that grandly majestic and inspiring National song, they were all at sea.

Piano Instruction.

The Misses Anna O. and Minnie F. Marsh, of Madison avenue, resumed piano instruction today. They have heretofore been very successful with their pupils and there is every indication of large classes for the coming year.

Second Year at Cedarcroft.

The Cedarcroft School for boys, located at 1008 Park avenue, was opened today by the principal, R. M. Huse, for the fall and winter. This is Mr. Huse's second year and his excellent work with boys has resulted in a large enrollment for this year, many out-of-town boys being included.

IN THE CHRISTIAN FIELD

WORK IN THE CHURCHES OF THE CITY AND BOROUGH.

Joe Alberts plays with the P. A. C. team Saturday afternoon against the West Ends, of Somerville, in the game at Crescent Oval.

Miss Ruby Keibe and Miss Marion West, who have been members of a camping party in the Catskill Mountains, have returned home.

The case of Lambert-Northeastern Telephone and Telegraph Company, which was adjourned in Judge Clark's court Saturday of last week, will be heard tomorrow.

The Twilight F. C. has closed its schedule of games for the season. Owing to the team organizing so late in the season, Manager Jahn found it hard to complete a schedule of games with good clubs owing to their dates being filled.

The heaviest downpour of rain in years fell during the heavy showers of yesterday afternoon and last night. Sidewalks were flooded and in many places badly washed out, low spots of the roadbed were under water in some places several feet. During the night the heavy winds played havoc with the handsome shade trees, breaking limbs like pipe stems. Much damage was done to late garden vegetables, gardens in some places being entirely submerged. For the first time since the floods of ten or twelve years ago, Green brook at Hollingsworth's mill overflowed its banks and crossed Park avenue, blocking it completely.

SOUTH PLAINFIELD.

Mrs. Calkins is entertaining her niece from New York.

W. J Harris and family have removed from here to Metuchen.

At the Republican primary meeting held Tuesday evening, William Fitz Randolph was elected a delegate to the State political convention; William E. Bryan to the State convention; Thomas Quinn and Dewitt Giles, to the Congressional; to the county convention, A. G. Nelson, Joseph Fields.

The Willard Dramatic Club, assisted by local talent, will render a farce comedy entitled "Hector," in Washington Hall tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock, under the auspices of the P. O. of A., introducing musical specialities, illustrated songs, Cuban and patriotic drills, and tableaux, anvil chorus and electrical hammers, etc. Master Harold Willard, seven years of age, will sing. The hall will be lighted by electricity for the first time.

M'CREADY SYKES' LATEST FUNNY VERSES

HIS LINES IN "LIFE" ON "THE SUPPORT OF THE SUN."

McCready Sykes, of Scotch Plains, is the author of some clever verses which appeared in the last number of "Life" and which have attracted much favorable notice. Mr. Sykes' reputation as a writer of humorous stanzas is well known to Plainfielders who read that weekly comic magazine. In this instance he pokes fun at The Sun, which recently announced editorially that it would support Mr. Roosevelt in the present campaign. These are the lines composed by the Scotch Plains man:

The President sat in his easy chair,
And read the papers from far and near,
While the faithful Loeb, to make glad his heart,
Said, "All the reports bring much good cheer.
The Oshkosh World has swung around;
The Red Gulch Times says the fight is won;
Thus, Sire—Oh horrors! Ye Gods! What's this?
You have the support of the New York Sun!"

The President started; his face grew pale;
"Guns! If you love me, say not so!
Shades of Addicks and Jacob Riis!
What have I done to deserve this blow?
Is it for this I set Cuba free?
For this, ere the fight is half begun,
When all looks fair, I should thus be cursed
With the fatal support of the New York Sun?

"Pilloried thus before mankind,
Me, with Tweed, and Ben Butler, too?
Old Dick Connolly, David Hill?
Sweeny, and all of the motley crew?
Never a God-forsaken knave—
Never a rogue of the baser sort—
Never an evil public cause—
That the New York Sun would not support.

"Poor old Sun! Why, the sorry sheet!
Free Silver, Greenback, this or that;
Every rag-tag and bobtail cause,
This week Tammany, next week Platt.
Up Salt River the ghostly crew
Look back on the losing race they've run,
And sign, 'Well, we might have had a show
But for the support of the New York Sun.'"

The strenuous teeth no longer shine;
Pallid and shrunk is the martial brow:
Chill are the winds of Oyster Bay;
Forgotten and idle the Big Stick now.
Riis comes and goes, but he brings no cheer;
The Curse has fallen; the evil's done;
All joy is fled since that fatal day
That announced the support of the New York Sun. —M'Cready Sykes.

NICHOLAS I. OF RUSSIA.

"A Great Man Scared Out of Greatness" by the Specter of the French Revolution.

In reviewing this first of my sojourns in Russia, my thoughts naturally dwell upon the two sovereigns—Nicholas I. and Alexander II. The first of these was a great man scared out of greatness by the ever-recurring specter of the French revolution, writes Andrew D. White, in "Russia in War Time" in Century. There had been much to make him stern and reactionary. He could not but remember that two czars, his father and grandfather, had both been murdered in obedience to family necessities. At his proclamation as emperor he had been welcomed by a revolt which had forced him

"To wade through slaughter to a throne"—a revolt which had deluged the great parade ground of St. Petersburg with the blood of his best soldiers, which had sent many of the nobility to Siberia, and which had obliged him to see the bodies of several men who might have made his reign illustrious dangling from the fortress walls opposite the winter palace. He had been obliged to grapple with a fearful insurrection at Poland, caused partly by the brutality of his satraps, but mainly by religious hatreds, to suppress it with enormous carnage, and to substitute a cruel despotism for the moderate constitutional liberty which his brother had granted. He had thus become the fanatical apostle of reaction throughout Europe, and as such was everywhere the implacable enemy of any evolution of liberty. The despots of Europe adored him. As symbols of his ideals he had given to the king of Prussia and to the Neapolitan Bourbon copies of two of the statues which adorned his Nevsky bridge—statues representing restive horses restrained by strong men; and the Berlin populace, with unerring instinct, had given to one of these the name of "Progress Checked" and to the other the name "Retrogression Encouraged." To this day one sees everywhere in the palaces of continental rulers, whether great or petty, his columns of Siberian porphyry, bowls of jasper or vases of malachite—signs of his approval of reaction. But, in justice to him, it should be said that there was one crime he did not commit—a crime, indeed, which he did not dare commit; he did not violate his oath to maintain the liberties of Finland. That was reserved for the second Nicholas, now on the Russian throne.

Whether at the great assemblages of the winter palace, or at the reviews, or simply driving in his sledge, or walking in the streets, he overawed all men by his presence; whenever I saw him, and never more cogently than during that last drive of his just before his death, there was forced to my lips the thought: "You are the most majestic being ever created." Colossal in stature, with a face such as one finds on a Greek coin, but overcast with a shadow of Muscovite melancholy, with a bearing dignified, but with a manner not unkind, he bore himself like a god. And yet no man could be more simple or affable, whether in his palace or in the street. Those were the days when a Russian czar could drive or walk alone in every part of every city in his empire. He frequently took his exercises in walking along the Neva quay, and enjoyed talking with any friends he met, especially with members of the diplomatic corps.

HIS WEDDING BOOTS.

THEY HAVE BROUGHT GOOD LUCK TO FARMER ARNOLD.

For Fifty-Two Years He Has Donned the Same Pair When Wooing Fortune and Has Always Won Out.

Janesville (Wis.) Special.

Wedding boots should be kept in the house to bring and keep good luck.

At any rate, this is the opinion of George N. Arnold, of Delavan Lake, who is still wearing the pair that he bought 52 years ago, and he says they are likely to last him the balance of his lifetime.

As to the good luck that surrounds the caring for and making use of the footgear, Mr. Arnold puts up his own experience in affirming the proposition, and this in itself is unique beyond degree.

No other pair of boots has a like record. Mr. Arnold lives only a short distance back from the shores of beautiful and popular Delavan lake, where the gay, fashionable people have brought from may states all kinds of boots, shoes, pumps and slippers. They came in calf, cow and kid skins. There are tans and patent leathers. There are outing shoes of duck and canvas, but there are none like the top boots owned and worn for more than a half century by this Walworth county farmer.

Talk about style in boots! The Delavan summer people think they have the newest wrinkle and toe, but Mr. Arnold holds up his pair of wedding boots and tells the crowd "they have gone out and come back in style six or eight times since I have owned them."

It was the work of the little god of love that caused Mr. Arnold to buy the boots. Away over in Cayuga county, N. Y., Mr. Arnold was working on a farm when he was invited by his friend, George Fox, to stand as his best man at his wedding. He was in need of a pair of boots, so he went to a shoemaker in Moravia and asked him to fit him out by a certain time. The cobbler said he had a pair that he had made for another man, but they didn't fit. He believed they would fit Mr. Arnold. He might have them for 50 cents less than the price if they would do. "And," says the Wisconsin pioneer, "I paid him three dollars and took them along."

ARNOLD'S WEDDING BOOTS.
(They Have Been Worn by Their Owner for 52 Years.)

That was in November, 1852. On March 19, 1854, Mr. Arnold wore the same boots on the happy occasion when he led to the altar Miss Philena Cranson. On September 12 of the same year he came to Wisconsin, landing at Janesville. On March 23, 1858, he and his bride took up their abode in the little frame house in which they are still living. It was his hands that felled the trees to get room for a house. The forest was dense, the roads were rocky, but the love that was sheltered in the little 14x28 cottage, as well as the wedding boots, is there yet.

Good fortune took up its abode and lingered continually with the pair who had hewn a home in the woods. Fields of the 238 acres were cleared, other buildings were put up, and some of the apple trees in the little orchard that were planted nearly a half century ago are still bearing delicious fruit. While love and the boots have lasted Mr. Arnold and his good wife have moved along laying up store until no one knows what they have safely invested for their old age. This little farm itself is worth $50,000, but the price of a whole acre wouldn't buy the boots.

A Chicago Tribune correspondent says it must not be inferred that the owner has not taken extra good care of his favorite footwear. He has always done that, oiling them up at intervals and removing anything of a deleterious character. He explains that he wasn't accustomed to plow up the virgin sod while wearing them, and when chasing over the hills for the cows he wore felts. But when he goes to town, or any time when he wants dame fortune to stand him well in hand, he takes hold of the old straps that have never once given away and pulls on his calfskins in which he has trodden the path of prosperity.

Mr. Arnold thinks it is a mistake for young people to throw away the belongings with which they commenced married life. However small the household there should be given place to the things that carry the mind away back and bring up pleasant memories, back as far, at least, as the time when Cupid set them going in a life of happiness.

Pneumatic Mail Collection.

Mail collectors in Berlin are not needed to gather the contents of the pillar boxes. These boxes are connected with the post office by pneumatic tubes. At stated intervals the machinery is set in motion, and in a few minutes the letters are whirled from each pillar box to the sorters' table in the post office.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

Prayer Meeting Topic For the Week Beginning Sept. 18.

Topic.—How the world is growing better.—Ps. xxxvii, 1-13; Eccl. vii, 10.

Is the world growing better? It is a sad fact that some men would answer this question in the negative. They are not capable of taking a broad view of life or have not sufficient knowledge to compare their age with past ages, and hence unwisely conclude that the former days are better than these. Every age has its evil as well as its good, and yet when we compare the ages and take a broad and comprehensive view of life we cannot but conclude that the world is growing better. Much of the glamour of antiquity is acknowledged to be false. "The days of good Queen Bess" were anything but halcyon; the merrie England of old time was full of disorder, distress and discomfort. In yearning again for the fleshpots of Egypt the Israelites forgot the bondage and misery which were the accompaniments of those sensual pleasures.

But if the world is growing better how is it growing better?

1. The world is growing better by the overthrow of evil. To those who want to see improvement in the world evil doers and their deeds have always been a source of perplexity. But God declares that we should not "fret ourselves because of evil doers, * * * for they shall soon be cut down like the grass and wither as the green herb." This is true of evil as well as of evil doers. Compare the ages as to evil and we will see that it is being overcome. Intemperance today is not what it was fifty years ago. Up to a hundred years ago dueling was widely practiced in our land. Fifty years ago there were over 3,000,000 human slaves in America. More and more wickedness is being ostracized and pushed to the wall. Wickedness and crime still exist, for the millennium has not yet arrived, but while evil exists it does not have the power and place that it had in the ages of the past.

2. The world is growing better by the advance of the good. Evil is being overthrown, while the good is conquering. Christ's kingdom is constantly advancing, and as it advances all that goes to make the world better and happier is vastly increased. Christian character was never so high as today; philanthropy was never so widespread; the successful world never before took such care of the unfortunate and unsuccessful. "God is marching on," and as He marches evil decreases and good increases, thereby making the world better every day than the day before.

BIBLE READINGS.

Gen. iii, 15; xxii, 9-18; Ps. lxxii, 8-17; cxxxv, 1-21; Isa. xxxv, 1-10; xlii, 1-16; lii, 1-10; Matt. xiii, 31-33; Rev. xxi, 1-4.

The Bible and Christian Endeavor.

Some people affect to believe that the day for the old substantial things that have grown so precious to multitudes of true hearted Endeavorers is passing, if not gone. Certain wise ones (?) tell us, in an assumed superior scholarly fashion, that our old Bible is being supplanted by a modern Bible put together by modern, up to date scholarship. How inconsistent some of these would be considered learned ones are! Dr. Burrell well says that they are really trying to revise the dictionary rather than the Bible. They admit that the work of some scientists and philosophers of a former day is standard, but naively hint that all knowledge of Biblical matters has skipped over past periods and suddenly alighted on all fours on the educated men of this generation. It's enough to make some of the fathers sit up in their graves and smile.

I wonder what some of our modern intellectual posers would think if they could hear the comments of the average Endeavorer. I have found by mixing with multitudes of Endeavorers in these last days that the old Bible has not lost its hold on the common people, and the gospel is still the power of God unto salvation to all that believe. A few weeks of real soul winning effort effectually answer about ten-tenths of high sounding theory as to the validity and authority of the Bible.—Rev. Dr. John H. Elliott in Endeavorer.

The Christian Endeavor Animal.

The little stuffed kangaroo which had decorated the Australian table was placed upon the speaker's desk on the platform in the evening, and he seemed to cock his ears, listening to all that was said. I mentioned in my address that some animals could run and others walk and birds could fly, but the kangaroo was the only animal so far as I knew that went forward by "leaps and bounds." But Christian Endeavor was going forward by "leaps and bounds" in Australia, and it fitly typified their movement. Thereupon they presented me with the kangaroo, which has already been sent to Boston, and we adopted it on the spot with great applause as the Christian Endeavor animal.—"The Building of a Commonwealth," by Francis E. Clark, D. D.

In Japan.

The native Japanese Endeavorers are making a practice of spending a moment or two in prayer for the soldiers each morning before rising.

The plan originated with the mothers' meeting in Okayama.

There are 126 living Christian Endeavor societies in Japan today.

India's New Paper.

India has a new Endeavor paper, Masihi Karigai, which is the nearest equivalent for "Christian Endeavor." It will be published in Urdu and Hindi and devoted to the interests of Christian Endeavor in the united provinces.—London Christian.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

Sept. 18: "Is the World Growing Better?" — Ps. xxxvii, 1-13; Eccl. vii, 10.

This is a favorite inquiry with many. The answer depends largely on the viewpoint one takes.

In America the last half century has seen development of natural resources such as has never been paralleled in the same space of time in any other age. So it has become popular to emphasize the vast increase in material wealth and the improvement in means of transportation and the luxuries of life placed within the reach of the common people.

Beyond question there are more accurate knowledge on many matters and greater skill in preventing and curing disease than ever before. The average of life has been lengthened somewhat, and suffering has been greatly relieved.

Not so long ago the most intelligent of men had little idea of any country beyond the bounds of their own little land. The larger part of the earth was unexplored and its people uncivilized. There was no proper understanding of the forces of physical nature, no real science and no conception of the material universe.

Ignorance was coupled with superstition and suspicion of others which bred cruelty and enmity. So war was the normal condition of society and the usual occupation of men. Peace was impossible and individual liberty not even conceived.

In religion the end sought was mainly the betterment of the material conditions of life. So the highest happiness was found in gratification of the physical appetites, and the rites of religion were merged in orgies of lust and sensuality. Morality and religion were not united in thought and so could not be connected in practice. Justice, purity, kindness in dealing with others, was not a requirement of religion. Even the gods were cruel, lustful and false in their dealings. Worship might serve to appease such gods with offerings and secure favor, but who could be expected to love such deities!

Better thought has come to the world. Men have come to know that God is in His nature love, purity and justice. He requires of men that they shall be like Himself. He demands more than sacrifices of animals and human beings; He requires that all the acts of His followers shall be kind, clean and just. More than this, the thinking must be pure, and the intentions must be right. Nor is this all. The thoughts of the heart, the words of the lips and all acts must not only be good in the outward appearance; they must come from a loving impulse. The heart itself must be filled with love to God and love to men. This is surely a betterment of the world in the realm of religious ideas.

There has been seen a corresponding uplift in the actions of men. The parable of the good Samaritan is getting put into practice. Men are becoming more friendly in will and deed. With the new truth that God is Father of us all has dawned the corresponding fact that we all are brethren. So love has been born, and enmity is fast dying.

So the gospel of the blessed Son of God is bettering the world and surely, steadily, lifting it godward and heavenward.

Lend a hand and lift a bit!

Forgiveness For Sin.

The true sign of forgiveness is not some mysterious signal waved from the sky; not some obscure emotion hunted out in your heart; not some stray text culled out of your Bible; certainly not some word of mortal priest telling you that your satisfaction is complete. The soul full of responsive love to Christ and ready longing, hungry to serve Him, is its own sign of forgiveness. Must there not be sorrow for sin? Must there not be resolution of amendment? Surely there must, but it is not sorrow for sin for the sake of the sorrowfulness that Jesus ever wants. He wants sorrow for sin only that it may bring escape from sin. I think that, with all we know of the divine heart of Jesus, He would far rather see a soul trust Him too much, if that is possible, than to trust Him too little, which we know is possible enough.—Phillips Brooks.

Loyalty to Christ.

Loyalty to Christ involves loyalty to man as man and brother, man of every clime and condition and nation. A little boy without father and mother was sent on the cars alone to a distant state to an uncle who offered him a home. When asked how he expected to reach his destination without any one to care for him, he said, "My Sunday school teacher sewed the directions on my coat," and showed them. They were these: "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these, My brethren, ye have done it unto Me." Christ was traveling in his person and was served in serving him.—Evangelist.

The Rest of Heaven.

In contrast with the earth's weariness heaven smiles upon us, a place of rest. "They rest from their labors" is the first element of that celestial blessedness. Toil of body, mind and heart, toil against sin and self and Satan—these are changed to spontaneous, unwearied, invigorating exercises of soul and spirit. The lower services in which we may then engage are infinitely easier than the easiest we here perform. No play on earth is so delightful as the meanest work of heaven.—Bishop Gilbert Haven.

Forgiving Others.

Never harbor any ill feelings toward your neighbor, and if you should be tempted to fall out with your brother and friend always seek for an opportunity to reconcile yourself to him. Forgive others, and thou shalt be forgiven by God.

A Noble Career

Eliza W. Bowman's Record of Good Work

IF a woman is guilty of a breach of the law or even a breach of some social conventionality she is held up to public blame in the newspapers, her picture is scattered broadcast, screeds are written concerning her by many no better than she is, the difference being that she has been found out, they have not. But if a woman, walking humbly in the light of righteousness, spends all her years and substance helping those who need it, pouring out with lavish hand the treasure of her soul for the good of all who come her way, who mentions it?

Such a life of good works and perfect devotion to mankind Eliza W. Bowman of Chicago has led for half a century. No saint's life could be purer or richer in righteousness, yet today not so much space is given to her in the journals as to Mrs. Dollarina's last new lace gown. Such is the unreal way we have of looking at things. Yet we may know well that in the grand roundup the deed which helped even one person to a nobler life will be as a star, while the lace gown will be the absolute nothing it really is.

Miss Bowman had not great wealth, but she had a strong, comprehensive intellect and a heart great enough to take in for her children all living creatures that need sympathy and kindliness. Miss Bowman was born and bred in Virginia. She was born with the instinct of helpfulness, which took the shape when she was a child of carrying food and supplies to the poor of her neighborhood without letting anybody else know it.

Her public life may be summed briefly. She helped organize the Associated Charities of Chicago. For forty years she has been the friend of the convict and prisoner, often their only friend. She was for many years matron of the Chicago Home of the Friendless. Under her fostering it grew till it maintained a foundling nursery, a kindergarten and an industrial school with separate departments for boys and girls. Later she was fourteen years matron of the Chicago Newsboys' home. Then came a terrible illness through poison from leaky pipes in the home. It bereft her of physical power for several years. Then up she got and went into active life again. She is now manager of the Working Girls' home, maintained by the Army of American Volunteers. She is a charter member of the Illinois Women's Press association. Writing for magazines and newspapers is one of her occupations, in none of which has she ever had one thought for herself. Her friends include every variety of the human species.

Through all this land the influence of Miss Bowman has spread from the Chicago Home of the Friendless and the Newsboys' home. She has an intuitive faculty of character reading and with it that rarest ability of putting herself in the place of another. A reckless boy, a forlorn girl, would be brought to her. Beneath all the seeming unattractiveness, even evil, she read always the undeveloped gifts for worthy achievement, whatever they were. She unfolded these to the boy and girl, themselves often unconscious thereof. She inspired the child to put out and endeavor to be somebody and do something. Not one or two, but hundreds of respectable men and women, not a few occupying very high places, owe all their start in life to the help and inspiration Eliza Bowman gave them in the Home of the Friendless or the Newsboys' home.

The number of those who have been directly or indirectly helped to higher aims and better lives by this remarkable woman cannot be estimated. Like a great river her life has run, enabling arid soil right and left to bring forth fruit a hundredfold, with no more thought for her own increase of resources than the river itself has. Over the door of Eliza Bowman's room in the Working Girls' home are these words:

"Sufficient Unto the Day."

Without her knowing it Eliza Bowman's life is all that the so called "new thought" people prescribe. "You cannot eat today the food of tomorrow; you cannot tonight sleep the sleep of tomorrow night. Do the things of today. Fretting and complaining make troubles ten times worse."

So, living, loving and learning, Eliza Bowman goes through life, leaving a glory in her path. Poor, mean and pitiful indeed beside hers seems the life of mere personal aim.

MARY EDITH DAY.

WASHINGTON LETTER

SUMMER DAY GOSSIP OF NATIONAL CAPITAL.

KEEPING BACHELOR'S HALL

How the President Lives When His Family Is Away—Secretary of the Democratic Congressional Committee—Other Items.

William Hogenson, the Lewis institback in Washington hard at work. His stay at Oyster Bay has been regarded in the light of a vacation. It has been as much of a vacation as a president of the United States can take. The truth is that the highest officer in the land gets no real vacation. Wherever he may be he has to attend to a certain amount of routine official business. The only way he can entirely separate himself from work is to get out of reach of railroads, telegraphs and telephones. This Mr. Roosevelt did last year on his big western tour when he escaped into the Yellowstone park for a week and got out of communication with his secretary and the rest of the world.

Escaping for a Vacation.

At Oyster Bay the president enjoys many personal privileges that are denied him in Washington. He is permitted to spend more time with his family and can indulge in sports and pastimes of which he is fond to a greater extent than when in the white house. At the same time he devotes a good portion of each day to the transaction of official business. He signs papers and listens to official business just as faithfully as he does in Washington, so that his vacation at his summer home is largely in name only. Now that he is back in Washington he will feel the full pressure of official life. Scores and hundreds of politicians have been waiting for his return to discuss with him the situation and to press requests for appointments and if possible to secure promises to be used in the campaign.

Keeping Bachelor's Quarters.

When the president is in Washington and his family at his Oyster Bay home the white house is turned into a sort of bachelors' hall. A free and easy life is led, no formality being exacted, but everything conspiring to comfort and good fellowship. The corps of servants is limited, some being on their vacation and others at Oyster Bay, but enough are on duty to attend to the president's wants and to the comfort of the guests whom he always has with him. It is during periods of this kind that the president delights in entertaining little "stag" parties. He surrounds himself with his bachelor friends or those who are in temporary widowerhood on account of the absence of their wives and families and a jolly party sits down to the table morning, noon and evening.

Having a Friend for Luncheon.

Any of the president's friends who happen to be in the city are captured and brought into the bachelor circle. The president is famous for discussing matters of state and politics at his table, and it is a common practice for him to invite statesmen and politicians to luncheon or dinner for the express purpose of discussing public issues with them. When he is alone in the white house this custom is followed very generally as a stag party about the table can then devote their attention exclusively to politics or statesmanship, no ladies being present to require attentions and courtesies or to divert the drift of conversation to other subjects.

Among those whom the president delights in having at the white house are Attorney General Moody, a bachelor of the cabinet; Commissioner of Corporations Garfield, familiarly known as "Jimmy;" special council in the post office investigations, Holmes Conrad; Secretary of War Taft and half a dozen other men in official life noted for good fellowship and for their sympathy with the president's policies and purposes.

Quaint Charley Edwards.

The democratic congressional campaign committee has as its secretary a newspaper man of most unique and original character. He is Charlie Edwards, who came to Washington from Texas several years ago, and was at once placed in the same class with that inimitable Texas philosopher Col. William Greene Sterrett, whose fame has spread all over the country between Washington and the Lone Star state. Both these newspaper men are renowned for their originality, quaintness of expression, blunt honesty and the habit of speaking their own minds.

Like the Expense Account.

Edwards has been a rampant, shouting Hearst man but accepted the result at St. Louis with his usual complacency, although he has sacrificed none of his opinions regarding the issues the party stood for in 1900 and 1896. He was asked the other day whether the proceedings of the St. Louis convention really committed the party to the gold standard. "Well now," said Edwards, "I think I can best illustrate the situation by relating a little story of the experience of a traveling man, a friend of mine.

"This drummer on his return from his first trip on the road turned in an expense account in which was such items as 'a pair of shoes, $3.50; one shirt, 99 cents; hat, $3.00,' and a few other things of the same nature.

" 'Here, what does this mean?' said the head of the house, 'we don't mind being liberal in expense allowances, but we are not buying wearing apparel for our agents. You've got to fix up a different expense account.'

"The next trip my friend turned in his expenses, which footed up a larger amount than on his first trip, but it was paid without a murmur. 'That's something like an expense account,' said the head of the firm. 'You don't see any overcoats mentioned among the items?' asked my friend. 'No, I do not,' was the answer. 'Well, the overcoat is in there all the same,' responded my friend with a grin.

"That is the way with the St. Louis platform and convention," laughed Edwards, "you may not find the gold standard among the items, but it is in there all the same."

Old White House Servant.

Old Jerry Smith is dying. For a third of a century he has been the man of all work and general factotum about the white house. A few months ago failing health compelled him to leave the old mansion, where he had served so faithfully since President Grant's first administration. One of his duties was the running up of the American flag on the white house every morning. Just before he had to give up work he made a blunder that betrayed his failing faculties. He ran up the flag Union Jack down, the signal of distress. The mistake was quickly discovered and rectified, but Uncle Jerry never got over this blunder. He took it as a sign that he was failing and the time had come to give up work. He was relieved from duty and soon took to his bed, where he now lies slowly passing away with cancer of the stomach. In his modest little home he has not been forgotten, as President Roosevelt, National Chairman Cortelyou and many high officials have called to inquire after the old man and to let him know that he is well remembered.

Was the Official Duster.

Uncle Jerry is a Virginia negro and was first engaged at the white house by Gen. Grant. Up until the last few months he was a man of striking appearance. Fully six feet tall, broad-shouldered, with erect carriage and wearing a snow-white mustach and imperial, Jerry Smith was a regular colored field marshal. He was universally esteemed for his good nature, cheerfulness and willingness. No one ever heard him grumble about work that might be required of him. During his 30 odd years service he was employed in all sorts of positions, from cook to head usher at an official function. Of late years he seemed to be the official duster in the executive mansion, for he was never separated from a large feather duster, with which he was continually brushing furniture and windows. In manner he was a colored Chesterfield. His death will remove a very conspicuous landmark from official Washington and will leave Arthur Simmons, a North Carolina negro who came to the white house as a refugee during Lincoln's administration as the remaining link between the old and new white house regimes.

Expensive Dove Cot.

A flock of Washington pigeons have preempted the gold dome of the library of congress for a mating and nesting place. This is probably the most ornate and expensive dove coat or pigeon roost in the world. A few weeks ago a pair of birds entered one of the ventilators of the rotunda and flying around surveyed the gorgeous fresco work, beautiful statuary and profusion of gold paint, with evident satisfaction for they concluded to locate there permanently. They selected a cornice, in which they placed a nest made of excelsior, which has for its background the gilded dome on which $40,000 worth of gold leaf was used.

Pigeons in the Library Dome.

The example of this pair of pigeons has been followed until now quite a little flock gathers daily on the gold dome and their crooning can be distinctly heard in the reading room below. The birds fly through the ventilators every day in search of food and are very much at home in the beautiful building. The library authorities do not know how to get rid of them without closing the ventilators, which would not be comfortable in the present summer temperature.

The pigeons are of the "tumbler" variety and in flying about the rotunda they sometimes startle the readers at the public desks.

An Ideal Location

Rosedale and Linden Park Cemeteries

LARGEST IN THE STATE

LINDEN, N. J.

Beautiful and Accessible

2 Miles from Elizabeth. 7 Miles from Newark.

14 MILES FROM NEW YORK

On Main Line Pennsylvania Railroad

Why Lots in these Cemeteries commend themselves to Heads of Families and Investors

BECAUSE of the $1,000,000 Trust Fund provided for by the Trustees in each Cemetery, the income from which will keep the properties perpetually beautiful at NO EXPENSE TO LOT OWNERS.

BECAUSE such a guarantee, not found in any other cemetery, assures lot owners that the grounds WILL BE MAINTAINED PERMANENTLY AS BEAUTIFUL PARKS AFTER THE INCOME FROM THE SALE OF LOTS HAS BEEN EXHAUSTED.

LOTS SHOULD BE PURCHASED NOW

BECAUSE MORE ADVANTAGES ARE OFFERED TO LOT BUYERS in a new Modern Park Cemetery than in those established many years and, in most cases, no provision made for perpetual care without extra expense to lot owners. THERE ARE A GREATER NUMBER OF IDEAL LOCATIONS TO SELECT FROM, PRICES OF LOTS ARE ALWAYS LOWER AND TERMS MORE ADVANTAGEOUS.

BECAUSE life is most uncertain and EVERY ONE SHOULD ANTICIPATE THE INEVITABLE BY MAKING A CHOICE NOW OF A FINAL RESTING PLACE.

LOTS WILL PROVE A GOOD INVESTMENT

BECAUSE they are sure to increase in value and can be purchased NOW at the INITIAL, or LOWEST PRICE and upon the most ADVANTAGEOUS TERMS.

BECAUSE the properties are ACCESSIBLE TO 4,000,000 PEOPLE, and considering the RAPID GROWTH OF GREATER NEW YORK and its TRIBUTARY CITIES and TOWNS, it is only a question of a SHORT TIME when LOTS in ROSEDALE and LINDEN PARK will EQUAL, IN VALUE those of our MOST NOTED cemeteries.

MILITIA ORDERED OUT.

Terrell Sends Georgia Soldiers to Protect Negro Prisoner.

VALDOSTA, Ga., Sept. 15.—Major R. L. Wylly of Savannah received a telegram from Governor Terrell, instructing him to report at Camilla tomorrow morning and take charge of military forces ordered there and report to Judge W. N. Spence for instructions and in conjunction with him prevent mob violence.

The prisoner whom the military is sent to protect is a negro named Williford, who was arrested near Sneeds, Fla., and who is being carried to Camilla for trial. He killed a bailiff named West and shot a citizen named Cox, who were trying to arrest him, nearly a year ago. Major Wylly left for Camilla via Thomasville.

JOHN SMITH PLEADS GUILTY.

Will Serve Time For Crime of Which His Double Was Convicted.

LONDON, Sept. 15.—At the Old Bailey William Thomas, alias John Smith, pleaded guilty to the charges against him, including the admission that he was convicted in 1877 under the name of John Smith and served a term of five years' imprisonment for obtaining money and jewelry from women under false pretenses.

It was in mistake for Thomas that Adolf Beck, who was recently granted a "free pardon," served two terms of imprisonment on the same charges owing to a police conspiracy, it is claimed, for which the government offered as compensation the sum of $10,000, which Beck refused as insufficient.

Burglars Rob Bishop's House.

GARDEN CITY, N. Y., Sept. 15.—The see house opposite the Cathedral of the Incarnation at this place and occupied by the Right Rev. Bishop Frederick Burgess was entered by burglars. Bishop Burgess and the other persons who slept in the upper rooms were not disturbed. An entrance was gained by forcing open one of the parlor windows, and all of the lower rooms and one upstairs bedroom were visited. The burglars carried away with them a quantity of solid silverware and some clothing and $20 in cash. They also took the bishop's overcoat and gold mounted umbrella.

Manassas Evacuated.

MANASSAS, Va., Sept. 15.—The last of the troops present at the recent regular army and militia maneuvers left here at 2:30 p. m. when a train pulled out carrying the soldiers and animals whose duty it was to stay to the end. The breaking up of the camp began last Saturday at 5 o'clock, when the Southern railway carried away the first train load of militia. From that time until last night the Southern railroad transported ninety-two trains of troops, baggage and animals. No accident of any kind occurred to any of the trains.

Great Storm at Norfolk, Va.

NORFOLK, Va., Sept. 15.—A southeast storm is raging here and the wind in Norfolk is blowing forty-eight miles an hour, backing the river into the low streets. Communication with the coast has been interrupted by the gale. At last reports the wind was thirty-six miles an hour at Cape Henry and twenty-two miles at Hatteras. The force of the blow is steadily increasing.

JOURNEY OF TERROR

CREW LITERALLY DEVOURED BY VICIOUS CENTIPEDES.

Italian Bark Has a Serious Time in Reaching Its Destination — Neither Work Nor Prayer Brought Relief.

Capt. L. Rubelli, Philadelphia agent of the Italian bark Annita-e-Menottie, was in receipt of a letter from Skipper Ferrara of the bark, telling how, on the ship's voyage to St. John, N. B., the crew were horribly bitten by hordes of bugs and centipedes. As a result of the sailors' battle with the pests part of the crew are in the hospital at St. John and it is feared that blood-poisoning may result.

On her last trip the bark brought a cargo of bones from Buenos Ayres. As always happens in this sort of a cargo there lurk thousands of nasty bugs and deadly crawling things. In discharging the bones the bug and centipede contingent took refuge in various parts of the ship, escaping the vigilance of the seamen.

The bark sailed from Philadelphia on June 16 and arrived at St. John on June 23. The Delaware breakwater had been left behind a few hundred miles when the bugs and centipedes swarmed out of hiding places and actually took possession of the vessel. The decks and masts became covered with them. They attacked the sailors; they made an onslaught upon the man at the wheel. He would have been driven from his post had not a seaman been ordered by the skipper to beat off the bugs.

The plight of the crew became serious. Nothing could conquer the terrible enemy. The bugs, Capt. Ferrara says in his letter to Capt. Rubelli, were of the pinching species. They flew about the vessel and lit upon the sailors, particularly their faces. The centipede added to the horror of the

DIAMOND DUST.

"Kid" Roberts, who opened the season here as short-stop with the Plainfield A. C., has given up baseball for the season.

"Billy" Lauder, formerly captain of the Plainfield A. C., is now devoting his time to a well-established jewelry business in New York, and incidentally he studies law. Occasionally he witnesses a big league game.

Catcher Allen, of the Somerville team, is reported to have said that if changes are made in the team for Saturday's game here, several members will quit. The chances are that the changes will be made.

"Kid" Walton, formerly of the Plainfield A. C., and the Elizabeth Stars, played his last game for the Elizabeth team on Sunday. Manager Burke will have several leaguers on his team from now until the close of the season.

AUTOMOBILING.

A carload of Oldsmobiles has recently been received at the F. L. C. Martin automobile garage, of Park avenue. In the lot are three runabouts and two touring cars.

F. L. C. Martin, of Park avenue, has returned from Atlantic City, where he has been spending several days. The return trip was made by way of the White Horse Pike as far as Camden, going thence to Philadelphia, Bordentown, Heightstown and New Brunswick. The party made an unusually quick trip.

ROD AND GUN.

Eugene O'Reilly and Patrick Muldoon, of West Third street, had the best luck of the season while fishing for weaks off Keaseby's Landing on the Raritan river a day or two ago. They landed sixteen large specimens and then Professor O'Reilly struck a mighty bass, he swears it weighed a thousand pounds, which tore away part of his line and taxed the strength of his rod to the utmost. "Gene" is thinking of organizing an armed expedition to capture the monster and place him on exhibition at Timbo's restaurant.

GOLF.

Frank O. Reinhart has not taken part in any golf events since the National amateur championship tournament at Baltusrol.

The members and friends of the Hillside Tennis and Golf Club have been complaining of late of the poor trolley service on the Arlington avenue line on Saturdays. They say that the company reserves its extra cars for the baseball crowd and allows the service to the golf course to go by default. One member was obliged to wait three-quarters of an hour recently for a car.

FOOTBALL.

The Orange F. C. football team was out for practice Tuesday night. Five new candidates for the eleven put in an appearance. The eleven will go out tonight for practice.

TENNIS.

In a match for the championship recently held between Hollis Cubberly and Howard Craig, of the West End, Cubberly was victorious in three straight sets, 6—3, 6—3, 6—3.

LITERARY.

The September Atlantic opens brilliantly, with the first chapters of Isidro, a romantic serial novel by Mrs. Mary Austin, the scene of which is laid in Southern California, and which is full of unusual and attractive incidents of love and adventure, of vivid description and highly imaginative narrative. The unpublished manuscripts of Ralph Waldo Emerson supply a truly Emersonian characterization of Shakespeare in the shape of the address made by Emerson before the Boston Saturday Club at their Shakespearian tercentenary meeting.

In Collier's Weekly it is stated that a small minority of our most august body, the Senate of our country, is free from corporation rule today. Many a State is ruled by railroads. New Hampshire, for instance, is ruled by the Boston and Mine, which is as much a part of the commonwealth as the jury system or the postoffice. Wisconsin has three ruling railroads. We are not yet convinced that Government or State ownership is necessary, for we hope regulation may some day suffice. The objection, however, that owning the railroads would increase Government patronage is absurd, for the Government and the railroads have one grand clearing house of patronage already. Nothing is so important, in passing upon a candidate for Governor, Senator, or President, as to discover whether he stands with this system or against it.

AMONG MEN IN THE SHOPS

SEEN AND HEARD IN PLAINFIELD'S INDUSTRIAL PLANTS.

Robert Larmour has returned to his former position at the Pond plant.

Alex. Kilpatrick, formerly of Werner's clothing store, has taken a position in Pond's foundry.

John Mayberry has resigned his position at the Pond Machine Tool Company's plant, to take a position in New York.

John Donnelly, formerly of the Campbell Press Company's plant, has taken a position at the Pond Machine Tool Company's works.

John Slorah, of McDowell street, formerly of the Pond Machine Tool Company's works, has taken a position in a machine shop at Tottenville, Staten Island.

George Leighs, foreman of the erecting department at the Pond Machine Tool Company's plant, has returned to his position after spending a month with relatives in England.

Walter Foster and Martin Thompsonare in New York setting up the motors on the large car-wheel boring machine which was sent to the Manhattan Transfer Company a week ago.

William Hinkle, of West Front street, has resigned his position at the Pond Machine Tool Company's works. Mr. Hinkle has been employed in the lathe department for the past six years.

Edward Texier, of the Perrin Frere glove works, is detained at home with a sprained wrist. The young lad received the injury while playing ball a few days ago. It will be another week before he will be able to return to his position.

A large dynamo has been set up at the Standard Surgical Instrument Company's plant with which the management is making their electric light power. The dynamo is the one formerly owned by the Plainfield Tool and Equipment Company.

George Nichols, of West Sixth street, has resigned his position at the Plainfield Auto Garage. Mr. Nichols has accepted an offer of $40 a month with board, offered to him by "Mayor Bill" Smith, of New Market. Mr. Nichols takes charge of the mayor's stables, including the automobile, this morning.

James Colton, of West Third street, has turned up at his home again, after being absent for four weeks. Young Colton resigned his position at the Pond plant a month ago, and went off, leaving no word as to where he was going. His father searched everywhere for him but no trace of him could be found. Upon his arrival here yesterday, he said he was employed on a tug boat in Cincinnatti.

Recreation-Mad Generation.

We live—to sum up the situation—in a generation that has gone recreation-mad. Outdoor sports and indoor sports fill up our leisure moments, or in some cases, all our moments. Athletics, golf, tennis, games of all manners and lacking manners, rise, flourish, and decay. The race horse, the bicycle, and the automobile pursue each other across the stage of action. We play at being intellectual, we play at being religious, we play at being "tough," and all three are merged and included in being men and women "of the world." . . . The instrument of an occasional hilarity has an unfortunate tendency to develop into the minister to a quenchless thirst.—Mrs. Martha Baker Dunn, in Atlantic.

What It Contained.

Analysis of the water of an artesian well recently bored at Holly Springs, Miss., showed that it contained a large proportion of ammonia.

Uncle Zeb, a colored resident of that town, spoke for the matter in this wise to a drummer whose grip he was "toting" from the station:

"We'se got er artillery well here, an' las' week dey done scandalized de watah, an' foun' it plum full er hydrophobia."—N. Y. Times.

Trifling Loss by Fire.

An alarm of fire turned in from box 47 at about 8:30 this morning summoned the fire department to the home of Charles McCarty, 223 Mansen place. A blaze, started by an overheated stove, was promptly quenched with extinguishers.

School Football Captain.

Plainfield High School football enthusiasts held a meeting today to consider the prospects of a team for the gridiron this fall. The fifteen candidates elected William Douglass captain by a unanimous vote. Practice will begin in a few days.

Martine to Talk to Firemen.

The firemen of New Brunswick are preparing for a big celebration and parade on Tuesday, October 4, and at a banquet to be given in the evening James E. Martine, of this city, will be one of the principal speakers.

According to one of the Republican workers, the Warren township primaries were practically as quiet as those in this city and the borough. The following delegates to the Republican conventions were elected without contest: Reuben to the State convention; John Wendell, Jr., to the Congressional convention and W. Howard Toms to the county convention.

For the position of delegate to the Democratic State convention, there were two aspirants, Charles H. Wood and Horace Codington. Wood was defeated, polling, by 20 votes to 62 scored in favor of Codington. Joel Codington, Congressional delegate and Robert Zergiebel, were unopposed unless thirty-nine cuts received by the latter count as opposition.

DETERMINED TO WIN, SOMERVILLE PUTS UP $500

HIGH-PRICED PLAYERS TO FACE PLAINFIELD A. C. SATURDAY.

There was an important meeting last night of those interested in the West End ball team of Somerville, and it is learned on the best of authority that $500 has been subscribed with which to place an entire new professional team in the field for Saturday's contest against the Plainfield A. C. It seems to be reasonably certain that George Wiltse, of the New York Nationals, and a Somerville boy, will pitch for the West Ends and that there will be other big league material on the team.

When seen this morning Manager Johnston was unable to state who would pitch for his team, but he expects to have a good one. Otherwise the local team will undoubtedly remain the same. Manager Johnston is just as confident of winning as his Somerville friends are.

AMUSEMENTS.

"Checkers," the great character comedy and racing play, which proved last season one of the few real theatrical hits, began the fourth week of its fourth engagement in New York city, last Monday night, before an audience which packed the Academy of Music to the doors. A play to be strong enough in the popular mind to play a repeat engagement in New York city, where one engagement is almost invariably enough, is strong indeed. But "Checkers" has not only made one repeat, but is now playing its third, and despite the hot weather and the opposition, drew $1,747 into the box office last Saturday night. This is due, doubtless, to the intense human nature of the play. Playgoers are reported to have seen it, not once, but seven and eight times.

Still Alarms.

Two still alarms yesterday morning summoned the apparatus out for chimney fires. There was a slight chimney fire at the home of Frederick Yates, on Kensington avenue at about 10:20, and about an hour later there was trouble with a chimney at 430 Orchard place. The damage in each case was trifling.

Lake Mumford's Condition.

Crescent Oval is practically covered with water and unless important steps are taken at once it will be impossible to play on the oval Saturday. The lake extends from the home plate to the right and left field.

Dunellen Tax Rate Jumps.

Dunellen's tax rate has been raised ten points, Assessor Peters having announced that the rate will be $2.52 as against $2 42 last year. This year there are 411 voters registered as against 358 last year.

Athletic Association Election.

Members of the Plainfield High School Athletic Association will hold a meeting Tuesday morning for the purpose of electing a new board of directors.

O'Reilly's Classes Start.

Eugene O'Reilly's dancing class will hold its first reception tonight in the old I. O. T. Club rooms, corner of Park and North avenues.

PAWNBROKER'S MIDDLEMAN

Does Business with the Money-Lender for People Who Are Sensitive.

Why persons whose circumstances and general inclination necessitate dealings with a pawnbroker do not more frequently employ the services of a middleman is a mystery to the pawnbroker. Incidentally the middleman himself indulges in some mournful speculations on the subject, states a New York exchange.

"If people down on their luck would only take me into their confidence during the period of their financial depression they would realize more on their investment," said one of these hustling agents. "Even after paying my commission they would have more left than they could get out of the deal in the first place. I know how to market goods. All pawnshops do not look alike to me. I know them too well. Different brokers have different tastes. Some run to one kind of collateral, some to another. Experience has taught me which one lends the most on certain chattels; therefore, I know at once where to go for the best terms. It would take the uninitiated months to acquire that knowledge, and even then they would not have the knack of exacting such high figures as a professional agent can secure. We know the worth of an article, and can hold out for a loan proportionate to the value. Pawnbrokers can spot at a glance the man who knows his business, and usually they come to terms without unnecessary haggling.

"I have been acting as agent in this line long enough to gain several regular customers. These are people who go broke periodically. Some strike ebb tide every week, some every month, and others every six months. All have certain possessions they always fall back on in adversity, and invariably they send for me to transact the business for them. Most of them wish a middleman for two reasons: First, because of the financial advantages; second, on account of the convenience. To visit a pawnshop gracefully in one's own behalf is an art that few persons acquire. Even years of practice seldom take away the feeling of timidity that overtakes a fellow the minute he steps inside a pawnshop door. It is to these sensitive plants that I appear as a ministering angel, and it is from them that I earn enough in commissions to enable me to give up other kinds of work and devote my time to the placing of marketable property."

GLADSTONE CHEWING CLUB.

Women Form Organization for the Furtherance of Methodical Mastication.

Fired with a zeal for achieving sound health, certain ladies have started a club called te "Organized Ruminators" or "Bovine Club," says Atlantic. William E. Gladstone is naturally their patron saint, for did he not chew every mouthful 32 times, and retain his faculties in full vigor until he was more than 80 years of age?

We resolved to do likewise, and in the enthusiasm of the hour it seemed as if we were attempting an easy task.

Alas! We were reckoning without our host, or rather without our host's butler, a much more important person. It may seem a simple thing, to those who have not tried, to paraphrase Mark Twain and to

Chew, my sisters, chew with care
Chew in the presence of the black butlere.

But it is not. . . .

Difficult as the members of the new society find it to face the frozen butler and his ilk, they find it even harder to pursue correct principles of mastication, and at the same time maintain conversation as a fine art. How and when did Mr. Gladstone deliver himself of his thoughts during the progress of a meal? How did he answer questions, or did he maintain a silence as of pastoral glades, broken only by faint bovine echoes? Doubtless in the bosom of his own family the great man would have replied to a question inopportunely asked by his better half, "My dear—17," or whatever number he had reached in his progress to the correct 32. Should his noble example ever be followed by the world in general, we might dare say this to a neighbor, or make the necessary signs in the finger language. But the brave pioneers of the Bovine club hesitate to do this, lest they be thought deaf and dumb or crazy.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sandford, of East Front street, returned home today from South Waterford, Maine.

Mrs. Henry Zwahlen, of Cambridge, Mass., is the guest of her cousin, Superintendent W. R. Mosher, of New street.

Mrs. Mary Laing, widow of Isaac Laing, is very ill at her home, 338 East Front street, and her recovery is not probable.

—Franklin Council, No. 41, Jr. O. U. A. M., will meet this evening and initiate several candidates.

NOVELTIES IN NAMES.

SOME THAT WILL NOT BE APT TO GROW COMMON.

Odd Additions to the English Language Occasionally Heard in This Country and England.

"Mysophobia" is one of the latest additions to the English language. It is the name of a complaint which most people will recognize. Probably its commonest name is morbid fastidiousness. Persons who suffer from mysophobia, says the London Hour Glass become very faddy in their manner. They are very particular that there is not even a spot on the tablecloth's snowy surface. Every plate and dish and glass that is brought to them is eagerly scanned for any trace of dirty fingers. Everything must be unsoiled and immaculate. In the advanced stage of mysophobia the sufferer is unable to resist the temptation to wipe every article that is placed before him. It does not matter how clean or pure it may be, the wiping process has to be gone through.

"Uncinariasis" is anothr novel complaint, or, rather, it is a novel name for an old complaint. It is the disease which causes the existence, in certain states, of degenerates known as "trackers," or "poor whites;" in fact, it is the germ of laziness which has been isolated. In advanced stages the sufferer eats clay besides being unusually lazy. At one of the London police courts the magistrate was sorely amazed by a witness describing the prisoner as a "trance." It turned out eventually that a "trance" is a man who is given a lift from the country in a market cart in return for which he assists the cartman to unload. "A deadhomer" was another curious expression used in a London police court. The detective said it was a well-known expression used by a person when he could not very well free himself from a charge which was hanging over his head. In the case in question the charge was that of stealing lead. It was unfortunate for the prisoner that he was a "deadhomer."

A "gawkrodger," "scrammy," "caggy," and a "cuddypaw" are all different English names for a left-handed man. But a "jambiste" is about the latest name. This came out in a case in which a person was sued for lessons given in dancing. The defendant denied that he received any lessons, but said that he simply attended the dancing classes as a jambiste. A jambiste, it is explained, is a young society man who occupies his leisure hours by acting as an auxiliary at a school of dancing. He is there for the purpose of dancing with any of the women who are in want of a partner. It appears that he furnishes his services at the dancing school gratuitously. His hope of reward usually is that he may meet a rich young heiress at the school, and be able to marry her.

"Electrofannite" is a peculiar kind of indisposition produced by the draught from an electric fan or ventilator.

A "kitchen piano" is a name which might puzzle a good many people. It appeared in a case tried at the Clerkenwell county court that among furniture movers a wringer or mangle is invariably known as a "kitchen piano."

The "dotter" is an instrument which has now been adopted by the admiralty. By the use of this instrument the firing accuracy of the weapon is enhanced greatly. With its aid a gunner has been able to hit a target at 2,000 yards eight times with eight shells in one minute. After all, the dotter has a good homely ring about it.

A terrible new name is "Thymacetinoxaethylacetamidothymol." It is highly recommended as a medicament to people who suffer from "nerves." It has been found, however, that in a few cases it fails in its effect, in which case an excellent substitute is stated to be Acetylimidcoxathythymol. An excellent thing for the nerves!

Starting "Run" on Bank.

While a woman was waiting to deposit five dollars in a New England savings bank she saw a man draw out $900. She had never before seen so much money at once, and concluded that the bank could not stand such a heavy drain on its resources. She told her friends about it, and the news spread that the bank was in danger. A "run" followed, and the depositors were not satisfied that the bank was sound until between ten and twenty thousand dollars had been withdrawn. The men who read this paragraph need not say that the thing would not have happened if it had not been for a silly woman. Full-grown men, with years of business experience, do just as silly things when they get frightened about losing their money.—Youth's Companion.

Miss Marguerite Bennett, eldest daughter of Mr. and and Mrs P. H. Bennett, of Duer street, who was taken ill with typhoid fever while visiting relatives at Hensonhurst, L. I., is considered out of danger by her physician and she will be brought home next week.

ENTHUSIASTIC AND HARMONIOUS CONVENTION NOMINATES CHARLES C. BLACK FOR GOVERNOR

Tumultous Cheers When the Name of Grover Cleveland, "Jersey's First Citizen", is Mentioned.

FOR EQUAL TAXATION—AGAINST EXTRAVAGANCE

Samuel S. Childs to Represent Somerset County and Peter Egenoff, Union County, on State Committee—The List of Presidential Electors Choosen—Swackhamer Not Mentioned.

Charles C. Black, of Hudson County, was nominated for Governor on the first ballot at the Democratic State convention at Trenton yesterday. S. S. Swackhamer's name was not mentioned, although he made a plea for himself at the Somerset county delegation's caucus.

The Gloucester delegation insisted on putting in nomination the name of former Senator Thomas M. Ferrell, of that county. His name after a time was withdrawn in favor of Black.

Black was placed in nomination by Jacob Hendrickson, of Burlington. Senator Hudspeth, of Hudson, took the platform and said that Hudson desired to second the nomination of Mr. Black and he thought that with him as a candidate victory might perch on the Democratic banners. Former Prosecutor Bayard Stockton, of the Mercer County delegation, placed in nomination the name of Mayor Frank S. Katzenbach, of Trenton.

J. E. Martine, the farmer orator of this city, desired to second the nomination of former Senator William C. Gebhardt, who had been named by Hunterdon. Chairman Hardin recognized Mr. Martine as "the gentleman from Hudson," and this brought forth a smiling protest from that county. Mr. Martine then arose and said: "I would to God that the Democratic representation from Union was as glorious as that from Hudson, but I regret to say that it is not and because the blessing of a Democratic atmosphere is denied me I hope you will pardon me."

Senator Ferrell, who had been placed in nomination by George W. Herbert, chairman of the Gloucester County delegation, was withdrawn.

The first ballot taken, which determined the nomination for Black, was as follows: Atlantic County, thirty-one votes for Black; Bergen County, sixty-seven votes for Black; Burlington, forty-three votes for Black; Camden, fifty votes for Black; Cape May, sixteen votes for Black; Cumberland, twenty-one votes for Black; Essex, 161 votes for Black; Gloucester, twenty-one votes for Ferrell; Hudson, 195 votes for Black; Hunterdon, twenty-seven votes for Black; Mercer, fifty votes for Katzenbach; Middlesex, forty-six votes for Black; Monmouth, sixty-three votes for Black; Morris, thirty-four votes for Black; Ocean, twenty votes for Black and six for Ferrell; Passaic, seventy votes for Black; Salem, eighteen votes for Black; Sussex, twenty-four votes for Black; Union, sixty votes for Black; Warren, twenty-eight votes for Black. Total, Black, 972, Ferrell 43, Katzenbach 50. Hunterdon withdrew the name of Gebhardt and voted for Black.

On motion of James C. Connolly, of Elizabeth, the nomination was made unanimous and Mr. Black was named by acclamation.

In Somerset County, ex-Senator Keys made a hard fight for State committee, but because of his being a New Yorker the delegates declined to stand longer for him, but S. S. Childs was named.

The Somerset delegation organized as follows: Vice president, Calvin Carle; secretary, Calvin D. McMurtry; resolutions committee, Runyon Field; rules, Cornelius Creeden; credentials, Peter Sutphen. The Union County members of convention committees were: Resolutions, James C. Connolly, of Elizabeth; rules, John Lane, of Summit; credentials, Edward Nugent, of Elizabeth; organization, John Crowell, of Rahway.

When Chairman Hardin referred to Grover Cleveland as "easily the first citizen of New Jersey and of the United States of America," there was vociferous cheering that lasted for some time.

Charles C. Black did not go to Trenton yesterday. At Jersey City he said he would accept the nomination and publish soon his letter of acceptance.

Somerset county refused S. S. Swackhamer's personal plea to give him a vote.

State Committee Chairman Gourley said after the convention that he had been asked to retain the State chairmanship and he would probably do so, but he was reluctant to remain in the position because it interferred with his practice.

The platform adopted denounces the Republican party for alleged extravagance of public money, condemns the party in power for "legislative corruption" and pledges the Democratic party to enforce the State constitution in regard to equal taxation of property. The action of the St. Louis convention is indorsed.

The following presidential electors were selected by the convention:

Electors-at-large—Richard V. Lindabury, of Somerset; Judge Howard Carrow, of Camden.

Electors—First district, John W. Westcott, Ocean.

Second district, B. Frank Hires, Cumberland.

Third district, Isaac W. Carmichael, Camden.

Fourth district, Robert L. Stevens, Somerset.

Fifth district, William J. Curtis, Union.

Sixth district, Jacob L. Burnell, Sussex.

Seventh district, Augustus H. Vanderpool, Newark.

Eighth district, Elvin W. Crane, Newark.

Ninth district, John J. Voorhees, Jersey City.

Tenth district, Edwin A. Stevens, Hudson.

The new Democratic State committee agreed upon by the various counties was as follows:

Atlantic—William A. Founce.
Bergen—Luther A. Campbell.
Burlington—E. P. Wills.
Camden—William H. Davis.
Cape May—Matthew Jefferson.
Cumberland—Samuel Iredell.
Essex—James R. Nugent.
Gloucester—E. E. Grosscup.
Hudson—William C. Heppenheimer.
Hunterdon—James N. Pidcock.
Mercer—Michael Hurley.
Middlesex—Oliver Kelly.
Monmouth—David S. Crater.
Morris—Willard W. Cutler.
Ocean—C. L. Rogers.
Passaic—Louis F. Braun.

Somerset—Samuel S. Childs.
Sussex—Lewis F. Iliff.
Union—Peter Egenoff.
Warren—Johnston Cornish.

MARCONNIER RECEPTION.

In Honor of Mrs. J. W. Schenck, the New Superintendent.

About forty people, including members and friends of Marconnier chapel and Trinity Reformed church, attended a reception given last evening in honor of Mrs. J. W. Schenck, the new superintendent of Marconnier chapel, at the home of Mrs. George W. Reighton, 1270 Park avenue. The affair was arranged by Mrs. Reighton, an earnest worker at Marconnier chapel, it affording an opportunity for the members and friends to become better acquainted with Mrs. Schenck.

The evening was spent in a social way, during which refreshments were served. Since Mrs. Schenck took charge of this work a few weeks ago, there has been a revival of interest and a successful winter's work is predicted.

Mrs. Gilchrist Dead.

Mrs. Florence Gilchrist, wife of Robert Gilchrist, of Prospect avenue, died early this morning at her home after an illness lasting since May 30. The funeral will be held from her late home at 12:30 Sunday afternoon and interment will be in the Moravian cemetery at New Dorp, S. I.

—There will be a special meeting of the Plainfield Board of Education on Tuesday night, Sept. 20.

FOOTBALL PLAYERS ARE GETTING INTO FORM

O. F. C. TEAM TO PLAY FIRST GAME A WEEK FROM TOMORROW.

The Orange Field Club football team held its third practice on the Westervelt avenue grounds last night and were joined in the work by seven new candidates. This addition brings the total of new players up to twelve and it is believed that it will be strange indeed if among that number some top-notchers were not found.

Everett Sherwin, Gus Frentz, Harry Flannery and Howard Guinn, the former Alis center, are laid up temporarily for repairs. Sherwin has a bad cold and Frentz is nursing a sprained ankle. Guinn is to play guard this year on the O. F. C.

At the Arlington avenue grounds Saturday, September 24, the season will open with what will be practically a regular game, except that both teams will be O. F. C. men, the pick of the club in fact, so evenly divided as to make the game a first-class criterion of the men's abilities in their positions.

The club wants to hear from the management of either the Plainfield High School or the Leal's School elevens regarding games. Tuesday and Thursday evenings of next week will be practice nights, work beginning between 7 and 8 o'clock.

GRANT CLUB BANNER RAISING SEPTEMBER 29

BOROUGH REPUBLICANS LISTEN TO SPEECHES ON PARTY PRINCIPLES.

Routine business occupied the attention of the U. S. Grant Republican Club, of North Plainfield, at last night's meeting. Thirty-five new members were received and the prospects for successful work appear correspondingly brighter to the officers.

It was decided by the banner committee that an American flag would best answer their purpose and one will be raised in front of the club rooms on Somerset street on Thursday, September 29. The names of the Republican nominees will be put on a separate piece of canvas and hoisted on the banner ropes.

A. V. D. Honeyman, of Grove street, who made a short speech, will arrange for a speaker to address the next meeting. Last night's gathering was addressed by Reuben Knox, Esq., who formerly resided on Sherman avenue. Mr. Knox spoke on "Jeffersonian Simplicity," and pleased his hearers greatly by his direct and forceful style and unaffected phraseology.

The piano furnished by E. D. Hutchinson, of Westervelt avenue, was in place.

T. S. Armstrong and Henry E. Needham were added to the finance committee.

The committee on meetings was formed with A. V. D. Honeyman in the chair and E. D. Hutchinson and Charles J. McNabb associated with him. This committee will have in charge the furnishing of suitable speakers for each meeting and for that purpose will visit political gatherings in this vicinity and arrange with the National Committee regarding speakers to be sent here by that body during the campaign.

Other committees still to be organized are the press, executive, election and music. A sergeant-at-arms will probably be appointed to care for the club room within a short time.

Rev. J. A. Francis to Speak.

Rev. James A. Francis, who was unable to be at the Y. M. C. A. meeting last Sunday, will address the meeting next Sunday. Mr. Francis, who is one of the ablest preachers in the Baptist denomination, was called from New York to the pastorate of the church in Boston of which the late Rev. Dr. A. J. Gordon was so long pastor. He left his church in Boston on account of ill health.

Through Trolleys Stalled.

It was not until late yesterday afternoon that the Jersey City-Trenton trolleys were able to run through. During the middle of the day the cars were operated as far as Bound Brook, where a portion of Main street was flooded. Toward night the water receded and the cars were able to proceed.

STREET COMMITTEE BUSY

Consider Vitrified Paving and a Storm Sewer in East End.

MUST PREVENT FLOODS

Councilmen to Meet Representative of P. S. C. Regarding Some Improvements.

There is every reason to believe that if the Public Service Corporation is permitted to lay double tracks from the corner of Front and Somerset streets to the corner of Watchung avenue and Fourth street, it will at least pave the same with vitrified brick for this privilege. What else may be required is not known at present.

There was a meeting of the street committee last night when matters pertaining to the improvement of Watchung avenue were considered. There was a general discussion pro and con and the members made up their minds as to what would be required of the company. It was also decided to communicate with the company and ask them to be represented at a meeting to be held soon to definitely decide the matter.

Another matter discussed last night was the Richmond street storm sewer. It was agreed that this improvement would cost the city several thousand dollars and that possibly the expense would be too great at present. The proposed improvement includes the widening of the brook, as well as the installation of the sewer. Even if this improvement is not made as planned, something will be done to relieve that section of the city from future floods in heavy rain storms. It was admitted that the most complete storm sewer system known would not carry off the great rain fall of Wednesday night.

EDWIN H. GRIGGS TO TALK ON SHAKESPEARE

SERIES OF SIX LECTURES TO BE GIVEN IN THIS CITY.

Prof. Edward Howard Griggs has been engaged to give a series of six Shakespearian lectures in the First M. E. church, commencing on Wednesday afternoon, October 12, at 3:45. All lectures will be at the same place and the same hour.

The course is as follows: October 12, "The Humanity of Shakespeare;" October 19, "The Ethical Awakening: The Merchant of Venice;" October 26, "Facing the Mystery: Hamlet;" November 2, "The Tragedy of Ambition: Macbeth;" November 9, "World Force and the Individual: Antony and Cleopatra;" November 16, "The Final Attitude: The Tempest." Prof. Griggs, who is recognized as a Shakespearian scholar, is well known here as a lecturer, his course on "The Divine Comedy" two years ago attracting widespread attention.

CO. K ANXIOUS.

Local Soldier Boys Want Result of the Sea Girt Shoot.

As no figures showing the exact standing of the leading competitors for the regimental championship trophy now held by Company K, have been given out, the local riflemen are feeling somewhat impatient for the result which was expected to be announced some days ago at the latest.

The change in conditions when it was decided to allow men to count in the trophy contest who failed to qualify on the regular company, but later succeeded in coming up to the mark, has, it is felt work a disadvantage to the Plainfield boys who have not the means to make repeated trips and buy extra ammunition as have some of the rival companies.

Bill Smith After Fire Bug.

Despite persistent efforts the citizens of New Market have thus far been unable to learn who set fire to the public school in that place recently. A reward aggregating $800 is offered for the arrest and conviction of the guilty party or parties. "Mayor Bill" Smith contributed $100 toward the fund, and yesterday he said that if he could learn who set fire to the building he would be willing to give $500

Convention Arrangements.

There was a special meeting of the boys' work committee, of the Y. M. C. A. at the association last evening. Plans were completed for the boys' convention to be held in this city the last Thursday, Friday and Saturday in September.

MISS LAURA HOLDER WEDS A MICHIGAN MAN

FORMER PLAINFIELD GIRL BECOMES WIFE OF W. A. GRAHAM.

Miss Laura Apgar Holder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Holder, formerly of Westervelt avenue, and William Alexander Graham, son of William Douglass Graham, of Tawas City, Michigan, were married Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents in Roseville, Essex county, by Rev. Dr. Cornelius Schenck, pastor of Trinity Reformed church.

The bride as gowned in a dark blue travelling dress, with hat to match. She and her husband will make an extended trip to Michigan, stopping at Niagara Flals and Albany on their return They received a great many handsome presents, including cut glass, Haviland china, table linen and other useful and ornamental gifts.

Among the guests present at the wedding were: Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Cornelius Schenck, Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Holder, Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Holder, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Taylor, of this city; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Gernert, of Somerville; Mr. and Mrs. William Graham, of Albany; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Grant, of Newark, and Miss R. C. Peay, of New York city.

POSTOFFICE BUILDING NOT LIKELY FOR A TIME

ONE OFFICIAL BELIEVES YEARS WILL ELAPSE BEFORE IT IS ERECTED.

The prospects of Plainfield having a Government building in which to put her postoffice at an early date, is considered very slight according to one official who ventured the opinion today that it would not be built inside of ten years He mentioned the fact that Elizabeth has been trying for several years to get such a building and he thought that the county seat with its large population and the home of Congressman Fowler and United States Senator Kean should have the first call.

The Plainfield postoffice is now in the first-class and has fulfilled all requirements necessary to secure a Government building, but when it is considered that there are but a very few such buildings in the State, it is not to be considered at that this city is an exception. New Brunswck was many years securing such a structure, and a Plainfielder remarked today that he would rather see the local office where it is than in the kind of a building erected for the purpose in New Brunswick. He said that the building will be too small in a few years.

In the bill introduced by Senator Kean for Plainfield's proposed building, $100,000 was named as the figure. To this some persons took exception, forgetting that if the Government starts a building, it will complete it even though the cost be greater than th amount first named. All things considered Plainfield is believed to be very comfortably fixed so far as its postoffice home is concerned.

The present quarters for the postoffice costs the Government $1,500 a year in rental and to this must be added the $500 necessary to have the mail carried between the office and the railroad station. The Government is obliged to stand the expense of having the mail taken back and forth because the postoffice is located just outside the district cared for by the railroad company. If the office was the width of Front street near the railroad station, the New Jersey Central would have to provide ways and means for having the mail taken back and forth to the station.

The question has at times been a perplexing one, as it is difficult to get a reliable person who is willing to carry the mail for the limited salary. Many persons have taken the job only to give it up soon afterward. A great many trips between the office and the railroad station have to be made daily and the mail is often very heavy, especially at holiday times.

The first number of "The Oracle," published by the pupils of the City High School will be out on the first Wednesday in October. This edition marks the beginning of the third volume of that paper.

Class Officers.

The class of '05 of the Borough High School has elected these officers: President, Clarence Hand; vice president and treasurer, Grover Kipsey; secretary, Otto Menck.

BOROUGH TAX RATE $2.46

Thirteen Points Lower Than Last Year Says Assessor.

CARRIES OUT PROMISE

Total Amount of Tax to be Raised in North Plainfield is $64,779.69.

Editor, The Daily Press:

In response to your request to furnish you with an exact statement of what the rate of taxation will be in the borough of North Plainfield for the current fiscal year, I beg to state:

That the total amount of property assessed by me is $2,668,875, of which $2,408,350 is real estate and $260,525 is personal. The total amount of tax to be raised is $64,779.69. The tax rate will be $2.46, or thirteen points less than last year.

The increase of taxable property over last year is $134,565, of which $50,000 only is due to the non-exemption of firemen and soldiers. The balance of increase is due to natural growth, and to the additions made where there were inequalities of assessments of recent years.

It was expected by the Citizens' party who elected me to office in the borough last spring, that there should be if possible, a reduction in the tax rate, if an honest and fair assessment would produce such a result, and I have faithfully endeavored to carry out the voice of the people in this respect.

J. H. Cooley, Assessor.

SOMERVILLE TO BRING N. Y. NATIONALS BATTERY

SOMERSET CLUB STAKES ALL ON DEFEATING PLAINFIELD.

One of the best ball games of the season is scheduled for Crescent Oval tomorrow, when the Plainfield A. C. and the West Ends, of Somerville, will meet for the first time. It is almost a certainty that George Wiltse, of the New York Nationals, who has not lost a game this season, will pitch for the Somerset county aggregation, and it is said that Marshall, of the Giants, will catch. As for the balance of the nine, there is reason to believe that the crack Hoboken team will represent Somerville. The management says "it's anything to win."

Manager Johnston is not alarmed and he will have a strong team to oppose the visitors. There is a possibility that Cronin, of the Brooklyns, will pitch for the home team, but otherwise there will be no changes. Joe Alberts, formerly of the Aeolians, will be extra.

Workmen are engaged at Crescent Oval today getting the field in condition and providing means for the drainage of the surface water. There is no other field handy, where ample seating accommodation is to be had, else the contest might have been transferred to another diamond. Every effort will be made to have the oval in the best possible condition, even if a fire engine has to be used to pump the water out.

TOOK WIFE'S MONEY.

An Old Story Reversed, Aired in the County Court at Elizabeth Wednesday.

Richard C. Carpenter, of Fanwood, was arraigned before Judge Vail in the Court of Special Sessions on Wednesday on the charge of stealing $23 from his wife. He declared that he had taken $23 out of his wife's wallet, but offered the defense that the money was as much his as his wife's, with whom he was living at the time.

On motion of Prosecutor English, the accused was remanded for a week. Neither the court nor the married members of the bar seemed to wish to take the responsibility of believing that a man could steal money from his wife.

Traffic Blocked.

A westbound freight train was held up in this city for over an hour this morning, owing to the jumping of a freight car at the Washington avenue bridge. The derailed car was carried as far as the Park avenue bridge before the train was stopped. By that time the body of the car had left the trucks and it projected over the main westbound passenger tracks, holding up the 7:44 Philadelphia express for some time. The obstruction was finally removed through the combined efforts of both trains, one pulling and the other pushing the wrecked car off the main track. The wrecking train was sent here and new trucks were placed under the freight car.

LOCAL DEATH RATE LOW

Interesting Statistics From the Twelfth Census.

POPULATION IS DENSE

Causes of Death and the Record for Longevity Are Given.

According to the abstract of the twelfth census which has just appeared, New Jersey ranks sixteenth in population among the States and has a density of population of 250.3 per square mile. New Jersey has nearly one hundred people per square mile more than New York State, the Empire State having 152.6 per square mile. There are only two States with a greater density of population than New Jersey, namely, Rhode Island, 407, and Massachusetts, 348 9 inhabitants per square mile. The District of Columbia, however, exceeds any of the commonwealths in this respect, having 4,645.3 inhabitants per square mile.

New Jersey has added to her population more rapidly, in proportion to population, during the last three census periods than any State east of the Mississippi River. This means that New Jersey shows a greater percentage in increase of population during the thirty years up to 1900, than even Illinois, with the wonderful growth of Chicago, which has more than quadrupled during the last three census periods. Between 1890 and 1900 New Jersey added 438,726 to her population, an increase of 20 4 per cent.; between 1880 and 1890 there was an increase of 313,817 to the population of the State, the percentage of increase being 27.7; between 1870 and 1880 the increase was 225,020, or 24 8 per cent.

The death rate per 1,000 population in the principal cities of New Jersey is as follows: Atlantic City, 16.7 persons died to every 1,000 inhabitants in 1900; Bayonne, 16.7 persons; Bridgeton, 14 4 persons; Camden, 16 3 persons; Elizabeth, 17.5 persons; Harrison, 22 1 persons; Hoboken, 21.1 persons; Jersey City, 20.7 persons; Millville, 16.6 persons; Montclair, 15.5 persons; Morristown, 17 persons; Newark, 19.8 persons; New Brunswick, 21 2 persons; Orange, 20 3 persons; Passaic, 20.3 persons; Paterson, 19 persons; Perth Amboy, 14 1 persons; Phillipsburg, 16 persons; Plainfield, 15.7 persons; Union, 13.6 persons; Trenton, 16 persons. East Orange and a number of other important New Jersey cities and towns are not reported under vival statistics.

During the year 8,368 deaths were caused in New Jersey by pneumonia, 8,192 by consumption, 2,507 bowl troubles, 919 diphtheria and croup, 396 typhoid fever, 443 influenza, 110 malarial fever, 330 whooping cough, 239 scarlet fever and 206 measles.

New Jersey has 79,617 inhabitnts who are sixty-five years of age and upward 109,474 fifty-five to sixty-four years.

The age period showing the greatest population in the State over any other age period is between the ages of thirty-five and forty-four years. The next greatest number in any age period are children under five years of age.

Barrister's Suit Postponed.

The hearing of the case of William G. DeMeza, Esq., against Mrs. Carrie Carbone, which was to have been held before Judge Vail at the Elizabeth District Court Wednesday morning, has been postponed until next Thursday. DeMeza brings the action to secure money alleged to be owing him for legal services during the proceedings brought against Mrs. Carbone early in the summer for conducting a "speak easy" on Park avenue. V. W. Nash, Jr., will be Mrs. Carbone's counsel in the case.

Vets Reunion.

The twenty-fourth annual reunion of the Fifteenth Regiment, New Jersey Volunteers' Veteran Association was held at Dover yesterday. The business meeting was held at the headquarters of James McDavitt Post, No. 54, G. A. R., and was followed by a social meeting of the regiment.

POINTS FOR THE BUYERS

READY REFERENCES FOR THE LOCAL BARGAIN SEEKER.

William Hand & Son, of East Second street, contracts to do all kinds of moving. He employs only experienced men and guarantees all work to be satisfactory.

Special accommodations at the Hotel Kensington for transient guests and travelling men. Family rates on application. Nearly opposite the North Avenue station.

If you have not made arrangements to have your house painted or papered, you had better consult with I. N. Wyckoff, of West Front street, and get prices on this work.

Breakfast deliveries of rolls and bread from Wirth's bakery. The wagon starts out early enough to make all deliveries before breakfast. Bakery on West Front street.

Sigmund Frucht has a store on Park Row, New York, but you can get automobile supplies, bicycles and sporting goods at his West Front street store at the same prices.

Why suffer with sore feet when Thorp's foot relief will give you that much-desired comfort? There is no better remedy known for the feet and a trial will convince you of this.

W. W. Dunn, the Park grocer, corner of Lincoln place and Duer street, is located within the proper distance of the Washington Park residence district for prompt deliveries. Tel. 241.

"Oysters and clams" at Fred Ivamy's seafood market on West Second street. Fresh consignments of bivalves received every Friday. Breakfast deliveries of fish and oysters in city and borough.

Nothing like getting your roasts and steaks from a butcher who is at the top of list. It insures satisfaction in every particular, quality, prompt service and general reliability, to have your orders booked by Smalley Bros.

Unless your preferences tend in the direction of famine prices for hats, neckwear, gloves and other men's furnishings, you will steer clear of metropolitan haberdashers and give your patronage to James R. Blair, of Park avenue.

Depositors at the First National Bank run no risks. When you put your money there, you are sure of receiving your interest regularly and you know that you can draw it out again when you will. Safe and strong, outside and inside.

"Hello 367 L! Has that new fall line of rugs and carpets come in yet. I want to look them over as soon as possible for I place every reliance in your good taste." "Why yes! Mrs. Goode, we also have on hand a new lot of Holland window shades which we will fit to windows of any size on short notice, they are really fine goods."

A. M. Griffen desires to call the attention of the public to his up to-date tinning and plumbing department and that now is the time to have your heater put in order for the winter. Estimates are cheerfully given and all work is guaranteed to give satisfaction. Take a look at Mr. Griffen's housefurnishing department, one of the best in the city.

The Atlantic and Pacific Tea Company is advertising specials in all kinds of groceries at their West Front street store. The goods are all strictly fresh and of standard brands, several cents cheaper than at other stores. The firm gives green trading stamps and they are giving them lavishly with these bargains. Call at the store this week and make your purchases.

Of course, every woman will be interested in the grand dress goods' opening at Woodhull & Martin's store. Here will be found the finest display of goods yet shown in the city, and there is an exclusiveness and variety about them that the women like. While the goods are to be found in many attractive colors, there is a pleasing assortment of blacks that appeals to persons of quiet tastes. The housefurnishing goods department is always an attractive place, many bargains being constantly offered.

A World's Wonder.

We often hear of the seven wonders, though in these times there are perhaps one hundred times that number, and perhaps the most popular wonder region in this vicinity is Mauch Chunk. Mauch Chunk is high up in the Pennsylvania mountains, and the several peaks have wide outlooks in every direction. A main attraction is the Switchback Railroad, the road forms an eighteen mile loop over and around the mountains, and is a very novel engineering feat. The first incline extends up Mount Pisgah to a height of 1370 feet above tide water. The car then bowls along a decline for several miles only to reach the base of another mountain which is climbed to a height of 1580 feet above tide water. The descent to the home stretch lies through a beautiful valley, and when the journey is finished the tourist is rather anxious for a renewal of the experience. On September 18, 1904, the New Jersey Central is to run a popular priced excursion to Mauch Chunk, the rate for the round trip to be $1.50. Special train leaves Plainfield at 9:20 a. m., arriving at Mauch Chunk early in the day, and as the return trip does not leave the Mountain City until 5:40 p. m., there is plenty of time for exploring the charms of Mauch Chunk.

Nasal CATARRH

In all its stages there should be cleanliness.

Ely's Cream Balm cleanses, soothes and heals the diseased membrane. It cures catarrh and drives away a cold in the head quickly.

Cream Balm is placed into the nostrils, spreads over the membrane and is absorbed. Relief is immediate and a cure follows. It is not drying—does not produce sneezing. Large Size, 50 cents at Druggists or by mail; Trial Size, 10 cents by mail.

ELY BROTHERS, 56 Warren Street, New York.

Fresh Vegetables.

We go on the principal that good quality pays both you and us, first, last and all the time. You'll find here the very choicest selection of fresh Vegetables—now's a good time to buy them for canning, as they're low in price.

RESULTS AT BRIGHTON.

King Pepper, 20 to 1, Wins the Mercury Handicap.

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—King Pepper, at 20 to 1, won the Mercury handicap, the feature of the card at Brighton Beach. Lady Amelia made the running to the stretch, where King Pepper and Mineola moved up. King Pepper won driving by a head.

Jim Beattie, backed down from 30 to 1 to 8 to 1, won the last race. As a result of the colt's victory the ring suffered a heavy loss.

P. J. Gorman claimed Vidalia out of the first race for $2,000.

The track was in remarkably good condition, but the weather was cold. Summaries:

First race, Lochinvar, 6 to 5, first; Ike S., 5 to 1, second; Salt and Pepper, 30 to 1, third; time, 1:14 2-5.

Second race, Lord Badge, 8 to 5, first; New York, 10 to 1, second; Dimple, 12 to 5, third; time, 1:47 1-5.

Third race, Ishiana, 3 to 1, first; Van Ness, 6 to 1, second; Sais, 15 to 1, third; time, 1:13 2-5.

Fourth race, King Pepper, 20 to 1, first; Mineola, 3½ to 1, second; Lady Amelia, 5 to 1, third; time, 1:13.

Fifth race, Spring, 17 to 10, first; Africander, 17 to 10, second; Carbuncle, 11 to 5, third; time, 2:05 4-5.

Sixth race, Jim Beattie, 8 to 1, first; Blucher, 2 to 1, second; Zeala, 2 to 1, third; time, 1:07 3-5.

The Readville Races.

READVILLE, Mass., Sept. 16.—Considering the immense downpour of rain in the morning, the Readville track was in very good shape for the races. Sonata was a big favorite for the unfinished 2:24 trotting event from Tuesday, but the New York gelding Alberto proved a surprise by taking both heats and the race. Grace Bond won the colt race handily, only losing the second heat by a break at the distance flag, when it looked as though she was going easily in the lead. She was the favorite. The 2:14 pacing class was very closely contested, the judges having considerable difficulty in separating the leading horses at the wire in two of the heats. Barnetta B., the winner, was the second choice. Euxenite had little trouble in taking first money in the 2:18 trotting event, much to the delight of the form players. The 2:12 trotting race was left unfinished on account of darkness. Invader was the favorite. Both of the heats decided were productive of thrilling finishes between three of the foremost horses.

Marines Win Creedmoor Trophy.

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—With the sun shining brightly, the air cool and shooting conditions altogether satisfactory, four teams of expert marksmen, each team consisting of six men, competed at Creedmoor range for the $200 trophy in the Seventy-first regiment, New York state national guard, skirmish and rapid fire match. Two of the teams represented the United States marine corps. The other two represented respectively the Seventy-first regiment and the Seventh regiment, New York national guard. The trophy and the accompanying cash prize of $50 was won by team No. 1 from the United States marine corps, with a total of 1,116 out of a possible 1,800.

Delagoa Wins Fleetwood Handicap.

CHICAGO, Sept. 16.—Delagoa, with 117 pounds up and at 50 to 1 in the betting, won the Fleetwood handicap by two lengths from Floral King at Hawthorne. Fig Leaf was third, a short neck behind Floral King. Delagoa was much the best and won eased up. She broke in front and led Floral King into stride [illegible] turn and then went on [illegible] ended. Kurtzman, the [illegible] in the race, was [illegible] the fun longs and then [illegible] went to the post favorite [illegible] stake was won [illegible]

BIG FIRE IN HALIFAX

Nova Scotian City Barely Escapes Being Wiped Out.

DYNAMITE PREVENTS HOLOCAUST.

British Admiral Directs Blowing Up of Buildings In Path of Conflagration—Loss Estimated at Half a Million.

HALIFAX, N. S., Sept. 16.—A fortunate shift of wind undoubtedly saved Halifax from a disastrous conflagration, but nevertheless the city suffered a loss of half a million dollars from a fire which swept the business part of the water front and whose progress was only stayed by the dynamiting of a dozen buildings by the sailors from the fleet and soldiers from the garrison.

Between 3 and 4 o'clock in the afternoon, when the fire was at its height and a fearful southerly gale was pushing it straight toward the heart of the business center, consternation reigned throughout the entire city. It seemed almost providential when shortly after 4 o'clock the wind suddenly veered to the west and turned the flames along the wharves and warehouses.

There the fire raged on lower Water street, practically beyond control, until 7 o'clock at night, when 200 sailors with torpedo apparatus landed from H. M. S. Ariadne and Indefatigable and with the assistance of 200 troops from the garrison checked further progress by removing, with the aid of dynamite, a dozen small buildings.

The fire consumed six wharves, two coal piers, two hotels, a dozen large warehouses and a number of retail shops. The loss of half a million is covered by $200,000 of insurance.

During the fire a large tree fell, killing Flora Ring, twenty-eight years, and wounding two others.

Admiral Sir Archibald Douglas personally directed the sailors in protecting imperial property, and 200 marines patrolled the streets.

Bank Robber Shot by Citizens.

COSHOCTON, O., Sept. 16.—Alva Rivers is in jail here mortally wounded. He was shot by a posse of citizens while he was trying to rob the bank at Warsaw, O., ten miles from here. His brother, Verne, was captured later after a desperate hand to hand fight. The officers arranged for the robbery with William King, who was taken into the confidence of the Rivers boys. Six citizens were on guard at Warsaw, and when Alva Rivers broke into the bank they fired shotguns at him. He has fifty-six shot in his body. He says he is not going to die and swears vengeance on King for leading him into the trap.

Old Woman's Body Found In Woods.

ATTLEBORO, Mass., Sept. 16.—Frank Quinn and Arthur Bradshaw while passing through the woods near the Rhode Island line, a short distance from this place, found the mutilated body of Mrs. Dennis Crowley, an aged woman. A man known as Captain John Allingham, who had lived at Mrs. Crowley's home for some time, was arrested in Pawtucket on suspicion of having caused her death. Mrs. Crowley was seventy years old. Her husband died some time ago. Allingham is also about seventy years of age.

Star Route Mail Bids Asked.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.—The postoffice department issued advertisements inviting proposals for carrying the mails on all the star and steamboat routes in New England, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, Virginia and West Virginia for the next contract term of four years beginning July 1, 1905. The advertisements include 4,879 mail routes, on which the present contract pay is approximately $1,555,000 per annum.

Schenectady Police Chief Drops Dead

SCHENECTADY, N. Y., Sept. 16.—Chief of Police William L. Campbell, one of the best known police officials in the state, died suddenly here of heart disease. He had been at the head of the local department for thirty-two years. Twenty-five years ago he was prominent in the athletic world and held several championships in Scottish games. He was sixty-three years of age.

Bad Storm In Rhode Island.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Sept. 16.—Reports of minor washouts, fallen trees and broken electric wires, caused by Wednesday night's heavy downpour and the accompanying high wind, came from all portions of the state, and, though the damage was extensive in the aggregate, the loss is scattered over a wide area. The rainfall in this city was 3.7 inches.

Geographers at West Point.

WEST POINT, N. Y., Sept. 16.—The members of the geographical congress visited the Military academy, arriving just after the conclusion of the review for the Institute of Civil Engineers of Great Britain, but in time to witness the dress parade of the cadets.

Will the Black band rule New Jersey?

Higgins was unanimously named for Governor by Odell yesterday.

All the time is the best time. Don't wait to begin advertising until you want something. The future will soon be the present, and taking care of tomorrow is taking care of today.—The Lyceumite, Chicago.

The New Brunswick Home News plea for heavier gubernatorial timber has the right ring. That paper argues that the calibre of men selected as gubernatorial candidates is far from what it should be, adding that "whether it be Black or Stokes in November it will be a politician." It gives a list of names of great men of New Jersey, an eminent jurist, a distinguished scholar, a great business man and a learned lawyer, who would be an honor to New Jersey as its chief executive. But the Home News neglects to tell why "we must always be tied to dyed-in-the-wool politician." The fact is that those selected are blinded party men and can be depended upon to do the will of the bosses regardless of the interests of the people.

PERSONAL.

Herbert J. DuBois, of Putnam avenue, is home from an extensive pleasure trip.

F. M. Ward and family, of Fairview avenue, are home from their summer vacation.

George W. VanCamp, of Somerset place, is visiting relatives at South Branch for a few days.

William Owens, of Lee place, has returned from the St. Louis Exposition. Mrs. Owens also spent several weeks travelling through Mexico and Texas.

Dr. E. W. Hedges, of Watchung avenue, returned yesterday from his vacation, which was spent at the St. Louis Exposition and in travelling through the west.

For Allentown Fair.

The Allentown Fair is by all odds one of the most unique exhibitions of the country. Its attendance is simply enormous, and you ask why? Everything is complete to the minutest detail. The entertainments are exceptionally fine. The live stock show has no equal. The fruit and vegetable exhibits are among the finest procurable, and with the genuine good time always found at Allentown, there is no reason why the fair should not be popular. On September 22 the New Jersey Central will sell tickets at $1.50 to Allentown and special train will leave Plainfield at 7:32 a. m. 9 16 5

NEW JERSEY LEADS AT ST. LOUIS EXPOSITION

ITS EDUCATIONAL EXHIBIT AS AT THE PAST FAIRS THE FINEST.

Silas R. Morse, curator of the State museum at the State House, Trenton, and superintendent of the New Jersey educational exhibit at the St. Louis Exposition, has left for the fair to superintend the judging of exhibits and the awarding of the prizes. The judges began the examination of the exhibits a few days ago.

Curator Morse was in charge of the exhibit during the early part of the summer, but was compelled to return home owing to illness. During his absence the exhibit has been in charge of J. E. Cresse, of Princeton University, brother of State Senator Lewis M. Cresse, of Cape May county.

Mr. Morse states that the New Jersey educational exhibit is unquestionably the best of the kind at the exposition, and he expects that, following the securing by this State of gold medals for the most superior exhibit at the Chicago, Charleston and Buffalo expositions, another medal will be added to the number for the finest showing among all the states at St. Louis.

The exhibit of live salt water fish from this State, which is shown in tanks forty feet across, is the only one worth mentioning at the fair, and will undoubtedly receive the first prize. The water in the tanks is kept constantly running by means of force pumps, and is also filtered every day.

In connection with this exhibit there is also shown a characteristic Jersey oyster bed, under running salt water, with the oysters living and growing, showing the bivalves in the various stage of their development the whole presenting the life of the oyster exactly as it is under natural condition. This is the first time in the history of the world, as far as known, that such an exhibit has been made. This exhibit is one of the star features of the exposition.

New Jersey's insect exhibit at the fair, which includes the collection of mosquitoes and a graphic exposition of the work being done in this State for their extirpation, is attracting the attention of scientists from all parts of the world, who are at St. Louis, and the part of this exhibit relating to the mosquitoes is being studied by foreign savants, with a view of adopting the Jersey methods in riding other parts of the world of the troublesome insect.

—There will be 150 baskets of white and yellow peaches at 75, 85, $1 and $1 25 a basket, at Neuman Brothers', tomorrow.

—Unless there should be some important business to be considered beforehand, the Common Council will not meet again until the first Monday in October.

SUBURBAN NEWS.

DUNELLEN AND VICINITY.

The prospects of a strong football team in the borough are very bright just at present. A meeting is to be held at Vail & Alberts' on Monday evening and on that occasion a manager will be elected and definite plans agreed upon. Maltby, formerly of the Orient F. C., of Newark; Lake, of the Orange F. C.; Corney Coyle, Ernest Peters and other well known players will be in the lineup. The season will open October 1 with a game with Somerville.

The Middlesex County Republican convention was held at New Brunswick yesterday and as was expected, everything passed off quietly. John H. Conger was nominated for County Clerk, and Messrs. Fordyce, Martin and Henry were renominated for the Assembly.

A very pleasant meeting of the Epworth League was held at the home of Miss May Apgar last evening. Miss May Apgar and Miss Louise Doolittle related experiences of their recent trip to Europe. Refreshments were served and music made the evening more enjoyable.

The new switch tower is to be raised next Sunday as the supports and foundations have all been gotten into place. The raising will be witnessed by many of the railroad officials.

The Cranford F. C. will be greatly strengthened for Saturday's game which the locals and the Cranford manager promises that this contest will not be as one sided as the last one.

Some improvements are contemplated about the Vars building in the near future. The old wooden shed and platform in front of the building will be replaced by a concrete pavement.

Manager Vail, of the Dunellen A. C., has arranged a game with the Chesbro Manufacturing Co. team, of Perth Amboy, for October 1. This will end the local season.

Sheppard Randolph, of Randolphville, is expected home in a few days from Alaska, where he has been spending the summer with an engineering corps.

A new tennis club, comprising a number of young people in the borough, are now looking for a suitable place as a clubhouse for the winter months.

The Sunshine Circle, of Holy Innocents' church, are preparing to hold "home made" sales the first and third Saturdays of every month during the winter.

Lewis Churchill will leave in a short time to resume his studies at Columbia University.

The registry list is now posted in the postoffice and should be examined by all voters.

Miss Janet Lake has entered the Plainfield High School in the sophomore class.

Mrs. Barney Siriski and Mrs. Clement Dixon spent Tuesday in Elizabeth.

Walter E. Rutherford, of Newark, has returned home after a week's visit in town.

William Carpenter, of Bayonne, visited old friends in the borough yesterday.

Work has been started on the new house to be erected by William Terry.

Mrs. Frank Wynkoop has returned home from a visit to Asbury Park.

A special meeting of the W. C. T. U. was held yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Arthur Vail has been confined to her home by a severe illness.

Ziba Osmun is suffering from an attack of rheumatism.

A meeting of Lakeside Council was held last evening.

'PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

The match game between the Suburban bowling team and the Aeolian team, of Garwood, which was to have been bowled on the Suburban alleys last night, was called off on account of the fuse being burned out on the electric light circuit in the borough during the heavy storm Wednesday night.

The heavy showers of Wednesday afternoon and night, flooded Park avenue from the meadow bridge to the bridge near the borough line. This is the lowest spot on Park avenue and always fills up with a heavy rain, but never before as bad as on Wednesday night.

No ball game will be played on the local diamond tomorrow. Everyone interested in the game will be found at Crescent Oval, as the West Ends, the former local team, is to meet the P. A. C. team.

Only one delinquent tax sale is to be held in the borough. Collector Charles Schesler always manages to present pretty near a clean budget before the time arrives to advertise delinquents.

A number of young people from town attended the opening dance of Prof. O'Reilley's dancing class, held last night in the I. C. T. rooms, North avenue, Plainfield.

Mrs. Ella Rogers and daughter, Miss Estella, of Brooklyn, were the guests Thursday of Mrs. Rogers' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alvah Ryno, of Front street.

John VanArsdale, who has sold his blacksmith shop in the borough, will return to his former home in New York State.

Twilight Council, Jr. O. U. A. M., held a well attended weekly session in the library rooms last night.

The weekly prayer and teachers' meeting will be held in the parlors of the Baptist church tonight.

Miss Mary Westcott, of the borough, is spending several weeks with relatives at Bridgeton, N. J.

Samuel Walpole, of White Plains, N. Y., is spending a week with his brother, Robert Walpole.

The storm put the electric light circuit on Front street out of commission last night.

Mrs. Charles Meyers has been spending a week with relatives and friends in New York.

The new bowling alleys at the West Side House will be opened to the public tonight.

The Industrial School reopens in Meyers' Hall shortly.

SOUTH PLAINFIELD.

Camp 41, P. O. S. of A., will hold a rally on Thursday evening, Sept. 22. Members of neighboring camps at Plainfield, Amboy and New Brunswick will be the guests of Camp 41, in Washington Hall.

Hollis Cubberley will return to Brown University, at Providence, R. I., tomorrow.

P. H. S. FOOTBALL.

Squad of Players Preparing for the Season—Regular Practice Begins Next Week.

There is all reason to believe that the city High School will be represented on the football field this fall by a determined if not a heavy team. The spirit in which the boys have taken up the subject of football is very good, and speaks well for the team when it is organized. That the material will be necessarily light is undoubtedly true, but there are some good players among the squad, which presented itself at the meeting two days ago. William Douglass was elected captain of the team and on the squad are Harold Robert, Harry Shrager, Gerth Williams, Ralph Taylor, Arthur Loizeaux, Stuart Freeman Harold Todd and Phillip Smith. George Bentley is manager of the team for the coming season, and will arrange a full schedule among teams of equal weight. Regular practice will begin next week, and the boys will prepare themselves to work as soon as possible.

Preparations are being made by the Sunshine Circle, of Holy Innocents' church, Dunellen, to hold a fair in the guild room the first part of November, when Christmas gifts for old and young can be purchased at reasonable prices.

Guard Against Baldness.

Why neglect your hair? Is it coming out? Nature is telling you that your hair needs attention and care. You can safely guard against baldness by using Randolph's Compound Quinine and Glycerine Hair Tonic.

It thoroughly cleanses the scalp—nourishes the roots of the hair stops it from falling out and promotes a new and luxuriant growth. For your appearance and comfort's sake, get a bottle, use it night and morning, and you'll have a beautiful head of hair.

Price 50c per bottle.

HEIR TO ITALY'S THRONE.

Queen Helena Gives Birth to a Baby Boy.

RACCONIGI, Italy, Sept. 16.—Queen Helena was safely delivered of a son at 11 o'clock last night at the royal palace here. Both mother and child are doing well. The infant has received the name of Humbert and the title of Prince of Piedmont.

Queen Helena, the mother of the newborn Prince of Piedmont and heir to the throne of Italy, is the daughter of Nicholas, prince of Montenegro, and was married to the present King Victor Emmanuel, then Prince of Naples, on Oct. 24, 1896. The first child of the king and queen, a girl named Yolanda, was born on June 1, 1901. The second daughter, Mafalda, was born on Nov. 19, 1902. The birth of a son and heir to the king of Italy may be expected to increase greatly the popularity of Queen Helena with the Italians.

ST. LOUIS DAY.

Five Hundred Thousand Persons Throng the Fair Grounds.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 16.—The largest assemblage of people ever congregated within the confines of St. Louis thronged the world's fair grounds in celebration of "St. Louis day." The opinion was freely expressed by those accustomed to estimating large gatherings that the attendance was in the neighborhood of 500,000 persons. Secretary W. B. Stevens was more conservative in his estimate, as he stated that he was confident at least 385,000 persons were in the grounds.

But whatever the record is the fact remains that the grounds were crowded.

Every street was packed, every building was filled, and from end to end of the grounds there was visible a constantly moving army of people. The Pike was almost impassable.

Great Damage In Delaware.

WILMINGTON, Del., Sept. 16.—The storm of wind and rain which swept over Delaware during the greater part of the night was of almost unprecedented violence, and great destruction was caused. The rainfall for the twenty-four hours ended at 7 o'clock yesterday morning was 5.95 inches, far exceeding all previous records. All throughout this city trees were uprooted and stripped of their branches, while houses were flooded from damaged roofs and choked sewers. The steeple of St. Paul's Catholic church was partly destroyed.

Americans Popular With the Kaiser.

BERLIN, Sept. 16.—Emperor William's interest in and partiality for Americans is shown by the dispatch of a number of large signed portraits which his majesty is sending as personal gifts to Americans with whom he has had social relations. Included among those to whom portraits have been sent are A. J. Drexel, Allison Armour, Frederick W. Vanderbilt and Douglas Robinson. The emperor has also paid especial courtesies to American military officers who have been attending the maneuvers at Altona.

Newfoundland Legislature Dissolved

ST. JOHN'S, N. F., Sept. 16.—The Newfoundland legislature has been dissolved. A general election for a new parliament will occur Oct. 31 with three parties in the field, the government party headed by Premier Bond being opposed by two organizations, one headed by ex-Premier Whiteway and the other by ex-Premier Goodridge.

Proposals

For Wiring New High School.

Pursuant to a resolution adopted by the Board of Education of the city of Plainfield, New Jersey, at a meeting held September 6, 1904, notice is hereby given that the Board of Education will meet on Tuesday evening, September 20, 1904, at 7:45 p. m., at the Board room in the High School building, corner of West Fifth street and Arlington avenue, in the city of Plainfield, at which time and place said Board of Education will receive sealed proposals for the wiring of the new High School Building, as provided in the revised plans and specifications now on file in the office of the Board, in the High School building, corner of West Fifth street and Arlington avenue, Plainfield, New Jersey, until the day and hour of meeting as above mentioned. Plans and specifications may also be seen at the office of the architect, Mr. Herbert D. Hale, 92 William street, New York.

Upon receipt of the bids or proposals at the time and place specified, the Board will immediately proceed to unseal the same and publicly announce the contents in the presence of the parties bidding or their agents, provided such parties or their agents choose to be then and there present, and also to make proper record of the prices and terms upon the minutes of the Board.

All proposals should be endorsed "Sealed proposals for wiring of new High School building." The Board reserves the right to reject any or all bids, or to ask for modifications of the same.

AN ORDINANCE

for the permanent improvement of certain streets and portions of streets, of the City of Plainfield, with permanent and durable macadam pavement, and to provide the necessary funds in advance of the collection of assessments for benefits.

The Inhabitants of the City of Plainfield, by their Common Council, do enact as follows:

Section 1. That the following streets and parts of streets of the City of Plainfield, shall be permanently improved with durable macadam pavement to be completely laid and constructed on or before the thirtieth day of November, A. D., 1904, said macadam pavement to be of the depth and width hereinafter specified; that on Monroe avenue, Spooner avenue and Lee place to be equal in every respect to the macadamizing on Clinton avenue between South Second street and West Third street, and that on the remaining streets to be in every respect equal to the macadamizing on Madison avenue, between West Sixth street and West Seventh street, in said city, and all work to be given out upon contract to the lowest responsible bidder, and only after bids therefore shall have been solicited and received according to law, all bids to specify prices for each of said streets or parts of streets separately.

Monroe avenue from the southeasterly curb line of South Second street to the northwesterly curb line of West Seventh street;

Spooner avenue from the southeasterly curb line of West Third street to the northwesterly curb line of West Eighth street;

Lee place, from the southeasterly curb line of South Second street to the northwesterly curb line of West Seventh street;

Carlton avenue, from the northerly curb line of Putnam avenue to the southeasterly curb line of East Seventh street;

Kensington avenue, from the northerly curb line of Watchung avenue to the southeasterly curb line of East Seventh street;

Randolph road, from the easterly curb line of Plainfield avenue to Cedar Brook;

Norwood avenue;

New street, from the southeasterly curb line of West Front street to the northwesterly curb line of West Seventh street;

Berkeley avenue, from the easterly curb line of Ravine road to the southerly curb line of Park Terrace;

Denmark road, from the easterly curb line of Belvidere avenue to the proposed macadamizing on Berkeley avenue.

Sec. 2. That said streets and parts of streets described in Section 1, excepting Monroe avenue, shall be macadamized for a width of sixteen feet, that is to say, eight feet on each side of the center lines thereof; Monroe avenue from South Second street to West Fourth street shall be macadamized for a width of thirty feet, that is to say, fifteen feet on each side of the center line thereof, and from West Fourth street to West Seventh street for a width of thirty-six feet, that is to say, eighteen feet on each side of the centre line thereof; Monroe avenue, Spooner avenue and Lee place to have a depth of eight inches of iron slag and trap rock, and the remaining streets to have a depth running from six inches in the centre to four inches at the sides, and the macadamizing preparation shall be laid down to the grades already established by ordinance for said streets or portions of streets respectively.

Sec. 3. That for the purpose of obtaining money by the sale of bonds hereinafter specified for the permanent improvement of said streets and parts of streets as aforesaid, in advance of the collection of assessments for benefits, the Common Council of the city do hereby, pursuant to the statute in such case made and provided, authorize the issuing of twelve registered municipal bonds of the City of Plainfield, of One Thousand Dollars each, amounting in all to twelve thousand dollars, which bonds shall bear interest at the rate of five per centum per annum, payable semi-annually and be payable three years from said date of issue with the option of the City to redeem or pay off the said bonds, or any one or more of them at any time after one year from date of issue, and before three years from said date of issue, or giving personal notice to the said holders of said bonds, or thirty days' notice by advertisement in the official newspapers of the city, of the intention to make such redemption or payment, which bonds may severally or collectively be sold for an amount not less than par value, and the interest on said bonds shall be raised annually by taxation and the principal be paid by the city at maturity, and the money derived from the assessments upon the property benefitted, shall, when collected, be held as a fund toward the payment of said bonds.

Sec. 4. That after said improvements shall have been completed the Common Council shall, pursuant to the statute in such case made and provided, apply to the Court of Common Pleas of the County of Union for the appointment of Commissioners to estimate and assess benefits upon the owners of the lots or parcels of land and real estate peculiarly benefitted by such improvements, in proportion, as near as may be, to an amount equal to the amount of benefits actually acquired by the lands and real estate bordering on said streets or portions thereof respectively, by reason of such improvements respectively; and in case the costs and expenses aforesaid shall exceed the amount of said benefits, the excess thereof shall be paid by the city at large and raised by general tax; no property or owner thereof to be in any case assessed beyond the amount of benefits actually derived from said improvements.

Adopted by the Common Council Sept. 6, 1904, approved by the Mayor Sept. 6, 1904.

OLIN L. JENKINS, Mayor.

Attest: J. T. MacMurray, City Clerk.

AN ORDINANCE

for the permanent improvement of Watchung avenue, from North avenue to East Second street.

The Inhabitants of the City of Plainfield, by their Common Council, do enact as follows:

Section 1. That the roadbed of Watchung avenue, extending from the northwesterly crosswalk of North avenue to the southeasterly crosswalk of East Second street, be forthwith repaved with vitrified brick, for its entire width, at the general expense of the city, less the direct contribution of the Public Service Corporation, to be paid for (after first applying the direct contribution of the Public Service Corporation) out of the money raised by tax for the improvement of streets, as provided by the Act of the Legislature entitled "An Act to authorize cities to make permanent improvements in the roadbeds of streets at the general expense," approved May 13, 1894.

Section 2. That before any work shall be done under this ordinance, an amount not less than $1,100.00, on account of direct contribution from the Public Service Corporation shall be deposited with the City Treasurer.

Adopted by the Common Council Sept. 6, 1904; approved by the Mayor Sept. 6, 1904.

OLIN L. JENKINS, Mayor.

Attest: J. T. MacMurray, City Clerk.

MODES OF TOMORROW.

The Furs and Fabrics Which Will Be Popular.

Here we are preparing for the winter and beginning to wonder what kind of furs are to be the most fashionable. Seal has been so dear for the last few seasons, with the price still mounting, that we are obliged to seek something to take its place. Astrakhan will be much seen if we can judge by the garments now making, but after sable and seal the choice is for ermine. Chinchilla seems to have lost some of its prestige, for few garments are being trimmed with it. All the fur that comes in line with astrakhan, such as broadtail and Persian, are seen among the new things, mostly in the form of coats, but ermine is made into more different things for the neck than one can tell of. The neckwear is very pretty in the main and consists of stock collars with long tabs shaped like a beaver's tail. Some of them just fasten at the neck with breloques or clasps, but most of them are arranged to tie like a four-in-hand. There are Zaza collars, with long tabs, stock collars forty-two inches long, four-in-hands, ascot ties and other shapes, and these are from thirty-six to fifty inches long. Some are even seventy. A few of these have a fringe made of the tails, but more are finished plain.

There are some very beautiful pelerines of ermine, with fine silk fringe at the bottom and fancy ornaments of silk braid. Some are Russian shape. Muffs to match are made as big as pillows and are called pillow muffs.

New dress goods are coming in rapidly now. Among the best of the new stuffs for suits one finds Venetian cloth as a first favorite and in all colors, and most of it is made unspottable by a patented process. Costume cloth is on the same order. There is a crepe de Paris, which is half wool and half silk, an eolienne beautifully lustrous in all the colors and black. Worsted goods for suits in broken plaids in both large and small effects are seen. There are many plaids, some in silk and wool, but others in all wool, all handsome. Some of these run the gamut from pale lemon through the oranges to deep brown. In fact the ground is generally a soft cream. The effect is rich and warm and not in the least gaudy.

Among the high novelties are frosted broadcloths, and there could be nothing more beautiful. These are in all the season's colors and require little trimming. The heavy mannish woolens are on view in all the colors.

AN AUTUMN COSTUME.

They are for the tailor effects, and there will be many tailored suits. Coats are so often seen to match that one does not think of them as novelties and yet they are. They are tight and have skirts. Rain proof coverts are among the handsomest and most elegant of all the things save the broadcloths, which will always be the lady's choice. Zibelines will be quite as popular as before, from those with occasional hairs to those of all hair. Panama cloth and several striped and invisibly plaited stuffs are among the handsome materials. Panne cheviot and hair stripe zibeline and also plain camel's hair zibeline make stylish street suits. Dark green, blue, brown, deep prune and oxford gray are the favorite colors.

In one place there are, I think I may truthfully say, thousands of handsome street suits of velutina. This rich and comparatively inexpensive velvet has a strong hold upon women's favor, and it really deserves it.

There can be no question as to the shape of the skirts, for they are becoming very wide around the bottom, and the top, too, but there they are held in so that the extra size does not show. In the illustration is shown one of the models, and it may be seen how the fullness is adjusted. The waist is pointed and the skirt is gathered so that when it is under the point of the waist the gathers show irregularly. I saw one where the skirt was gathered smoothly all around. The skirts flow somewhat in the ancient styles. Down the front is a close shirring, which may be black peau de sole. At the bottom of the skirt are two rows of black velvet ribbon, a style of trimming much favored on silks. The waist is shirred very closely to the center, where it finishes with a ruffle, and the sleeves are also shirred down the middle to the e[illegible] There is a shirring at the sh[illegible] neck and fo[illegible] with velvet band[illegible] the silk at the neck [illegible] of this gown is [illegible] elegant.

HIGGINS AND BRUCE.

State Ticket Named by New York Republicans.

WOODRUFF WITHDRAWS HIS NAME

Nominations Unanimous—Judge Cullen, a Democrat, Chosen For Chief Judge of Court of Appeals. Roosevelt Indorsed.

SARATOGA, N. Y., Sept. 16.—The Republican state convention adjourned sine die after nominating unanimously the following ticket for state offices:

For Governor—Frank W. Higgins of Cattaraugus.

For Lieutenant Governor—M. Linn Bruce of New York.

For Secretary of State—John F. O'Brien of Clinton.

For Attorney General—Julius M. Mayer of New York.

For Comptroller—Otto Kelsey of Livingston.

For State Treasurer—John G. Wallenmaier of Erie.

For State Engineer and Surveyor—Henry A. Van Alstyne of Columbia.

For Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals—Edgar M. Cullen (Dem.) of Kings.

For Associate Judge of the Court of Appeals—William E. Werner (Rep.) of Monroe.

The unanimous action of the convention in the nomination of Lieutenant

FRANK W. HIGGINS.

Governor Frank W. Higgins for the governorship was made possible by the withdrawal of former Lieutenant Governor Timothy L. Woodruff from the race at the very last moment, as the convention was preparing for the roll call by the individual delegates as called for in the resolution introduced in the interest of Mr. Woodruff's candidacy and at the demand of the Kings county delegation.

It was only when, as he himself said, it became "obvious to his practiced ear" that the convention was almost solidly against him, after his name had been placed in nomination in a speech by William A. Prendergast of Brooklyn in which the management of the Higgins campaign was bitterly attacked, that Mr. Woodruff took the platform, withdrew his name from further consideration, moved that the nomination of Lieutenant Governor Higgins be made unanimous and pledged the fullest effort of himself and his Kings county forces in aid of the ticket about to be nominated. There was no contest whatever over any other place upon the ticket.

Up to the very moment when the chairman of the convention, State Senator George R. Malby of St. Lawrence county, announced the call of the roll of individual delegates it was expected by the vast majority of the convention that there would be a definite alignment and individual count of the forces behind Higgins and Woodruff, and the recognized importance of the bearing of the result upon the entire state organization produced a feeling of intense interest on the part of every one present in the hall. If any one outside of Mr. Woodruff's immediate circle of personal confidants knew what he was about to do they kept the secret well, and to nearly every person in the convention it was a complete and dramatic surprise.

The second day of the convention opened with every evidence that the contest would be carried to the finish, although no one pretended to have any doubt what the outcome would be. Indeed, ever since the name of Insurance Superintendent Hendricks was positively withdrawn from consideration as a third or compromise candidate there had been no doubt of the nomination of Higgins. The Woodruff advocates, however, insisted to the last, even while they admitted the futility of their struggle, that there should be a "showdown." They declared that the real sentiment of the convention was in favor of Woodruff's nomination, that the will of the individual delegates was being coerced by the Higgins leaders and that the detailed roll call which they demanded would show the individual feeling in the matter.

A protracted conference was held early in the day between Senator Platt and Mr. Woodruff and his immediate counselors.

In the convention the Woodruff faction was exceedingly enthusiastic and insistent. But the only thing approaching a showing of strength was when his name was first placed in nomination by William A. Prendergast of Brooklyn. Then one might have made an approximate estimate of the strength of the Woodruff movement from those who rose to cheer his name. Kings stood in a body, shouting. Tioga, Senator Platt's delegation; Broome, that of Colonel George W. Dunn, the former chairman of the state committee, and some others joined in the uproarious demonstration. But the great majority of the convention sat silent through the demonstration. There was no slight anywhere in the proceedings to Senator Platt save in the refusal of the convention to accede to his declared wish for the nomination of Mr. Woodruff. Speakers on both sides paid glowing tribute to him, citing his long years of leadership and his participation in notable occasions and actions of his party. Every mention of his name was enthusiastically cheered; again and again the whole convention arose with deafening shouts and applause to do him honor.

Governor Odell, too, as governor and and as chairman of the state committee, was cheered at every turn.

Mr. Woodruff's withdrawal of his name and his motion to make unanimous the nomination of Mr. Higgins removed the last evidence of discord from the convention and averted the pending roll call and alignment of forces. The remainder of the convention was of a more or less routine character, save for the speech of United States Senator Chauncey M. Depew, who in presenting for renomination the name of Secretary of State John F. O'Brien took occasion to answer some of the Democratic arguments in the speech of Congressman Bourke Cockran on Wednesday night at Tammany hall.

The chief figures in the event were very reticent after the convention. Lieutenant Governor Higgins, who was nominated for governor, had nothing to say at present and left for home early in the evening. Many of the delegates and others called upon him immediately after the adjournment of the convention to congratulate him upon his selection to head the Republican state ticket. Governor Odell left on a special car at 4 o'clock for New York. "I am satisfied," he said upon returning from the convention hall. "It is a good ticket and will be elected."

Mr. Woodruff met a number of the Kings county delegation after his return from the convention hall. He would say only that his speech in the convention covered what he had to say.

Senator Platt remained at his cottage, but did not wish to see anybody and had nothing to say as to the results of the convention.

The platform adopted by the convention strongly indorsed President Roosevelt and the Chicago platform and commended the state administration of Governor Odell. It approved the policy of raising revenues for state purposes by indirect taxation, the 1,000 ton barge canal measure and the good roads programme of Governor Odell.

It declared the convention's belief in increasing the effectiveness of the school system, greater appropriations for common schools and the extension of free tuition in high schools and favored the still further building up of the state's educational facilities wherever practicable. It also favored the further purchase of and preservation by the state of forest lands in the Adirondacks and Catskills.

WISE MAN TELLS A JOKE.

President of Cornell University Thinks Wedded Life Makes Wide-Awake Men.

Ithaca (N. Y.) Special.

President Schurman of Cornell, urges young men to marry. He objects heartily to the young man of culture who would live a bachelor's life of aesthetic and selfish enjoyment.

In discussing this matter the other day President Schurman said, with a smile:

"I heard yesterday of a poor young clerk whose life, difficult and lowly as it is, still seems to me to be nobler and more dignified than that of the epicurean bachelor.

JACOB G. SCHURMAN.
(Sociologist, Statesman and President of Cornell University.)

"He married early, this clerk; he has several children; he is obliged to work hard.

"The other day, as he sat at his high desk with a big sheet of figures before him, he fell asleep. His employer, hearing his snores, turned and awakened him.

"'Why, Brown,' said the employer, sternly, 'what is the matter with you, sleeping at your desk in broad daylight?'

"'I beg pardon, sir,' said the clerk. 'The baby at home kept me awake all last night, and I'm done up.'

"'Well, Brown,' said the employer, 'you may bring the child to the office with you to-morrow, if you think it will keep you awake during the day as well.'"

Pasteboard Defies Bullets.

During some experiments with rifles, carbines and pistols in Karlskrona, Sweden, under the direction of the government, the bullets failed to penetrate targets made of pasteboard three inches in thickness, yet they easily passed through planks five inches thick.

An Ideal Location

Rosedale and Linden Park Cemeteries

LARGEST IN THE STATE

LINDEN, N. J.

Beautiful and Accessible

2 Miles from Elizabeth, 7 Miles from Newark,
14 MILES FROM NEW YORK
On Main Line Pennsylvania Railroad

Why Lots in these Cemeteries commend themselves to Heads of Families and Investors

BECAUSE of the $1,000,000 Trust Fund provided for by the Trustees in each Cemetery, the income from which will keep the properties perpetually beautiful at NO EXPENSE TO LOT OWNERS.

BECAUSE such a guarantee, not found in any other cemetery, assures lot owners that the grounds WILL BE MAINTAINED PERMANENTLY AS BEAUTIFUL PARKS AFTER THE INCOME FROM THE SALE OF LOTS HAS BEEN EXHAUSTED.

LOTS SHOULD BE PURCHASED NOW

BECAUSE MORE ADVANTAGES ARE OFFERED TO LOT BUYERS in a new Modern Park Cemetery than in those established many years and, in most cases, no provision made for perpetual care without extra expense to lot owners. THERE ARE A GREATER NUMBER OF IDEAL LOCATIONS TO SELECT FROM, PRICES OF LOTS ARE ALWAYS LOWER AND TERMS MORE ADVANTAGEOUS.

BECAUSE life is most uncertain and EVERY ONE SHOULD ANTICIPATE THE INEVITABLE BY MAKING A CHOICE NOW OF A FINAL RESTING PLACE.

LOTS WILL PROVE A GOOD INVESTMENT

BECAUSE they are sure to increase in value and can be purchased NOW at the INITIAL or LOWEST PRICE and upon the most ADVANTAGEOUS TERMS.

BECAUSE the properties are ACCESSIBLE TO 4,000,000 PEOPLE, and considering the RAPID GROWTH OF GREATER NEW YORK and its TRIBUTARY CITIES and TOWNS, it is only a question of a SHORT TIME when LOTS in ROSEDALE and LINDEN PARK will EQUAL IN VALUE those of our MOST NOTED cemeteries.

FOR INFORMATION concerning lots in these beautiful Park Cemeteries, and FREE transportation to prospective lot buyers, apply at once to any LEADING UNDERTAKER or offices of the Associations:

HAS STRONG PERSONALITY

New Chairman of Democratic National Committee Is a Skilled Getter of Votes.

Indianapolis (Ind.) Special.

Thomas Taggart is a man of strong personality. Although he is 48 years old, his appearance is that of a younger man. His well-fitting clothes, closely trimmed mustache and business-like manner give the impression that he is a type of the successful American man of commercial life, but Mr. Taggart is better known for his success in politics than in the hotel business.

He is proprietor of the Grand hotel at the French Lick Springs, and has made a fortune out of this celebrated resort. Aside from business, Mr. Taggart has always been more or less active in politics, having first become conspicuous as a democratic campaigner in 1886 in Marion county, Ind., when he was elected to the office of auditor of the county, the first public office he ever held.

HON. THOMAS TAGGART.
(New Chairman of the Democratic National Committee.)

Four years later he was reelected auditor of Marion county. So popular was he while in office, and so skilled in political maneuvers in bringing out the full democratic vote on election day, he was elected chairman of the democratic state committee of Indiana in 1892, and served two years.

He has been district chairman of the Seventh congressional district of Indiana since 1892, as well as member of the democratic national committee from that state.

Mr. Taggart is an Irishman. He came to this country with his parents while a lad and settled with them at Xenia, O. Subsequently the family removed to Garrett, Ind., and in 1877 young Taggart took up the hotel business in Indianapolis.

He is a man of medium build and pleasing address and makes friends readily in whatever company he may be thrown. In politics as in business he has always been sagacious and conservative, though in heated campaigns he has been a most aggressive captain of the forces he rallied.

Possessed of exceptional powers at entertaining, he is always surrounded by a group of interested spectators in the hotel lobbies and other public places. Of course, he is best known for having been mayor of Indianapolis, which office he held from 1895 to 1901, but he is likewise conspicuous for the part he has taken in the councils of the democratic national committee.

THE MUDDLE IN MOROCCO.

France May Be Compelled to Go to War to Suppress Bandits of the Raisuli Type.

London (Eng.) Special.

The French government is moving at last in a tentative fashion towards the control of Moorish politics. Algerian police have been sent to Tangier, and the sultan is provided with a financial adviser, who may keep a tight hand on that potentate's rather careless expenditure. The success of Raisuli has prompted other adventurers to make demands, and threaten to raid Tangier if these are not conceded. The game of carrying off Europeans as hostages may be checked by the advent of the Algerian police. On the other hand, this may excite the Moorish tribes to such a pitch of exasperation that France will be compelled to send a considerable body of troops. No other power will interfere, and it is plain that the French government is acting with reluctance. As the tribal fanatics are not likely to recognize French suzerainty, M. Combes or his successor may have to undertake an expedition by no means popular in France, where the spirit of adventure has greatly declined.

Nation's Annual Fire Loss.

The annual loss from the burning of buildings in the United States is about $135,000,000, not including cost of insurance and the appliances for protection.

TO DISMANTLE LENA

Russian Cruiser Will Tie Up at Mare Island Navy Yard.

INCIDENT REGARDED AS CLOSED

Only Question Remaining That of the Extent of the Disarmament. Captain Berlinsky Calls on Admiral McCalla.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 16.—Captain Berlinsky of the Russian ship Lena left his vessel on his steam launch and went down the bay past the Bennington to visit Admiral Goodrich of the flagship New York.

The captain was informed of the president's decision to permit the Lena to remain here on condition that she would send her guns ashore. He, in turn, communicated to the admiral his own government's willingness to comply with the conditions, and final arrangements were made. It is understood, to have the Lena go to Mare Island in accordance with the plans said to have been provisionally decided on when Captain Berlinsky went with the Russian consul to visit Admiral McCalla.

The crew is confident that they will be permitted to return to Russia by way of New York. The officers have purchased civilian dress in anticipation of the journey. In the meantime a strict guard is kept on the ship, and all boats going or coming from her must report to the officer of the deck on the torpedo boat destroyer Paul Jones. Even the Lena's own launches are not permitted to pass without this formality.

QUIET IN MANCHURIA.

Both Armies Resting After the Nine Day Battle.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 16.—The almost complete quiet prevailing at Liaoyang and Mukden is accepted here as the natural and inevitable consequence of the furious activity of the past three weeks. The view taken at Mukden that there is not likely to be a resumption of fighting in that immediate locality for a month is regarded here as most probably correct.

It can hardly be expected that much actual news will develop in central Manchuria for some time to come, and attention is now turning toward Port Arthur, where, as General Stoessel's latest report indicates, the Japanese are gathering strength for another spring at the fortress.

It is taken for granted here that there will soon be news of importance from Port Arthur, since the Japanese throughout the war have seemed to alternate their attentions between the beleaguered fortress and the Russian army toward the north. It thus appears that it is Port Arthur's turn to keep up the excitement while Field Marshal Oyama is preparing for the fall campaign.

Grand Duke Alexander Michailovitch, head of the Russian mercantile marine, has gone to Libau to inspect the converted cruisers there before they depart for foreign waters. The Baltic fleet remains at Libau awaiting orders.

Prisoners Released at Lassa.

LASSA, Tibet, Sept. 10, via Gyangtse, Sept. 16.—According to the treaty between the British and the Tibetans signed Sept. 7, prisoners on both sides were released. The occasion afforded a picturesque ceremony. Some of the prisoners released by the Tibetans had been in captivity over twenty years. One old man who was imprisoned for assisting Sarat Chandradas, had been kept in a dark dungeon and had gone blind. He at first refused to credit the fact that he was being given his freedom and thought he was being led out for torture.

Charged With Robbing Postoffice.

NEWPORT NEWS, Sept. 16.—Postoffice Inspector J. W. Bulla arrested Raymond Joo, sixteen years old, on the charge of robbing the postoffice at Sewell's Point, opposite this city. The officials say the youth confessed that he purloined a registered letter containing $30 from the Sewell's Point office, of which his father, Morris Joo, is postmaster. United States Commissioner Garrett held young Joo in $1,000 bail.

Denounce Democratic Party.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Sept. 16.—The fusion Populists of Indiana met in convention here and nominated a state ticket, headed by Le Roy Templeton of Indianapolis for governor. The platform denounces the Democratic party, which, it declares, is dominated by plutocrats and Wall street.

All Quiet at Camilla.

MACON, Ga., Sept. 16.—Specials to the Telegraph from Camilla say everything is quiet there. The people believe the court will do its duty and convict the negro murderer, Wilford, if the evidence is sufficient. Military companies from Albany, Americus and Thomasville are on guard.

Five Children Burned to Death.

COLUMBIA, Ky., Sept. 16.—Five children were burned to death and their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Sapp, fatally injured at Eolly, Adair county, Ky., in a fire which partly destroyed the Sapp home. As Sapp and his wife are not able to talk, the cause of the fire cannot be learned.

Chicago Sheep Butchers Still Out.

CHICAGO, Sept. 16.—Because of alleged discrimination against sheep butchers employed at the Union stockyards the sheep butcher workmen have decided to remain on strike. All of the packing companies operating Armour & Co. are alleged to be discriminating.

With a desire to extend its usefulness throughout the community, The Plainfield Trust Company offers its facilities to all who desire their banking affairs carefully and expeditiously transacted.

Large resources, a strong board of directors and capable management are but a few of the many features that should commend this company to one considering the opening of a bank account.

PLAINFIELD'S "FINEST" DEFEAT NEWARK'S COPS

"JACK" FLYNN AND "CARRIE" HIGGINS WIN PLAUDETS.

After a discouraging series of defeats the Plainfield policemen got together at Wiedemeyer's Eastern League Park, Newark, yesterday, and trounced the Fourth Precinct baseball team of that city to the tune of 12 to 1. The Newark aggregation found the curves of McKeon more puzzling than accessible while the Newark pitcher was freely hit by the majority of the local players.

Three of the runs were made by Roundsman "Jack" Flynn, who scored twice after getting his base on balls. The feature of the whole game was the great one-handed catch made by Morris Higgins at centre. A pair of shoes was offered to the first man to put the ball over the fence and all hope of winning them faded from view when in response to a yell of "Carrie" from one of the roosters, Higgins leaped into the air and grabbed the Newark man's high drive with one hand.

The line-up: McKeon, p; Messler, c; Dailey, 1b; McCarthy, 2b; McGinley, 3b; Winn, ss; Charle Flynn, lf; Higgins, cf; John Flynn, rf. Umpires—Schroeder and Voehl.

After the game a fine banquet was served to the players and in the calmer gustatory joys of the feast, all feeling of disappointment on the part of the vanquished team were wiped out in their admiration of the capacity for gastronomic ballast which most of the Plainfielders displayed.

Auto Delivery.

With a view of still further improving the service of the United States Express Company here, the local agent, E. W. Mills, is making a strong effort to introduce a system of automobile delivery in the city and borough. Mr. Mills believes that with a sufficient number of express automobiles quick service could be given to all parts of the town and besides it would do away with the trouble of taking care of horses, now an important item of expense. Although Mr. Mills has not been successful in effecting a change, he has every reason to believe that the company will grant his request.

WM. MUIR BURIED.

Funeral Services Over Young Man Accidently Killed Held Yesterday.

Funeral services of William Muir, fifteen-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Muir, of Essex street, whose death occured suddenly Monday morning as a result of an accident on Saturday, were held from Hope chapel yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Rev. L. B. Howard, the pastor, officiating. There was a very large attendance of friends, including many playmates of the dead boy.

There were many floral tributes, including set pieces from boy chums at the "circus" where young Muir met with an accident; his Sunday-school class the Thistle Club, Essex street playmates, the Gable Club, of which Thomas Muir is a member, and several others. During the services "Nearer the Cross" was sung by E. E. Runyon and William N. Runyon.

The interment was in Hillside cemetery and the pall-bearers were Frank Rimmer, Wallace Pearce, Hugh Gray, Edward Harding, Alfred Becker and John Donnelly.

BANISH STRAW HATS.

They Were Called in Yesterday According to Custom in Former Years.

Change your headgear, ye wearers of the straw hat, for Dame Fashion says that September 15 is the time limit for the straw. You must don a derby, an Alpine or a cap to be up-to-date.

The wearing of straw hats is inaugurated on Memorial Day each year, according to the fashion, and this kind of headgear can be worn from that time until September 15.

Of course there is no law to prevent one from wearing a straw hat outside of the time limit set by fashion, but you don't want the small boy to poke fun and remarks at you just because you want to stick to the old straw.

"And besides the goats may lay in wait for you to get a bite out of your hat," said a follower of fashion yesterday.

Dame Fashion does not say when the horse shall "shake" his summer hat. This animal may wear it at any old time to prevent the hot rays of the sun from bemuddling his brain and causing him to feel queer in his "upper story."

Smallest User Pays Most.

In considering the cost of electric power a peculiar angle of this particular business presents itself. Paradoxical as it may seem, the consumer who uses his power with the least frequency is the one who pays the greatest rate for his service. It is the doctrine of power companies that they would rather furnish power to a bootblack in a basement than to the tenant of a large office building, for the reason that the office man wants his lights when the machinery is carrying the heaviest load, while the bootblack uses his lights at a time when the machinery is running comparatively light. Entering into the cost of power is the item of investment for expensive machinery which is used but a few hours each day.—Chicago Tribune.

Overcoming a Crisis.

"The proofs, the proofs! I demand the proofs!" cried the beautiful young girl.

The managing editor braced himself for the ordeal.

"They aren't read yet," he explained, "and, besides, I can't see that it makes any difference whether your society news says that Mrs. Hiuppe wore pongee, au vert pie, or tulle, en coquille."

Finding herself out-Frenched, the society editor subsided.—Cleveland Leader.

CONTEST FOR PIGEON.

Unique Affair Held at the Mt. Zion A. M. E. Church Last Evening.

From a financial standpoint, the live pigeon pie entertainment, given last evening at the Mt. Zion A. M. E. church, was a success. A large crowd was present and a good time was enjoyed by all. The feature of the evening's entertainment was the opening of the pie, from which flew a live pigeon. The terms of the game were that the person who caught the bird should take possession of it. Rev. E. M. Jackson caught the bird. The point was protested, however, on account of the fact that he stood too near. When a second attempt was made, the bird went to Rev. Mr. Ashley, but he also was deprived of his prize on an alleged foul. In the end Mrs. Alexander Stills was given the pigeon.

The affair was conducted under the auspices of the Helping Hand, an auxiliary society of the church, and was in charge of the following committee: Mrs. Rebecca Voorhees, chairman; Mrs. Sarah Wood, Mrs. Lundora Brown, Miss Carry Hewmans, Mrr. Lusie Henry, Mrs. Sarah Marsh, and Mrs. E. B. Maynard, E. E. Maynard, M. E. Silby and Theodore Hopper.

Aged Woman Hurt by Fall.

Mrs. Welch, aged 70 years, mother of Mrs. Warren Brown, of 604 East Sixth street, is improving from severe injuries sustained in a fall a few days ago. She walked out of her room during the night and slipped on the top of the stairs, falling the entire distance to the bottom. She received a cut in the head and was considerably bruised. Despite her advanced age and the severity of the injuries she is now able to be about the house.

Call Rev. Mr. Melborne.

At the congregational meeting of the German Lutheran church last evening, it was unanimously voted to extend a call to the Rev. J. Melborne, who has been supplying the pulpit for some time. Rev. Mr. Melborne was formerly a missionary in Brasil. While employed in missionary work he founded two churches. In addition to his work in the German church, Rev. Mr. Melborne will teach the German school twice a week.

Blood Poisoning.

Allen Vanderhoef, of Prospect place, who has been detained at home with a severe attack of blood poisoning, is now much improved. Recently he scratched a pimple on the foot and the dye from the sock worn on the foot produced blood poisoning. Dr. J. Hervey Buchanan, the attending physician, opened the sore yesterday and speedy recovery is now looked for.

Reception to Pastor.

The Christian Endeavor Society, of Warren chapel, tendered Rev. J. O. McKelvey and his wife a reception at the chapel last evening.

Dancing Class Begins.

Eugene O'Reilly's dancing class opened last night in I. C. T. hall and the attendance was gratifyingly large.

REPORT A GIRL FAMINE

Local Firm's Business Handicapped by Peculiar Situation.

BIG INDUSTRY'S PLEA

Can Give Employment to Many, But Applications for Positions Are Scarce.

From the big plant of Herzig & Kapp, on Watchung avenue, comes a strong demand for bright young women and girls who can secure profitable and pleasant employment there. Mr. Kapp explained the surprising situation to a representative of The Daily Press yesterday and at the same time the latter was shown through one of the most up-to-date and growing enterprises in this section of the State.

Herzig & Kapp occupy the Crescent rink building and they are makers of a fine grade of women's underwear. By shrewd work and skillful management the concern has been remarkably prosperous, in fact to such an extent that 100 more machines have been added within the last twelve months 30 of which within the last three weeks. These machines, which when operated by industrious Plainfield girls, turn out with marvellous rapidity stylish and exquisite underwear of all kinds, are of the most improved and expensive pattern in the world. Their mechanism is astonishing and the results astounding. For instance one produces twelve rows of tucking by the single operation of any one young woman in the establishment. Others are automatic tucking and gathering machines and high speed lace running machines. The automatic ruffle and gathering machine lay in folds, make tucks, gather in ruffles and stitch tuck and ruffle down with but the use of two needles. In place of scissors, a knife cutting machine is used which make 3,800 cuts a minute. In the almost instantaneous process of sewing on buttons, this type of machine goes at the rate of 5,600 revolutions an hour and the wonderful button hole machine makes 4000 button holes a day. These are but few of the machines among the great and varied assortment in every-day use in the establishment.

To learn to run these machines is an education in itself, easily acquired by an intelligent girl under the instruction of the firm's able assistant manager, Miss Kate O'Brien, and her personal staff of demonstrators. But what is wanted is young women to run these machines, who will be able to draw in return good wages for their work. Even while they are under instruction the firm pays the girls. Altogether there is work for 100 girls, some being needed in the various other departments of the plant where the work is just as pleasant and profitable. At present the force exceeds about 150 young women who thoroughly enjoy their respective tasks.

There are ten departments in this huge plant. First comes the cutting room, where the goods are cut to required shapes; second, the assorting and marking room; third, the forelady's department, where the goods are given out to the hands; fourth, the operating room, where the sewing is done under the personal supervision of Miss O'Brien; fifth, the sloping room, where three or more garments are trimmed at one time by a single girl; sixth, the trimming room, where the handsome laces and embroideries are kept in supply; seventh, the examining room, where every single garment is carefully inspected after being made; eighth, the ironing room, where a large force of women do up the fine underwear; ninth, the boxing and packing department, and lastly, the shipping room, from which the product is sent to the market. The sanitary conditions are excellent and the plant is a great contrast to those in other cities where less care is taken for the health of the employes. The work performed is one that constitutes an education of great value to any young woman who wishes to become a bread winner. Herzig & Kapp invite 100 girls to call at the establishment at once to learn how they can make a good living right here in Plainfield.

Mrs. Haberle's Musicale.

Mrs. Fred R. Haberle, of West Front street, gave a musicale at her home last evening, assisted by Miss Freida Gray, pianist; Herbert Smith, violinist, and J. Harry Hamilton, baritone soloist of the Church of the Ascension, New York city.

BASKETBALL SEASON'S PROSPECTS AT THE P.H.S.

PLENTY OF MATERIAL FOR ANOTHER WINNING TEAM THIS YEAR.

As soon as the satisfactory arrangements can be made with the Y. M. C. A. officials for the use of the gymnasium, the Plainfield High School basket ball team will begin practice. It is doubtful if any arrangement can be made before October 1, as the classes at the Association do not begin till then. Though the P. H. S. A. A. has not yet organized, it is pretty well known who will represent the school on the various teams. With a few exceptions the basket ball team will be the same as the team of last year, which won the city basket ball championship. Harry G. Thompson will captain the team, and the old force of players is strengthened by William Doane, the captain of Leal's team last year. Collier, who was the crack forward, is still in the game. Of the new candidates, Sam Bogart, Malcolm Davis, Phillip Smith and George Bentley are all possible men.

In addition to their preparations for a basket ball and football team, probably the first action of the new Board of Directors will be to get the annual fall tennis tournament started. This is one of the regular events in the fall season at the High School, and one in which a great deal of interest is evidenced. The High School has a number of excellent players among its members, and an interesting tournament is sure to take place. Chester H. Briggs, '05, won the tournament last year, with Howard H. Craig, runner-up. It is said that Craig is playing very close to Briggs this season, while there are reports that a few back horses are scattered among the students who will give both Briggs and Craig a hard fight. Jack and William Douglass are also expected to put up a good showing, and Paul Collier is by no means new at the game.

It is not definitely known when the matches will begin, but they will probably be commenced on Briggs' court as soon as the Board is elected.

OVERDOSE OF MEDICINE KILLED A YOUNG WOMAN

MISS MARY CARTER'S MISTAKE PROVES FATAL TO HER.

While visiting her sister, Mrs. Robert L. Thomas, at Washingtonville, on Wednesday, Miss Mary Carter, of Scotch Plains, accidentally took an overdose of medicine, and despite the fact that she was taken with all possible haste to the office of Dr. F. W. Westcott, and every effort was made to save her, she died in the physician's office after she reached there.

Miss Carter had been ill for sometime past, and at one time was an inmate of the State Hospital at Morris Plains. After a course of treatment for mental disorder, she was greatly improved and returned to her home. At times she would worry for fear that there would be a return of the malady and she continued taking medicine prescribed for her by the State Hospital physician. It was an overdose of this medicine that cost her her life.

Miss Carter was the daughter of Mrs. James Carter, for a number of years a resident of Washingtonville, but for several years she had lived in Fanwood.

Miss Cuming's Wedding Date.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Cuming, of 1012 Putnam avenue, announce the date for the marriage of their daughter, Miss Henrietta Woodward Cuming, to James Franklin LaRue, of this city. The marriage will take place Thursday evening, September 29, at 7 o'clock, at the home of the bride's parents.

Miss Bird to Wed.

Mrs. Jacob Bird, of 25 Somerset place, has issued invitations to the marriage of her daughter, Madalene Bird, to C. Stillman Mumford, son of Benjamin A. Mumford, of Arlington avenue. The event will be celebrated Wednesday evening, October 5, at 8 o'clock, at the home of the bride's mother.

Returning From 'Frisco.

The Plainfield Knights Templar who have been in San Francisco are now on their way home and expect to reach here sometime on Monday. The entire journey thus far has been one of great pleasure, and no accidents have occurred to mar the trip.

COLORED PREACHER "EASY MARK" FOR CROOKS

PARSON WATSON VICTIMIZED OUT OF WATCH AND MONEY.

Another "easy mark" was "piped off," "trimmed" and "dumped" on West Front street about 7:30 last night, if the Rev. James A. Watson, a colored minister, remembers correctly what happened to him about that time.

The preacher came here to attend the convention of colored Baptists some days ago and remained to visit and incidentally to consider the offer of the pastorate of the Fillmore Avenue Baptist church. Last night he was addressed on West Front street, near Madison avenue, by two negroes, both very dark, one being rather short and the other more slim than tall. One of the men asked him to change a ten dollar bill for him, at the same time showing the note in his hand. The parson produced bills of smaller denominations to that amount and passed them over. The other man did not give up the ten, but began a running fire of jollying remarks and told the minister that he wanted to show him a peculiar knife if he would come to the street light on the corner. Reaching the light, the fellow asked to be told the time and expressed a desire to examine the preacher's handsome gold watch. He must be a very delicately organized person for the mere touch of the watch reminded him that he was over-due at his employer's house, where he was to get a check cashed. At any rate he stated this to be the case and made off in the direction of Philadelphia at a rather lively walk, closely followed by the Reverend Watson.

At this point Mr. Watson's recollections seem to disagree with the general idea of other people who were in West Front street between Madison and Grant avenues at that time, because no one has been found who heard any cries of "police," "stop thief," etc., and Mr. Watson unhesitatingly asserts that he did utter these and other ejaculations of alarm while pursuing his victimizers. At Grant avenue, they gave him the slip and he returned to town and gave the alarm at police headquarters.

Although the policemen made a hurried trip over the ground indicated by story no trace of the thieves was picked up and it looks as if the threadbare game attempted unsuccessfully on Joseph Dunham in the same neighborhood two days ago had worked better this time in the case of the less suspicious parson.

Mrs. Watson is expected here from Barboursville, Va., today and as the thieves secured all Mr. Watson's cash, he has applied to the local Baptists for financial assistance.

MATINEE RACES.

Attractive Events Scheduled at Plainfield Driving Park for Next Saturday.

As an ending to a most successful racing season at the Plainfield Driving Park, there will be matinee races open to the public on Saturday, September 24. The races will begin at 1 o'clock, and no entrance fee will be charged. Every one will be at liberty to enter horses, and both trotting and pacing classes will be represented.

Tom Brautingham is in charge of the affair and has arranged three races. The first two are for trotting and pacing, 2:24 and 2:30 classes. The third class is for trotters, 2:40. The races will be the best three out of five mile heats. The prizes will be a blanket for the winner; a collar for the second, and a whip for third prize.

Await Oracle's Appearance.

With the resuming of studies and the subsequent reorganization of athletics and school enterprises at the Plainfield High School, the board of editors of The Oracle are busy in preparation for the opening number of the magazine. The following pupils will constitute the board for the coming year: Editor-in-chief, Percy M. Brown; school editor, Antionette Aalholm; literary editor, Lillian Snodgrass; corresponding editor, Benjamin Herman; exchange editor, Weston Gavett. The business manager is Howard Lapsley, and the assistant business managers are Miss Anna Runoyn and George Benton. The reporters who will serve till December are the following: Class of 1905, Miss Amy Conant and Chester Briggs; 1906, Miss Gertrude B. Hunter and Dudley Strong; 1907, Miss Gertrude Abbott and Gilbert Griggs. Two more reporters will be appointed to serve from the freshman class. They will probably be elected after the first edition of the paper is out.

MARRIAGE DECLARED VOID

Court Finds That H. C. Brose Secured Consent by Threats.

QUICKLY ANNULLED

Vice Chancellor Bergen Hands Down Decree—Sensational Episode.

The case of Nellie Williams, a fifteen year-old girl, residing on West Fifth street, against Henry Brose, of Vine street, to set aside a marriage ceremony as void for duress, which, as stated in The Daily Press of Tuesday, was then on trial before Vice Chancellor Bergen, has been decided in favor of Miss Williams. Brose in February last, took Miss Williams to Justice Clark in Scotch Plains, and had the ceremony of marriage performed. The testimony taken proved to the court's satisfaction that Brose had intimidated Miss Williams, and compelled her to go with him and submit to the ceremony, while she was in a State of terror, fearing that he would execute his threats. The Justice knew nothing of the threats.

The testimony showed that Brose and Miss Williams went directly from the Justice's office to the home of Miss Williams in this city, where Miss Williams, in the presence of Brose, at once told her sister that Brose had frightened her into marrying him. Brose left the house in a few minutes, leaving Miss Williams with her father and mother and sister. The parties have never been alone together since the ceremony was performed. The parents were heart-broken, and Miss Williams, who became so seriously ill that it was feared she might die. Upon the parents laying the facts before counsel, they were advised that if the girl's story could be corroborated in its essential features, the Court of Chancery would declare the ceremony to be a nullity.

Suit was begun, in which the Chancellor was asked to declare that Miss Williams was under duress at the time of the marriage ceremony, and that such ceremony was null and void. In granting the relief prayed for, and setting aside the marriage and declaring that each of the parties is still unmarried, the Vice Chancellor referred to the well-settled principle that it is only upon the most satisfactory and conclusive evidence, that the court will adjudge a ceremonial contract of marriage void, and will never accept the uncorroborated evidence of the parties. The court held nevertheless, that marriage was a civil contract, and in order to its validity the voluntary consent of both parties is indispensable, unless the ceremonial marriage is afterwards ratified by their conduct. In this case, the court said that the evidence was conclusive that Miss Williams was under duress at the time of the ceremony, and therefore could not in legal contemplation, consent to the marriage; that there had been no ratification of the marriage by word or act, and that it was the plain duty of the court to declare the marriage absolutely void, and the parties to the ceremony to be unmarried.

The counsel for Miss Williams were William M. Stillman and Craig A. Marsh, Esqs. No similar case had ever been decided in New Jersey, but counsel advised that on principle, there could be no doubt of the power and duty of the court to free Miss Williams from the so-called marriage, if the material features of her testimony could be corroborated by credible witnesses.

The Vice Chancellor decided the case immediately upon the conclusion of the argument, declaring that if there ever was a case in which duress was clearly proved, it was the case then on trial.

Dunellen Football Outlook.

The Dunellen football team will hold a meeting Tuesday evening at Alberts' store, on Front street, to arrange for the season. All players, averaging 150 pounds or over, wishing to try for the eleven, are invited to be present. A good showing is expected of this year's team as all the former players are interested and also several new heavy men among whom are Stubbie, Peters, Coyle, Fisher, Fletcher, Churchill, Carey, Garvey and Brandon. All dates after Oct. 1 are open. Charles Lake is the manager.

—The North avenue cigar dealer, Kirch, is offering for an end of the week special—Marshal Ney, clear Havana diplomatics at four for a quarter—good smokes!

The Sunday-school of the Church of the Holy Cross will reopen for the season tomorrow.

Y. M. C. A. GYMNASIUM CLASSES BEGIN OCTOBER 1

MUCH INTEREST BEING TAKEN ALREADY BY YOUNG ATHLETES.

With the return of cool weather, there seems to have sprung up a renewed interest at the gymnasium of the local Y. M. C. A. The floor has been crowded for the last three days and every indication points to a large membership and a successful season.

At a recent meeting of the physical department committee, plans for the work of the coming year were discussed and Physical Director Henckel presented his plans for the organization of the various classes. There will be the same classes which there were last year, though a number of improvements in the time scheduled were introduced. The schedule of classes for the next year will be announced in a few days. The business men's class will be decidedly larger than ever before, as several applications for membership have been filed. Mr. Henckel said this morning that all the classes will be much larger than formerly, and that the capacity of the gymnasium will be crowded to the limit.

The class work will begin October 1, and the committee has planned for some sort of a formal opening at that time. It is not known at present whether an exhibition will be given or not.

BOYS' CONFERENCE.

Y. M. C. A. Preparing for State Meeting to be Held in This City in October.

For the first time in six years the New Jersey Boys' Conference will be held in this city on October 28, 29 and 30. A meeting of the directors of the conference at which Kenneth Robbie will be present, will be held at Newark, Monday. Representatives from all the associations in the State will attend the meeting, and will be the guests of State Secretary Charles T. Kilborne. At this meeting the subject for the conference will be decided upon and the programme will be outlined.

The boys' work committee of the local association held a meeting recently at which the heads of the various committees were appointed. They are as follows: Entertainment committee, O. S. Rogers; reception committee, Dr. Norman H. Probasco; church committee, Phillip Suffern; music committee, Kenneth Shapp; ushers, Harry G. Thompson and Stuart Freeman.

The banquet will be in charge of the Ladies' Auxiliary. There will be other appointments on all these committees from the members of the boys' department.

LAKE MUMFORD GONE.

Borough Department Engine Cleans Up Crescent Oval.

Through the efforts of B. A. Mumford and Mayor Smalley, the ground at the Crescent Oval has been put into condition for this afternoon's game between the Plainfield A. C. and the West Ends, of Somerville.

Yesterday morning the water was several feet deep all over, and the entire ground from home plate to the border on left field was literally a lake. Though at first it seemed impossible to draw up the water in time for the game today, it was finally accomplished at 5 o'clock this morning after working all night.

The credit is due to Mayor Smalley. The mayor offered the services of the North Plainfield steamer, which he subsequently caused to be sent to the field. The steamer worked till 5 o'clock this morning, pumping over 1,000,000 gallons of water. The steamer was in charge of Frank Schnuck, assisted by members of the North Plainfield Fire Department.

Many Robins Killed.

A remarkable incident in connection with the severe storm of last Wednesday night, was the finding the morning after on the lawn at the home of Former Mayor John F. Wilson in North Plainfield, of seventy-two dead robins. Mr. Wilson's lawn was strewn with broken limbs and debris of all kinds and cleaning it up Thursday morning the robins were found. Mr. Wilson personally counted the dead birds and afterward had them buried. That there should be so many robins in that section was a great surprise to him. For a long time past Mr. Wilson has been interested in a pet robin who would come to his front door whenever he would give a peculiar whistle. Since the storm this bird has failed to put in an appearance.

DECISION RESERVED IN ISAAC LAMBERT'S SUIT

SQUIRE CLARK HEARS CASE AGAINST TELEPHONE CONCERN.

After several attempts the damage suit of Isaac Lambert against the Northeastern Telephone and Telegraph Company was tried in Judge Clark's court, at the Plains, yesterday afternoon.

Two weeks ago the company was granted a non suit on account of Lambert, in naming the plaintiff, named the Philadelphia and New York Telephone Company. When the case was called Harry C. Runyon, counsel for the company, asked for a non suit and it was granted. Another suit was immediately started and was to have been tried Saturday of last week, but was adjourned at the request of the defendant's counsel. When the case was called yesterday the little court room was packed with the friends and neighbors of Lambert who had gathered to watch the legal battle their neighbor was waging against one of them soulless corporations, as they termed the company. Besides this, if Lambert was successful in his suit other suits were hinted at.

Lambert's interests were looked after by Walter Hetfield, Sr. Lambert stated in his complaint that the company in putting up their line past and through his property was exceeding the privileges of their contract by cutting down trees and taking more than the agreed number of feet upon his land in placing their anchors for the guy wires used to brace the poles. He placed his damages at $200. The company denied this and claimed their contract allowed them to erect their line through the property without restriction. After listening to the testimony and the able summing up of the case by the opposing counsels, the court decided to take the matter under considerable, so reserved his decision until Thursday afternoon of next week at 2 o'clock.

DRYDEN PREDICTS A BIG SWEEP IN STATE

NEW JERSEY IS FIRMLY WEDGED IN REPUBLICAN PARTY.

Senator Dryden is optimistic as to the situation in his own State of New Jersey.

"I consider this State," he said to a reporter, "as firmly wedged in the Republican column as that of Maine, and I believe that election day will show a large Republican plurality. Our people generally are satisfied with existing conditions and are enjoying the prosperity for which the party as a whole is responsible. There are no serious differences within the party lines anywhere.

"There are no State issues upon which our party is divided. Concerning the equalization question, upon which the Democrats, with a flourish of trumpets are boasting political capital, I have no hesitation in speaking and in no uncertain words, as to our party's position thereon. The party's position upon that question will be definite and sound. It will not be stampeded, however, into any hysterical action which will be unfair and unjust to legitimate business interests on the one hand, nor will we be deterred from doing boldly and conscientiously what the interests of the people in question and equity require on the other. The party has never yet shrunk from the consideration of any question, no matter how delicate or important, when it has been for the people's welfare. It will not do so now. I am firmly convinced that our citizens are of the opinion that the Republican party, which has always kept its pledges, is the only party to properly handle this as well as all other important problems affecting the interest of the State at large."

Two Failures at Elizabeth.

Nathaniel D. Williams, dry goods and carpet merchant of 136 Broad street, Elizabeth, made an assignment to Charles H. K. Helsey, secretary and treasurer of the Union County Trust Co., of that city. Application has been made in the Court of Chancery, Newark, before Vice Chancellor Stevens for the appointment of a receiver for the Millin Printing Company, of Elizabeth.

—A fine lot of choice peaches, white and yellow fruit, will be disposed of by Neuman Brothers this afternoon and evening. See the display and make selections at 75c, 90c and $1 per basket.

TAX RATE FLUCTUATION

Twenty Years Ago $85,816.20 Was Appropriated.

RATE THEN BUT $1.84

Now With All Improvements of a First-Class City, It is But $2.52.

Just now when various cities and towns are receiving reports concerning their valuations and tax rates, it is interesting to glance backward twenty years and note the progress made in regard to Plainfield's improvements, tax rates and valuations. The taxpayers are now awaiting the announcement of the rate for the coming year and the prospects are that it will be a trifle less than last year, when it was $2.52. The Board of Assessors are striving to reduce the rate if possible, although the present rate is considered a fair one.

Twenty years ago the city had practically no macadamized streets, a volunteer fire department, no Board of Health, Public Library or sewage system and there were but three public schools. There were few sidewalks and the town streets were lighted at night by gas lamps, while the police department consisted of three or four men. To be sure all of these improvements cost money, but when it is considered that the increase in the tax rate during these twenty years has only been sixty-eight cents, one can realize that the addition has been a modest one and one not tending to extravagance.

It is generally admitted that Plainfield gets as much if not more for its expenditures than any other place of its size in New Jersey or the country. The town is noted for its freedom from "graft," while there are many towns where it is openly admitted that certain persons have to be seen before contracts are made. The town has been fortunate in having officials who are above this practice, men who cannot be bought and who have the best interest of the city at heart.

Twenty years ago, in 1884, there was raised $85,216.20 to run the city and the rate that year was $1.84. Some persons may say that a jump from this rate to $2.52 in 1903 is too much, but the valuations have about doubled in that time. In 1884 the valuation was $4,636,750, while last year it was $9,333,000 and there was raised for the city's expenses $333,335. The tax rate for each year from 1884 to 1904 is as follows:

1884, $1.84; 1885, $1.74; 1886, $1.86; 1887, $1.90; 1888, $2.18; 1889, $2.15; 1890, $2.24; 1891, $2.22; 1892, $2.20; 1893, $2.20; 1894, $2.22; 1895, $2.22; 1896, $2.30; 1897, $2.52; 1898, $2.42; 1899, $2.56; 1900, $2.50; 1901, $2.50; 1902, $2.50; 1903, $2.52.

Today the city has nearly every street macadamized, a well-regulated street sprinkling system, up-to-date fire and police departments, police patrol system, the fire department has three houses, the property being owned by the city, and the latest apparatus. There is also a successful sanitary sewage system, a good system of street lighting, seven public school buildings and a new city high school now building, an efficient and wide-awake Board of Health, a well-appointed public library and reading room and art gallery, while good sidewalks are to be found in every part of the city. With these improvements the city is growing steadily and the fact that within a few weeks several large property deals have been effected, shows that property values are increasing very fast. Other improvements, such as a municipal system of collecting garbage, a city park and paved streets are considered things of the near future, but it is safe to say that the Common Council will not introduce them until the city is able to pay for them.

Delay Tax Rate Announcement.

The Board of Assessors will not announce Plainfield's tax rate for the coming year until after a conference with the finance committee of the Common Council, it being the wish of these officials that it be made in that way. There is strong possibilities that the rate will be a trifle lower than last year.

Trolley System Change.

Commencing yesterday the crews operating the Dunellen-Newark trolleys changed at Roselle, instead of Elizabeth, as heretofore. The men are somewhat disappointed in the new order as they expected that they would run through from Newark to Dunellen without change.

POINTS FOR THE BUYERS

READY REFERENCES FOR THE LOCAL BARGAIN SEEKERS.

The electrical business is pretty well rushed just now but if anyone can do your work promptly it is Allen B. Laing.

If you contemplate building a house or any kind of a structure, consult with Titus H. Laury, the contractor, and he will quote you low prices.

A fine smoke made by a man who knows how, Dobbins' "Nickel Yara" set the habit of smoking no other. Other brands and grades to suit all tastes.

If you purchase your coal from the Keely Coal Company, of South avenue, there will be plenty of warmth for yours and nothing but satisfaction in the price.

If you had got Hoagland to do your work, you would not be complaining now that the expressman was too late for your train. Hoagland is always on time and all orders are given prompt attention.

"Waldorf quality" in Plainfield means the best that Henry Windham can do in making his patrons contented with rooms, service, etc. He has been in the business too long to fail in any particular.

Have you ever noticed how Peck advertises? He simply states his name, without quoting prices. The name is sufficient to satisfy most people. Peck stands for good quality and the best possible value.

The finest safe deposit vaults in the city, a strong board of directors, deposits subject to check and drawing interest, "traveller's checks" on foreign countries, and last but not least, a special ladies' department.

The Plainfield Trust Company is recognized as Plainfield's leading bank. Perhaps you were not aware of this fact, when you put your money in less secure places. If you want to make money, take advantage of a good thing, and put your savings where they will be saved.

The Surprise Store is advertising a special school opening sale. Among the offers quoted are boys' Norfolk school suits, cadet waists and blouses, and the famous eagle shoes. You will be really "surprised" when you see the excellent value for the most reasonable prices. That's where the name comes in.

Have you tried any of the Plainfield Spring Water Company's bottled water? No? Then you've been running chances of sickness on account of water long enough. Not that the ordinary water is not healthy, but it may not agree with you. If your constitution cannot stand lime, you should not use it.

Don't drop your watch on the floor or ground if you can avoid it, but if you should be so unlucky why the best thing to be done is to let Moraller look it over. He has the "know how" needful in such cases. Any of the fancy little "art nouveau" trinkets which you see in New York can be duplicate there at the same or better prices.

Levy Brothers, the West Front street dry goods merchants, are making extensive arrangements for the fall and winter trade. Their stock will be larger than ever and will comprise the best goods in the market, all of which will be offered at exceptional prices. Don't overlook the well-appointed millinery department, where the latest styles in women's hats are shown.

LITERARY.

Clara Morris, in Collier's for September 17, says: "At the theatre the weary and the care-ridden seek forgetfulness for a little while, and presently they actually weep at fictitious woes, laugh at fictitious misunderstandings, and heartily applaud all patriotic or noble sentiments—thus returning thanks, as it were, for the lesson unconsciously learned. And lying close to the heart are liberty, enlightenment, and progress—involving in their development and fruition suffering and happiness, vice and virtue, error and truth, defeat and victory—the stage comprises them all! Oh, what a power! and when we see the victories won for the stage by it, we feel that sympathy is the fulcrum with which the pulpit should lift the world!"

Let me say I have used Ely's Cream Balm for catarrh and can thoroughly recommend it for what it claims. Very truly, (Rev.) H. W. Hathaway, Elizabeth, N. J.

I tried Ely's Cream Balm and to all appearances am cured of catarrh. The terrible headaches from which I long suffered are gone.—W. J. Hitchcock, late Major U. S. Vol. and A. A. Gen., Buffalo, N. Y.

The Balm does not irritate or cause sneezing. Sold by druggists at 50 cts., or mailed by Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., New York.

Mrs. Samuel Harper and family, of South avenue, have returned from Europe after an absence of four months.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. Thomas Brown and children, of Raritan, are visiting relatives here.

Henri Pedefloss, of Washingtonville, has returned from a pleasure trip to Europe.

Miss Abbie VanCleef, of West End avenue, is visiting her father at East Millstone.

J. L. Moran and family, of the borough, have returned from their summer outing.

Abram VanCleef, of Elm place, has returned home from a visit in Hunterdon county.

Alden Moore, of Williams College, who has been on the reportorial staff of The Daily Press during the summer months, left town today for college to resume his studies.

No Cards for Reception.

At the reception to Mr. and Mrs. Robbie, which will be given at the Y. M. C. A. tonight, there will be no cards, but all members of the Boys' Department and their parents, the members of the Auxiliary, and friends of the bride and groom are cordially invited. The Y. M. C. A. orchestra will furnish music during the evening and an entertainment arranged by O. S. Rogers and Dr. N. H. Probasco will be given. The reception will begin at 8 o'clock.

Church Notes.

The finest city and village Churches are painted with the Longman & Martinez Paints, and we want every Church to accept our donation whenever they paint.

O8&6 make 14, therefore when you want fourteen gallons of paint, buy only eight of L. & M. and mix six gallons of pure Linseed Oil with it, making actual cost of paint about $1.20 per gallon.

Don't pay $1.50 a gallon for Linseed Oil (worth 60 cents) which you do when you buy other paints in a can with a label on it.

Many houses are well painted with four gallons of L. & M. and three gallons of Linseed Oil mixed therewith.

Wears and covers like gold.

Dangerous Dams.

Editor, The Daily Press:

The recent storm emphasizes more strongly than any occurrence of recent years, the wrong and danger of allowing the dams to remain a day longer in Green brook in this city. There is no longer any practical need of their maintenance or retention—though they may provide ornamental ponds or lakes for their owners's lawns, they are at the same time collectors of silt and other matters deleterious to public health, also impeding the free flow of the water in storms, thereby causing overflow through our streets, filling cellars and generally damaging property and a source of menace to public health.

With but slight expense Cedar brook would be adequate for all needs of drainage of the eastern section of our city, but when augmented by the great overflow from Green brook it becomes a source of positive danger and damage to a very large portion of our city, and I believe the city might be held liable in a suit for damage in consequence.

This question has been urged before, but as usual it has been but talk. Let our Board of Health take this subject up seriously, and move toward the immediate abolishment of these dangerous obstructions.

J. E. Martine.

Cedar Brook, Sept. 17.

AMUSEMENTS.

The Hudson Theatre was brilliantly reopened Monday night in the production of Arthur W. Pinero's much heralded play, "Letty," and in the reappearance of William Faversham. The eclat of London approval does not, of course, always spell New York success, yet this passion drama of Mr. Pinero judged on its dramatic merits and by the reception it met last night, quite justified here its London reputation and should be one of the season's good things. The cast was a strong one, perhaps the strongest with which Mr. Faversham has ever been connected. He and his associates met the warmest kind of welcome and, what is of greater value, the heartiest approval of their efforts as the evening progressed. In fact, in one scene in the fourth act Mr. Faversham had an opportunity of which he availed himself so thoroughly that the house "rose at him" and he had twelve recalls. He has done nothing better than his acting in this scene. Mr. Faversham is provided with a part which fits him as well as the similar one he played in "Aristocracy" many seasons ago, that of the gentlemanly reprobate. It gives play to his finesse and to his mannerisms—and for plenty of cigarette indulgence. The scene sets were good, the second, a glimpse into cockney Bohemia, being especially effective.

A World's Wonder.

We often hear of the seven wonders, though in these times there are perhaps one hundred times that number, and perhaps the most popular wonder region in this vicinity is Manoh Chunk. Manoh Chunk is high up in the Pennsylvania mountains, and the several peaks have wide outlooks in every direction. A main attraction is the Switchback Railroad, the road forms an eighteen mile loop over and around the mountains, and is a very novel engineering feat. The first incline extends up Mount Pisgah to a height of 1370 feet above tide water. The car then bowls along a decline for several miles only to reach the base of another mountain which is climbed to a height of 1530 feet above tide water. The descent to the home stretch lies through a beautiful valley, and when the journey is finished the tourist is rather anxious for a renewal of the experience. On September 18, 1904, the New Jersey Central is to run a popular priced excursion to Manoh Chunk, the rate for the round trip to be $1.50. Special train leaves Plainfield at 9:20 a. m., arriving at Manoh Chunk early in the day, and as the return trip does not leave the Mountain City until 5:40 p. m., there is plenty of time for exploring the charms of Manoh Chunk.

Mrs. Benjamin A. Hegeman has returned from her summer outing.

Miss Emma J. Shupp, of Philadelphia, is visiting her sister, Mrs. William Hinton, of West Fourth street.

Charles Doolittle, of this city, a member of the Sophomore class at Rutgers College, will not resume his studies when college opens next Wednesday, but will take a year's rest on account of his health.

PARKER GOES HOME

Important Questions Settled at New York Conferences.

SENATOR GORMAN TO THE FRONT.

Will Be Active In Campaign, but Won't Supersede Taggart—Murphy-McCarren Fight Ended. Governorship Open.

NEW YORK, Sept. 17.—Several important questions were settled by the visit of Judge Alton B. Parker to New York and his conference with Democratic leaders. It was determined that Senator Gorman should have an active place in the campaign, but that Chairman Taggart was not to be superseded. The conference of Tammany leaders with Judge Parker resulted in the settlement of differences in Greater New York so far as they relate to national and state issues.

The selection of a temporary chairman of the Democratic state convention was made, and his name will be officially announced by Chairman Sheehan of the national executive committee today. The governorship and other state offices were discussed, but it was stated that nothing definite as to the selection of candidates will be determined until next week at Saratoga. Another matter left open is whether or not Judge Parker will make a series of speeches during the campaign. Other conferences will probably be held next week before Judge Parker's letter of acceptance is made public.

Judge Parker returned to Esopus on a West Shore train early in the evening.

Just before Judge Alton B. Parker, Democratic presidential candidate, started for Esopus he had his second conference within a few hours with Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany Hall. The interview was followed by a formal declaration on the part of Judge Parker that he is jubilant over the outlook for his election and that all is harmony in the Empire State.

So pronounced is the harmony, so far as local political affairs go, that Senator P. H. McCarren is to attend Tammany's big mass meeting in Brooklyn. William A. Doyle, who has been fighting to depose McCarren, will preside. Charles F. Murphy will attend "if his health permits," and Bourke Cockran is to make the principal speech. Mr. Cockran is to be Tammany's star orator during the campaign.

Talk of Jerome for governor is still rife in spite of the report that Mr. Hill had offered the district attorney the nomination for attorney general and that it had been contemptuously refused. John B. Stanchfield, E. M. Grout and Edward M. Shepard as candidates for governor were also considered by Judge Parker and his conferees. Senator Patrick H. McCarren made it evident that Kings county would give no support to Shepard's candidacy, though he comes from Brooklyn. McCarren's candidate is E. M. Grout.

What the convention will do next week, it was generally said, was undetermined, and there were possibilities of sudden and surprising developments after the arrival of the delegates at Saratoga.

Fairbanks Speaks at Cumberland.

CUMBERLAND, Md., Sept. 17.—Senator Fairbanks was introduced to 1,500 persons here by Senator Scott as the prospective Republican presidential nominee in 1908. He was enthusiastically cheered. In a five minute speech he said that a visit to the industrial centers of the country would show ample evidence of the virtue of Republican policies, fostered by William McKinley and maintained by Roosevelt. He asked if any one regretted having voted for McKinley, and there was a great chorus of "noes."

Stevenson to Take the Stump.

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., Sept. 17.—Former Vice President A. E. Stevenson of this city has accepted an invitation from the Democratic national committee to make a number of speeches and will take an active part in the presidential campaign. He will open the campaign in this city and will deliver his first speech here the latter part of this month. He will speak later at Madison Square Garden, New York, and will then travel through many states, delivering one or more addresses each day.

Wisconsin Decision Postponed.

MADISON, Wis., Sept. 17.—The supreme court of Wisconsin, before which is being tried the case involving a decision as to which of the two Republican state tickets is entitled to recognition, has adjourned until Tuesday, Sept. 27.

Eddie Bald an Automobilist.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., Sept. 17.—Edward C. Bald, the former bicycle champion, made his debut as a professional in the automobile races at the Dutchess county fair. Bald finished second in the five mile race for touring cars, which was won by A. S. Lee with a twenty-four horsepower machine. Colonel J. J. Astor's twenty horsepower machine, driven by B. Morgan, was third. Time, 7:02.

Bullfight Injunction Dissolved.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 17.—Judge McElhinney of the Clayton circuit court sustained a motion to dissolve the injunction obtained by Attorney General Crow of Missouri to prevent further exhibitions at the bullfighting ring in St. Louis county. Later Attorney General Crow announced that he would carry the case to the supreme court.

RESULTS AT BRIGHTON.

Jockey Davis' Four Victories the Feature of the Day.

NEW YORK, Sept. 17.—The feature of the racing at Brighton Beach was the riding of Jockey Davis. Out of six mounts he rode four winners, his other two mounts finishing outside of the money. In his ride on Dekaber in the fourth race he appeared to be beaten at the head of the stretch, but gradually made up his ground and beat the heavily played second choice, Ostrich, by a head.

Jocund, at 1 to 3, and The Southerner, at 3 to 2, were the only winning favorites. Summaries:

First Race—Fleur de Marie, 4 to 1, first; Workman, 9 to 1, second; Confessor, 20 to 1, third. Time, 1:14 1-5.

Second Race—Jocund, 1 to 3, first; Brooklynite, 15 to 1, second; Woman, 7 to 2, third. Time, 1:46 1-5.

Third Race—Castalian, 12 to 1, first; Counterpoise, 7 to 2, second; Liberia, 5 to 1, third. Time, 1:13 4-5.

Fourth Race—Dekaber, 5 to 1, first; Ostrich, 3 to 1, second; Hurstbourne, 6 to 5, third. Time, 1:52 3-5.

Fifth Race—The Southerner, 3 to 2, first; Stolen Moments, 5 to 1, second; Ed Tierney, 4 to 1, third. Time, 2:05.

Sixth Race—Linda Lee, 10 to 1, first; Santa Catalina, 7 to 2, second; Raiment, 6 to 1, third. Time, 1:07 3-5.

Shooting at Creedmoor.

NEW YORK, Sept. 17.—The Thurston match, the Old Guard trophy match and the revolver team match were concluded under perfect weather conditions at the fall meeting of the New York State Rifle association on the Creedmoor range. The Thurston match, which was open to every one, was won by Captain W. G. Hudson, Ninth regiment, N. G. N. Y., with a total of 135 out of a possible 140. He received a prize of $40. The winner of the Old Guard trophy match was team No. 2, United States marine corps, its total being 255 out of a possible 300. The victor is entitled to a $200 trophy presented by the Old Guard and $50 in cash. In the revolver team match first honors were captured by a team representing Squadron A of the national guard of New York, with a total of 813 out of a possible 1,250.

Major Delmar Fails to Break Record.

READVILLE, Mass., Sept. 17.—Major Delmar failed by three-quarters of a second to beat the unpaced trotting record at the Readville track, principally by reason of a somewhat heavy track and a stiff breeze that sprang up suddenly after the horse had started. When the son of Del Mar reached the three-quarters pole in 1 minute 30¾ minutes it looked as if the record would go, but the breeze and track proved too much of a drag. The times were 0:30¾, 1:00¾, 1:30¾, 2:02¾. It was a bad day for favorites, as only one won in the three principal events. The worst reversals were the defeat of Angiola by Jay McGregor in the 2:08 trot and the poor showing of Knox's Gelatin King (Anaconda) in the 2:10 trotting, which John Taylor won.

Highland Park Meeting Ends.

DETROIT, Mich., Sept. 17.—The Highland park meeting came to a close with a programme that while not particularly brilliant in class was productive of interesting racing and with one of the best crowds of the meeting in attendance. Favorites and outsiders played the most prominent parts in shaping the results. The steeplechase, which was the real feature of the day, developed into little more than a walkover for the 1 to 2 favorite, Balzac, who went to the front at the start and, opening a gap of almost a sixteenth of a mile, kept that margin to the end.

CONTRABAND OF WAR

Russia Amends Rules to Meet Anglo-American Demands.

FOOD NOT STRICTLY SEIZABLE.

May Be Confiscated Only When Consigned to Blockaded Ports or Destined For Enemy's Forces—Fuel In Same Category.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 17.—Russia's reply to the representations of the United States and Great Britain regarding contraband of war has been communicated to their respective embassies.

Russia in principle meets the views of the American and British governments regarding foodstuffs and coal and other fuel as being conditional contraband of war, distinctly placing them in the category of articles susceptible of uses both in war and peace, and as such only confiscable when consigned to blockaded ports or destined for military or naval forces of the enemy.

Shipments in the ordinary course of trade by private persons or firms, even to an enemy's port, may be considered prima facie not contraband, but upon this point distinct reservation is made. The simple fact of consignment to private persons does not preclude the possibility that the articles are not ultimately destined for belligerent forces, and Russia insists that it be not necessarily regarded as conclusive evidence of the innocent character of the goods. In other words, irregular ships' papers or other suspicious circumstances might vitiate the assumption of innocent character, but where such suspicion is raised the burden of proof to warrant legal seizure is to rest upon the captor. Count Lamsdorff pointed out, however, that captains of merchantmen also owed a duty in such cases.

Count Lamsdorff's reply was not presented in written form, but was communicated verbally to Ambassador Hardinge. It will not involve public amendment of Russian contraband and prize regulations, but in effect it becomes an official interpretation of the original regulations made by the commission composed of representatives of the ministries of foreign affairs, marine, war and justice, which considered the subject in connection with the objections raised by the United States and Great Britain, and as such will hereafter govern naval commanders and prize courts, which thus far in the war have classed all articles enumerated in article 6 of the Russian regulations as absolute contraband.

In this way Russia preserves her dignity by not making an open surrender, at the same time consenting to the interpretation asked for by the United States and Great Britain in the interest of the rights of neutral commerce. In some respects, however, there is good ground for the belief that the contention of the United States that railway material and certain kinds of machinery be classed as conditional contraband will not be accepted. To that extent Count Lamsdorff's reply to Ambassador McCormick may not be satisfactory to the United States.

Russians Stop British Steamer.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 17.—The British steamship Margit Groedel, with a cargo of coal from Cardiff for Sulina, reports that she was stopped by the Russian cruiser Terek on Sept. 6 off Capt St. Vincent. The Terek fired three blank shots to bring the steamer about. Two Russian officers and two armed men boarded the Margit Groedel and overhauled her papers. The captain of the Margit Groedel was asked to sign a declaration that he had not been put to any inconvenience by the delay. He at first refused, but when told that his steamer would be detained until the arrival of the Russian admiral the declaration was signed, and the collier was allowed to proceed.

The Lena Goes to Mare Island.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 17.—The board of inspection appointed by Rear Admiral Goodrich has completed its inspection of the Lena's boilers and machinery. As their report has not yet been officially considered at Washington, the findings of the engineering experts have not been made public here. The Lena was taken to Mare Island navy yard under escort of the United States cruiser Marblehead.

Reading Road's Earnings Increase.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 17.—The seventh annual report of the Reading company, giving the operations of the Philadelphia and Reading Railway company and the Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron company for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1904, has been made public. The net earnings of the three companies before the payment of the Reading company's dividends and general mortgage sinking fund were $7,757,538, an increase of $2,559,756 over the previous fiscal year.

Fall Kills Prominent Attorney.

TRENTON, N. J., Sept. 17.—Elias P. Smithers, former register of wills of Philadelphia and a well known attorney of that city, has died at the Mercer hospital here from injuries received in a fall down a flight of stairs at the Hotel Sterling.

Canadian Pacific Boilermakers Strike

WINNIPEG, Man., Sept. 17.—All the Canadian Pacific boilermakers have gone on a strike. All the company's west lines are affected. The boilermakers expect the support of the machinists.

Plainfield, N. J., Sept. 17, 1904.

It isn't always the pretty ad that crowds the store. It's the stuff that goes into it that counts.—Ex.

Essex county found a grain of happiness when the farmer orator from Union sat on the boss from Hudson.

Next to Mr. Parker's courageous gold telegram, is his instruction to those compiling the Democratic party text book "to see that there is no word in it that reflects upon the personal honor and integrity of President Roosevelt."

If the Democrats of Somerset County have any idea of waging any sort of a fight in the present campaign they should place a North Plainfield man on the ticket, and David J. Carney, who has a host of friends in the borough, would be an ideal selection.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. J. D. Runyon, of Park avenue, is at Mt. Pocono, Pa.

James H. Robley, of Myrtle avenue, is home from Old Mystic, Conn.

Miss A. E. Lincoln, of Park avenue, is home from Lake Placid, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore H. Hardy, of Brooklyn, are visiting at the home of A. L. Force, Duer street.

Miss Carrie Kellogg, of Duer street; Samuel P. Case, of Plainfield avenue, and John McLaughlin, of Somerset street, are at Friend's Lake, N. Y.

F. T. Ostrom, sales agent for the Hygeia Ice Company, is about again after being kept from his feet by a painful injury to his foot on which a piece of ice fell.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter McGee, of North Plainfield, sail today for Portugal, where Mr. McGee goes on business for the Standard Oil Company. They will be absent two months.

For Allentown Fair.

The Allentown Fair is by all odds one of the most unique exhibitions of the country. Its attendance is simply enormous, and you ask why? Everything is complete to the minutest detail. The entertainments are exceptionally fine. The live stock show has no equal. The fruit and vegetable exhibits are among the finest procurable, and with the genuine good time always found at Allentown, there is no reason why the fair should not be popular. On September 22 the New Jersey Central will sell tickets at $1.50 to Allentown and special train will leave Plainfield at 7:32 a. m. 9 16 5

EDITOR MUST ANSWER.

Court Issues Writ of Attachment for Contempt—Judge Wants Case Appealed.

Judge Strong, at New Brunswick yesterday, granted a writ of attachment in the contempt proceedings against Francis W. Daire, editor of The Daily Times, for criticising the judge, and the editor is held in $500 bail, pending the further consideration of the case.

R. V. Lindabury argued against the issuance of the rule, on the ground that there were no cases obtainable where a court had found anybody guilty of contempt for criticising a court transaction that had been completed. He cited numerous opinions. Allan Strong, for the court, held that the court had authority from the common law to issue a writ. The writ was then issued.

Judge Strong declared he hoped the case would be carried up so that the higher court would decide whether "a court can have its efficiency ruined, absolutely ruined, by the press."

JAPANESE ADVANCE.

Russia Hears Oyama Is Trying to Flank Mukden.

THINKS THE REPORT SUSPICIOUS.

Hardly Likely That the Enemy Has Sufficiently Recovered From the Late Battle to Begin New Operations.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 17.—The war office has heard the report of an apparent Japanese concentration against the flanks of General Kuropatkin's army preparatory to an advance toward Mukden. While it is not in a position to absolutely confirm or deny the report, it would surprise the war office should Field Marshal Oyama have been able in such a short time to organize his forces for a serious advance northward.

Supplementary details of the battle of Liaoyang show that the First and Third Siberian corps after bravely withstanding the onslaught of six divisions of the Japanese army under Generals Oku and Nodzu while holding a position south of Liaoyang received orders to cross the river on Sept. 1 and join the Tenth corps in advancing against General Kuroki, who was threatening the Russian positions. Meanwhile the defense of the Russian position on the southern bank of the river was intrusted to the Second and Fourth corps, which were given positions around the city. The center of gravity had now been transferred to the right bank of the river. The Seventeenth corps, which had been stationed there, was subjected on Aug. 31 to a heavy bombardment by Japanese artillery situated north of Sykwantun. The tactical key of this position was a solitary hill from whence the Japanese could be seen crossing the river at Wankwantun. Nine companies of the Tenth European regiment held this hill, supported on their right by the Bolkhoff regiment, with the Nezhinsk regiment in reserve. Here occurred the most brilliant encounter and the most desperate fighting of the whole battle. On Sept. 1 the Japanese concentrated their artillery fire upon this hill and by evening occupied it. The Nezhinsk regiment was ordered the next day to retake the hill, and after artillery preparation, headed by its colonel on horseback, the regiment tried to rush the heights. The Japanese fire was terrific and mowed down whole companies, but the Nezhinsks went on, gaining ground inch by inch till finally they reached the top. There there was a frightful hand to hand struggle. The Japanese were obliged to fall back, and the Nezhinsk regiment occupied the hill, which they managed to hold until evening. Then, unable longer to withstand the concentrated artillery fire of the Japanese, the Nezhinsks had to climb down. Its terrible fight cost the regiment more than half its men and three-fourths of its officers. The height will henceforth be known among the Seventeenth corps as "Nezhinsk hill."

It was decided on the night of Sept. 3 to abandon Liaoyang. The following day all the stores were removed from the forts around the city, from the Russian settlement and from Liaoyang, and the dead were buried and sentries gradually withdrawn. A terrific hail of projectiles was falling in the city, especially in the church square and around the house where General Kuropatkin had been residing.

The evacuation of the railway station was carried out under a heavy fire. The railroad men showed the most admirable coolness and discipline. There were not enough trains to carry all the artillery. At the last moment the First Siberian flying artillery procured an empty truck, upon which the soldiers loaded their six inch mortars by hand and then pushed the truck across the river under a direct fire of shells just before the bridge was destroyed. Reconnoissance operations were greatly impeded by the standing crops of Chinese corn, which is fourteen feet in height.

There were many narrow escapes owing to the similarity of the Russian uniforms with those of the Japanese. Serious results were prevented, however, by the Russian officers directing that the men must not shoot except on specific orders. The Japanese, on the other hand, destroyed the whole of their own Forty-first regiment by firing upon them in mistake for a Russian force.

Alleged Train Robbers Captured.

DES MOINES, Ia., Sept. 17.—Two men, believed to be members of the gang of train bandits who held up the Rock Island express, were arrested between Brighton and Wayland. They will be held for identification.

CONDENSED DISPATCHES.

Socialists declared a strike throughout Italy. Two strikers were killed in a riot at Milan.

Nine Chicago firemen were hurt, two fatally, by the collapse of a wall of a burning building.

William G. Ritch, former governor of New Mexico, died at Engle, Sierra county, N. M., near which place he was engaged in ranching.

Napoleon Shipley, a former postmaster at Washington, Pa., and for years one of the most successful and largest oil speculators of the country, died at the city poor farm, Marshalse, Pa.

The Montana Democratic state convention adjourned after nominating a complete ticket, as follows: Governor, J. K. Toole; chief justice, D. E. Smith; lieutenant governor, Edwin Norris; clerk of the supreme court, Finley McRea; secretary of state, Miles Romney; auditor, Philip C. Goodwin; treasurer, David G. Browne; attorney general, Charles H. Hall.

NEW SCHEME FOR SHAW.

Aged Man Wants Him to Finance a Plan For Controlling Tides.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—The White House has no longer a monopoly as a Mecca for cranks. A gray haired man roamed into the treasury, looking for Secretary Shaw, saying he had an invention too big for one man to handle, and wanted the treasury to finance it.

Questioning developed the invention was a machine to control the tides and appropriate their powers. The old man was much disappointed at Mr. Shaw's absence, and told his private secretary if he could learn his address he would go in quest of him. He said his name was Earle and that he was from New York.

Chief Wilkie is keeping watch on his movements.

End of World's Fair Stamps.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—The postoffice department has issued general notices that the sale of the commemorative series of Louisiana Purchase exposition stamps at postoffices throughout the country will be discontinued Dec. 1 next in accordance with the original plan, and an order was issued looking to the avoidance of any unsold surplus on hand after that date. Beginning Oct. 1 all postmasters are required to state in connection with their requisitions for this series of stamps that the amount ordered will be sold by Dec. 1. At all cities where the present supply is likely to last longer than the time fixed postmasters have been directed to supplant the regular issue of stamps with the commemorative ones, selling the regular stamps only when specially asked for by purchasers.

Resumption of Smoot Inquiry.

NEW YORK, Sept. 17.—Senator Burrows of Michigan, chairman of the senate committee on privileges and elections, was in New York on his way home from New England. Senator Burrows said that he was going to notify the attorneys in the case of Senator Reed Smoot of Utah, whose right to a seat in the United States senate is being investigated, that the committee will resume the inquiry as soon as its members are relieved of work in the campaign. He will advise the attorneys that he wants the names of all witnesses that are to be examined.

Moore to Command at San Francisco.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—By direction of the president, Brigadier General Francis Moore has been relieved from duty as commandant of the school of application for cavalry and field artillery at Fort Riley, Kan., and ordered to San Francisco to assume command of the department of California, relieving Major General Arthur MacArthur, who will retain command, however, of the Pacific division. No one has yet been selected to command the school of application at Fort Riley.

Archbishop at Bar Harbor.

BAR HARBOR, Me., Sept. 17.—The archbishop of Canterbury and party have arrived here from Northeast Harbor, where they have been the guests of Bishop Doane of Albany. They will remain here for a week as the guests of Bishop Lawrence of Massachusetts.

Three Masted Schooner Ashore.

CITY ISLAND, N. Y., Sept. 17.—Captain Kenpey of the British steamer Prince Arthur, from Halifax, reports that a three masted schooner is ashore on the eastern end of Horton's point, Long Island sound.

THE RATTLESNAKE'S BITE.

A Matter in Which Backwoods Tradition Triumphs Over Scientific Research.

Now and then science confirms some of the old-wife medical superstitions of the backwoods, says the New York Sun. For instance, the "yarb" doctors and old women of rattlesnake regions say that when a man gets over a rattlesnake bite he has trouble in the wound every year afterward.

Pathologists and toxicologists who have studied snake poison agree that this is true, only the trouble doesn't necessarily occur every year. It happens whenever the system gets out of order.

The explanation is simple. Snake poison has the effect of destroying tissue. Of course, it has the strongest effect in and about the wound where the poison, in its course through the veins, has not yet been diluted by the blood.

Ever afterward that is a weak point in the system. Any little disturbance in the blood tends to break out at the point of the wound.

When this happens the old wives say that it is the poison working. It is not, of course. It is only the excess poison of the body working in the weak spot.

There was a case of this kind with a rather unusual history in a Colorado hospital a few years ago. The patient was a scout who had helped the army make way for civilization in the Rockies.

The Utes, Arapahoes and other Indians of that region were mostly unsupplied with guns in those days, but they had a most effective kind of poisoned arrow. They would catch a bunch of rattlesnakes, and taking a fresh buffalo liver would make the serpents strike in it until their poison glands were exhausted and the meat fairly reeked with venom.

After that they would leave the liver in the sun until it became putrid. Into this they would dip their war arrows. It made a nasty poison.

With such an arrow the scout was struck in the leg. It carried, of course, not only snake venom, but all kinds of possibilities of blood poisoning. By good luck a first-rate army surgeon was at hand. He saved the scout's life.

This happened in the spring. Every spring after that the man's leg would break out with sores and boils and sundry other afflictions. It looked as though the case were proved for the witch doctors.

The physicians went into the life history of the patient, and found that, long before he stopped the poisoned arrow he had been afflicted with a breaking out every spring. He was one of those people who load up on animal diet all winter and need a cleaning out when the season breaks. It had merely settled in the weak spot. Next year he attended to his liver early and had no further trouble.

In the treatment of rattlesnake bites the rough and ready physicians of the backwoods scored again on the modern scientist. In spite of analysis and laborious experiments and government prizes, the treatment discovered by the pioneers when New York was a wilderness is still standard.

Cut the wound, suck it out, burn or cauterize the spot and keep the patient drunk on whisky until the danger is past.

BIG CITY'S WATER SUPPLY.

Aqueducts of New York Surpass Those of the Ancient City of Rome.

The aqueducts of old Rome were nine in number, extended 249 miles and furnished the city at a period when its population was largest with 330,000 gallons of water a day, equivalent to 160 gallons of each inhabitant.

That was the standard of water service under conditions not easy to duplicate in any large modern city and never rivalled during many centuries in any European city. New York today, remote from high mountains and obliged to go a long distance for its sources of water supply, has a system not unequalled anywhere, says the Sun.

The average daily consumption of water in New York is 400,000,000 gallons, which is greater than any city of ancient or modern times has ever attained, and which is thus divided: Manhattan and The Bronx, 275,000,000 gallons; Brooklyn, 100,000,000; Queens, 20,000,000, and Richmond, 5,000,000.

There are 950 miles of water mains in Manhattan and The Bronx, and the maximum daily supply of water for Manhattan and The Bronx is 380,000,000 gallons—nearly enough to supply the whole five boroughs. The Brooklyn water mains are 700 miles in length and there are over 7,000 water hydrants in Brooklyn, the number in Manhattan and The Bronx being 13,000—20,000 in all.

The maximum daily supply of the Brooklyn water system is 300,000,000 gallons. There are 223 miles of water mains in Queens and 140 miles of mains in Richmond, the water supply of these two boroughs being furnished in part by wells.

Over $150,000,000 has already been expended for the construction and development of New York's water supply, and the constant increase of the demand for water makes it probable that other expenditures in large amounts will be necessary each year for many years to come.

Swiftest Liner.

The Kaiser Wilhem II. just now enjoys the reputation of being the swiftest of all ocean liners. A few days ago she made the run from New York to Plymouth at the average rate of 23.58 knots an hour. The best previous record, that of the Deutschland, was 23.51 knots.

The New Woman

She Leads the Way to International Brotherhood

IT is notable that the first really effective movements for international peace and universal brotherhood should have been set going by women. War, it is plain, would ultimately cease if the women of warring nations were fast bound together in a sisterhood that influenced for peace all their respective private families. The Women's International Council, founded by May Wright Sewall, is already a power for keeping the peace. Men, like the lower animals, are constitutionally ready to fight. It is the animal still dominant in them, and women will have to rise and hold this brute in check by cultivating ever the sense of justice and brotherhood in such of the masculine sex as have not yet emerged from their influence. A recent additional step toward international brotherhood has been taken by some women in Paris. There is now in operation in that city the British American Young Women's Christian association. It has been established for the purpose of aiding young American and English girls who find themselves stranded in Paris or who are obliged to live there on a very small income. At the B. A. Y. W. C. A. home board may be obtained for $4 a week. Attached to the establishment are instruction classes in French, physical culture, nursing and millinery. An American woman, Mrs. John Hoff, is president of this association, while an English woman, Miss Johnstone, is secretary. The home is at No. 5 Rue de Turin, in the part of Paris called the European quarter. An employment agency for women is one of the features of this invaluable institution. Women of high social standing in the English-American colony labor unitedly for the prosperity of this fine home club. When American and English women thus work together with harmonious enthusiasm their men will not be long in following suit.

Did you ever think of the great difference between wishing and willing? The wishy woman sits still and says, "I wish I had money enough to go to the world's fair." The woman of will gets a hustle on her and finds a way to go to the world's fair or to achieve whatever else she desires.

Civilized people will never be free till each person can dress as he or she pleases without even exciting comment of an unpleasant kind. How far short of being civilized New York at least is may be judged from the fact that not long ago a learned Hindoo who walked along its streets in the robes of his native land was stoned. If an American wearing his ordinary coat and trousers had walked through the streets of a town in India he would not have been molested, scarcely even stared at. Which is the civilized country?

When you contemplate going in for some new health, beauty or food fad make sure before you do so that it will deliver the goods.

There is no tyranny like that of fashion in dress. "Fashion is the devil's first assistant," remarks our friend the Hayfield Mower. Its tyranny is so unbounded that if you go into any city's great department stores and ask for even a piece of dress goods not of the weave in vogue at the moment you are stared at as if you were a freak and told that it is "out of style." If you mention that you want it very much you are told again, coldly and curtly, that it is "out of style." And if you were to look every textile goods shop in a large city through, street by street, you could not get that article. The freedom that women need most is release from the fetters of fashion. Mme. Rejane, the famous French actress, as lovely physically as she is gifted, says that woman will never be beautiful till fashion goes out of existence.

As high praise as was ever bestowed on a woman was that uttered by the driver of the vehicle in which Dr. Emily Dunning, the first woman ambulance surgeon in the world, made her rounds in New York city. He said, "When she's at work she's a doctor; when she's off duty she's a lady."

To blame others for our failures shows only our own weakmindedness and lack of will power. The strong, steady, determined soul never whines.

Not long ago an evening reception was given for a brilliant young lady who wore a handsome white gown and was admired by all present for her easy, graceful manner and cultivated mind. She was a girl who a few years ago drove a milk wagon to help support her family while she was taking a high school course. I could give you her name, but maybe she wouldn't like it.

An editor writing in his paper says it is the girls who are to blame for the universal tendency of young men to leave the farm for city life. Girls prefer the city man with his spic and span and clothes unstained by the soil, so the editor says. Yes, yes. It's always the woman, isn't it?

ELIZA ARCHARD CONNER.

DIPLOMAT BY TRADE.

KOGORO TAKAHIRA, JAPANESE MINISTER AT WASHINGTON.

He Is a Man Who Does His Own Thinking and Indulges in Very Little Talking--Has Had Active Career.

Washington (D. C.) Special.

A Yankee of the orient and looks like Rudyard Kipling; this is Kogoro Takahira, the Japanese minister at Washington. This description may not appear complimentary, but first observation would suggest it. In progress, pluck and energy the Yankee predominates in the Japanese's character. The spacy frame, well-knit figure, strong, black eyebrows and first glance are reminiscent of the English author and poet. A close analysis of the minister's features, however, will not sustain the comparison.

As punctilious as the strictest rules of diplomacy require, the Japanese minister at the same time is the typical, common-sense, twentieth century business man in his legation home. He goes about the modern American house is a business sack coat and striped trousers; runs up and down stairs in the most unconventional way and interests himself with every detail of legation work.

"What's the news this morning?" is his first inquiry as he reaches the breakfast table.

At his plate he finds the Washington and Baltimore morning papers, and an hour or two later he receives those of Philadelphia and New York. He is an omniverous newspaper reader. He skims through dozens every day. Every "extra" cried on the streets must be bought and brought to him. He catches at a glance the most important items, and he runs through the papers with the instinct and trained sight of a veteran exchange editor. He studies them with especial view to catch public sentiment, especially that on the eastern situation. He believes in the newspaper as the popular educator of the day and as a diplomatist he recognizes its value in disseminating his side of any issue. Newspaper correspondents are welcomed at his legation.

Minister Takahira and his staff have not abandoned all their oriental customs, but retain with great reverence some of the ceremonies so popular in their fatherland. On the emperor's birthday pictures of the emperor and empress of Japan are placed in a conspicuous manner in the parlor and the minister, his household and suite pass before them, bowing low and according them the same courtesy and reverence they would were their sovereigns there in person. This custom having been observed, a legation dinner follows, in which Japanese dishes predominate, and the emperor and empress are toasted and patriotic speeches and sentiments are indulged.

The Japanese minister is a diplomat by profession, having entered the imperial service in 1876. He was trained in the foreign office at home and his career illustrates the success of his teaching. During the 28 years he has been in the diplomatic service he has held posts of high honor in China, Korea, Holland, Italy, Austria and the United States. He is a graduate of the best Japanese colleges at Tokio, and is a man of intellectuality and culture. He is learned in Chinese philosophy and language, as well as in that of his own country. He speaks and writes fluently in several European languages and is an able English scholar.

The Washington Star says that this is not his first service in Washington, as he was appointed attache to the Japanese legation in this country in 1879 and became its secretary in 1881. A brief review of his career illustrates the success that he has met with in the diplomatic service. He became secretary of the foreign office in 1883; was made charge d'affaires in Korea in 1885; acting consul general of Shanghai in 1887; chief of the political bureau of the foreign office in 1890; consul general at New York in 1891; minister resident to Holland in 1892; envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary to Italy in 1894; envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary to Austria in 1896; vice minister for foreign affairs in 1899, and appointed envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary to the United States in 1900.

Bicycle Does Family Washing.

A bicycle is used to do the family washing for the family of H. G. Hitner, of Edinburg, Va. His wife has a rotary washing machine, and to this his bicycle is ingeniously attached. The clothes and soap and water having been put in the machine, Hitner mounts his stationary wheel, puffs on a cigar and pedals for about an hour. At the end of that time the washing is done.

LEPROSY NOT DUE TO FISH

So Declares English Physician Who Has Made a Study of the Disease.

Leprosy must now be added to the other scourges which afflict South Africa. Until recently the extent to which this disease was prevalent in South Africa was little known. The fact that it existed in the Transvaal was practically quite unknown, says a London report, yet Dr. Turner, the health officer of the Transvaal, reports that whereas there were 109 cases in his charge in 1895, there are now over 200. Dr. Turner adds the remarkable fact that no one knows how many lepers there are in the Transvaal. He says that a medical officer who had been in charge of the lepers and had taken much interest in the matter asserted that there were at least 3,000 in 1900.

The disease is defying the most heroic efforts at its extermination in Cape Colon, while it is also spreading in Basutoland and elsewhere. The worst afflicted are the Hottentots; the Kaffirs, with the exception of the Europeans, being the least affected.

Prof. Jonathan Hutchinson's theory that eating fish, especially cured, is the chief cause of the disease has been fully set forth in the Sun. His arguments and statistics are cogent, but hitherto have found little support. Dr. Turner, as the result of most careful investigation, differs absolutely from Dr. Hutchinson.

Official returns show that 70 per cent. of the total amount of fish entering the Transvaal goes to Johannesburg. Nearly all of this is eaten by whites, but until December there was not a single European in the Johannesburg leper hospital. Then a man who was born in Europe was admitted. He was a member of a large family, all of whom are living in the Transvaal. None of the others is a leper. In Dr. Turner's opinion, his disease was clearly the result of contagion, as he habitually associated with a leper.

Of Dr. Turner's 210 patients, 44 per cent. had eaten fish, only 17 per cent. of which was cured fish. Among the white lepers 95 per cent. had eaten fish, 45 per cent. of which was cured fish. Among the colored patients, who made up four-fifths of the total, only 30 per cent. ever tasted fish, and only ten had eaten cured fish.

Dr. Turner is convinced that contagion is the most usual means of the spread of leprosy. He treated a few cases in which it was possible to assert that its origin was hereditary, but practically none in which contagion could be excluded and several in which contagion was the sole explanation. He believes it will eventually be proved that some vermin is the cause of the infection.

INSPIRED HIM TO PREACH.

Threat That Aroused the Eloquence of a Young Circuit Rider.

In the early days of Methodism in the west, a circuit rider, if he had a large field to cover, was sometimes permitted to have a colleague just beginning to preach. Rev. John Thompson was a circuit rider in a somewhat thinly settled part of central Illinois more than 50 years ago. The colleague assigned to him was Brother James Smith, an excellent young man, but with very little experience as a preacher, says Youth's Companion.

One Sunday Mr. Thompson had an appointment at a small meeting house in the country; but having a severe cold, he asked his young assistant to go along with him and preach the sermon; and the latter, as in duty bound, obeyed orders.

Brother Smith had never undertaken to preach in the presence of his more experienced colaborer, and when, after the opening services, he arose and gave out his text he was visibly embarrassed.

He stammered through a few sentences, hesitated, made another attempt and came to a dead stop.

"What's the use, brethren," he said, sitting down. "I can't preach!"

Brother Thompson saw that the case was one in which heroic measures were necessary.

"Young man," he whispered, sternly in his ear, "you get up again and preach that sermon or I'll take you out in the grove after this meeting and give you a hard spanking, as sure as your name is Smith."

An electric shock could not have operated quicker. Brother Smith rose to his feet again, his hesitation all gone, and in ringing tones he preached a sermon that is still remembered by aged survivors of that old time congregation as the most fervid and eloquent discourse they ever heard so young a man deliver.

Proper Way to Treat Carp.

Some people who insist that the carp is an edible fish are publishing instructions for its treatment. The following is the proper one: Immediately on being landed the fish should be thoroughly bled and its veins injected full of embalming fluid to insure it from putrefaction before the hook can be taken from its mouth. It should then be rubbed thoroughly with a mixture of salt and iodoform, care being taken not to touch it with the hands, and given an air-tight coating of paraffin. It may then be turned over to a scavenger for burial with comparatively little danger of its infecting anyone with blood poison.—Peoria Herald-Transcript.

Sorry He Spoke.

The young man in the extraordinary waistcoat was fond of making up jokes.

"Did you ever hear the story of my pocketbook?" he giggled, soon after he had seated himself on the sofa.

"No," retorted the beautiful girl, "and I don't care to."

"Why, don't you think it's a good story?"

"No; there's nothing in it."—Chicago Daily News.

An Ideal Location

Rosedale and Linden Park Cemeteries

LARGEST IN THE STATE

LINDEN, N. J.

Beautiful and Accessible

2 Miles from Elizabeth, 7 Miles from Newark,

14 MILES FROM NEW YORK

On Main Line Pennsylvania Railroad

Why Lots in these Cemeteries commend themselves to Heads of Families and Investors

BECAUSE of the $1,000,000 Trust Fund provided for by the Trustees in each Cemetery, the income from which will keep the properties perpetually beautiful at NO EXPENSE TO LOT OWNERS.

BECAUSE such a guarantee, not found in any other cemetery, assures lot owners that the grounds WILL BE MAINTAINED PERMANENTLY AS BEAUTIFUL PARKS AFTER THE INCOME FROM THE SALE OF LOTS HAS BEEN EXHAUSTED.

LOTS SHOULD BE PURCHASED NOW

BECAUSE MORE ADVANTAGES ARE OFFERED TO LOT BUYERS in a new Modern Park Cemetery than in those established many years and, in most cases, no provision made for perpetual care without extra expense to lot owners. THERE ARE A GREATER NUMBER OF IDEAL LOCATIONS TO SELECT FROM, PRICES OF LOTS ARE ALWAYS LOWER AND TERMS MORE ADVANTAGEOUS.

BECAUSE life is most uncertain and EVERY ONE SHOULD ANTICIPATE THE INEVITABLE BY MAKING A CHOICE NOW OF A FINAL RESTING PLACE.

LOTS WILL PROVE A GOOD INVESTMENT

BECAUSE they are sure to increase in value and can be purchased NOW at the INITIAL, or LOWEST PRICE and upon the most ADVANTAGEOUS TERMS.

BECAUSE the properties are ACCESSIBLE TO 4,000,000 PEOPLE, and considering the RAPID GROWTH OF GREATER NEW YORK and its TRIBUTARY CITIES and TOWNS, it is only a question of a SHORT TIME when LOTS in ROSEDALE and LINDEN PARK will EQUAL IN VALUE those of our MOST NOTED cemeteries.

SPORTING NEWS

DIAMOND DUST.

At the end of the National League series, it is said that $10,000 will be divided among eighteen of the winning players.

Manager Murray, of the Jersey City Eastern League team has signed Dell, the Manhattan College battery catcher, and he will join the team at once.

The Clinton avenue and Bond Brook teams will battle for honors on the local grounds this afternoon. On Saturday, September 24 the Clinton avenue boys will play Dunellen for the championship on Crescent Oval.

It is "Jack" O'Neil and not "Tip" O'Neil, who has been catching temporarily for the Jersey City Eastern League team. The latter is in the big league, while the former has been playing with the Orange A. C., on Saturdays and the Murray Hills on Sunday.

There is some talk of tendering the Plainfield A. C. ball team a banquet at the close of the season, and it has been suggested that Manager Johnson take charge of the affair. It is understood that Westfield will banquet its team even though it does not win the coveted pennant.

The New York Nationals have an ambition to beat Pittsburg's record of 103 games won, made in 1902. They are in fair way to do it at the present rate. The schedule for this year calls for each team to play twenty-two games with every other team. In 1902 the Pirates made a percentage of .741 and the New Yorks will have to move fast to beat this.

FOOTBALL.

There are several new men at Lee's School who will be of great value to them when they organize their football team. That there will be a team there is no doubt, as a prominent member of the school remarked a few days ago.

Wm. Douglass has been elected as temporary captain of the Plainfield High School football team. Many candidates are out, including Wm. Doane, of Leal's School, and Strong, of the Montclair Military Academy. The first practice will be held on Monday.

VARIOUS SPORTS.

The first annual dog show under the American Kennel Club rules will be held Saturday, Oct. 1, under the auspices of the Madison Athletic Association at Madison. Plans are about perfected for one of the best dog shows ever held in New Jersey. The prize list is very attractive and many well known exhibitors will be entered. Entries will close Sept. 21. The bench show committee consists of H. C. Condit, J. A. Whittaker, E. L. Jones, L. A. Waters, C. B. Merritt, H. I. Baker and A. B. Gee.

LITERARY.

The Metropolitan Magazine for September presents a capital new "soldier" story by Rudyard Kipling, entitled "Mrs. Bathurst." In this new tale all of the author's earlier strength and fancy, and all of his later skill and mastery of narrative, are happily combined to make a piece of short fiction unsurpassed by any of the recent achievements of the foremost story-tellers in the English tongue. This virile new story will prove of unusual charm to every one who loves a good story well told.

Superior Artists Coming.

Plainfielders will in all probability be afforded an opportunity this fall to hear the famous Banner-Krenold Company of superior musical artists. Michael Banner, violinist, and Herr Krenold, 'cellist, the leaders, have been negotiating for a date at the Casino for an early appearance.

Too Lenient on Wife Beater.

Wallace H. Coriell, a painter, of Harmony street, got into the toils yesterday, having abused his wife and tried to wreck his home generally. Recorder Dond suspended a sentence of thirty days over him last night on his earnest plea for leniency and promise to behave himself, keep away from his wife and contribute to the support of his children. His good behaviour was short-lived, however, for this morning he raised Cain at his home and then left the house in time to escape immediate re-arrest. As soon as taken he will be railroaded to Somerville.

CO. K RETAINS TROPHY

Company L, of Princeton, Captures Second Place in Shoot.

CONTEST A CLOSE ONE

Robert Goldsack is Probable Winner of Individual Marksmanship Competition.

While no official report as to which company won the Second Regiment trophy for the greatest percentage of members qualifying on the State range at Sea Girt this season, the figures given below are from a perfectly reliable source and prove that Co. K will retain the trophy.

The contest really lay between Co. L, of Princeton, and Co. K, of this city, and in spite of the fact that Co. L had the most money to spend on training her men, K has never altogether conceded her ability to take the honor from Plainfield.

The Princeton contingent succeeded in qualifying forty-one men out of a total membership roster of sixty-seven, which gave them a percentage of 61.01, while out of a roster of seventy-one names, Co. K found forty-four men who could fill the requirements, which gives them a percentage of 61.09.

This precentage may be increased by the addition of another name, one who is thought to have qualified, but of whom they are not yet certain. The figures given are, however, sufficient to keep the trophy here for another year at least.

There has been no official announcement as yet, but as this percentage has been complied from the official scores made by the men, no hesitation need be felt in accepting it as perfectly true.

Sergeant Seiders should receive the full credit for his good work at the range as he went there on the last day, while still suffering with a broken collar-bone, the result of a fall, and made good scores in spite of the discomfort and pain incidental to firing the piece from the shoulder.

In the course of the qualifying shooting, Private Robert Goldsack, of K, this city, came within one point of Q. M. Sergeant A. I. Littell's score of 129, made last year.

This position would give Goldsack the individual championship of the Second Regiment, and entitle him to the medal offered the one who complies best with the requirements.

TRINITY REFORMED SUNDAY-SCHOOL'S RALLY

RECORD BREAKING ATTENDANCE AT VERY INTERESTING EXERCISES.

Rally day exercises were observed by Trinity Reformed Sunday-school, yesterday afternoon, and it was marked by one of the largest attendance of pupils ever noted. There were 435 present and in the roll call by classes, one answered with its entire membership while several had but one or two absent. The attendance was very gratifying to the officers and the exercises were very pleasing.

Musical features were furnished by Mrs. George Saums, violin; Elmer Wheeler, flute; E. D. Young, cornet, and Miss Florence Bennett, soloist. Rev. Dr. Schenck delivered an address in which he compared the Sunday-school rally to an army. There are twenty-three million pupils in the United States, he said, and half this number are in the United States. These he divided into corps and divisions to represent the denominations and in the Reformed church division he stated there are 103,000 children. Continuing his comparison, Pastor Schenck made each Sunday-school a regiment and each class a squad, thus making a highly interesting address and one in which the statistics were easily understood.

W. C. T. U. Annual Meeting.

The annual business meeting of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union will be held in the rooms on Madison avenue Wednesday. In the morning from 10 to 12 o'clock there will be election of officers and reports from superintendents, and in the afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock there will be the president's address, also addresses by Mrs. Bodine, Rev. and Mrs. Casselberry, of Dunellen, and others. A cordial invitation is extended to those interested.

Marriage Announcement.

Mrs. Elias T. Day, of East Orange, formerly of Mercer avenue, has sent out cards announcing the marriage of her daughter, Miss Elizabeth Thompson, to George Francis Towne, on Thursday, Sept 15, at East Orange.

BEAT AND ROBBED ITALIAN

Took Savings of Fellow Countrymen at Pistol's Point.

CHOKED THEIR VICTIM

Six Armed Men Surprised Branozo in His Home and Took His Money.

Compelled to reveal its hiding place by revolvers pressed to his head, Michael Branzo, an Italian laborer at Smalley's quarry in the Notch, was robbed Saturday night of $260 and then beaten and choked in a cruel manner. The outrage was perpetrated by six strange Italians who had evidently made a study of the place and knew just when to catch Branzo alone and helpless. They disappeared before their victim could give an alarm and the authorities have little hope of capturing them.

Branzo has been a foreman at the quarry and is of a saving disposition, evidently with the intention of getting funds enough to return to his home across the sea. The other workmen at the place have been in the habit of coming to Plainfield Saturday nights to make purchases and enjoy a little recreation and while they were away Branzo would look after the place.

He was alone in the building when the door was suddenly flung open and the six men rushed in. His feeble attempt to drive them off resulted in his overpowerment and within a few moments they had stripped him of all his clothing and struck him repeatedly until his body was a mass of bruises. They then pressed the revolvers against his forehead and warned him if he did not tell where his savings were he would be killed The terrified man believed them and while three went to the place indicated and secured the money the others stood by and struck him every time he tried to rise. No attempt was made to get any of the other men's money and it is believed the robbers thought what they would get from Branzo would be sufficient. He called for assistance as soon as they had gone but they had made good their escape. The city and borough police are aiding in the search.

Y. M. C. A. RECEPTION A SUCCESSFUL AFFAIR

MR. AND MRS. KENNETH ROBBIE AND F. A. HENCKEL GUESTS OF HONOR.

The reception given Saturday evening to Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Robbie and Fred A. Henckel at the parlors of the Y. M. C. A. was in every way a pleasant event. Crowds of friends, including members of the boys' department and their parents, the officers of the association and their wives, and members of the Ladies' Auxiliary, gathered to congratulate the recently married couple and to make the acquaintance of the new physical director. Mr. Robbie is boys' secretary of the association.

The spacious rooms of the building were decorated for the occasion in greens and palms, while up from the auditorium on the first floor floated strains of music rendered by the Y. M. C. A. orchestra, led by Martin A. Korff.

Assisting Mr. and Mrs. Robbie and Mr. Henckel to receive were Dr. and Mrs. H. M. Maxson and Miss Lena Bass. The reception was arranged for by the boys' work committee, of which O. S. Rogers is chairman. Other committees in the affair were Mrs. Joseph Phillips, Mrs. John Valiant and Miss Bass, who composed the reception committee; and Mrs. Joseph Gavett, Miss French and Mrs. Edgar, who had charge of the refreshments. The latter were assisted by members of the auxiliary society.

Overturned Candle Starts Fire.

A candle overturning in the apartments above Abrams' shoe store on West Front street, last evening, started a fire which resulted in the department being called by an alarm from box 12. Several packing boxes had become ignited and the walls had been scorched when the flames were put out by the chemical engine. The damage is trifling.

Mrs. Gilchrist Buried.

The funeral services of Mrs. Florence Gilchrist, wife of Robert Gilchrist, were held from the late home, in Prospect place, yesterday afternoon at 12:30, Rev. George Mooney, of the Monroe Avenue church, officiating. The remains were later taken to New Dorp, S. I., for interment in the Moravian cemetery.

PLAINFIELD IS DOWNED

Somerville Wins a Clean Fought and Red Hot Contest

SCORE, NINE TO FIVE

The Great Wiltse Pitches, Warner Catches and Hoboken Does the Rest for Winners.

Not since the old baseball days in 1892, when the Crescents and the West Ends battled for supremacy on the diamond, has there been so much enthusiasm and excitement at a game in this city as on Saturday, when the old rivalry was renewed on Crescent Oval, between Somerville and Plainfield. As early as Saturday forenoon Somervillians began arriving in town and by 2 o'clock all trolleys and the steam cars coming from Somerset's county seat were crowded with fans, all on their way to the big game. The word was passed around that Somerville had spent enough money to take the game and they were sure of winning. Their calculations were not wrong for they carried off the honors by a score of 9 to 5, but not until their nerves had been severely shocked.

By 3 o'clock nearly every seat was taken on the oval and when the contest was called the biggest crowd of the season was present, numbering nearly 3,000 enthusiastic cranks. A large gang of Somerville rooters headed by Lou Mack and several others and carrying flags, took their position to the right of the diamond and from start to finish they yelled themselves hoarse. There was a large crowd of local supporters on the opposite side and the exchange of "hot air" delighted everybody. There were hundreds of small megaphones and these were used to good advantage.

Wiltse, of the New York Nationals, a Somerville boy, with a reputation of not having lost a game this year, was caught by "Jack" Warner, while the entire Hoboken team, including "Tuck" Turner, of the old Crescents, composed the rest of the team. Plainfield had its regular team, excepting "Happy Jack" Cronin, of the Brooklyns, who was on the slab. Jack made one mistake. He forgot to bring along his assortment of twists and benders and his opponents landed on him for fifteen hits, including a double and a triple.

Plainfield jarred the hopes of the Somervillians in the first inning by making four runs and things looked mighty blue. Wiltse was a little wild and this coupled with two free passes and three hits noted four tallies. After that the home team only got one run, while Somerville made three in the second, one in the third and five in the fifth. In the latter inning Cronin was pounded for seven singles, including a double. That ended the scoring.

If Cronin had been in good form, the score would have been different, but the game was a good one and that is enough. It is quite likely that the teams will meet here again on Saturday, October 1. After Saturday's contest, a multitude of admiring friends carried Wiltse off the field and from the oval to town the constant cheering of the visitors could be heard.

Eighth inning — Kiernan hit by pitched ball, Warner placed a bunt along the third base line and beat it out, Leonard sacrificed, Courtney to Smith; Driscoll pop-flied to Cronin, Shackleton flied to Bassford. NO RUNS

Courtney struck out, Dietrich singled, Smith singled, Jones grounded to Leonard, forcing Dietrich at third; Cronin foul-flied to Driscoll.

Ninth inning—Wiltse out, Jones to Smith; Gray hit a three-bagger to left, Shortell foul-flied to Farmer, Turner out, Courtney to Smith. NO RUNS.

Cusick struck out, Bassford cracked a two-bagger to left, Oregan out, Kiernan to Driscoll; Farmer struck out. NO RUNS.

—It is said that the Public Service Corporation would like to replace old trolley tracks on West Front street, between Sycamore and Grant avenues, with new and heavier rails, but that the street committee objects to having the street torn up for the work. At present a gang of Italians are engaged in doing repair work between the points named. It will only be a question of time when the company will be obliged to change its tracks, as the present rails are about worn out.

R. ABBOTT'S LOW SCORE

Makes a Seventy Gross on Hillside Club's Course.

MANY COMPETITIONS

Park Club Team No Match for Westfield—Play for Golf Committe and Other Cups at Hillside.

For some unknown reason there was a small list of entries in the various events at the Hillside Tennis and Golf Club on Saturday, a majority of the active members being absent. In the morning Miss Margaret Goddard won the fourth leg on the Women's Handicap cup with a net score of 96.

In the afternoon the postponed match for the third eight in the finals for the club championship between E. B. Shoemaker and E. E. Iremonger was won by the former by 4 up and 2 to play.

A feature of the afternoon play was the work of Robert Abbott, who made the lowest score of the season, a 70 gross, and won the first honors for the Golf Committee cup. The remaining honors were won by W. L. Glenney and S. H. Patterson. The scores:

Robert Abbott, 70, plus 1—71; W. L. Glenney, 74, plus 2—76; S. H. Patterson, 106, 24—82; D. H. Rowland, 94, 10—84; H. C. Munger, 94, 12—82; D. H. Barrows, 86, 4—82.

The point-winners for the Gaston cup were Harold Robert, S. H. Patterson and A. E. Barclay. The scores:

Harold Robert, 100, 0—100; S. H. Patterson, 106, 8—108; A. E. Barclay, 106, 0—106.

There was also a light attendance at the Park Golf Club on Saturday, the weekly competition for the President's and Park Golf Club cups, being the only event. The limited number of contestants is due to the fact that the club team played a match at Westfield and this also accounted for the fact that the Bachelor-Benedict match was not played.

In the competition for the two trophies, H. B. Wells, J. L. Watson and Samuel Townsend won the points for the President's cup, while H. B. Wells, Samuel Townsend and Rev. Dr. H. K. Carroll won the points for the scratch cup.

These scores were posted:

Henry B. Wells, 102, 18—84; John L. Watson, 117, 30—87; Samuel Townsend, 105, 13—92; Rev. Dr. H. K. Carroll, 110, 14—96; Charles L. Nichols, 113, 17—96; Joseph H. Howell, 111, 11—100.

The five-men team from the Park Golf Club that journeyed to Westfield on Saturday to play a match in the Central Jersey Golf League tournament, was overwhelmingly defeated by a score of 11 to 0. Nassau system. The home team proved much too strong for the Parks' good players and they did not allow a single man to tally a point. The summary:

Westfield—M. Whitlatch, 0; Joseph Sherman, 3; C. E. Halsted, 3; W. J. Bogert, 3; E. B. Floyd, 2. Total, 11.

Parks—Gus. W. Faber, 0; Herbert S. Rogers, 0; Raymond B. Carroll, 0; Rev. J. O. McKelvey, 0; T. U. Dudley, 0. Total, 0.

In the semi-final play in the Governors' competition at the Westfield Golf Club on Saturday, only one match was played. W. S. Davis beat H. W. Gladwin, by 2 up and 1 to play. The match between M. Whitlatch and C. E. Halsted was postponed for one week.

SOLD BUILDINGS.

Borough School Property to be Cleared of Residence and Barn Purchased at Auction.

The dwelling house situated on the North Plainfield school property at the corner of Somerset street and Park place was disposed of at auction Saturday afternoon, to Frank Mobus, for $101. By the terms of the sale he must move it west of Greenbrook road. The barn on the property was knocked down to Alex Kane for $12 and he will demolish it for the lumber. Kane ran the bidding on the house up to $100 when it was secured by Mobus. William N. Pangborn was the auctioneer.

At a private sale Saturday, the Grace P. E. church parish house at Sycamore and East Sixth streets was disposed of to Contractor Kane who will remove it at once. In its stead Grace church will erect a more pretentious building. Several old buildings in the rear of French's mill have also been sold to Kane and will be demolished.

"SPITE HOUSE" CASE TRIAL

Former Mayor Randolph and Mr. Thurlow Push Charges.

DECISION IS RESERVED

Proceedings Against Antone Marro in the City Court—Bitter Fight.

On four separate charges preferred against him by Former Mayor L. V. F. Randolph and Health Inspector Leon R. Thurlow, Antone Marro, the owner of the East Front street "spite house," was placed on trial in the city court this morning.

The complaints were made as follows: That Marro's dogs howled at night and disturbed the peace and quiet of the neighbors; that he threw decayed vegetable matter on the premises; that he built a privy vault without a permit and that the same is offensive. To the charge of building the vault, Marro through his counsel, Hetfield & Hetfield, entered a plea of non vult. To the others he pleaded not guilty.

The hearing lasted all morning and at its conclusion, City Judge Runyon reserved decision until Saturday morning until 9 o'clock. The prosecution was conducted by Corporation Counsel Craig A. Marsh, while Walter L. Hetfield, Sr., handled Marro's side. A large number of witnesses were produced by the complainants, among them being R. F. R. Huntsman, Cortland P. Adams, Inspector Thurlow, Messrs. Carson and Perrine.

Marro's contention was that the dogs barked only when strangers entered the yard and that the vault was no more offensive than many others in the city. Tilts between the opposing lawyers as to the admission of evidence were frequent and the case proved highly interesting. Marro offered only his own testimony.

MRS. MARY LAING, AGED 84 YEARS, DEAD

WELL-KNOWN HICKSITE FRIEND HAS PASSED AWAY.

Following an illness which began last July, Mrs. Mary H. Laing, widow of Isaac W. Laing, passed away at the home of her nieces, the Misses Harned, of East Front street, Saturday evening. She had been gradually failing and the end was not unexpected.

Mrs. Laing was the daughter of John and Phoebe Harned and was born at Woodbridge eighty-four years ago. She removed to Plainfield with her parents when but four years old, but at her marriage to Mr. Laing made her home on his farm near the Hillside golf course. At his death five years ago she again returned to the city and had resided with the Misses Harned since. She was one of the oldest members of the local Hicksite Friends and until her illness began had always been faithful at meetings.

She leaves one daughter, Mrs. Charles Sandford, of East Front street. Funeral services will be held from the Friends Meeting House, Watchung avenue, tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock.

ERECT SIGNAL BRIDGE.

Structure Raised by Central Road at Dunellen Yesterday by Two Gangs of Men.

Several railroad officials watched the work of placing a signal bridge in position at Dunellen, yesterday. Two large gangs of men were engaged in erecting this bridge which is about thirty feet long. Two derricks were also used, one on each side of the tracks.

This bridge is similar to those in use at the Jersey City terminal, and will be used to regulate the signal lights, and govern the movement of trains at that point. In two weeks another bridge of the same pattern will be erected near Rock avenue, in this city.

The company will also erect a signal tower at Dunellen and one in this city just west of the freight-house. This work will be started within a short time.

T. E. Currin and family, of Mountain avenue, spent Sunday at Somerville.

T. S. Armstrong, of Duer street, is spending a few days with his family at Avon.

Miss Bessie Martin and Miss Bertha Needham returned home on Saturday from a pleasure trip to Denver, Col. En route they visited the St. Louis Exposition.

MRS. THATCHER A SUICIDE

Wife of the Famous Minstrel Man Ends Her Life.

TURNED ON THE GAS

Found Dead in Her Apartments in the Navahoe, New York City, Last Evening.

Mrs. Mary T. Thatcher, wife of George Thatcher, the world famed minstrel man and former Plainfielder, was found dead last night in her apartments in the Navahoe, at No. 1 West 106th street, New York. Mrs. Thatcher was lying in her daughter's room, the keyhole and windows stopped with clothing and the gas turned on. She had been dead for several hours when found.

"Come back at half past eight o'clock tonight, and I will have a surprise for you. Remember to be on time," Mrs. Thatcher had said to her daughter, Mary L. Thatcher, nineteen years old, who went with Joseph K. Parker, of Somerville, early yesterday morning, to spend the day at Coney Island. Miss Thatcher looked at her mother queerly, but only got a warning to be sure to return on time.

Miss Thatcher and Mr. Parker returned to the Navahoe shortly after 8 o'clock. The daughter is said to have had a presentment that something was going to happen. When she saw no light in the apartment from the other side of the street she asked her escort to remain in the hallway while she went up stairs to inquire. She could not open the door The smell of gas was strong. She summoned Mr. Parker and he opened the door, to be almost overpowered by the rush of gas.

Policemen Farrel and Russell entered the house and opened the windows. Mrs. Thatcher was lying on her daughter's bed as if asleep.

No reason is known why Mrs. Thatcher should have killed herself, except that she had been afflicted with melancholia. Her husband is now in St. Louis, playing in "The County Chairman." Letters found on a table at Mrs. Thatcher's side were from her husband, who wrote every day, and each letter breathed sincere affection.

Miss Thatcher told one of the policemen that several days ago her mother appeared despondent. Mrs. Thatcher had also recently told her that should anything happen to her, Mary would find a satchel in the drawer, with a receipt for her jewels, in storage. The bag would also contain a ten dollar bill, she said. Then she laughed away her daughter's fears that something might happen to her. The satchel and its contents were found as Mrs. Thatcher had explained. Miss Thatcher is prostrated.

Mrs. Thatcher, according to Mr. Parker, had been undergoing treatment for nervous trouble by Dr. Stone. The apartment house where she lived was being renovated and the tenants were compelled to leave. Mrs. Thatcher dreaded the prospect of moving and it preyed on her mind.

Her husband had planned to have her join him at Kansas City, and Mrs. Thatcher had arranged for her daughter's board at one of the dormitories of the Women's College.

Mrs. Thatcher was a very beautiful woman and her daughter has inherited her mother's attractiveness.

Although George Thatcher's name is familiar everywhere as a minstrel man of the old type, he is best known as the head of the famous trio, Thatcher, Primrose and West. He left minstrelsy and vaudeville only this season to enter the legitimate ranks and was meeting with much success. While in his heyday as a blackface comedian, Mr. Thatcher and his wife resided in Plainfield, making their home at West Seventh street and Central avenue, having purchased the property. Leaving the stage at one time, Mr. Thatcher opened the Hotel Maples on Terrill road but sold out within a year or so. They went from Plainfield to New York but both he and his wife have frequently returned to the city and visited local friends.

BUSINESS PROPERTY SOLD.

W. W. Coriell Disposes of No. 223 West Front Street.

Through the agency of Albert Lederer, of the borough, W. W. Coriell has disposed of his business property, No. 223 West Front street, to Kantor, of Somerset street. The property is now occupied by Mr. Watts, as a butcher shop, while Mr. Coriell's residence is on the second floor of the building.

Mr. Coriell has owned this property since 1869 and during that time it has always been used as a market. Mr. Kantor proposes to open a dry goods store in the building next spring.

POINTS FOR THE BUYERS

READY REFERENCES FOR THE LOCAL BARGAIN SEEKERS.

When you trade at Hill & Shupp's dry goods store you always get the best values, whether you go to the dress goods department or the house-furnishing department. Just now the firm is displaying an exceptional line of fall and winter dress goods from which a selection is easy. You will find the goods all right, while the prices will please you. The millinery department is a feature at this store, only the latest styles being shown.

The coal sold by Boice, Runyon & Co., of Park avenue, is the best obtainable. It burns freely and yet gives plenty of heat. The prices are right and prompt deliveries are made.

Marchant Brothers, of North avenue, have the reputation for selling the best milk, cream, butter and eggs, and products purchased at this store can always be depended upon and used with absolute safety.

A. H. Enander, of Park avenue, is ready at any time to make necessary repairs to your furnace or range before winter arrives. He is an expert in this work and will give satisfaction.

J. P. Kirch carries the Opia, Omar and Magi low-priced cigars, in the higher grades, the Jules Verne, clear Havana in twelve sizes, Regensberge Americans, in eight sizes, and a full line of the popular brands of imported goods. North avenue.

The most experience, the best reputation for reliability and the greatest facilities for prompt performance of contracts, large or small, are the qualifications which have put the painting and decorating firm of Woolston & Buckle at the top of the list.

Go to "Ted's" and find there is such a thing as a perfectly appointed lunch room in Plainfield. At this popular North avenue restaurant perfection is reached in the only way possible, absolute fidelity to detail.

H. A. Bonn is as good authority for fall hatware as you can go to. If you have not had your autumn hat made, pay them a call, and look into the matter. You will then be reconciled to trade in this city and not go elsewhere for your hats.

Have you any idea how much appearance counts in making your home pleasant? At least the outside world will think more of your taste if you have your building painted by a reliable and good painter. James A. Hansen is the man you are looking for.

Where do you get your drugs? Don't you go to Armstrong's? Why he's one of the oldest establishments in the city. You can always rely on the goods which you purchase from him. It is an important matter to get good drugs, and to have your prescriptions put up by a graduate druggist.

Alexander Lusardi will be glad to meet you in his store on West Front street, any time you are after good confectionery or soft drinks. You have certainly heard of Lusardi's peanuts. They're what made Lusardi famous.

A World's Wonder.

We often hear of the seven wonders, though in these times there are perhaps one hundred times that number, and perhaps the most popular wonder region in this vicinity is Mauch Chunk. Mauch Chunk is high up in the Pennsylvania mountains, and the several peaks have wide outlooks in every direction. A main attraction is the Switchback Railroad, the road forms an eighteen mile loop over and around the mountains, and is a very novel engineering feat. The first incline extends up Mount Pisgah to a height of 1370 feet above tide water. The car then bowls along a decline for several miles only to reach the base of another mountain which is climbed to a height of 1530 feet above tide water. The descent to the home stretch lies through a beautiful valley, and when the journey is finished the tourist is rather anxious for a renewal of the experience. On September 18, 1904, the New Jersey Central is to run a popular priced excursion to Mauch Chunk, the rate for the round trip to be $1.50. Special train leaves Plainfield at 9:20 a. m., arriving at Mauch Chunk early in the day, and as the return trip does not leave the Mountain City until 5:40 p. m., there is plenty of time for exploring the charms of Mauch Chunk.

For Allentown Fair.

The Allentown Fair is by all odds one of the most unique exhibitions of the country. Its attendance is simply enormous, and you ask why? Everything is complete to the minutest detail. The entertainments are exceptionally fine. The live stock show has no equal. The fruit and vegetable exhibits are among the finest procurable, and with the genuine good time always found at Allentown, there is no reason why the fair should not be popular. On September 22 the New Jersey Central will sell tickets at $1.50 to Allentown and special train will leave Plainfield at 7:32 a. m. 9 16 5

SEEN AND HEARD IN PLAINFIELD'S INDUSTRIAL PLANTS.

Robert Larmore has resigned his position with the New Jersey Central to accept a position at the Pond Machine Tool Works.

William Porter, of Scott's Press Works, is detained at home by illness.

William Kenutte, of the Pond plant, is "wearing the smile that won't come off." A bouncing baby boy arrived at his home on Harrison avenue last week.

Sidney Smith, of West Second street, has taken full charge of all the repair work at the Pond plant.

Con McCarthy, of West Sixth street, has taken a position at Keely's coal office.

William Swaim, of the clerical force at Pond's, is spending two weeks in Asbury Park.

Charles Cumberson, time-keeper at the Pond plant, is spending two weeks with relatives in Red Bank.

An order for 100 planers has been received at the Pond Machine Tool Company's works.

James Kerr, Wallace Morton and Joseph Robinson went to New York, Saturday, to box up a large lathe for sea shipment at the Niles-Bement-Pond Company's main office.

Adam Danitz, of Brooklyn, is the guest of John Alster, of the Standard Surgical Instrument Company's plant.

Dan Olston, of the Standard Surgical Instrument Company's Works, has returned to his position from a visit with friends in Brooklyn.

—There is said to be a movement on foot to install an adequate storm sewer on West Front street in the vicinity of Rock avenue to prevent the usual flooding of the road in heavy storms. The delay to trolley service to say nothing of the damage to the street is a cause for serious consideration on the part of the trolley company.

FALL RIVER STRIKE.

No Nearer Settlement After Eight Weeks' Strife.

FALL RIVER, Mass., Sept. 19.—The peaceful but determined contest between $37,000,000 of invested mill capital and the personal comfort of 26,000 mill laborers which began in this city eight weeks ago is apparently no nearer a settlement than at its very outset last July. Both sides remain firm, the mill owners claiming that it is impossible to resume operations unless the 12½ per cent reduction is made in wages, while the operatives are just as determined against working under such conditions.

Every week that the great strike has gone on there have been rumors of settlement, but the succeeding week showed the mills still closed and the hands still idle.

With winter not far distant the unions have already begun to husband their resources for the drain which must then be more severe than during the summer months. The operatives are still receiving money, and greater care than before is used in handling it.

The exodus of foreign operatives has naturally been large, and lately many of the skilled help have joined the outgoing army, seeking other fields for their labor. Of the foreigners the Portuguese have left in larger numbers, and very few remain in the city.

Within the last few days there has been a persistent rumor of a resumption on Oct. 3, but on Friday the weavers decided to hold a mass meeting on that day, which apparently shows the report to be without foundation as far as the operatives are concerned.

PLANS FOR LACKAWANNA.

President Truesdale to Spend Another $1,000,000 In Improvements.

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—W. H. Truesdale, president, and B. D. Caldwell, vice president, of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad, have been making an inspection trip of more than ordinary interest during the past two or three days. Plans for important improvements on the western section of this road have been approved by the directors, and President Truesdale is to determine the details of the work. The expenditure of $1,000,000 or more is involved.

The Lackawanna Railroad company now owns a large section of water front on the Buffalo river, besides an extensive terminal site at the foot of Main street in that city. It is purposed to build up one of the largest freight terminals in the country at that point to accommodate the Lackawanna's enormous coal and ore traffic.

Incidentally the Lackawanna company is to make some picturesque additions to its passenger terminals, both east and west.

FRITHJOF AT TROMSO.

Failed to Find the Arctic Exploring Steamer America.

TROMSO, Norway, Sept. 19.—W. S. Champ, secretary to William Ziegler and who was in charge of the relief expedition sent to search for the arctic exploration steamer America, arrived here yesterday afternoon at 1 o'clock on board the steamer Frithjof. The Frithjof reached latitude 79 degrees 10 seconds north. Mr. Champ in a statement given out here says:

"I regret to report my failure to reach Franz Josef Land. The ice conditions were insurmountable, and the approaching winter and the heavy frost compelled us to abandon further effort to get north."

Marconi's Return.

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—G. Marconi was a passenger on the steamer Arabic, which arrived from Liverpool and Queenstown. "I have come on a steamer not equipped with the wireless service," Mr. Marconi said. "Such vessels feel the effect of the discontinuance of the Nantucket station because they have no means to report to the land. When that service was in force, the vessels passing in sight of the station were reported. I hope to see it restored next spring. My present trip is made to inspect the service of the Cunard steamers and the Cape Breton station."

Bold Robbery in Peoria.

PEORIA, Ill., Sept. 19.—B. F. Cassell, cashier of the Great Western distillery, was held up on one of the principal streets of the city by three unknown men, who struck him over the head with a club and made away with a satchel containing $2,700, which was to have been used to pay off the employees of the company. Mr. Cassell was returning to the office with the money when the affair occurred. The men are supposed to have made their escape across the river, the country there being thick with timber. Police and deputy sheriffs are now scouring the country.

Found a Hidden City in Crete.

NEW YORK, Sept. 19. — Miss H. Boyd, who was sent out by the Pennsylvania Archaeological society to make investigations and excavations for ancient cities in Crete, was a passenger on the steamer Pannonia, which has arrived from Triest, Fiume and Palermo. Miss Boyd said that she found a hidden city in Crete and had brought with her many specimens for the society. This is her second trip for exploration. Dr. N. B. Barbito, a member of the Italian parliament, was also a passenger on the same vessel.

Wireless Conference Postponed.

BERLIN, Sept. 19.—The international wireless telegraphy conference, summoned at the initiative of Germany which was to have met Oct. 4, has been postponed at the request of France and Germany, which countries desire more time to study the questions involved.

MR. PARKER'S PLANS

He Will Not Visit New York City Every Week.

WILL NOT GO ON STUMPING TOURS

Will Make All His Speeches From the Veranda at Rosemount—William F. Sheehan and F. B. Harrison at Esopus.

ESOPUS, N. Y., Sept. 19.—William F Sheehan, chairman of the Democratic national executive committee, and Representative Francis Burton Harrison of New York, vice chairman of the bureau of organization for upper New York, were the only important political callers at Rosemount. They conferred at length concerning political matters. Mr. Sheehan returned to New York during the afternoon.

Interest here centers in a conference which Mr. Sheehan intends to have at the earliest possible moment with other leaders to determine upon the most available candidate for the governorship. Justice William J. Gaynor of Brooklyn and Justice D. Cady Herrick have both been mentioned prominently in this connection in the last day or two.

Judge Parker has made no changes in his personal plans concerning his participation in the campaign. It is announced that he has not arranged to spend any definite number of days each week in New York, as has been reported, but that the judge will go to New York only at such times as it will be more convenient to meet his political managers there than it would be for them to come to Rosemount. No time, however, has been set for such trips. The announcement was also made that the judge will not go on a speechmaking tour, but that he will make all his speeches from the veranda at Rosemount.

More visitors than usual came to the Parker home today. Most of them live in the surrounding villages and country. Some merely drove about the grounds, while others came to pay their respects to the candidate.

Senator McCarren In Albany.

ALBANY, N. Y., Sept. 19.—Senator McCarren came up from Brooklyn and went directly to David B. Hill's residence at Wolfert's Roost. He spent the night there and will go to Saratoga with Senator Hill on the train arriving at 11:25 this morning. A number of Democratic leaders from Greater New York have passed through here on their way to the convention, among them Charles F. Murphy.

Fairbanks In Washington.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.—Senator Charles W. Fairbanks, the Republican vice presidential nominee, passed Sunday in Washington. Except for a brief walk, the senator remained the entire day in his apartments at the New Willard hotel, resting preparatory to resuming campaign work.

MILITARY COURT MEETS.

To Investigate Conduct of Troops at Huntsville (Ala.) Lynching.

HUNTSVILLE, Ala., Sept. 19.—The military court of inquiry appointed by Governor Cunningham will convene here today to investigate the conduct of the militia during the recent lynching of the negro Horace Maples.

No other arrests have been made in connection with the lynching, and quiet has reigned in the camp of the militia.

It is known positively that several of the persons indicted have left the country. One has been heard from in Salt Lake City, and two more were last heard from in Texas, on their way to Mexico. The whereabout of the three others is unknown.

Prospect of Peace In Uruguay.

BUENOS AYRES, Sept. 19.—Advices received here from Uruguay state that Basilio Munoz, successor to General Aparicio Saraiva as the head of the revolutionary forces, has written to President Batllo of Uruguay expressing his belief in the futility of further bloodshed, now that Saraiva is dead, and asking the president to propose conditions of peace. President Battlo replied that, while desiring a cessation of the struggle, the government was not prepared to made conditions, though it stood ready to entertain reasonable proposals.

Wholesale Shooting by Negro.

CHICAGO, Sept. 19.—Resenting an accidental collision between himself and Charles Meyers, Kalvin Linden, a negro, shot Meyers twice through the head, killing him instantly. He then turned the weapon against men who came to aid Meyers, shooting George Denards in the back and Guy Jones in the shoulder. Denards may die. Linden knocked John Nolan down and escaped.

Battleship Squadron at New York.

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—The battleships Kearsarge, the flagship of Rear Admiral Barker, commander in chief of the north Atlantic fleet, and the Maine, the Alabama and the Missouri of the battleship squadron, north Atlantic fleet, have arrived in port from the Mediterranean cruise by way of Menemsha bight and are anchored off Tomkinsville, Staten Island.

Steel Mills Getting Busy.

SHARON, Pa., Sept. 19.—A hundred thousand tons of iron ore have been ordered by the Carnegie Steel company for its South Sharon plant. This is taken to indicate an all winter run of the mills here. The rail department of the South Sharon plant is now running twelve instead of ten hours a day, and the whole plant is expected to be on double turn soon.

BISMARCK'S SON DEAD

Prince Herbert Passes Away at Friedrichsruhe.

MEMBER OF GERMAN REICHSTAG.

Had Held Many Important Government Posts During the Lifetime of His Father, the Great Chancellor.

FRIEDRICHSRUHE, Sept. 19.—Prince Herbert Bismarck is dead.

Since he ceased to be foreign minister on the retirement of his father in 1890 Prince Herbert Bismarck had taken part in public affairs only as a member of the reichstag. His attitude had been that of a man not appreciated by his sovereign and who was waiting in the background for an opportunity to resume his career.

His delivery as a parliamentary speaker improved year by year. He always declined to join any political group, steadfastly calling himself an independent. His haughty and imperious manners of early life, when he was ever conscious of the fact that he was the son of the most powerful statesman in Europe, softened in later life.

Prince Bismarck's father trained him for his successor as chancellor of the German empire and advanced him rapidly in the diplomatic service until at the age of forty he was minister of foreign affairs, in which position he took part in nearly every important international transaction.

An incident that nearly wrecked Prince Herbert's career and that caused the old chancellor great annoyance was Prince (then count) Herbert's elopement with Princess Carolath Beuthen, the wife of Prince Karl, the head of that distinguished Silesian house. The princess was of the Hatzfeldt family, and young Bismarck at the time was his father's private secretary. Count Herbert lived with the princess in southern Italy for a few weeks and then, at the command of his father, returned to Germany. The princess afterward was divorced and has since died.

The title of Prince Bismarck and the large fortune of the deceased will go to his seven-year-old son Otto.

The late Emperor Frederick gave to Chancellor Bismarck extensive forests at Friedrichsruhe, which have increased in value, and the chancellor gave to Prince Herbert $2,400,000 in securities and cash. The estate is now estimated to be worth $4,000,000, exclusive of all lands.

Prince Herbert Bismarck, who was born in 1849, was the eldest son of the late Prince Otto Bismarck, the great chancellor of the German empire. He studied law in the Berlin and Bonn universities, served in the Prussian army as a lieutenant of reserves during the Franco-Prussian war of 1870-71 and was severely wounded at the battle of Mars-la-Tour. In 1873 Herbert became an official of the department of foreign affairs and was assistant to his father, then chancellor. He was attached to the German legations at Bern and at Vienna from 1874 to 1877.

Later on the deceased became councilor of the German embassy in London and subsequently occupied the same position at St. Petersburg. In 1884 he was appointed minister extraordinary at The Hague, and in 1885 he became undersecretary of state in the department of foreign affairs. This post Herbert held until the dismissal of his father from the chancellorship, when he left the service of the empire. From 1884 to 1887 the deceased was a member of the German reichstag and also from 1893 until the time of his death. He was married in 1892 to Countess Margaret Hoyos of the Hungarian nobility, and after the death of his father he inherited the title of prince. The deceased had only one sister, who is the wife of Count von Rentzau. His brother William died in 1901.

Prince Herbert leaves five children, two girls and three boys.

Roosevelt's Last Sunday at Sagamore

OYSTER BAY, N. Y., Sept. 19.—President Roosevelt and his family passed the last Sunday of their present sojourn at Sagamore Hill very quietly. No official visitors were received, but the family entertained several guests, one of whom was Lieutenant Robert Ferguson of New York. The president and Mrs. Roosevelt attended service at Christ Episcopal church as usual and passed the remainder of the day at their home.

Fatal Collision on Long Island.

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—In a collision between two passenger trains in the railroad yard of the Long Island railroad in Long Island City two locomotive firemen were crushed to death. They were Arnold Cordts of Morris Park and Benjamin Roach of Locust Valley. One train was being switched across the track on which the other was entering the yard, and the engines met at the junction of the tracks.

Three Men Killed by Train.

BETHEL, Vt., Sept. 19.—Three quarrymen were killed by a Boston and Maine freight train in the freight yard of this place. They were Dennis Lynch and Jerry Shea of Monson, Mass., and Edward Smith of Barre, Vt. All three bodies were so badly mangled that identification could only be made by the union cards found in the clothing.

THE ITALIAN STRIKE.

Minister of the Interior Promises Not to Intervene.

ROME, Sept. 19.—The mayor of Turin telegraphed to Signor Giolitti, president of the council and minister of the interior, in the name of the Socialist aldermen of Turin expressing the desire of the workingmen that intervention of troops in peaceful conflicts between capital and labor be avoided. Signor Giolitti immediately replied by telegraph that for three years as minister of the interior he had constantly supported the principle of absolute liberty of workingmen to strike and that it was not the duty of the government to intervene, adding that he intended to follow the same principles while he remains in power. The minister continued:

"The painful facts are to be regretted by all that in one case soldiers used their arms in self defense after being attacked and wounded and in another instance acted without orders from their superiors. Therefore these soldiers have been put at the disposal of the judicial authorities while an inquiry is going on to ascertain the responsibility for the occurrences."

Situation Throughout Italy Serious.

PARIS, Sept. 19.—The Journal's Genoa correspondent reports that he had traveled to Nice in order to file the following uncensored dispatch: "The situation throughout Italy is most serious. At Rome the council of ministers has called out two classes of reserves in order to re-enforce the authorities. Premier Giolitti has postponed a journey to Racconigi which he had intended to make for the purpose of extending his personal congratulations on the birth of the crown prince. At Porto Novo crowds of people stopped the railway trains, many children lying down before the engines. The troops there were powerless, and one person was killed and several badly hurt."

AN OLD BUNKO GAME.

"Spanish Heiress" Conspiracy Reappears This Time In California.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.—Pending an investigation of the state department officials are disposed to treat as a fraudulent scheme to obtain money the information which press reports from Pasadent, Cal., state has come to a relative of Congressman McLachlan of California of the reported death of Louis Blaisdell in a Spanish hospital and the detention of his fourteen-year-old daughter in a convent at Arajuez.

According to the views of the department officials the report bears the earmarks of the work of a gang of impostors who have operated at various places in Spain for a long time and who have obtained sums of money from foreigners who have believed the representations made to them.

The customary practice of these impostors is to report that a parent has died, leaving a confession with a priest and a young daughter in his charge, and the information is conveyed that a certain amount of money is required to obtain access to or data concerning the location of a fortune which the decedent is alleged to have left to a supposed relative in a foreign country.

The story is an old one to the department officials, and they have constantly warned the public against being duped by this and similar schemes. The request which Mr. McLachlan, acting in behalf of his relative, has made that an investigation of the facts in the case made by the state department has not yet reached Washington, but as soon as it does it will be taken up for consideration.

Cow Finds a Suicide.

PATERSON, N. J., Sept. 19.—Herding cows in a field at Clifton, Mrs. Samuel Lipack was puzzled by the antics of one of the animals near a clump of bushes. Mrs. Lipack went over. She found the body of a woman, apparently about twenty-five years old. Beside the body lay a bottle that had contained carbolic acid. There was nothing about her clothing that would give a clew to her identity, but a Mr. McDonald of Clifton called at the morgue and said the woman was Hannah Beckell of Clifton. He said he did not care to give any further particulars, but added he knew no reason why she should have killed herself.

Lucky Find For Two Boys.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Sept. 19.—While driving through this city in an automobile from New York to Boston A. R. Shattuck of New York, ex-president of the Automobile Club of America, lost a small bag containing several thousands of dollars' worth of jewels. The bag belonged to Mrs. Shattuck. The bag was found by two young sons of George P. Houghton, and Mr. Shattuck gave the family $300 when it was returned to him.

French President Not to Run Again.

PARIS, Sept. 19.—President Loubet in the course of a speech to the provincial mayors said he looked forward with satisfaction to the serenity of private life after the close of his present term. His statement is taken as a definite announcement of the president's intention not to seek a second term. His present term expires at the end of next year.

Reunion of Army of Cumberland.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Sept. 19.—The annual convention of the Society of the Army of the Cumberland will be held in this city this week, beginning with the session Tuesday morning and closing with a banquet Wednesday evening. General H. V. Boynton of Washington, president of the society, is here assisting the local committee with the arrangements.

There is joy in Somerville over the hard fought battle and well earned victory in the game with Plainfield on Saturday. Somerville came down prepared to administer a thrashing to her old rival and that she did it is shown by the score. It was 9 to 5 in Somerville's favor.

One of the oldest of New England proprietary medicine houses is one of the largest of newspaper advertisers. PLAN TO BEAUTIFY BANKS OF GREEN BROOK

WRITER URGES THAT A BI-MUNICIPAL COMMITTEE BE APPOINTED.

The following interesting communication has been received at this office:

Editor, The Daily Press:

I read with considerable interest the letter of William H. Riley on improvements to the brook between Plainfield and North Plainfield. I heartily agree with him and hope a movement can be started and a committee chosen for this improvement. I think the first and most sanitary step to take would be to wall the entire brook, beginning at the dam at Watchung avenue, in a "V" shaped form. This would keep up a continuous flow of water no matter how small the stream; it would do away with the stagnant pools on the broad flat beds during the summer months, and accumulation that collected in this "V" would readily wash out with every little rain, leaving the brook in a clean and sanitary condition. From the top of this wall the ground could be sloped back and sodded, so as to give ample room in times of heavy freshets, at the same time some of the sharp curves should be straightened to avoid washing as it now does. If a strong committee of the borough and city assisted by the Boards of Health, should bring strong arguments to bear on the Freeholders of both counties, and officials of both towns, and aided by public subscription, much could be accomplished in the health and beauty of this now unsightly brook. This project might be too great and costly to be done in one year, but a section done each year would accomplish it, and be a lasting improvement.

TENNIS TOURNAMENT ON HILLSIDE'S COURTS

MEN'S COMPETITION FOR CHAMPIONSHIP MARKED BY FAST PLAY.

The courts of the Hillside Tennis and Golf Club presented a very picturesque appearance Saturday at the opening of the annual fall tournament for the men's championship. The courts were in fine condition after the recent heavy rain, and the play was fast and in most cases interesting. A large crowd of interested spectators gathered at the courts, adding to the gayety of the scene, and inspiring the players to exert their best efforts. Though the women's tournament finals were scheduled to be played in the morning, they were postponed till next week in order that all the matches possible could be played off in the men's event. Those who will play off next week in the women's tournament are Miss Mary A. Reinhart and Miss Sarah E. Schuyler.

The following are the scores for the three rounds played in the men's match Saturday: First round, W. S. Tyler defeated C. W. Abbott, by default; F. W. Goddard defeated A. T. Wills, 6-1, 6-0; E. M. Daniels, Jr., defeated G. H. O'Donnel; 6-4, 6-1. Second round, W. T. Glenney defeated A. R. Beebe, 6-4, 2-6, 7-5; J. L. Meyers defeated C. B. Tyler, 6-4, 6-2; T. M. Day, Jr., defeated O. H. Fleming, 6-3, 6-1; W. S. Tyler defeated A. M. Tweedy, 6-2, 6-2; F. W. Goddard defeated E. M. Daniels, 6-3, 6-1; H. D. Bulkley defeated Harold S. Brown, 6-2, 6-2; A. Lovell defeated C. King, 6-0, 6-3; A. D. Beers defeated J. F. Middleditch, 6-1, 6-1. Third round, T. M. Day, Jr., defeated W. S. Tyler, 6-3, 6-1; J. S. Meyers versus W. T. Glenney, 7-5, 4-6, unfinished; F. W. Goddard versus Bulkley, 6-3, 3-4, unfinished; A. D. Beers defeated A. Lovell, 6-2, 6-2.

When the unfinished sets have been played, there will be only the semi-finals and finals to take place next week. T. M. Day, who won the trophy two years ago, and A. B. Beers are the only ones who are known to have qualified for this last round, and in all probability the contest will be hottest between these two. Both are playing a strong game. Mr. Day is the holder of the cup at present and Beers was the runner-up in last year's match.

CRANFORD, 12; DUNELLEN, 10.

The Dunellen A. C. was defeated by Cranford Saturday on the latter's diamond by the score of 12 to 10. The game was loosely played throughout. Smith was hit freely by Cranford.

Summary:

Cranford.....	2	2	0	0	2	1	5	0	x	—12
Dunellen.....	3	0	0	3	1	0	2	0	1	—10

Struck out—By Smith, 2; by Giddes, 4 Hits—Off Smith, 9; off Giddes, 7.

DUNELLEN AND VICINITY.

Mrs. Julia McLoughlin is visiting friends in Brooklyn.

Mrs. Annie Abbot is recovering from a slight illness.

Mrs. George T. Schenck is entertaining out of town friends.

Mrs. A. N. Randolph is confined at her home by a slight illoness.

M. Rosendale, of New York, spent Sunday with William Milliken.

Special services were held in the Catholic church yesterday morning.

Mrs. Randolph Runyon has resigned her position with the Presbyterian choir.

G. A. Brakeley left today for Princeton, where he will resume his studies.

Walter Craig played on the J. Pierpont Morgan baseball team against the Drexel Trust Company, of Philadelphia.

William Giddes is now the undisputed champion of the W. O. D. B. E. Tennis Club. He has defeated every player in the club and is now ready to challenge out-of-town players.

A party consisting of A. W. Pennock, A. N. Randolph, T. Sutphen, V. Kirby and T. W. Day and son spent Saturday fishing at Princess Bay. The fish were not biting well so they got discouraged and came home.

Mrs. M. J. Eganey and family, formerly of the borough, have again taken up their residence in town after living in Lincoln, N. J., for more than a year. They have moved into the upper part of the railroad station.

Saturday afternoon a stage load of old-time baseball players went to George Trust's farm in Greenbrook, and played an exciting game of baseball. The score stood 8 to 8 in the twelfth inning, when the game was called on account of darkness. After the game the players went into the house and ate a chicken dinner, which was served by Miss Trust. They returned home late Saturday night, after deciding to finish the contest in a couple of weeks.

PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

Edward Johnston was the guest Sunday of friends at Hackensack, N. J.

James B. Medhurst entertained his son from New York over Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. William Earl has been entertaining her brother from Newark for several days.

Mrs. William D. Johnston has returned from a stay of several weeks at Asbury Park.

Thomas M. Paff, Sr., denies the report that he has sold his store to a New York party.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Lee have been entertaining Miss Gallagher, of Metuchen, for a week.

The weekly meeting of the Epworth League was held in the class rooms of the Methodist church last night.

A young son arrived yesterday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Clifford Smith, of Westfield avenue.

Benjamin Allen, of Westfield, led an interesting weekly meeting of the B. Y. P. U. at the Baptist church last night.

A number of the baseball cranks journeyed all the way to Summit yesterday to see their Sunday game of baseball.

Mrs. John Kandulky and child, of Roselle, have been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas S. Whitenack, of Forest avenue.

Joe Alberts won the silk umbrella for the highest score bowled at the opening of the bowling alleys at Lee's Hotel Friday night. Joe bowled 204.

Louis B. Coddington and Charles Ball will be the local delegates at the Republican Congressional convention to be held at Morristown tomorrow.

Miss Madeline Robinson, Miss Lily Fancher, together with Miss Robinson's cousin, Miss Barclay, of Brooklyn, enjoyed a day's outing at the lake at New Market on Saturday.

Paul Wagner and family, who have resided on Grand street for several years, removed Saturday to Taunton, Mass., where Mr. Wagner has taken a position with the Campbell Auto Plate Company.

Berkely Heights and Green Village met on the Berkely diamond Saturday afternoon. Berkely Heights won 12 to 8. George Baldwin, a former member of the local club, played first base for the Berkely team.

Private funeral services of the late Mary B. Carter were held from the home of her mother, in the borough, at 11:30 Saturday. Interment was made at the convenience of the family.

Many of the lovers of the game from town were at Crescent Oval Saturday afternoon, taking in the P. A. C.-West End game. The followers of the former local team lost interest in the game when they found that nine professionals were on hand to do the playing, while the regulars sat on the bench in uniform. If the West Ends' management had only played part of the regular team there would have been some satisfaction for the local followers, who desired to see the boys go against Manager Johnston's team early in the season.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward TenEyck will remove to Metuchen this week. Mr. TenEyck is employed by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company.

Melvin Teeple has resumed his duties at the Lehigh Valley switch tower after serving as baggage master during Mr. Gutshall's absence.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gutshall have returned from their vacaiton of two weeks, which was spent at Leighton and Carlisle, Pa. While at the latter place they visited the prosperous Indian school which is located there.

Inter-State Fair at Trenton.

The great Inter-State Fair will be held on September 26, 27, 28, 29 and 30, on the Fair Grounds, near Trenton, N. J., on the New York Division of the Pennsylvania Railroad. The Pennsylvania Railroad Company will sell excursion tickets to the Fair Grounds, including coupon of admission, at greatly reduced rates, from stations within a wide radius, and special trains over the New York, Belvidere and Amboy Divisions will be run through to the grounds, thus avoiding street-car transfer. As in previous years, every department will be replete with superior and instructive displays. The blooded stock exhibit will be particularly fine, and the daily programme of races contains the speediest classes obtainable. The management of the Fair has put forth extraordinary efforts to make this year's exhibition even greater than last year's record-breaking display. 9 19 3 m th s

Hahne & Co.'s Fall Opening.

EQUAL TAXATION FIGHT.

Mr. Black Says Railroads Escape Payment on $5,000,000 Worth of Property.

David J. Carney, the well-known Somerset county Democratic politician and leader of North Plainfield Democracy, spent yesterday afternoon with the Democratic Gubernatorial candidate, Charles O. Black, at his summer home in Glenside Park.

Mr. Black stated among other matters relating to the issues of the campaign that the railroads in Union county alone escape payment on over five millions of dollars; Middlesex loses taxes on eight millions and Somerset on over three millions and a half. In Hudson the figures are wonderfully increased, in fact the statements that Mr. Black makes are so amazing that the candidate wonders how the subject of equal taxation has remained so long dormant in New Jersey.

Beginning tomorrow Mr. Black will make a thorough campaign of the entire State. Sometime in October he will speak in this city.

Fred T. VanAuken, of the Naval Academy, Annapolis, is spending some time in town with friends.

Alfred J. Everett, of Fairview avenue, is slowly imporving from his recent severe attack of appendicitis.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Miner, of 511 Washington street, are home from their visit to Oriskany Falls, N. Y.

JAPS ATTACK AGAIN

Assault on Port Arthur Now In Progress.

HORRIBLE SCENES OF CARNAGE.

Prince Radzivill's Stay of Siege. Awful Ferocity of Both Armies. Fields Filled With Decaying Bodies.

CHEFU, Sept. 19.—Local students of the military situation at Port Arthur, basing their deductions upon recent developments there, are of the opinion that another grand assault is either occurring at the present time or is imminent. This opinion is based on the very heavy bombardment of the Russian stronghold that occurred on Sept. 16, for such a bombardment forms the usual prelude to an assault; on the arrival here of important messengers from Port Arthur at a time when the running of the blockade is extremely perilous, on a recent authoritative statement that the Japanese siege works are completed and on reports from Japanese sources that at Port Dalny an assault was expected to take place in a few days. These reports were received last week.

In addition to the foregoing, there is the common knowledege that the Japanese realize that their continued inactivity increases the resisting power of the Russian garrison and their consequent desire to make such period of inactivity as brief as possible.

According to Lieutenant Prince Radzivil of the Russian army, who has reached here from Port Arthur bearing dispatches from Lieutenant General Stoessel, the commander in chief of the forces of the Russian stronghold, to General Kuropatkin, the temper of the belligerents at Port Arthur has reached an absolutely merciless stage.

Prince Radzivil served with the British in the Boer war, and he says that until he became aware of the state of affairs at Port Arthur he had no idea that war could be so horrible.

It was set forth in these dispatches some weeks ago that serious suspicions were entertained by both belligerents that the other was misusing the Red Cross flag. The suspicions have been increased by the commission of various acts by the soldiers of both armies, until now even flags of truce or surrender are not respected by either side.

Prince Radzivil declares that the men of both armies are absolutely venomous in their antagonism. Lieutenant General Stoessel has addressed his garrison, saying that the present mood of the Japanese indicates clearly the necessity of resisting them to the last drop of Russian blood, because if the Japanese soldiers entered the fortress it undoubtedly would be impossible for their officers to control them and prevent a massacre. For this reason Lieutenant General Stoessel is making no objection to civilians leaving Port Arthur.

When the 300 women who are in Port Arthur engaged in hospital work were advised to leave, they replied that they would rather face the possibility of massacre than desert their posts.

In consequence of the fact that flags of truce are ignored numbers of Japanese dead who have been lying on the slopes of the hills of the northeast defenses for weeks past are still unburied, and the stench in Port Arthur from decomposing bodies when the wind is in the right direction is almost unbearable. The Russian soldiers, who are in some cases posted only fifty paces from heaps of decaying dead, have constantly to wear over their noses handkerchiefs soaked in camphor, as otherwise they would be unable to remain at their posts.

In the course of the assaults which took place in the four last days of August two companies of Japanese soldiers, according to Prince Radzivil, found themselves at the mercy of the Russians and hoisted a white flag. To this, however, the Russians paid no attention and continued to volley rapidly into the helpless ranks of the enemy. In the meantime Japanese troops in the rear of the companies that had raised the white flag saw what their comrades had done and expressed their disapproval of the surrender by firing into their rear. As a result of this fire from friend and foe 600 men were annihilated. The dead fell among the decomposing bodies of previous assaults. For days afterward the wounded men in this area raised fluttering handkerchiefs in their hands in pleas for help, but the Russians were afraid to venture out to give succor. Within a week the army had made its last unregarded prayer for help, and the shambles was a quiet but ghastly field of horror. Among the heaps of dead the prince saw two soldiers, one a Russian and the other a Japanese, lying locked in a death embrace. The teeth of the Japanese were sunk in the Russian's throat, while the Russian had forced two of his fingers into the eye sockets of his antagonist.

The prince cited this as merely an incident denoting the ferocity of the conflict at Port Arthur. The prince will leave today to rejoin General Kuropatkin.

Prince Radzivill says further:

"Individual acts of heroism during the fighting have been numerous, and the tragic death of Lieutenant Petroff was for long an absorbing topic of conversation. Petroff became surrounded by some Japanese soldiers, whom he fought successfully till his sword broke. He then used his fists upon the Japanese, but their bayonets quickly put an end to his resistance. Before his sword broke Petroff succeeded in incapacitating eight of his antagonists, but he was wounded all over his body.

"One company of Russian troops was occupying a perilous outpost, and when they found their position to be untenable they sent the following message to Lieutenant General Stoessel: 'We are unable to hold this position.'

"'But you can die,' he said in reply, and so they did.

"The fact that the Japanese have on several occasions used explosive bullets has been verified by Lieutenant General Stoessel. He gives an instance which occurred at Takushan when two men of the Sixteenth regiment were killed by such bullets, their bodies being blown to pieces."

KUROKI NOT ADVANCING.

Russian Official Telegrams Discredit Newspaper Dispatches.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 19.—The reports that General Kuroki is pushing on northeast of Mukden are not borne out by official telegrams that have been received here. According to the latest advices, the Japanese forces continue to increase at Bianlupuza and Yentai. A decisive advance in the direction of Mukden is therefore not expected to occur for some days. Meanwhile indications increase of the probability of the Japanese meeting with resistance.

The Russian forces at Mukden undoubtedly are very large, and every day's delay enables the commander in chief to perfect his defenses. A private telegram from Mukden reports the arrival there of an immense train filled with convalescents returning to duty. This may be regarded as good evidence of a large concentration of troops at Mukden.

The same correspondent, describing scenes at Tie pass, notes extraordinary animation there. The great concourse of visitors there and the fact that theatrical performances and open air concerts are of daily occurrence hardly indicates that the town is expecting an immediate attack.

SPOILS OF BATTLE.

Field Marshal Oyama Reports Captures at Liaoyang.

TOKYO, Sept. 19.—Marquis Oyama, commander in chief of the Japanese forces in the field, telegraphed that General Oku had reported having captured thirteen prisoners at the battle of Liaoyang. He also gave a detailed list of the Russian stores which General Oku captured as follows: Thirty horses, 2,288 rifles, 127 ammunition wagons, 5,892 rounds of artillery, 659,930 small arm cartridges, great quantities of timber, flour, rice, forage, engineering implements, clothing and accouterments.

The armies under Generals Kuroki and Nodzu made no prisoners. General Kuroki captured forty horses, 800 rifles, 300 rounds of artillery and 600,000 rounds of rifle ammunition, telegraph apparatus and various miscellaneous implements.

General Nodzu captured 490 rifles, 1,164 rounds of artillery and 37,880 rounds of rifle ammunition, 3 heliographs, telephones, tools and large quantities of foodstuffs and timber.

General Oku captured sufficient timber to construct railroad depots.

Early Developments Expected.

MUKDEN, Sept. 19.—The armies having recovered from the effects of the recent fighting before Liaoyang, an early development of the situation may be expected. A mysterious movement eastward is on foot on the part of bands of young Chinese suitable for military service. All the leading Chinese who have aided the Russians are leaving Mukden.

Alleged Postoffice Robbers Arrested.

OCALA, Fla., Sept. 19.—James Ward and Fred Stafford, who had been arrested in Tavares on a warrant sworn out by Postoffice Inspector Fred Peer, had their preliminary trial before United States Commissioner Williams, and each was held in default of $1,000 bail. The men are charged with conspiracy to blow safes and rob postoffices and with blowing the safe at Leroy recently. Ward acknowledges that he and Stafford blew open the bank safe at Leesburg and shot at those who pursued them.

CONDENSED DISPATCHES.

William B. Hornblower was chosen to act as temporary chairman of the New York Democratic state convention, which will meet at Saratoga Sept. 20.

Oliver Williams, one of the best known citizens in central Pennsylvania, died at Catasauqua, near Allentown. He was seventy-four years of age.

Edward Johnson, a member of the Oak Park (Chicago) Baseball club, was killed by a batted ball during a game. The ball struck him just below the heart, and he died in three minutes.

Mayor W. F. Bennett of Thomson, Ill., was shot and killed by a thief whom the mayor was trying to arrest. The murderer was caught by citizens after he had been shot twice.

Jacob W. Manning, one of the best known nurserymen in the country and noted particularly as a producer of evergreens, died at his home in Reading, Mass., at the age of eighty years.

William R. Pattangall of Machias, Me., who was the Democratic nominee against Representative Llewellyn Powers of the Fourth (Me.) district in the recent election, filed a petition in bankruptcy in the United States district court.

General Edward L. Molineaux and his son, Roland B. Molineaux, rescued from probable death two gas repair men who had been overcome by the fumes of gas from a broken pipe in the cellar of the Brooklyn paint factory owned by General Molineaux.

OLD CAPE COD WINDMILL.

It Was Built in 1797 and Its Stones Grind as Fine a Grist as They Did Then.

Boston (Mass.) Special.

One of the most prominent landmarks on the elbow of Cape Cod is the old windmill of Chatham. It stands on one of the highest hills in the town, about half a mile southwest of the village proper, and a short distance from the shores of Stage harbor.

The high, grayish brown tower and bare arms of this mill can be seen many miles at sea on a clear day. Vessels going over the shoals, from south of Monomoy to northeast of Pollock rip, can see the mill.

The mill is one of the few remaining in use of the many that once dotted

OLD CHATHAM WINDMILL.
(It Was Built in 1797 and Still Is Used for Grinding Grain.)

the landscape on the cape. In 1849, when Thoreau, the naturalist, made an excursion down Cape Cod, he was much struck by the appearance of these useful structures. He says of them in his book "Cape Cod:"

"The most foreign and picturesque structures on the cape, to an inlander . . . are the windmills—gray-looking, octagonal towers, with long timbers slanting to the ground in the rear, and there resting on a cart wheel, by which their fans are turned round to face the wind. These appeared also to serve in some measure for props against its force. A great circular rut was worn around the building by the wheel."

The mills, to Thoreau, looked "like huge wounded birds, trailing a wing or a leg, and reminded one of pictures of the Netherlands. Being on elevated ground, and high in themselves, they serve as landmarks—for there are no tall trees, or other objects commonly, which can be seen at a distance in the horizon."

The Chatham mill was built in 1797 by Col. Godfrey, a prominent citizen of the town, and was for many years managed by him. His homestead, a low-browed Cape farmhouse, still stands at the base of the hill south of the mill, but the mill property has passed out of the family, and is now owned by a firm of grain dealers in Chatham. Every year, as of yore, its sails are bent, and it is put in commission to grind such grain as is brought to it by farmers, or is collected by its owners in the course of their business.

All its gear is in excellent repair, and the old stones grind as fine a grist as in the days when it represented the best type of mill known for the economical grinding of grain.

The great flour mills of the west were not dreamed of when this mill was built, but the grist that it ground when Chatham depended on it for its bread was quite as wholesome as any flour that comes to-day from the fancy mills of Minneapolis.

READY FOR THE CAMPAIGN.

Western Headquarters of Republican National Committee Already Established at Chicago.

Chicago Special.

Mr. Elmer Dover, secretary of the republican national committee, who recently opened the Chicago headquarters of the party for the impending campaign, is a young newspaper man who during two campaigns has shown that he knows all the ways and wiles of practical politics. He was born in Ohio 31 years ago, and served in various capacities in Ohio country papers until 1896, when he became assistant to Senator Charles Dick, then in charge of the Chicago department of the republican campaign. His work at that time commended Mr. Dover to Senator Hanna, who gave him an important part in the work of 1900. Upon the resignation of Secretary Heath, after the death of Senator Hanna, Mr. Dover was elected to the place. It is the intention of Mr. Dover to employ 250 men in the Chicago headquarters, who will be kept busy shipping republican literature to western points.

ELMER DOVER.
(Secretary of the Republican National Committee.)

THE MEAT PROBLEM.

An Important One For Women With Small Incomes.

Half the success of housekeeping depends on the person who does the marketing. Some families live meanly on a large income, and others fare well and enjoy continual novelty on a very small butcher's allowance. A little common sense goes a long way. If you have a small family, why buy a huge roast because it is the usual thing? It will only last and last until in the end, in desperation, it is thrown away because the family is sick of having it brought on the table.

The proportionate expenditure should be about one-third for meat. This leaves a wide margin for vegetables, fish, milk, etc, and it ought to be sufficient because most of us eat a great deal too much meat.

Beef is the most expensive meat, but this expense may be reduced by buying a large quantity at once and cutting off what you need at a time. When there is a family of, say, six it is an advantage to buy from ten to fifteen pounds of beef at a time. If this is cut from the best part of the small of the back it will give different cuts—fillets, sirloin roasts or steaks, pot roasts, pieces for corning and stew and trimmings for soups. Even the meaner cuts of beef round steak trimmings that are left when the large pieces are cut and the "shank" may be made palatable if properly prepared.

In buying lamb the same rule holds good. Chops bought separately are expensive, but by buying a quarter of lamb or mutton the price is lessened, and it can be kept fresh in the ice-box until needed. Some butchers will even keep the large piece you have bought in their cold storage room and cut off the pieces as you need them.

Veal is not considered very nourishing, but it affords good chops and steaks, not to speak of stuffed breast of veal.

Good meat can be absolutely spoiled in the cooking. In roasting or broiling the meat should be underdone rather than overdone and never dry, for then it is indigestible. In stews the meat should first be quickly browned all over and then water added, allowing it to cook slowly until well done. In this manner the juices are confined in the meat, and the slow cooking afterward makes it tender.

In cooking a roast baste well and often, as this adds richness and flavor besides giving a crisp crust on the outside.

through the arches. The woodwork of the walls is also worthy of notice.

The general color tone is brown oak and red. The divan facing the visitor is admirable in its suggestion of hospitality and comfort. A deep red rug faces the entrance door, which is not seen in the picture.

SUES GIRL'S FATHER.

UNIQUE DAMAGE CASE FILED IN MONTREAL COURT.

Rejected Lover Wants $2,325.49 from Chosen Father-in-Law for Breach of Promise—His Charges for Courting.

From Montreal, Canada, a correspondent writes of the New York World of a unique law suit. It does not often happen, he says, that a man is called upon to sue for breach of promise of marriage the man he once hoped to make his father-in-law. Yet that is what the action taken in the superior court by Jerome Internoscia, advocate, of Montreal, against Vincent Bonelli, of Vicksburg, Miss., amounts to.

Mr. Internoscia is not repining. Although he is not to marry the young woman who occupied his time and thoughts for two years, he will nevertheless take a wife on August 25. Indeed, Mr. Internoscia says that the young lady whom he now hopes to make his wife was highly incensed when his former matrimonial intentions became public property, but Mr. Internoscia, having weathered that storm, will now prosecute the action to the end.

"I am not called upon to educate other people's children," says Mr. Internoscia, and I want to recover from her father the amount of money I spent upon Miss Bonelli."

That amount Mr. Internoscia sets at $2,325.49. Discussing the case, Mr. Internoscia observed that it might look foolish for him to sue for the odd cents, but he expects to be asked for a bill of particulars. It was necessary for him to put down all the items he could remember. Notwithstanding a good memory, Mr. Internoscia is of the opinion that he stands to lose money, even if he wins his case.

In Mr. Internoscia's account there are many minor items, but the main one, aside from the monies spent upon tuition, is thus stated: "The sixth part of the account gives the amount of time which the plaintiff can prove he has spent for the defendant's daughter, and for such time, taking into consideration the plaintiff's position as a professional man, two dollars per hour is the least that can be charged, and plaintiff's time is worth two dollars per hour when engaged as in the case in question."

Mr. Bonelli, the defendant has been a resident of Vicksburg, Miss., for 35 years, where it is said he has accumulated much wealth. The summer season the family was wont to spend at St. Agath, a fashionable resort near Montreal. It was here that Mr. Intenoscia first met Miss Annie Bonelli, on July 18, 1902. Three days later Mr. Internoscia returned to Montral and his third letter having been answered by the young woman he promptly proposed matrimony.

Evidently Mr. Internoscia is a very methodical man in his love affairs, for his statement of the case contains extracts not alone from the letters which Miss Bonelli wrote to him, but also from those which he wrote to Miss Bonelli. Miss Bonelli, it would appear, did not think—this in response to his offer of marriage— that her love was as great for him as his love for her, "but I am very grateful," she adds, "for the great love you show me, and trust that I will be able to return love as great."

Mr. Internoscia did not look upon that as discouraging. He continued to press his suit with such good results that on August 22, 1902, he became formally betrothed. At that time it was understood that the marriage would take place in July, 1904.

Having become, as he thought, satisfactorily engaged, Mr. Internoscia says that he did not think any more of looking for some suitable lady who would marry him shortly, as plaintiff would have wished, but kept himself away from society, deeming himself engaged, and continued to spend his time and his money for defendant's daughter, as he felt practically bound to do it, in view of all that had happened."

The breaking up of the engagement, Mr. Internoscia asserts, was due to religion. Miss Bonelli was, like her father, an Anglican. Mr. Internoscia was a Presbyterian. But Mr. Internoscia, much against Mr. Bonelli's wish, asserted that he was perfectly willing his wife should entertain whatever religious opinions she chose. The whole fault of the final disruption, which took place last January, he blames on Mr. Bonelli's "own conduct and stubbornness," and asserts that "the plaintiff has a legal claim to recover from defendant all damages which the former suffered through the fault of defendant's minor child, as well as through defendant's own fault."

WEE HERO GIVES UP JOY.

Insists That Dying Girl Should Have the Outing to Which He Had Looked Forward.

There was room for but one more, writes a New York correspondent, and that was a tight squeeze. The Little Sisters of the Poor came for little Washington Racvis in a big wagon. He could not meet them at the mission as other children did, for he was lame from a fall. He had been wild to go on this particular picnic. He had been in bed for months, and the doctor had promised if he persisted in taking the exercises he prescribed he would be well enough to go.

Poor Washington! how he suffered at nights, but he was brave. It took all the fortitude he could muster to stretch his muscles as the doctor had ordered him to do, and without tears to relax them. But he was building everything on the picnic, and to-day was the day.

He was up before dawn, chattering of cows, pigs, bears, alligators and other animals he expected to see in the country. The time at last arrived and the big wagon and its load of laughing children. Such a bunch! Big and little girls and boys of all shades, from the African black to the light hue of the mulatto, combed and curled and kinked. Frizzes of impossible kinkiness.

Washington had been watching at the window and when the wagon drew up to the door he was ready with his bucket and shovel and toy gun (for a Long Island buffalo, probably).

But Washington overheard a conversation between the sisters and the driver about a poor little negro girl who was dying of consumption. She could not go, and it was probably her last chance. There was no room—no, they could get another one in—poor little girl, she had cried so.

The flags were waving for him and his chum in the street was calling to him, but Washington would not go—no, he did not feel well enough—but could he speak to the sisters? A whisper and protest, a few tears that the little boy on new crutches tried to hide, and the bucket and shovel were put in the wagon with instructions how to use them.

"Let the little colored chile w'at is going to die see all de things she can in de country, for, lady, mebby hebben ain't like dat."

GIRL SLUGS BOLD MASHER

Hoosier Young Woman Uses Fist with Good Effect on a Cheeky Male Stranger.

That mashers run a risk of their lives when they accost Hoosier girls was demonstrated in front of the court house at Longansport, Ind., when Miss Myrtle Robertson, daughter of Sheriff S. C. Robertson, of South Bend, administered a short arm jolt to one, and sent him sprawling in the gutter.

His identity was not learned. He took to his heels immediately, and ran across Third street bridge, zigzagging through dizziness, and holding his hands to his aching face. Sheriff Robertson came to Logansport to take Cyrus G. Strunk, an insane man, to Longcliffe. His daughter accompanied him.

Those who saw the man declare he was a stranger in Logansport. He left a bench in the park, and began to walk up and down in front of the jail. Finally he spoke to Miss Robertson.

"It's a lovely day," said he.

Miss Robertson drew back in astonishment. Her big eyes blazed and her face flushed. Her pretty fingers clinched themselves into a firm, symmetrical knot, and her lithe arm unfolded itself in a "hook" that would do credit to Fitzsimmons. The masher went down, attempted to rise, tripped and fell again. Then he ran.

An Ideal Location

Rosedale and Linden Park Cemeteries

LARGEST IN THE STATE

LINDEN, N. J.

Beautiful and Accessible

2 Miles from Elizabeth, 7 Miles from Newark,

14 MILES FROM NEW YORK

On Main Line Pennsylvania Railroad

Why Lots in these Cemeteries commend themselves to Heads of Families and Investors

BECAUSE of the $1,000,000 Trust Fund provided for by the Trustees in each Cemetery, the income from which will keep the properties perpetually beautiful at NO EXPENSE TO LOT OWNERS.

BECAUSE such a guarantee, not found in any other cemetery, assures lot owners that the grounds WILL BE MAINTAINED PERMANENTLY AS BEAUTIFUL PARKS AFTER THE INCOME FROM THE SALE OF LOTS HAS BEEN EXHAUSTED.

LOTS SHOULD BE PURCHASED NOW.

BECAUSE MORE ADVANTAGES ARE OFFERED TO LOT BUYERS in a new Modern Park Cemetery than in those established many years and, in most cases, no provision made for perpetual care without extra expense to lot owners. THERE ARE A GREATER NUMBER OF IDEAL LOCATIONS TO SELECT FROM, PRICES OF LOTS ARE ALWAYS LOWER AND TERMS MORE ADVANTAGEOUS.

BECAUSE life is most uncertain and EVERY ONE SHOULD ANTICIPATE THE INEVITABLE BY MAKING A CHOICE NOW OF A FINAL RESTING PLACE.

LOTS WILL PROVE A GOOD INVESTMENT

BECAUSE they are sure to increase in value and can be purchased NOW at the INITIAL, or LOWEST PRICE and upon the most ADVANTAGEOUS TERMS.

BECAUSE the properties are ACCESSIBLE TO 4,000,000 PEOPLE, and considering the RAPID GROWTH OF GREATER NEW YORK and its TRIBUTARY CITIES and TOWNS, it is only a question of a SHORT TIME when LOTS in ROSEDALE and LINDEN PARK will EQUAL, IN VALUE those of our MOST NOTED cemeteries.

FOR INFORMATION concerning lots in these beautiful Park Cemeteries, and FREE transportation to prospective lot buyers, apply at once to any LEADING UNDERTAKER or offices of the Associations:

CLIMBS POLE TO CAVE CAT

Plucky Philadelphia Girl Rescues Animal That Had Taken Refuge from a Dog.

When a black and white fox terrier chased a Maltese cat up a telegraph pole at Germantown and Stenton avenues, at Philadelphia, and kept her there for nearly an hour the street became as dense with people as if the United States mint had begun to distribute samples of gold coinage. More than 1,000 persons stood in the street and on the sidewalks, craned their necks watching the trembling pussy look down from the top of the pole to the excited crowd below.

Nobody seemed to know how to bring the cat down. One man suggested that the feline be lassoed with a long rope and then hauled down, but this suggestion didn't meet with favor. Somebody else suggested that the pole be chopped down, another declared that the fire department ought to be called out to dislodge the cat with a good, heavy stream from a hose. An elderly woman wanted to 'phone to the S. P. C. A. Matters were in this strait when Miss Ethel Sibler, a pretty young girl of 417 Woodlawn avenue, arrived.

"Why, what's the trouble?" she asked in a surprised voice. "Pussy up a telegraph pole? Well, I'll get him."

She began to scramble up the pole while the crowd looked on in amazement. Straight toward the top she went.

"Here, pussy, pussy, here, puss," she said in a soothing voice, as she reached the frightened animal. The young woman kept up her gentle purring, and the cat stopped trembling. As she reached the top of the pole the cat made a spring and landed on Miss Sibler's shoulder. Then the young woman slowly descended while the crowd looked on. When she reached the ground the cat sprung from her shoulder and scurried off. And the crowd that had been watching for nearly an hour walked foolishly away.

GIRL RESCUED BY PORKER.

After a Hard Battle Hog Kills Rattler Which Was Just About to Strike at Child.

Mattie Dodson is a Red Rock (Pa.) girl, aged 12, and on Thursday she was sent to the spring-house for a pan of milk. She got the pan and on her way home set it in the grass to pick some berries. When she turned again she saw a rattlesnake six feet away, drinking the milk. The snake saw her, too, and coiled as if to strike. The little girl was paralyzed with fear and had not the power even to call for help. She simply clasped her hands and gazed at the reptile in helpless terror.

A fat hog, sauntering around in search of food, came in sight, and in a moment made for the snake, and Mattie, now at a safe distance, watched the battle with wonder. The snake more than once bit the hog, but each time the beast received the bite in the jaw, where the great layers of fat made the poison harmless. When the snake had exhausted the venom it decided to retreat, but the hog then took the innings. Jumping on his carcass he pinned it to the earth, and with his teeth tore it to pieces and ate it. Mattie carried home the milk and told her story to sympathetic ears.

Oven Heated by Electricity.

A baker's oven heated by electricity is a novelty at Montabaun, France. The heat is quickly applied, and may be cut off at once, with a considerable saving in time. No heat is lost up the chimney, as the only opening is the door through which the bread is passed.

WHITE-TAILED DEER

IT IS ONE OF THE BEST KNOWN AMERICAN ANIMALS.

The Enforcement of Game Laws Is Causing a Growth in Its Numbers in the New England States.

It is evening, and as I sit here in my study on the border of the Blue mountain forest, I see through the open window five deer stealing out from the shadows of the trees, to feed on the dew-wet grass. They are in their thin red summer coats, which in a month or two will begin to give place to the longer and warmer winter garb of brownish gray. Daintily they step along on their slender, sinewy legs, stopping here and there to nibble a leaf or a bunch of grass, ever and anon raising their pretty heads to see that no danger threatens them. Their tails, which are rather long, are deeply fringed with white, and, when not swaying from side to side, hang straight down behind. Now and then one of them will stop to lick its flank or to scratch its head with its sharp, hind hoof. I step out on the porch, and instantly all five heads are raised, and all five noses are pointed straight at me. The large sensitive ears stand out to catch the slightest sound, and the big round eyes are "front." For one instant the wild things are "at attention," then one of them stamps his black hoof and snorts and then the five, wheeling as though at the word of command, are speeding away, through the long grass, over rocks and bushes, often leaping much higher than necessary, as though they loved the sport.

The white-tailed deer, otherwise known as the Virginia deer, because of its wide distribution, is one of the best known of American animals. According to Hornaday, it is found in at least some part of every state and territory save Delaware, Oregon, Nevada, California and Arizona. It was the first member of its family seen and hunted by the early settlers along the Atlantic coast, and Hornaday prophesies that it will be one of the last of the large-hoofed animals of North America to become extinct. In the first place, it is chiefly a dweller of the forest, often coming out into the open to feed, but seldom found far away from the friendly cover of the trees. Morover, it is a cautious animal, keeps a bright lookout for enemies, and, when hiding in the forest, lowers its head and thus escapes notice. Owing to steady persecution for generations, the white-tailed deer was driven from most parts of New England, and it was feared that it would never come back, but during the last few years, owing to good game laws, properly enforced, these timid creatures have taken heart, and have come back to the woods which were known to their ancestors. And they will stay, and add to the beauty of the country and to the profit of its inhabitants, if the woods are but kept habitable by proper legislation.

In February or March, and occasionally as late as April, the male deer shed their antlers, which drop from the head without any flow of blood.

In about two weeks there may be seen, on the pedicle of each antler, a round lump, which looks a good deal like a brown tomato. This is the beginning of the new horn, but at the time it is soft and full of blood. Soon it becomes elongated, and grows with great rapidity, first assuming the form of a blunt club, from which the points afterwards branch off. Until they reach their full size, which they do in about four months, the antlers are soft and easily injured, and, being covered with minute hairs, are said to be "in the velvet."

The growing of these new antlers in so short a space of time, is of course a great drain upon the animal's vitality, and he entirely lacks the vigor for which he is famous at other times of the year. Having attained their full growth, the horns begin to harden, first shrinking and becoming sharp at the points and gradually becoming bonelike all over. The velvety covering then peels off, and the deer regains his wonted strength and spirit. And the horns of the white-tailed deer differ from those of any other species. After rising for a short distance from the forehead, they drop forward, and from the beam, which is almost horizontal, three long, sharp tines rise perpendicularly. The antlers of most other deer point backward as they rise.

In May the fawns are born, and beautiful little creatures they are—reddish brown, beautifully spotted with white. So carefully are they hidden by their mothers, that we seldom see them when they are very young, unless we accidentally come upon one where he lies [illegible]

THIS IS THE DAY OF ATONEMENT FOR JEWS

STORES ARE CLOSED AND SERVICES ARE BEING HELD IN SYNAGOGUE.

Yom Kippur, or the Day of Atonement, is being observed here today by the Hebrews, special services being held in the Synagogue on New street. Commencing yesterday at 5 o'clock and continuing until 6 o'clock tonight, a season of fasting is being strictly observed by members of the faith, the time being spent chiefly attending the services at the Synagogue. The local merchants of the Jewish faith have closed their places of business for the day.

During the morning the services at the Synagogue were in charge of the Rabbi, considerable time being spent in the reading of the Scripture roll. These services will be continued this afternoon, concluding this evening.

According to the rules of the feast, every kind of work is forbidden and the day should be spent in the synagogue in prayer and meditation. The eve of the Day of Atonement witnesses numerous reconciliations between men who have been enemies or who have been estranged from each other, for the belief is firmly held that God's pardon can only be obtained after the supplicant has made his peace with men.

THROWN FROM VEHICLE.

Mrs. John H. Emmons Cut and Bruised on Saturday Afternoon.

In the rush away from the baseball game at Crescent Oval, Saturday afternoon, William H. Terry drove his horse against the carriage of Mrs. John H. Emmons, of the borough. She was thrown from the vehicle and narrowly escaped being run over by an automobile in which were Calvin McMurtry and other well known Somerville men. As it was her face was badly cut and she received numerous bruises.

Patrolman McKeon placed Terry under arrest on a technical charge of reckless driving and he was arraigned in the city court this morning. On account of several matters conflicting, the case was adjourned until Saturday.

Contract for Parish House.

The work on the handsome new parish house to be erected at the corner of Sycamore and East Sixth streets, will be commenced within a short time, the contract for the same having been awarded to Charles M. Wilson, of West Sixth street. The structure will be built of stone and brick. The estimated cost of the new building is $30,000.

In City Court.

On complaint of his wife, John Scott, colored, of Plainfield avenue, was arraigned in the city court, this morning. Patrolman Hamilton, who made the arrest, said Scott had been drunk and abusive for several weeks. He was fined $3 or ten days. William Wilson, found helplessly drunk, was sent to jail for twenty days.

POLITICAL CHAT.

Charles Clarke Black, the nominee of the Democratic party for Governor of New Jersey, was born on a farm in Burlington County, New Jersey, July 29, 1858, and is descended from William Black, who settled in Burlington County in 1677. Mr. Black's grandfather, John Black, was for sixty years president of what is now the Farmers' National Bank of Mount Holly.

Mr. Black's boyhood days were spent helping on the family farm, and attending the district school. In 1878 Mr. Black was graduated from Princeton College and later entered the law department of the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor, where he studied law under Judge Thomas N. Cooley, the eminent authority on constitutional questions. A few months he later was admitted to the bar of New Jersey, and took up the practice of law in Jersey City.

Mr. Black was appointed a member of the State Board of Taxation in 1890 by Governor Abbett, and has discharged his duties with such marked ability that he was reappointed by Governors Griggs, Voorhees and Murphy, all Republicans, and that, too, without any solicitation on his part. Mr. Black is the author of "Law Practice in Accident Cases," and "New Jersey Law of Taxation," which is a standard authority on taxation in this State. Mr. Black is a member of the Order of Odd Fellows, Knights of Pythias and United Order of Workmen.

LITERARY.

In life the truest winning often comes first under the guise of failure, and it is willingness to accept failure, and intelligence in understanding its causes, and using the acquired knowledge as a means to a higher end, that ultimately brings true success. MISS SNYDER WEDS.

Plainfield Girl Becomes Wife of Jersey City Man Saturday Afternoon.

Miss Daisy Snyder, of West Front street, and Harry Salkeld, of Jersey City, were married Saturday afternoon at Greenville, in the presence of a few relatives and intimate friends. Miss Margaret Kennedy, of the borough, attended the bride as maid-of-honor, and George Salekid, a brother of the groom, was the best man. After the ceremony the bridal party went to New York, where they had dinner at the St. Denis. Later they left for St. Louis to attend the Exposition. Upon their return they will live in Jersey City, where the groom is employed in the offices of the Lehigh Valley Railroad Company.

The bride was for several years employed by I. H. Boehm at his dry goods store. Her home was formerly at Easton, Pa.

EDWARD C. STOKES NAMED BY ACCLAMATION AS REPUBLICAN GUBERNATORIAL CANDIDATE

State Convention at Trenton Today Ratifies the Leaders' Choice, and Session Proves a Tame One.

THE PLATFORM FAVORS EQUAL TAXATION

No Contests of Any Kind to Mar the Plans—Adolph Mack a District Elector—Crowd From Plainfield Present Including Former Mayor Charles J. Fish and City Clerk James T. MacMurray.

Edward C. Stokes, of Trenton, is the unanimous choice of the Republican party for Governor of New Jersey, the selection having been made months in advance of the State convention which convened in the State Street Theatre, Trenton, shortly after noon today. Plainfield was well represented at the gathering, for in addition to the delegates, a number of active party workers were on hand from this city. The delegates from here are: William E. Dunn, S. P. T. Wilbur, Robert Guttridge, George P. Mellick, Harry B. MacDonald, Townsend Rushmore, Charles H. Dunham, Carlos C. Gallup and William Newcorn. Among others present were Charles J. Fisk, William S. Bullock, Frank H. Smith and Andrew McCardell.

The convention is presided over by former Assistant Postmaster General William M. Johnson, of Bergen County whose speech contained nearly 35,000 words. The convention was called to order by State Chairman Frank C. Briggs. Prayer was said by Rev. Dr. Morgan, of Newark.

The secretary of the convention is J. Herbert Potts, of Hudson, secretary of the Republican State committee. The following are the assistant secretaries: Nelson Gaskill, Burlington; James Parker, Passaic; Alex C. Yard, Mercer; Upton S. Jeffreys, Camden.

There are no contested seats in the convention and the nomination of Hon. E. C. Stokes was made by acclamation. Senator Stokes was put in nomination by his friend and neighbor, Senator Bloomfield H. Minch, of Cumberand. Senator Minch spoke for about five minutes. Then followed speeches seconding the nomination by Prosecutor W. H. Speer, of Hudson; General James F. Rusling, of Trenton, and former Governor Foster M. Voorhees, of Elizabeth.

THE PLATFORM.

The platform, according to the present understanding, calls for the following:

First. A broad specific plank in favor of equal taxation.

Second That all second class railroad property shall be taxed at local rates for the benefits especially of terminal municipalities.

Third. That owing to the intricate questions involved the party will await the report of the tax commission appointed by the governor, and will pledge itself to seriously consider recommendations of such commission and in case they are not strong enough to suit the municipalities particularly involved will conform to the needs of the case.

THE ELECTORS.

The following is a list of electors:

First district—Howard M. Cooper, Camden.

Second district—Lewis T. Stevens, Cape May.

Third district—Lewis S. Thompson, Monmouth.

Fourth district — Adolph Mack, Somerset.

Fifth district—Richard Williams, Morris.

Sixth district—J. Hull Browning, Bergen

Seventh district—Henry Dickson, Essex.

Eighth district—Arthur B. Leach, Essex

Ninth district—Jacob Ringle, Hudson.

Tenth district—Aaron S. Baldwin, Hudson.

At the meeting of State Republican Committee the following names were approved and suggested to the convention as the two electors at large:

Washington A. Roebling, of Mercer.
Hon. Uzgal H. McCarter, of Essex.

The appointment of Mr. McCarter as an elector at large required under the law his resignation as director of the Union National Bank, of Newark, which he did this morning.

Senators Kean and Dryden held a reception in room 100 of the Trenton House, where during the evening nearly all the prominent men of the State who were in town gathered. As the State Republican headquarters reports of political conditions in all parts of the State were received by State Chairman Briggs and indicated that the situation is as encouraging as it has been at any time since the Republicans came into control of the State in 1895.

FIFTH DISTRICT CAUCUS.

Former Mayor Charles J. Fisk, of this city, called the Fifth Congressional District caucus to order at the Trenton House this morning and Charles Capsick, of Warren, was chosen chairman. William C. Howell, of Morris, was selected as secretary. Resolutions were passed instructing the chairman to present the name of Richard H. Williams, of Morris, as district elector, and U. Carter and W. Roebling as delegates at large.

UNION COUNTY CAUCUS.

Union county held a caucus at room 8 in the Trenton House at 11 o'clock, County Chairman Hamilton F. Kean calling the delegates to order. State Senator Joseph Cross, of Elizabeth, was chosen chairman, and William Howard, of Rahway, secretary.

It was decided to recommend H. C. Cook, of Westfield, as vice president and these as members of convention committees: Rules, H. F. MacDonald, of this city; organization, F. W. Veghte, of Roselle; resolutions, Foster M. Voorhees, of Elizabeth; credentials, Jonothan Bennell, of Summit. Senator Cross was instructed to cast the unanimous vote of the Union county delegation for E. C. Stokes for governor. W. Roebling and U. Carter were endorse by resolution for delegates at large and Richard H. Williams, of Morris county, was recommended as district elector.

MISS PFEIFFER WEDS.

Married by Bishop Morrison, of Duluth, to H. R. Beguelin, of Brooklyn.

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Elsa Dayton Pfeiffer, of 818 Central avenue, and Henry Robert Beguelin, of Brooklyn, the affair being celebrated on Saturday last at Chateaugay Lake, Adirondacks, where the bride has been spending the summer. The ceremony was performed by the Right Rev. Dr. Morrison, bishop of Duluth.

The affair was attended by the immediate relatives and a few friends of the couple. The bride is well-known here among the younger society people who will be interested to learn of her marriage.

BASKET BALL LEAGUE.

Movement on Foot to Form Combination of Four Teams—To Meet Monday Night.

The meeting which was to have been held last night for the purpose of forming a basket ball league, was adjourned for one week. The proposition is to form a league composed of four teams, probably Reform Club, Y. M. C. A., the Business Men and Hope chapel.

There seems to be plenty of material and it is believed that a strong league can be organized to play during the winter. Games can be played at the Y. M. C. A., Reform Hall and Hope chapel, and an attractive schedule no doubt could be arranged.

Off for Old Nassau.

Among the young men from here who will return to Princeton University before tomorrow, are Lawrence and John Haughey, who enter as freshmen; William Schoonmaker, Ames Brooke, Lawrence Tweedy, David Pond, Frank C. Reinhart and Archibald Brakeley.

FEAST OF YOM KIPPUR

The Hebrew Celebration Was Marked by Special Services.

DAY OF ATONEMENT

Origin of the Observance Which is an Annual Custom Among the Hebrews.

The Day of Atonement for the Hebrews came to a close last evening at 6 o'clock, having commenced at 5 o'clock in the morning. At the local synagogue, the services of atonement were held during the entire day, being in charge of the rabbi.

Yom Kippur is celebrated on the tenth day of the month of Tishri. The days intervening between New Year's day, observed recently, and Yom Kippur are known as the ten penitential days, which are devoted to repentance and prayer. They are not holidays in any sense of the word, for the people go about their usual avocations, but the pious among them are assiduous in the attendance at the daily morning and evening services in the synagogue. They go to the morning services fasting. The shofar is sounded at these morning services, and it is typical of a call to the dispersed and careless children of Israel to repent their sins and return to the faith of their fathers.

Yom Kippur is held as a strict fast day by the Jews. It begins, as do all the fasts and festivals in the Jewish calendar, in the evening and continues until the following evening. During the twenty-four hours from sunset until sunset, the orthodox Jew does not partake of food or drink of any kind whatever. Men and women alike are required to fast, and the only ones who are exempted from this requirement are children, the very aged and persons in ill-health.

The end of the Jewish holiday season comes with Succoth, or the Feast of Tabernacles. This is the harvest festival, and is designed to commemorate the dwelling in booths of the children of Israel during their sojourn in the wilderness after their departure from Egypt. The festivals lasts for eight days, but only the first two and the last two days are regarded as holy days. It begins on the fifth day of the month of Tishri, five days after the Yom Kippur fast. The distinctive feature of this festival is the building of the booth of Succoth in connection with the synagogue. This is a booth consisting of a light frame work of wood, covered with the boughs of trees and ornamented with fruits and flowers. The interiors of these booths is also ornamented with draperies and festooned with flowers and fruits in profusion, and in them a portion of the festival ceremonies is performed by the rabbi. There are many orthodox Israelites who build for themselves booths such as are described above in the yards of their dwellings and take their meals during the festival in them.

Y. M. C. A. COURSE OF STAR ENTERTAINMENTS

COMPLETE PROGRAMME FOR WINTER SEASON IS ANNOUNCED.

After several changes and much revision, the programme of entertainments for the Star Course at the Y. M. C. A., has been announced. The committee who decided on the dates and engagements consisted of Dr. Henry M. Maxson, Dr. B. Vaud, Hedges and Curtis Thorp. These entertainments have proved a source of much pleasure to the public in the past and this year's programme will be especially attractive.

The first entertainment has been planned for Election night. The entertainer will be Henry Allen Price, dramatic reader and basso. In addition to this feature of the programme the election returns will be furnished. The other dates have been decided upon as follows: Thursday, November 24, The deBarrie Gill Combination; Thursday, December 1, Thespian Dramatic Company; Thursday, December 15, John Thomas Concert Company; Monday, January 2, Edith Cline Ford and Emily Farrow Gregory, recitals and sketches; Ethel Palmer, whistler, and Catharine Lane, soprano; Monday, January 23, The New York Artists Concert Company, Fred and William VanEps, banjo and mandolin soloists.

Several of the entertainers who have been engaged for this year's programme have been here in former years, and are well known as artists of considerable ability.

MYSTERIOUS BLAZE DESTROYS OLD STRUCTURE

LANDMARK ON THE WALLACE VAIL ESTATE REDUCED TO RUINS.

Originating in some mysterious way, flames broke out in the large barn on the Wallace Vail estate at Clinton and Dunellen avenues, at 8:20 last evening, and eventually destroyed the structure. In addition two tons of hay belonging to William Schwartz, of Clinton avenue, and $300 worth of tar paper and roofing material belonging to Charles C. Randolph, of Dunellen, were consumed. The total loss on the building cannot be estimated as it was very old and no one knows anything about the original cost. It was erected nearly fifty years ago and for a long time was used as a slaughter house by local butchers. Since the death of Wallace Vail it has been occupied as a storage place.

The flames were first noticed by Samuel Saums, of Clinton avenue, bursting through a cupola directly in the center. He sent in an alarm from box 49 and with neighbors rushed back and attempted to save some of the contents. By the time the department arrived, owing to the long run, the building was afire on all sides. A great deal of hose had to be laid and the engine was attached in order to give sufficient pressure. The recall was sounded at 11:15.

HIGH SCHOOL BOYS PRACTICE ON GRIDIRON

CAPT. WILLIAM DOUGLASS GIVES CANDIDATES A TRIAL.

Togged out in the armour of the gridiron, fourteen candidates for the Plainfield High School football team presented themselves at Hope Common for the first regular practice for the season. The practice was in charge of William Douglass, the captain of the team. It was expected to have Lindsey Best, of the faculty, out to coach the boys, but he was unable to attend practice. In consideration of the fact that there was much new material in evidence, the boys may feel fairly encouraged over the prospects for the coming season.

There can be no doubt that the team will be lighter than in previous years, but there is much good solid nerve back of the boys, which will do a great deal toward equalizing the weight. Captain Douglass said yesterday, after the practice, that it was too early to have formed any definite plans with regard to the permanent line-up, as there are some of the fellows who were unable to appear at the first practice.

Attempts will be made to hold practice at least three times a week, and as many practice games as possible will be arranged for. Manager Bentley has his eyes open for games and has already secured some dates. Among the teams on the High School's schedule will be Leal's and Westfield High School. Both these teams defeated the High School last year, and an effort will be made to square up accounts.

BIG ELECTRIC AND GAS PLANT.

To Supply Newark, Jersey City and Several Neighboring Towns.

For more than a year three hundred men have been engaged in the construction of what will be one of the largest gas and electric plants in the United States on the Hackensack meadows. It will furnish light, heat and power to Newark, Jersey City, and many other near-by towns.

No public mention has been made of the work which, as a whole, will constitute one of the biggest and most costly improvements ever made in this State. The probable cost has not been made known, but it will reach $1,000,000 at least.

Gen. Gilmore Stricken.

General Quincy O'Malley Gilmore, of the New Jersey National Guard, is suffering from liver trouble and has gone to the mountains of northern New York, for the benefit of his health. The disease has already begun active progress and it is feared that the General will lack the strength necessary to throw the burden from his constitution. Little real hope for his recovery is held out by his physician.

NO TROLLEY TO METUCHEN

Superintendent Pack Says Road Will Not be Built Now.

NO MONEY IN SCHEME

Official of P. S. C. Believes That There Would be Little Traffic.

Mr. Pack, superintendent of new construction work for the Public Service Corporation, who with H. C. VanEmburgh, made a tour of inspection over the proposed Plainfield-Metuchen line, a few days ago, is of the opinion that some day such a line might pay, although at present he believed that considering the expenditure necessary to build the line would scarcely be warranted in view of the limited travel that would follow.

It was Mr. Pack's opinion that only summer travel would pay at present. However, he will make his report to headquarters and it will be up to the officials to decide the question. There is no doubt but what Mr. Pack will make recommendations and these are sure to have some influence in the final decision.

"One point overlooked by Mr. Pack," said an interested citizen, "is that the building of this line is sure to bring about a building boom between here and Metuchen and it will be but a comparatively short time when the travel will be as good as some of the other lines. It would mean a short-cut to Metuchen, New Brunswick, Amboy and the New Jersey coast resorts and if the Public Service Corporation does not build this line, no doubt other capitalists will interest themselves and construct the line."

DEMOCRATS SEE HOPE OF DEFEATING FOWLER

THEY TALK OF NOMINATING WILLIAM R. WILSON, OF ELIZABETH.

Gossip at the Democratic State headquarters concerning the situation in the Fifth Congressional District indicates that the party men of Union, Morris and Warren counties are entertaining hope of being able to encompass the defeat of Charles M. Fowler, or any other man whom the Republicans of the district may nominate.

There seems to be an inclination among the Union County men to nominate for Congress former Prosecutor William R. Wilson, of Elizabeth. It is said that Mr. Wilson is willing to tilt a lance with Fowler, and that he has earned for himself a popularity with all classes of citizens that would make him, in the estimation of a number of his party associates, a very strong candidate for a Congressional prize.

Mr. Wilson was prosecutor of the pleas of Union County for ten years. He was appointed, when quite a young man, by Governor Ludlow in 1881. He was reappointed by Governor Abbett in 1886, and finished his term in 1891.

The Union men have been informed, they say, that DeWitt Clinton Flanagan will not seek nomination, and that the Warren delegation has expressed a willingness to yield to the candidacy of the Union man, provided his own county is united for him. It is said, too, that former Senator Smith and State Chairman Gourley look kindly upon the Wilson boom.

The Elizabeth man's friends figure that Morris County, with its large proportion of old-line Democrats, who have been away from the party for the last eight years, and are returning to the cause, will this year give a vote that will not be far from even as between the two parties. They believe that Warren, always Democratic, will this year give an old-time majority of 2,000 or more, while in Union, with a united Democracy and an opposition full of friction, and with a popular candidate against Fowler, they hope to be able to keep the Republican vote down to such a figure as will insure the election of a Democratic Congressman.

To Observe Rally Day.

The Park Avenue Baptist church Sunday-school will hold rally day exercises at the church on Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. There will be a special programme consisting of a novel roll call of the entire school, an address by the pastor, Rev. A. E. Finn, and other interesting exercises. Music will be a feature of the programme.

DEMOCRATIC CLUBS' MEET

Plainfield to Be Represented at Gathering in Newark.

TOMORROW THE DATE

Formal Opening of the Democratic Campaign in New Jersey the Idea of Meeting.

A big meeting of the Democratic clubs of New Jersey has been called for tomorrow, at Newark. The convention will be held in Krueger Auditorium on Belmont avenue and will be called to order at noon. Representatives of the local Democratic club will be present and there is every indication that the meeting will be not only a large one but an enthusiastic one. The local organization is entitled to five delegates and one additional delegate for every fifty members in good standing in excess of one hundred. A like number of alternates will be required.

The convention has been called for the formal opening of the State and National campaigns in New Jersey. The Democratic nominee for Governor will be there and make an address to the delegates. Men of National fame will also be present and make addresses upon all the issues of the campaign.

The convention will be called to order by Willard W. Cutler, chairman of the Bureau of Clubs of the State Committee. The chairman of each county delegation will name a member for the committee on credentials, on resolutions, on finance and on permanent organization. A recess will follow until 2 o'clock.

This great meeting, which promises to be a memorable one, and will be of great benefit to the party, will be made the occasion of the first public appearance of the nominee of the Democratic party for Governor. The public will be invited to attend the convention, seats in the balcony having been set aside for their use. The space set aside for the various delegations will be on the main floor, their locations being designated by banners.

It is planned to send a big delegation to the convention from all parts of Union County. At the recent banner raising Chairman James C. Connelly notified all the members of the various clubs in Elizabeth to have delegations selected to send to that meeting. Arrangements will be made to have delegations present from this city, and some of the other Republican strongholds of Union County for the Democratic hosts of Union are out to win this time.

FOOTBALL PLANS OF THE LEAL'S SCHOOL

ROGER WILCOX IS CHOSEN CAPTAIN AND ED. SUFFERN MANAGER.

Leal's School will not be excluded on the scholastic football field this season. The boys have recently started their plans for the reorganization of the team, and have elected the following officers: Roger Wilcox, captain; Edward Suffern, manager; John Valiant, assistant manager. The prospects for a good team are very bright, and it is expected that the school will have a superior aggregation to the other schools in the vicinity.

Last year Leal's boys won the highest honors in the city for scholastic football, and with but a few exceptions the team will be the same as last season's. At the mass meeting of the boys last week, about twenty of the students made known their intention of trying for the team. The first practice was held yesterday afternoon. Manager Suffern is negotiating for the use of a field for the coming season, but as yet no battle ground has been determined upon.

Poles Hold Celebration.

The John Sobeski Society held its second annual ball at Higgins' Hall, South Plainfield, Saturday evening. One of the most striking effects was that presented by President Antonio Phillips, who unfurled the Polish flag and under his careful guidance the "soldiers" marched to the patriotic airs, which were ably played by Prof. Mikolajchako's Orchestra.

Properties Exchanged.

Dr. D. C. Adams has exchanged his property on Grove street, formerly owned and occupied by Miss Dietrich, with Morris C. VanArsdale, for the latter's property on Norwood avenue. Mr. VanArsdale will remove to Grove street soon. George F. Brown made the deal

CENTRAL'S NEW STATION

Mr. Baer Tells of Proposed Uptown Depot in New York.

MORE FERRYBOATS

Annual Report Shows Encouraging Condition of the Central Railroad.

The annual report of the Central Railroad of New Jersey, which has just been issued, contains a number of statements of interest to Plainfielders aside from the financial figures. To the general review, President George F. Baer has appended a personal report in which he speaks of the new terminal proposed at Twenty-third street, New York. In part it says:

"Arrangements have been perfected with the city of New York for a passenger terminal on the North river, between Twenty-second and Twenty-third street. Work on this terminal is proceeding and when it is completed and regular service established to Jersey City (for which service two new ferryboats are now being built) it is expected that there will be a large increase in the passenger traffic of the company. An uptown passenger station has been considered as absolutely necessary and arrangements have been made for such a station."

With this new terminal and a passenger station, the New Jersey Central will be able to compete better than ever with other roads and it will give Plainfielders their choice of three landing points in the metropolis. Since the theatre district and dry goods houses have been gradually getting uptown the Twenty-third street station will prove very convenient and a time-saver.

The report contains the following figures: Gross earnings, $30,738,778; expenses, $21,820,681; net, $8,918,160. There was a surplus of $2,661,058 after allowing for fixed charges, improvements, renewals and $1,000,000 set aside for equipment depreciation fund, which is equal to 9.70 per cent. earned on $27,481,800 capital stock.

President Baer goes on to say:

"The sum of $1,000,000 from the surplus income of the year has been set aside as an 'equipment depreciation fund,' and will be used to cover depreciation on old equipment, as shown when sold or broken up. No amounts have been appropriated for such purpose in previous years.

"Increases have been made in the revenue from all classes of traffic, the gross earnings from operation for the year being the largest in the history of the company, showing an increase over the previous fiscal year of $2,318,491, a gain of 12.5 per cent.

"Passenger earnings increased $335,453, or 8.3 per cent. over the previous fiscal year. The passenger earnings exceed those of any previous year.

"The work of maintaining the equipment at a high degree of efficiency has been kept up, there having been expended $3,085,591 for this purpose during the year.

"The physical condition of the property has been greatly improved, replacing wooden and light iron bridges with stronger structures."

VETERANS' REUNION AT NEW MARKET THURSDAY

EIGHTEENTH ANNUAL MEETING TO BE HELD IN NELSON'S HOTEL.

The eighteenth annual reunion of the 28th Regiment of New Jersey Volunteers, will be held at Nelson Hotel, New Market, on Thursday. It is expected that the meeting will be largely attended by residents of this city and the borough. There are a number of members of the Association in this city and there are several delegates invited from this vicinity. Forman J. Reynolds, the president of the Association, has issued orders for the reunion, and each member of the organization is urged to be present.

The reunion will be marked by the usual transaction of routine business and the election of officers for the coming year. There will be the usual speeches by members of the Association. Henry Drake will have charge of the ceremonies.

On Notification Committee.

Major Nelson Y. Dungan, of Somerville, and John L. Crowell, of Rahway, have been appointed members of the committee which will notify Charles S. Black of his nomination for Governor on the Democratic ticket.

AMUSEMENTS.

The opening of the Manhattan Theatre, New York, for the season last Wednesday night, was a brilliant event, attended by an overflowing and distinguished audience in a driving storm. The occasion was the revival by Mrs. Fiske and the Manhattan Company of Langdon Mitchell's fine comedy from "Vanity Fair," and the event eclipsed the original presentation of this play by Mrs. Fiske at the Fifth Avenue Theatre five years ago in the pleasure that it afforded and the approval it invoked. After an interval of few striking and many indifferent plays, it is a delight to witness this sterling abstract from a universally—appreciated original, and to see such an actress as Mrs. Fiske in a role that so admirably fits her great talent, supported by a great company whose principals bring out the associative characters with striking fidelity. Mrs. Fiske undoubtedly is better fitted than any actress of her time to impersonate the wicked but fascinating Becky, who in her hands embodies one of the most enjoyable stage creations of the period. George Arliss, who has already distinguished himself in other roles, is playing his first season with Mrs. Fiske, and his interpretation of Lord Steyne surpasses any dramatic idea of this character before made kown. Its run is limited, owing to other plans outlined for Mrs. Fiske and the Manhattan Company.

For Allentown Fair.

The Allentown Fair is by all odds one of the most unique exhibitions of the country. Its attendance is simply enormous, and you ask why? Everything is complete to the minutest detail. The entertainments are exceptionally fine. The live stock show has no equal. The fruit and vegetable exhibits are among the finest procurable, and with the genuine good time always found at Allentown, there is no reason why the fair should not be popular. On September 22 the New Jersey Central will sell tickets at $1.50 to Allentown and special train will leave Plainfield at 7:33 a. m. 9 16 5

HOME ENDORSEMENT.

Hundreds of Plainfield Citizens Can Tell You All About It.

Home endorsement, the public expression of Plainfield people, should be evidence beyond dispute for every Plainfield reader. Surely the experience of friends and neighbors, cheerfully given by them, will carry more weight than the utterances of strangers residing in far-away places. Read the following:

George S. McGinnis, of No. 212 Somerset street, foreman of R. H. McCullough's Sash and Door Manufacturing Company, says: "I never was sick a day in my life until a pain struck me across my back and a lameness over the kidneys. I did not pay much attention to it at first, thinking it would soon pass away, but instead of this it grew worse. I saw Doan's Kidney Pills so highly recommended by those who had used them for such troubles that I went to L. W. Randolph's drug store and got a box. I used them according to instructions and felt somewhat relieved. Continuing the treatment by the time I had finished the third box the pain in my back and lameness disappeared."

KNIGHTS TEMPLARS IN WRECK.

Six of Them Badly Hurt by Collision at Junction City, Kan.

JUNCTION CITY, Kan., Sept. 20.—Knights Templars suffered when the Pullman section of the eastbound Atlantic express on the Union Pacific was wrecked by the spreading of the rails while the train was running at high speed. Three Pullman cars left the track and one at the rear of the train rolled off an embankment, turning over three times. There were thirty-two persons in this car. Six of them were severely injured, and the rest suffered painful injuries.

The last two cars of the train were occupied by the St. John's commandery Knights Templars No. 1 and Calvary commandery Knights Templars No. 13, both of Providence, R. I. The members and their wives were returning home from the San Francisco conclave.

BATH IRON WORKS SOLD.

Bid In by Reorganization Committee of Shipbuilding Trust.

BATH, Me., Sept. 20.—The Bath Iron works and the Hyde Windlass works, the local property of the United States Shipbuilding company, were sold here by order of a decree entered in the United States district court for New Jersey June 30 last.

The property was secured for the reorganization committee, represented by Francis D. Pollok, whose bids were the only ones made. The plants were sold separately.

For the Hyde Windlass works Mr. Pollok's bids were $125,000 for the real property and $100,000 for the personal property. For the Bath Iron works the bids were for the real property $300,000 and for the personal property $40,000.

The sale was conducted by Receiver James Smith, Jr.

WOMAN AND CHILD SLAIN.

Bodies Found Burned—Authorities Think Fire Covered Crime.

TOWANDA, Pa., Sept. 20.—News reached here from Macedonia, three miles from this place, that Mrs. Bigler Johnson and her ten-year-old niece, Annie Benjamin, were found burned to a crisp after a fire which destroyed their home. The bodies were found in a corner of what had been the bedroom and near them lay the remains of a small oil can.

Leading from the doorstep for a distance of a hundred feet a trail of blood was found. The authorities suspect that murder has been committed and are making an investigation.

Canadian Troops Off to St. Louis.

DETROIT, Mich., Sept. 20.—Gay in their red coats and white helmets, the Twenty-first Essex fusileers left this city over the Michigan Central railroad for Chicago, where they will take the Illinois Central railroad for St. Louis. The Canadian troops presented a gay sight as they marched fully armed through the business section of the city from the Windsor ferry dock to the Michigan Central station. As the steamer Pleasure crossed the river from Windsor with the soldiers a salute was fired in their honor by the United States steamer Michigan, which was anchored in the stream. The fusileers were about 2,500 strong.

Alleged Embezzler Arrested.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20.—The state department has secured the provisional arrest in Panama of Herman Haas, accused of embezzling from the International Corn Exchange bank of Chicago, and it expects to secure his extradition, although there is now no extradition treaty between the two countries. Such a treaty was drafted and has been ratified by the Panama government, but the United States senate has not yet passed upon it. If therefore Panama surrenders Haas to the Chicago officers it will be as an act of comity.

Alleged Embezzler Will Plead Guilty

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Sept. 20.—Douglas M. Smith, formerly paying teller of the National Tradesmen's bank of this city will be arraigned in the United States district court on the charge of embezzlement of $6,000 from the bank. His attorney, George M. Gunn of Milford stated that his client would plead guilty to the charge and that Judge Platt would be asked to impose the minimum sentence, which is five years' imprisonment.

DEMOCRATS CONVENE

New York State Ticket Makers Meet In Saratoga.

W. B. HORNBLOWER IN THE CHAIR

Edward M. Shepard of Brooklyn Seems to Be the Leading Candidate For the Nomination For Governor.

SARATOGA, N. Y., Sept. 20.—The Democratic state convention was called to order at noon by Chairman Cord Meyer of the state committee. Following the roll call William B. Hornblower of New York city was introduced as temporary chairman.

Mr. Hornblower's address on taking the chair was devoted almost wholly to national issues and urged the delegates to sink all factional disputes in the nomination of a state ticket which would add strength to the national ticket.

Mr. Hornblower reviewed at length the political history of the United States during the last thirty years, combatting the assertions of the Republican party that the protective tariff was responsible for the country's prosperity and denying that the Wilson tariff had caused the panic of 1893. He eulogized Grover Cleveland. Turning to the issues of the present campaign, Mr. Hornblower attacked the president's action in the Panama canal and service pension matters as unconstitutional and declared that the Democratic party would promise the Filipinos complete independence at the earliest possible moment.

In conferences preceding the opening of the convention it was decided that Professor Duncan Campbell Lee of Ithaca should be permanent chairman of the convention and George Raines of Rochester chairman of the committee on resolutions.

The gubernatorial situation was still unsettled when the convention met, and it was thought probable that no final determination would be reached until close upon the beginning of the second day's session, if indeed the adherents of the several leading candidates should not find it necessary even then to try out the strength of their favorite or more ballots upon the floor of the convention. It is the general impression, however, that agreements will be reached and the question of the nomination for the governorship settled in conference so that only one name shall be presented to the convention and the nomination be unanimously made on the first ballot.

There is no diminution in the undercurrent of feeling which has been evident since the delegates began to gather that unless some compromise becomes necessary the convention will result in the nomination of Edward M. Shepard of Brooklyn. The belief is prevalent that Mr. Shepard has the support of the national leaders, and this belief gives strength to the Shepard movement, although no one in authority will admit that other than state considerations will influence the action of the convention. Those who hold to Mr. Shepard's nomination think that final conferences will eliminate all other candidates. There is this to be considered, that all factions in the state organization are in harmony with Judge Parker and would follow his wishes should he indicate them. But there was no indication of the receipt of any such intimation. William F. Sheehan, who saw Judge Parker at Esopus, said that he was not the bearer of any message from the presidential candidate.

Nominated For Congress.

MINEOLA, N. Y., Sept. 20.—Assemblyman William W. Cocks of Nassau county was nominated by the Republican convention of the First congressional district for congress. He was nominated on the fifth ballot, receiving 16 votes to 9 for former Senator William McKinney of Suffolk and 3 for Dr. George A. Robertson of Suffolk.

Fairbanks In Delaware.

WILMINGTON, Del., Sept. 20.—Senator Fairbanks, vice presidential candidate, addressed two mass meetings in this state, the first at Dover and the other in this city.

Widow Shot Dead by Her Son.

BRISTOL, Va., Sept. 20.—Mrs. Minerva Greear, a widow fifty years of age, was shot to death by one of her sons at her home near Fort Blackman, Scott county, Va. Each of her two sons, Robert and Grover, declare that the other fired the shot which ended the woman's life. It is said the boys were drinking in a room adjoining that occupied by their mother and firing their pistols when she entered and asked them to stop. One turned his pistol on his mother and sent a ball into her heart, causing death instantly. An investigation is in progress.

Passed Two Deserted Schooners.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Sept. 20.—Captain Wyman of the schooner Louis G. Rabel, which arrived from Baltimore, reports that on Sept. 15 he passed the schooner James B. Jordan waterlogged and the deckload floating from the vessel. The crew could not be found. On the same date he passed the schooner Emily F. Northam waterlogged and on fire. The crew had deserted her. Captain Wyman reports a rough voyage from Baltimore.

Accused of Trying to Hang Son.

MUNCIE, Ind., Sept. 20.—On complaint of neighbors William S. Leonard of Wheeling, a village north of here, has been arrested and charged with attempting to hang his thirteen-year-old son. Leonard says he is innocent of the charges.

JAPS ADVANCING.

Their Front Covers a Line Twenty-seven Miles Long.

RUSSIAN ARMY IS RECUPERATING

Troops In Good Spirits, Awaiting Enemy's Attack—New Manchurian Force to Be Raised—To Be Commanded by General Linevitch.

BERLIN, Sept. 20.—Colonel Gaedke, the correspondent of the Tageblatt in the far east, telegraphs from Mukden under date of Sept. 19 as follows:

"The Japanese are advancing slowly with a broad front, the left resting on the Liao river and the right on the mountains, probably the Fushan coal mines, twenty-seven miles eastward. The Russian troops have recovered their spirits.

"Chinese officials are suspected of secretly aiding the Japanese."

NEW RUSSIAN ARMY.

General Linevitch Will Command It Under Kuropatkin.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 20.—On the advice of his military advisers, Emperor Nicholas has decided to form a second Manchurian army. It will be formed of the corps which are being sent to the far east, and Lieutenant General Linevitch probably will be given the command of the second army. General Kuropatkin will become chief of both armies, but probably without the title of commander in chief. It is this impending reorganization which seems to have led to the countless rumors and reports afloat here of Kuropatkin's supersession, of Viceroy Alexieff as commander in chief of the army, the latter's resignation, etc., but investigations indicate that the above is the real situation. Alexeieff will continue to be viceroy, and as such he could not be subordinated in title to the commanding general, which would happen if Kuropatkin was given the title of commander in chief. Nevertheless Kuropatkin will virtually be in complete, untrammeled command.

As has been heretofore stated on high authority, the stories of Alexeieff's interference with Kuropatkin are entirely without foundation. On the contrary, Alexeieff has always shown the utmost appreciation of the peculiar delicacy of his position as Kuropatkin's superior, studiously avoiding even the semblance of interference with the operations of the Manchurian army.

The Internal Conditions of Russia.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 20.—Investigation of the internal conditions of Russia by a gentleman who has just returned from an extensive tour of the interior discloses a much better situation than foreigners generally believe to exist in this country. The investigator found absolutely no evidence of an impending crisis, but on the contrary found special features in the situation making for contentment of the people. The greatest of all these is a wonderful harvest throughout the empire.

Port Arthur Troops Make a Sortie.

LONDON, Sept. 20.—A dispatch from Tokyo to a news agency says: "A strong Russian force made a sortie from Port Arthur the afternoon of Sept. 18 and attacked the Itczshan fort, which was recently captured by the Japanese. The fighting lasted some hours, and the Russians eventually were repulsed with heavy loss."

Japanese Activity In Korea.

LONDON, Sept. 20.—A dispatch to a news agency from Harbin says the Japanese are displaying considerable activity in north Korea. A skirmish is reported between Japanese troops and a regiment of Cossacks at Fukchang, about twenty-seven miles northeast of Hanhuang.

All Quiet at Mukden.

MUKDEN, Sept. 20.—All is quiet here, but fighting is anticipated in the neighborhood of Sinmintin, thirty-five miles west of Mukden.

Passengers on the Baltic.

LONDON, Sept. 20.—The White Star line steamer Baltic, which sails from Liverpool for New York Sept. 21, will take among her passengers Marshall Field of Chicago, the bishop of Ripon, Dr. Carpenter; Henry Phipps, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Juilliard, Sir George Newnes and former Mayor Van Wyck of New York.

Senator Alger at Home.

NEW YORK, Sept. 20.—United States Senator R. A. Alger arrived on the steamer Minnetonka from London.

CONDENSED DISPATCHES.

Emil Thomas, the noted German comedian, died at Berlin.

A street car conductor was held up in Mount Vernon, N. Y., by five men.

At Genoa and Palermo strikers committed acts of violence. The strike at Rome ended, and the city resumed its normal condition.

The municipal council of The Hague has rejected a measure providing for using part of The Hague woods for the Carnegie palace of peace.

The wharf fire at Halifax, which started early on Sunday and was thought to be well under control, broke out afresh and did $200,000 damage.

The death of John W. Grace of the W. R. Grace & Co. corporation of New York was announced in a cable dispatch from London.

After courting for more than half a century, Jerome Hunsinger, seventy-six, and Miss Anna Lutz, seventy-one years old, both of Irish Valley, were married in Mountain Grove, Pa.

RACING AT GRAVESEND.

Beldame Makes a New Record In First Special.

NEW YORK, Sept. 20.—Beldame added another stake to her already long list by easily winning the First special, one mile and a quarter, at Gravesend. She was favorite in the betting at even money. Caughnawaga, paying 3 to 2 for the place, was second and Stalwart third. The time, 2 minutes 6 seconds, is a new record for the stake. The winners:

First Race—Lady Amelia, 13 to 10, first; Leonidas, 7 to 2, second; Gay Boy, 15 to 1, third. Time, 1 minute 9 4-5 seconds.

Second Race—Royelle, 6 to 1, first; Daffo Down Dilly, 6 to 1, second; Fox Hunter, 3 to 2, third. Time, 4 minutes 58 2-5 seconds.

Third Race—Sysonby, 1 to 3, first; Wild Mint, 1 to 3, second; Cairngorm, 5 to 1, third. Time, 1 minute 9 3-5 seconds.

Fourth Race—Beldame, even, first; Caughnawaga, 5 to 1, second; Stalwart, 3 to 1, third. Time, 2 minutes 6 seconds.

Fifth Race—Thirty-third, even, first; Dansense, 4½ to 1, second; Niblick, 4½ to 1, third. Time, 1 minute 7 2-5 seconds.

Sixth Race—Grey Friar, 8 to 5, first; Eagle, 9 to 5, second; Jane Holly, 6 to 1, third. Time, 1 minute 48 2-5 seconds.

GRAND CIRCUIT MEETING.

Patchen Maid's Victory Feature of First Day at Columbus.

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 20.—Patchen Maid's victory over Aerolite and Katherine A., in the 2:12 trotting class, was a feature of the first day of the grand circuit meeting on the Columbus track. The winner was overlooked in the betting, Aerolite being a slight favorite over Katherine A. Kirkwood, Jr., won the second heat. Time, 2:09½, 2:10¼, 2:11¼, 2:11¼.

Angus Pointer outclassed the field in the 2:24 pace, a stake, winning in straight heats. Time, 2:07¼, 2:08¼, 2:09¼.

The talent picked Bedworth, Jr., to win the 2:07 pace, a novelty event. Pauline G. took a new record in getting the first heat, but Larrie Cinter got the better of the mare in the next two heats. Time, 2:06¾, 2:07½, 2:07¼.

Cigarlighter Wins at Hawthorne.

CHICAGO, Sept. 20.—The Fall handicap, the feature at Hawthorne, was won by Cigarlighter by two lengths. One Way was second, a length in front of Bowling Bridge. Mountain, who rode One Way claimed foul against the winner, but the judges decided that One Way was not interfered with sufficiently to allow the foul and declared the result official. The stake was worth $2,040 to the winner, and seven two-year-olds went to the post for the seven furlongs' journey, which is the longest route the youngsters have been asked to go this season on the local tracks.

Haverhill's New England Pennant.

BOSTON, Sept. 20.—With the game between Fall River and New Bedford at the latter city, one of the most prosperous seasons in the history of the New England Baseball league came to a close. Haverhill won the pennant. The team played 122 games, winning 79 and losing 43, having a percentage of .648. New Bedford earned second place, with a percentage of .533, having won 65 out of 122 games. Nashua and Fall River were tied for third place, while the other teams finished the season in the following order: Manchester, Concord, Lowell and Lawrence.

Olympian Golf Championship.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 20.—St. Louis golfers captured eleven places in the thirty-six hole qualifying round of the Olympian golf championship, two former world's fair city golfers, Ralph McKittrick and Stuart Stickney of the Country club tying at 163 for the gold medal honors. Chicago players, headed by former western champion Walter E. Egan of Exmoor finished ten strong in the charmed circle of thirty-two eligible for match play in the first round.

Importing Much Graphite.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20.—The United States geological survey reports that in 1903 the United States consumed graphite valued at $1,598,589, of which only $225,554 worth was produced here.

TO COME TO CANADA

Japs Plan Great Colony In Northwest Territory.

THEIR ADVANCE AGENTS ARRIVE.

Party of Business Men Pass Through Vancouver—Expect to Supply Railroad Laborers and Farm Hands.

VANCOUVER, B. C., Sept. 20.—Japanese are planning a great farming and industrial colony in the Canadian northwest. Two days ago a party of Japanese business men arrived from Yokohama and spent some time looking around the country. Then, with Rev. Garro Caburagi, a Japanese missionary in British Columbia, they left for Edmonton to be gone a couple of months.

They propose to purchase a large tract of land and when this is done will probably apply for a further grant from the government. They will then bring several thousand persons to this coast to settle on the lands under a common colonization scheme.

One of the plans is to supply labor to the Grand Trunk Pacific and Western railway building. Another plan is to supply farm hands in Manitoba and the northwest, where labor is in demand in harvest season. The Japanese visitors have come prepared to expend large sums of money in lands and will buy enough for the purposes of the colony, independent of any grant or grants that they may expect from the government.

WRECK NEAR TOLEDO.

Twenty Persons Hurt In a Head-on Collision.

TOLEDO, Sept. 20. — Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton passenger trains Nos. 2 and 5, making their first trips over the lines of the Terminal company, ran into each other head-on near Ironville, and twenty persons were injured, none seriously.

It is claimed that the northbound engineer disregarded his schedule and did not take a siding for the southbound train to pass.

The accident occurred on a trestle, and the engines were telescoped in such a fashion that none of the cars left the track. If the cars had gone over at that point there would have been a frightful loss of life.

Socialist Congress In Bremen.

BREMEN, Sept. 20.—The annual Social-Democratic convention opened with a large attendance. The interest centered in a resolution favoring a propaganda among young men about to enter the army, for the purpose of enlightening them concerning their duties toward workingmen in case of conflict. In spite of the warm advocacy of Dr. Liebknecht the resolution was not favorably received. Herr Bebel and Herr Fischer of Berlin were not willing to allow the resolution to come before the convention and described it as useless.

To Sell Red Lake Lands.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20.—The commissioner of the general land office announced that, beginning Oct. 3 at Crookston, Minn., a public sale would be conducted of 100,000 acres of surplus lands of the Red Lake Indian reservation. Originally there were 256,000 acres of such lands, the remainder having been disposed of at a sale last June. The tracts will be sold to the highest bidder in quarter section lots, the minimum price being $4 per acre, with the requirement that the lands must be homesteaded after purchase.

To Try Florida Feudists.

M'CLENNY, Fla., Sept. 20.—The prisoners now in Jacksonville jail charged with being parties to the lawlessness at Baxter will be brought here Monday under military guard for their preliminary trial. The postoffice at Baxter, owing to the arrest of the postmaster and assistant postmaster, has been closed for the last two days. By direction of the postoffice authorities, however, the bondsmen of Postmaster Altman will put some one in charge during the postmaster's incarceration.

Iroquois Theater Reopened.

CHICAGO, Sept. 20.—The Iroquois theater, in which nearly 600 persons were burned and smothered to death on Dec. 30, 1903, was reopened last night as a vaudeville playhouse. The theater has been refitted at a cost of nearly $100,000 and constructed so as to meet every requirement of the law.

Arab Soldiers Pillage Korea.

SALONIKA, Sept. 20.—On the morning of Sept. 17 300 Arab soldiers pillaged the port of Salonika and the bazaar. Strong patrols are now guarding the streets. Sherik Pasha is surrounded at Prisrend, and Suleiman Pasha, with sixteen battalions, is proceeding to his relief.

Polygamists Murdered Missionaries.

BERLIN, Sept. 20.—Information has reached here that the recent murder of ten missionaries in German New Guinea was due to attempts to enforce monogamy. The prisons had been filled with polygamists apprehended upon information supplied by the missionaries.

The Lewis and Clark Exposition.

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 20.—The Lewis and Clark exposition is to have an "inside inn" similar to the one in operation at present at the St. Louis world's fair. It is assured Portland will have adequate accommodations for all visitors that attend the exposition.

Plainfield, N. J., Sept. 20, 1904.

By the way, where is Mr. Cleveland's "testimonial" of C. C. Black?

It was a bitter pill for Plainfield to swallow, but she has no excuses to offer. Somerville is booked to cross bats here again next month and all we can hope is that there will be another tale to tell.

The Democrats will have to do some hard work to drive through the heads of many voters just what equal taxation means. The average man seems to understand it just about as much as he does the money question.

Platt shoved Roosevelt on the ticket for vice president four years ago to get rid of him, but Roosevelt is a great deal bigger today than he ever was. Now Roosevelt's friend Odell has slapped Platt by succeeding in nominating Higgins for governor. What card will Platt play now?

Although the official results have not been announced, it is quite certain that Company K will retain the regimental trophy. The local military organization is only three years old and this will be the second year that it has captured the regimental prize for the best work at Sea Girt.

It is quite safe to assert that not one in a dozen Republican orators who are poking fun at "Uncle" Henry Gassaway Davis' age is strong enough to undertake the gastronomic feats which he relishes. Here's what he ate for breakfast the other morning: Melon, oatmeal, bluefish, beefsteak, bacon and eggs, and some "fixings."

TENNIS CLUB ELECTION.

Bronx Club Chooses Howard Craig President for the Ensuing Term.

The Bronx Tennis Club held a meeting Friday evening for the purpose of reorganization, and the execution of routine business. The meeting was an annual affair, and was presided over by the president of the club, Will Morgan. Mr. Morgan will shortly leave for Ithica, and in his place, Howard Craig was elected as president. Monroe Long was elected vice president, and Chester Briggs was chosen secretary and treasurer.

Plans for a club tournament were discussed, though no definite decision was reached, and Theodore Gavett and Charles Boice were admitted to membership in the club.

—Eugene O'Reilly's dancing class will meet in I. O. T. Hall this evening.

BRIGGS WINS FIRST ROUND IN TOURNAMENT

WHITTIER SCHOOL BOYS START ANNUAL TENNIS CONTEST.

The annual tennis tournament of the pupils of the Whittier School was begun on the courts of the Bronx Tennis Club, on Albert street, yesterday. There are sixteen entries in all, and the first three matches were played off yesterday. The committee in charge of the affair consisted of William Briggs and Fred Martin. Briggs was the winner of the tournament last year, and is looked for to put up a good showing in this year's contest. The sets yesterday afternoon were for the most part uninteresting, and easily won. In the first round Fred Martin defeated S. Hubbard, 6-0, 6-1; and Roy Woodunli defeated R. McIntyre, 6-0, 6-1. The third set was between the winner of last year's match and Tom Day, son of T. M. Day, Jr., of Hillside, in which Briggs won by the score of 6-3, 6-3. The second round will take place tomorrow on the same courts.

CHOSE DIRECTORS.

High School Athletic Association Held Its Annual Fall Meeting This Morning.

The annual fall meeting of the Plainfield High School Athletic Association was held at the close of the chapel exercises this morning. The meeting was called to order by Howard Craig, the vice president. The object of the meeting was the election of a board of directors to serve for the coming year.

No revisions or amendments were introduced into the constitution, and the meeting was immediately opened for nominations. The following members of the association were nominated: Howard Craig, Harry Thompson, Paul Collier, William Douglass, Phillip Smith, Chester Briggs and Dudley Strong. The five members who will serve on the board were chosen as follows: Howard Craig 98, Harry Thompson 93, Phillip Smith 84, Chester Briggs 83, William Douglass 75.

The new board will meet with the faculty director, Mr. Best, in the near future, and will elect their own officers, president, vice president and secretary and treasurer.

SUBURBAN NEWS.

DUNELLEN AND VICINITY.

The Newark News on Sunday published this sketch of Mayor Wyckoff: "William Wyckoff, former brakeman on the Central Railroad of New Jersey, is now ending a first term as Mayor of Dunellen, and might not object to accepting a nomination for Assemblyman. His is the first administration to clear off all indebtedness in the municipality and leave a surplus instead. Mr. Wyckoff was elected Mayor last year. Previous to accepting the nomination he insisted on having on the ticket only men who could be relied upon to perform their duties in a business-like manner. The borough executive was elected on the Democratic ticket, but the councilmen were evenly divided as to party. He urged harmony and, aided by both sides, he has placed the municipality on a strong financial basis. Improvements of many kinds have been made since Mayor Wyckoff took hold, and the chances are that his system will be followed out. He is a director in the Dunellen Building and Loan Association and is also a member of a number of fraternal societies. He still belongs to the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen and is one of the organizers of Defender Hose Company, the first fire organization in Dunellen. By his personal efforts and progress he has attracted so much attention in Middlesex County that there is talk of him as possible legislative candidate."

NO COLORED MAN ON REP. STATE COMMITTEE

JESSE LAWSON'S ANGER AROUSED OVER TURNDOWN GIVEN NEGROES.

The question of the final disposition of the matter of the negro representative on the Republican State Committee was brought before that body at a meeting in Trenton last night and was settled by the committee naming three auxiliary committeemen. Charles N. Robinson, of Camden, was deposed from regular membership on the committee. Robinson has been a member of the committee since 1892, when he was elected on a resolution presented to the convention by Jesse Lawson, of this city, who is employed at the pension office in Washington.

The Rev. I. W. L. Roundtree, of Newark, a leading colored politician of the State, and Mr. Lawson, both Robinson men, were there last night. The action of the committee roused their ire and they left for home in high dudgeon on the 11 o'clock trolley.

Before leaving Mr. Roundtree expressed his opinion of the action in the most emphatic language. He said: "The committee didn't do at all right by the colored people. It was a step backward, that's sure. We have 21,475 colored voters in New Jersey, and we help the Republican party to victory. That means we are entitled to decent treatment by the State committee, but tonight we did not get it.

"Auxiliary member," he said in contemptuous tones. "Why, if I was Robinson I wouldn't accept any such come down as that. It is a disgrace."

Roundtree was mad, that was plain, and Jesse Lawson was not in much better mood, and the spirit with which they left will bode no good for the Republican ticket election day.

This matter has been pending before the committee since the meeting of August 2, when the colored Republican club of Newark endeavored to get A. B. Cosey, of Newark, elected in Robinson's place. The matter was referred to the executive committee, but that sub-committee failed to settle it.

Birthday Party.

In honor of the sixth anniversary of his birthday, Roy Leland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Leland, of West Second street, entertained a number of his young friends Saturday afternoon. The time was spent in playing gemes, after which supper was served to the young folks. The young celebrant received many gifts from the guests.

—For canning purposes Neuman Brothers have some very fine Bartlett pears and fancy Vermont crabapples. New consignments received every day and lots to select from.

SHOUTS FOR REFORM

CAMPAIGN CURBSTONE ORATOR ALREADY AT WORK.

He Is a Man with a Grievance and an Elaborate Plan to Right All the Wrongs of the Human Family.

Chicago Special.

The curbstone orator has beaten the national committees to it. While the great party managers are only outlining their plans to carry the fight to the ears and eyes of the voters, he is exhorting at the street corner in the interest of a minor party. He is earlier than usual this year, but he already has found his campaign voice and convincing gestures, and his arguments are fully matured.

He is confining his efforts to the outlying business districts, but it will not be long before his oratory will flow from the downtown corners.

There is no one to introduce him at the street corner. He simply takes off his hat, casts dignified glances about him, runs his fingers slowly through his hair, and accosts the first man that comes along. The Chicago Journal thus describes his way:

"My friend," he begins, his hand upon the man's shoulder, "have you given the momentous questions that confront our country any thought?

"Are you going to vote for them thieves and cutthroats that's been holding us down all these years? Are you going to murder your wife and children? Are you going to wear the shackles any longer?" His voice strengthens, and another pedestrian stops to listen. "And you, my friend," continues the orator, addressing the newcomer, "are you satisfied with this era of common misery, this age of slavery?"

"I've got a good job," smiles the newcomer.

"And you are satisfied!" says the orator, with a sickly smile. "Satisfied to have a job! Would you not be better satisfied to own your own business—to be your own master, and not the white slave that you are?"

His voice is pitched high now, and in a few minutes there are a dozen

AS SEEN IN CHICAGO.
(The Street Corner Orator and a Few of His "Audience.")

men around him. He is in his glory.

"Why should we not share the fortunes that nature intended we should share?" shouts the orator, his trembling hand high above his head and his eyes gleaming fiercely. "Why, I ask—why, why, why?"

"Why don't you get a hair cut?" yells a small boy on the outskirts.

The orator disdains to take notice of the remark, which causes a general ripple of laughter.

"Take our commerce, for instance," he resumes, after a dignified silence. "Why does it suffer as it is suffering?"

"Why, of course, it's growing right along," says the argumentative listener. "The whole world has to come to our shop now."

"Is it not so," goes on the orator, pointing his trembling finger at the one who had just spoken, "that in 1897 our exports fell $13,687,974 under—under what they should have been?" Then he rises to his full height in triumph. "Don't take my word for it, my fellow voters, but go to the government's statistics and be convinced.

"Why should we stir ourselves up so over the money standard and the tariff? Why should we worry about the isthmian canal, which will be controlled by the shipbuilding trust? The trusts must be crushed!"

The orator is now wrought to the highest pitch of his earnestness. He points his finger at a newsboy and shouts: "And you, Mr. Voter, you who have a wife and—"

This is too much for the crowd, and a roar of laughter drowns the rest of his sentence.

"Chase home to your wife and kids," yells a young man to the newsboy.

"Aw, his trolley's clean off," snears the "newsy."

"It is not a laughing matter," says the orator in a calm voice. "It is a matter of greatest importance—

"I say, what shall become of our families, our institutions, our very existence if we are to allow them gold-grabbers, them hungry hounds in Wall street to go on forever and forever! Thank goodness, we still have free speech, and—"

Just then a policeman starts to open a passage on the sidewalk, and this causes many of the listeners to go on their way. A small boy throws a wad of paper at the speaker, and the policeman witnesses the act and starts after the offender. The excitement resulting from the short chase breaks up the "meeting," and the orator, with greater dignity than ever before, puts on his hat and saunters down the street.

Peculiar Japanese Delicacy.

The Japanese consider salted whale meat a great delicacy.

THE LENA INCIDENT.

Admiral Goodrich Grants Crew Freedom of San Francisco.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20.—Admiral Goodrich, commanding the Pacific station, has telegraphed the navy department that he has forwarded by mail a full report of the agreement he entered into with Captain Berlinsky of the Russian vessel Lena for the parole of the officers and crew of that ship.

This provides for their freedom of the city of San Francisco, but they may not go beyond the bounds of the city during the continuance of the present war, and under no conditions can they be permitted to return to Russia except upon the conclusion of an agreement on that point between the governments of Russia and Japan which would relieve the United States of any responsibility.

Work of Dismantling Lena Begun.

VALLEJO, Cal., Sept. 20.—The work of dismantling the Lena commenced at the Mare Island navy yard under the direction of Gunner Shuttleworth. It will be finished this evening, a big gang of men being employed.

GEORGIANS EXCITED.

They Hear That Negroes Have Organized a Murder Club.

AUGUSTA, Ga., Sept. 20.—A special to the Chronicle from Talbotton, Ga. says:

"A great deal of excitement prevails in the eastern part of Talbotton county, near Poplar, Ga. It was reported on Saturday night that a club had been formed among several negroes to kill T. A. Kimbrough, a prominent citizen living near Poplar. Several of his friends went over and remained there until Sunday.

"The following negroes have been arrested and are now in Talbotton jail charged with being members of the club: Joe Wimberly, James Wimberly, Miles Monk, Arthur Crouch and a negro woman named Josie Stinson. The case will come up at Talbotton today before Judge Raines. It is reported that the lives of several prominent citizens near Poplar and Max Ga., have been threatened by the negroes."

Federal Agents Look Into Lynching.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Sept. 20.—A special from Huntsville says an apparently well founded report is in circulation there to the effect that six secret service men in the employ of the federal government have been directed to make an extensive investigation of the lynching of Horace Maples and the attack on the jail in which federal prisoners are confined. The result of the investigation, it is said, will be reported to the federal grand jury, which meets next month.

Girl Patricides Confess.

HOUSTON, Tex., Sept. 20.—Two daughters of S. C. Stuart, a prominent farmer of Falls county, who was found dead in bed with his head almost severed from his body, have confessed to the crime. They are thirteen and sixteen years old respectively. They declare their father threatened to exterminate the entire family of four girls.

Agius Bids Pius Farewell.

ROME, Sept. 20.—Pope Pius received in farewell audience Archbishop Agius, the newly appointed apostolic delegate to the Philippine Islands. The archbishop will go hence to England and on Nov. 10 will sail for the United States on board the Atlantic Transport line steamer Minnetonka.

MONKEY HAS A LIVELY DAY

After Causing Fire Alarm in New York He Is Arrested and Then Pays His Own Fine.

A tow-headed, distorted-limbed, garrulous monkey owned by Guiseppi Degitio, not only caused a section of the New York fire department to rush pell mell through the streets, scared a French maid and a Swedish ditto into fits and roused the volcanic ire of an Irish policeman, but then had himself and his owner arrested on a charge of disorderly conduct.

To cap the climax of Jocko's glory, he produced the money required to make up the two dollars fine imposed on his owner in the West side police court.

It was this way. Jocko, pursuing the fleesome penny, scaled the walls of a house at Riverside drive and One Hundred and Eighth street, upsetting rubber plants and other alleged floral delicacies, one of which descended on the dome of thought of Thomas K. Lynch, a policeman. Mr. Lynch was annoyed. He said so in picturesque language, and after failing to capture the monkey, which scared occupants of the house, the policeman summoned a hook and ladder, which got the festive simian.

The magistrate fined the music manufacturer two dollars. Giuseppi excavated through his pockets and got $1.99. In despair he said something to the monkey, who solemnly produced one cent from his little pocket. Then the two walked out.

SWALLOWED HER HAIR.

A Connecticut Damsel Has an Exciting Time with a Gander.

Nineteen-year-old Rachel Hastings, of South Prospect, came to Waterbury, Conn., with her father and a load of berries and a fine gander imprisoned in a slatted crate tied on to the back of their light wagon.

On the way to town they encountered some boys engaged in killing a blacksnake six feet two inches long. The snake died hard and Farmer Hastings, Miss Rachel and Dobbin all got excited.

Possibly the gander too shared in the excitement, for after it was all over and Farmer Hastings had descended from the wagon at Saxe's greenhouse and Miss Rachel was leaning back in the wagon seat, recovering from the experience, the gander seems to have mistaken her long tress of hair for the defunct snake. Suddenly he thrust his long neck from the crate and, seizing the braid, began to swallow Miss Rachel's back hair with a gurgle of satisfaction.

GANDER SEIZED RACHEL'S BRAID.

The girl screamed in fright; Dobbin leaped in terror, turned and ran; the wagon upset, and the young woman was thrown out down an embankment. No serious damage was done. Miss Rachel's braid is still intact and the gander is reported to be doing as well as could be expected.

Doggie's Sympathy Rejected.

A little girl in Iola, Kan., was ill of the measles. Her dog was in great distress because he could not go to her, and one day he was admitted to the bedchamber. Putting his forefeet on the bed, he madly wagged his tail and beamed gladness from every feature. Looking at him a moment, the little girl said, angrily: "Oh, you needn't grin; your turn will come next."

Woman Gravedigger Dead.

England's only female gravedigger, Mrs. Elizabeth Geese, died recently at Lewes, at the age of 76. On the death of her husband, in 1879, she was appointed to fill his place as gravedigger in the Lewes cemetery, and since then performed the duties.

Women Gossips

The "Ripper Brigade" and Its Baleful Work

"THE Lord deliver me from women who gossip," sighed the bachelor wearily. "There goes the 'ripper brigade,'" he added as the local embroidery circle settled itself on a nearby piazza.

"What do you know about gossips?" asked the spinster.

"Umph! What do I know? Why, my dear young woman, wasn't I the only elegible and good looking bachelor (though I say it that shouldn't) at a summer resort hotel last season, and don't I know to my cost that no presidential candidate ever was subjected to more relentless espionage or more caustic criticism? There were half a dozen young women in the place, and, by Jove, if I spoke to one more than to the other it was the main subject of conversation all that day. They had me married and unmarried a dozen times that season, and finally the whole place nearly cut me dead because I chose to depart without having proposed to any of the matrimonial candidates they had forced upon me. To do the girls justice they didn't have anything to do with that part of it. It was a hatched up plot on the part of the idle old women who sat forever ripping and putting in embroidery stitches on the piazza."

"Well," put in the spinster, "as to gossip itself there are many reasons why it is indulged in. First and foremost, it is the chief conversation of those whose minds are so empty or of those who are so stupid or poorly educated that they can't talk of anything except personalities. It stands to reason that when a woman is neither interested in politics, current events or literature she must talk about something, and then the doings of her neighbors assume an importance they wouldn't have otherwise. And then there's the cruel gossip of envy by people who are left out of an entertainment or a good time, and who proceed to get even by saying nasty things. It isn't always a case of voluntarily 'getting even;' sometimes it is unconsciously done. They simply talk because, unbeknown to themselves, they are suffering from a nice little attack of the green eyed monster. The Lord save me from another species of the genus gossip—the fond and doting mother who contrasts every other girl with her beloved offspring."

"What I want to know is this," said the bachelor. "Are women wantonly cruel or don't they realize the pain they cause and the tremendous after effects of even the slightest bit of gossip? For instance, at a dance I attended a very pretty girl, a stranger, made the hit of the evening and threw in the shade even the daughters of the hostess. The women watched her with glowering looks as she danced on all unconscious of their enmity, but they couldn't do anything. Suddenly their opportunity arrived. In the last dance the girl held up the folds of her heavy train too high, and about two inches of pretty stocking were to be seen. Immediately the most fearful gossip began. She had done it expressly! It was by bold maneuvers such as this that she attracted the attention of men. The next morning she sat alone on the piazza and tried to read a book, but she felt most uncomfortably that she was being watched and talked about. By noon every one in the place heard about it; by evening lorgnettes were being leveled at her. She herself never guessed a word of the truth until that time when a blunt and well meaning person told her the whole thing. She was so shocked that she spent the entire night crying her eyes out, and she packed her things and left the following morning. So much for woman's charity to woman."

"And men never gossip. No?" remarked the spinster softly.

"Of course not. They wouldn't be bothered—oh, by Jove! Say, Miss Singleone, do look! There goes old Jack Fourflush! He's the funniest chap belongs to our poker club, and the fellows say that he"—

But the spinster was listening with a rather sarcastic smile on her lips.

MAUD ROBINSON.

SICK MAN SENDS HIS MONEY TO JOHN'S LAUNDRY.

Treasure Recovered by a Devoted Friend—Chink May Be Wily, But in This Case He Surely Lacked Initiative.

Templeton is an unpretentious clerk in a downtown Chicago store. In Dearborn avenue, north of Superior street, he has an ordinarily small, gloomy, chilly back room to which he goes when he has to. Likewise he leaves it as soon as he can and on the least provocation. Necessarily he moved at once last week when it was decided that he must be operated upon for appendicitis.

The north side hospital room was a revelation to him—so light, and airy, and clean, and at the same time warm—that the suffering from the disease and from the operation made it all seem like a rest cure from a mere brain fag.

The boys were exceptionally solicitous—as were some of their sisters—and at all times there were dainties or flowers at the side of his bed. Ross, a chum who lived only four squares from the hospital, was in every evening, and sometimes in the morning before starting downtown. On one of these mornings near the last of the week Ross called and found that Templeton had some laundry work which he wished left at the Chinese laundry under a store front in Clark street. Ross made it up into a bundle, covering the smaller articles with a big white night shirt, into which he rolled and tied them with the sleeves in true Chinese fashion.

"I'll throw them down to John as I go by the place," said Ross, tying a final knot in the string around the newspaper wrapper.

But, as a matter of fact, says the Chicago Tribune, Ross did not give to the bundle the airy, fairy toss that he may have had in mind at the hospital. The fact was both front doors were shut, and at the foot of the flight of steps were about five inches of water accumulated from a choked gutter. Ross walked down carefully and knocked, when, after a moment, Jonn, with a heavy face and vacant stare, swashed one of the doors open and took the bundle, without a word or gesture.

TEN DOLLARS IN THE WASH.

Ross was busy enough about 11 o'clock that morning when a call came from the telephone, announcing that Templeton wanted to talk with him. The talk was by proxy, however.

"Mr. Temple wishes you would hurry over to that Chinese place and get the bundle you left there this morning," called the voice of Templeton's nurse. "He forgot when he gave the things to you, and there's a $10 bill in the pocket of the night shirt. Won't you please hurry over after it?"

Ross had to tell her that he would, but he had some difficulty in getting started owing to the red tape of the office needed in getting out nearly an hour ahead of time. When he got to the shop, however, there were the same closed doors, the same silence within, an increase of two inches in the depth of water outside, and an increasing noise in the sloshing door as it swung again in response to Ross' rattling of the latch.

"Let me look at Mr. Templeton's bundle I left this morning," said Ross, keeping an even tone.

"Mis' Tem'pum'n's bun'—hey?" queried the celestial, with a face that was as obscure as a moon in eclipse.

John stepped into deeper water behind the counter and, looking over a row of shelves overhead, reached up and pulled down the identical bundle to which Ross had applied paper and string five hours before. But Ross was suspicious and he thought he saw evidences of an untying of his old knot as he looked.

The Chinese had only the stupidest of bored, sodden, unreadable faces as Ross glanced up at him and went for the knot. Carefully he unrolled the shirt until the pocket was under his hand, when with a nervous movement he reached into it and brought out the $10 bill with an ease that a prestidigitator might envy on any stage!

"And to tell that story anywhere," insists Ross, "always brings out the most unsympathetic comments I ever heard."

"They ought to have been glad to know that Templeton got his money back," is the usual remark in return for this.

At which Ross glares back:

"You're another! I wouldn't look at the change that came over that Chinaman's face again for two ten dollar bills."

GET SIGNAL CODES MIXED.

Mistakes Made by Inexperienced Yachtsmen When Communicating with Flags.

Each yacht club has its own code of signals. They are used at regattas and during the cruises chiefly. Sometimes when used on other occasions funny mistakes arise, says the New York Sun.

Some time ago the fleet of the Larchmont Yacht club was cruising to New London and the schooner Fleetwing managed to get ashore on a shoal spot. The steamer Barracouta hove in sight, and its owner, thinking he might help the Fleetwing by taking a line and trying to pull her off, hoisted two flags, which, according to the Larchmont code, meant: "Can I be of assistance?"

Those on the stranded schooner looked at the signals, read them, and turned to the code book to see what they meant. The owner of the Barracouta, who had so kindly offered his help, was watching for an answer, and he was surprised to see Mr. De La Mar, who owned the Fleetwing, suddenly slam the code book on the deck, and pace up and down in an excited manner.

Wondering what could have made him so angry, those of the Barracouta looked to see if the signal had been correctly made. The Larchmont code had been used, and it was found to be correct, but somebody suggested that perhaps those on the Fleetwing had taken the International code. The letters, according to the International code, meant "Good holding ground," and the anger of Mr. De La Mar was easily explained.

When the yachts are cruising in squadron it is customary when the owner of a vessel wishes to leave the fleet to ask permission of the commodore, and the fleet captain, who has charge of the signaling, answers the request. On one of the cruises there was a fleet captain who was very careful that all signals should be couched in the most polite language, and he did not like the abruptness of the signal code.

The signal asking for leave of absence at that time was the letter F. This was set on a small sloop, and two answers could have been made to it at that time. The letter C, which meant "Yes," or the letter J, which means "Leave of absence is granted," could have been hoisted, but that fleet captain, wishing to be more formal, set the letters C. J together, figuring that they would mean: "Yes, leave of absence is granted."

C J, according to the code, meant: "Am in distress and need assistance," and as soon as it was set all the yachts in the fleet launched their small boats and pulled over to the flagship to find out what was the matter, and the fleet captain was kept busy ordering up cold bottles.

The Larchmont Yacht club in its code has a signal which means "Come on board and have a drink." It was set once. That was when the late Caldwell H. Colt was commodore, and the flagship, the famous old schooner Dauntless, was not large enough to hold the crowd that put out from shore and from other yachts near by.

Not long ago a yachtsman was starting on a trip across the ocean in one of the big liners, and a friend of his went down the bay in his yacht to give him a good send-off. When near the Hook the yacht set the letters F Z, which, according to the New York Yacht club code, mean: "I wish you a pleasant voyage."

The yachtsman on the steamer did not have a club book with him, and he asked one of the officers to read the signal for him. The letters were easily made out, and the officer naturally thought that the international code had been used. In that code the signal meant: "Heavy weather coming, look sharp." It was hardly a pleasant send-off to give one just starting across the Atlantic.

DARKY AND THE "DOUGH."

Had a Pile of Money Coming But Three Dollars Was All He Wanted.

"There was a darky living in Eufala," says Representative Clayton, of Alabama, according to the New York Herald, "who was so fortunate as to net the sum of $4,000 by reason of the sale of some property that had been left him. Payment was made by certified check, which the Eufala man immediately presented at the local bank, saying that he would like to 'have de cash.'

"The teller suggested that the wiser plan would be to deposit the check and he added that the bank would pay three per cent. thereon, but the darky was obstinate and demanded the cash.

"Without further argument the teller asked the colored man how he would have it, remarking at the same time that as the amount was a large one he supposed the darky would like it in fifties or in hundreds.

"'Deed I doan' want no fifty or no hundred dollar bills,' exclaimed the colored man, indignantly. 'How's I gunner git 'em changed? No, sah, I wants mah money in five dollar bills'

"Whereupon the teller piled up eight packages of five dollar bills in front of the darky, whose eyes began to shine with astonishment.

"'What's all dat, boss?' queried he.

"'That represents $4,000,' replied the teller.

"'Sho! you doan' tell me,' exclaimed the negro. Then after a moment's pause he added:

"'All dat heh! Well, boss, gimme three dollars of dat ter blow myself wif an' keep de rest till I calls for it!'"

An Ideal Location

Rosedale and Linden Park Cemeteries

LARGEST IN THE STATE

LINDEN, N. J.

Beautiful and Accessible

2 Miles from Elizabeth, 7 Miles from Newark,

14 MILES FROM NEW YORK

On Main Line Pennsylvania Railroad

Why Lots in these Cemeteries commend themselves to Heads of Families and Investors

BECAUSE of the $1,000,000 Trust Fund provided for by the Trustees in each Cemetery, the income from which will keep the properties perpetually beautiful at NO EXPENSE TO LOT OWNERS.

BECAUSE such a guarantee, not found in any other cemetery, assures lot owners that the grounds WILL BE MAINTAINED PERMANENTLY AS BEAUTIFUL PARKS AFTER THE INCOME FROM THE SALE OF LOTS HAS BEEN EXHAUSTED.

LOTS SHOULD BE PURCHASED NOW

BECAUSE MORE ADVANTAGES ARE OFFERED TO LOT BUYERS in a new Modern Park Cemetery than in those established many years and, in most cases, no provision made for perpetual care without extra expense to lot owners. THERE ARE A GREATER NUMBER OF IDEAL LOCATIONS TO SELECT FROM, PRICES OF LOTS ARE ALWAYS LOWER AND TERMS MORE ADVANTAGEOUS.

BECAUSE life is most uncertain and EVERY ONE SHOULD ANTICIPATE THE INEVITABLE BY MAKING A CHOICE NOW OF A FINAL RESTING PLACE.

LOTS WILL PROVE A GOOD INVESTMENT

BECAUSE they are sure to increase in value and can be purchased NOW at the INITIAL, or LOWEST PRICE and upon the most ADVANTAGEOUS TERMS.

BECAUSE the properties are ACCESSIBLE TO 4,000,000 PEOPLE, and considering the RAPID GROWTH OF GREATER NEW YORK and its TRIBUTARY CITIES and TOWNS, it is only a question of a SHORT TIME when LOTS in ROSEDALE and LINDEN PARK will EQUAL IN VALUE those of our MOST NOTED cemeteries.

TRADES HIS GIRL FOR DOG

Arthur Fuller Takes Famous Coon Pointer and Lets Brother Marry Pretty Miss Ivy.

Wellington Fuller has married his brother Arthur's girl, and brother Arthur is now owner of Wellington's prize coon dog. Wellington says he has got the best and prettiest girl in Berkshire county, Mass., and brother Arthur says that if there is any dog in the county that can tree more coons than his new dog he'd like to know it.

Wellington and Arthur both became smitten with pretty Miss Ivy White, Walter White's daughter, last fall, and they began "callin' regular." Arthur is 24 and his brother 26. Soon the big brother began to understand that the little brother was getting more smiles than he was, and the village folk told him he had better be spry. He might have settled it in a fight, but he chose diplomacy.

"Arthur, did ye ever see a coon dog that could ketch more coons than my Sport?"

Arthur admitted he hadn't.

"Arthur, Miss Ivy is a pretty girl, but I guess as how you have seen some one jest as pretty?"

Arthur thought maybe he had.

"Well, Arthur, there ain't another coon dog like Sport, and there may be another girl like Miss Ivy. I am going to give you Sport. He's your'n."

Arthur was delighted.

"And when you get Sport I want you to forget the way to Miss Ivy's house and let me do all the courting alone," said the big brother.

Arthur thought it over. Sport certainly was a good dog and Miss Ivy certainly was a fine girl—but there wasn't another dog like Sport.

"Being as I am only 24 and pretty young to get married, I guess I will take the coon dog, if ye really mean it," announced Arthur.

To show that he meant it Wellington and Miss Ivy White were married in the village church in New Boston, Mass. Arthur has bought a new gun and is impatient to get after the coons.

SWINDLER MET HIS MATCH

Sham Millionaire Is Victimized by a Cook Who "Had Been There Before."

The classical confidence trick has been neatly played on a would-be swindler by his intended victim. The latter, a cook on a transatlantic liner, had been done himself before, and was too old a bird to be caught again. He struck up an acquaintance with an engaging but obviously sham American millionaire in the train to Paris, confiding to him that he had 40,000 francs in his bag, and meant to amuse himself on the boulevards.

"Well, met, indeed," said the millionaire; "I have also made my pile, and intend seeing the merry side of life in gay Paree." They started the evening with an expensive dinner, paid for by the American millionaire. At coffee the latter exclaimed. "Hullo, I have not any cigars; suppose you go and buy some. You can leave your bag here, where it will be quite safe. But, as you might be suspicious, here's my pocketbook. Keep it till you join me again."

As soon as the cook's back was turned the American millionaire of course bolted with the bag, but the latter only contained old newspapers and the cook's card, with the words: "I have been here before; you have met your match this time." In the would-be swindler's pocketbook was a sum of £24 in French notes, which the cook took to the police station, asking the officer to whom he told his tale with understandable relish to give the money to the poor.

Increase in Flour Exports.

The exports of flour from the United States last year were greater than ever before—about 20,000,000 barrels.

OBJECTS TO WEIGHT.

PRESIDENT THINKS HE IS GETTING A LITTLE TOO FAT.

Plays Tennis, Rows a Heavy Boat and Engages in Other Sports for the Purpose of Losing Some Surplus Tissue.

Washington (D. C.) Special.

President Roosevelt has troubles other than politics. He is getting—well, fat. Before, he was "portly," or "rather stout," but since he has passed the 200-pound mark it is nothing but fat. He weighs now 208 pounds, and the last 12 pounds he has put on worries him.

Try as hard as he can, he does not seem able to reduce himself. The president has put in some strenuous days in the last month at Oyster Bay, racing about the tennis court in the heat of the day in an effort to get himself down to weight. Horseback riding, upon which he has always depended, failed him. Now he puts in the most of the "weight-reducing" exercise at tennis. He knows he gets more real exercise out of that than he does in a 100-mile horseback ride.

The president's old Harvard chums have told him of many men who reduced their weight by playing handball. Tennis is the nearest approach to handball the president can get, as there is no handball court at either Oyster Bay or the white house in Washington.

The first thing the president did when he got back from Oyster Bay, after looking over the navy and seeing that the South American republics had paid their debts, was to have himself weighed.

The president approached the scales with the determination to know the worst. He had known that he was dangerously near the 200-pound mark, as some scales on which he had weighed would flutter, hesitate and slowly and steadily rise when the weight was advanced to that number on the balance arm.

Lightly the president stepped on the "official" scales and shoved the weight

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT.
(Now Weighs 208 Pounds and Is Trying to Reduce Himself.)

to 200 pounds. The balance never even wavered.

"Been gaining some, Mr. President," suggested Secretary Loeb, while Dulaney, the president's personal attendant, looked anxious and worried.

"Try another notch," suggested Mr. Loeb, trying to look unconcerned.

Slowly the president topped the weight along by quarters and eighths until the scales registered 208 pounds and was at a perfect balance.

"By Godfrey! but I'm getting heavy," the president said, with a sigh, stepping off the scales.

Then, to make sure that there was no defect in the scales, he carefully balanced the weight and again got on.

But "208" again registered the inexorable scales, and the president was convinced that what he had most feared was a reality—he was "fat."

Every since he became president Mr. Roosevelt has been putting on flesh. He weighed when he first came to Washington as vice president but 185 pounds. He had carefully kept his weight down by the most vigorous exercise.

The president's weight is evenly distributed, and he shows less of it in his face than elsewhere. He has no paunch yet, but prevents this developing by the way in which he stands. He is always erect, and takes as much pride in presenting the development of the paunch as a West Point cadet.

The president has weighed as high as 212 pounds, but this was but temporary, and soon came down to 208 under the hard tennis-playing. In addition to tennis the president has gone in for rowing this summer. He frequently takes Mrs. Roosevelt out for a row on Oyster Bay, and finds that it helps to reduce him.

The president is a man with a good appetite and no digestive troubles. He eats heartily and enjoys his food. He prefers plain, substantial cooking to the fancy efforts of chefs. Because of his propensity to gain weight he has been obliged to forego sweets, although fond of them

The New York World says that clothes that the president wore when he first came to Washington are much too small for him now. He has a chest measurement of 44 inches and a waist measurement of 41 inches. His collars have increased in size from 16½ to 17½, and the president wears his collars tight.

He intends putting in all possible time this summer in an effort to reduce his weight below the 200-pound mark, and will keep at it throughout the winter. Already he has taken to the long walks which so tired members of his cabinet who were asked to accompany him.

The president's flesh causes him no inconvenience, but he simply dislikes to be fat.

SPORTING NEWS.

DIAMOND DUST.

"Warry" MacLaughlin intends spending the winter at his home here, after the baseball season.

Somebody stole "Pete" Oregan's glove a week ago, and his dropping of a fly on Saturday is due to that fact.

"Tuck" Turner, of the old Crescents, was a familiar figure, and he received a warm welcome from his old-time friends.

Manager Denman declares that he will present his regular lineup on Saturday against Plainfield, with Waller on the slab.

The Rahways defeated the Elizabeth Stars on Sunday by a score of 6 to 3. Mertens pitched a clever game against "Warry" MacLaughlin.

After the game Saturday the Somervillians gathered at the Hotel Kensington and held a reunion. Their cheers could be heard many blocks away.

Manager W. H. Cawley, of the Somervilles, had eighteen players with him Saturday, including four pitchers, Wiltse, McKenna, Lindeman and Montross.

Wiltse and Warner were up to their old tricks of kicking against the umpire. At one time it looked as though Warner would punch the umpire. Better judgment prevailed.

The Westfield-Plainfield games are like ping-pong in comparison to Saturday's contest. It was a continuous "root" from beginning to end, everybody being intoxicated with enthusiasm.

Lamar, the Hoboken catcher, was the only member of that team who did not appear here with his organization on Saturday. He dropped off at Westfield and caught for the locals against Rahway.

Somerville had four twirlers with them on Saturday—Wiltse, of the New Yorks; Lindeman and McKenna, of Hoboken, and Montross. The entire Somerville team was present in uniform, though not a man was used.

The enthusiasm shown by the visitors at the Somerville-Plainfield contest on Saturday was contagious. Three-quarters of an hour before the game, the Somervillians had taken possession of the covered grandstand and many of the seats outside.

Because Somerville defeated the Plainfield A. C., on Saturday, there is no reason for being discouraged. It will only result in a more determined effort to beat Westfield on Saturday and Somerville a week from Saturday, if another contest is arranged.

It is sincerely hoped that Managers Johnston and Cawley will arrange another contest for Saturday, October 1. While Somerville carried off the honors last week, Plainfielders believe they should have another chance to redeem themselves.

BASKET BALL.

An effort will be made to arrange a minor basket ball league among the students of the local grammar schools. Measures have already been taken towards this end, though nothing definitely can be announced till the classes are resumed at the Y. M. C. A. The games will probably be played under the auspices of the association, and the league will include a representative team from the boys' department. Fred Martin has charge of the organization representing the Whittier School, which will in all probability have one of the strongest boys' teams in the vicinity.

The ninth grade at the city High School will be on the floor also. The teachers of the various schools have interested themselves in the affair, and if the satisfactory arrangements can be made with Boys' Secretary Robbie, the league will undoubtedly be formed. There has been some talk of a football league among the same students, but prominent members of the schools say that their first efforts will be for the production of a good basket ball combination.

GOLF.

The Cranford Golf Club team will play the Park Golf Club team at the local club on Saturday. This will be in the Central Jersey Golf League tournament.

In addition to the regular events at the Hillside Tennis and Golf Club on Saturday there will be the stated play for the Men's Handicap cup in the afternoon.

The finals in the Governor's competition, together with one of the semi-final matches and the September handicap, will be the attractions at the Westfield Golf Club on Saturday. In addition there will be a team match between Colonia and Westfield.

FOOTBALL.

The S. A. C. football team, of Westfield, would like to arrange games with teams averaging 100 pounds. Half expenses guaranteed. Address all communications to Herbert H. Ferris, Embree Crescent, Westfield, N. J.

SURPRISE ON BIRTHDAY.

Miss Anna Martin Honored by Company of Twenty Friends.

Miss Anna Martin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Martin, of East Sixth street, was tendered a surprise party by twenty of her young friends, last evening, in honor of the twelfth anniversary of her birthday. The affair was arranged by Miss Nellie Crook and Miss Eleanor Gulberg and it was thoroughly enjoyed. Music, both instrumental and vocal, and games were the features, concluding with a supper.

Among those in attendance were the Misses Sarah Leahy, Edna Johnson, Elizabeth Harper, Gretchen Giebler, Jebbie Giebler, Gertrude Casben, Evelyn Casben, Helen Meyers and Hazel Morrison, Frank Casben, John Harper, Russel Stewart, Fred Crook, Harry Lievers, Arthur Dunn, Arthur Ross, Bergen Naylor and Robert Gulberg.

Mrs. Charles Matthews, of Grove street, returned yesterday from Mt. Pocono, Pa., where she has been for the past twelve weeks.

FRIENDS HOLD SIMPLE SERVICES OVER MRS. LAING

JOHN H. SHOTWELL SPEAKS FEELINGLY AT THE OBSEQUIES.

While many relatives and friends from this city and other places were assembled in the Friends Meeting House on Watchung avenue, this morning, funeral services were conducted over the body of Mary H. Laing. John H. Shotwell, Friends' minister of Asbury Park, presided and spoke at some length, taking as his theme the words of the Savior to His disciples: "It is best that I go away but I send a comforter." Continuing he spoke of his acquaintanceship with the departed and her regularity in attendance at the Friends' meetings.

The interment was made in the Friends burial ground beside the body of her husband and at the grave side the minister's words were: "Blessed are they that die in the Lord for their works do follow them." There were many floral offerings with a profusion of chrysanthemums and oak leaves.

The pall-bearers were Frederick, Percy and William Sandford, Frederick Metcalf and George VanNest.

In City Court.

Because he toyed with the cup that cheers just a little too long, yesterday, William Bran, a German, spent last night in a police cell and appeared before Judge Runyon this morning on a D. and D. charge. It was preferred by Patrolman Overbaugh and when Bran said he believed it was so, the court made it $5 or twenty days. Dennis Reagan was another prisoner in court today, charged by his wife through Overseer Ayers with non-support. Mrs. Reagan relented at the crucial movement and declaring that she still loved her hubby and that he might do better if given another chance, the complaint was dismissed.

"Butt In" for Button.

Colonel Collins, of the Second Regiment, has issued orders to the effect that all those who are entitled to the "National Marksman's Reserve Button" may obtain them by paying their entrance fees to the First Sergeant not later than September 22. These buttons are offered all those who have made fifty per cent. of the possible score at the 200, 300 and 500 yard ranges. There are about sixty-five members of the local company who are entitled to wear the button.

Attended Funeral of Harvey Wilson.

Amos Moffett, and Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Moffett attended the funeral of Harvey Wilson, at Elizabeth, yesterday. Mr. Wilson was the brother-in-law of the former, and the uncle of the Justice. The funeral was attended also by Mr. and Mrs. John Darling, of Prospect place, who were related to the dead man. Mr. Wilson was in his eighty-first year, and was a much respected citizen of Elizabeth for many years.

Preparing for Parade.

Warren Engine Company, of the borough, was out for a drill last evening, in preparation for the parade at Flemington on October 6. Captain Smith was in charge and he was well pleased with the showing. The firemen have received their badges for the parade day and they are considered among the best yet designed. They are of red silk with gold letters and an emblem bearing Chief Stahl's portrait.

An Approaching Wedding.

Plainfielders will be interested in the announcement of the approaching wedding of Miss Katherine Ramsey, daughter of John Ramsey, and Norman Landis, both of Flemington, which will be celebrated in the Flemington Presbyterian church on Wednesday. Mr. Landis has many friends in this city, where he has taken part in musicales.

Another Republican Club.

Prominent borough Republicans have decided to form another organization independent of the U. S. Grant Club. A meeting has been called for tomorrow night in the store at 90 Somerset street when arrangements will be perfected and in all probability officers elected.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bowman, of East Second street, leave tomorrow for St. Louis, where they will spend two weeks at the Exposition. On the return they will visit relatives near Toronto, Ontario.

There will be a meeting of Somerset Council at the auction rooms on West Front street tonight. The object will be the organization of a drum corps from among the members of the order.

CENTRAL'S DEPARTURE IN ITS SIGNAL SYSTEM

CHANGE FROM SEMAPHORE TYPE IS MADE AT DUNELLEN.

In the erection of an overhead bridge signal tower at Dunellen, the New Jersey Central has made a departure from its established rule regarding signals. It has been the policy of the company to use entirely the semaphore signal, believing that it represents the best system now known. The cause for the change at Dunellen is largely due to the fact that extra tracks have been laid at that point, which is the terminal for many local trains. There is almost constant switching there and for this reason the officials believe that the system adopted, that of having signals placed over every track, will be more efficient and make accidents less likely.

At some distance to the west of these signals there will be erected a signal tower, and at a convenient point between the signals and Rock avenue, this city, there will be erected another overhead bridge signal tower, which will provide every possible precaution for the operation of east and westbound trains. It is not the intention of the New Jersey Central to make Dunellen a terminal point and abolish the one at Somerville, but the former point will be improved to provide for the increase in traffic. For a long time the trackage has not been sufficient for the storage of passenger cars at Dunellen, and it is with a view to increasing this that a large gang of workmen have been employed for a long time at Dunellen.

The improvements at Grant avenue are nearing completion so far as the stone work is concerned. The fence which is to separate the east and westbound tracks will be erected after the station sheds are erected. Wherever these improvements are made it will be noticed that the stone-work is extended beyond the point of necessity. The reason for this is that some day the company may want to lay other tracks and it will then have the extra room. Allowances have been made for this along the entire system.

At the Clinton Avenue station a fence will separate the tracks and stone steps and a station shed will be built, the same as at Grant avenue. These improvements are costing considerable, but the company is anxious to take every precaution against accidents. When the signal tower is erected in the vicinity of Richmond street, it will be the means of doing away with the small switches and this will also be a preventative against accidents.

Since W. G. Besler came to the New Jersey Central it cannot be said that Plainfield has suffered in the way of improvements, in fact she has been favored. At an expenditure of thousands of dollars improvements have been made about the North Avenue station and the grounds have been made attractive. Plainfield's train service has never been better and there has never been a time when fewer complaints were received concerning it. To the person who travels very much these things mean much and the efficient force of employes have made this possible.

Oracle's Editors Confer.

The board of editors of the High School "Oracle" held their first meeting in the parlors of the library yesterday afternoon. The meeting was presided over by Percy M. Brown, editor-in-chief. In addition to the board of editors, Howard Lapsely, the business manager was present, and the faculty editors, Miss Cuming and Mr. Best, were in attendance.

—Still they come, at Neuman Brothers'. Tomorrow 100 baskets of the very choicest white and yellow peaches, Crawfords, Stumps and Iron Mountains. Prices to suit.

IN THE CHRISTIAN FIELD

WORK IN THE CHURCHES OF THE CITY AND BOROUGH.

E. Maxwell Honeyman has resumed his position as tenor in the second quartette at Holy Trinity church, New York.

"The Life of Feeling" will be the subject of the pastor's address at the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church tomorrow night.

Members of the W. C. T. U. holding albums for the collection of money are requested to bring or send them to the annual meeting to be held in the rooms tomorrow.

The Young People's Association of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church will meet on Friday night for the first time this fall. The subject will be "Rallying Day" and Dr. Hedges will be the leader.

Rev. James A. Francis, who occupied the pulpit at the First Baptist church on Sunday, will again preach next Sunday. It is expected that the pastor, Rev. Dr. J. A. Chambliss, will be home the first Sunday in October.

HOME FROM 'FRISCO.

Knights Templar Excursionists Returned Today After Long Trip.

In excellent health and spirits, but very tired, the Plainfielders who attended the triennial conclave of the Knights Templar, at SanFrancisco, arrived home this morning. The journey was made in a special train over the Pennsylvania and the local members of the party left the train at Elizabeth. Not a single accident occurred during the entire trip to mar the pleasure of the Plainfielders, although there were several narrow escapes.

The party enjoyed the St. Louis Exposition, although Judge W. R. Codington says that it reminded him of the Chicago Fair on a smaller scale. Besides the discomfits of travel and the dry hot weather the party enjoyed many pleasant experiences.

These persons were in the Plainfield party:

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Codington and Miss Codington, Dr. and Mrs. D. C. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Woolston, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Rugg, Henry Leifke and his brother, Julius Leifke, George Giebelhouse and Ralph T. Willis.

FREE FROM DEBTS.

W. H. Brokaw is Discharged in Bankruptcy Court by Judge Lanning.

W. H. Brokaw was discharged from bankruptcy yesterday by Judge Lanning, of the U. S. District Court, on the application of V. W. Nash, Jr., Esq. The case was commenced September 11, 1903, being opened by Reed & Codington, representing D. C. Davis and J. G. Burdick. Testimony was taken seven different times before Atwood L. DaCosta, of Newark, the referee. The liabilities in the case amount to $11,000 and the assets to $4,000.

Junior Class Elect Officers.

The junior class at the North Plainfield High School held their first meeting at the school yesterday. The object of the meeting was the election of officers to serve for the coming year. Lawrence Milne was elected president for the third term. Ralph Kutz was elected vice president, and Wilbur Dunning was appointed secretary. William Burtis will act as treasurer.

Fire Box Would Not Work.

The fire at the Vail barn last evening was early discovered by Patrolman McGinley who attempted to send in an alarm from box 48 at West Front street and Clinton avenue, but it failed to work. He was on the way to box 49 when it was pulled by Samuel Sauma. The city electricians will overhaul the defective box today.

KNEW GREATEST ACTORS

Mr. Edwards Managed Tours of Booth and Bernhardt.

ON GOVERNOR'S STAFF

Eventful Career of a Plainfielder in the Show Business for Many Years.

While his local friends and associates are numbered in the thousands, few Plainfielders are aware of the wide theatrical career that has marked the busy life of Maze Edwards, formerly manager of Music Hall and who now has charge of the Casino. Almost from his boyhood he has been associated with theatrical folk and playhouses and has conducted the tours of actors whose names stand at the head of the profession and whose talents have made worlds wonder. Booth, Bernhardt, Sothern and like stars went over routes that Mr. Edwards arranged for them and his ability in this direction had much to do with the success that marked their trips. At the present day he is known to players and managers from Maine to California and the older ones will readily recall the time when they eagerly sought his services and advice before making a venture.

Though born in London, Mr. Edwards has been in America nearly all his life, coming here with his parents when a boy of six. His father was one of the foremost woodcut printers of his time and was brought to this country by a New York firm which controlled the output. The family resided in Brooklyn at first and then Rand & Avery, the Boston firm which published the first illustrated edition of "Uncle Tom's Cabin," secured the services of the elder Edwards and they removed to that city.

Maze Edwards' career really dates from 1861 when he went to California and within a short time was appointed Assistant Adjutant-General with the rank of major under the administration of Governor Haight. Completing a four year term he returned to New York in 1876 to enter the employ of Simmons & Wall, in those days a firm which stood as high in the managerial world as does Charles Frohman, the Shuberts or Klaw & Erlanger at this time.

The work he did for them attracted the attention of E. A. Sothern, the father of E. H. Sothern, who will be remembered by many old time play goers as the creator of many gentlemanly types, and young Edwards went with him as his personal representative. It placed him in the front rank of managers and positions were offered him on all sides. After touring the country with Sothern, he became associated with Henry E. Abbey, who directed Lotta, Edwin Booth, John T. Raymond and other stars of like magnitude and who arranged for the first appearance in America of Sarah Bernhardt. Abbey placed Edwards with Booth and the Plainfielder managed the great tragedian during the year that he took America by storm and played to packed houses in all the large cities. The profits were the greatest ever made by any star, Booth's share alone being $121,000, despite the fact that the season lasted but twenty-nine weeks. Edwards arranged the repertoire for each week and handled all proceeds, the total being nearly $350,000. He and Abbey also conducted the negotiations that led to the Divine Sarah leaving France and seeking new laurels.

Longing for a direct venture of his own, Mr. Edwards left Abbey and became associated with Maj. J. B. Pond in the Lyceum bureau business. They arranged and conducted the tours of Clara Louise Kellogg, Henry Ward Beecher, Gilmore's band and many others. The ventures met with varying success and finally Mr. Edwards withdrew to become a manager for

WATER CO. HELD UP

Change in Name Leads to Trouble at South Plainfield.

OFFICIALS SUMMONED

Question As to Which Company Has the Right to Lay Water Mains Finally Settled.

The question as to whether a large gang of Italians had the right to open Lehigh avenue, in South Plainfield, for the purpose of laying water mains, threatened the interests of the Middlesex County Water Company, yesterday morning. The Italians had opened a long trench on the avenue, when Jeremiah TenEyck, Harry Sofield and McDonough Brothers came to the conclusion that it was about time to find out the status of the case. They ordered the laborers to stop work and in the meantime Thomas Brantingham, a member of the Township Committee, was sent for.

It appears that a franchise was granted to the Midland Water Company seven years ago, giving it the right to extend its mains through any part of Middlesex county. Sometime later the company decided to change its name to that of the Middlesex County Water Company, but the officials carelessly forgot to notify everybody interested, and when the gang of Italians began work yesterday it was an important question as to whether the proper company was doing the work.

Mr. Brantingham found it necessary to call up New Brunswick and ascertain the correct name of the company. He was informed that both companies were really the same, and that the change in the name was the only difference. Before the citizens would allow the laborers to continue work, Mr. Kellogg, who is in charge of the company's office at Metuchen, had to make a trip to South Plainfield and satisfy the residents that everything was all right. It was long after noon before the men resumed work. They will extend the mains the entire length of Lehigh avenue to accommodate people living on that avenue.

At present the water company has eight wells in operation at the plant in South Plainfield and it is quite likely that another well will be dug in a short time. The supply of water seems to be inexhaustible and of an extra good quality. The company not only supplies water to a majority of the residents in the county, but also to a number of factories at Carteret and Woodbridge. It is claimed that the supply at South Plainfield equals if it does not exceed that in Plainfield. The company is the same one that controls the Plainfield Water Supply Company, but for convenience the various companies are named after the different counties in which they operate, with the exception of the one in this city. At Elizabeth it is known as the Union Water Company, it being generally understood that Senator John Kean is the principal in all of the companies in Union and Middlesex counties. It has been hinted that he also controls water interests in Somerset county.

HOPE Y. M. A. FORMS STRONG BASKET BALL TEAM

TO COMPLETE SCHEDULE AS SOON AS POSSIBLE.

Basket ball plans for the coming season were fully discussed at a meeting of the Hope Y. M. A. held last evening. It was unanimously decided to organize a team and active training will begin at once. George E. Firstbrook was appointed manager and William Porter captain.

An effort will be made to play the first practice game of the season next Tuesday night when the North Plainfield High School five will oppose the Hope team, the latter association having decided to organize a team. Work on completing a schedule will be started immediately and two match games are to be completed each week after October 15.

No action was taken on becoming affiliated with the proposed city league and the matter was left open until details shape themselves more definitely. Captain Porter requests that all candidates for the team meet in the "gym" Monday, Tuesday and Friday nights for practice. The schedule will include games with all city teams and those of nearby towns.

—For canning purposes, Neuman Brothers have a choice lot of fancy Bartlett pears and Damson plums. A big display every day to select from.

Y.M.C.A. BOYS' GATHERING

Programme for State Conference in This City is Outlined.

OCTOBER 28, 29 AND 30

Three Days' Session to be An Unusually Interesting Affair.

Kenneth Hobbie, the boys' secretary of the Y. M. C. A., attended a meeting of the State committee on boys' work at Newark, last evening, in which the work for the coming conference was marked out. The meeting was held in the Congress Hotel, Newark, where the members of the committee were the guests of State Secretary Charles T. Kilborne.

The conference will be held on October 28, 29 and 30. In a general way the topics for the various speeches were chosen, but the speakers have not yet been appointed.

In accordance with the subject of the conference, the entire programme will be conducted in a military manner. There will be an army chaplain at the services, and the meetings will be opened by bugle calls.

The following is in part the order of services which have been decided upon:

Friday afternoon, October 28, social hour followed by supper at the association rooms at 5:30, served by the Women's Auxiliary Society. The toastmaster will be H. S. Parks, of Paterson. Following the dinner there will be a welcoming address by one of the members of the local association. The response will be given by a Morristown man.

In the evening there will be a church service lead by James Phillipson, of Newark, assisted by the State Boys' Orchestra. Following the service of song, F. S. Brockman, of Shanghai, China, will make an address on the general topic, "The Christian Soldier," after which taps will be sounded for the breaking up of the meeting.

On Saturday morning the service will be held in the auditorium of the association, one of the boys presiding. The bugle will sound "reveille" for the morning song service, which will be conducted by Lieutenant E. W. Hearne, of Newark. A member of the Paterson boys' department will follow with a paper on "Drill Regulations." A general discussion will follow the reading of this paper. The next number will be a reading, by one of the Newark boys, on the subject "Records." This also will be followed by a discussion. "A Council of War" will be the next feature of the morning, in which a member of each department in the State will be represented.

Mess call will sound for dinner, and the meeting will be adjourned till the afternoon. The bugle will sound at 2:15 in the afternoon, at which time Lieutenant Hearne will speak on a "Call to Personal Work." One of the Trenton members will read a paper on "Educational Work," after which a discussion will follow.

The regular Saturday evening church meeting will begin by a song service, lead by the Boys' Orchestra. At the bugle call for "Dress Parade," Lieutenant Hearne will speak on a "Call to United Effort."

There will be no regularly scheduled meeting for Sunday morning, the first service being held at 3:15 for delegates only. It will be conducted by Charles R Scott, of Newark. This will be followed by an older boys' meeting for members of the conference over fourteen years of age.

The evening services will be conducted in various churches as will be announced later, preceding the farewell service at 9 o'clock. This last meeting will be for delegates only and will be lead by Charles T. Kilborne, the State secretary.

It will not be known who the boys are who will take part, representing the various associations, as they will be chosen by their respective secretaries.

Horse Became Wedged in Stall.

William E. Bartle, the stone dealer on Church street, came near losing a horse Monday evening. The animal had been sick for some time, and fell down in his stall, which was a narrow one, and became wedged in, so it was impossible for him to move. It required the united efforts of six men to pull the horse from his perilous position. When, by the aid of a rope, they had dragged the animal into the air, he was found to be unconscious. He recovered shortly, and was easily subdued.

Miss J. Louise Jenkins, of West Seventh street, who has been visiting the St. Louis Exposition, is now the guest of friends in Dubuque, Iowa.

LOCAL MEN ORGANIZE THE PLAINFIELD BAND

FRANK MANCHESTER IS CHOSEN PRESIDENT OF THE ASSOCIATION.

What is to be known as the Plainfield Band was organized last night, a meeting of those interested being held on Somerset street. Matters pertaining to the future work of the band were discussed at some length and it was decided to give concerts during the winter in some suitable place and next summer there will be open-air concerts. Frank Manchester was elected president of the new organization, Kenneth Stuart secretary and treasurer and Whitney Frazee leader and director.

Mr. Frazee has had a long experience in band work, having played a cornet for a number of years. He thoroughly understands music and is capable of directing a band of musicians. The new organization will consist of twenty pieces and the names of the musicians will be announced within a few days. The band will at once arrange for rehearsals and it is the purpose of the organization to present programmes of popular selections, interspersed with classical numbers.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR CONVENTION OCT. 6 AND 7

ANNUAL MEETING OF STATE ORGANIZATION TO BE HELD AT ELIZABETH.

Christian Endeavorers throughout the county are planning for a profitable and helpful time at the eighteenth annual State convention of the organization to be held at Elizabeth October 6 and 7, and Plainfield will be largely represented as usual at these gatherings. Those in charge of the programme announce a programme seldom equaled.

Rev. Dr. John F. Cowan, of the Endeavor World, will represent the United Society, and Robert E. Speer, so well-known to local Endeavorers, will represent the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions. John Willis Baer, formerly general secretary of the United Society, will present the cause of home missions, and Rev. Dr. James L. Vance, of Newark, will give the key-note address of the convention.

It has also been planned to have the Southern Jubilee Singers present to render some of their characteristic songs on the opening night of the convention, Thursday, October 6. F. H. Jacobs will have charge of a large chorus choir that will have charge of the music each day of the convention. "The Best Things Done by Your Society During the Past Year," will be the topic of an open parliament to be led by Vice President Smith and the Junior hour will be led by Rev. Charles Herrod, of Brooklyn.

It has been arranged to have the State banners presented at the closing session on Friday night. As Elizabeth is so easy of access from all parts of the county by trolley and steam roads, it is predicted that every society in the county will send an especially large representation.

TENNIS TOURNAMENT AT THE HIGH SCHOOL

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION HOLDS ITS FIRST SESSION TODAY.

The newly elected board of directors of the Plainfield High School Athletic Association held their first meeting this morning. The officers are: President, Howard Craig; vice president, Chester Briggs; secretary and treasurer, Harry Thompson.

Paul Collier was chosen as manager of the basket ball team. Arrangements were made for a tennis tournament to be held next week. Play will commence Monday. The committee in charge of the tournament is as follows: Chairman, Chester Briggs, Theodore Gavett and Jack Douglass. As there are many good players in the school the playing will be very even and close contests will be a feature. A large entry list is anticipated. As in former years cups will be awarded to the successful competitors.

The board is planning for a field-meet to be held later in the fall. It is also pushing arrangements for an entertainment to be held soon as a means of raising enough money to defray the expenses of the various athletic teams of the school.

CENTRAL TO BUILD HOTEL?

A Modern Hostelry May be Erected at Lake Hopatcong.

INCREASE IN TRAFFIC

Popularity of the Lake as a Summer Resort — Through Express Service, Maybe.

The natural advantages to be found at Lake Hopatcong and vicinity and the fact that as a summer resort it is becoming more popular each year, has led the New Jersey Central to consider the proposition of erecting a modern hotel at the lake, one that will contain every improvement and convenience for persons or families who desire to spend a short time or several weeks there. At present there are several hotels and cottages at the lake, and during the season there are a great many camps established, but the accommodations near the railroad station are not up-to-date as to appointments and it is with a view to improving these conditions that the railroad company may build a hotel.

There are not many places convenient to Plainfield that are as attractive as Lake Hopatcong. The body of water is nine miles long and about three wide and for boating, fishing and bathing it is ideal. This year there was a large increase in boats of all kinds on the lake, while the steamboats did a good business. There were more campers than usual and the hotels report more business.

The lake is not only an important point as a summer resort, but the supply of ice harvested there in the winter is a large consideration both for the New Jersey Central and Brady Brothers, who harvest the ice and send it to various points. There is a great amount of business done on the High Bridge branch of the Central—in the winter in carrying ice and in the summer in carrying fruit and summer excursionists. The road traverses a beautiful section of the State, on either side of which are to be found stately mountains and attractive valleys, through which courses many streams.

This branch of the road is ably cared for by James McNulty, train master. He has been with the Central for many years and he handles the company's business with satisfaction to all.

There has been some talk of re-arranging the schedule of trains for next summer and giving Lake Hopatcong a service similar to that enjoyed by Asbury Park and Atlantic City, that is have certain trains run directly through between New York and the lake on express time. It is believed that this would have a tendency to increase the summer population at the lake and it would give business men an opportunity to make the trip in convenient time. The matter was discussed this season, but not until it was too late to put such a schedule in operation for the summer travel.

Officials of the New Jersey Central report that the summer travel has been very heavy, exceeding that of previous years. There are many pleasant resorts along the line of the road and all seem to have taken a healthy boom. It is the intention of the company to encourage this business as much as possible. It has been found that The Suburbanite has also had a tendency to bring city families to places along the road and not a few have decided to locate permanently in certain towns, believing that they can reach New York and return home with greater comfort than they can reach certain points in New York on a crowded elevated train.

YOUNG AUSTIN CAUGHT.

Negro Accused in Stabbing Affray, Captured by His Brother.

Wanted by the Jersey City police for his participation in a stabbing affray, George Austin, fourteen years old, was caught by his brother, Ernest Austin, on Park avenue, yesterday afternoon and held until the police arrived. The younger Austin fought furiously to get away and in doing so nearly every bit of clothing was torn from him. A woman who thought he was being beaten by the brother preferred complaints against Ernest and both were locked up.

Ernest was subsequently released and George was arraigned before Judge Runyon this morning. He was remanded pending action by the Jersey City authorities.

Martine to Speak.

James E. Martine, of this city, will make a speech at Washington, Warren County, on Saturday night, before the local Democratic Club of that place.

KIRK TO BUILD BRIDGE

To Be Erected on Mountain Avenue Over Green Brook.

IT IS TO COST $2,215

Somerset and Union Freeholders Award Contract—William Ferrier to Do Mason Work.

The contract for the iron work on the new line bridge to be erected over Greenbrook on Mountain avenue, near Scotch Plains, was awarded yesterday to the W. T. Kirk Company, for $1,600 and that for the mason work to William Ferrier, of New Market, for $615. There were nine other bids for the iron work and two other bids for the mason work. The Freeholders from Somerset and Union counties met yesterday afternoon at the Hotel Kensington to receive the bids for the work. The successful men in each case submitted the lowest bid.

The bridge will have concrete abuttments, and seven lines of twenty-four inch steel I beams, forty-three feet long, with a brick arch and concrete covering. Work on the new structure will be started at once.

Interested residents in both counties have been making an effort for some time to have this bridge built, the old one of wood being worn out in the service. There is considerable travel over Mountain avenue, as it leads directly from Somerset street in the borough to Scotch Plains and Springfield, and is some times used as a speedway.

J. C. Cooper bid $6 50 per yard on the stone and mason work, but William Ferrier's bid of $6 15 was lower and more advantageous. Other bids for the iron work were: Scott Iron Works, $1,883; Canton Bridge Company, $1,790; Berlin Construction Company, $1,875. The Levering & Garrigues Iron Works submitted a bid in more than one form, and while it was higher than the accepted one, the exact figures were not announced.

MORE HIGH SCHOOL CONTRACTS ARE AWARDED

GEORGE J. TOBIN AND ALLEN B. LAING SUCCESSFUL BIDDERS.

At an adjourned meeting of the City Board of Education held last evening the last contracts in the construction of the new high school were awarded. They were for heating and electric wiring and both went to local men.

For the heating, George J. Tobin's bid of $14,210 was accepted and he will use the Woodbridge stem system. A representative of the American Heating and Ventilating Company, of New York, was in attendance and showed to the Board a model of the school as it would be equipped with its heating apparatus but the exhibition did not alter the final decision and selection.

There were nine bids for the electric wiring, the lowest being that of Allen B. Laing for $1,975 and this was accepted. The other bids were as follows: B. M. B. Foster Electric Company, New York, $2,091; Lord Electric Company, New York, $2,695; Peet, McAnery & Powers, New York, $3,487; Electric Construction and Supply Company, New York, $2,278; Craig & Apgar, Plainfield, $3,097; The William Brown & Son Company, Newark, $2,290; Kinsman Electric Construction Railway and Supply Company, New York, $2,492.

Brothers Have a Mix-Up.

Fearing that his younger brother was going to run away from the city, Ernest Austin, the colored bootblack, caught hold of the boy on Park avenue yesterday afternoon and held him while a friend went for a policeman. The younger Austin fought so hard to get away he was nearly stripped of all his clothing and when Officer Cash arrived, bystanders preferred a charge against the captor. Both were locked up, but Ernest was subsequently released.

No Bi-Municipal Game.

The bi-municipal baseball game which was to have been played this afternoon, has been indefinitely postponed. Mayor Smalley said this morning that as Captain MacMurray, of the city aggregation, had failed to secure a team, the game would be postponed indefinitely.

Miss Jackson Weds.

Miss Estela M. Jackson, formerly of Plainfield, but now of Newark, and VanDoren Schenck, were married Sunday evening last at the House of Prayer, Newark, by the rector, Rev. John S. Miller.

E. C. STOKES ACCEPTS

Republican Candidate for Governor Addresses Convention.

VOORHEES' SPEECH

Former Governor Seconds Nomination—Cumberland County Named Him.

The Republican State convention at Trenton assembled yesterday afternoon to nominate a candidate for Governor, after a preliminary session had been held at noon. Chairman Johnson directed that the roll of counties be called. Atlantic yielded to Cumberland, and Senator Bloomfield H. Minch, of Cumberland, was recognized and took the stage. He said in part: "It was long since fully, positively determined who our candidate should be. The work of this convention has been thoroughly cut out for it. Cumberland County does not claim any special distinction nor recognize any particular territorial bounds which makes it necessary for the party to come to her for a nominee. She is glad today to present to this convention a man who is pre-eminently the candidate of the whole State."

The other counties seconded the nomination until Hudson was reached. Then Prosecutor William H. Speer, of that county, who had been selected the night before to second the nomination in a formal speech, took the stage.

Mr. Speer said in part: "E. C. Stokes is versed in governmental science and art, and is not only a student, but a doer of acts. In him is combined the man of knowledge with the man of works. With such a man the party of Murphy, Griggs and Voorhees is sure to win.

"Let us devote ourselves to the election of a man with a purpose as fixed as the stars, and who is for the common people."

Incidentally Mr. Speer took occasion to pour out personal abuse on Charles G. Black, the Democratic candidate for Governor, and to speak scurrilously and falsely of the Democratic National convention at St. Louis and the State convention in Trenton last week.

Former Governor Foster M. Voorhees, of Union County, also made a speech seconding the nomination. Briefly summarized, his words were:

"The Republican party believes in men who can do things and who have done things. This convention will name a man who for years has done things. By sheer ability he has made himself felt. His whole ambition has been for cleanliness in government. Patriotic, he knows what the office of Governor means. He is entitled to the nomination as a leader, a loyal Republican and a loyal Jerseyman. He knows State affairs better than any other man in the State and his name is one to conjure with."

On motion of Major Lents, a resolution was adopted that a committee of three delegates be named to fill vacancies that might occur on the ticket.

Candidate Stokes now appeared, escorted by the committee, and was given an ovation. The whole body of delegates rose and the cheers were prolonged.

Chairman Johnson formally notified Mr. Stokes of his nomination and congratulated him upon his selection. The chairman then presented him to the convention.

Candidate Stokes accepted the nomination in a long speech, in which he discussed State and National issues. He said he was profoundly gratified at the call from his party, and would accept the honor with full knowledge of what it meant.

Continuing, he said: "This distinction is a mark of confidence which I fully appreciate. It imposes on men a duty, and I shall devote myself unselfishly to its patriotic fulfilment."

He then reviewed the duties of the governorship, and said if elected he

POINTS FOR THE BUYERS

READY REFERENCES FOR THE LOCAL BARGAIN SEEKERS.

O. M. Nagle's egg emulsion of cod liver oil is recommended by all physicians. Try some of his blood purifier and sarsaparilla.

Call up Herman Hansen, telephone 454 R and get a figure from him before you arrange for any carpetering. Work and prices are both right.

C. L. Stanley, the florist, can be depended on to use perfect good taste in making up hurry orders which are left with him. Just another case of "know-how."

If Charles Conover & Co., of Elmwood place, do your painting and papering you are assured that the work will be done by experts and in a satisfactory manner.

Before selecting a wedding or birthday present, call at J. Hervey Doane's jewelry store in Park avenue and see what he offers. The goods and the price will be found all right.

The people whose dessert wants are attended to by John Tier, the ice cream man are sure of a well finished meal and should ask no more than that the whole meal equal the dessert in point of quality?

J. W. VanSickle is advertising fresh and salted meats. He sells the best Philadelphia scrapple, and all game in season. Give him a call, and look into some of his stock. You will find everything more than satisfactory.

Stop that annoying little cough at once with Powers' Honey of Coltsfoot and Tar or it may run into a deep-seated cold that will stay with you till spring. Regular consignments of Huyler's delicious candies, fresh every week.

When you trade at Roth & Co.'s market on East Front street, you get the best meat, poultry and fish and at prices much lower than elsewhere. This firm has hundreds of pleased customers and you might as well be included in the number. You will never regret it.

Greer & Greenwood will be anxious to meet you at their new store on East Front street. They can supply you with the best in all kinds of gentleman's furnishings. Don't go way to New York for your hats, neckwear, etc. Patronize your own townsmen, when you can do just as well here.

William Lindsay & Co. still holds the first place for good wholesome milk. You should try his milk for a while if you are having trouble with your milkman. All orders are promptly and properly attended to. There are no places in this city where you can be more sure of your milk than at Lindsay's.

There is pleasure in trading at a first-class hardware store, such as the one conducted by the H. E. Gayle Hardware Company, and all goods purchased here will be found full value and satisfactory. An excellent line of pots, kettles, tins, as well as hardware of all kinds is kept constantly in stock.

Always up-to-date in the matter of men's and boys' clothing and furnishings, M. Weinberger, of West Front street, is showing an exceptional line of clothing at present. It is possible for you to dress in accordance with fashion for a little money and Mr. Weinberger would like to have you inspect his stock. If you do not want to buy ready-made clothing, he is sure he can please you in his custom department.

For Allentown Fair.

The Allentown Fair is by all odds one of the most unique exhibitions of the country. Its attendance is simply enormous, and you ask why? Everything is complete to the minutest detail. The entertainments are exceptionally fine. The live stock show has no equal. The fruit and vegetable exhibits are among the finest procurable, and with the genuine good time always found at Allentown, there is no reason why the fair should not be popular. On September 23 the New Jersey Central will sell tickets at $1.50 to Allentown and special train will leave Plainfield at 7:32 a. m. 9 16 5

Mrs. George H. Babcock and son, of West Eighth street, have left for Alfred, New York, where the latter will enter the University. After a short visit with relatives, Mrs. Babcock, accompanied by her niece, Miss Clark, will leave for St. Louis, where they will attend a family reunion.

ELY BROTHERS, 56 Warren Street, New York

Sale of Lands for Unpaid Taxes and Assessments.

Collector's Office, City of Plainfield, New Jersey.

Notice is hereby given that the subscriber, the Collector of the City of Plainfield, New Jersey, pursuant to the authority of the statute in such case made and provided, will on Thursday, the 22d day of September, A. D., Nineteen hundred and four, at two o'clock in the afternoon of that day, at the said Collector's office, No. 151 North avenue in said city expose for sale and sell the several tracts or parcels of land hereinafter specified, or any parts thereof severally sufficient for the purpose, on which taxes for the year Nineteen hundred and three remain in arrears, to such person or persons as will purchase the same for the shortest term and pay the tax lien including interest and costs of sale, or in fee where no one will bid for a shorter term.

This sale is made under the provisions of the act of the Legislature entitled: "An act for the assessment and collection of taxes," approved April 8, 1903, and acts amendatory thereof and supplemental thereto.

Further particulars of the land to be sold may be obtained at the office of the subscriber any week day prior to the day of sale, between the hours of 9 a. m. and 4 p. m., except holidays and Saturdays, and on Saturdays between 9 a. m. and 12 noon.

The following list contains the lot and block numbers of the lots, tracts and parcels of land to be sold in pursuance of this advertisement, as they appear on the official assessment maps of the City of Plainfield, on file in the office of the City Collector, together with a statement of the Wards of the city wherein said lands are respectively situated, and the amount due from each of said lots respectively. To the amount due on each lot and parcel as hereinafter designated, there will be added the fees provided by said act of the Legislature, viz.: for preparing and publishing notices of sale twenty-five cents for each parcel of land advertised; and for selling, twenty-five cents for each parcel sold; and for each certificate of sale, fifty cents, besides necessary disbursements for printing, postage, affidavits and acknowledgements, which are hereby estimated at three dollars for each item of arrearage thereon, except that only one-half of such fees shall be chargeable when the city is a purchaser, and the City Clerk's fee for recording report, ten cents for each parcel of land sold, and all said fees and expenses shall form part of the tax lien and be paid by the purchaser at the tax sale.

LITERARY.

Two notable campaign articles are announced for the November McClure's, which is published two weeks before the election. The last word concerning the candidates is to be written by high authorities; Parker by ex-President Cleveland; Roosevelt by Senator Lodge, of Massachusetts. What the two candidates and their parties represent will be set forth clearly by two men well qualified to speak and should give two vivid pictures of these men of the hour.

Scribner's Magazine for September contains a number of outdoor articles peculiarly suited to the culminating month of the recreation season. Frederic Irland, the popular writer of fishing and hunting articles, contributes an account of a stage journey through the heart of Wyoming, under the title "In The Big Dry Country." A. Cary Smith, the veteran yacht designer, contributes "Yacht Racing Recollections and Reflections," drawn from his unusual opportunities for observing the growth of the sport in this country. He makes a strong argument for the personal element in yacht sailing. Walter Harris, an Englishman for many years a resident in Morocco, describes very picturesquely "The Berbers of Morocco,"—the wild tribes near whom Perdicaris was recently held in bondage.

Scribner's Magazine for October contains an authoritative article from a correspondent on the Russian side of the war who has actually seen that about which he writes. Thomas F. Millard, who has been a correspondent in four wars, and who wrote about the Boer and Pekin campaigns for Scribner's, has been four months with Kuropatkin's army, and in this paper he outlines the main course of the campaign in Manchuria, and vividly describes the causes which have led to the Russian defeat. His account of one of the great battles is the most picturesque and thrilling description of modern warfare that has appeared. Two maps of the fight are given which reproduced the positions exactly. Mr. Millard shows the reasons for the handicap which was on the Russian forces from the very first.

Despite the fact that the census reports show Americans are steadily drifting toward vegetarianism, we are still the greatest meat eaters in the world. Our meat still costs us every year $100,000,000 more than our vegetables (including imported vegetable foods). In the aggregate we Americans pay every year about $2,250,000,000 for food, or about $30 a year (for the raw food) for each person. In addition to the foregoing it may interest you to know that among the meat foods the egg bill ($143,300,000) is greater than that for any other item except cattle ($432,600,000) and sheep ($170,000,000); and that the bill for milk, butter and cheese ($322,000,000) is nearly four times as large as that for fish, oysters, and all other sea foods.—How the American is Changing His Food.—October Pearson's,

PERSONAL.

Miss Freda Keiser, of the Roselle, has been visiting friends in Raritan.

Alexander Millar and family, of Madison avenue, are home from their summer outing.

Thomas Lovett, of East Second street, has been visiting his son in New York city.

John Dunn, of North avenue, has returned to his duties after a two weeks' vacation.

Father Egan has left for a short vacation, during which he will visit the St. Louis Exposition.

Verna Naughright, of Lower Valley, Hunterdon County, has entered the Plainfield High School.

David Holland and family, of New York, spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Williams, of West End avenue.

J. B. Betts, of Washington avenue, has returned from Haines Falls, N. Y., where he spent his summer vacation.

A Great Offer.

The New York World will be sent by mail to any address during the Presidential campaign, every week day for two months, for fifty cents. The regular price of The World for two months is $1, and this special half-rate campaign offer is of especial interest to every reader desiring the best and most accurate news of the campaign. This offer is limited to Oct. 7. The result of the election will be foreshadowed in The World weeks in advance, exactly as Cleveland's election was foretold, and as McKinley's triumphs were, The World giving the electoral vote by States with absolute correctness ten weeks before McKinley's election day. The World will not only strive to be right, but it will be bright and large, national in its news and views. Every one who is interested in this vital Presidential contest will need it every day. No Democrat or Republican should be happy without it. As a special inducement to clubs and campaign workers, ten subscriptions for two months each will be sent for $4. Address World Campaign Club, Room 49, World Building, New York.

DEMOCRATS AT SEA

Reconvene at Saratoga With Nomination Unsettled.

GROUT AND SHEPARD IN THE LEAD

Four Other Candidates Close Behind Them—Professor Duncan Campbell Lee Presides as Permanent Chairman.

SARATOGA, N. Y., Sept. 21.—The Democratic state convention met for its second session at 11 o'clock and effected permanent organization by electing Professor Duncan Campbell Lee of Ithaca chairman.

The second session of the convention opened with the nomination of a candidate for governor still in the air, Edward M. Grout and Edward M. Shepard, both of Brooklyn, being regarded as leading the field.

The candidacy of Comptroller Grout has the backing of Senator Patrick H. McCarren and the Kings county delegation and is accorded a great deal of importance among the rank and file of the delegates. Even the people most interested in the other candidates admit that Senator McCarren made a strong impression.

As to the candidacy of Mr. Shepard, his name came into every discussion, and he appeared to be the only candidate of whom all of the others were, so to speak, afraid.

Other names discussed are those of Assemblyman George M. Palmer of Schoharie county, Supreme Court Justice D. Cady Herrick of Albany, William B. Hornblower of New York, Mayor George B. McClellan of New York and former Secretary of War Daniel S. Lamont of New York.

John B. Stanchfield of Elmira has apparently been eliminated.

There is a report that Mr. Palmer is likely to be offered the nomination for lieutenant governor in case of the nomination of either Mr. Grout or Mr. Shepard. This suggestion is received with little enthusiasm by Mr. Palmer's friends, who imply that he should either be nominated for governor or left off the ticket.

The name of Justice Herrick was coupled by rumor with that of Representative Francis Burton Harrison of New York for the lieutenant governorship. Justice Herrick was spoken of most frequently as a compromise between Shepard and Grout in case the nomination of either should turn out to be impossible. His candidacy created a great commotion among some of the Albany leaders who flocked to Senator Hill's quarters, it was supposed, to protest against such a move as the justice has long been regarded as opposed to the Democratic faction in Albany county. The talk of Mayor McClellan has not been very serious. The opposition of Leader Murphy of Tammany Hall was generally regarded as placing a final quietus upon any possibility of McClellan's nomination.

The name of Mr. Hornblower as a possible candidate made its first appearance immediately after the convention had taken recess, and it had a brisk circulation through the crowd in the corridors. It originated during a visit by Representative Cockran and Senator Dowling of Tammany Hall to former Senator Hill.

Parker In Touch With Leaders.

ESOPUS, Sept. 21.—Judge Parker has been in close touch with political advisers who are in attendance upon the state convention at Saratoga. Every few minutes messengers were climbing the hill from the telegraph office to the judge's house. The operator who handles Judge Parker's personal messages was busy most of the day, but in spite of many messages the candidate found time to issue orders to his men concerning the harvesting of the crops. There were no political callers at Rosemount, and the judge took a long horseback ride.

Cortelyou and Odell In Conference.

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—Chairman Cortelyou at Republican national headquarters and Chairman Odell at Republican state headquarters were occupied in a series of conferences relating to the national and state campaigns. After calling at national headquarters Chairman Odell said that he had cleared up a number of important matters with Mr. Cortelyou, all relating to the state election. Chairman Cortelyou had extended conferences with Senator Aldrich of Rhode Island, Senator Platt of Connecticut and ex-Governor Black, but no information was given out as to the results in either case.

Fairbanks Speaks In Baltimore.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 21. — Senator Charles W. Fairbanks was the chief speaker at a Republican mass meeting held in this city, the event being the formal opening of the Republican campaign in Maryland. In his speech Senator Fairbanks declared that the losses of Baltimore in the conflagration of this year were not so large as those sustained by the city during the last Democratic administration, as a result of the temporary overthrow of Republican principles.

Taggart Back From the West.

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—Chairman Taggart of the national Democratic committee has arrived in New York from the west.

Ice In North Dakota.

GRAND FORKS, N. D., Sept. 21.—The first killing frost of the season has visited this locality. The temperature touched freezing point, and thick ice formed on all exposed water. Uncut corn is killed and a large quantity of flax. There is still some green wheat, but this will be good for nothing but feed.

Fall Mode Costumes For Women, Girls and Children.

Our Outergarment Department was a place of light and beauty yesterday, and is today; you'll find it so tomorrow, with its rich and practical conceptions modeled by the fashion centres of the world for Women's fall and winter adornment. Our own original and exclusive numbers appeal to every woman who understands the art of dressing. There is a peculiar winsomeness about the Hahne styles that are rarely found in ready-made costumes, and their prices are within the reach of the many. The new garments are so attractive in their varied effects, their perfect fit and finish, so practical and serviceable, and their prices so acceptably low, that we cannot fail to please the most fastidious woman.

NOTE—Our display of Outergarments is greater, three times over, than that of any other store in New Jersey, and the full equal of the biggest shown in New York.

Women's Coat Special—This very stylish and graceful garment is made of fine tan covert cloth, three quarter length, body and sleeves Skinner satin lined, loose tourist back, its regular price is 22.50, special tomorrow..... 12.50

Women's Silk Waist Special—A beauty feature of our great stock is this waist of good quality taffeta in navy, black or brown, entire back and front in one-inch tucks, all sizes, regular 5.98, special tomorrow 3.50

Exquisite Millinery
For Women, Misses and Children.

Our Millinery Department was declared by the crowds of critics who visited it yesterday to be the most superb revelation of combined art, beauty and style ever presented in Newark. New York visitors were also greatly impressed with the display. There are two more "Opening Days." Come, and we will show you the newest and richest creations of the leading perfection millinery artists of Europe. Our assortment of Untrimmed Hats is larger and better than ever before. Hundreds of beautiful shapes for all ages and faces, in plain and fancy felt braid, silk braids and novelties, are ready for you to see. Let us know your idea of a Dress or Walking Hat and we'll develop a perfect gem from that conception. We have experts who study faces and advise the style of hat that will be the most becoming.

Our floral, ornament, trimming and novelty display comprises the best and most exclusive productions of the leading manufacturers of home and abroad.

The Two Widely Popular Trimmed Hats are our 4.75 and 7.75. Don't fail to see them. They have the appearance of hats charged double our price in other stores. "Imitation is the sincerest flattery." Other local houses have copied our models, and they'll copy the present ones.

RESULTS AT GRAVESEND.

Twenty to One Shot Wins the Bayshore Selling Stakes.

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—Monet at 20 to 1 won the Bayshore selling stakes, about six furlongs, at Gravesend, defeating the favorite, Armenia, by half a length. Ascension was third.

Monet went to the front at the start and made the running, closely followed by Armenia and Old England. In the run to the stretch Ascension and Dick Bernard closed on the leaders.

Monet outlasted Armenia and won driving.

Three favorites won. Jockey Kunz was suspended for two days for disobedience at the post. Summaries:

First Race—Letola, 7 to 2, first; Geranium, 25 to 1, second; Major Pelham, 6 to 5, third. Time, 1 minute 10 3-5 seconds.

Second Race—Oiseau, 6 to 5, first; Blandy, 15 to 1, second; Heart's Desire, 10 to 1, third. Time, 1 minute 7 2-5 seconds.

Third Race—Monet, 20 to 1, first; Armenia, 13 to 5, second; Ascension, 2 to 1, third. Time, 1 minute 10 3-5 seconds.

Fourth Race—Ormonde's Right, 16 to 5, first; Sonoma Belle, 15 to 1, second; St. Valentine, 3½ to 1, third. Time, 1 minute 53 2-5 seconds.

Fifth Race—Santa Catalina, 8 to 5 first; Lucy Young, 3 to 1, second; Floralia, 12 to 1, third. Time, 1 minute 1 4-5 seconds.

Sixth Race—Stuyve, 11 to 5, first; Reveille, 8 to 1, second; Flexion, 7 to 1, third. Time, 1 minute 48 seconds.

GRAND CIRCUIT RACES.

Major Delmar Will Go Against Cresceus' Record.

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 21.—Showers and heavy wind interfered with the second day's grand circuit racing, but the majority of the heats were fought out from wire to wire.

Alexander, a 5 to 2 choice, for the 2:23 trotting stake, lost the first heat on account of a break. He then steadied down and won handily. Nancy H. was the choice of the big lot of 2:25 pacers. The Hudson mare was outfooted by Edwin C. in the first heat, but brushed by Rosewood in the next two heats.

Hudson drove Mainland, the favorite for the 2:19 trot and was able to take the first two heats by scant half lengths. Mainland lead all the way in the third heat, but was overhauled and passed by Brownie Wilton in the last stride. On account of darkness it was impossible to trot the fourth heat.

Tomorrow Major Delmar will go against the Cresceus record, 2:02¼, without a wind shield or pacemaker.

Olympian Golf Championship.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 21.—As the result of the first round of match play in the Olympic international golf championship at Glen Echo Country club only sixteen golfers are left to compete in the second round. Chicago has six representatives left, of whom not more than four can survive, as Ned Sawyer and Simpson Foulis, Wheaton Golf clubmates, and H. C. Egan and Nathaniel F. Moore are drawn as opponents. Arthur Havemeyer of Deal Beach is the only New Yorker left in the running.

Stroller Wins Cicero Stakes.

CHICAGO, Sept. 21.—The Cicero stakes, the feature at Harlem, was captured by Stroller in easy fashion. The winner took command at the start and led his field all the way. Spencerian, outrun during the early part of the race, made up a lot of ground and finished strong, taking second place, two lengths ahead of Fonsoluca.

Rice Rides Four Winners at Delmar.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 21.—Barklyite liked the soft track at Delmar and beat Footlight's Favorite a neck in the feature of the card. Footlight's Favorite led to within a few yards of the wire. Jockey Rice rode four winners, one second and one third out of six mounts.

PORT ARTHUR'S PERIL

Russia Anxiously Awaiting News of Jap Assault.

KUROKI REPORTED ACROSS THE HUN

St. Petersburg Discredits Alleged Advance, Saying That He Could Not Have Evaded Rennenkampff's Cossack Scouts.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 21.—Interest is again concentrated upon Port Arthur, owing to the receipt from foreign sources of news that a general storming of the fortifications there has begun. A few belated telegrams from General Stoessel, the commander at Port Arthur, are published, recording the repulse of the Japanese and continued attacks. This strengthens confidence in the ability of the defenders to hold out despite the furious onslaughts of the Japanese. The last attack mentioned by General Stoessel took place the night of Sept. 14 and was directed against redoubt No. 8, which protects the water supply of the city. The redoubt is about two miles beyond the line of permanent forts, and the attack upon this shows that the Japanese were not then within striking distance of the main fortress. Reports from Shanghai that some of the defenses had fallen into the hands of the Japanese as a result of a general assault on Sept. 20 are not confirmed from Russian sources.

The latest telegrams brought to Chefu by Prince Radziwill have not yet reached the war office. It is understood that these dispatches contain details of the landing of strong Japanese reinforcements at Dalny, which would tend to confirm the belief that it is the intention of the Japanese to storm the fortress and that the warships will probably take part in the attack. In this event Rear Admiral Wiren's division will doubtless go out and engage the Japanese fleet.

All Russia is anxiously awaiting news from the beleaguered garrison. Public feeling has been aroused to a high tension by the dreadful picture given by Prince Radziwill of the sufferings of the Russian army there.

The sensational announcement that General Kuroki has crossed the Hun river unopposed and that the whole Japanese army is advancing upon Mukden is overshadowed by anxiety for Port Arthur. Moreover, the announcement does not receive complete credence here as being in direct contradiction of official news issued by the general staff. General Kuropatkin announced only two days ago that there was not a single Japanese east of Bentsiaputze. How, it is asked, could General Kuroki, with 100,000 men, slip past General Rennemkampff's Cossacks and cross the Hun river near the Fushan coal mines, thirty miles east of Mukden? Fushan is situated on the road from Bentsiaputze, where General Kuroki crossed the Taitse river. This road is carefully watched by General Kuropatkin's outposts between Mukden and Sintsintin. A strong guard has been placed at the Fushan mines, which General Kuropatkin will not give up without a struggle, as the loss of the mines would involve the cutting off of the coal supply for the whole of the Manchurian railway. Nevertheless, it is considered more than doubtful if General Kuropatkin will make a decisive stand south of Tie pass.

Argentine Warships at Libau.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 21.—It is reported here that four warships purchased from Argentine have arrived at Libau.

Free Postal Information.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—The postoffice department has issued a pamphlet of general postal information, intended for free distribution throughout the United States. The distribution was begun today and under an order of Third Assistant Postmaster General Madden copies will not be supplied direct to the public from the department, but through postmasters, to whom application must be made. As nearly as practicable one copy will be supplied from the stamp windows of postoffices to each family and each business establishment.

Cuba's Import Trade.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—The state department has received from Minister Squiers at Havana a table showing Cuba's import trade for the first quarter of 1904 and for the same quarter of 1903. These figures are of special interest in that they cover the first quarter after Dec. 26, 1903, when the reciprocity treaty took effect. There was an increase of $2,038,200 in the imports of Cuba for the first quarter of 1904 over those for the same period of 1903.

Church Wall Collapses.

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., Sept. 21.—With a crash that could be heard throughout the entire northern section of this city, the inner wall of the north side of the new St. Anthony's church collapsed, killing Gilbert Tremblay, sixty years old, a mason, and seriously injuring six others who were working on the structure. The building, which was under construction, occupied almost an entire block on Acushnet avenue, between Ballard and Nye streets.

Strike Situation In Rome Improving.

ROME, Sept. 21.—The situation here is gradually improving, and it is expected that there will be a general resumption of work from today on. A dispatch from Naples to a news agency here says that a meeting of strikers there ended in a conflict with the police and that the latter, by firing in the air, frightened and dispersed the mob.

Plainfield, N. J., Sept. 21, 1904.

An exchange says that the United States government has imported an expert from England who is to go to Texas and other points to study the mosquito. Why not save car fare and other expenses by sending him to Newark.

In Robert L. Stevens the Democrats of the Fourth district, which includes Somerset County, believe that they have found an ideal man to nominate for Congress. His friends say that if selected for the honor he will wage a vigorous campaign and will bring victory to the party in November. Ira W. Wood, of Trenton, will be the Republican nominee, and his party is just as sanguine that he will be a winner.

The railroads do not seem inclined to allow the equal taxation issue to become a law without a vigorous fight. This is shown by the fact that the Pennsylvania, the Lackawanna and the Central are gathering statistics concerning the value of their property in the various cities and counties of the State and are preparing other data to be used in arguments before the commission appointed some time ago. The Democratic party's platform comes out flat-footed in favor of taxing the railroads. The Republican platform, a cleverly worded document, says that the wise thing to do is to wait for the report of the commission appointed to investigate the subject, but at the same time the party pledges itself to do all that is sensible and just in bringing about equal taxation.

CITY JOTTINGS.

—Employes of the Public Service Corporation are doing considerable repair work along the trolley tracks on West Front street, between Plainfield and Grant avenues.

—Sergeant Peterson, of Co. K, will be at the armory tomorrow night to distribute buttons to those who qualified on the range this summer and who come up with their twenty-five cents as entrance fee.

—Peach growers in Hunterdon county report that the crop is much larger than they anticipated. It has been found that some of the peaches are from two to three weeks late. There are no prospects of the fruit being any cheaper than at present. In fact it is likely to be higher in price.

In Justice Hand's Court.

The following cases are on the docket at Justice Hand's court: William H. Forestel against Ralph Keller, on contract, returnable September 22; August Bourjoin against Johanne Giebelhouse, on contract, returnable September 21; Frederick Yates against George B. Staats, on contract, returnable September 26; William Huelle against James A. Galvin, on contract, returnable September 21. Judgment has been granted on two cases at Justice Hand's court. In the case of Hall, Camp & Company against James E. Totten, on contract, judgment has been given for $80 and costs. Judgment in the case of Morris Farbman against Walter H. Dorion was given for $51 and costs.

Union's Socialists Active.

The Union County Socialists intend waging a vigorous campaign this year. They unfurled a banner in Elizabeth on Saturday night and afterward paraded the streets headed by a drum corps. They intend holding a series of meetings in various parts of the county during October.

DEMOCRATS TO NAME STEVENS FOR CONGRESS

FOURTH DISTRICT CONVENTION AT SOMERVILLE ON SATURDAY.

Robert L. Stevens, of Bernardsville, will be the Democratic candidate for Congress in the Fourth district, which includes Somerset, Mercer and Hunterdon Counties, unless the plans are suddenly changed. He is a presidential elector and is well known to the leaders of the party. There is no other candidate in the field, Assemblyman Swackhamer having stated positively that he would not be a candidate for the honor.

The congressional convention of the Fourth district will be held at Somerville on Saturday. Mercer County will send a big delegation to boom Mr. Stevens, who will be placed in nomination by Somerset County. A brass band will accompany the Mercer County crowd and there will be a lively time at Somerville on that day.

The Republicans have practically settled upon Ira W. Wood, of Trenton, as their candidate.

SUBURBAN NEWS.

DUNELLEN AND VICINITY.

A meeting of the candidates for the football team was held last night in Vail & Alberts' store. Charles Lake was elected manager and Robert Maltbie was elected captain. About thirty candidates from Plainfield, Bound Brook and Dunellen were at the meeting, most of whom are well known here, and are good players. Practice was held in the depot park after the meeting and another will be held Friday evening.

A tramp, who has been wanted in town for about two months for begging, was seen racing across fields yesterday afternoon with Marshal Mohan in hot pursuit. The tramp, who was the faster running of the two, crossed over the line into Plainfield before he could be caught.

A team of spirited black horses, driven by Michael Gallagher, were frightened by the P. S. C. sprinkling car on North avenue, yesterday afternoon, and a runaway was narrowly averted by good judgment on the part of the driver.

A valuable dog belonging to Barney Siriski stepped on a piece of glass yesterday afternoon and severed a blood vessel. It bled for about two hours. When it was finally stopped the dog was very weak and in a critical condition.

Charlie Smith, the young son of A. K. Smith, of Front street, fell from a trolley car while on his way home from the fire at Clinton avenue, Monday night, and received a severe bruise over his right eye.

Frank McSaulty, who has been living in Harrisburg for the past few months, will return to the borough to live in a few days.

The subscription list for the football team has been well patronized and a fair sized amount has been collected.

Henry Garretson, a delegate for the State convention at Trenton, spent yesterday in that place on business.

The cellar is being dug for the house which is to be erected by W. H. Terry on Washington avenue.

The Logan house on Washington avenue will be completed about the twenty-fifth of this month.

Miss Effie Baily expects to start in the Plainfield Business College in a few days.

Charles Doolittle returned to Rutgers College this morning as a sophomore.

Dr. P. W. Brakeley spent yesterday in New York on business.

Robert Lowrie has resigned his position at the brick-yards.

John McMahon spent yesterday in New York and Newark.

'PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

George Ball was unable to attend the State convention held at Trenton, yesterday, on account of illness. This left the local party without a delegate in the convention, but everything was harmonious and votes were not badly needed.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Johnston have returned from a stay of several weeks with relatives and friends at Tenafly, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. James D. Cleaver have started housekeeping, having rented the Allen property on Westfield avenue.

William Borkowsky, formerly of the village, but now residing at Westfield, has been visiting friends in town.

Mr. Pendergast, who has been spending the summer at The Homestead, has returned to New York.

Adam Gray, who has been visiting his brother, Joseph Gray, has returned to his home in Newark.

Mrs. William Hazel spent Tuesday with her sister, Mrs. Frank Putnam, of East Second street.

Miss Nancy Wade has returned to Milburn after a visit of several days with her parents.

Harry Flannery has taken a position with the Western Electric Co., of New York.

Miss Minnie Hosinger has been entertaining friends from out of town.

SOUTH PLAINFIELD.

An electric light line is being placed on Clinton avenue as far as the Lehigh Valley Railroad.

Miss Nellie Vannest had an attack of acute sore throat Monday. She is now improving.

Morris Higgins' hall has been furnished with electric light appointments.

Roy Clawson is learning the plumbers' trade.

John Stetson, proprietor of the Fifth Avenue Theatre in New York, now Proctor's, and other playhouses and opera companies. He remained with him until 1891 and then went to Chicago to take charge of J. H. Haverly's Eden Musee patterned after the enterprise of the same name in New York. Haverly afterward gave it up and Edwards managed it for two years when the erection of the elevated railway and other causes made it unprofitable.

At this juncture he received an invitation from Colonel William Morton, now of Newark, to take charge of the reconstructed Star theatre at Elizabeth, now Jacobs. He was not satisfied with the field and becoming interested in Plainfield made his entrance to this city in 1897 as the manager of Music Hall. Under him the theatre, which had been dragging along under constant change of management, took a new lease of life and for two seasons local playgoers had the best plays and the foremost artists in the country brought to their doors. During the last two years it was opened or until 1901, Mr. Edwards was so hampered by existing conditions that the Stillman family decided to turn the entrance into a store and let the hall remain idle. It still stands the same as it did on the last night it was opened to the public when "Quo Vadis" was presented.

The fact that Plainfield no longer had a theatre did not mean Mr. Edwards' departure as he had become so attached to the city that he then and there decided to make it his home no matter what developed. He has since remained and three years ago, at the solicitation of former Mayor Fisk, assumed charge of the Casino and by reason of his wide experience has conducted it successfully. By his progressive methods and ready adaption to circumstances he has made it a substitute for a playhouse and Plainfielders have been appreciating it more and more.

Although he never appeared on the stage himself, Mr. Edwards' family has been theatrically inclined. His brother, Sam Edwards, is a headliner on the vaudeville stage; his son, Rowland Edwards, is leading man for the "Her Mad Marriage" Company and his daughter, Miss Edith Edwards, is winning success in musical comedy. Mr. Edwards has been twice married. His first wife and the mother of his children died thirteen years ago. He remarried five years later and the present Mrs. Edwards is also very fond of Plainfield and has a wide circle of acquaintances. Their home life has been of the happiest and in Mr. Edwards' own words she is "a jolly good fellow."

Dr. Richard Hutchingson, of East Fifth street, is dangerously ill.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. VanDyck, of East Fifth street, on Monday attended the funeral of their aunt, Mrs. John McBride, who was the mother of Mr. Charles C. Mcbride, former editor of the Elizabeth Daily Journal and at present connected with the Newark Evening News.

LEAL'S ELEVEN PRACTICE.

Ralph Schoonmaker Coaching the Candidates.

The football squad for the Leal's School met for practice yesterday afternoon, and the boys were put through the preliminary stunts. There was much new material out and there will be plenty of work for the coach to develope the right sort of stuff for a winning team. Many of the boys have never played before, but all show a eagerness to get in the game which speaks well for the ultimate results. The boys are fortunate in securing the services of Ralph Schoonmaker as coach. Mr. Stiles, of the faculty, is also assisting in drilling the team.

Of the old men, Glenney, Wilcox, Suffern and Daniels were out yesterday, and played in their usual form. Glenney and Suffern will play at end and the other two men will probably go behind the line. The rest of the team will be composed of the following candidates: Lyman, Dallas, Underhill, Endicott, Waring, Lawrence, Reese, Valiant, Howard, C. Haughey, Manning and Curtis.

—A word about peaches. At Neuman Brothers' tomorrow 100 baskets of the very best white and yellow fruit will be disposed of at 75 cents, 85 cents and $1.25 a basket.

Alexander R. Boyd, has returned from Baltimore, after making a tour of over a year through the western states. He expects to spent the winter in New York. Mr. Boyd is connected with the Pennsylvania Steel Co. which does a large business in Baltimore.

STOKES NOMINATED.

Named For Governor by New Jersey Republicans.

PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS CHOSEN.

Platform Devoted Largely to State Issues—Successful Gubernatorial Candidate Rises From Sickbed to Accept.

TRENTON, N. J., Sept. 21.—In a state convention that was both enthusiastic and harmonious the Republicans of New Jersey nominated former State Senator Edward C. Stokes of Cumberland county for the the governorship. The nomination was made by acclamation after nomination speeches had been made by Senator Minch of Cumberland, Prosecutor Speer of Hudson and ex-Governor Foster M. Voorhees of Union. Mr. Stokes, who had been ill, appeared in the convention after his nomination had been made and accepted the nomination in a speech that was well received. Mr. Stokes was vigorously cheered as he ascended the platform.

Contrary to expectation, the platform was adopted without the slightest objection from Hudson county. The Hudson delegates had made it clear that they were not fully satisfied with the platform as it had been drawn, but they contented themselves with stating their position before the committee on resolutions. This they did without avail. The platform adopted provides for the taxation of second class railroad property at local rates. This would add about $400,000 to the $1,500,000 of taxes paid annually by the railroads in this state. Of the $400,000 increase Jersey City alone would receive about $275,000. This is due to the fact that so much second class railroad property is located in that city. Second class railroad property is property used for railroad purposes that is outside of the main line or "main stem," as it is described in the law.

Besides nominating the candidate for governor the convention named two electors at large and ten district electors.

The nominations for presidential electors follow:

At large, U. H. McCarter of Essex, Washington A. Roebling of Mercer; First district, Howard M. Cooper of Camden; Second, Lewis T. Stevens of Cape May; Third, Lewis S. Thompson of Monmouth; Fourth, Adolph Mack of Somerset; Fifth, Richard H. Williams of Morris; Sixth, J. Hull Browning of Bergen; Seventh, Henry Dickson of Essex; Eighth, Arthur B. Leach of Essex; Ninth, Jacob Ringle of Hudson; Tenth, Aaron S. Baldwin of Hudson.

Charles C. Black Notified.

NEW YORK, Sept. 20.—Charles C. Black, the Democratic nominee for governor of New Jersey, has been notified at his home in Jersey City of his nomination by the Democratic convention. The speech of notification was made by John R. Hardin of Newark. Mr. Black accepted the nomination in a brief address.

Boilermakers Locked Out.

SUSQUEHANNA, Pa., Sept. 21.—When the 300 boilermakers and their helpers employed in the Erie Railroad company's extensive locomotive shops here reported for work yesterday they were surprised to find the doors of the boiler shops locked, and a placard stating that their services were no longer required. No reason is assigned for the action. Two carloads of nonunion men have been set to work in the shops. They will be housed and fed by the company. A squad of detectives are picketing the shops. All of the boiler shops on the Erie railroad system will be affected, and other union organizations may be drawn into the dispute.

Wounded Knights Start For Home.

JUNCTION CITY, Kan., Sept. 21.—The Knights Templars party whose cars were wrecked west of this city have left for Rhode Island. There are fifty-nine persons in the party. Most of the injured passed a restless night. All the physicians and surgeons from Fort Riley spent most of the night dressing the wounds of the injured. All the members of the party were able to resume their journey east, although a number of the most seriously injured had to be carried to the cars. With the party there are six physicians who will care for the injured on the way home.

No "Before Day" Club at Talbotton.

TALBOTTON, Ga., Sept. 21.—The trial of the alleged members of the negro "Before Day" club was held before Judge Raines, and after a careful examination of numerous witnesses the negroes were given their freedom. It appeared from the evidence that the report of the alleged organization emanated from the negro woman in a fit of jealousy and was not reliable. From careful inquiry it does not appear that there is any "Before Day" club.

Condemns Freethought Congress.

ROME, Sept. 21.—In the Osservatore Romano, the organ of the Vatican, the following official notice appears: "Innumerable telegrams have reached the pope from all classes of people in Italy protesting against the satanic congress of Freethinkers which, under the auspices of Freemasonry, has been inaugurated in Rome, the center of the Catholic faith."

Jose Pardo President of Peru.

LIMA, Sept. 21.—The Peruvian congress by a vote of 101 against 30 has proclaimed Jose Pardo president and Salvador Cavero first vice-president of the republic.

OLD SOLDIERS IN SESSION.

Army of the Cumberland Holds Reunion In Indianapolis.

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 21.—Gray haired veterans of the civil war assembled in the Claypool auditorium for the public exercises which marked the closing of the first day's session of the thirty-fifth annual reunion of the Society of the Army of the Cumberland.

General H. V. Boynton of Washington, president of the society, called the meeting to order, and Judge Daniel W. Howe welcomed the visitors. General John T. Wilder of Knoxville, Tenn., who during the bloody campaigns of the Cumberland army commanded the famous Wilder brigade, responded. General Boynton then read letters from President Roosevelt, Whitelaw Reid and Judge Alton B. Parker.

Cheers followed the reading of the letters.

Orlando Somers of Kokomo, Ind., delivered the annual oration.

"The Grand Army of the Republic," the subject of an address by General Blackmar, elicited great applause. General C. H. Grosvenor of Ohio followed General Blackmar.

The exercises closed with the singing of "The Star Spangled Banner."

The nominating committee made its report during the afternoon session. The following officers were chosen:

President, General Henry V. Boynton, Washington; corresponding secretary, Major John Tweedale, U. S. A., Washington; recording secretary, Colonel John W. Steele, Oberlin, O.; treasurer, General Frank G. Smith, U. S. A.; historian, Colonel G. C. Kniffen.

EX-JUSTICE DIES AT DESK.

William L. Learned of Albany a Victim of Heart Failure.

ALBANY, N. Y., Sept. 21.—Former Supreme Court Justice William L. Learned, for many years the presiding justice of the former general term for the Third judicial district, was found dead while seated at his desk in his law office. Although eighty-three years of age, Judge Learned had kept up his active professional practice and was apparently in the best of health when he arrived from Selkirk, his summer home, a few miles from this city.

When discovered he had been dead for an hour, and the end was probably due to heart failure. Judge Learned was born in New London, Conn., and graduated from Yale college in 1841. He settled in Albany and in 1870 was appointed by Governor Hoffman a justice of the supreme court to fill the vacancy caused by the elevation of Justice Rufus W. Peckham, father of Judge Peckham of the United States supreme court, to the court of appeals bench. He was afterward elected for two successive terms and only retired in 1892 because of the age limitation. He was a lifelong Democrat. He was actively identified with the educational interests of Albany.

NEGRO OUTBREAK FEARED.

Arms and Ammunition Being Rushed to Town of Pitts, Ga.

MACON, Ga., Sept. 21.—A special from Hawkinsville, Ga., to the Telegraph says:

"Messages have been received by the hardware stores here to rush by express ammunition and arms to Pitts, Wilcox county, in anticipation of an expected outbreak among the negroes who live there in large numbers. On Saturday night Cecil Johnson, a white man, shot and killed a negro, and since that time the negroes have been holding secret meetings 250 strong, many quitting their work to attend.

"Prominent citizens from Pitts are here preparing for the matter. They say the situation there is serious, but that the white men of that whole section are resolved to hold the situation in command at any cost. Hawkinsville, Pineview and Cordele have offered their services."

Odd Fellows Elect Officers.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 21.—The following officers were elected by the sovereign grand lodge of Odd Fellows: Grand sire, Robert E. Wright of Allentown, Pa., promoted from the office of deputy grand sire by unanimous vote; deputy grand sire, E. S. Conway of Chicago, chosen on the second ballot by a vote of 108 to 89 for John T. Nolan of Nashville, Tenn.; grand secretary, J. Frank Grant of Baltimore, re-elected without opposition; grand treasurer, M. Richard Muckle of Philadelphia, re-elected, no opposition.

Two Women Commit Suicide.

BUCYRUS, O., Sept. 21.—The bodies of Mary and Lizzie Kehrer, who lived alone on a small farm near here, were found by section men on the Ohio Central railroad. The women wrapped themselves in a bed spread and laid down on the track and were killed by a passenger train. They had frequently declared that they were tired of the struggle for life and wanted to die.

Steamer Korea Sails For Orient.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 21.—The Pacific Mail steamship Korea sailed for the orient, via Honolulu, with a full passenger list and a cargo of 9,000 tons of general merchandise, most of the latter being for Japan. Among the passengers was Rear Admiral C. J. Train, who is to assume command of the Philippine squadron of the Asiatic fleet.

Held for Passing Bad Money.

ITHACA, N. Y., Sept. 21.—Herman Knapp, a young farmer who was arrested last week charged with passing counterfeit money, was held for the United States grand jury after an examination before United States Commissioner T. H. Bostwick.

MINTO IN NORTHWEST.

His Visit Starts the Doukhobors on Another Pilgrimage.

WINNIPEG, Man., Sept. 21.—The governor general, the Earl of Minto, accompanied by his private secretary, Major Maude and the escort of the royal northwest mounted police under Inspector Gilpin-Browne, has arrived at Battleford from Lloydminster, which place was reached last week on the governor's great 500 mile ride across the prairie from Edmonton. From Battleford the party will ride to Saskatoon, whence a special train will be taken to Regina. Lady Minto will join the governor at Qu' Apelle, and the whole party will continue the journey to Winnipeg, arriving there on Thursday or Friday.

On hearing of the great overland ride being made by Lord Minto from Battleford to Saskatoon, accompanied by a mounted guard of police and much military pomp, the Doukhobors of the Northwest Territories decided that this man who was inspiring such respect from the Canadians must be the messiah for whom they had been waiting, and they immediately started on one of their pilgrimages.

Several of them were promptly arrested by the police here and housed in a vacant building.

FALL RIVER STRIKE.

First Intimation of Settlement of Long Controversy.

FALL RIVER, Mass., Sept. 21.—The first intimation of a settlement of the strike in the cotton mills in this city, which began on July 25, came when it became known that one of the manufacturers had bought a large quantity of raw cotton to be delivered the latter part of October and that other manufacturers were trying to place similar orders.

It is the general belief that any settlement of the strike within the next two or three weeks will be in favor of the operatives.

The cotton market is stronger, the stock of manufactured goods is low, there is a continuous demand for textiles and the finished stock will command better prices, thus enabling the manufacturers to operate the factories without reducing the wages of the employees.

The strikers still express their determination not to return to work under the wage reduction of 12½ per cent, which was the cause of the strike.

SEVEN PERSONS HURT.

New Yorkers In Serious Automobile Accident In Chicago.

CHICAGO, Sept. 21.—Miss Neva E. Scott of Chicago was seriously and six other persons slightly injured in an automobile accident at Twentieth and Michigan avenues. Besides Miss Scott the injured are Miss Helen Davies of New York, niece of H. G. Davies; L. C. Murphy, theatrical manager of Boston; Dr. Reginald Smith of New York, surgeon at Bellevue hospital; Miss Grace Bowen of Chicago; Miss Zala Terry of Peoria, and Miss Helen Reidy of St. Louis.

A hose stretched across the street caused the automobile to swerve and crash into the curb, throwing the occupants to the pavement.

Austrian Naval League.

VIENNA, Sept. 21.—An Austrian Naval league, modeled after the German Naval league, has been organized here. It is supported by Archduke Franz Ferdinand, the Austrian ministry and other influential personages.

WOMAN'S PLACE.

She Is the Inventor of All Primitive Human Industries.

To arrive at the real story of human development and differentiations it is necessary to go back to the beginning of things. We can, however, only judge what the original man was by studying him among the remnants of primitive races wherever they are to be found on the globe. What the original man was he, as nearly as may be, is today. A flood of light was thrown on the original conditions of the race by that remark of an Australian savage to a British scientist.

"Men," said the native, "spear fish and hunt; women do all the rest."

Among the primitive tribes all man's time was taken up with fighting either his own kind or the scarcely more wild animals. Woman did the rest—that is to say, it is woman and nobody else who invented every one of the industries necessary to the feeding, clothing and sheltering of the race. Relics of implements from the most ancient times and stone carvings picked up here and there show this.

Professor Otis T. Mason of the United States department of ethnology has written a paper giving the evidence that proves woman to be the founder of all the industries of peace and progress.

The race found out as the birds find out that grains are good for food. While her men were away engaged in their normal occupation of fighting, woman went into the woods or upon the grassy plains and gathered those nuts and grains that trial had proved to be palatable and nourishing. Trial had proved these nuts and grains to be coated with a husk or shell that did not taste good. Woman thereupon cracked them with stones or rubbed them together to remove the husk. By and by woman found these grains could be raised from seeds in ever increasing quantities that could be kept ready to hand and save her time and trouble. Very good. Thereafter annually woman planted these seeds and tended them and produced a crop. Thus was the occupation of the farmer established.

To this day country women in many places go through the fields gathering "greens" for their families, quite unconscious that they are only following perhaps in the literal footsteps of their primitive female ancestors of mayhap a million years ago.

By and by, after the use of fire was discovered, it was found that grains tasted better to the masculine palate if they were roasted. Even then it did not matter to woman. So they were cooked, and woman was the original baker. One step more. Again, as always, trial proved these grains tasted still better if they were ground fine and mixed into a pulp before baking. Accordingly woman pulverized the grains upon stone till they formed a meal that could be made into dough. Thus woman was the original miller, the inventor of grain grinding.

Man, whose business was fighting and hunting, brought a wild beast to the cave where his womankind were and laid it down. The women had already found that skins kept their children warm, so they rubbed stones together till they produced in one an edge sufficiently sharp to divide the skin of the slain beast from its flesh. They so divided it; they discovered ways to tan and make it soft and pleasant to the feel. Thus was woman the first leather maker.

Woman found that the outside covering of certain animals was of a kind that when twisted together made a long string—in other words, it was wool. She twisted threads and pushed them in and out, over and under one another into a fabric that could be made into clothing for her family. Thus she invented the art of spinning and weaving. How the primitive woman spun and wove may be seen today among some of the remnants of Indian tribes. By and by woman found, too, that certain grasses and the products of some other plants could be in like manner spun and woven. And it should not be forgotten that it was woman—a Chinese empress, away back in Old Testament times—who invented and perfected the silk industry.

Yet again woman found she could punch holes in the clothing skins and push a long thin thong through these holes in and out and fasten the ends of it. Hence the art of sewing and the invention of needles.

One need not go further. It is a scientifically established fact that woman is the founder of human industries and of the arts of peace. When man [illegible] himself all out, grown bold, fierce, aggressive through [illegible] simply turned against [illegible] by nature a creature [illegible] from her her own [illegible] invented, drove her [illegible] was "men's work."

LEGEND OF THE IROQUOIS.

Origin of the Clan of Turtle Accounted For in a Wonderful and Amusing Tale.

The origin of the family of Iroquois Indians known as the Turtle clan is explained by a legend current in the tribe. It runs as follows:

Once upon a time many tortoises of the kind known as mud turtles lived in a pool in the forest and enjoyed themselves undisturbed for years. They had plenty to eat and often spoke with pity of other mud turtles who lived in pools where flies and bugs and such delicacies were less plentiful.

The chief of the pool was a big fat mud turtle who was noted for his great appetite and his dislike of exertion.

Now in the course of time there came a very hot, rainless summer and the happy pool dried up. Then the turtles held a council to decide upon what should be done.

They could not stay where they were, for the mud had become dust or had resolved itself into hard, brick-like chunks, and turtles must have mud and water in order to live. All the neighboring pools were occupied by other turtles, but a wise old fellow who had traveled told them of a fine pool not occupied and which would be an excellent place to which to emigrate.

So the turtles set out for the new pool and as the way was long and the journey lay most of the way across the open country, where the fierce rays of the sun beat down upon them with pitiless severity, they suffered greatly and were almost dead when they finally reached their home and plunged into its cool waters and its soft, delightful mud.

However, one of them failed to reach safety. That exception was the fat old turtle with the big appetite. He waddled along with the others for awhile, but as the sun got hotter and hotter he began to lag behind, and finally he was left alone. The sun blistered his shoulders under his shell and he thought: "Oh, if I could get rid of this shell I could then catch up with the others."

So he began making a great effort to crawl out of his shell, and to his surprise he succeeded at last. But when he had done so he was no better off than before, for the heat now began to scorch his body and he thought to himself: "If I keep on this way I shall soon be a well-done turtle steak, fit only for a feast in some wigwam."

So he crawled to one side and rested under a clump of ferns, thinking that he would resume his march when the sun had gone down.

While he rested there in the cool shade of the ferns he saw an Indian go by, loping along at an easy gait and seeming to travel with such ease that the fat turtle was filled with envy, and thought: "Why cannot I walk on my hind legs the way that man does and get over the ground as easily as he?"

It occurred to him to try it. He tried standing on his hind legs and after a little practice found that he could do so with comparative ease.

This was the turning point in the life of that turtle. He had learned how much could be accomplished by trying, and he said to himself: "I have been a fat, lazy old mud turtle all my life and have never done anything because I was afraid to try. Now I have found that by trying I was able to cast off my shell and by trying I can walk erect like an Indian. I have been a fat, lazy old turtle all my life, but now I am going to be a man."

So he began to practice walking and talking and eating berries and roots and wild game, which he caught, instead of contenting himself with his former diet of worms, bugs and flies, and after awhile he became so much like a man that he ventured into one of the Indian villages, where he told his story and completed his education.

He grew slim and tall and learned to hunt with a bow and arrow so skillfully that in time he married the chief's daughter and his descendants are all known to this day as the Turtle clan, the bravest warriors and the most skillful hunters among the Iroquois.

His former companions who reached the new pool remained mud turtles all the rest of their lives and their descendants are mud turtles to this day.

Blind Workers.

The potteries district of England has workshops exclusively for blind and deaf operators. There are 12 blind men and youths employed and five blind girls. The latter are chiefly engaged in making cane handles for shop pails and the men make the special baskets, hampers, etc., required in the potting trades. They are managed by a commmittee consisting of the mayors of the potteries boroughs, the chairmen of the local district councils.

What He Wanted.

At a colliery, near Leeds, is a shaft with a staging aorund it, its height being considerably above the average of such erections in the West Riding. A miner had fallen off this staging to the ground, and on recovering consciousness, was offered a glass of water. Looking at the water in disgust and amazement, he exclaimed: "——, hoo fur doos tha' ha' to fall at this pit afore they gives yer brandy?"—Argonaut.

AMERICAN GIRLS IN PARIS.

Home for Lone Workers, Students and Tourists Has Recently Been Provided.

The problem of the American girl alone in Paris, either as student or breadwinner, has been solved more or less satisfactorily for many by the American Girls club, says the Brooklyn Eagle, founded by Mrs. Whitelaw Read. Quite recently a new protector of these expatriated workers has arisen in the shape of the British-American Young Women's Christian association which has become an interesting addition to the American colony. While the American Girls club is intended more particularly for students the Young Women's Christian association offers a home for the low price of four dollars a week, to young women of limited means engaged in any occupation.

The house is situated in the Rue de Turin No. 5, and though but a short walk from the business district is well shaded by trees and fronted by a lawn. Some of its features are: An employment directory, reading room, physical culture, home nursing, millinery and French classes outdoor clubs, afternoon tea and social evenings. Bible classes and gospel service. The enterprise has the backing of both English and American women of social prestige; it is the first permanently organized association of the kind in Paris, though at the time of the exposition a regular association branch was started, merely continuing during the summer of 1900. Much of the success of the Paris association is due to the generosity and executive ability of its president, Mrs. John Hoff, who has resided for the past four years in Paris. Mrs. Hoff is a daughter of the late David Whitney, the millionaire, and was born in Detroit, Mich.

The American Girls club established in 1891 by Mrs. Whitelaw Read for American girls studying in Paris. It is located at 4 Rue de Chevreuse, not far from the bulevard Montparnasse, and is on the borderland rather than in the Latin quarter proper. The plain stone facade close on the street gives no hint of the pleasant interior looking from three sides on to a large court and yard beyond filled with flower beds and shade trees. On the rez-dee-hausee are the dining and tea rooms, the latter the gathering place of the girls every afternoon at five o'clock, the former containing some dozen little tables where meals are served a la carte at very moderate prices. Coffee and tea cost five cents, meats 12 and vegetables five On the floor above are two drawing rooms and the library, a large white curtained room furnished with writing tables, periodicals and a good collection of English and French books. This is a favorite redezvous of the girls, another is, during the warm season, the long balcony overlooking the court, which with its awnings and vine-clad railings offers an inviting place for a chat of the discussion of a novel.

The majority of the pensionaires are art students, though in summer numerous tourists take advantage of the home-like atmosphere and low rates of the house. They must, however, be unmarried, as married women are debarred from rooming at the club, though they are allowed to come there for meals. The rooms are rented as low as seven per month, the more desirable ones being slightly higher in price. A large hall on the upper floor of the building serves for entertainments,, to which many well-known artists contribute their talents gratis.

GOT WHAT HE CALLED FOR

Wanted a "Second-Hand" Watch, But the Salesman Was Slow of Comprehension.

He was a foreigner and, having entered a large jewelry store on State street, he said to the clerk behind the showcase.

"I would like to examine some second hand watches."

"Excuse me, sir, but this is not a pawnshop," observed the clerk, haughtily.

"No?" said the man, inquiringly. "But you have plenty of watches," and he pointed to the great showcase full of handsome timepieces, says the Chicago Inter Ocean.

"Certainly," replied the clerk. "Finest stock of watches in town. How much do you want to pay for a watch?"

"How much?" asked the stranger. "Much as he is worth, so that he is a second hand watch and will keep good time."

"See here, sir, you are in the wrong store. We don't keep second hand watches in this establishment."

The stranger's eyes opened wide. "But you have them here, there and there," he said as he began to gesticulate. "I have said s-e-c-o-n-d h-a-n-d watches," spelling it out as though to make it plainer, "and they are here everywhere, yet you say you have them not. I do not understand you."

"Well, I do now," replied the clerk, sheepishly, as he quickly opened a showcase and produced a tray of watches. "Just a little mix up. No harm done, I hope. Certainly we have watches with second hands. All our watches have second hands. We make no other."

And the stranger got a second hand watch for which he laid down a $50 note.

End of the Game.

It was his move.

He made it, captured a pawn, and announced:

"Mate!"

"I see," she pouted. "But you had the advantage of a bishop."

"Some day, Bella," he whispered, pursuing the advantage, "may I mate you with the assistance of just a common preacher?"

An Ideal Location

Rosedale and Linden Park Cemeteries

LARGEST IN THE STATE

LINDEN, N. J.

Beautiful and Accessible

2 Miles from Elizabeth, 7 Miles from Newark, 14 MILES FROM NEW YORK

On Main Line Pennsylvania Railroad

Why Lots in these Cemeteries commend themselves to Heads of Families and Investors

BECAUSE of the $1,000,000 Trust Fund provided for by the Trustees in each Cemetery, the income from which will keep the properties perpetually beautiful at NO EXPENSE TO LOT OWNERS.

BECAUSE such a guarantee, not found in any other cemetery, assures lot owners that the grounds WILL BE MAINTAINED PERMANENTLY AS BEAUTIFUL PARKS AFTER THE INCOME FROM THE SALE OF LOTS HAS BEEN EXHAUSTED.

LOTS SHOULD BE PURCHASED NOW

BECAUSE MORE ADVANTAGES ARE OFFERED TO LOT BUYERS in a new Modern Park Cemetery than in those established many years and, in most cases, no provision made for perpetual care without extra expense to lot owners. THERE ARE A GREATER NUMBER OF IDEAL LOCATIONS TO SELECT FROM, PRICES OF LOTS ARE ALWAYS LOWER AND TERMS MORE ADVANTAGEOUS.

BECAUSE life is most uncertain and EVERY ONE SHOULD ANTICIPATE THE INEVITABLE BY MAKING A CHOICE NOW OF A FINAL RESTING PLACE.

LOTS WILL PROVE A GOOD INVESTMENT

BECAUSE they are sure to increase in value and can be purchased NOW at the INITIAL or LOWEST PRICE and upon the most ADVANTAGEOUS TERMS.

BECAUSE the properties are ACCESSIBLE TO 4,000,000 PEOPLE, and considering the RAPID GROWTH OF GREATER NEW YORK and its TRIBUTARY CITIES and TOWNS, it is only a question of a SHORT TIME when LOTS in ROSEDALE and LINDEN PARK will EQUAL IN VALUE those of our MOST NOTED cemeteries.

SPORTING NEWS.

DIAMOND DUST.

Lamar, of the Hobokens, will probably catch for Westfield the balance of the season. Cotter, who has been doing this work, fails to show up occasionally, and Denman is tired of it.

The work of Eugene Bassford, the right fielder on the Plainfield A. C., has been of the highest order. He covers his position in the field well and he improves constantly in stick work. Last Saturday he made a nice two-bagger.

GOLF.

Frank O. Reinhart, the well-known golfer, has been spending a few days at his home here prior to returning to Princeton University. It is doubtful if he will devote much more time this year to the game.

The many friends of Robert Abbott predict that he will in the near future lead the active members of the Hillside Tennis and Golf Club in the ancient game. His performance on Saturday, making a gross score of 70 for eighteen holes, shows a steady improvement in this young player. Those who have watched his work, claim that his game is very consistent and that he seldom if ever gets rattled.

This is the standing to date for the Golf Committee Cup at the Hillside Tennis and Golf Club:

SIDE LIGHTS ON TIMELY TOPICS NOTED IN PASSING.

An unusually small boy was taken for the first time to school on Tuesday by an older sister. She wanted to put him in the kindergarten grade and when the teacher inquired the boy's age she was told that he was seven years old. The teacher expressed great surprise and seemed to doubt the assertion, when the boy spoke up and said "Bes' yer life I am seven." It was decided that he was old enough for a higher grade.

Harry Werner, the West Front street clothier, is showing to his many friends who call at his store, a novel specimen of the genus "pants" which were presented to him some time ago. Mr. Werner is an old friend of the family of William H. Taylor, of Dunellen and some time ago gave to Mrs. Taylor a quantity of samples of cloth, "swatches" as they are called by clothiers, to make patch-work with. She laughingly remarked that there was cloth enough in the lot to make a pair of trousers and promised to make Mr. Werner a pair when she had the time. About a week ago the trousers were delivered at the store, much to Mr. Werner's amusement, for on opening the package he beheld a pair of "panties" of the proper size and length for a four-year-old boy. The garment was beautifully made, but consisted of at least two-score pieces and no two are alike. They were accompanied by a card bearing the words "Compliments of Mrs. Taylor to Harry Werner's seventh son." The recipient thinks it extremely unlikely that they will ever be worn out.

Fireman Resigns.

Fred Breem, of East Second street, who has been a driver in the local fire department for several years, tendered his resignation today. He has purchased a bakery route and will devote his entire time to it.

Black Formally Notified.

Charles C. Black, of Jersey City, was notified yesterday of his nomination as Democratic candidate for governor. He accepted the honor in a ringing speech on the issues of the campaign.

Death of Young Son.

Edwin Roy, the five-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Quinn, of Somerset street, died last evening. The funeral took place this afternoon and interment was made in the Methodist cemetery.

Miss Jessie Burt, of West Seventh street, has returned from her summer vacation.

wond endeavor to perform these duties with an eye single to the public welfare, believing that he could best serve his party by best serving the State.

After this introduction he launched out into a long dissertation on the years of Republican rule in the State, and followed that with a discussion of the national campaign.

His closing words were: "This campaign now begins. Whatever strength and capacity I may possess shall be devoted to its service. I will carry the standard in the face of the enemy, proclaiming our doctrines and policies throughout the State. I shall need your assistance. Let us work as a united band. We are confident of the justice of our cause. Let us go forward unfaltering until on the night of November eighth we sleep in the tents of victory."

State Senator Joseph Cross, of Elizabeth, as chairman of the Union County delegation, took an active part in the proceedings of the convention.

Senator Dryden, State Chairman Briggs and David Baird were named as the committee on vacancies, and then at 4 o'clock the convention adjourned.

As the delegates were dispersing Candidate Stokes held an informal reception on the stage, and many shook his hand and congratulated him on his nomination.

The hall was decorated with flags and bunting. Several American flags were suspended over the stage, backed with portraits of McKinley and Hobart, while pictures of Roosevelt and Fairbanks were placed at the top of the proscenium. The fronts of the boxes were draped with flags and streamers of bunting extended around the gallery railings.

Governor Murphy and Senators Dryden and Kean occupied boxes. Their appearance was the signal for applause, but the enthusiasm was not at all warm and the hand given the Governor was especially lacking in volume and fervor.

The stage was filled with the officers, a few State leaders, a large body of reporters, and numerous local curiosity-seekers who had secured tickes, or could get in without them. The top gallery, reserved for spectators, was not half filled.

VETERANS ARE READY FOR ANNUAL REUNION

BIG TIME EXPECTED AT NEW MARKET TOMORROW.

The Nelson Hotel, New Market, will be the center of unusual activity tomorrow, when the Association of the Twenty-eighth Regiment of New Jersey Volunteers will hold their eighteenth annual reunion. The affair is expected to be one of the most successful in years, if anything can be judged from the large attendance which is anticipated. Delegates from all important cities in the State will be present, and the annual business of the association will be transacted. The local management of the reunion will be in the hands of Henry Drake.

The officers of the association will be appointed for the coming year. Aside from the regular business meeting, the day will be one of much pleasure for the members of the regiment. The regimental reunion has for years been an event looked forward to with a great deal of enjoyment as a social meeting. Many old friends meet at this time of the year, who are separated for the other 364 days. It is this feature of the reunion which gives to the affair more the nature of a family picnic than a business meeting. The speeches will be numerous as is the usual case with such reunions, and many prominent men in the State are scheduled to take part in the programme.

For the convenience of those who come from out of town, the stages will run between New Market and Dunellen as follows: Leave New Market, 6, 6:30, 7:25, 8:55 a. m., 12:55, 1:55, 3:25, 4:55, 6:20 p. m. Leave Dunellen, 6:20, 6:50, 8:20, 9:25, 10:25 a. m., 1:25, 2:25, 4:25, 5:30 and 6:45 p. m.

Chief Doane Home Again.

Chief T. O. Dosue returned home last night from Chattanooga, Tenn., where he has been attending the National Convention of Fire Chiefs.

Somerville's center fielder on Saturday, who played under the name of Gray, was Jones, the crack pitcher from the Brooklyn Nationals. With him were four other pitchers, Wiltse, Lindeman, McKenna and Montross.

Miss A. E. Lincoln, of Park avenue, is entertaining her brother from Philadelphia.

CALL FOR A TOWN IMPROVEMENT COMMITTEE

MR. RILEY ASKS THOSE INTERESTED TO JOIN IN EFFECTING ORGANIZATION.

Interested in the community in which he lives, William H. Riley, who suggested some days ago that a town improvement committee be organized, favors The Daily Press with the following communication:

Editor, The Daily Press:

You will judge whether the public interest in the improvement of our brook will warrant the printing of this further communication. I was glad to see the letter signed "V. Brook," in your issue of yesterday, and to welcome his interest in the subject. The sanitary condition of the stream, to which he draws attention, cannot be dwelt on too strongly, and should, of course, receive the first care.

Some twenty odd years ago, I attended, in one of the many small cities in the vicinity of New York, a meeting called to consider this very question of the treatment of running water in such a community, and remember being a good deal surprised when the mayor, a practical business man, whom few would suspect of being an idealist, took the ground that it was morally wrong to use a running stream as a customary means of getting rid of impurity. I am glad to believe that we are advancing in the mayor's direction. The town brook is no longer the town sewer. May we not hope for the day when it will become, again, the emblem of what is sweet and pure?

To wall the banks of the brook in a V form, however, as your correspondent suggests, would, I am afraid, be fatal to picturesque effect, and it was the renewal and preservation of the beauty of the stream which prompted my letter. To that end I will make these practical suggestions:

Stop the delivery, into the stream, of anything but pure water; take away dams; remove all rubbish; cut away dead limbs and unsightly roots of trees; modify the banks so as to protect them, as much as possible, from damage in freshets, and grade them to enhance natural beauty, conforming, as much as possible, to natural features; sod, or sow with grass, wherever needful and practicable; plant trees and shrubs and vines in places which are too bare.

If there are others who are interested in this and kindred matters looking to the making of Plainfield and its neighbor as pleasant a home city as possible, I shall be glad to have them communicate with me, with a view to organizing such a Town Improvement Committee as was referred to in my communication of the 13th inst.

The writer believes that, in a plan so immediately concerning the home, the co-operation of women would be of great value, and would welcome their influence and practical help if the amount of interest shown should warrant any further action.

William H. Riley.

North Plainfield,
Sept. 20, 1904.

The social to be held at the First M. E. church under the auspices of the Epworth League, Friday evening will be in the nature of a rally. The social committee will be in charge, assisted by a committee of all the officers. They are: president, Eugene A. Edgar; vice-presidents, Arthur H. Stiles, Miss Lizzie Stafford, and Mrs. William Symons; secretary, Arthur Humble, treasurer, Miss Gertrude Sharp. The regular league meetings will be resumed as formerly next Sunday.

Frost Tonight.

Persons who have plants or flowers out-of-doors would do well to take care of them. Weather Prophet John Neagle has received word that the weather will be fair and cooler with frost tonight. There was a decided change in the weather last night and this morning the air was decidedly chilly. The prospects for a continuance of colder weather are good.

James E. Martine.

"If I receive the unanimous vote of the Democratic convention I will accept the Congressional nomination, although I will not make one effort to secure a single vote for such nomination." This was the statement made by James E. Martine yesterday at the meeting of the State Democratic Clubs held at Newark, after repeatedly stating that he did not want nor would he take the nomination.

William Wilson, of Elizabeth, was considered a candidate, but it was the opinion of the Democratic leaders that he could not even get a respectable vote in his own county, to say nothing of Morris and Warren. Word was received from DeWitt Flanagan that he would not accept the nomination and then all eyes were turned toward Mr. Martine. The greatest effort was brought to bear to secure his consent, the representatives from Union, Morris and Warren counties pledging their unanimous support to him and assured him that in the convention he would receive the entire vote.

MARTINE TAKES PART

Farmer Orator Reads Platform and D. J. Carney is Active.

Delegates composing the convention of State Democratic Clubs assembled by hundreds shortly after noon yesterday in Krueger's Auditorium, Newark. The Plainfield Democratic Club was represened by Charles A. Sturtevant, Clarence I. Teel, John MacIntyre, J. V. F. Dilts and James E. Martine.

James E. Martine was a prominent figure as was Davis J. Carney, the North Plainfield leader, who was seated on the stage.

The object of the convention was to form a permanent league of clubs, to include a chain of organizations taking in not only all the counties of the State, but the cities, towns, boroughs and wards. These clubs are to act as aids to the regular party organizations of the municipalities and counties throughout the campaign, and to form the nucleus of auxiliary campaign committees in future elections.

It was an hour after the appointed time for convening when the convention was called to order by State Committeeman Willard W. Cutler, of Morris, chairman of the committee in charge of the bureau of clubs.

Robert A. Haggerty, of Newark, was elected to assume his ancient place as grand marshal of the parade. It was a few minutes of noon when Haggerty gave the order to march. A platoon of eight mounted policemen formed an escort in front. After them marched Haggerty, and after him Voss's band.

The Essex delegations had the right of the line. After the Essex men came the Passaic Democrats, who marched under the silk banner of their organization. Then came Union, Somerset, Morris, Bergen, Sussex, Warren, Mercer and the lower counties, of which Salem, Camden, Gloucester, Cape May, Ocean and Atlantic sent representatives. The left of the line was held by the Monmouth and Middlesex men.

John Moody, of Union County, was named temporary chairman, and it was announced that Colonel Edwin A. Stevens would be president of the permanent league.

Over the stage the delegates read the motto:

"Turn the Spendthrifts Out—Get Close to the People—They Cast the Votes."

After Secretary McKean read the call Mr. Cutler named John Moody, of Union, as the temporary chairman. Mr. Moody said that the big representation present indicated that the Democracy of the State was inspired with enthusiasm stronger than in many years. He predicted that the "old rock-ribbed Democratic State of New Jersey" will once more this year return to the Democratic party. He spoke of Parker and Davis and there were cheers. Then he mentioned the name of Charles C. Black. At once the hall was filled with cheers and shouts, which continued for a full minute and ended with three tremendous cheers for the Gubernatorial candidate.

Mr. Moody characterized the Republican plank on the equal taxation issue as a "straddle" that would, he predicted, prove unsatisfactory to the people. He declared the Democratic utterances on the taxation question to be fair, frank and unmistakable, and such as were in keeping with the desire of the citizenship of the State. When he predicted success for Black the delegates yelled loudly and long in approbation.

Mr. Moody introduced State Chairman William B. Gourley to the convention. Gourley was warmly received.

After all the delegations had named their representatives Mr. Moody announced a recess until 2:30 o'clock to give the committee an opportunity to organize and prepare for the regular business of the convention.

Upon reconvening the committee on resolutions submitted the following, which was presented by James E. Martine, of Union, the "Farmer Orator," as chairman of the committee, and adopted:

"We, the regularly accredited delegates representing the Democratic organizations of New Jersey in convention assembled, reaffirm our fealty to the principles of Democracy as enunciated and exemplified by Thomas Jefferson and a long succession of able and patriotic Presidents.

"We approve most heartily and unreservedly the platform of principles adopted at the Democratic National convention held at St. Louis, and pledge our individual and united support to the candidates of our party placed in nomination at the same time for the offices of President and Vice President of the United States—Alton B Parker, of New York, and Henry G. Davis, of West Virginia.

"We also enthusiastically approve the platform adopted at the recent Democratic State convention, held in Trenton, and to the brilliant and able candidate for Governor, Charles C. Black, who is so fittingly an exponent of the leading and all-important issue of the campaign—'equal taxation'—we tender congratulations, and predict for him a magnificent triumph at the polls on November 8 next, and to which end we will go forth to our homes determined to not relax our energies in his behalf until victory is assured.

"We denounce the platform of the late Republican convention, and particularly on the question of equal taxation, as a miserable makeshift and fraud, calculated to hoodwink and deceive the people on this vital issue.

"To the Democratic State committee we tender the assurance of our anxious and willing desire to aid it in every possible way in its laborious, but patriotic, work, in the full hope and belief that there is something for us all to do, both as organizations and individual Democratic citizens who desire to see the Constitution maintained in its integrity, and who believe that the preservation of a republican form of government depends upon the defeat of the party now in power in both State and Nation."

The committee on organization offered the general plan and scope of the permanent association, which was adopted. The name was fixed to be "The New Jersey Democratic Association." The objects were declared to be "to foster the formation of Democratic clubs and societies, and insure their active co operation in disseminating Jeffersonian principles of government; to preserve the Constitution of the United States, local self-government and freedom of elections; to resist revolutionary changes and centralization of power; to oppose the imposition of taxes beyond the necessities of governments economically administered; to promote economy in all branches of the public service; to co-operate with the regular organization of the Democratic party."

The officers are to consist of a president, vice president, secretary and treasurer. The duties of these officers were prescribed and the appointment arranged of an executive committee to consist of one member from each county, together with the officers.

The permanent officers agreed upon during recess were as follows: Colonel Edwin A. Stevens, Hudson, president; John L. Wynn, Passaic, vice president; Franklin H. Halliday, Essex, treasurer; William S. McKean, Essex, secretary.

Calvin D McMurtry, of Somerville, was appointed a member of the executive committee and Wilbur Van-Houten, of Somerset, was appointed a vice president.

There were fifteen clubs from Union County represented.

Somerset county—Chairman of delegation, Robert L. Stevens; committee on credentials, Horace Coddington; resolutions, William Prout; organization, Charles J. Furey; finance, Jacob Schurts.

Robert L. Stevens was chairman of the Somerset County delegation. Horace Coddington was a member of the committee on credentials; William Prout on resolutions; C. J. Furey on organization and Jacob Schurts on finance.

FRANK M'NALLY KILLED

Brother of Plainfielder Fatally Shot in Brooklyn.

MYSTERIOUS MURDER

An Actress Taken Into Custody—Dead Man Well-Known Here.

Stubbornly refusing to tell who shot him, Frank McNally, a prosperous and well known Brooklyn saloon keeper and brother of John J. McNally, of Spooner avenue, died at his home in the former place yesterday morning, shortly after he had been found with five bullet wounds in his head and body. To all who pressed him to explain the occurrence he replied that it made no difference to anyone who did it and the result is one of the most baffling murder mysteries the Brooklyn police have had to contend with. Several arrests were made last night but the suspects were later released. One of those in custody for a short time was Miss Toma Hanlon, the well known actress who was McNally's acknowledged sweetheart, but it was soon seen that she knew nothing about the affair.

When word of the shooting reached this city, John McNally, who is the well known contractor and builder, hastened to Brooklyn but Frank had died before he reached his bedside. He was questioned by Captain Toole, of the police department, but he was unable to throw any light on the mystery. Mrs. Catherine Lynch, of West Fourth street and Mrs. Hugh O'Donnell, of Park avenue, were aunts of the dead man and he was quite well known throughout the city. Several years ago when on a visit to his brother he remained four weeks but since then had not come out for more than a day at a time.

McNally was a bachelor, thirty-eight years old, and lived in apartments above his saloon on Park avenue. He was found by his bartender at 5 o'clock yesterday morning, lying on the bedroom floor. He was conscious at the time and sent the bartender for a physician and a priest but died within half an hour after the former arrived. His brother, John McNally, said this morning that the police were baffled and the mystery would probably never be explained.

GARVIN QUITS THE NEW YORK AMERICANS

SPENDING HIS TIME ON CRESCENT OVAL KEEPING IN FORM.

Virgil Garvin, the baseball twirler, accompanied by his wife, is registered at a local hotel. They arrived last night and will remain here for the rest of the week. Mr. Garvin, who has been playing with the New York Americans, left the team yesterday, there being some difference between him and Manager Griffith. Manager Johnston has decided to use him on Saturday in the game against Westfield and he believes that the locals will win. The twirler will visit Crescent Oval every day for practice to keep himself in condition.

In connection with his work of professional baseball, Mr. Garvin has been taking a course in dentistry, and he may decide to give up professional ball and devote his time to dentistry, playing semi-professional ball.

It was Manager Johnston's intention to use "Christy" Mathewson in Saturday's game, but he was unable to get his services this week. If Garvin "makes good" he will probably use him for the balance of the season.

BLACK TO SPEAK.

Democratic Candidate for Governor to Address Convention at Somerville.

That Mercer county will send a large and enthusiastic delegation to the Fourth Congressional District Democratic convention, to be held in Somerville Saturday, was assured last night after a meeting of the delegates at the headquarters of the Democratic league in Trenton.

Charles C. Black, the gubernatorial candidate, will speak at the convention.

As already announced, Robert L. Stevens, of Bernardsville, will be the congressional nominee, and the campaign plans for an aggressive fight in the district against Ira Wood, the Republican candidate, are under way.

The U. S. Grant Club rooms will be open this evening and all borough voters who are interested are invited to make use of them.

VETERANS IN SESSION

Survivors of 28th New Jersey Volunteers Holding Reunion.

AT NEW MARKET

Officers Are Chosen at the Eighteenth Annual Meeting.

Seventy survivors of the Twenty eighth New Jersey Volunteers, together with their families and many guests, gathered in Friendship Hall, New Market, this morning, for the eighteenth annual reunion. Previous to the formal call for the transaction of business the old veterans spent an hour or more in renewing friendships and exchanging reminiscences of the battlefields and camp fires.

Henry C. Drake, of this city, was master of ceremonies and F. J. Reynolds, of Newark, president of the association, presided over the meeting. It was opened at 10 o'clock with prayer by Rev. Frank Fletcher, of New Market, and after disposing of several minor matters, officers were elected as fo lows: President, William N. Appleby, of Old Bridge; secretary, George I. Seaman, of Perth Amboy; treasurer, S. G. Garretson, of Perth Amboy. A feature of the exercises was the calling of the roll and the rendition of a solo by Samuel Frazee, of this city, with his own violin accompaniment. Assemblyman S. S. Swackhamer, of Somerset, was early on the scene and his appearance was greeted with cheers by the assemblage. He is to address the veterans this afternoon. The meeting adjourned at 1 o'clock to Nelson's Hotel, where dinner was served, members of the Woman's Relief Corps, of Plainfield, assisting. The session will begin again at 2:30 and continue until late this evening.

The Twenty-eighth Regiment went out in 1863, and served in the Rebellion ten months. In that time just half of the thousand men who comprised its ten companies gave up their lives at Fredericksburg, Chancellorsville and in other engagements. The number of survivors has been dwindling fast until at the present time it numbers little more than those who gathered at New Market today. The village residents accorded the vets a royal welcome and many homes were profusely decorated with flags and bunting.

TENNIS TOURNAMENT AT THE WHITTIER SCHOOL

THE FIRST ROUND IN CONTEST IS NEARLY FINISHED.

Seven more matches have been played off in the Whittier School tennis tournament, and there remains but one more contest to be played in the first round. This final match will probably be played tomorrow on the courts of the Bronx Tennis Club, preceding the beginning of the second round. A large crowd of pupils from the Whittier School assembled on the courts yesterday afternoon to view the matches.

The contests were for the most part easily won, with the exception of the game between Martin and Woodhull. The first set between these two players was the hardest fought set which has yet been payed, and both put up a good exhibition of tennis. Martin won out by the score of 7-5, 6-2. The other sets resulted in the following scores: Briggs defeated Fountain, 6-1, 6-3; Timpson defeated Ricketts, 6-1, 6-0; Rogers defeated Gwier, 6-3, 6-2; Randolph defeated Thickston, 6-0, 6-3. But two games were played Tuesday afternoon, which resulted as follows: Fountain defeated Bogardus, 62-, 6-4; Loughlin defeated Makafay, 6-2, 6-4.

An effort will be made to complete the first round and play off the second as far as possible tomorrow, as the courts will be needed next week for the High School tournament.

Democratic City Convention.

The Democratic city convention will be held Saturday night. Central Hall has been selected as a place of meeting. It is reported that no candidate will be named for the mayoralty office. The meeting will be called to order at 8 o'clock by Chairman J. V. F. Dilts.

Mr. Henckel to Attend Conference.

The annual conference of the Y. M. C. A. physical directors of the State of New Jersey will be held at Newark this afternoon. The object of the conference will be a discussion of the work now being carried on.

IRA W. WOOD NOMINATED

Named for Congress by the Fourth District Republicans.

CONVENTION TODAY

Unanimous Vote at Enthusiastic Gathering Held in Somerville.

Ira W. Wood, of Trenton, today received the Congressional nomination at the Republican Congressional convention, held in Germania Hall at Somerville. There was a full representation from all parts of the district. North Plainfield was represented by former Mayor Charles Place.

The convention was called to order at 12 o'clock noon by Frank O. Briggs, chairman of the Republican State Committee, after which Former Senator George E. Large was made temporary chairman and then permanent chairman. Charles H. Bateman was made secretary.

Mr. Wood was nominated by Prof. J. E. Gill, of Trenton. The choice was made unanimous.

The various committees were appointed, to report after the convention re-convened at 1 o'clock. The committees were composed of representatives from each county.

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION TO GIVE ENTERTAINMENT

HIGH SCHOOL BOYS PLAN FOR A MINSTREL SHOW.

The board of directors of the Plainfield High School Athletic Association met yesterday and appointed the following committee to arrange for the regular fall entertainment: Charles Potter Titsworth, chairman; Chester Briggs and Geo. Bentley. It has been the custom for many years to hold this entertainment in the fall for the benefit of the spring baseball team. The track-meet, and the basket ball team usually pay for themselves. Last year the form of entertainment consisted of a glee club concert, though it is not known whether this sort of a programme will be rendered or not. There is no doubt that a glee club will be formed among the pupils of the school.

They are fortunate in having as a member of the faculty, Samuel B. Howe, Jr., who was the leader of his college glee club for three years. One of the members of the school said that there was no doubt that Mr. Howe would be willing to devote his services to the organization of a vocal as well as instrumental glee club. Mr. Howe is a mandolin player, and there are several good players in the school.

With regard to the form of entertainment which will be given, the High School man said that there has been thought of getting up a minstrel show in the school for some time, and that the fall entertainment might be one of that nature. He stated further that there are several members of the school who were experienced in the art of minstrel entertaining. This nature of a show is a decided departure from anything which has been attempted before, and seems to be favorably considered by the members of the association.

MRS. THATCHER BURIED.

A Former Plainfielder's Remains Interred in Philadelphia Yesterday.

The body of Mrs. George H. Thatcher, who committed suicide in her apartments in New York, Sunday night, were taken yesterday afternoon to Philadelphia and interred in Holy Cross cemetery. Several friends from this city were in attendance at the services held previously.

It has been learned by the police that Mrs. Thatcher carefully planned her death several days before but for what reason remains a mystery. Her home life was of the happiest and she frequently referred to the devotion of her husband. By the death of a relative in Philadelphia a short time ago she was willed $50,000 and it could not have been for money matters.

C. B. Randolph Dead.

After an illness of several months, Charles B. Randolph died last evening at his home on Liberty street. He was in his thirty-second year and had been employed for a long time in the local machine shops, principally at Potter's. He was connected with the local Juniors, Royal Arcanum and other fraternal organizations and was widely known. A widow survives him. The funeral services will be private.

W. C. T. U. ELECT OFFICERS

MrS. E. A. Parse is Again Selected As President.

THE ANNUAL MEETING

All-Day Session at the Association's Rooms Interesting Throughout.

The annual meeting of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union was held in the rooms of the union on Madison avenue, yesterday, there being morning and afternoon sessions. In the morning these officers were elected:

President, Mrs. Elizabeth A. Parse; recording secretary, Mrs. Clarence Murphy; corrseponding secretary, Mrs. P. H. Bennett; treasurer, Miss Jessie Pruden; honorary vice presidents, Mrs. T. H. Tomlinson, Mrs. J. W. Yates; church vice presidents, Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church, Mrs. Stephen Cahoone; Park Avenue Baptist, Mrs. Seely Edsall and Mrs. David C. Smalley; Trinity Reformed, Mrs. Julius Williams and Mrs. Elizabeth A. Parse; First Baptist, Miss Anna Boice; First Presbyterian, Mrs. E. V. Shotwell and Mrs. Ramsey Blair; First M. E., Miss Susie Jackson; Grace M. E., Mrs. Stevens; Monroe Avenue, Mrs. Sorter; Grace P. E., Mrs. E. P. Smith; Seventh-Day Baptist, Mrs. George Babcock and Mrs. Amanda Maxson; Congregational, Mrs. A. C. LaBoyteaux and Mrs. Van Alstyne; Friends, Mrs. Charles E. Vail; Scotch Plains Baptist, Mrs. Gideon M. Shott.

The reports for the year showed much improvement in all departments, especially helpful being the reports of the superintendents. The report of the treasurer showed a small balance, as most of the money received is expended in the temperance cause.

The afternoon session was devoted to an address by the president, Mrs. Elizabeth A. Parse; Mrs. T. H. Tomlinson, county president; Mrs. T. C. Bodine and Rev. and Mrs. Casselberry, of Dunellen. The remarks were along the line of temperance and were encouraging to the earnest band of women who are striving to promote the cause of temperance.

Rally Day Services.

Rally day services will be held on Sunday afternoon under the auspices of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church Sunday-school, at 2:30 o'clock. There will be general exercises, occupying the entire hour and it is asked that every one in any way connected with the school, including the home department, and the substitute teachers, will make an earnest effort to be present and bring their "vacation envelopes" with the missionary gifts of the summer season.

UNITED FOR C. N. FOWLER

F. M. Voorhees to Name Him at Congressional Convention.

REPORTS ENCOURAGING

Certain That He Will be Nominated by Acclamation on Tuesday.

The Fifth district Republican convention will assemble at Morristown on Tuesday, September 27. Congressman Charles N. Fowler will be renominated by acclamation. His reception in Trenton on Tuesday and "the night before" demonstrated the fact that he has rather gained than lost strength in his district. Up to a late hour on Tuesday night his rooms were crowded by delegates to the State convention, many of whom came to assure him personally that the counties of Union, Morris and Warren, which compose the Fifth district, would return a much greater majority for him than he received two years ago. In fact, a number of the delegates predicted that his majority would be double that of 1902.

Daniel S. Voorhees, one of the Republican leaders of Morris County, said that the friends of Mr. Fowler up his way did not have to go to the trouble of getting up enthusiasm for him. There was plenty of it already, and from information that he knew to be reliable the Morris County conditions prevailed in both Union and Warren. John I. Blair Reiley, the chairman of the Warren County Republican convention, and Josiah Ketchum, a recognized Republican leader of the same county, reiterated in substance and with emphasis what Mr. Voorhees had said.

Congressman W. P. Hepburn, the chairman of the Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce in the House of Representatives, and Lee Fairchild, of California, will address the convention which is to renominate Mr. Fowler. Former Governor Voorhees, who probably will present Mr. Fowler's name to the convention, said today that the conditions in Union County had never before been so favorable to Mr. Fowler as they are at present, and that he was the choice of the united Republican party.

James T. MacMurray, of this city, and Republican leader here, says that the coast is clear for the triumphant re-election of Mr. Fowler by a largely increased majority.

POINTS FOR THE BUYERS

READY REFERENCES FOR THE LOCAL BARGAIN SEEKERS.

Harry K. Lister's store on North avenue, is headquarters for the best phonograph goods on the market. Bicycles and other special sporting goods.

No matter how the styles may change, S. Hirsh, the tailor, puts an individuality into his work which makes it recognizable anywhere as the very best.

For anything in the plumbing or tinning line go to J. J. Leahy, of Richmond street. He will attend promptly to all orders and satisfaction is guaranteed.

Hodge holds the agency for Belle Mead Sweets. If you have once tried them you will be a friend of Hodge forever more. His goods are reliable in all departments.

Look in the advertising columns for Endress' ad. You can tell what you will get from the ad. You need not be afraid to order by telephone. All orders will receive proper attention.

Putnam & DeGraw, the West Front street dry goods merchants, are all ready for a big fall and winter trade and persons in search of reliable goods are sure of getting them at this store.

M. C. VanArsdale has still a few more of his special sale shoes left. Now is your time to invest at the best bargains. Four dollar shoes are selling for two-fifty. Where can you beat that?

Have you laid in your winter supply of coal? If you have not you had better call on John Johnson, and get your order in early. He is located on South avenue, and carries all the best grades of coal.

Harper's store is the only doll's hospital in the city but it has other claims to the attention of the public in its stock of toys, games and books, all of them the best in their respective line.

Timbo's restaurant on North avenue is noted for serving everything in season and the food is well cooked and nicely served. You can get anything here from a light lunch to a full meal at reasonable prices.

The absence of the cook has no terrors for the housewife who is accustomed to dealing with R. W. Barnes, the delicatessen man. She can vary her culinary programme with fancy cooked meats, pickles, vegetables and fine fruit.

Have you any intention of having part of your buildings torn down? Go to Alex. Kane. He is a dealer in second hand lumber. He also lays flagging. He's the only one you are looking for. Don't bother with those who will do inferior work.

E. M. French's methods enable him to invite and profit by comparisons that would hurt other real estate men. Try this plan. Register your property with him and then do the same with any three other agents you can think of. The result will prove the superiority of his services.

This cool weather makes one feel like preparing for winter and one way of doing this is by purchasing a hot water bottle at L. W. Randolph's drug store, on West Front street. He has an exceptional line, all guaranteed, at reasonable prices. Mr. Randolph is also making a drive on his celebrated quinine and glycerine hair tonic. No beter preparation for the hair and scalp is made.

Inter-State Fair at Trenton.

The great Inter-State Fair will be held on September 26, 27, 28, 29 and 30, on the Fair Grounds, near Trenton, N. J., on the New York Division of the Pennsylvania Railroad. The Pennsylvania Railroad Company will sell excursion tickets to the Fair Grounds, including coupon of admission, at greatly reduced rates, from stations within a wide radius, and special trains over the New York, Belvidere and Amboy Divisions will be run through to the grounds, thus avoiding street-car transfer. As in previous years, every department will be replete with superior and instructive displays. The blooded stock exhibit will be particularly fine, and the daily programme of races contains the speediest classes obtainable. The management of the Fair has put forth extraordinary efforts to make this year's exhibition even greater than last year's record-breaking display. 9 19 3 m th s

A SELF CROWNED KING.

Peter Karageorgevitch Formally Becomes Ruler of Servia.

BELGRADE, Servia, Sept. 22.—Peter Karageorgevitch was crowned king of Servia. There were no hostile demonstrations and no attempt to carry out the numerous threats which had been made against the new king's life.

The royal heralds, cavalry and life guards, the heralds bearing the royal standards, and carriages with the Montenegrin and Servian princesses preceded the monarch. Beside King Peter rode his two sons, George and Alexander.

The cathedral was reached shortly after 8 o'clock. There the representatives of the foreign powers, the cabinet ministers and others had already been waiting for some time. As King Peter entered the metropolitan consecrated him and more artillery salutes were fired.

The king then took up his position under a canopy, and the metropolitan, assisted by many bishops and other clergy, commenced the solemn service, the choir singing "Thank Thee, Our Lord." After the prayer the premier and other ministers handed the crown and regalia to King Peter. He kissed the crown, placed it on his head and robed himself in the royal garments.

An artillery salute of 101 guns then announced to the people of Belgrade that King Peter had been crowned.

FAIRBANKS' LETTER.

Republican Vice-Presidential Candidate Accepts Nomination.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Sept. 22.—The letter of Senator C. W. Fairbanks formally accepting the Republican nomination for the vice presidency has been made public.

Mr. Fairbanks after a recapitulation of the acts of the McKinley and Roosevelt administrations, laying especial emphasis upon the achievements of the state department, enters into a scholarly defense of the protective tariff, upon which, he asserts, the country's prosperity depends. He declares his hope that the American and Canadian governments will be able in due time to arrange a reciprocity treaty.

Mr. Fairbanks says that the Republican platform appropriately recognizes that the trusts are the outgrowth of our economic development and are entitled to the equal protection and subject to the like restrictions of the law. He cites the Sherman antitrust law and the creation of the department of commerce and labor to show that the Republican party means to curb evil trusts.

He asserts the inviolability of the gold standard, declares that his party will conduct the government economically, but without stinting necessary expenditures; approves the Republican Philippine policy and eulogizes President Roosevelt.

Fire on Steamship Minnesota.

NORFOLK, Va., Sept. 22.—Fire broke out in the hold of the steamship Minnesota of the Great Northern line while the vessel was loading coal for her bunkers at Lambert's Point piers here, but the flames were extinguished with only trifling loss. The fire was caused by spontaneous combustion in a lot of coal that had been loaded at New London abaft of midship.

HOME ENDORSEMENT.

Hundreds of Plainfield Citizens Can Tell You All About It.

Home endorsement, the public expression of Plainfield people, should be evidence beyond dispute for every Plainfield reader. Surely the experience of friends and neighbors, cheerfully given by them, will carry more weight than the utterances of strangers residing in far-away places. Read the following:

George S. McGinnis, of No. 212 Somerset street, foreman of R. H. McCullough's Sash and Door Manufacturing Company, says: "I never was sick a day in my life until a pain struck me across my back and a lameness over the kidneys. I did not pay much attention to it at first, thinking it would soon pass away, but instead of this it grew worse. I saw Doan's Kidney Pills so highly recommended by those who had used them for such troubles that I went to L. W. Randolph's drug store and got a box. I used them according to instructions and felt somewhat relieved. Continuing the treatment by the time I had finished the third box the pain in my back and lameness disappeared."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name Doan's and take no substitute.

After Everything Else Has Failed.

After physicians have tried in vain and finally said, "I can't cure you," after dozens of other medicines have not given even temporary relief, in absolute hopelessness, Dr. Gossom's Kidney and Bladder Cure has, as a last resort, been "tried" and never in all its record of forty-two years has it failed to cure any and every disease for which it was intended.

Dr. Gossom's Kidney and Bladder Cure

Is positively guaranteed to quickly and permanently cure Bright's Disease, Backache, Dropsy, Gravel, Diabetes, Rheumatism, Gout, Weak Heart, every Urinary Disorder, Aching Pains over the Hips and Kidneys, Dimmed Vision, Periodical Headaches, Pain in Urethra, Despondency or "Blues," Sallow Complexion, Foul Breath, Bad Taste in the Mouth, in fact all Irregularities caused by and associate symptoms of Bladder and Kidney Trouble in any form. No matter how long you have suffered, nor how terrible your affliction may be, Dr. Gossom's Kidney and Bladder Cure will cure you. It eradicates totally and completely any irregularity or symptom of Kidney and Bladder Trouble and puts those most vital organs in as perfect and healthy condition as in childhood. It never fails.

It Is Guaranteed to Cure

It destroys the very roots of these diseases. It fortifies the body against the attack of disease germs of every kind. It tones up, renews and invigorates the entire system. It is the only remedy in the world which completely and permanently drains out of the blood every particle of Uric Acid, Urates, etc., which cause these terrible diseases. It has cured thousands of others. It will cure you. Why shorten your life by neglect when health can be yours now.

Had Almost Given Up In Despair.

Dr. Gossom's Kidney and Bladder Cure Brought Health.

It is with a feeling of thankfulness that I write you this letter, and if it will be of any benefit to suffering humanity, you have my permission to publish it.

I was suffering with my kidneys when I saw your advertisement offering a free sample of Dr. Gossom's Kidney and Bladder Cure. I got the sample and was so much benefited by it that I continued taking the medicine, and now I am entirely well. I had tried many things to relieve me of the awful pain in my back and when I had almost given up in despair, Dr. Gossom's Kidney and Bladder Cure brought the relief for which I had so long hoped. J. D. FARRELL, Athol, Mass.

TROLLEY BLOWN UP

Nine Persons Killed In Disaster at Melrose, Mass.

MANY MORE ARE FATALLY INJURED.

Car Hit a Fifty-six Pound Box of Dynamite Which Had Dropped From an Express Wagon.

MELROSE, Mass., Sept. 22.—An outward bound Boston electric car, well loaded with people, was blown to pieces near the corner of Vinton and Main streets. Nine people were killed outright, several more were fatally hurt and at least fifteen others severe wounds. The front portion was blown in every direction, the motor dashboard being hurled more than sixty feet. The motorman, C. H. Fenton, was among the killed. The imprompt vicinity presented a fearful spectacle, and the ground was strewed with arms and other portions of the bodies of those who had been killed.

The police announce that the cause of the wreck was the striking of a fifty-six pound box of dynamite which had fallen from an express wagon just ahead of the car. The express wagon was driven by Roy Fenton, who discovered that the box had dropped off and rushed back to take it off the track, but before he got within a hundred yards of the box the car came along and was blown up. Fenton was taken into custody by the police.

So great was the force of the explosion that two men standing in the door of a store fifty feet away were severely injured by the flying pieces, while every window within a radius of a quarter of a mile was broken.

The car contained mostly working men on their way to their homes in this city, but among the dead were a woman and her babe.

The explosion was heard for a long distance, and assistance as those in the immediate vicinity and recovered from the effects of the terrible concussion they rushed to the scene of the accident. The sight was appalling as well as bewildering. The ground was covered with torn and mangled bodies of the dead and wailing forms of the injured many of whom were shrieking with pain. All the doctors in the city were summoned and others called from the nearby cities of Medford, Everett and Malden, as well as some from Boston. The severely injured were tenderly lifted into wagons, carriages and automobiles and taken to hospitals.

Others who appeared to be at the point of death were removed to nearby houses, while the police began the grewsome work of collecting the dead.

Within fifteen minutes after the accident a crowd of two or three thousand people were swarming over the scene. Relatives and friends of those on the wrecked car were rushing about trying to find their missing ones, while many others who thought that some of their families might possibly have been on the car were equally excited.

Indicted For Murder.

HARTFORD Conn., Sept. 22.—Joseph Watson, the colored lad who shot and killed former Police Commissioner Henry Osborn early last month, was indicted for murder in the first degree by the grand jury. As the indictment was read to him Watson grinned and seemed to regard the whole affair as a joke. A plea of not guilty was entered for him as a guardian ad litem is to be appointed, Watson being a minor. He will be placed on trial on next Tuesday, the same day as the trial of Gershon Marx, the Colchester farmer who has been indicted for the murder of a farmhand, will begin at New London.

Fatal Accident In Shoe Factory.

BEVERLY, Mass., Sept. 22.—Adonis Ristole, an Italian, was killed and several others were injured by the breaking of a ladder at the United Shoe Machine company's works here. The men, with a score or more of others, jumped upon the ladder in a rush to get out of the factory from the second story when the noon whistle sounded, and their combined weight broke it. Ristole leaves a widow and nine children.

Did Not Indorse Subway Tavern.

KANSAS CITY, Sept. 22.—Replying to an open letter recently sent to the archbishop of Canterbury by the American Young People's Christian Temperance union with reference to an alleged indorsement of the Subway tavern in New York, Chaplain Gleason in behalf of the archbishop writes that "his grace has expressed no opinion whatever with regard to the Subway tavern initiated by Bishop Potter."

John Redmond In Chicago.

CHICAGO, Sept. 22.—John E. Redmond, leader of the Irish party, and his parliamentary colleagues, Captain A. J. C. Donnellan and Patrick O'Brien, were given a luncheon at the Sherman House by the Irish Fellowship club. More than a hundred notables in business and political circles attended the luncheon, including John F. Finerty, president of the United Irish League of America.

Odd Fellows Choose Washington.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 22.—The most important action taken at the session of the sovereign grand lodge of Odd Fellows was the choice of a meeting place for its next annual session. After a spirited contest the honor went to Washington, which received 98 votes against 20 for Buffalo, 18 for Philadelphia, 14 for Cleveland and 11 for Montreal.

HERRICK NOMINATED

Unanimously Chosen For Governor at Saratoga, N. Y.

J. B. HARRISON IN SECOND PLACE

Republican Judicial Ticket, Cullen and Werner, Indorsed—Harmony Evolved From Chaos at Last Moment.

SARATOGA, N. Y., Sept. 22.—Out of a situation which at times seemed almost impossible of amicable solution the leaders of the Democratic party found a way to unanimous action, and the state convention adjourned without delay after having nominated unanimously the following ticket:

For governor, D. Cady Herrick of Albany, at present justice of the state supreme court.

For lieutenant governor, Francis Burton Harrison, New York, now a representative in congress from the Thirteenth district.

For secretary of state, John Pallace, Jr., of Monroe, now a member of assembly.

For attorney general, John Cunneen of Erie, the present incumbent.

For comptroller, George Hall of St. Lawrence, now mayor of the city of Ogdensburg.

For state treasurer, A. A. McLean of Newburg, state committeeman from Orange county.

For state engineer and surveyor, Thomas H. Stryker of Rome, Oneida county.

For chief judge of the court of appeals, Edgar M. Cullen of Kings (Dem.), now an associate judge of that bench and the Republican nominee.

For associate judge of the court of appeals, William E. Werner (Rep.) of Monroe.

The convention audience waited more than an hour after the time (11 a. m.) set for the reassembling of the delegates while the leaders continued their conferences, which lasted almost up to the moment of the chairman's call in the convention for nominations for the office of governor.

Former United States Senator David B. Hill himself presented to the convention the name of Supreme Court Justice Daniel Cady Herrick of Albany, and, while it had been rumored for some time in the convention hall among the waiting assemblage that Justice Herrick's name had been decided upon as a settlement of the conflicting interests, the nomination by Mr. Hill was received with great enthusiasm and indorsed not only without a dissenting vote, but with cordial speeches of support by representatives of three of the elements whose attitude had been an important factor in the serious situation which had formed the subject of the conference. Incidentally Senator Hill himself was accorded a reception which was little less than an ovation, and almost every mention of his name thereafter was the signal for increased cheers and applause.

A notable feature of the convention was the disappearance of all open evidence of the factional warfare between the Kings county organization, headed by State Senator Patrick H. McCarren, and Tammany Hall, under the leadership of Charles F. Murphy. Recognition of the harmonious state of affairs which had followed the tense situation of the past two days was expressed in nearly every speech made, especially those of ex-Speaker Hill, Representative W. Bourke Cockran and State Senator Thomas F. Grady of Tammany Hall, Lake Stapleton of the Kings county organization and Major H. H. Rockwell of Elmira, who stood as the representative of John B. Stanchfield.

Duncan Campbell Lee of Ithaca, permanent chairman of the convention, made an extended speech in which he attacked the Republican state administration, charging it with extravagance, and criticised Governor Odell himself for his acceptance of the dual role of governor and chairman of the Republican state committee.

The platform adopted includes a direct personal attack upon Governor Odell as well as a denunciation of the Republican administrations, an indorsement of the Democratic national ticket, platform and resolutions and strongly worded discussion of state and national issues from the Democratic point of view.

The chief participants in the conferences which finally brought about unanimous action were Senator Hill, former Lieutenant Governor William F. Sheehan, chairman of the executive committee of the national committee; George Foster Peabody, treasurer of the national committee; Chairman Cord Meyer of the state Committee, and William S. Rodie of the state executive committee, State Senator McCarren, Charles F. Murphy, State Senator Victor J. Dowling, National Committeeman Norman E. Mack, August Belmont and former United States Senator Edward Murphy, Jr., of Troy.

Justice Herrick was essentially a compromise candidate as between Edward M. Grout of Brooklyn, comptroller of Greater New York, and Edward M. Shepard, also of Brooklyn, who practically drove each other from the field, Mr. Shepard being finally dropped from consideration because of the opposition of Senator McCarren and the Kings county organization. Mr. Grout because of the positive opposition of Tammany Hall. There was mention also of Assemblyman George M. Palmer of Schoharie, minority leader in the state assembly.

Justice Herrick might have been selected earlier in the conference but for the bitter opposition of State Committeeman Patrick H. McCarren and his fellows in the Albany organization, by which Justice Herrick has for many years been regarded as the leader of their opposition within the party in Albany county. The Albany people were at last overborne, and when Justice Herrick's name was brought into the convention it was accompanied by the semiofficial announcement that he would have the support of the Albany county organization as well as of that in Rensselaer county, about which for similar reasons there had been some question.

Two factors dominated all the negotiations and discussions leading up to the final disposition of the ticket. One was Senator Hill's announced intention to single out the strongest possible candidate upon whom anything like an agreement could be reached. The other was Mr. Sheehan's insistence upon unanimous action. Both expressed themselves after the convention as absolutely satisfied with the result.

The balance of the ticket was a comparatively simple matter, and the speeches to a large extent consisted of personal tributes to the candidates selected. A change in the slate was made in the last moments before the nominations began. For state treasurer Simon G. Schlacter of Syracuse had been selected, but was finally replaced by William Muench, on the ground that a business man was desired for the treasurership. Mr. Schlacter is a lawyer.

Mr. Hill made a little speech from the balcony of his room in the Grand Union hotel. A crowd of delegates gathered on the walk, serenaded him with a band and clamored for his appearance. At last he came out and said:

"Fellow Democrats—I thank you for your kindness expressed in this greeting, and I desire to congratulate you upon the splendid work of the convention. It means victory in the state of New York and in my judgment is the forerunner of victory in the nation."

Senator Hill left Saratoga for Albany with the Albany Democratic club, and William F. Sheehan went to New York on the Empire State express.

There was a general rush to leave Saratoga as soon as the nomination for governor was made, and all the outgoing trains carried delegations and others who had been attending the Democratic gathering.

Jersey Democratic Clubs Meet.

NEWARK, N. J., Sept. 22.—Large delegations from every county in the state attended the convention of Democratic clubs which was called to meet in this city by the bureau of clubs, an auxiliary to the state committee. The visitors were received at the state headquarters in the Jeffersonian club, after which they marched to the Krueger auditorium, where the convention was called to order by William S. Cutler of Morristown.

Parker Congratulates Herrick.

ALBANY, N. Y., Sept. 22.—One of the first to congratulate Justice D. Cady Herrick upon his nomination for governor was Judge Parker. In addition to Judge Parker's message the following was received from Mayor McClellan of New York: "Heartiest congratulations on your nomination, which points to a great Democratic victory in November."

Adams For Governor of Colorado.

DENVER, Sept. 22.—Alva Adams has consented to accept the Democratic nomination for governor.

Big Storm in Newfoundland.

ST. JOHN'S, N. F., Sept. 22.—A fierce gale swept this region. The schooner Amy Louise, 114 tons, of St. John's; the schooner Bobs, 97 tons, of Parrsboro, N. S., and the schooner Elinor, 86 tons, of Plymouth, have been driven ashore. The schooner Ripple, 70 tons, of Quebec, has been lost with five men. The Labrador mail steamer is delayed. It is feared that last week's gale has devastated the Labrador seaboard. Reports from St. Pierre show that gales have severely damaged the French fishing fleet. The catch of cod is the poorest in ten years.

Big Fleet at Target Practice.

CRISFIELD, Md., Sept. 22.—The monitors Florida, Nevada and Arkansas, also the torpedo boat destroyers Lawrence, Macdonough, Hopkins, Whipple, Worden, Truxton and Hull, all of which vessels arrived here a few days ago, began target practice in Tangier sound. The torpedo boat Macdonough was the first to practice, which lasted four hours, her range being 1,600 yards, using her one pound and fourteen pound guns at a target 30 by 12 feet. She struck the target each time while running at the rate of ten knots per hour, and this is believed to be satisfactory.

Associated Press Election.

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—At the annual meeting of the members of the Associated Press which was held here the following directors were re-elected: Albert J. Barr, Pittsburg Post; Clark Howell, Atlanta Constitution; Charles W. Knapp, St. Louis Republic; Frank B. Noyes, Chicago Record-Herald, and M. H. De Young, San Francisco Chronicle. Mr. William R. Nelson of the Kansas City Star was elected to fill the vacancy for the unexpired term due to the resignation of William D. Brickell of the Columbus Dispatch.

Twenty-four Missionaries Sail.

BOSTON, Sept. 22.—Twenty-four of the thirty-nine passengers who sailed for Liverpool on the Leyland liner Winifredian were missionaries and their families on their way to foreign lands under the auspices of the American Baptist Missionary union. The missionaries will go eventually to south India, Assem and other places.

Snow at Ithaca, N. Y.

ITHACA, N. Y., Sept. 22.—There was a slight fall of snow here, the first of the season. The first snow last year fell on Oct. 24.

RESULTS AT GRAVESEND.

Tenacress, Favorite, Wins Flatlands Selling Stakes.

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—Tenacress, the 2 to 1 favorite, won the Flatlands selling stakes, five and a half furlongs, at Gravesend. Getting off almost last, she was shut off repeatedly, but found an opening next to the rail in the final eighth and won driving by a head from Gamara, who in turn was a head in front of Bank.

Topright, with C. Kelly up, fell in the last race as the field swung into the back stretch. Kelly received a compound fracture of the left arm and a severe shaking up. Summaries:

First Race—Invincible, 7 to 1, first; Divination, 10 to 1, second; Shotgun, 9 to 2, third. Time, 1:11 3-5.

Second Race—Good and Plenty, 1 to 2, first; Bonfire, 12 to 1, second; Headmaster, 13 to 5, third. Time, 5:05.

Third Race—Tenacress, 2 to 1, first; Gamara, 4 to 1, second; Bank, 40 to 1, third. Time, 1:08 2-5.

Fourth Race—Hurstbourne, 11 to 5, first; Champlain, 25 to 1, second; Shorthose, even, third. Time, 2:00.

Fifth Race—Gold Rose, 6 to 1, first; Calmness, 15 to 1, second; Delusion, 3 to 2, third. Time, 1:08 4-5.

Sixth Race—Phantom, even, first; Ben Crocket, 15 to 1, second; Princess Atheling, 7 to 1, third. Time, 1:51.

GRAND CIRCUIT RACES.

John Taylor's Victory Over Dr. Strong the Sensational Feature.

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 22.—John Taylor's victory over the noted Dr. Strong was the sensational feature of the third day's grand circuit racing. Tickets on the defeated horse sold at $100 to $40 for the entire field. It took five heats to decide the race, and each of the two horses raced like a team for the entire mile.

With the exception of the fourth heat, in which John Taylor broke ten lengths away from the wire, each heat was decided by a neck or even less.

The time made in the race was slow, for a heavy wind blew straight down the back stretch. On account of these conditions Major Delmar's trial against the Cresceus record of 2:02¼ was postponed.

Brownie Wilton won the 2:19 trot, which was carried over from Tuesday, and Morning Star had the 2:19 pacing stake at his mercy. He was a 5 to 1 choice.

At least four horses—Monnut, Ash Rose, Bud Posey and Bell Mc—were played heavily to win the 2:10 pace. Bell Mc showed that she outclassed the field by winning the first heat handily in 2:06¼. The other heats were easy for her.

Olympic Golf Championship.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 22.—Three of the eight golfers who will meet in the third round of the Olympic golf championship hail from St. Louis. Chicago representatives to the number of three also have survived the strenuous thirty-six hole competitions, while Canada and Seattle claim the remaining contestants. In the main the struggles of the players in the second round were one sided and resulted in the elimination of three players from the Chicago district.

Delmar Park Results.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 22.—Allen Avon, at 6 to 1 in the betting, easily won Delmar park's feature. Jungle Imp was four lengths back of Allen Avon and two lengths in front of Artemi. Red Leaf, the favorite, was fifth. Tom Shelly, heavily played to win the event, finished last.

ATTACK ON DA PASS

Japanese Attempt to Flank Mukden Begun.

RUSSIANS EXPECT A BIG BATTLE

Their Red Cross Institutions Making Ready For General Engagements. St. Petersburg Shy on War News.

BERLIN, Sept. 22.—A dispatch from Mukden to the Lokal Anzeiger says:

"The Japanese on Tuesday attacked Da pass, fifty miles southeast of Mukden, with what result is not known.

"The Red Cross institutions here are making ready for general engagements."

NO NEWS IN ST. PETERSBURG.

Russian Public In the Dark as to Manchurian Situation.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 22.—There is further delay in the receipt of decisive news from the front. The situation at Port Arthur remains a blank, though it is felt that important developments may be even now occurring there. The movements in the north are still of a tentative and preparatory character on both sides, which have not yet crystallized into a definite clash of forces at any one point. A resumption of the Japanese advance is now expected to occur any day.

It is the third week since the fighting at Liaoyang, and the Japanese have had time to transport re-enforcements from Yinkow and bring up sufficient men to the front to replace their losses, but it is not improbable that several days will intervene before the armies come to close quarters. The interval is being devoted on both sides to feeling out the strength and disposition of the opposing forces.

The Japanese probably will attempt to capture the passes of the Da mountain range, running halfway between the Hun and Taitse rivers. The possession of these passes is important for the Japanese, as it will not only enable them to march northward, but also screen the movements of their troops from the prying gaze of the Russian scouts.

Disposal of Russian Crews.

SHANGHAI, Sept. 22.—It has finally been arranged that the crews of the Russian cruiser Askold and the torpedo boat destroyer Groznovoi, which took refuge here after the naval battle off Port Arthur Aug. 10 and which subsequently dismantled, shall remain on board their vessels. They will be granted occasional shore leave. The Chinese guardship Shant is anchored close to the two Russian warships.

Alleged Suicides Possibly Murdered.

BUCYRUS, O., Sept. 22.—Citizens of New Winchester, near here, are investigating the case of Misses Mary and Lizzie Kaher, who were found dead on the Ohio Central railroad tracks. The women were supposed to have committed suicide, but no wounds were found on the body of Mary Kaher and none on the body of the other woman except that her legs had been cut off. It is now believed that they were murdered and their bodies placed on the track. Their breakfast was found prepared in their farmhouse, and a man's necktie was found on the track near where the bodies were found.

Armistice In Uruguay.

BUENOS AYRES, Sept. 22.—Dispatches received here from Uruguay report that an armistice has been arranged with the revolutionists pending discussion of the following propositions formulated by the government as a basis for peace: Acknowledgment of the constituted authorities by the revolutionists, disarmament and surrender of munitions of war, electoral questions to be discussed by a commission representing both parties, a general amnesty, the removal of embargoes, neither belligerent to advance or receive recruits during the truce. The latter condition was made paramount.

Gorman and Taggart Confer.

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—Senator Gorman of Maryland actively took up his duties as an advisor to the Democratic national committee. Chairman Taggart called on the senator in his quarters at the Fifth Avenue hotel shortly after noon and the two were together until after 5 o'clock. Mr. Taggart suggested that he might have a statement to make later as a result of the conference, but for the present the only thing that could be said was that the whole campaign was most thoroughly discussed.

Drank Wood Alcohol Highball.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., Sept. 22.—Frank T. Wade, a veterinary surgeon, was removed to the Bridgeport hospital suffering from the effects of imbibing a concoction of wood alcohol and witch hazel. He is the third victim of the mixture, which was used in a livery stable for a horse liniment. James Murray, the first victim died, and Robert Nevins, who also drank the mixture, is in the hospital in a dying condition.

J. D. Rockefeller's Generosity.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Sept. 22.—Upon the opening of the academic year at Brown university President Faunce announced a gift of $5,000 from John D. Rockefeller, Jr., '97. The donor was cheered by the students. The women's college, Pembroke hall, was also opened, the entering class numbering fifty.

Plainfield, N. J., Sept. 22, 1904.

Notwithstanding his decision to refuse the proffer of any political nomination, James E. Martine announced today that he will become the Democratic congressional candidate provided it is the unanimous wish of the party in the Fifth district. If he is so honored, we can say that the chances are that the "farmer-orator" will receive a flattering vote in Union County. Warren County's Democracy is likely to do all in its power to pile up a big vote for him. Morris can not be depended upon to do so well, but be as it may, James E. Martine will not be a mere figurehead in the coming congressional fight, provided he is a nominee.

It is evident from the enthusiasm shown at the convention of Democratic Clubs in Newark yesterday, that the minority party is going to make the hardest sort of a fight to recapture the State. From almost every county come reports that seem to encourage the party leaders and they declare that the Republicans will be driven from power in New Jersey as a result of the coming election. Charles C. Black's equal taxation platform is said to find strong favor with Hudson County Republicans as well as many members of the same party throughout the State. By reason of this fact, the Democrats claim that they will poll many votes which would naturally be expected to go to E. C. Stokes. Be as it may the Democrats are surely awake and the campaign in New Jersey will be a vigorous one.

PHYSICAL CULTURE AT THE LOCAL Y. M. C. A.

COMMITTEE ARRANGES ROSTER FOR THE VARIOUS CLASSES.

The committee on physical work at the Y. M. C. A. completed the schedule for the coming season. This schedule is in some respects different from last year's, owing to the fact that the classes are much larger, and there will be an additional class from Leal's School. Two years ago, the Leal's boys had a separate class, but last year they met with the intermediate department. The change this year will effect the intermediate department more than the others. They will have two days a week, where last year they were on the floor three days. The business men's and the evening class will have about the same schedule.

The time schedule for the various classes will be as follows: Monday, intermediate department, 3 to 4; Leal's School, 4 to 5; business men, 5:40 to 6:20. Tuesday, boy's department, 4 to 5:30; evening class, 8 to 9:30. Wednesday, business men, 5:40 to 6:20. Thursday, boys' department, 4 to 5:30; evening class, 8 to 9:30. Friday, intermediate department, 3 to 4; Leal's School, 4 to 5; business men, 5:40 to 6:20. Saturday, boys' department, 10 to 11:30, evening class, 8 to 9:30.

The formal gymnasium opening, as has been announced, will be held the first of next month. The plans for the fall exhibition are in the hands of the physical work committee, which is composed of the following members: John Valiant, chairman; J. W. Gavett, John H. Doane, C. B. Egan, J. A. Steiner, Asa F. Randolph and W. M. Caboone. The arrangement for the opening day have not yet been completed but will be announced later.

Celebrated His Fourth.

In honor of his fourth birthday, Master Raymond Hansen, of Watchung avenue, entertained a large party of young friends at his home yesterday afternoon. From 3 until 6 the children enjoyed themselves with games and afterward refreshments were served. The little host received numerous presents of an appropriate nature.

GAVE UP PLOUGHING TO LEARN TO FIDDLE

Throughout this section of New Jersey there is perhaps no person better known who has contributed to the enjoyment of both young and old at dances and receptions, than Eugene O'Reilly, the violinist. For fourteen years he has furnished music for dances in this city, as well as many nearby towns, including the country districts and his experience has been an interesting one in many respects.

Born in New York, he left the metropolis at an early age and after a short residence in Jersey City he moved near Bound Brook, where for several years he lived on a farm. He had an especial fondness for farm life and particularly in the care of trees, plants and flowers of all kinds. He could also do his share in ploughing and many a hard day's work he has put in on the farm.

One day while ploughing in a field his thoughts turned to music and he made up his mind that he would learn to play some musical instrument. He remembered having heard the violin when a boy and he had a liking for that kind of music. He did not have to wait long for his opportunity, for one day while he was planting seed on the farm a man from an adjoining farm came along with a violin. 'Gene became interested and the two men began to talk business. The possessor of the instrument wanted to part with it and by way of a trade he was offered four pigeons. The offer was accepted. But now that 'Gene had the violin he had no bow with which to play, but he was fortunate in finding one in possession of another neighbor. He secured this easily by trading another pigeon, a good mate to one owned by the man who had the bow. The man cared little for the bow, but he did want a mate to his pigeon and a swap was quickly made.

Now that 'Gene had the violin and bow the next question was to learn how to play it. Nights after his day's work was over he would go to his room and strive for hours to master the instrument. He soon was able to play simple tunes and it was not before long before he was asked to play for country dances. This was twenty-five years ago and it marked the beginning of his musical career, although he later spent three years and a half in Washington, where he was in charge of the botanical gardens for the Government. With a change of administration he lost his job and he returned to Plainfield, where he has continued to make his home.

While in Washington he met a violin professor and he improved his time by taking a number of lessons. Upon his return he devoted his entire time to playing at dances and receptions and today there is no more popular musician in the State than Mr. O'Reilly. Last year out of a possible seventy nights, he played sixty-four and his services are always much sought after.

'Gene says that many a time he has worked hard on the farm until 4 or 5 o'clock in the afternoon, gone home and dressed and then gone out and played all night at a dance. There is nothing that he would rather do than play a fiddle and his mastery over the stringed instrument is due to earnest and persistent effort.

Sunday Excursion to Mauch Chunk.

There is no more popular resort for a Sunday than Mauch Chunk, and to reach it entails a delightful rail journey, and at Mauch Chunk there is a diversity of amusements, the chief of which is a ride over the Switchback. This journey occupies more than one hour, and leads over and around the mountains with widely changing scenes at every turn. The Switchback is a gravity road, and the speed attained is close to a mile per minute. Another feature is Flagstaff, the summit of which is reached by trolley, and from its pinnacle point there is a view extending over miles and miles of beautiful country. An interesting spot close at hand is Glen Onoko, a short distance above Mauch Chunk, and as it name implies, is a beautiful glen, with falls, cataracts, mountain paths leading to cool and delightful peaces. On October 2, 1904, the New Jersey Central is to run a popular excursion to Mauch Chunk from Plainfield by special train leaving at 9:20 a. m. Returning train will leave Mauch Cuhnk at 5:40 p. m., and the round trip will cost but $1 50. Frequent train service will be in effect between Mauch Chunk and Glen Onoko, and trains on the Switchback run every few minutes. 9 22 9 o

WHY DID MR. HAND BUY TROLLEY STATION?

PURCHASER SAYS "I DON'T KNOW" IN ANSWER TO QUERIES.

Charles H. Hand, real estate dealer, who purchased the tract on Watchung avenue, between North avenue and East Second street, on which stands the trolley station, declares he does not know what he bought it for. An effort was made to ascertain his purpose in buying the land but he was as non-communative as a politician. Here is the interview with him:

"What are you going to do with that property?"

"I don't know."

"Did you buy it for the P. S. C.?"

"I don't know."

"Is it intended to make a trolley loop on the ground?"

"I don't know."

"What are you going to do with it?"

"I don't know."

Orange Field Club Practice Tonight.

The football practice of the Orange Field Club which was postponed from Monday night, will be held this evening on the Westervelt avenue grounds. The players are requested to be on the field at 7:30, as practice will begin promptly. It is hoped that all the candidates will be out as Manager Smith wants all to be prepared to play in the practice game Saturday. It is not known at present who the opponents of the Field Club will be for Saturday, but Smith is attempting to arrange a game.

Kindly take notice that Ely's Liquid Cream Balm is of great benefit to those sufferers from nasal catarrh who cannot inhale freely through the nose, but must treat themselves by spraying. Liquid Cream Balm differs in form, but not medicinally from the Cream Balm that has stood for years at the head of remedies for catarrh. It may be used in any nasal atomiser. The price, including a spraying tube, is 75 cts. Sold by druggists and mailed by Ely Brothers, 56 Warren street, New York.

EARLY MARRIAGES WRONG.

Governor of Maryland Says 24 Years is the Proper Age for Average Girl to Wed.

Baltimore (Md.) Special.

Gov. Edwin Warfield has caused a stir among femininity by stating that 24 years is the proper age at which a girl should marry. He made the statement in addressing the graduates of the high school at Wilmington, Del., recently, and later followed it up with the following remarks:

"My advice to girls is not to marry too early. I asked the age when girls should marry, I should say from 24 to 26. The latter was the age of Mrs. Warfield when I married her, and I have said to my daughters that I should not give my consent to their marriage until they arrived at that age.

GOV. EDWIN WARFIELD.
(Maryland's Chief Executive Who Deplores Early Marriages.)

"Marrying for the purpose of settling a daughter in life is as a rule a failure, and an unhappy one. No parent, and especially no true and loving mother, will wish to push her daughter into matrimony before she is fully matured and fitted for the grave responsibilities of married life.

"Girls just out of school are not equipped for the ordinary household duties of wives, and for the cares and trifles of motherhood. They should, after leaving school, spend some time with their parents, giving their companionship, and learning something of the work that will be theirs as wives.

"The girl who marries too early misses many of the pleasures of life. She is doomed to spend her youthful days in the trying and taxing cares of motherhood and household duties with broken health and run-down nerves before she has passed out of her teens.

"Such marriages are unfortunate. They are entered into without due consideration and frequently before the husband has established the business ability that will enable him to provide for the increasing wants of married life. Girls should be taught that there is more in life than getting married; that, when they leave school, they owe some service to their parents, and that they should spend some of their days in making the lives of their fathers and mothers easier and brighter.

"The same advice pertains to young men. I have known cases where young men who, because they married too soon and before they had established themselves in permanent positions, were compelled to give up good opportunities for advancement because the ties and environments kept them down to one locality.

"The realization of the mistake of marrying too early has discouraged many a young man, blasted his future, brought disappointment to himself, and deprivation and suffering to his family. I believe in marriage, and would like to see every man and woman mated in congenial companionship for life, but I am opposed to early and thoughtless marriages.

MAY GET PLEHVE'S PLACE.

Count Ignatieff, Leader of Pan-Slavist Party, to Be Russia's Minister of Interior.

London (England) Special.

A special dispatch from St. Petersburg to the Agence Russe says Count Ignatieff will succeed the late M. Von Plehve as minister to the interior.

Nicholas Paulovitch Ignatieff was born at St. Petersburg in 1832 and entered the guard when 17 years old. Later he was appointed military attache to the Sept. 25: "City Evangelization and Home Missions."—Acts viii, 4-8.

Work We Can Do.

When a soul finds salvation through faith in Christ he at once gets interested in bringing some one else to the Master for salvation.

This is a gracious direction of the natural desire for companionship. It is of the same nature as the love which brought the blessed Christ to earth to seek and save us lost ones. The source of this impulse is the Holy Spirit. This is the inspiration of all missionary effort. It makes the feet of a Paul tireless as he tramps the wilds in perils of robbers or city streets in peril of false brethren. It puts courage now in the heart of the worker for Christ wherever his lot may be cast.

Philip preached in the city of Samaria. This shows that the grace of God had conquered in him the almost inveterate prejudice with which a Jew regarded the whole race of Samaritans. It also showed the power of the gospel to overcome the superstition and abominable practices of the cultivated and fashionable heathen as well as the ignorant and outcast.

We are face to face today with similar conditions. Mission work is needed in heathen lands all over the earth. It is no less needed in all the cities of our own land. Colonies of immigrants from many countries are settling in our cities. They do not come, as did the early settlers of the country, with high moral purpose and quenchless love for spiritual liberty. They do not come with purpose to make a land of Christian freedom. They can by no means be called the vanguard of religious enlightenment.

But they come to stay and make this their homeland even though it be not fatherland. They are to help form the future society and determine the destiny of the nation. Because of what they have come from they are able to appreciate the privileges of this free land as few of the native born can do. They become faithful defenders of the republic. No more enthusiastic patriotism can be found than among their children. They appreciate what they have here found.

They need the pure gospel of Jesus as much as they needed the privileges of this land of liberty. Unless evangelized speedily they become an element of great danger in our life as a people. It is extremely doubtful if the institutions of the republic can be maintained permanently unless these people, as well as ourselves, possess enlightenment and integrity.

More important than this is the fate of the kingdom of God in the world. These have been brought to our doors. They need the pure gospel. We have the means with which to meet that need. What hope that we shall retain our salvation if we neglect to evangelize them?

One of the most pressing problems of the present time is this of reaching the unevangelized people of the cities and neglected countryside. This work cannot be done efficiently single handed. The church is awakening to the necessity for comprehensive plans and devoted prosecution of such plans.

What can we do individually?

Become intelligent as to the existing conditions and needs by reading and investigation as opportunity offers. Be interested to help in every way possible to remedy the evils. Pray fervently and constantly for the direction and blessing of God on the work and workers. Give of your time and cash for the work and talk it up where it will do good.

Without God.

Without God heaven would be no heaven. With Him heaven is not first a locality, but wherever one is in His presence there is the heavenly life—not heaven in its fullness, but the first elements of the heavenly life. In entering, then, into His presence here and now amid our daily common interests we have entered into a spiritual kingdom where, so far as we live in sympathy with it, there is perfect spiritual harmony; where there is no law of compulsion, but the perfect service is the perfect freedom; where the will of the one great loving Spirit is evidently so reasonable, so just and so true that any one who is in sympathy with the heavenly life acts in harmony with it as if it were his own will.—Bishop Lawrence.

Obtaining Human Sympathy.

It is not necessary to explain away the divinity of Christ to obtain from Him the human sympathy we need. We but rob ourselves of the infinite help there is for us in the all wisdom and all power of His divine nature. Sympathy is of little use that is helpless in the presence of human weakness and grief. Jesus wept, but He also brought the dead to life. Such a result was infinitely better than mere tears.—Philadelphia Methodist.

As Far as You Can.

There is welcome and rest in the home above
Waiting you
Who live in the world the gospel of love,
Ever true.
The limbs may be weary, the soul grown faint
And the skies of life all gray,
But reach up as far as you can to God;
He'll reach down the rest of the way.

Oh, you in the terror, the night of sin
And despair,
Turn, turn back to heaven! Cry still "Let me in!"
Kneel in prayer!
For you is the gleam of the morning star,
For you the bright dawn of day;
If you reach up as far as you can to God,
He'll reach down the rest of the way.

There is mercy for you and mercy for me,
If we will;
If Christ alone be our hope and plea,
Mercy still.
Oh, wondrous compassion, though creatures of dust,
Why fear we to trust and pray?
When we reach up as far as we can to God,
He'll reach down the rest of the way.
—Beatrice Clayton.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

Prayer Meeting Topic For the Week Beginning Sept. 25.

Topic.—Cheering facts about missions from Japan and Korea.—Zech. xiv, 3-9, 20.

The prophecy of Zechariah, used as the topical reference, predicts the worldwide spread of the kingdom of God: "And it shall be in that day that living waters shall go out from Jerusalem, half of them toward the former [eastern] sea and half of them toward the hinder [western] sea, * * * and the Lord shall be King over all the earth. In that day shall there be one Lord and His name one." This prophecy is rapidly being fulfilled. Christ's kingdom has extended to the west until all of what may be called the western part of the world has heard of Him and has largely acknowledged His kingship. The west having been won for Christ, the cross is now being carried to the east. The oriental countries—India, China, Japan, Korea, Burma and Siam—are being told of the world's Saviour, and many are responding to His claims upon them.

Nowhere in the east is the gospel advancing more satisfactorily than in Japan and Korea. The news from these fields has always been cheering, but never more so than today. In Japan there are a number of signs of the increasing power and influence of Christianity and Christian civilization. (1) The success of Japan in the war with China is an evidence of the advance in Japan as a result of its contact with occidental civilization; (2) the Anglo-Japanese alliance of a year ago is significant, since it is the first alliance between an oriental and non-Christian nation with a European and Christian nation; (3) the influences of the great revival of two years ago are still being felt; it has extended to Formosa, which now belongs to Japan, and hundreds there have been led to Christ.

In Korea the effect of the war between Japan and Russia is not, of course, very favorable to the advance of Christ's kingdom, and yet there is no movement backward. Koreans have always been kindly disposed toward the gospel, and their interest is by no means on the wane, even in these days of battles and rumors of battles. Additions to the church on confession of faith, while not so large as in recent years, are yet considerable. The number of catechumens, however, has been largely increased, which is a most favorable sign. New schools are being established all over the country, and large numbers of people are receiving instruction in special Bible classes. New chapels are constantly being built by native Christians, and thus Korea is being won for Christ.

Michigan's President.

Fred W. Chamberlin, for the past two years president of the Michigan state union, began his Christian Endeavor life in that state in 1886. He has been the president of local societies in Detroit, Yonkers, N. Y., and Montclair, N. J. He also served the Montclair Young People's federation as its president and made an enviable record as president of the Detroit Christian Endeavor union for two years. He has splendid executive ability and a great faculty of "making things go."

F. W. CHAMBERLIN.

The Value of Conventions.

There can be no doubt as to the value of such gatherings as the great Christian Endeavor conventions. They bring together picked workers from the churches, the brightest and best and most devoted souls. The simple fact of such a coming into touch with hundreds of consecrated lives must mean untold blessing.

We labor in our little corner of the field. Our view is necessarily narrow. We are busy with our difficulties and problems. We often grow dull and discouraged. To rub against other workers who have met these same obstacles and conquered them, who have seen glorious results in the work of the gospel, and to see the glow and feel the throb of their enthusiasm, always sends us back with new grit and fresh power.

The matter of methods is an important one. Perhaps we have worn out the old ways of doing things. In some other field they have learned to do the same old work in new ways. To know these will make our service for Christ far more effective.—Rev. Edwin Forrest Hallenbeck, D. D.

Enthusiasm In Mission Lands.

Into whatever mission land I go I find the same spirit, the same enthusiasm and the same overmastering motive of love to Christ as are found in English speaking lands. Not a single country has been found or a single evangelical denomination where if the genuine principles of Christian Endeavor have been faithfully applied they do not bring forth the same fruits of acknowledgment of Christ, service for Christ, fellowship with Christ's people and loyalty to Christ's church. In all the mission lands I have visited I found Endeavor societies doing all kinds of mission work, some sending contributions to the land that gave the society its birth.—F. E. Clark.

passementerie are worn this fall as supplementary wraps. They accompany any style of toilet, being especially favored in the case of white dresses.

Gold and mother of pearl trimmings, in spite of the fact that they have had a long day in the matter of popular favor, will be in evidence this winter for trimming on evening gowns.

Cut steel, black and beaded effects are mentioned among the new fashion items for costumes.

The illustration shows a blouse of ecru pongee made with an indented yoke and straps embroidered in festoons with pale blue silk and tiny flowers done in the same shade. The sleeves are plaited at the top and puffed into an embroidered cuff. The ceinture is of blue ribbon.

SHIRT WAIST COSTUMES.

The Nattiest of These Are Made In Four Pieces.

The new shirt waist suits will be made in one toned material or of some of the many varieties of cheviot mixtures which come in grays, with threads of blue, red and orange running through the weave.

Brown colorings with nub effects in a contrasting color make delightful suits of the shirt waist style.

This season these suits come in four pieces, the skirt, blouse, jacket, girdle and chemisette.

The blouse, which opens in front, may display a wash shirt waist or the little chemisette with its choker and small cape attachment.

Watteau has set his stamp on the ribbons of today, and many narrow ribbons with pretty flower designs upon them outline bodices and are introduced between insertions and gatherings on waists. They give a most desirable touch of color on a gown. The wider the ribbon the more fashionable and in most cases the softer the better. Louisines and serge woven ribbons are the best.

The smart gown illustrated emanates from a Parisian atelier and is fashioned from mauve canvas. There is nothing unusual about the plaited skirt, but there is decided originality in the little jacket. This coatee is one of the latest conceits for autumn wear and depends for success upon its perfect cut. It is seamless save for the underarm curves. The back, which reaches a trifle below the waist, outlines the figure gracefully and is cut up a few inches at the side seams and finished with large gold buttons. Stitched bands of the material trim the coat. The very small turnover collar and revers are of white corded silk. The blouse is of mauve chiffon and is worn with a turnover linen collar and mauve ribbon tie. The hat of white felt is trimmed with a series of stitched rows of mauve ribbon, caught with a bunch of mauve orchids.

Proceedings of the Union County Board of Chosen Freeholders.

[OFFICIAL.]

Regular meeting of the Union County Board of Chosen Freeholders held on Thursday, September 1, 1904, at 2:30 p. m.

Roll call showed all members present except Freeholders King and Pierson—2

The minutes of the previous meeting (reading of bills being omitted) were on motion, approved as read.

PETITIONS, COMMUNICATIONS, ETC.

From the Morris County Traction Co., a petition to construct, etc., a surface street railway, to be operated by electricity, over and upon portions of the county roads in Union Township, Springfield Township and city of Summit, in the county of Union.

The Board was briefly addressed by Judge W. W. Cutler, attorney for said company, and who explained the aims and objects of the company.

The petition was read as follows, viz.:

To the Board of Chosen Freeholders of the County of Union and State of New Jersey:

The petition of the Morris County Traction Company, a corporation of the State of New Jersey, respectfully shows, that it is a corporation organized under the provisions of an act of the Legislature of the State of New Jersey, entitled "An act to authorize the formation of traction companies for the construction and operation of street railways or railroads operated as street railways and to regulate the same," approved March 14, 1893, and the several supplements thereto.

And your petitioner further shows, that it has obtained, and procured the consents in writing, executed and acknowledged as deeds entitled to be recorded, of the owners of at least one-half in amount in lineal feet of properaty fronting on those portions of Union in the county aforesaid, hereinafter particularly described; and that the Township Committee of the aforesaid township of Union has by its ordinance granted your petitioners permission to construct, operate and maintain a street railway, not only upon that portion of the county roads in said township hereinafter particularly described, but over other roads in said township, and located the tracks and poles in and upon said roads.

And your petitioner further shows, that it has obtained and procured the consents in writing, executed and acknowledged as deeds entitled to be recorded, of the owners of at least one-half in amount in lineal feet of property fronting on that portion of a county road in the township of Springfield, hereinafter particularly described.

And your petitioner further shows, that it has obtained and procured the consents in writing, executed and acknowledged as deeds entitled to be recorded of the owners of at least one-half in amount in lineal feet of property fronting on that part of the county road in the city of Summit known as Morris avenue, hereinafter particularly described, and under the control of your honorable body.

Your petitioner therefore prays that your honorable body will consent and grant it permission to construct, operate and maintain a surface street railway of the standard gauge of four feet eight and one-half inches, with all necessary poles, wires, lines, crossovers and switches, to be operated by electric motors by electricity furnished through overhead wires, over and upon those parts and portions of county roads in the township of Union, in the township of Springfield and in the city of Summit, in the county of Union aforesaid, hereinafter particularly described, as follows:

The reading of the description was omitted.

And your petitioner further shows that it has filed the consents of the abutting property owners along such portions of said county roads herein described in the Township of Union, with the Township Clerk of the Township of Union; the consents of the abutting property owners of such portions of the county road herein mentioned in the Township of Springfield with the Township Clerk of the Township of Springfield; and the consents of the abutting property owners along said road herein mentioned in the city of Summit and now here produced together with map showing the location of its rails and tracks, and also the location of its poles, and hereby prays that the said petition and application may be considered by your honorable body, and that your honorable body will fix a time and place, when and where the said application will be heard and designated the manner in which notice of such application shall be given.

In witness whereof the said Morris County Traction Company has hereto caused the same to be signed by its president and attested by its secretary, and its corporate seal hereto affixed the thirty-first day of August in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and four.

The Morris County Traction Company by ROBERT D. FOOTE, President.

Attest: F. H. Alleman, Secretary. (L. S.)

On motion of Freeholder Cladek, the foregoing petition was received and placed on file.

By Freeholder Meisel:

Whereas, The Morris County Traction Company, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of New Jersey, has applied by petition in writing to the Board of Chosen Freeholders of the County of Union, and State of New Jersey, having control of certain public roads in the County of Union, for its consent and permission to construct, operate, and maintain a surface street railway, to be operated by electric motors, by electricity furnished through overhead wires, for public use in, upon and along the following portions of the county roads in the County of Union.

(The reading of the description of the county roads over and upon which it was desired to construct the surface railway, etc., was omitted, and)

Whereas, Said petition has been filed with the clerk of said Board of Chosen Freeholders of the County of Union on the first day of September in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and four, and is accompanied by maps of the route of said railway through such portions of the city of Summit; in the Townships of Springfield and Union hereinbefore particularly described, showing the proposed location of the rails and tracks thereof, and the location of the poles and conduits, which said map is also filed with said clerk; and

Whereas, The Morris County Traction Company has requested that said application may be duly considered by the said Board of Chosen Freeholders of the County of Union having control of those portions of the aforesaid public road, according to the statute in such case made and provided; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the said application be considered by the Board of Chosen Freeholders of the County of Union at a meeting of said Board to be held on the twenty-second day of September, A. D., nineteen hundred and four, at the Freeholder's room at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon of said day, in the city of Elizabeth in the County of Union and State of New Jersey, at which time and place a hearing will be given to all persons interested, and that public notice of such application be published in the Elizabeth Daily Journal and Summit Herald, two newspapers circulated in the said County of Union for at least two weeks and by posting the same at five public places in the said County of Union, which are hereby designated as follows: One at Sheriff's office, in Elizabeth, one at Meeker Inn, in Union, one at Springfield Hotel in Springfield, one at Postoffice in Summit, one at Machmore's office in Summit, for at least fourteen days before said time above herein fixed for the hearing of said application.

Freeholder Cladek moved the adoption of the foregoing preamble and resolution, and on roll call they were unanimously adopted.

By Freeholder French:

Resolved, That the County Road Committee be requested to investigate the application of the Morris County Traction Company and report to this Board the advisability of granting the request in its present or modified form.

On motion of Freeholder Krouse, the resolution was adopted without dissent.

From Juliet B. Bonnel (widow) and family of the late Freeholder F. W. Bonnel, of Springfield Township, extending their sincerest appreciation of the kindness and sympathy tendered to them and their departed one by the members of this Board.

After being read in full the letter was, without objection, received and placed on file.

From Jas. J. Manning, clerk of the Elizabeth Board of Health, the following communication, viz.:

To the Honorable, the Board of Health of Elizabeth, N. J.:

Sirs—We, the undersigned, residents and property owners on Newark avenue and adjacent streets, respectfully submit that the present condition of Newark avenue is a serious menace to health, in that the great quantity of dust which is constantly raised by the heavy traffic is blown into the nostrils of every person within its reach.

We hereby respectfully and earnestly request that you apply whatever power you may have under the code to abate the danger.

(Signed) Respectfully,
F. W. Stillman,
And 21 others.

Received and referred to the Board of Chosen Freeholders, August 1, 1904.
Jas. J. Manning, Clerk.

On motion of Freeholder Cady, received and placed on file.

From the Union County Board of Elections as follows, viz.:

Elizabeth, Sept. 1, 1904.

To the Honorable, the Board of Chosen Freeholders of the County of Union:

Gentlemen—At a meeting of the Union County Board of Elections held on Aug. 23, 1904, it was ordered that the following recommendations be made to your honorable body, viz.:

That the Registry List Protector, manufactured by Chas. A. Schindler, Jr., of Hoboken, N. J., is a practical device and would doubtless be of great benefit in the preservation of registry lists that are exposed to the weather.

Very respectfully yours,
(Signed) S. Rusling Ryno, Clerk.

By order of the Union County Board of Elections.

Mr. Schindler being present, gave an exhibition of his devise, after which, on motion of Freeholder Krouse, the communication was received and referred to the Public Buildings Committee.

NEW BUSINESS

By Committee on Line Bridge between Union and Somerset Counties: To the Board of Freeholders, Union County, N. J.:

Gentlemen—Your committee to examine line bridge on Mountain avenue, between Union and Somerset counties, respectfully report that they met with the Somerset County Board, found said bridge in very bad condition, and recommend that a new iron beam, brick arch bridge be built at that point, at an expense not to exceed $2,100 in all, or $1,050 for each county.

(Signed) John Robison,
E. K. Adams,
M. M. Soudder,
Peter H. Meisel,
Committee.

Freeholder Cladek moved that the report be received and recommendation adopted, which was so ordered, on roll call, by an unanimous vote.

By the Committee on St. George Avenue Stone Bridge at Rahway: To the Board of Freeholders of Union County, N. J.:

Gentlemen—The Committee on St. George Avenue Stone Bridge, Rahway, N. J., report that bridge is in need of repair, and would recommend that the same be done without delay, not to exceed in cost $400.

(Signed) George B. Cladek,
Henry Krouse,
Committee.

After a brief explanation by Freeholder Cladek as to the necessity of repairs being made at once. Freeholder McCandless moved that the report be received and recommendation adopted, which was so ordered on roll call by an unanimous vote.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

By Freeholder Adams:

Resolved, "That this Board as a committee of the whole, meet at Cranford railroad station on Thursday, the 15th day of Sept. at 2 o'clock p. m., to view and examine the proposed county road from Cranford to Springfield Township."

On motion of Freeholder Wahl, the resolution was adopted without dissent.

By Freeholder Swain:

Resolved, "That a committee of three be appointed to meet a similar committee from Morris County, and examine the condition of the bridge over the Passaic River at Franklin Mills, Summit, and make necessary repair to same, not to exceed in cost to this county the sum of $500."

Freeholder Swain said that it was necessary for public safety that the bridge be repaired as soon as possible, and on motion of Freeholder Brucklacher the resolution was adopted on roll call by an unanimous vote.

The Director appointed as the said committee Freeholders Swain, Cady and Wahl.

By Freeholder Woodruff:

Resolved, "That a committee of three (3) be appointed with power to examine a bridge on old road to Union from Roselle, and if they think it a necessity to repair the same at a cost not to exceed $100."

Freeholder Woodruff stated that the condition of the bridge demanded immediate attention, after which, on motion of Freeholder Krouse, the resolution was adopted on roll call by an unanimous vote.

The Director appointed as the said committee Freeholders Woodruff, Krouse and Adams.

By Freeholder Connoly:

Resolved, "That a committee of three (3) be appointed with power to examine the old bridge on Pictor Street in Westfield, and repair the same if necessary, at a cost not to exceed $350."

Freeholder Connoly briefly stated why repairs should be begun at once, and on motion of Freeholder Robison the resolution was adopted on roll call by an unanimous vote.

The Director appointed as the said committee Freeholders Connoly, Soudder and Robison.

By Freeholder Darby:

Resolved, "That a committee of three (3) be appointed to examine the condition of a bridge on Mountain avenue, Mountainside Borough, and report the condition, together with their recommendations at the next meeting of this Board."

On motion of Freeholder Krouse, the resolution was adopted without dissent.

The Director appointed as the said committee Freeholdres Darby, Meisel and Roll.

By Freeholder Brucklacher:

Resolved, That the County Collector be, and he is hereby, authorized to pay the amount appropriated for hospitals, as follows, viz.:

To the Elizabeth City General Hospital	$7,500
Muhlenberg Hospital of Plainfield	4,800
Alexian Bros. Hospital	2,700

An Ideal Location

Rosedale and Linden Park Cemeteries

LARGEST IN THE STATE

LINDEN, N. J.

Beautiful and Accessible

2 Miles from Elizabeth, 7 Miles from Newark,

14 MILES FROM NEW YORK

On Main Line Pennsylvania Railroad

Why Lots in these Cemeteries commend themselves to Heads of Families and Investors

BECAUSE of the $1,000,000 Trust Fund provided for by the Trustees in each Cemetery, the income from which will keep the properties perpetually beautiful at NO EXPENSE TO LOT OWNERS.

BECAUSE such a guarantee, not found in any other cemetery, assures lot owners that the grounds WILL BE MAINTAINED PERMANENTLY AS BEAUTIFUL PARKS AFTER THE INCOME FROM THE SALE OF LOTS HAS BEEN EXHAUSTED.

LOTS SHOULD BE PURCHASED NOW

BECAUSE MORE ADVANTAGES ARE OFFERED TO LOT BUYERS in a new Modern Park Cemetery than in those established many years and, in most cases, no provision made for perpetual care without extra expense to lot owners. THERE ARE A GREATER NUMBER OF IDEAL LOCATIONS TO SELECT FROM, PRICES OF LOTS ARE ALWAYS LOWER AND TERMS MORE ADVANTAGEOUS.

BECAUSE life is most uncertain and EVERY ONE SHOULD ANTICIPATE THE INEVITABLE BY MAKING A CHOICE NOW OF A FINAL RESTING PLACE.

LOTS WILL PROVE A GOOD INVESTMENT

BECAUSE they are sure to increase in value and can be purchased NOW at the INITIAL or LOWEST PRICE and upon the most ADVANTAGEOUS TERMS.

BECAUSE the properties are ACCESSIBLE TO 4,000,000 PEOPLE, and considering the RAPID GROWTH OF GREATER NEW YORK and its TRIBUTARY CITIES and TOWNS, it is only a question of a SHORT TIME when LOTS in ROSEDALE and LINDEN PARK will EQUAL IN VALUE those of our MOST NOTED cemeteries.

FOR INFORMATION concerning lots in these beautiful Park Cemeteries, and FREE transportation to prospective lot buyers, apply at once to any LEADING UNDERTAKER or offices of the Associations:

DISAPPEARS AS WIFE WAS RETURNING HOME

A WELL-KNOWN LOCAL MOTORMAN STRANGELY ABANDONS FAMILY.

While his wife was visiting relatives in Hunterdon County two weeks ago, Elwood Hoppock, of West Fourth street, one of the best known employes of the local street railway, suddenly left his home and has since been missing. His wife returned to Plainfield in response to a letter from him in which he enclosed money for her fare but he was gone when she reached the house. There was no explanatory note or anything to indicate what caused him to act in such a strange manner and to her it remained a mystery.

The wife has appealed to the employes of the street railway to aid her in her search and it was said by one of them today that Hoppock was seen in Newark. He was a motorman on the Fourth street line, and so far as is known had had no trouble with the officials. Inquiry at Newark showed that he was not working on the cars there and if he had been in that city as was said, his disappearance is evidently simple desertion. The wife is in destitute circumstances.

GENERAL INCREASE IN SCHOOL ENROLLMENT

HALF-DAY SESSIONS NECESSARY TO ACCOMMODATE PUPILS.

Reports regarding the enrollment at the city public schools show a general increase. In the Irving and Franklin schools there is an increase of fifty pupils each over last year. The lowest classes in all the schools are very full. In the Franklin, Washington, Irving and Bryant schools it has been necessary to divide one class and have two sessions. Afternoon sessions are necessary in three of the kindergartens. If the High School is ready for next fall a readjustment will be possible.

The Irving School enrollment is over six hundred and it would be possible to use two more rooms if they were to be had.

WHITTIER ATHLETICS.

School Boys Organize an Association by Electing Officers.

For the first time since the pupils of the Whittier School have organized an athletic association with a managing board. The grammar grade at the High School is in the same organization with the higher department, but up to this time the Whittier athletics have been controlled only by transitory committees.

At a meeting of the boys of the school the following board of directors was elected: President, Fred Martin; vice president, Ray Woodhull; secretary, Guion Fountain; assistant secretary, Stanley Robins; treasurer, Edward Harding. This board will be assisted by an advisory board composed of two members from each class in the school.

The following members of the association were elected to serve on this supplementary board: David Smalley, Leslie Bond, Tom Ricketts, William Briggs, David Thickstun, Charles Loizeaux, Tom Day, Joe Bogardus, Merris Timpson and Kenneth Phillips.

Lost Jewels Recovered.

The sudden disappearance of valuable jewels, including woman's diamond ring, an opal ring, three stones; one opal ring, single strone; one emerald ring with small pearl on each side, from the home of Clarence L. Thorn, of Almont place, led to an advertisement being placed in The Daily Press. The jewels were found at Mr. Thorn's home.

GRAND • ANNUAL

RECEPTION AND NEW PREMIUM EXHIBIT

AT OUR STORE

325 West Front St., Plainfield, N. J.

Saturday Afternoon and Evening, September 24, 1904

We wish to extend to you a cordial invitation to attend our Grand Annual Reception and Exhibit of New Premiums, which will be held at our exhibition rooms, 325 WEST FRONT ST., PLAINFIELD, N. J., September 24.

This is our seventh year of continuous operation in the State of New Jersey, and the sound practical value of "S. & H." Green Trading Stamps is shown in the fact that during the past four years we have given away over one million dollars' worth of premiums in this immediate locality.

In other words the people of Elizabeth, Plainfield, and other New Jersey cities of this section, have received more than one million dollars in free gifts by simply saving "S. & H." Green Trading Stamps. Progressive merchants give the stamps, as better than a cash discount.

They get more trade, and you get more for your money.

Could there be a fairer business proposition?

There are several imitators of "S. & H." Green Stamps—all good things are imitated—but if you are wise you will collect only our Green Stamps. They have twice the premium value of other stamps, and they are reliable—not here this month and gone the next. "S. & H." Green Trading Stamps are issued and guaranteed by a great corporation with a million dollars of cash capital. Green Stamps have a definite, tangible, unchanging value.

You must make it a point to come and see this Exhibit of New Premiums. No power of description can convey any idea of the real beauty, the magnitude and the value of this display. There is something to please every taste. You can furnish your parlor, your dining-room, your boudoir; you can adorn your person with costly jewelry; you can give exquisite gifts to your friends or loved ones; you can get beautiful things in endless variety—all with the little stamps that are given free with the necessaries of life, if you buy of the right merchants. There will be music and a cordial welcome awaiting you, and you will be presented with Ten "S. & H." Green Stamps free, as a souvenir.

BEHIND CLOSED PORTALS

HAPPENINGS OF THE LOCAL FRATERNAL ORDERS.

Old Glory Council, Daughters of Liberty, will pay a visit to the Rahway Council tonight.

Franklin Council, No. 41, Jr. O. U. A. M., will meet tonight and consider business of importance.

No Third District for Borough.

Corporation Counsel Charles A. Reed says there is no truth in the report that he has the matter of a proposed division of either election district in North Plainfield. He explains that at the last Presidential election more than 600 votes were cast in the First district and that subsequently a slice of that district was added to the Second district. Since then, he says, in neither district has 600 votes been cast and for that reason no change can be made legally.

To Publish Prospectus Next Week.

After much work on the part of the secretaries and directors of the Y. M. C. A., the annual prospectus of the association has finally been placed in the hands of the printers and will appear next week, probably on Monday or Tuesday. The booklet is a decided improvement on the last years edition, containing full information with regard to the changes in the physical and other departments, and being illustrated by several cuts.

Arrested for Robbing Parson.

Rev. James Watson, of somewhere, who claims to have been fleeced out of a watch and money a few days ago, appeared before Chief Kiely this morning and asserted that John Taylor, of Plainfield avenue, was the mean man who had "given him a game of con and then robbed him." Taylor was arrested on a warrant issued by Justice Huff and he will be given a hearing this afternoon. The accused declares that he can easily prove an alibi.

Resisted Arrest.

William Corrigan, a wanderer who claims to have a home near Murray Hill, was landed in the borough jail yesterday afternoon, after he had resisted Chief Weiss with all his strength for several blocks. He will be given a hearing before Recorder Doud tonight.

Permit for Erecting Dwelling.

John Rafferty, of 23 Sandford avenue, has been granted a permit for the erection of a frame dwelling on Grant avenue and Fourth street. The building will measure 31x27 and 36x6 feet.

Parents Announce Engagement.

Mr. and Mrs. John Herman, of Bound Brook, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Herman, of this city to Peter Vroom, of Pluckamin.

Individual Light Plant.

After several months' work the electric light plant of the Y. M. C. A. has been completed. A member of the De la Vergne Company, of Pittsburg, arrived in this city this morning, for the purpose of superintending the starting of the engine. This will in all probability take place this afternoon. The plan of lighting the association by an individual dynamo was conceived by the Y. M. C. A. directors some time ago, and the arrangements for the affair were put in the hands of George H. Batchelor and John Valiant. The De la Vergne Machine Company are the makers of the apparatus, and their electricians have been attending to the work of laying the plant. The electric work, however, has been largely in the hands of A. M. Higgins, of this city.

Mrs. A. D. Edgar's Brother Weds.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Edgar, of West Front street, were guests yesterday, at the wedding of Mrs. Edgar's brother, Sandford Ramsey, and Miss Marion Davis, which took place at 4 o'clock in the afternoon in the Reformed church, Lebanon, Hunterdon county, of which the bride's father, Rev. W. E. Davis, is the pastor. Mr. Davis performed the ceremony. Both the bride and groom are known here, where they have visited frequently. The groom is in the employ of the New Jersey Central.

To Fix Tax Rate.

There will be a meeting of the financial committee of the Common Council this evening when the tax rate for the coming year will be fixed. The Board of Assessors, it is expected, will meet with the committee at that time. While it is generally believed that the rate for the coming year will be $2.52, there is a possible chance of it being a trifle lower.

Thrown From Trolley Car.

Theodore Smith, of Allen place, was thrown from a trolley car yesterday and received a badly sprained arm. He is now detained at home and will be kept from work at least a week.

Howell Renominated.

Congressman Howell was renominated by acclamation today at Asbury Park. Speeches were made by the candidate and by Senator Kean.

The tenth annual district meeting of the I. O. O. F., will be held on Tuesday night at Perth Amboy. Plainfield Lodge, No. 44, and Queen City Lodge, No. 226, will take part. Delegates from every part of the State will be present, and as the fraternity is widespread throughout the State the gathering is certain to be a large as well as important one.

—The Pederick-Ayer employes began a new schedule yesterday, making full time. They will now work until 5:30 afternoons and until the same hour Saturdays.

END OF THE REUNION

Veterans of the 28th Conclude the Year's Business.

PATRIOTIC ADDRESSES

Assemblyman Swackhamer and Rev. Frank Fletcher Among Those Who Addressed Gathering.

The eighteenth reunion of the Twenty-eighth Regiment of New Jersey Volunteers, at New Market, adjourned yesterday at 5 o'clock after one of the most interesting and enjoyable sessions which has been held for years. From early in the morning till darkness fell upon the village the veterans held possession of the place. The residents displayed their patriotism by decorating their houses with bunting, while nearly eighty of the old fighters were made welcome and royally entertained.

It was a pathetic as well as a pleasant sight to see the evident enjoyment with which the old warriors, many leaning upon their younger relatives, retold the stories of "sixty-three," and exchange reminiscences of the battles of Chancellorville and Fredericksburg. It was in these two ways that "the 28th" figured most strongly, and which reduced their ranks from 1,000 to 500 men.

The session convened in the afternoon at about 3 o'clock, the time being devoted largely to patriotic speeches by prominent veterans, and public speakers. A feature of the afternoon's programme was the rendition of several violin solos and old war songs by Samuel Frazee and James Dougherty, of this city, and Corporal Dobson, of Perth Amboy. The recollection of these songs, so often sung on the battle field, brought tears to the eyes of the veterans and they responded with enthusiastic applause.

Among those who spoke at the afternoon session were S. S. Swackhamer, of this city, and Rev. Frank Fletcher, of New Market. Both were greeted with cheers, and both richly deserved the applause accorded them. Mr. Swackhamer's remarks were particularly appropriate to the occasion, and delighted the audience by their simplicity and directness.

After a number of short addresses by other members of the association, the meeting adjourned. The reunion next year will be held at South River on the third Thursday of September.

SCHOOL BOYS TENNIS CONTEST ENDS TOMORROW

THIRD ROUND IN THE TOURNAMENT FINISHED YESTERDAY.

But one more day's play remains for the competitors in the Whittier School tennis tournament. The semi-finals will be played off tomorrow on the Albert street courts. Yesterday's matches were the most interesting which have yet been played and without doubt the most evenly matched. The sets between Briggs and Martin were exciting from beginning to end, and the crowd of spectators were constantly in doubt as to the winner of the contest. Briggs took the first set by the score of 6-4, and after a hard struggle in which spectacular plays were numerous, Martin captured the second set. The score was 7 5. Then began a hard up-hill fight for the third set, in which both players had their hands full. Martin proved the steadier of the two however, and in the end took the set with the score of 10 8. It was a set which was exceedingly interesting to watch, and both Briggs and Martin were applauded for their plays many times.

The two other sets in the third round, which were played yesterday, resulted as follows: Randolph defeated Timpson, 6-4, 7-5; Rogers defeated Loughlin, 6-1, 6-0.

Uncle Sam Wants Bids.

Postmaster E. H. Bird has received word from Washington to advertise for bids for the carrying of the mail between this city and Washington ville. The contract held by the present carrier expires July 1, 1905, but it is a way the Government has of being prompt in transacting business, and this matter is no exception to the rule.

Demands $200.

The contract case of John H. Campbell, of this city, against H. and C. Christianson, of Perth Amboy, which was commenced yesterday, is returnable at Justice Von Minden's court at New Market on Friday, September 30. The demand is for $200.

ANOTHER BOROUGH CLUB

Mayor Smalley With Others Form a New Organization.

"JUST FOR SOCIABILITY"

One Member Declares Nobody Wants to Antagonize the U. S. Grant People.

Borough voters on the Republican side of the house to the number of fifty or more gathered in a vacant store on Somerset street, last night, and formed a "distinctly social organization." The attendance included many over-the-brook notables, among them being Mayor Smalley, Former Mayor B. A. Hegeman, Jr., Frank Rowley and others.

Peter A. Emmons called the meeting to order and presided while Frank Rowley acted as secretary. After a few preliminaries the following committee was appointed to draft a constitution and by-laws: N. B. Smalley, B. A. Hegeman, Jr., and William C. Dunham. With the exception of signing the membership roll this was practically all the business transacted and adjournment was taken until next Thursday evening. Forty names were placed on the list, and the number will undoubtedly be doubled within a short time.

No name was selected for the organization, this being left to a committee which will report at the next meeting. It was decided to have the rooms opened every night throughout the winter and means will be provided to entertain the members.

Heretofore the recognized Republican organization of the borough has been the U. S. Grant Club, of which Mayor Smalley was formerly president. The new club numbers many of those who were once prominently identified with it, but in a statement to a Daily Press reporter this morning, one of them declared it was not the intention of the members to antagonize the Grant organization in any way. It is a significant fact, however, that the latter club is now in the hands of Mayor Smalley's political enemies and the formation of his friends is looked upon as a move toward hostilities. The Grant headquarters are well provided with material for the amusement of voters and it furnishes all the sociability necessary for voters who seek it.

TELEPHONE COMPANY MUST PAY FOR TREES

DECISION RENDERED IN SUIT BROUGHT BY SCOTCH PLAINS MAN.

Decision was rendered by Justice Clark, of Scotch Plains, yesterday afternoon, in the case of Isaac Lambert against The Northeastern Telephone and Telegraph Company. Lambert brought suit for $200 damages for cutting trees and the case was tried last Friday. The Justice, after hearing the evidence, reserved his opinion.

The defendants claimed that they cut the trees under a written contract signed by Lambert. The Judge sustains the contract to cut the trees, but it appears that three trees were cut by the company at the request of the Township Committeemen, under whose supervision the work was done. Judge Clark refused to recognize the authority of the Township Committeemen to order trees cut under this ordinance that were not absolutely necessary for the construction of the line and it being admitted that these three trees were not necessary to be removed, he rendered a verdict of $15 damages for the trees and $5 damages to the fence. The defendant admitted the damages to the fence at the time of the trial and offered to pay the $5 and costs before it.

Rally Day Services.

Sunday-school rally day services will be held at the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian, Park Avenue Baptist and First M. E. churches Sunday afternoon. The rally at Hope chapel will be held a week from Sunday. These services mark the return from the morning to the afternoon sessions in the Sunday-schools.

Gates Will Enter College.

John Gates, of East Third street, a well known young colored man, has received word from the authorities of Howard University, of Washington, D. C., that he has been successful, and has passed the necessary entrance examinations. He will enter the University in about a month.

—The vegetable display at Neuman Brothers' is not equalled anywhere in the city. Everything in season received in daily consignments.

KEPT WEDDING A SECRET

'Plains Girl Tells Parents She Has Been Married a Year.

PARENTAL BLESSING

Miss Minetta Buckley and William Wood Stole Off to New York and Were Wedded.

After nearly a year's silence, Miss Minetta Pauline Buckley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Buckley, of Scotch Plains, formerly of Park avenue, and William Milner Wood, of Taunton, Mass., have announced to their families and friends that they are married, the ceremony taking place while on a pleasure trip to New York city last October. The announcement came as a surprise to all, for while it was generally known among their immediate acquaintances that an engagement existed, none but the bride and groom knew that the ceremony had already been performed.

Several months ago Mr. Wood, who is employed by the Campbell Auto Plate Co., was transferred to the company's office at Taunton, Mass., but the young couple were not ready to announce their marriage at the time. Last week Mr. Wood was granted a vacation and taking advantage of his leave of absence, came on to Scotch Plains and on Thursday morning the happy couple, who had kept the match a secret for a year, sprang the surprise upon the bride's parents. After an explanation was made the young couple was forgiven as usual as their was no opposition to their marrying.

They will go to housekeeping October 1 as the groom before leaving Taunton, to break the news and claim his bride, furnished a home complete.

The bride and groom have a host of friends in this city, where they formerly resided, both being active workers in St. Stephen's church, Netherwood, the bride being a member of the choir and a musician of some note. Mr. Wood has been employed by the Campbell Company for several years past and holds a lucrative position in their Taunton office.

MISS MAMIE REED MADE WIFE OF PETER PETERSON

QUIET CEREMONY AT SCOTCH PLAINS UNITES YOUNG COUPLE.

A quiet home wedding took place last night at Scotch Plains, when Miss Mamie Reed, daughter of Mrs. Frank Riker, became the wife of Peter Peterson, of Summit, the ceremony taking place at 8:30 at the home of the bride's mother on Bartle avenue. Rev. G. M. Shott officiated, using the beautiful Episcopal service.

The bride, who was becomingly attired in white, was attended by Miss Sadie Wahl, as bridesmaid, John Alberts being the groom's best man. Immediately after the ceremony and congratulations had been extended, a bountiful wedding supper was served. While the merry guests were in the midst of the festivities, the happy couple slipped quietly away to enjoy a short wedding tour, their destination being kept a secret. Upon their return they will reside in New York, where the groom is employed and has a home furnished for the reception of his bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Peterson received a large number of pretty as well as useful wedding presents, which will be pleasant reminders to them of their friends as they travel life's pathway together.

Fred Smith to Coach Fordham.

Fred Smith, Princeton '97, who has been captain of the Plainfield A. C., has been engaged to coach the Fordham College football squad this fall and in consequence he will be unble to finish the season here. Heretofore, Smith has coached the Princeton eleven each season, but he decided to make a change this year. He is considered one of the best players and he knows the game thoroughly. Manager Johnston will have a strong man to cover first in Smith's place, possibly Joe Wall, formerly of the Hobokens.

Thirtieth Regiment to Meet.

The Thirtieth Regiment of New Jersey Volunteers will hold its annual reunion at Flemington on the second Wednesday in November. There will be a large number of local members in attendance, and the management of the affair will be in charge of Peter V. Weaver. The names of the attendants at the reunion from this city will be announced at a later date.

WEST END YOUTHS ORGANIZE SOCIAL CLUB

W. J. FIRSTBROOK CHOSEN PRESIDENT OF THE MADISONS.

The Madison Club was organized last night at the home of George Wilson, of West Sixth street. A number of the members were in the Hope minstrel troupe and it is likely that an amateur troupe will be got up among them during the winter.

Sports are to receive attention and a football team has been organized. A committee composed of Lloyd Lewis and Walter Vail was appointed to manage a proposed entertainment which is to be given shortly. These officers were elected: President, W. J. Firstbrook; vice president, J. W. Sweeney; secretary, George Wilson; treasurer, J. Fritz. A meeting was called for next Thursday night to make definite arrangements regarding hiring club rooms and various other matters.

PLAINFIELDER WEDDED QUIETLY IN NEW YORK

HUGHES FAWCETT TAKES MISS E. G. PRIEST AS HIS BRIDE.

Miss E. G. Priest, daughter of Mrs. Annie Priest, of Norwich, England, and Hughes Fawcett, of 105 Rockview avenue, son of Thomas Fawcett, of Belfast, Ireland, were married at 5 o'clock, last night, at the Manhattan Hotel, New York, by Franklin W. Ware, of New York. Owing to a recent death in the groom's family, the affair was a very quiet one. There were twenty-six guests, mostly relatives from this city and Boston, present at the ceremony and at the dinner which followed at the Manhattan.

The bride was gowned in white silk, trimmed with Brussell lace collar, and she carried a banquet of white roses. She was given in marriage by her mother.

After the wedding dinner, the couple left for a trip and upon their return will live at Mr. Fawcett's home on Rockview avenue. The bride, until recently, has been a resident of Norwich. Mr. Fawcett has been a resident of this city for some years. He is a New York merchant.

P. S. C. DECLINES TO PAVE THOROUGHFARE

TROLLEY COMPANY NOT TO BE ALLOWED TO LAY DOUBLE TRACKS.

Because the Public Service Corporation will not agree to pave the entire street between the corner of Somerset and East Front streets and Watchung avenue and Fourth street, and the affected property-owners between those points will not agree to allow the trolley company to lay double tracks unless they will make that improvement, double tracks will not be be laid on Watchung avenue and East Front street. The P. S. C. only agrees to pave eighteen inches either side of the tracks.

This was the final decision reached at a meeting of the street committee and Col. Hine, of the Public Service Corporation, held last night. The committee stated the conditions upon which the double tracking system would be allowed over the route proposed, and Col. Hine stated emphatically that the company would not agree to it. He said that the company is willing to pave eighteen inches either side of the tracks and as this did not meet with the approval of the committee, a dead-lock resulted.

This question being settled, the work of paving Watchung avenue, between North avenue and Second street, will be started at once. This part of the street will be paved its entire width with vitrified brick, the city and Public Service Corporation standing the expense for the improvement. The work will be done under the supervision of Street Commissioner Gavett.

Democratic City Committee to Meet.

The Democratic City Committee and not the Democratic City Convention will meet at Democratic headquarters, corner of Park and North avenues, tomorrow night.

—Kirch, the North avenue cigar dealer, is continually adding to his stock of imported cigars. "Cabanas" Conchas and Puritanos and "Vencedora" Puritanos are the latest. 9 22

TAX RATE IS THE SAME

Common Council's Finance Committee Agrees on $2.52.

TO RAISE $237,672.24

Exact Individual Assessment for the Various Departments of City Rate.

The finance committee from the Common Council met last night and fixed the tax rate for Plainfield for 1904 at $2.52 on the $100, the same as last year. In fixing this rate several changes have been made in some of the principal items as will be noticed by comparing figures for the two years.

This year there is to be raised for general purposes, including $35,000 for street improvements, $47,500; for lighting, $13,600; for principal on sewer obligation, $5,600; for interest on sewer obligation, $6,640; for support of city poor, $5,700; for public library, $4,600; for fire department, $33,700; for public schools, $68,300; county purposes, $45,588.14; for State schools, $16,544.10, making a total of $237,672 24.

County tax, .47 cents; State school, .17; fire department, .35; library, .05; city and city light, .65; poor, .07; free school and bond, .73; principal on sewer bond, .06; interest on sewer obligation, .08. Total, $2.52.

As compared with last year these changes are noted: The amount raised last year for general purposes was $16,975, for lighting, $12,800. The principal on sewer obligation is the same. The interest on sewer obligation last year was $6,500, support of poor, $6,000; public library, $4,000; fire department, $33,000; public schools, $64,000; county purposes, $45,570; State schools, $16,085.

The individual assessment last year was as follows:

County tax, .49 cents; State school, .18; fire department, .25; library, .04½; city and city light, .66⅔; poor, 06¾; free school and bond, .69⅔; principal on sewer bonds, .06; interest on sewer obligation, .07. Total, $2.52.

Now that the finance committee has passed on the books of the assessors and fixed these various amounts, it is up to the Common Council to confirm the same. It is with the power of the Common Council to change any of these figures if it so desires, but there is every reason to believe that the figures will stand.

HIGH SCHOOL'S FIRST GAME WITH LEAL'S SCHOOL

ORANGE FIELD CLUB GETTING INTO SHAPE FOR ITS CONTESTS.

William Douglass, captain of the High School football team, has been compelled to keep out of practice for a few days on account of an injury to his hand which he sustained in the first practice. The wrist was badly wrenched, and it will be some time before the swelling retires sufficiently to allow the use of the hand. Douglass will remain on the side-lines for a time in order to save himself for the first game with Leals, on October 1. He is coaching the team from the side-lines, however, and it is developing into good form under his instruction. The manager of the High School team wishes it announced that the game which is arranged witht he Orange Field Club is only a practice. The High School boys expect to be out-weighed by at least fifteen pounds per man, and the game was planned only as a try-out for both teams.

The football candidates of the Orange Field Club were out for their fourth regular practice last evening on the Westervelt avenue grounds, a large number of players showing up for a trial. The speed with which the men are getting into their old time form is very gratifying. The new candidates as well as the former players are fast developing into their positions and Manager Smith will soon be able to announce the line-up for the first game. An attempt will be made to secure a practice game for tomorrow in order that all the men may be given a trial at their respective positions.

Protest Against Race Suicide.

An unusual event occurred at Glen Gardner on Monday night, which gives the town distinction. Three pairs of twins were born on the night in question, those of Ulysses Drake, a girl and boy; those of Edward Lisk, a girl and boy, and a girl and boy born to Mr. and Mrs. Austin Lisk.

BREACH OF PROMISE SUIT

Trial Postponed, G. Baldwin Offering to Marry Plaintiff.

NEW BRUNSWICK GIRL

North Plainfield Man's Trial is Set Over Until Monday, Oct. 3.

A marriage proposal interfered with the trial of George Baldwin, of North Plainfield, who is sued for breach of promise by Miss Bertha Guise, a daughter of William Guise, of New Brunswick, in the Middlesex County Court yesterday. On Monday last Baldwin proposed marriage to the girl. It was this proposal which changed the court's plans yesterday morning.

After the jury had been sworn, Senator Charles A. Reed, representing Baldwin, offered an additional plea to the case and asked to have it admitted. The plea set forth that a proposal of marriage was made to the girl on Monday last and that she had refused to entertain the offer. The defendant wished to enter this into the case for the jury to take into consideration when considering the question of damages. Justice Fort said that he would admit the plea.

Senator Adrain, who is associated with Mr. March as counsel for the girl, said that he did not object to the introduction of the plea. It was finally decided to let the case stand over until Monday, October 3, and admit the plea.

The suit of William Guise against Baldwin also went over to October 3, as this suit is the outcome of the other suit. Senator Reed wanted to try them both together, but Mr. Adrain would not consent to this.

Miss Guise was in court accompanied by her parents and carried her infant child with her. Baldwin occupied a seat in the spectators' part of the court room.

It is understood that Baldwin on Monday last sent word by proxy to Miss Baldwin that he was ready to marry her at some future time and that this arrangement was not satisfactory to the young woman and her parents. Baldwin was arrested some time ago on criminal charges preferred by the girl, but he was discharged after a hearing before the Recorder.

CITY TAXES WILL BE DUE ONE MONTH LATER

LEGISLATURE FIXES DECEMBER 15 AS THE DATE INSTEAD OF NOVEMBER.

It is well for taxpayers to know that according to the State law which fixes the time, taxes in this city will be due on December 15 next, and not November 15, as heretofore. The Common Council fixed the November date for the convenience of the citizens, it being argued that by having taxes due the middle of December, it had a tendency to injure the holiday trade with the local merchants.

This year the Legislature fixed the date at December 15, making it uniform throughout the State. The change was not to the liking of people in this city, but the State law rules and nothing else can be done but adhere to it. Collector F. H. Smith will within a short time, send out the tax bills, the Common Council having voted $100 for the employment of an assistant in Mr. Smith's office.

Knocked Unconscious by Fall.

While riding through Washington Park, early this morning, Charles Clark, of Maple avenue, was thrown from his wheel by a sudden jolt. He landed with great force on his head and was rendered unconscious. Witnesses to the accident carried him to Dr. Buchanan's office where he was treated and then taken to his home by Marshal Weiss. Mr. Clark is employed at the Potter Press Works.

Riders Collide on Watchung Avenue.

Walter Hetfield, Jr., and Harry Hedden had collision on upper Watchung avenue yesterday afternoon. Hedden was riding on the wrong side of the road, and neither rider saw the other till it was too late to turn out of the way. The front wheel of Hedden's bicycle was smashed and both riders received several scratches.

Celebrated Wedding Anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Leek, of East Fifth street, observed the twenty-fourth anniversary of their wedding yesterday, and last night about a dozen friends and neighbors gave a surrise. The evening was spent in a social manner and the host and hostess received congratulations.

TENTH GAME TOMORROW

Plainfield and Westfield May Wind Up the Series.

POSSIBILITY OF A TIE

Virgil Garvin to Pitch for the Locals, and Only One Other Change in the Lineup.

All lovers of baseball in this vicinity will be interested in the contest scheduled for tomorrow at Recreation Park, Westfield, between the Plainfield A. C. and Westfield. This is the most important game in the series of ten, for on the result will depend much, the championship between these teams. If Westfield wins tomorrow it will end the series and give that team the honor of having been successful in a majority of the games. On the other hand, if Plainfield wins it will result in a tie, five to five, and an eleventh contest will be necessary to decide which is the better team.

Manager Denman says that he will present his regular lineup with "Red" Waller as pitcher. He has unbounded faith in this slab artist, believing that he can do the trick if any one can.

Manager Johnston will present his regular lineup with the exception of the pitcher and first baseman. Virgil Garvin will do the twirling and he believes that he can hold Westfield down sufficiently to defeat them. He says that he was not in good condition when he faced Westfield in the eleven inning contest, not having pitched for two weeks previous. He is now in the best of form and says that he can pitch eighteen innings if necessary. As for a first baseman, Manager Johnston has not yet announced the name of anyone. He promises to have a first-class man on the initial bag and he is confident of victory.

The contest will be called at 3:30 o'clock, thus giving plenty of time to complete it before dark.

MANY ENTRIES FOR THE MATINEE RACES

PROSPECTS FOR SOME LIVELY BRUSHES AT DRIVING PARK TOMORROW.

Entries for the matinee races at the Driving Park tomorrow, closed with Secretary Thomas Brantingham last evening, and the list is highly satisfactory to the promoters. There are to be three events—2:24 class trot or pace, 2:30 class trot or pace, and 2:40 trot. Good prizes have been offered for each and as the track is in the best of condition some exciting heats are anticipated. Entrance to the grounds and grandstand will be free as an inducement to a large attendance. The entries in detail are as follows:

2:24 Class, Trot or Pace.

"Miss Wheeler," ch mare, H. E. Carpenter, Woodbridge, N. J.; "The Lawyer," b geld, John Barbour, New Brunswick, N. J.; "Albert L," b geld, M. H. Brandon, Plainfield, N. J.; "Lady West," gr mare, unknown, E. V. Moore, Woodbridge, N. J.; "Ned Davis," b geld, D. C. Smalley, Plainfield, N. J.; "Midget," b mare, Dr. E. A. Giddes, Plainfield, N. J.; "Baronia," br mare, S. D. Kelly, Woodbridge, N. J.

2:30 Class, Trot or Pace.

"Baronia," br mare, S. D Kelly, Woodbridge, N. J.; "May Coast," b mare, Jacob Klotz, Somerville, N. J.; "Cigar," b geld, Henry V; "Midget," b mare, Dr. E. A. Giddes, Plainfield, N. J.; "Miss Wheeler," b mare, H. E. Carpenter, Woodbridge, N. J.; "Lady West," gr mare, E. V. Moore, Woodbridge, N. J.

2:40 Trot.

Will Rally at the Casino.

The local Republicans have decided to hold their political meetings at the Casino. There will probably be two large mass meetings, at one of which Congressman Fowler will be the principal speaker. The dates will be announced within a short time.

Jest Plain Drunk.

In the city court yesterday morning, Samuel Goff, a Newark produce man, was arraigned on a charge of being helplessly drunk. As there had been no disorder connected with the case sentence was suspended.

POINTS FOR THE BUYERS

READY REFERENCES FOR THE LOCAL BARGAIN SEEKERS.

I. N. Wyckoff, of West Front street, contracts to do first-class papering and painting. His stock of wall-papers is very complete.

Scores of satisfied house and store owners testify to the workmanlike style of William H. Pope's electrical installations. An out and out practical man.

Are you troubled with sore feet? If so try Thorp's foot relief at once and you will have no further pain. This is a wonderful remedy as hundreds of persons will testify.

Frank W. VanWinkle, the professional camera and supply man, has the right goods and the right price and what is more he has them fresh whenever you want them.

William Hand & Son, of East Second street, are ready at all times to do any kind of moving or carting at the most reasonable rates. They have appliances for doing the heaviest kind of work.

If you are in need of a range or heating stove go to A. M. Griffen's hardware store on East Front street. The goods are the best and the prices right. If your furnace or stoves need attention Mr. Griffen can promptly attend to this work for you, besides he carries a full line of hardware.

Henry Eggerding, the manufacturing tobacconist, is known to hundreds of fastidious smokers both here, where for over thirty years he has made and sold the Jockey Club and C. O. D. cigars, and in the metropolis where the sale of these goods is equally steady. His new panatela, La Union de Cuba.

Boehm's opening display of fall and winter millinery is to be the treat of the season in price and variety as well as in point of beauty of material and workmanship. It includes a complete line of the latest models trimmed right at the store by Miss Daley and her assistants, in addition to the large assortment of ostrich plumes, feathers, fancy and novelty trimmings and buckles.

The fall season having arrived in earnest, Woodnull & Martin are prepared to serve their customers with the best goods to be found outside of the metropolitan centers. In fact you can do better at this store than in New York. You will find a large assortment of exclusive designs in dress goods, while in the white goods department you will have no trouble in making selections for the fall and winter use. Don't overlook the furniture and housefurnishing goods' department, where the stock is very large.

Sunday Excursion to Mauch Chunk.

There is no more popular resort for a Sunday than Mauch Chunk, and to reach it entails a delightful rail journey, and at Mauch Chunk there is a diversity of amusements, the chief of which is a ride over the Switchback. This journey occupies more than one hour, and leads over and around the mountains with widely changing scenes at every turn. The Switchback is a gravity road, and the speed attained is close to a mile per minute. Another feature is Flagstaff, the summit of which is reached by trolley, and from its pinnacle point there is a view extending over miles and miles of beautiful country. An interesting spot close at hand is Glen Onoko, a short distance above Mauch Chunk, and as it name implies, is a beautiful glen, with falls, cataracts, mountain paths leading to cool and delightful peaces. On October 2, 1904, the New Jersey Central is to run a popular excursion to Mauch Chunk from Plainfield by special train leaving at 9:20 a. m. Returning train will leave Mauch Chunk at 5:40 p. m., and the round trip will cost but $1 50. Frequent train service will be in effect between Mauch Chunk and Glen Onoko, and trains on the Switchback run every few minutes. 9 22 3 o

AMUSEMENTS.

So much that was admirable, and in Clyde Fitch's very best manner, was revealed last night at the Garrick in "The Coronet of the Duchess," that one was put to it to at times explain why the play as a whole failed to take a firmer grip on the interest and the emotions. Marriage contracts in which kind hearts are bartered for coronets and simple girlish faith for Norman blood, (with all the absorbing details of social position and legal settlements,) have bulked large of late in the public mind, and Mr. Fitch has chosen his dramatic point of view with much theatric skill. As far as the scenario goes, the play is one of the most consistent and logically developed that its author has yet produced, and the general scheme of the characters, with its broad and keen contrasts of representative and acutely observed individualities, is most promising. The cast was of Mr. Fitch's best, which is the very best. But what should have been the great moments somehow left one quite cold. The defect was in the writing. It was as if for the moment the author had gone stale.

At the Bijou Theatre, a distinguished visitor is making first bow to New York audiences, "Mr. Wix of Wickham," one of the funniest and cleverest of modern comedy characters are introduced by that versatile impressario, Edward E. Rice. Mr. Wix is a department store manager, who, by a whimsical turn of fortune's wheel, is for a time placed in the proud position of heir to an English dukedom. Throughout the two acts of this ultra-modern musical comedy in which his adventures are presented, he is surrounded with a number of well contrasted principal characters played by capable artists, and all are set in the mids of a rosebud garden of feminine beauty. The book is by Herbert Darnley, who has also composed some of the music, most of which has been specially written for the American production by Jerome D. Kern. The libretto was re-adapted and many new lyrics added by J. H. Wagner. It is a well constructed comedy of character and situation.

Following Blanche Walsh in "Resurrection," the attraction at the Grand Opera House, New York, is W. E. Mankeville's company in a revival of Klaw & Erlanger's immense success of two seasons ago, "The Sleeping Beauty and the Beast." Although theatrical seasons for some time past have resulted in many new productions of a more or less novel character, yet the absolute novelty presented is "The Sleeping Beauty and the Beast," which is a revelation of the possibilities in scenic display that astonishes even those who fancied they had seen the best that could be done in that direction. By means of this brilliant production of an extravaganza, based upon a fairy tale, playgoers gain an accurate idea of what the Christmas pantomimes, so popular in London, really are. While it is very alluring as a spectacle of kaleidoscopic coloring, yet interest in it does not depend wholly upon remountable scenic display. The fairy story which is used as a peg upon which to hang the pictorial fabric is humorously told. The musical embroidery is ingenious, original and in perfect harmony with the musical character of the production. The ballets are gorgeous, illustrations of terpsichorean skill, and the specialties introduced are novel and amusing. The company employed in it, numbers several hundred persons.

Coney's Tri-day Mardi Gras.

All of Coney Island is in the trick of preparations for the big tri-day Mardi Gras celebration which is to be presented at the beach in commemoration of the Island's semi-centennial as a pleasure resort Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, with preliminary ceremonies on the Tuesday evening. Mid-September is usually a period at Coney when the tide of visitors, to a large extent, abate. This is due to the ending of summer vacations for most people, the opening of schools and the general resumption of the city's fall and winter routine. This decrease in the Island's attendance has given Islanders the very opportunities they require to prepare for their great commemorative celebration. Now everybody at Coney is heart and soul engaged to make the tri-day fete a brilliant success. Coney's working summer colony is a variegated cosmopolis, composed, as most everybody knows, of amusement adventurers of all kinds and most nations on earth. In the motley group are Hindoo sword dancers, Belgia candy pullers, Japanese basketmen, Teutonic frankfurter vendors, Egyptian occultists, Gypsy sybils, Morocco camel drivers, innumerable fakirs with innumerable games, clam-chowder men, souvenir hucksters, stage performers, restauranteurs, etc.

Mrs. Harriet Lowrie, of this city, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Jane Swackhamer, of Whitehouse.

Mr. and Mrs. James Elberson, of Point Pleasant, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hayes Reynolds, of Duer street.

President Roosevelt and Family Back In Washington.

DELAYED BY BROKEN LOCOMOTIVE

First Accident to a Train on Which the President Has Traveled. His Party In No Danger.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23.—President Roosevelt and party arrived here over the Pennsylvania railroad from Oyster Bay at 6:52 o'clock yesterday after noon. The president's train was delayed about thirty-six minutes by an accident to the rear drivewheel of the locomotive as it entered the tunnel at Baltimore. This engine was immediately detached and another one was procured to pull the train to Washington. The accident caused no damage to the train.

Fortunately the train was proceeding at a very slow rate of speed when the accident occurred or the result might have been much more serious. It was not making more than three miles an hour when in some unaccountable manner the tire of the rear drivewheel on the left side of the engine broke and curled off. One end of it protruded upward and jammed through the boiler of the engine, causing an almost immediate shutting off of the steam.

This soon deadened the engine, and the engineer, Joe Weatherby, realizing that something was wrong, promptly put on the air brakes, and the train came to a stop without delay. A hurried investigation convinced the engineer and his crew that the engine was useless for further service until repairs could be made, and word was immediately sent to the yard to have another engine sent to the scene. The call was promptly responded to, and after a delay of about half an hour another engine was attached to the train and it proceeded to Washington, where it arrived without further accident.

The cause of the tire breaking, according to the railroad officials was quite inexplicable. The engine, No. 5064, had been attached to the train just before leaving Philadelphia and had been thoroughly tested and found to be in first class condition. The accident, railway officials say, was one of those which will happen in spite of every precaution. The president and his party took the matter very coolly and did not manifest any alarm. Some members of the train crew went back to the president's car to shake hands with him on the run from Baltimore to Washington and in their brief conversation with him spoke of the accident. The president, however, assured them that he had not been alarmed and remarked that if all his troubles were as slight as that he would be "getting along beautifully."

This accident is said to be the first which has happened to a train on which President Roosevelt has traveled during his administration.

The president was given a cordial welcome home by a large crowd of people as he came through the trainshed and walked out to the street, where his carriage was waiting. The crowd lined both sides of Sixth street for a long time before the train arrived, and when he made his appearance and stepped into his carriage he was enthusiastically cheered. In company with Mrs. Roosevelt and three of his children, Archie, Quentin and Ethel, he was immediately driven to the White House. Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Richardson, New York friends of the president and Mrs. Roosevelt, came with them to Washington and are guests at the White House. Senator Philander C. Knox of Pennsylvania joined the party at Philadelphia and came on to Washington with them. The senator announced that his speech to the Philadelphia Business Mens' club will be delivered on Oct. 1. At the station to meet the presidential party were Major McCawley, Colonel Bromwell, the superintendent of public buildings and grounds; Marshall Palmer of the District of Columbia, and Miss Hagner, Mrs. Roosevelt's secretary.

The president and party traveled from Jersey City in a special train made up of the private car Signet, a combination baggage and passenger car and two cars used for the transportation of the presidential horses and carriages back to Washington. In addition to the president and Mrs. Roosevelt the party included Secretary and Mrs. Loeb, Assistant Secretary Barnes and the White House clerical and messenger force of nine persons, who have been on duty at Oyster Bay.

Mrs. Mansfield Not Seriously Hurt.

NEW LONDON, Conn., Sept. 23.—Mrs. Richard Mansfield, who leaped from her frightened saddle horse and was injured, was reported as being quite comfortable. Her injuries prove to be less serious than was at first supposed. An examination by a New York specialist showed Mrs. Mansfield only sustained several severe bruises. She is also suffering from shock.

Public Lands Not to Be Sold.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23.—The commissioner of the general land office has withdrawn from all forms of disposal 276,480 acres of public lands lying within the Great Falls (Mont.) land district on account of the Sun river irrigation project.

Frost in Rockland County.

NYACK, N. Y., Sept. 23.—Frost killed tender plants in many parts of Rockland county, causing loss to farmers. There was ice in some places, the earliest ever known in the vicinity.

Plainfield, N. J., Sept. 23, 1904.

The decision of the finance committee of the Common Council to retain the present tax rate is welcome news to the property owners. Over $2,375,658 must be raised for all purposes, but notwithstanding the fact the councilmanic committee, adopting the recommendation of the board of assessors, has seen no reason to make any increase in the rate.

Another Republican club was organized in North Plainfield. This time its the friends of Mayor Smalley who have banded together for political and social purposes. As the U. S. Grant Club is controlled by those who are not in sympathy with the present administration, it is needless to say that trouble is brewing again in the Republican party of old Somerset.

In Ira W. Wood, of Trenton, the Republicans of the Fourth Congressional district have a particularly good candidate and one who is expected to make a strong fight to secure the seat vacated by Judge Lanning. It is generally understood that Robert L. Stevens, of Somerset County, will be selected by the Democrats at the Congressional convention in Somerville tomorrow. Mr. Stevens appears to have little or no opposition and it is likely that he will be nominated by acclamation.

BEHIND CLOSED PORTALS

HAPPENINGS OF THE LOCAL FRATERNAL ORDERS.

Martha Washington Council, Daughters of America, will hold an entertainment tomorrow night.

The Plainfield Social Club will hold a dance in T. A. B. Hall on Friday night, October 14. Eugene O'Reilly will furnish music.

The regular meeting of Perseverance Lodge, No. 74, K. of P., will be held tonight. The proposed amendment to the by-laws will be acted upon.

At its meeting Wednesday evening, Plainfield lodge, No. 885, B. P. O. E. completed arrangements for its first annual clambake, which is to take place next Thursday. It will be held at the foot of the mountains on the Watchung Spring Water Company's place, an ideal spot. The members will assemble at 10 o'clock in the morning and the bake will be served by a Perth Amboy man at 1:30. In the afternoon the afternoon there will be a baseball game and athletic sports.

For some time past Somerset Council, Jr. O. U. A. M., has been endeavoring to form a drum corps, and Wednesday night a meeting was held to go over and develop plans. Not very much was done, but as a committee has been appointed it is expected that it will not be long now before something definite is decided on. Arrangements for the purchase of music, etc., are being proceeded with. The following comprise the committee, Fred Soper, Walter Walker, George Wilson and Peter VanArsden. There will be a meeting of the Council tonight in the lodge rooms, when the subject will come up for discussion, and the report of the committee on the affair will be heard.

CITY JOTTINGS.

—The T. A. B. Association will hold a reception in its hall on Friday night, October 7. Music will be furnished by Eugene O'Reilly.

—Miss Mary Case, of this city, has secured a position as telephone operator at the local office of the New York and New Jersey Telephone Company.

—The Public Service Corporation has replaced some of the open cars on the main line with comfortable closed cars. If the present weather continues the remainder of the summer cars will be called in.

—Miss Emily C. Marsh, who will address the Y. M. C. A. meeting next Sunday is well and favorably known in Plainfield. She was at one time in charge of the local corps of the Salvation Army, and was eminently successful in her work here. Hilda E. Gaul, who is also a favorite at the men's meetings, will be the special musical attraction. She is known as the child cornet soloist. It is believed the meeting will be one of peculiar interest.

DOUBLE STAMPS
SATURDAY MORNING—8 to 12

Saturday

will find us ready for Fall in every department: Dress Goods, Ladies' Underwear, Ladies' Gloves, Hosiery, Men's Wear, Outing Flannels and in fact everything for Fall wear will be here in profusion.

Outings

The season's most pleasing designs and colorings predominate at this showing. Saturday we offer exceptional values at 7½c, 10c, 12c.

Corsets

Do you realize that the effect of a stylish, neat fitting suit is often marred by an ill-fitting corset? This is not necessary, however, if they are properly fitted to the form. We have a fitting room for this purpose and give special attention to this branch of the department. The leading makes and latest styles are always to be found here. "W & B," "R & G," "Royal Worcester," "Warner's," "Her Majesty," "Nemo," "C.B.," "P. N.," "Armorside," "Thompson's," "Ferris Waists," all represented in abundance.

Men's Underwear

To suit all tastes. Light weight, medium weight, heavy weight. Saturday at 50c we will sell good quality natural wool Underwear. These are neatly finished garments and will be found entirely satisfactory.

Gloves

New fall importations in and on sale—Meyer's, Adler's, Dent's, Pings & Primer, all represented. We call especial attention to the regular 1.00 P. & P. 2-clasp Glove, Saturday at 79c.

(Colors—Mode, green, gray, corn, pearl and red.) We make a specialty of fitting gloves and thus stand responsible for any accident which may happen to them on first fitting.

THE MELROSE DISASTER.

Six of the Injured Still In a Critical Condition.

MELROSE, Mass. Sept. 23.—The death of nine, resulting from Wednesday night's disaster, in which a well filled electric car was blown to pieces by dynamite, was not increased, although six of the injured are still regarded as being in a critical condition and may not survive their wounds. They are as follows

Miss Annie Flaherty, Malden, leg fractured.

Mrs. May E. Conley, Melrose, one leg fractured and the other amputated.

Dr. Henry C. Perry, Wakefield, leg fractured and internal injuries.

George H. Andrews, Melrose, left leg amputated.

J. D. Patten, Melrose, right leg amputated.

The principal action of the authorities was the hailing before Judge Bruce of the Malden district court of Roy C. Fenton, the driver of the express wagon from the tailboard of which the fifty pound box of dynamite dropped to be struck later by the ill fated car. Fenton was charged with manslaughter and held in $1,000 bail, in default of which he was taken to the county jail at East Cambridge. Judge Bruce will hold an inquest on the accident on Sept. 29.

While the court proceedings were in progress Mayor Butterick and other city officials were making an investigation into the city ordinances covering the handling and transportation of high explosives, but they soon found out that there were none for Melrose, although there are some in Boston, where the dynamite was obtained by Fenton, which forbids heavy shipments of this character through that city.

Crowds visited the scene of the explosion, gazing at the shattered pavement, the demolished windows in the Masonic hall and other buildings and marveling at the escape of so many with their lives from the stricken car.

The funerals of the victims will take place on Saturday.

ATTEMPTED ASSASSINATION.

Chief of Police of Odessa Shot at While Walking With Obolensky.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 23.—In Odessa yesterday morning, while Chief of Police Neidgardt, in company with Prince Obolensky, was inspecting some new government buildings in the Boulevard Nicholas near the Pushkin monument, a young man wearing a blue blouse fired a revolver from a distance of six paces at Neidgardt.

The bullet did not strike the chief of police, and the would be assassin was about to fire again when he was seized by Prince Obolensky. The man's weapon fell to the ground and a desperate struggle ensued, in the course of which M. Neidgardt was wounded in the hand with a dagger. The assailant was secured and placed in custody. He refused to give his name or any account of himself.

Princeton's 158th Year.

PRINCETON, N. J., Sept. 23.—Princeton university was formally opened for its one hundred and fifty-eighth year when the academic procession marched to Marquand chapel and President Woodrow Wilson addressed the student body, explaining the changes in the courses of study which he has succeeded in instituting.

WHERE WOMAN IS SUPREME
Laws and Customs of the Island of Jersey Fashioned for Her Interests.

In the free isle of Jersey "sovereign woman" enjoys some curious legal privileges. The Channel islander, as everybody knows, makes his own laws and ordinances, and Jersey parliaments respect the fair sex, says Home Chat.

In Jersey, as in England, entailed estates become the property of eldest sons, but—with restrictions. The heir must make ample provision for his father's widow. One-third of all that he inherits falls to her share for life, and should a son, for any reason, be unwilling to give his mother houseroom, he must defray the whole of the expenses of her residence elsewhere.

And a Jersey daughter is as well looked after as a Jersey wife.

The eldest girl, says a quaint enactment, shall inherit so much of her father's land as lies within a certain distance of the dwelling house.

To determine the extent of ground accruing to the daughter, a ladder was formerly placed against the eaves. The strip of land inclosed between the lowest rung of this ladder and the wall became her property on all four sides of the house. If she liked, however, she might accept its monetary equivalent.

Nowadays measurement is generally made with a rope stetched from the roof, but the "echelle loi," or "law of the ladder," is still operative.

A Jersey woman, curiously enough, knows no legal change of name. However often she may marry, the law considers her from birth to death a "demoiselle." When a widow takes unto herself a second husband, Jersey newspapers announce the marriage in the following wise: "Married—Marie Majeur" (using her maiden name), "widow of Jean Dubois." When a wife dies legal documents mention her baptismal appellation, but refer to her as "demoiselle."

Names in the House of Commons.

An analysis of the names of the members of the house of commons shows that out of the total of 670 no less than 92 are called John, the remainder being made up as follows: William, 57; Charles, 42; James, 34; Thomas, 30; George, 27; Edward, 27; Henry, 27; Arthur, 20; Frederick, 18; Robert, 17; Joseph, 16; Samuel, 12; Patrick, 10; and miscellaneous other names, 237.—St. James Gazette.

Insects Don't Touch Rice.

A remarkable fact connected with the rice plant is its almost entire immunity from the attacks of insects, and from those diseases which infect the cereals and other vegetable growths, as also that it supplies a wholesome diet for one-half the population of the world.

COAT AND SKIRT COSTUME.

The Directoire Influence—A Radical Change In Sleeves.

For the moment the coat and skirt costume seems to be ubiquitous. This style of dress meets so many situations and is so comfortable that it is no wonder that femininity clings to it with affection.

There grows every day a more and more distinct promise of the directoire influence in the coat and skirt suit. The characteristics of this period of dress are to be distinguished by a triple cape collar, revers and waistcoat, which latter is inseparable from this style.

There is a radical change in the new sleeves. Deep cuffs and fullness above the elbow are the order of the day. The fullness falls of its own weight, and the gathers are arranged at the elbow.

GRAY CLOTH TAILOR MADE.

The mousquetaire or rolled back cuff, also a directoire touch, is superseding the uncuffed model of 1830.

Useful and smart is the tailor costume illustrated. It has a touch of the directoire in its makeup. The material is of gray cloth. The skirt is mounted on a flat emplecement, from which it flows in full plaits at the bottom. The corsage blouse has revers of white cloth, and a high turnover collar finishes the neck. A series of jockey plaits forms the sleeves, which end in revers cuffs.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

THE THEATER HAT.

Feather Boas Wide on the Shoulders Are In Vogue.

Since the request for the removal of large hats has been the order in all the theaters it would seem natural for femininity to have lost interest in theater headgear. But such has not been the case, and as much thought and expense are expended on this dainty bit of adornment as ever.

Next winter the tulle hat in a small shape is to be the evening head covering most approved by Dame Fashion, and there is a rumor that this confection is to be worn with strings.

With the theater hat will be worn ostrich and marabou feather boas. These new boas are of the pelerine shape and exceedingly wide on the shoulders. In white and pastel shades they are a most fascinating and becoming adjunct of a toilet.

Walking hats are the most sought after piece of millinery at the present moment and are perhaps the most difficult hats to buy if becomingness is taken into consideration. A stiff shape is apt to make the face look hard, as it boasts none of the saving graces of a soft, undulating brim.

The new colors known as jonquil, which is in one instance a cross between coral and cherry or in another between amber and orange, the name being used for either, are appearing on the latest trimmings for autumn wear. As a general rule the trimmings this year will be designed to harmonize rather than contrast with the gowns, pompadour effects being still in evidence.

An attractive hat to wear with the short tailor costume gown is here illustrated. This particular hat is of a pinkish red felt, faced with ribbon of a darker shade gathered slightly on the inner side of the brim. Three frills of shaded red ribbon stand upright around the tall crown. A group of wings, toning almost into pink, is placed in a jaunty fashion at one side.

National Chairman Tells Candidate That He Thinks Indiana, Whence He Has Just Returned, Will Go Democratic.

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—Judge Parker's second visit to New York to confer with Democratic campaign managers was made yesterday. As on the first occasion, his time was so fully occupied that he was compelled to take his luncheon in his apartments. He was joined at dinner last night by William F. Sheehan, Thomas Taggart and W. S. Rolfe. Judge Parker has followed the programme adopted on the first trip of keeping his own counsel concerning the business he has with his callers. His hours were long. From the time he arrived at the Hoffman House at 9:45 a. m. until nearly 11 p. m. the stream of visitors to his rooms was continuous.

Less mystery attended the present visit than that made by the judge last week. The newspaper men attached to Rosemount, Judge Parker's home at Esopus, were fully advised that he would come to New York and were given ample time to make arrangements to accompany him. Detailed information relating to the trip was suppressed in order to further the candidate's desire to fill appointments made previously and not subject him at this time to a general reception from political associates. To accomplish this Judge Parker left Esopus at 7:05 a. m., and upon arriving in New York drove to the Hoffman House instead of the Hotel Astor, where he stopped last week.

When the candidate arrived at the hotel he managed to reach his apartments without being recognized. He then had word sent to such persons as he wished to see.

It cannot be said with certainty now just how long Judge Parker will remain in the city. He told some of his visitors he should stay two or three days and that he was not certain of his plans. He may return home this evening and he may not leave here until tomorrow.

Senator Gorman, who has taken up the important role of counsel to the national committee and is giving the benefit of his experience in the management of presidential campaigns, was one of the first visitors. He spent nearly two hours with the judge, but beyond remarking that he had a "pleasant chat" would not comment on his business with the candidate.

National Chairman Thomas Taggart had a long audience with Judge Parker during the afternoon. He was in Wisconsin and Indiana last week, and he made his report on the work being done in these states. He said the chances of carrying Indiana for the Democrats are excellent and that he believed the party was strengthened in every doubtful state by the ability of New York Democrats to harmonize their differences in naming a state ticket.

Representative John Sharp Williams of Mississippi, leader of the minority in the house of representatives, introduced several members of congress and others who have engaged to make speeches during the campaign. Representative William Cowherd, chairman of the congressional campaign committee, in the interest of a bigger fund to carry on his work made a personal appeal to the national candidate. He urged the importance of decreasing the majority representation in the national house. Judge Parker is greatly interested in the congressional canvass, and as a result of Mr. Cowherd's call it is said a more stirring campaign generally may be expected.

Many of Judge Parker's callers during the day came to bring news of the state convention at Saratoga as well as to discuss political affairs in general. In this list were William F. Sheehan, chairman of the national executive committee, and Delancey Nicoll, vice chairman of the national executive committee; August Belmont, John B. McDonald and Cord Meyer, chairman of the state committee. State Senator P. H. McCarren of Brooklyn called and assured Judge Parker he fully approved of the ticket, while John B. Stanchfield of Elmira also gave Judge Parker assurances of his loyalty to the state candidates.

Governor Charles B. Aycock of North Carolina, who has been campaigning in Maine, called during the day. He has arranged to give his time, from Oct. 2 to Nov. 5, to campaign speaking, and he will be assigned to New York, Indiana, West Virginia and Connecticut.

Among others who called were Senator C. A. Culberson of Texas, Charles S. Hamlin of Massachusetts, Colonel William Hestor of Brooklyn, several members of the national committee and local political leaders.

HIGGINS IN ALBANY.

Gets a Congratulatory Message From President Roosevelt.

ALBANY, N. Y., Sept. 23.—Lieutenant Governor Higgins, the Republican nominee for governor, was here and made public the following letter he has received from President Roosevelt.

"Can you come to see me on Wednesday?

"You know without my needing to say it how pleased I am at your nomination. While I was governor and you were chairman of the finance committee of the senate you and I were thrown very closely together, and I have never had the good fortune to be thrown with any public servant of higher integrity or of greater administrative ability. If you are elected, and I am confident you will be, the people of the state can rest in absolute confidence that the administration of the affairs of the state will be conducted on the highest possible plane of efficiency and honesty.

"With all regard and with congratulations, less to you than to the people of this commonwealth, believe me."

Colorado Democratic Ticket.

DENVER, Sept. 23.—The Democratic state convention has completed its nominations. The full ticket follows: Governor, Alva Adams; lieutenant governor, E. M. Ammons; secretary of state, Horace W. Havens; auditor, Frank E. Wheeler; treasurer, J. M. Sampliner; attorney general, Daniel B. Carey; superintendent of schools, Mrs. Helen L. Grenfel; regents of the university, Dr. J. B. Schermerhorn and David M. Richards; congressman at large, John F. Shafroth. Milton Smith was chosen chairman of the state central committee.

Big Crowd Hears Depew.

BINGHAMTON, N. Y., Sept. 23.—Ten thousand people, the largest number ever assembled on the grounds, tried to hear the speech of Senator Chauncey M. Depew at the Clifton fair. A large number of excursionists from this city and Oneonta and intermediate points on the Delaware and Hudson were in attendance as well as thousands of farmers from the surrounding sections of Broome, Delaware and Chenango counties. The Twelfth Ward Republican Marching club from this city acted as an escort to the speaker.

Duncan Lee Calls on Cortelyou.

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—Duncan Campbell Lee who was permanent chairman of the Democratic state convention at Saratoga, was a visitor at the Republican national headquarters and had a brief chat with Chairman Cortelyou.

BOMB FOR MABEN.

Attempt Made to Kill President of the Sloss-Sheffield Company.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Sept. 23.—A man passing the residence of J. C. Maben, president of the Sloss-Sheffield Steel and Iron company, saw fire sputtering on the front steps and, making a hasty examination, found a pickle bottle with a burning fuse attached. The fire was extinguished, and an examination of the bottle showed that it contained a quantity of powdered dynamite, the bottle being sealed with a wooden stopper, through which passed the fuse. There was enough dynamite in the bottle to wreck the building. The man who found the bottle told the police that as he approached the residence he saw a white man run away from the step.

A strike of union miners is on at the mines of the Sloss-Sheffield company as well as at the mines of several other large corporations in this district. President Maben's company has been active in efforts to break the strike. Mr. Maben will station guards around his house.

Tried to Kill the Captain.

GENOA, Sept. 23.—Romulo M. Alcivar, a Mexican passenger on board the Hamburg-American line steamer Prinz Oskar, which sailed from New York Sept. 6, became suddenly insane upon the arrival of the steamer here and made an attempt to kill Captain Dugge of the Prinz Oskar and Frank R. Shattuck, a lawyer of Philadelphia. Alcivar first fired a revolver at Captain Dugge, whom he shot in the mouth, and then discharged the weapon at Mr. Shattuck, the bullet taking effect in his left shoulder. Alcivar was overpowered and taken to an insane asylum.

Morton Investigates Machinists' Pay.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23.—Secretary Morton has addressed letters to various large industrial companies throughout the country asking them for information about the pay their machinists receive, the classes into which they are divided, the amount of piece work done, the premium paid for overtime work and other matters about the employment of the men of this trade. The machinists at the navy yard at Washington have asked for increased pay, and the investigation by the secretary is in the interest of this request.

Schooner Twice Stranded.

CAPE HENRY, Va., Sept. 23.—The schooner Henry B. Hyde, before reported afloat near Dan Neck life saving station, about five miles below Cape Henry, broke her hawser and again came ashore during the heavy blow. Her crew of eight men were taken off by the life savers. The Hyde was originally bound from New York for Baltimore, but stranded several weeks ago. She was recently floated and was being towed to Norfolk for repairs.

Prominent Baltimorean Dead.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 23.—Captain John W. Hall, who was for many years a leading figure in local financial circles, former president of the First National bank, president of the Consolidated Gas company and director in various monetary institutions, has died from heart disease. He was in his seventy-eighth year.

Newman Has Not Resigned.

CLEVELAND, O., Sept. 23.—President W. H. Newman of the New York Central road in a telegram to a local paper denied the report published here that he had resigned. Mr. Newman added that he had no intention of taking such a step.

Austria Orders 22 Torpedo Boats.

VIENNA, Sept. 23.—The Austrian government has ordered twenty-two ocean going torpedo boats from Yarrow & Co. (limited).

An Ideal Location

Rosedale and Linden Park Cemeteries

LARGEST IN THE STATE

LINDEN, N. J.

Beautiful and Accessible

2 Miles from Elizabeth, 7 Miles from Newark,

14 MILES FROM NEW YORK

On Main Line Pennsylvania Railroad

Why Lots in these Cemeteries commend themselves to Heads of Families and Investors

BECAUSE of the $1,000,000 Trust Fund provided for by the Trustees in each Cemetery, the income from which will keep the properties perpetually beautiful at NO EXPENSE TO LOT OWNERS.

BECAUSE such a guarantee, not found in any other cemetery, assures lot owners that the grounds WILL BE MAINTAINED PERMANENTLY AS BEAUTIFUL PARKS AFTER THE INCOME FROM THE SALE OF LOTS HAS BEEN EXHAUSTED.

LOTS SHOULD BE PURCHASED NOW

BECAUSE MORE ADVANTAGES ARE OFFERED TO LOT BUYERS in a new Modern Park Cemetery than in those established many years and, in most cases, no provision made for perpetual care without extra expense to lot owners. THERE ARE A GREATER NUMBER OF IDEAL LOCATIONS TO SELECT FROM, PRICES OF LOTS ARE ALWAYS LOWER AND TERMS MORE ADVANTAGEOUS.

BECAUSE life is most uncertain and EVERY ONE SHOULD ANTICIPATE THE INEVITABLE BY MAKING A CHOICE NOW OF A FINAL RESTING PLACE.

LOTS WILL PROVE A GOOD INVESTMENT

BECAUSE they are sure to increase in value and can be purchased NOW at the INITIAL or LOWEST PRICE and upon the most ADVANTAGEOUS TERMS.

BECAUSE the properties are ACCESSIBLE TO 4,000,000 PEOPLE, and considering the RAPID GROWTH OF GREATER NEW YORK and its TRIBUTARY CITIES and TOWNS, it is only a question of a SHORT TIME when LOTS in ROSEDALE and LINDEN PARK will EQUAL IN VALUE those of our MOST NOTED cemeteries.

FOR INFORMATION concerning lots in these beautiful Park Cemeteries, and FREE transportation to prospective lot buyers, apply at once to any LEADING UNDERTAKER or offices of the Associations:

RESULTS AT GRAVESEND.

Eight to One Shot Wins the Occidental Handicap.

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—Dainty, at 8 to 1, and with Crimmins in the saddle, won the Occidental handicap, one mile and a furlong at Gravesend. Dolly Spanker, paying 2 to 1 for the place was second, and Africander third. The time, 1:52 3-5, is within three-fifths of a second of the track record. The start was poor, Carbuncle and Proper getting a bad break. Dolly Spanker took the lead, followed by Bad News and Africander. This order remained unchanged in the run down the back stretch. Rounding the far turn Crimmins began to make his run with Dainty and slowly closed on the leader. In the stretch he was on even terms with Dolly Spanker and in a hot drive won by a head. The winners:

First Race—Leiola, 4 to 1, first; James V., 12 to 1, second; Damon, 10 to 1, third. Time, 1:15 1-5.

Second Race—Graceful, 5 to 1, first; Jack Ratlin, 11 to 2, second; Sheriff Bell, 15 to 1, third. Time, 1:47 4-5.

Third Race—Sweet Pepper, 8 to 1, first; Niblick, 4 to 1, second; Demeuse, 11 to 5, third. Time, 1:08 4-5.

Fourth Race—Dainty, 8 to 1, first; Dolly Spanker, 5 to 1, second; Africander, 15 to 1, third. Time, 1:52 3-5.

Fifth Race—Tongorder, 3 to 1, first; St. Bellane, 11 to 5, second; Derry, 5 to 1, third. Time, 1:11 2-5.

Sixth Race—Canteen, 8 to 1, first; Grey Friar, 7 to 5, second; Hoodwink, 60 to 1, third. Time, 1:46 1-5.

GRAND CIRCUIT RACES.

Major Delmar Falls to Break Cresceus' Record.

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 23.—The feature of the day at the grand circuit meet was Major Delmar's attempt to break Cresceus' trotting record of 2:02¼ without wind shields or pacemaker. The attempt failed by half a second. The time by quarters was 31, 1:02, 1:31¾, 2:02¾.

Sweet Marie won the 2:07 trot after George G. had taken the first heat. Time, 2:06¼, 2:09¼, 2:06¼.

The 2:08 pacing race was unfinished. Six heats were run off, of which Black Pet won the last two in 2:09 and 2:08¼. Larrie Ginter won the first two in 2:09 and 2:07¾. King Direct won the third heat in 2:08 and Dr. Medara won the fourth in 2:08.

Redlac won the 2:15 trot in straight heats. Time, 2:11¼, 2:08½, 2:10¼.

SPORTING NEWS.

DIAMOND DUST.

Batch, who played left field for Scotch Plains in one game last year, is doing great stunts for the Brooklyn Nationals at present both at third base and at the bat. He has been promised a permanent seat on the band stand for next year by Ned Hanlon.

It is regretted by lovers of baseball that Fred Smith, captain of the Plainfield A. C., will not be able to continue in his position the rest of the season. His knowledge of the game and his clever head work is valuable to any team and his services are constantly sought after. The same may be said of Eugene Bassford, the right-fielder, who is a recognized coach in baseball and football.

VARIOUS SPORTS.

The following committee was chosen by the board of directors of the Plainfield High School to make arrangements for the annual fall field meet of the school: Chairman, Harry G. Thompson, William Douglass, Harold Roberts, and Howard Craig.

In all probability the events will be the same as last year, including the high jump, running broad, hundred, two-twenty, and four-forty yard dashes, hammer throwing, shot put, and pole vault.

For the past two years the individual meet has been won by Harry G. Thompson and through his efforts his class has been the most successful in the class competition.

It is still undecided whether the meet will include both class and individual competition but it is probable that both forms will be followed as in the past. If satisfactory arrangements can be made the meet will be held at the Driving Park some time in October.

FOOTBALL.

Bosey Reiter, well known as a member of the Princeton 'Varsity football squad a few years ago, left last night for Wesleyan University, where he will coach the eleven there until Nov. 10. During the summer Bosey has been at Asbury, where he held a position as life saver.

Work is progressing on the Arlington avenue grounds in preparation for the Orange Field Club football schedule. It will be impossible to get the field in condition for Saturday, but a week from Saturday there will be a practice game with the Plainfield High School squad. Tonight the Orange Field Club will be out for heavy practice, twenty-two men being told to report.

TENNIS.

Entries for the tennis tournament of the Plainfield High School are coming in in a gratifying manner. Thus far twenty-two names have been handed to the chairman of the committee and fully a dozen more students have signified their intentions of entering the contest. Play will be commenced Monday on the courts of the Bronx Tennis Club on Albert street.

BASKET BALL.

Capt. Porter, of the Hope Y. M. A. basket ball team, has arranged for a game with the P. H. S. five in the Hope gym Tuesday evening. It is possible that a second game will be played with the N. P. H. S. team one week from tonight.

Gen. Sterling's Good Work.

General William H. Sterling has succeeded in obtaining a pension of $8 a month for William H. Williams, of this city. The pension is payable from March 25, 1904. General Sterling has been very influential in the past in obtaining pensions, and his service has been invaluable to many local residents. The General has made it a point never to accept any fee for obtaining pensions, though he has aided numerous appliers. General Sterling is a graduate of West Point, and has made his home in this city for over twenty years. During the rebellion, he was a member of General George B. McClellan's staff.

A. H. Swackhamer for Congress.

William J. Thompson was one of the most conspicuous leaders in the Democratic Congress convention of the Second district, in Camden yesterday afternoon, and Austin H. Swackhamer, of Woodbury, was nominated. Mr. Swackhamer is a brother of Assemblyman Samuel S. Swackhamer, of North Plainfield. He was not present at the convention, and it is likely that he will follow the example of Captain S. E. Perry, in the First district, and decline. The convention was one of the most listless and uninteresting the party has ever held, even in South Jersey.

Congressional Nominees.

A. H. Swackhamer was named by Democratic Congressional convention of the Second district yesterday at Camden. In the Third district, Congressman Benjamin F. Howell, of New Brunswick, was unanimously renominated on the Republican ticket at Asbury Park. At Somerville the Republicans nominated Ira W. Wood, of Trenton, as the Fourth district's Congressional candidate. Marshall VanWinckle was the choice of the Republicans in the Ninth district. The Republicans at Paterson named Henry C. Allen as a candidate in the Sixth district.

Entertained Plainfield Lodge men.

A delegation of members from Greenbrook Council, Royal Arcanum, paid a fraternal visit to Fireside Council, Royal Arcanum, of Westfield, last night and witnessed the working of the new fourth degree on one candidate. It is the purpose of Greenbrook Council to organize a team and work it here. Steps in that direction will be taken at the meeting to be held Monday night. After he initiatory work last night the Plainfield members were entertained by professional talent and supper was served.

Freeholders' Air-Tight Policy.

In response to a petition from residents in the vicinity of Somerset street and Codington avenue, the Board of Freeholders of Somerset county, met this week and inspected the bridge. The petition asked for a larger bridge at this point on account of the danger of high water. The Board, after examining the premises, decided that the present bridge is large enough to carry the water if the borough authorities would clear the brook out properly below the bridge.

Y. M. C. A. State Secretary Here.

Charles R. Scott, the State secretary of boys' work, arrived in this city this morning, where he is the guest of Kenneth Robbie, secretary of the local department. Mr. Scott has for a long time been interested in the boys' work in this city, having started a boys' Bible class several years ago. The object of Mr. Scott's visit at this time is to discuss with the members of the boys' work committee, the plans for the coming conference in October.

Dance at Hillside.

There will be dancing at the Hillside Tennis and Golf Club tomorrow evening from 8 until 11. Members wishing dinners served at the club house will be obliged to notify the steward not later than the evening before.

MISS ADELAIDE BALL WINS PARK CLUB CUP

MRS. T. F. WEAVER THE RUNNER-UP IN ANNUAL TENNIS TOURNAMENT.

The annual women's tournament of the members of the Park Club was won by Miss Adelaide Ball this morning, on the courts of the club on Washington avenue. The runner up in the contest was Mrs. T. F. Weaver. The score of the final set was 6-1, 6-2, 6-0. Miss Ball is the winner of a very handsome cup, offered by the club.

The preliminary round in the tournament was played yesterday among the eight women who entered the contest. The scores were as follows: Mrs. T. F. Weaver defeated Mrs. Charles Elliot, 6-2, 1-6, 6-2; Mrs. William Murray defeated Mrs. Clifford McGee, 7-5, 6-2; Miss Marian McCutchen defeated Miss Nell Valiant, by default; Miss Adelaide Ball defeated Miss Helen Phillips, 6-0, 6-0. In the semi-finals, Mrs. Weaver defeated Mrs. Murray, 6-0, 6-3, and Miss Ball defeated Miss McCutchen, 6-1, 6-3.

The courts were in fine condition this morning, when the two competitors in the finals met in the trial for the cup. Miss Ball has won the trophy for several years, and she had comparatively easy work in adding another cup to her collection.

At the conclusion of the finals in the tournament, the consolation sets were played off as follows: Miss Phillips defeated Miss McCutchen, 5-7, 7-5, 6-4; Mrs. Clifford McGee drew a bye, and subsequently defeated Miss Phillips, 6-2, 6-3, 6-0. Mrs. McGee also receives a cup.

After the tennis a delightful luncheon was served to about twenty members of the club.

Second ward Republicans who intend to go to the Fifth district Congressional convention at Morristown on Tuesday will meet at C. H. Hand's office in Watobung avenue at 8 o'clock tonight.

Mr. Martine, when seen at Cedar Brook Farm, this morning, expressed himself as being well pleased with Wednesday's convention of the Democratic clubs, stating that there was a remarkable demonstration of genuine enthusiasm. He also said that there seemed to be perfect harmony and the opinion of everyone seemed to be that the Democrats would win.

PERSONAL.

Dr. Otis L. Jenkins has returned from Cape May.

Miss Catherine Roache, of East Fifth street, is visiting in Paterson.

Harry Spencer, of Paterson, is visiting his mother, Mrs. H. N. Spencer, of Somerset street.

Miss Lizzie Crosby, of West Sixth street, has returned from Newark, where she has been visiting her sister.

Mrs. William Scribner, of East Front street, has returned home after spending sometime at Amherst, Mass.

Henry Tiedeman, who received an injury to his hand some time ago, is now on a fair way to recovery, and has removed his hand from the sling.

Mrs. Patrick, wife of Captain Patrick, of West Point, has been visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Martin L. Cooley, of Rockview terrace.

George Fuller, of this city, who has been in South America during the past year and a half in the interest of the Royal Baking Power Company, has returned home.

Mildred Harding and Raymond Bowers, of Somerset street, and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Stein, of Grandview avenue, are victims of the whooping cough.

Back to Murray Hill.

In the borough court last evening, sentence was suspended on William Corrigan, the wanderer who resisted arrest by Marshal Weiss. He declared he had no funds and Recorder Doud ordered him back to Murray Hill in preference to making him an expense to the county.

IN THE CHRISTIAN FIELD

WORK IN THE CHURCHES OF THE CITY AND BOROUGH.

The Young People's Association of the First Baptist church will meet tonight.

Rev. James A. Francis will occupy the pulpit of the First Baptist Church again on Sunday.

There will be a special rally day service in Vincent chapel on Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

A meeting will be held at Trinity Reformed Church on Sunday evening at 8 o'clock, in the interests of Miss Sara Curry's work.

The Whatsoever Circle, King's Daughters, of Trinity Reformed Church, are planning to hold an entertainment in the church on Thursday evening, November 3. It will be an exceedingly novel affair.

The teachers of St. Stephen's Sunday-school will meet the adult choir tonight at 813 Webster place, and there will be the usual club meeting Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The Women's Guild of the church will meet this afternoon.

The Epworth League, of the First Methodist church, will give a college progressive salmagundi social in the church parlors this evening. This is the first social of the season and a large attendance is anticipated. All are cordially invited to attend.

The first fall meeting of the Young Women's Mission Band, of Trinity Reformed church, will be held in the church parlors on Friday afternoon, October 14, one week later than originally planned, owing to the State Christian Endeavor convention to be held at Elizabeth, on October 6 and 7.

An entertainment of an unusual nature will come off at Hope chapel on Monday and Tuesday, October 31 and November 1. It is intended to commemorate the Scottish reformation and there will be over eighty young people in the cast. Rev. Lawrence R. Howard, the pastor, has charge of the arrangements.

The first instruction by the rector of St. Stephen's church for confirmation will be given in the church this evening from 7 to 8 o'clock. Similar instruction will be given Saturday morning from 9 to 10 o'clock. Bishop Scarborough will visit St. Stephen's parish for administration of confirmation on St. Stephen's Day.

Juniors Will Ride to Summit.

The junior department of the Y. M. C. A. have planned a trip to Summit for tomorrow on their wheels. The boys will be accompanied by Mr. Robbie, and while in Summit will visit the Y. M. C. A., of which Frank Marclay, formerly of this city, is physical director.

—George Egel, of L. W. Randolph's pharmacy, is spending a two weeks' vacation at Atlantic City and in Pennsylvania.

PANHANDLED UNDER GUISE OF ODD FELLOW

PHILADELPHIAN WAS MAKING MONEY UNTIL VICTIM HAD HIM ARRESTED.

The distress signal of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows was handed out to Charles DeGraw, of West Front street, this morning, by an individual with a hard luck story. DeGraw's fraternal spirit was touched, likewise his pocketbook for $3 and he felt satisfied with himself for having helped a brother along until he saw the stranger meet another man on Front street and go through the same proceeding. His suspicions were aroused and he finally called Patrolman Overbaugh and had the distressed brother arrested.

In the city court he gave his name as Morris Seinberg and when questioned about his fraternal membership and hard luck got badly mixed up. It was a clear case of swindle not only with DeGraw but with others and Judge Runyon gave him his preference of a $10 fine or twenty days. He took the latter.

Defendant Paid Claim Amicably.

The contract suit of William H. Forristel, manager of the Belleview nursery, against A. Ralph Keller, of West Seventh street, was to have been tried in Justice Hand's court, yesterday, but before the time of calling the case, the defendant settled the suit in full. The suit was brought against Mr. Keller for payment for two large maple trees, shrubbery and trees purchased by him. Hetfield & Hetfield represented the plaintiff, while Reuben Knox, Esq., appeared for Craig A. Marsh, who was originally engaged as counsel.

Smith, Democratic Chairman.

Chairman William B. Gourley, of the New Jersey State Democratic committee, has named the State executive committee. They are James Smith, Jr., chairman; Johnston Cornish, of Warren County; David S. Crater, of Monmouth; William C. Heppenheimer, of Hudson and Howard Carrow, of Camden. Mr. Carrow takes the place on the committee formerly held by Colonel E. L. Price, of Newark. It has been decided not to name a fifth member at large of the State committee.

A. O. U. W. Entertains Visitors.

Central Lodge, No. 48, A. O. U. W., entertained a delegation of fourteen members from Raritan Lodge, No. 6, of New Brunswick, last night, the visitors making the trip by trolley. At the meeting there were interesting addresses by members of both lodges, after which all adjourned to Clevely's banquet rooms and enjoyed an oyster supper.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Barker, of East Second street, left yesterday for St. Louis to attend the Exposition.

STEVENS IN IV DISTRICT

Somerset Man Named for Congress by Democrats.

MEET AT SOMERVILLE

Richard V. Lindabury Makes the Nominating Speech—Street Parade.

Democrats of the Fourth congressional district, comprising Mercer, Hunterdon and Somerset counties, are in convention at Somerville this afternoon. Robert L Stevens, of Bernardsville, as a candidate, was nominated to fill the unexpired term of William M. Lanning and for the regular term beginning December, 1903.

Charles C. Black, the party candidate for Governor, will speak this afternoon.

Mercer sent a big delegation. A band accompanies them.

When the Mercer County delegation arrived they were met by Somerset, led by David J. Carney, of North Plainfield, and Hunterdon County. A parade was held, two bands furnished the music. The convention is the most enthusiastic in years.

John J. Matthews, of Hunterdon County, former reading clerk of the Legislature, acted as temporary chairman. Mr. Stevens' name was placed in nomination by Richard V. Lindabury, of Bernardsville, in an eloquent speech which captured the convention. Judge Woodruff, of Mercer County, seconded the nomination.

Robert L. Stevens is an American by ancestry, by birth and by choice, and is connected with all three counties that he will represent. To Hunterdon by his descendence from James Alexander, famous for his defense of the freedom of speech, his daughter married John Stevens and lived at Alexandria Township. The little stone church near Everittstown, contains many stones bearing the name of Stevens. He is connected with Mercer by his descent from the sister of Richard Stockton, signer of the Declaration of Independence, and by the many ties which bound his mother's family to Princeton and its University. He is connected with Somerset by choice.

A number of years ago when looking for a residence he decided to make his home among the hills of Bernardsville, and when the title came to be searched it was traced back to a deed signed by Elizabeth Alexander Stevens and her husband, John Stevens. It was this John Stevens who presided over the convention which ratified the Constitution of the United States for New Jersey, and his son, John Stevens, was Treasurer of the State during the Revolution. It was he who took the Treasury from Perth Amboy when it was threatened by the British in New York, and removed it to Alexandria Township, Hunterdon County.

The present Robert L. Stevens has always taken a prominent place in local affairs in Bernardsville and is Trustees of the Public Library and of St. Bernard's church in that place.

Mr. Stevens was born in Hoboken, N. J., in 1864, his father, Edwin A. Stevens, being the founder of Stevens' Institute, of that place, and a well known engineer. He graduated from Columbia College in 1887 and since that time has been engaged in business in Hoboken returning each night

BATTLE ON DIAMOND TODAY

Virgil Garvin to Pitch in the Struggle With Westfield.

WILTSE IN THE GAME

Westfield to Have Star Twirler on the Bench and Waller in the Box.

Manager Johnston has not made a change in his lineup for this afternoon's contest with Westfield, except in the first baseman and pitcher. Virgil Garvin will pitch and Joe Wahl, formerly of the New York State League, but late of the Ridgewoods, is slated to play first base in place of Fred Smith, the former captain. Otherwise no change in the team is known. This will be the probable lineup:

Cusick, 2b; Bassford, rf; Oregan, lf; Farmer, c; Courtney, 3; Dietrich, cf; Wahl, 1b; Hartman, ss; Garvin, p.

It is reported that there will be some changes in the Westfield lineup, although Manager Denman says that "Red" Waller will pitch. There is a rumor that Wiltse, of the New York Nationals, will be on the bench, and that there will be changes both in the out and infield.

If Westfied wins today it will mean the end of the series of ten games between the two teams and the championship for Manager Denman's aggregation. If Plainfield wins another contest will be necessary to decide the championship and according to the terms it would be played on Crescent Oval. Westfield is confident of winning today and not a stone is being left unturned to accomplish that feat. Every indication points to a record-breaking crowd from this city and along the line. Manager Johnston is just as sure of winning as his opponent and he, too, has taken advantage of every point to prepare for the struggle.

TODAY'S SPORTS.

DIAMOND—Plainfield vs. Westfield, Recreation Park, 3:30; Clinton Avenue vs. Dunellen, Crescent Oval, 3:30; Elizabeth vs. Rahway, Elizabeth, 3:30.

TRACK—Three races, Plainfield Driving Park, 2:30.

COURSE—Cup contests, Hillside Club, all afternoon. Parks vs. Cranford. Park Golf Club, all afternoon.

COURTS—Women's championship singles and men's semi-finals.

Electors Decline.

William J. Curtis, of Union County, who was selected by the recent Democratic convention as presidential elector for the Fifth congressional district, has been compelled to decline that honor and has so notified Chairman Gourley, of the State committee. Robert L Stevens, of Bernardsville, Somerset County, nominated by the Democrats today in Somerville for Congressman from the Fourth district, will be compelled to decline as an elector from this district and the vacancy will be filled by the committee on vacancies.

RUNAWAY HORSE STARTLES CROWDS ON FRONT STREET

SHOPPERS SCATTER IN ALL DIRECTIONS--MANY HAVE NARROW ESCAPES.

Crowds of women shoppers and pedestrians on West Front street, near Somerset, were thrown into a panic yesterday afternoon by the sudden appearance of a runaway horse with the remnants of a wagon dangling at its heels. There was a hurried scattering for cover and as the maddened animal swung across the sidewalk at the corner several persons narrowly escaped being knocked down. A produce wagon was backed up in front of the A. and P. Tea Company's store and the runaway struck it with terrific force and was knocked down. It lay still as if dead but when men pulled it away from the vehicle it struggled to its feet and showed no injury beyond a few cuts.

The horse belongs to J. W. Mundy, of Summit avenue, and was being driven along that thoroughfare by his son, Arthur Mundy. It became frightened by other boys clambering into the vehicle and jumping around. They leaped out when it bolted with the exception of the young dirver and when the wagon was demolished in striking a pole on Somerset street he was left sitting in the road. Beyond a shaking up and a few bruises he was unhurt.

EDITOR FINED $500 FOR CONTEMPT OF COURT

JUDGE STRONG, THE COMPLAINANT, PASSES THE SENTENCE HIMSELF.

Judge Strong, of the Middlesex County Courts, yesterday, adjudged Francis W. Daire, editor of The New Brunswick Times, guilty of contempt, and sentenced him to pay a fine of $500 and all costs of the prosecution, including the stenographers' fees.

Upon the suggestion of his son, Ain Strong, who conducted the case for him, he amended the sentence as pronounced to provide that the defendant stand committed to the county jail until the fine was paid.

Mr. Daire's counsel immediately gave notice of an appeal to the Supreme Court, which acted as a stay. Mr. Daire gave bond in $1,000 on the approval. As this bond must be approved by a justice of the Supreme Court, the case was continued until this morning, to permit of the preparation of the bond.

He declared that the defendant was adjudged guilty because an objectionable editorial, which had commented upon the sentencing of Alfred Cooley to pay a fine of $75 on a plea of non vult to carnally abusing Mary Kavanagh, had "wilfully distorted facts." The defense had in court the girl, her father and her mother, but the court threw out all their evidence except as to what transpired in court on the day of the sentence.

This precluded the introduction of their evidence as to the facts in the case.

The proceedings were marked by a fierce denunciation of the defendant by Judge Strong.

CLINTON AV.-DUNELLEN.

Final Game in Series Promises to be a Red Hot One—To be Played on Crescent Oval.

On account of the fact that there is some disagreement on the part of the Clinton Avenue and Dunellen baseball teams as to which team won the series, a deciding game will be played on Crescent Oval, this afternoon. The first game in the Dunellen-Clinton series was won by the old Dunellen players, while subsequently each of the present teams has won two games. The Clinton team therefore declares that the series does not belong to Dunellen as the team which exists at present has no more than tied with them.

This afternoon's game will be an interesting one as each team will use its best players. Smith will pitch for the Dunellen team, and Squires will be in the box for the Clinton Avenue aggregation.

Daughters of America Social.

There will be an entertainment and social given by the Daughters of America at the rooms of the I. O. O. F., in the Babcock building, this evening. There will be an interesting musical programme, and a large number of tickets have been sold for the performance.

PIGEON FANCIERS CLOSE ACTIVE SEASON

M. B. MELLER'S BIRDS MADE THE BEST SHOWING.

The Plainfield district of the National Association of American Homing Pigeon Fanciers brought their season to a successful close last Saturday, by scoring a record flight of two hundreds miles at the rate of 1295 yards per minute. The owner of the homing, or commonly called carrier pigeon, which made this phenomenal record, is M. B. Meller, of Hillside avenue, who has won four diplomas during the last year for record flying.

The Plainfield district of the organization follows: M. B Meller, president; C. E Faber, vice president; Edward Hobbie, secretary; Francis N. Anderson, Douglass Anderson, Francis A. Martin, Lawrence Smith and T. D. Wilson. All the members of the club are the owners of very valuable birds, and they have been competing with other districts of the association, including clubs from Newark, Elizabeth, Brooklyn, New York and Paterson. The local district was superior in all the competitions with other cities, bettering the records in every case.

Mr. Mellers' birds scored the best flights, winning the first second prizes in the two, three and five hundred mile races. Several of Mr. Meller's pigeons cost as much as twenty dollars a pair, and their training has been perfect. Second to Mr. Meller's flock, Edward Hobbie's collection of pigeons made a good showing throughout the season. Other members of the club were occasional winners though their carriers did not distinguish themselves so frequently.

EVANGELISTIC MOVEMENT IN THE PLAINFIELD DISTRICT

METHODISTS' CAMPAIGN TO BE IN CHARGE OF DR. SNODGRASS.

Preparatory work looking toward a general evangelistic movement has been inaugurated by Methodists in this part of New Jersey. On Tuesday an all-day meeting was held at Flemington for the churches in that end of the district and on Thursday a second meeting was held at Westfield. Presiding Elder Dr. David Halloran, with the assistance of the various pastors of the churches in the district, have provided for a division of the district into twelve groups, one of which will be known as Plainfield District. Rev. Dr. W. O. Snodgrass will have charge of the work in this district, which includes all of the local churches and those in Dunellen, Scotch Plains and Westfield. The rest of the State will be divided similarly.

The idea of this movement is to strive for the evangelism of New Jersey and was original with Rev. Dr. Henderson, of Brooklyn, with whom Rev. Francis E. Whiteside, of this city, is associated. Dr. Henderson has a similar plan in operation in Brooklyn and New York.

Rev. Dr. Snodgrass will be assisted by the pastors of the various churches in the Plainfield district, as well as the lay workers. The plan provides that each pastor shall assist others in the district by devoting a certain number of days in conducting evangelistic services. This will result a general revival throughout the State. Among the speakers at Westfield on Thursday night, were Rev. Dr. Henderson and Rev. Dr. W. O. Snodgrass. Considerable enthusiasm was manifested.

Other groups in this part of the State will include Elizabeth and Somerville and will comprise churches in the vicinity of these cities.

Mrs. Thatcher's Will Filed.

The will of Mrs. Mary T. Thatcher, wife of George Thatcher, the minstrel man, was filed yesterday in the Surrogate's office in New York. She leaves all her personal property valued at $10,000 to her husband, whom she appointed her executor. Nothing is said in the will about the $50,000 which some newspapers allege was left her a short time ago by Philadelphia relatives.

Commissioners of Appeal to Meet.

The Commissioners of Appeal will meet in the Common Council rooms on Tuesday afternoon, Oct. 25, from 2 to 5 o'clock, to receive and adjust all complaints in cases of taxation.

FRED MARTIN WINS WHITTIER SCHOOL CONTEST

YOUTHS CONCLUDE THEIR ANNUAL TENNIS TOURNAMENT.

Before a crowd of over fifty interested spectators the tennis tournament of the Whittier School was brought to a close at the courts of the Bronx Tennis Club yesterday afternoon. The winner of the finals and the man of the hour was Fred Martin, who the day before yesterday defeated William Briggs, last year's champion, in one of the best sets ever played on the club's court.

The tournament this season was by far the most successful which has been conducted by the school for several years. The management of the affair was in the hands of William Briggs and Fred Martin, and the work was skillfully carried on. There were sixteen entries and the tournament was completed in three days. A handsome silver cup was the prize for the winner which will be the permanent property of Mr. Martin.

The play yesterday afternoon resulted as follows: Rogers defeated Randolph, 6 3, 6 2, and Martin won from Rogers, 6 1, 7-5. There is some probability that a tournament will be held among the girls of the school, though such a contest will not be held for a week, as the courts will be used by the High School players next week.

SALAMAGUNDI PARTY HELD IN VINCENT CHAPEL

ENJOYABLE TIME SPENT BY MEMBERS OF EPWORTH LEAGUE.

A novel entertainment called a college salamagundi party was given by the cabinet of the Epworth League, of the First M. E. church, last evening, in Vincent chapel, to mark the opening of the fall and winter work. The affair served to bring together the members and various committees and the attendance was very large, following a season of inactivity. E. A. Edgar, president of the league, was in charge, assisted by other members.

As the members arrived at the chapel they received college pins, representing Columbia, Princeton, Yale, Dartmouth, Rutgers, Cornell, Harvard and Lafayette. They were also given a slip of paper representing some college which they were to retain throughout the evening. The idea was to place the college pins on a long streamer and the college having the largest number of pins representing it on the streamer was declared winner. In connection with this twelve different games were played in progressive fashion and the winners of the games would receive pins as prizes, after which they would be placed on the streamer. At the conclusion of the games it was learned that Yale was the winner.

After the entertainment a committee served refreshments and a social time followed.

Bacon Completing Flat Building.

Frank M. Bacon, who holds the deeds to the half-completed flat building on New street left in that state by the disappearance of Frank Cook, of Philadelphia, has caused work to be resumed on the structure. He will have it pushed to completion and when it is in such shape that something can be done with it, the differences between the original owners of the property, the mortgagees and the contractors will be settled. Nothing is being done with the four houses on Madison avenue also left half completed by Cook's going away.

Basket Ball Managers to Confer.

The basket ball managers of the local schools will meet Monday evening at the office of Physical Director F. A. Henckel to consider the organization of a scholastic basket ball league in this city. The league will undoubtedly be formed and will in all probability be a triangular one. The teams who will be represented by their managers at the meeting are Leal's, Plainfield High School, and North Plainfield High School. The managers of the three schools are Strong, Collier and Hetcher, respectively.

Lodge's Reception.

At the meeting of Somerset Council, Jr. O. U. A. M., last night, one candidate was initiated and one proposition received. The subject of the entertainment of Twilight Council, of Scotch Plains, was discussed and a committee appointed to produce for the visiting lodge. The Twilight lodgers will be in this city on Oct. 7.

HOT CLIMAX AT A TRIAL

When Marro is Found Guilty, Scene is Exciting.

ATTACK ON RANDOLPH

Former Mayor is Called "Biggest Liar on Earth" by W. L. Hetfield, Sr.

Personal feeling which had been manifest all along during the "spite house" proceedings against Antone Marro in the city court, between the opposing sides, came to a startling climax this morning. Following Judge Runyon's decision in the matter and after the case had been closed, Counsellor Walter L. Hetfield, Sr., who appeared for the defendant, hotly accused Former Mayor L. V. F. Randolph of being "the biggest liar on earth." The remark was resented and as both men were visibly excited the situation was becoming critical when Chief Kiely succeeded in calming them.

Marro was found guilty on all four charges preferred against him jointly by Randolph and Health Inspector Thurlow and he was fined $125. The amount was divided as follows: For allowing his privy vault to overflow, $50; for building the vault without a permit, for allowing his dogs to disturb the sleep of neighbors at night and for throwing vegetable refuse on his garden, $25 in each instance.

Marro pleaded non vult to the charge of having no permit for the vault but the others he denied. In passing sentence the court declared that when three complaints of a like character were brought and proved it showed an unusual state of affairs and one that called for drastic action. Had they come separately, it was said, it might not have been so important but being altogether it meant a disregard for proprieties under the law.

Marro's counsel immediately gave notice that certiorari proceedings would be brought.

The trial originally took place last Monday and as it progressed tilts between Counsellor Hetfield and Corporation Counsel Craig A. Marsh, appearing for the city, occurred frequently. This morning the opposing lawyers were given time for a brief resume of the facts before sentence was passed and the personalities were resumed. In his remarks, Counsellor Hetfield declared that Mr. Randolph was Mr. Marsh's personal client and this was immediately denied by the corporation counsel. Continuing Mr. Hetfield declared that he had never seen the corporation counsel display so much zeal in a city case and the energy he displayed in seeking a conviction had never been equalled. He also intimitated that Mr. Randolph had been sending accounts of the trouble to the local newspapers and mentioned his name in other ways.

When the proceedings were declared over, Mr. Randolph asked permission to say a few words in regard to Mr. Hetfield's charges and indignantly denied sending any letters to the papers, saying the statement was a "direct, unqualified, literal falsehood." This last remark aroused Mr. Hetfield's wrath and he shouted, "There is no bigger liar on earth than you." Other hot words followed and as court was not in session, it was impossible for Judge Runyon to end the dispute. Chief Kiely placed himself between the men and order was finally restored.

In a statement this morning Counsellor Hetfield declared that he had been accused broadcast of having an interest in the Marro property which has caused so much trouble, but this he denied in court and said that he had nothing to do with the matter beyond appearing for the defense.

IMMEDIATELY AFTER THE PLAINFIELD-WESTFIELD CHAMPIONSHIP CONTEST AT RECREATION PARK TODAY, THE COMPLETE STORY OF THE GAME, INCLUDING THE BOX SCORE, WILL BE SHOWN BY BULLETINS IN FRONT OF THE DAILY PRESS OFFICE.

Postal Examination.

The Government Civil Service Commission will conduct an examination at the local postoffice on November 16 for the positions of clerk and carrier. Application blanks will be furnished free upon request and must be filed at the Plainfield office not later than October 17.

TAX COLLECTOR HUSTLING

Commissioners of Appeal to Meet Tuesday, Oct. 25.

SENDING OUT BILLS

All Taxpayers Must Have Their Bills Within Two Weeks.

As Collector of Taxes F. H. Smith is obliged to get the tax bills out before Tuesday, October 25, the day the Commissioners of Appeal meet, this is naturally the busy time of the year for him. As the intervening time between Thursday night and October 25, is comparatively short, it may be necessary for Mr. Smith to secure assistance. This he can do for the Common Council appropriated a sum not to exceed $100 for this purpose.

In all Mr. Smith has about 14,000 bills to send out. A majority of these bills will be received by those for whom they were intended, within a day or so of the time of mailing. Others will not receive their bills under two or three days possibly. However, they must be sent in time to allow the taxpayers time to meet the Commissioners of Appeal if they are not satisfied with their assessment, and have them adjusted. The Board of Assessors, as usual, have tried to be very fair in the matter of assessment and while some kicks are expected, no great number are looked for. It has not been found necessary to change the assessment of many property-owners, but in the case of new buildings and new residents rating have been established for the first time add it is possible that there may be some objection.

The tax bills this year, in addition to containing the individual assessment, also contains on the back the various amounts fixed to be raised for the different city departments. This heretofore has not been done. It is considered an excellent idea though, for it acquaints the taxpayers with these figures giving him a better idea as to the amount to be raised.

It is a source of satisfaction not only to the Board of Assessors, but to every official and taxpayer in the city, that the city is enjoying a steady constant growth. With each succeeding year the total tax valuation has shown a good increase, and it is largely due to this that the officials have been able to keep the rate down to $2.52 as there are more people to help pay the expense of running the city. Much assistance has also been received in this direction through the erection of new buildings, residential and otherwise.

According to the State law governing this matter, the assessors are supposed to assess practically full value. This is never done, however, the purpose being to assess in such an equitable manner that the amount necessary to run the city can be raised without any hardships to the individual. It is frequently thought by taxpayers that their assessment is unjust and that the assessors put it on them too heavy. It is not the intention or purpose of these officials to assess any too heavily and they try to be as fair as possible.

Persons in a position to know claim that there is not city or town in New Jersey that is getting any more or some times as much for its money than Plainfield, and in this respect the citizens are to be congratulated. There are many cities where expenses are much higher and the advantages much less. It is often customary and the rule to pay salaries to Councilmen, but here the members of the Common Council serve without any compensation and in view of the amount of work they are often called upon to perform, they are giving considerable of their valuable time to the city for nothing.

No High School-O. F. C. Game.

Although officials of the Orange Field Club have stated that there will be a practice game on October 1 with the Plainfield High School, the manager of the High School team wishes it stated that no game will be played. The managers of the two teams met to consider such a contest but could not come to a satisfactory understanding and such a statement as made by the Field Club representative is entirely uncalled for and erroneous.

Gas Tank for Somerville.

A large gas tank belonging to the P. S. C. was sent by William Hand & Son, expressmen, to the Somerville gas plant last night. It has been in use here for some time past but is being disposed of in consequence of several larger tanks having been obtained for use at the plant. The old tank is eighteen feet long and eight feet, five inches in diameter.

POINTS FOR THE BUYERS

READY REFERENCES FOR THE LOCAL BARGAIN SEEKERS.

No matter if it is only a small order like crackers and cheese for two, the rule of W. W. Dunn, the Park Grocer, is to get it there on time.

Titus H. Laury, the contractor, is ready at all times to quote figures and estimate on all kind of building work. He guarantees entire satisfaction.

Smalley Brothers' North avenue meat market is the place for you to get that prime roast for dinner if you want to be sure of satisfactory service.

Before it is too late secure your coal supply from the Keely Coal Company, of South avenue, is the place to get it. The best quality at the lowest prices.

James R. Blair, the Park avenue haberdasher, has the latest styles in fall headgear for men as well as a full line of neckwear, hosiery, gloves and umbrellas.

The display of millinery at Burd's store on West Front street, is the talk of the town among the women folks. It is equal to any seen in New York and the prices are attractive.

If you think the bicycle business a thing of the past just look into Sigmund Frucht's West Front street store and learn to the contrary. You will probably end up by purchasing one yourself.

Awnings are getting rather unseasonable, but the quality of those put up during the past summer by Shirley & Johnston is a first-rate recommendation for their carpets, rugs and curtains.

H. J. Wierenga carries on one of the best baggage and express businesses in the city. He has been in the business for several years and is universally recommended as a good expressman.

Levy Brothers' dry goods store on West Front street is brimful of fresh new goods for fall and winter wear. An inspection of these goods will convince you of the wisdom of trading here. Not alone in dress goods, but in all kinds of dry goods, as well as millinery, you will find just what you want.

It only takes a few minutes to ring up W. W. Warnock and you will be sure that your pastry of any other baker's goods will be up in time for dinner. Warnock does the largest and best bakery business in the city. That fact should bear a little weight with you if you are not satisfied with the baker you are dealing with at present.

Isn't it hard to think of a suitable birthday present? You'll be greatly believed if you pay a visit to J. W. Gavett. You will find everything in the way of glass and china ware at his store. All of Gavett's stock is the best which can be procured at any china store. His goods not only equal but excell what you will get in New York.

Before you waste money on inferior cloths, go to Werner, the Front street clothier and see what he can do for you in the line of a fall suit. You will find all the latest patterns on his tables, and he will fit you with the most improved cuts. There and cloths and there are other cloths but there are no cloths like Werner's. Another thing! You'll find the prices to suit you.

Inter-State Fair at Trenton.

The great Inter-State Fair will be held on September 26, 27, 28, 29 and 30, on the Fair Grounds, near Trenton, N. J., on the New York Division of the Pennsylvania Railroad. The Pennsylvania Railroad Company will sell excursion tickets to the Fair Grounds, including coupon of admission, at greatly reduced rates, from stations within a wide radius, and special trains over the New York, Belvidere and Amboy Divisions will be run through to the grounds, thus avoiding street-car transfer. As in previous years, every department will be replete with superior and instructive displays. The blooded stock exhibit will be particularly fine, and the daily programme of races contains the speediest classes obtainable. The management of the Fair has put forth extraordinary efforts to make this year's exhibition even greater than last year's record-breaking display. 9 19 3 m th s

Charles Ruff, of Watchung avenue, returned from Newark yesterday.

Mrs. MacKnight, of East Fifth street, has gone to Bayonne for a few days.

Kindly take notice that Ely's Liquid Cream Balm is of great benefit to those sufferers from nasal catarrh who cannot inhale freely through the nose, but must treat themselves by spraying. Liquid Cream Balm differs in form, but not medicinally from the Cream Balm that has stood for years at the head of remedies for catarrh. It may be used in any nasal atomizer. The price, including a spraying tube, is 75 cts. Sold by druggists and mailed by Ely Brothers, 56 Warren street, New York.

Colored Republicans' Position.

Editor, The Daily Press:

On my arrival home this morning from Providence, R. I., I found in your issue of Monday, an article stating that the Republican State committee failed to recognize any colored man on the State committee. The committee is not to be censured for its refusal, the committee did the best thing in their judgment to put a quietus to the negro's clamoring over their choice between Robinson and Cosey.

A negro on the committee heretofore was simply put on as an act of kindness shown the negro Republicans, the position is not one that could be demanded by the negro Republican voters, the same compliment would have been shown the negro Republican voters this year in the appointment of Robinson that has been shown them since 1892. Had not a tumult originated from jealousy of the honor conferred upon one of their own race by the whites. This is the great cause of the negroes many spiritual, social and political failures today—jealousy, all want to lead.

I do not find any reason why the committee should be censured by Mr. Rountree or Mr. Lawson. I do not see that any patricular victory would have been achieved by the appointment of Robinson or Cosey so far as the negro voters are concerned. I do not believe the appointment of either would have added to the interest of the negro voters who received the appointment in 1892, and we are still in 1904. The State committee did not reject Robinson nor Cosey out of prejudice to the race, but because they thought it would bring peace between the two contending parties.

We cannot afford at this critical period in the history of the colored race, to divide our interests, whether we have a negro on the committee or not

Sunday Excursion to Mauch Chunk.

There is no more popular resort for a Sunday than Mauch Chunk, and to reach it entails a delightful rail journey, and at Mauch Chunk there is a diversity of amusements, the chief of which is a ride over the Switchback. This journey occupies more than one hour, and leads over and around the mountains with widely changing scenes at every turn. The Switchback is a gravity road, and the speed attained is close to a mile per minute. Another feature is Flagstaff, the summit of which is reached by trolley, and from its pinnacle point there is a view extending over miles and miles of beautiful country. An interesting spot close at hand is Glen Onoko, a short distance above Mauch Chunk, and as it name implies, is a beautiful glen, with falls, cataracts, mountain paths leading to cool and delightful peaces. On October 2, 1904, the New Jersey Central is to run a popular excursion to Mauch Chunk from Plainfield by special train leaving at 9:20 a. m. Returning train will leave Mauch Cuhnk at 5:40 p. m., and the round trip will cost but $1.50. Frequent train service will be in effect between Mauch Chunk and Glen Onoke, and trains on the Switchback run every few minutes. 9 22 9 d

LITERARY.

The discussion of the marriage question in Madame has attracted much attention, being referred to by some of the leading newspapers as "a discussion of real merit." As marriage is so interwoven with all the important affairs of humanity and has to do with much that makes life worth the living, any measure or agitation which will tend to elevate the standard and ideals of marriage is of lasting benefit to the race, and should be given encouragement and support by thinking people. A bishop of the Episcopal church recently said on this subject: "Surely it is high time to remind men that holy matrimony has a sacramental character. Divine grace alone can hallow love of man and woman and enable them surely to perform and keep the vow and covenant betwixt them made."—Madame for October.

NINE CHILDREN DEAD

Horrible Accident During Recess at an Ohio School.

FLOOR OF OUTHOUSE GIVES WAY

Thirty Small Girls Precipitated Into Vault Beneath—Ghastly Experiences of Rescuers—Flag Used as Rescue Rope.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 24.—School closed at Pleasant Ridge, seven miles north of Cincinnati, with the first quarter of the session when nine, possibly ten, schoolgirls were suffocated in a vault during recess, and a score of others narrowly escaped the same horrible death. During the rest of the day this suburb was wild with mingled excitement, sorrow and indignation, and those openly charging the calamity to official negligence are making serious threats, among them being many women.

The large building is used for a high school as well as for all lower departments. All of the victims were from primary grades. On opposite sides of the spacious grounds in the rear of the school building are two outhouses. When recess was given about thirty of the smaller girls were in the outhouse assigned to them when suddenly the floor gave way, precipitating them into the vault below.

This vault is twelve feet deep and walled up with stone like a well. There was in it four feet of water that would have been over the heads of the children falling in it singly, but those falling foremost filled up the vault partially, so that others were not entirely submerged. The girls fell eight feet from the flooring, and the struggles of those who were on top kept at least nine underneath until they were dead. The frame sheds of these vaults were about twenty feet square, without windows and only one narrow doorway, so that only one girl escaped from the door. She ran into the school building and told the teachers what had happened. The principal and other teachers rushed to the rescue. The screams of the girls were dimly heard while within the vault, and they were most of them unable to speak when rescued. The teachers were soon reenforced by the entire population of the town, the police and fire departments rendering most effective service. The firemen drained the vault so as to be sure that the rescue was complete.

Those engaged in the rescue work recite the most ghastly experiences. Even those rescued alive presented such an appearance as to make many in the crowd of spectators faint, but the sight within the vault beggared all description.

Among the first to come to the relief of Principal Simmerman were Rev. I. D. Lambert of the Presbyterian church and Frank S. Johnson of the Herald and Presbyter of Cincinnati.

James Smith, aged fourteen, one of the pupils, climbed to the roof of the schoolhouse, untied the flag and ran to the vault. By means of this impromptu rope several were rescued. Marshal Wood had great difficulty in keeping the crowd back and from interfering with the rescuers. The importunities of friends, especially of the weeping mothers, were almost beyond the control of the officers. Drs. U. G. Senour and P. J. Shank, with their assistants, used the school building for a hospital and morgue until after the dead and rescued were taken to their homes.

Frank S. Johnson said:

"I was standing across the street talking to Dr. Lambert when a little girl came crying for help. We found Principal Simmerman saving lives. The smaller girls were being forced to the bottom by the movements and terrific struggles of each other in the vault. Up the ladder climbed the little ones drenched, gasping for breath and fainting as soon as taken out into the fresh air. As fast as they came within reach of the door those who stood at the doorway reached down and lifted them from the ladder and passed them out to waiting friends. It was not possible to go down into the vault at first for the reason that one would impede the little ones who were climbing out. Finally the last girl that could get to the ladder got out, and then the men went in and rescued those that remained."

William J. Card, a prominent merchant of Cincinnati, had three daughters in the place, of whom Charmian and Fausta lost their lives. Rotha, the twin sister of Fausta, narrowly escaped death. When the crowd of girls rushed into the place Rotha was knocked out of the door into the yard just before the collapse occurred.

Reports about the floor having given way last year are denied by the school trustees.

Canadian Legislator Unseated.

TORONTO, Sept. 24.—Hon. E. J. Davis, commissioner of crown lands and a member of the Ontario legislature, has been unseated as a result of a petition against his return for North York at the byelection in February, 1903. This leaves the government without a majority on the floor. The speaker, however, has the privilege of casting a vote in the case of a tie.

Statesboro Court Martial Postponed.

ATLANTA, Ga., Sept. 24.—The court martial ordered by Governor Terrell to try Captain R. M. Hitch and the other officers who were at Statesboro has been postponed from Sept. 29 to Oct. 10.

Ice Plant Burned.

DANVILLE, Ia., Sept. 24.—The plant of the Danville Ice company, the only ice plant in the city, was burned. The loss is between $50,000 and $75,000. The origin of the fire is unknown.

RESULTS AT GRAVESEND.

Chrysitis, at 10 to 1, Wins the Willow Handicap.

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—Chrysitis, at 10 to 1, won the Willow handicap for two-year-olds, five and a half furlongs, at Gravesend. Handzarra, the second choice, made the pace to the stretch, where Chrysitis, who had been running in second place all the way, moved out and won easily by four lengths. The favorite, Burned Hills, got off badly and was never able to improve her position.

The finish in the third race between Adriutha, Hurst Park and Ostrich was very close and exciting. They were heads apart and finished in the above order. Summaries:

First Race—Lady Amelia, 8 to 5, first; Ancestor, 6 to 1, second; Ascension, 10 to 1, third. Time, 1:10.

Second Race—Juvenaga, 3 to 1, first; Hildebrand, 12 to 1, second; Coy Maid, 4 to 1, third. Time, 1:01 3-5.

Third Race—Adriutha, 6 to 1, first; Hurst Park, 5 to 2, second; Ostrich, 13 to 10, third. Time, 1:54 3-5.

Fourth Race—Chrysitis, 10 to 1, first; Santa Catalina, 20 to 1, second; Handzarra, 4 to 1, third. Time, 1:07 3-5.

Fifth Race—Sidney C. Love, 7 to 2, first; Eagle, 4 to 1, second; Proceeds, 6 to 1, third. Time, 1:49.

Sixth Race—Princess Athéling, 7 to 1, first; Out of Reach, 6 to 1, second; Spring Silk, 9 to 5, third. Time, 1:50 2-5.

Seventh Race—Calmness, 3 to 2, first; Black Cat, 8 to 1, second; Sumatra, 7 to 2, third. Time, 1:03.

GRAND CIRCUIT RACES.

King Direct Wins 2:08 Pace—Nathan Strauss, 2:04.

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 24.—Favorites were overthrown in the last day's races of the Columbus grand circuit meeting.

In the 2:08 pace, unfinished from Thursday, Larrie Ginter solo even with the field, but Geers whipped King Direct to victory.

Laconda and Harold H. were equally favored in the 2:04 pace. Nathan Strauss won in straight heats, with Laconda hanging at his wheel all the time.

Angiola, the crack western trotter, was picked to win the 2:09 trot, and she took the first heat handily. She went wrong in the second heat, which was characterized by Snyder McGregor winning the mile in 2:07¼. The McGregor horse would not trot in the final mile, which was won by Jim Ferry. It took the judges to separate him, The Roman and Ida Highwood.

Wild Brino, Jr., won the last three heats of the 2:13 pace. He was the second choice, Rosewood being the favorite. In the third heat Don N. and Lady Bell Brook finished ahead of Wild Brino, Jr., but were set back for a break at the wire. The mile was made in 2:09, but no time was given out on account of the heat award being made to the third horse.

PRINCE ALERT BREAKS RECORD.

Paces Mile on Half Mile Track In 2:03 1-2.

ALLENTOWN, Pa., Sept. 24.—Before a crowd of a thousand persons Prince Alert established a new half mile track record by pacing a mile in 2:03½ without a wind shield at the Allentown fair races. He made the same time at Bethlehem, Pa., on Sept. 19 last year, but a shield was then used to achieve it. His time by quarters was 0:29½, 1:00, 1:31 and 2:03½.

Conditions were perfect for fast time. The great pacer was driven by Jack Curry and was paced by a running horse. Prince Alert got away to a good start and went the mile beautifully and without a skip. The big crowd became very enthusiastic when the figures 2:03½ were put up.

PARKER'S BUSY DAY

Judge Receives Many Callers at the Hoffman House.

DELAYS HIS RETURN TO ESOPUS

Unconfirmed Report That Grover Cleveland Will Be Asked to Assist In Democratic National Campaign.

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—Contrary to his expectations, Judge Parker was unable to complete his conferences with political leaders and return last night to his home at Esopus, N. Y. Many visitors were admitted to Judge Parker's apartments at the Hoffman House, but nevertheless he found it possible to take some recreation. He took a long walk before breakfast, and at night he walked from his hotel to the Manhattan club, where he took dinner.

Among the callers were some of the most prominent Democrats identified with the campaign. The list includes Senator Arthur P. Gorman of Maryland, Colonel Daniel S. Lamont of Millbrook, N. Y.; Colonel James M. Guffey of Pennsylvania, former Senator James K. Jones of Arkansas, Daniel J. Campau of Michigan and Thomas F. Ryan of Virginia.

Senator Gorman was with Judge Parker more than an hour. They went over the plans for the campaign and agreed that the canvass should be got under way without delay and be conducted in an energetic manner until November. Some of the details were considered, and there was a discussion as to the strongest speakers to use in the doubtful states. The report that they are to invite former President Grover Cleveland to take part could not be confirmed. Senator Gorman thinks that much depends upon New York state and expressed gratification when told that Justice D. Cady Herrick and Representative Francis Burton Harrison, candidates for governor and lieutenant governor respectively, are to open the local campaign without delay.

Party managers interested in the state campaign said that there are no longer any factions to harmonize and in support of the statement called attention to the fact that Comptroller Edward M. Grout of Brooklyn had given out an interview repudiating a story that he intended to retire from politics. Mr. Grout has announced that he will go on the stump for the state and national tickets.

The national campaign was discussed with the candidate by Colonel Lamont and Mr. Campau, who were Judge Parker's guests at luncheon. Soon after the luncheon Judge Parker saw Colonel Guffey, National Chairman Taggart, Senator Culberson of Texas, Representative John Sharp Williams of Mississippi, Herman Ridder of New York, Representative William S. Cowherd of Missouri, former Governor James S. Hogg of Texas and others who have been mentioned.

Senator Fairbanks' Itinerary.

CHICAGO, Sept. 24.—The itinerary of Senator Fairbanks' western tour has been extended so as to provide for two days' speechmaking in Iowa and one in Illinois on the return trip. The 11th and 12th of October will be spent in Iowa and the 13th in Illinois, closing with a meeting in Chicago on the night of the 13th. Senator Fairbanks will be accompanied throughout the tour by Senator Dolliver of Iowa.

Grout Promises to Support Herrick.

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—Comptroller Edward M. Grout called at the Democratic state headquarters and assured Chairman Meyer of his hearty support of the state ticket. He said that as soon as he could arrange his affairs he would be available for work in the campaign. This, he thought, would be about Oct. 15.

Tom Watson Speaks in Texas.

HOUSTON, Tex., Sept. 24. — Hon. Thomas E. Watson, Populist nominee for president, delivered an address to a great crowd of people assembled here from the surrounding country, excursions having been run to swell the number of his audience. Mr. Watson is still suffering from an indisposition and appeared weak.

Swallow Speaks in Saratoga.

SARATOGA, N. Y., Sept. 24.—The Rev. Silas C. Swallow of Harrisburg, Pa., the Prohibition candidate for president, and Volney B. Cushing of Maine addressed a mass meeting here last night.

Four Killed by Boiler Explosion.

RALEIGH, N. C., Sept. 24.—The boiler in the gin department of the Mammoth cotton mill, Erwing No. 3, at Dukes, on the Cape Fear and Northern railroad, about twenty-five miles from Raleigh, exploded with terrific violence, instantly killing four men, scalding another so badly that he will die and partially wrecking the engine room. Several persons were thrown down by the shock of the explosion, but their injuries are not serious.

Minister and Wife Poisoned.

AUGUSTA, Ga., Sept. 24.—Rev. Byron Woodward, pastor of North Augusta Baptist church, is in a critical condition and his wife is dead as a result of ptomaine poisoning. Three days ago they were taken violently ill after eating canned goods which had been opened and left standing over night. Their two children were not affected.

Cold Wave Damages Crops.

SARATOGA, N. Y., Sept. 24.—The continued cold wave has caused serious damage to unharvested crops. The temperature fell to 4 degrees below freezing, and ice formed in places.

Plainfield, N. J., Sept. 24, 1904.

Watson is not a candidate for the Presidency; he's a candidate to defeat another candidate.

Admiral Dewey was fifty years in the Navy yesterday and at the same time over five years in "the hearts of his countrymen."

A Mount Vernon man went crazy yesterday, imagining he was a millionaire. He must have run afoul of some of that advance prosperity that the New York political parties have been talking about.

No need to worry about high prices during the coming winter. The biggest apple crop in years is being rushed to market and unless mother has forgotten her art, it will make pies enough to last through three seasons.

At first one is inclined to smile when he reads that Judge Woodbridge Strong has vindicated his judicial character by fining Editor Daire, of the New Brunswick Times, $500 for contempt in having criticised his honor for having passed such a light sentence on the man charged with assaulting a young girl. But a little thought leads to the conclusion that too powerful a weapon is placed in the court's hands when it can pass such sentences. The entire press of New Jersey awaits the reversal of Judge Strong's action.

The owners of the Slocum are whitewashed by the report of the investigation committee, but that does not mean that the public holds the officials of the company blameless for the sacrifice of hundreds of precious lives. In nine cases out of ten the responsibility for an accident of this sort is placed on the shoulders of servants carrying out orders of their superiors. Notwithstanding the report, if the life preserves of the Slocum were all right many lives would have been saved and if they were not all right whose fault was it if not that of the men who owned the boat?

LEAL'S TEAM NOW IN THE AMATEUR LEAGUE

SOME FOOTBALL GAMES SCHEDULED BY MANAGER SUFFERN FOR SEASON.

Manager Suffern, of the Leal's School football team, has announced a part of his schedule for the coming year. He has communicated with several teams in the vicinity, and expects to receive reply in the near future. If possible, the team will play up to the last of November.

Mr. Suffern has obtained admission for his team in the State private school league, and has chalked the following games in the league: October 15, Carteret Academy at Orange Oval; October 22, Newark Academy at Plainfield; October 29, Pingry at Elizabeth; November 5, Montclair Military Academy at Montclair. The other games in the league are as follows: October 15, Montclair Military Academy vs. Newark Academy at Montclair; October 22, Pingry School vs. Carteret Academy at Elizabeth; October 29, Cartaret Academy vs Montclair Military Academy at Orange Oval.; November 5, Newark Academy vs. Pingry School at Orange Oval; November 19, Newark Academy vs. Cartaret Academy at Orange Oval, Montclair Military Academy vs. Pingry School at Montclair.

Suffern has arranged two games with the management of the High School, which will be played on October 8, and November 19. The first game of the season will be a practice game between the Leal's boys and the Westfield High School. The game will be played on the local team's grounds.

The manager has succeeded in securing the use of the Crescent Oval for the games. As soon as the baseball season is completed the diamond will be transferred into a gridiron.

Mrs. Cornelia McKee, of Brooklyn, is visiting her sister, Mrs. A. J. Leader, of Duer street.

EDUCATIONAL COURSES AT Y. M. C. A. FOR SEASON

TO PROVIDE INSTRUCTION FOR THE WINTER TERM.

The date for the opening of the Y. M. C. A. educational department has been set for October 17. Several meetings have been held in the interest of the educational department, and especial pains will be taken to provide for instruction to the men in the machine shops. There will be other meetings to consider this subject at which there will be representatives of the local shops and factories. It is expected that the work in the educational department will cover practically the same subjects, which were covered last year, though the course may be altered in proportion with the demand. Drawing and the commercial courses are sure to be on the list of subjects while other studies will be introduced if the demand of the public so requires.

The classes will start on the evening of the eighteenth in the association rooms, and according to the applications already filed, there will be a large attendance.

It is expected to have I. W. Travell, the principal at the High School, to speak at the opening meeting, in which the courses of study will be outlined.

Alis Football Team to Practice.

The candidates of the Alis football team will meet for practice Tuesday evening on the grounds adjourning the club house. The practice will be in charge of Afred Egan. As yet no steps have been taken toward the reorganization of the team, but several of the old candidates have made known their intention of playing again this year, and it is expected that a strong aggregation will represent the club on the gridiron this fall. It has not yet been decided whether the team will play under the name Alis or Plainfield A. C.

Farm-House Dwelling.

Tracy & Swartout, of New York, are the architect for a frame building being put up by S. F. H. Streuli at the southeast corner of Hillside and Prospect avenues. It will be two and a half stories high and will be in the old farm-house style. The digging of the cellars was commenced yesterday.

Y. M. C. A. Concert in October.

The fourteenth concert of the Y. M. C. A. orchestra will be held at the Y. M. C. A. Hall Monday evening, October 10, at 8:15 o'clock. Miss Etta Raybert, the soprano of the First Presbyterian church, will be the soloist. A silver offering will be received at the door.

Rahway vs. Elizabeth Game.

The Rahway Field Club and Elizabeth Stars will meet at the "Port" this afternoon in the third and deciding game between these teams. Each nine has thus far won a game.

ENTERTAINMENT FOR VISITING Y. M. C. A. BOYS

COMMITTEE IS APPOINTED FOR CONFERENCE TO BE HELD NEXT MONTH.

The cabinet of the boys' department of the Y. M. C. A. with Boys' Secretary Kenneth Robbie has selected the committees for the State boys' conference which will be held here on October 28, 29 and 30. It is the object of the directors to have the work carried on as far as possible, entirely by the boys, both in entertaining the delegates and in taking charge of the meetings. It is six years since the conference was held in this city, last year's being held at Newark.

Under the direction of Kenneth Robbie and the boys' work committee the following committees from the boys' department have been chosen to take charge of the management of the conference: Entertainment committee, O. S. Rogers, chairman, Stanley Karner, George M. Rittenhouse, Albert Codington, Milton St. John, Charles Line, Leslie Leland; reception committee, Dr. Norman Probasco, chairman, W. B. Caldwell, Howard Freeman, Harold Robins, Dudley Wilcox, Edward Alpaugh, James Fleming, Bert Leggett, William Flanders, William Douglass, Fred Reed, Leland Manning, John Valiant, Leslie Brokaw, Laurie Milne, Lawrence Edgar, Ray Hart, Otto Mueck, Norman Loughlin, Frank Webster, William Burtis, Guyeon Fountain and Weston Gavett; banquet committee, Edgar Freeman, Russel Marris, Robert Bellows Roy Gates, John Spofield, William Bailey and Cory Adams. The ushers will be as follows: Harry Thompson, Stuart Freeman, George Bentley, Marshall Ward, Henry Pound, M. B. Stutsman, Paul Collier, Gideon Fountain, Roy Woodhull and Fred Martin.

It is expected that the number of delegates at the conference will be the largest which has attended any convention for many years. There will be delegates from thirty-five different associations in the State.

IN THE CHRISTIAN FIELD

WORK IN THE CHURCHES OF THE CITY AND BOROUGH.

Father Charles Boone will enter upon his new duties as curate at St. Michael's church, Elizabeth, Oct. 1.

On and after Sunday, Oct. 2, evening services will be resumed on Sunday at 7:35 at the German Reformed church.

A service will be held at Trinity Reformed church tomorrow evening in the interest of Miss Sara Curry's work. The public is invited to attend.

Miss Hilda Gaul, the child cornetist, will take part in the Sunday-school rally of the First Methodist church tomorrow afternoon. She will also play at the usual public meeting in the evening.

RALLY SERVICES.

Reunion at the Park Avenue Baptist Church Sunday-School.

A grand reunion of the officers, teachers and pupils who are now or who have been connected with the Sunday-school of the Park Avenue Baptist church, will be held tomorrow afternoon in the Sunday-school room. Special music and other interesting exercises will be introduced. Many of the members of the school have been absent during the summer months, and this will be an occasion to welcome them back to begin together the study of the lessons of the next quarter.

For rally day the session will begin at 2:30 and on the following Sundays at 2:45.

The programme will include a talk by Rev. A. E. Finn; novel roll call of entire school and several pieces of special music.

PRIMATE IN A WRECK

Archbishop's Special Hits Locomotive In Massachusetts.

J. PIERPONT MORGAN SHAKEN UP

Financier Was at Breakfast When Accident Happened—Only Trainhands and Mrs. Davidson's Maid Hurt.

EAST BROOKFIELD, Mass., Sept. 23.—A special train conveying the Right Hon. and Most Rev. Randall Thomas Davidson, archbishop of Canterbury and primate of all England, from Bar Harbor, Me., to Washington, was wrecked on the Boston and Albany division of the New York Central railroad, near the station here. The archbishop was not injured, although considerably shaken up.

J. Pierpont Morgan of New York, who was also on the train, accompanying the archbishop, was shaken up, but not hurt.

As soon as it was realized that the life of the archbishop and Mrs. Davidson, as well as of others attending them, had been imperilled the first inquiries were for them. The Rev. J. Ellison, the archbishop's secretary, answered for those in the archbishop's private car, saying that no one was injured.

With the archbishop, besides Mrs. Davidson and Mr. Morgan, were the Rev. Hyla Holden and the Rev. J. Ellison and attendants. A maid was hurt, but her injuries were not serious. Traffic on the road was blocked for some time.

The special, running at the rate of sixty miles an hour, was just passing the station when a detached locomotive, which had been drawing a train on the North Brookfield branch, ran on to the main line for some reason at present unexplained.

The shock was not great enough to throw either of the two cars on the special from the rails. None of the occupants had left their berths except Mr. Morgan, who was at the breakfast table when the crash came. Large plate glass mirrors in the cars were broken, as were also several of the breakfast dishes.

Soon after the cars came to a standstill Mr. Morgan hurried into the East Brookfield station and sent several messages. When asked as to the effect of the collision on those in the cars he said:

"There was an accident and no one was injured. Get this over the wires as soon as possible—that no one was injured."

Accused of Robbing Uncle.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 24.—William Ford, who is accused of having robbed his uncle, George Ford, of $1,850, has been located in New York. The money was the savings of a lifetime and was stolen from a trunk and is believed to have been squandered by young Ford and several of his companions. Three boys who are said to have profited by the robbery are in custody here.

Panamans Coming Here to Study.

PANAMA, Sept. 24.—The government of Panama is sending several young men and women to study in the United States and Europe. The first company of six students have left for Belgium and France.

Weather Probabilities.

PORT ARTHUR'S DOOM

Japs Making Final Desperate Assault.

CZAR RECEIVES ALARMING NEWS.

Indescribable Scenes of Carnage Whole Battalions Blown Up by Mines—Perfect Storm of Shells Falling In City.

PARIS, Sept. 24.—The Matin's St Petersburg correspondent telegraphs as follows: "Telegrams of which the general staff have as yet no knowledge reached the emperor at 4 o'clock this morning. I can affirm that they concern Port Arthur, regarding which place the greatest anxiety prevails at court.

"The Japanese are now engaged in a general assault, which is more furious than its predecessors, attacking the town on three sides simultaneously and employing their whole forces, being determined to finish the business. Russian mines blew up whole battalions. General Fock especially distinguished himself, directing the fire from the wall, which the Japanese reached after indescribable massacre.

"The whole of Admiral Togo's and Vice Admiral Kamimura's squadrons are aiding the struggle, which, it is feared, will be final. The besieged forces are fighting as in a furnace. A perfect storm of shell is falling on the town, port and fortress from the whole hill and roadstead. General Stoessel is going from fort to fort encouraging the defenders in their desperate efforts."

BATTLE AT MUKDEN.

Steady Japanese Advance Forecasts Another Big Conflict.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 24.—A dispatch received here from Mukden gives details of the Japanese positions as follows: General Kuroki has concentrated one army with Bentsiaputze and Bensihu as its radius, and his advance is pushing forward along the road leading to Fushun and Fu Pass. The advance forces of the other two armies occupy the Yentai mines, the village of Yentai and Sandenu. The front of these three armies is protected by an outpost screen, which Chinese are not allowed to pass. A small Japanese detachment is moving along the left bank of the Liao river in order to protect junks.

The same dispatch reports that Chinese bandits are openly siding with the Japanese.

The weather at Mukden is rainy and windy, and cold has prematurely set in.

The military authorities at Mukden continue to express the belief that a battle will be fought near Mukden within a few days; but, on the other hand, the Chinese profess confidence that active hostilities are remote.

Sue Railroad For $2,020,000.

MIDDLETOWN, N. Y., Sept. 24.—Sundstrom & Stratton, contractors of this city, have brought suit against the Delaware and Hudson railroad to recover $2,020,000. The plaintiffs claim this amount as the balance due for the construction and reconstruction of the Chateaugay railroad, which extends from Plattsburg through Saranac Lake to Lake Placid, 180 miles. The contractors have already been paid between $1,000,000 and $2,000,000, but claim there is still due them the amount sued for, which the company refuses to pay. This is the largest sum ever sued for in this county.

No Attempt to Kill Don Carlos.

VENICE, Sept. 24.—The report published in the United States by a news agency that an attempt had been made to assassinate Don Carlos, the Spanish pretender, is without foundation. The only news here touching Don Carlos is that he is having trouble with his son, Don Jaime, who is with the Russian army in the far east and who is said to have written against Catholicism, which might have an effect with the Carlist party in Spain.

Civil Law Restored In Genoa.

GENOA, Sept. 24.—General Del Mayno, commander of the garrison, who during the recent Socialistic disorders assumed the direction of affairs here, has issued a proclamation stating that calm having been restored he has turned over all power to the civil authorities. The warships ordered here during the recent trouble have, with one exception, departed.

Vesuvius Becoming Active.

NAPLES, Sept. 24.—Vesuvius is gradually becoming more active. The crust around the crater has broken away and produced magnificent flurries of redhot ashes and sparks of fire, which rise occasionally in immense columns to a height of 700 feet, accompanied by loud detonations and slight earthquakes, the sound resembling a bombardment of artillery.

Fiske's Last Gift to Cornell.

ITHACA, N. Y., Sept. 24.—The Cornell university library has received by mail an addition to the Dante collection which was recently presented by the late Daniel Willard Fiske. This was probably the last gift Professor Fiske made to the university during his life, as it was sent on Sept. 11 from Frankfort-on-the-Main, where he died suddenly on Sept. 17.

Four Killed by Train.

PITTSBURG, Sept. 24.—Two men, a woman and a boy who had just alighted from a street car at Braddock, Pa., and were crossing the Pennsylvania railroad tracks on their way to their homes were hit by a fast express and instantly killed.

FAST TRAIN BLOWN UP.

Hits Wagon Load of Dynamite at North Branch, W. Va.

CUMBERLAND, Md., Sept. 24.—A Baltimore and Ohio fast freight train struck a wagon at the road crossing at North Branch, W. Va., about six miles east of Cumberland, loaded with nineteen cases of dynamite belonging to a contractor on the Wabash railroad. The engine and nine cars were wrecked and the track torn up for a distance of a hundred feet.

The engineer, N. T. Pike, was fatally injured, Fireman A. R. Sanders seriously injured, Front Brakeman C. W. Whitehair was killed, and Tower Operator C. H. Hamilton was cut and bruised, but not seriously injured.

Several residents of North Branch who were standing around were slightly hurt. The tower and interlocking plant were practically destroyed. The driver of the wagon containing the dynamite and the horses were uninjured.

LADY CURZON BETTER.

Still Critically Ill, but Her Condition Shows Improvement.

LONDON, Sept. 24.—The condition of Lady Curzon of Kedleston, wife of the viceroy of India, is still critical, but is slightly improved.

A dispatch from Walmer castle, near Dover, the official residence of Lord Curzon as lord warden of the cinque ports, says her ladyship's strength is well maintained. Five doctors are at Walmer castle. Lord Curzon's reappointment to the post of viceroy of India has been gazetted.

Cannon Rush at Princeton.

PRINCETON, N. J., Sept. 24.—The annual cannon rush took place at Princeton last night and proved one of the hardest contests in years. The sophomores assembled around the Revolutionary cannon and formed a revolving mass, while the freshmen gathered several blocks away. Directed by juniors, the freshmen then rushed upon the sophomores from two directions. The mass of fighting students, numbering over 600, battled desperately for several minutes, when a big freshman forced his way through and mounted the cannon. At a given signal the freshmen scattered and ran to their homes, pursued by the sophomores.

Dewey's Fiftieth Anniversary.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24.—Admiral George Dewey has received the congratulations of his fellow officers and friends upon the fiftieth anniversary of his entry into the naval service. Of the seventy-three midshipmen who entered the Naval academy on Sept. 23, 1854, the admiral is the only one on the active list today, and but seven of that number are on the retired list. The admiral is in his sixty-seventh year. The president sent Admiral Dewey a letter of congratulation, together with a handsome bouquet of flowers.

Stephanie to Aid Her Sister.

BRUSSELS, Sept. 24.—The Petit Bleu states that Princess Stephanie (Countess Lonyay), after visiting her sister, Princess Louise of Coburg, at Paris, telegraphed to Prince Philip of Coburg indignantly denying that Louise is mad and declaring her intention to do her utmost to rehabilitate the reputation of her sister. The Petit Bleu adds that Princess Stephanie will appeal to the Austrian emperor.

Broke "Jim Crow" Law.

ELKTON, Md., Sept. 24.—The grand jury of this county has found true bills against W. H. H. Hart, a colored lawyer of Washington, and James Grimith of Baltimore, charged with violating the "Jim Crow" law by refusing to ride in the car provided for colored passengers on the Pennsylvania railroad. This is the first case under the new law where a colored man has been indicted.

Winner Tried to Run Through Gate.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 24.—Scotch Dance, second choice in the betting, won the feature of the card at Delmar park. Scotch Dance tried to run through a gate just before turning into the stretch and lost ten lengths, but came again and won by a nose from Mafalda, who had taken the short route. Just So, the favorite, was third, a neck behind Mafalda.

Alleged Robbers of Paymaster Held.

KINGSTON, N. Y., Sept. 24.—Four Italians who are charged with robbing Paymaster Orson C. Longyear of the Hudson River Bluestone company near this city in June were indicted by the Ulster county grand jury for robbery in the first degree.

FASHIONS IN FURS.

Chinchilla Very Chic—The Old Time Redingote In Style Once More.

It may seem early in the season to talk about furs, but the fact is that furriers are the busiest people in the sartorial line at present, and they can hardly fill their winter orders fast enough.

Moleskin is to be a favorite and bids fair to be quite as popular as it was last winter for trimming and entire coats.

Chinchilla is a pelt which, it is predicted, will be used more than ever this season for purely ornamental purposes rather than for entire garments. The employing of chinchilla as a trimming alone is easily explained for the simple reason that it is very expensive and not at all durable.

A fur which makes its initial bow to fashion this season is a white fox delicately dashed with brown hairs.

The old time redingote is to be the exclusive long wrap of the winter. That the redingote will not be in every one's hands adds to its attractiveness. The woman who has cravings after that which is unattainable to the populace may safely order a redingote of gray chiffon velvet enhanced in beauty by a collar and revers of chinchilla.

A fall novelty designed to wear with the black taffeta gown is the jupon of black batiste. Its construction is exactly similar to the other lingerie petticoats, and the flounces are trimmed with frills of black, white or cream colored Calais lace, the petticoat being made very full and frou frou.

The separate waist in the new models are as dainty as ever, and the pretty blouse illustrated is most attractive. It is carried out in this instance in pale blue louisine silk. The full gathered waist has an empiecement of broderie anglaise cut in points. From the two points in the center of the yoke run lines of little black velvet bows made with two loops. A line of the same bows ornaments the sleeves, which are in one large puff fitted above a deep cuff of the embroidery. The girdle is of broderie anglaise.

when she may go forth and display its smartness. But the unwise virgins are only waking up to a realizing sense of the necessity of this dress. For such delinquents there is a wide choice both in styles and materials.

Loosely woven fabrics will be seen again in the new importations. There is a pretty new shade of brown called "burnt bread" which will be popular during the coming winter and is made up with touches of orange.

Green, mulberry and red are favorite colors in the coming fashions. Many fabrics in these tones have an under weave of black that is exceedingly attractive.

Delightfully smart is the walking gown shown in the cut. It is of soft blue sevres cloth. The simple skirt has a plaited panel effect at one side. The habit basque fits on a basque phase in front and is trimmed with leaf-like revers. A stunning waistcoat of ivory brocade fastens with a row of old enameled buttons. Cravat of lace and collar of white batiste complete this costume. JUDIC CHOLLET.

THE LIFE OF FINSEN.

DISCOVERER OF "LIGHT CURE" IS A WONDERFUL MAN.

Himself a Hopelessly Sick Man, He is Devoting All His Time to the Alleviation of Human Suffering.

London (England) Special.

Nearly two years ago there was published an article on the light cure at Copenhagen founded and directed by Prof. Niels R. Finsen. Since that article appeared, Prof. Finsen has won the great Nobel prize for scientific research, and in the Pall Mall Magazine Mr. Georg Brochner describes him as "An Apostle of Light." Prof. Finsen, it seems, is still only 42. "His life hangs on a thin thread. Every day he is growing thinner, though it is impossible to say what miracles his marvelous vitality and mental stamina may yet work." He suffers, and has suffered for many years past, from affections of the heart and liver, as well as from dropsy.

Even if Finsen were not the world-famed doctor and scientist—by instinct he is more of a brilliant explorer in the regions of science than he is a doctor—he, by reason of his personality, by his views, as to the earnestness of which he has just given the most convincing proof, would be a most remarkable and interesting man, imbued as he is with a fervent, idealistic, human redicalism, holding opinions that in some respects may be said to resemble those of Tolstoi. Finsen, for instance, almost seems to dislike money—not so far as his dear "institute" is concerned, but as regards himself and his family. He wishes his son to be able to say, in the words of the charming Danish poet, Holger Drachmann: "I thank thee, my father, thou wert not a wealthy man;" and if Finsen's son inherits his father's views, he will say so, or he will in any case have the opportunity of doing so. He is, and always has been, very poor, though private benefactors and the Danish government have both lent him a helping hand.

Even in his boyhood, light and the effect of light had a wonderful charm for him, and he very early noticed and studied the influence of light upon animal life. He is a native of the Faroe islands, and passed his student's examination at Reykjavik, in Iceland, lands where the contrast between light and darkness is not unlikely to be brought strongly home to an observant mind.

PROF. NIELS R. FINSEN.
(Inventor of the Famous Light Cure Known by His Name.)

Chronically ill for nearly 20 years past, he is now compelled to live with the greatest caution, his food being carefully weighed. His temperature is always normal, and he spends most of his time lying down, unable to see anybody, even in his own family. For a year or more he has not even been able to visit the institute, which is only a few steps away from his house.

His discoveries have evolved, so to speak, from his mind during a long process of thought and work. He has been a successful inventor, and one of his inventions, certain hematite or blood lozenges, are now sold in all countries, the considerable proceeds, going of course, to the Finsen institute.

In the year 1893, he first brought out his negative therapy of light, the essence of which is the removal of the chemical rays that have the inflammatory effect upon the skin. His red-light or negative-light treatment has been adopted in numerous countries with excellent results, more especially for smallpox, though also for other affections; it does not exactly cure the illness of smallpox, but it does away with the most dangerous symptom, the secondary fever, and its outcome, the suppuration.

His positive-light cure, curing terrible diseases of the skin, diseases with which science had hitherto been unable to battle, by direct application of chemical rays, is itself a most conservative treatment, as no sound tissue is hurt or damaged. Downes and Blunt had already shown that light, more especially the chemical rays, can kill bacteria; it was also known that light can produce inflammation of the skin. Finsen's great discovery is the killing of the bacteria in the skin by light, or perhaps by the inflammation which the light causes. Perfect clearness has not yet been arrived at on this point, but Finsen is inclined to believe the latter.

The First Known Intoxicant.

The oldest alcoholic beverage is grape wine. Next to that in age is saki, a drink made from rice, and for over 2,000 years used by the people of Japan. The Japanese are a temperate race, and few of them become slaves to alcoholic stimulants. When they are under the influence of alcohol they rarely quarrel, but become more good-natured and jolly, their little ferret eyes gleaming with merriment.

TOILED FOR SEVEN YEARS.

Prisoners in French Penal Settlement Betrayed After Digging Long Tunnel.

Patience in working for freedom even greater than that displayed by the prisoners who escaped from Libby prison during the civil war was shown not long ago in the French penal settlement in New Caledonia. The convicts live in barracks and every evening they are searched and locked in.

Among the prisoners were two marine engineers who were in for political crimes. They lived together in the same hut. Every night for two years they labored at digging an underground chamber beneath their house, concealing its entrance during the day. Every morning each of them carried out some dirt in his blouse or his pockets.

Their hut stood near the seashore. After two years' toil they had dug a tunnel reaching almost to the sandstone bank by the beach. At the end of the tunnel they hollowed out a large cavity in this cavity they set to work building a boat. But cutting through to the beach they were able to come out at night and find pieces of driftwood on the shore, and every serviceable piece of timber they dragged in.

In their underground chamber they made a forge, and with little bits of steel and iron, some smuggled in from the marine repair shops in their hair and under their arm pits, they made, first tools, then bolts, rivets and the necessary ironwork for the building of a launch. Then they set patiently to work building an engine for the launch. When that was finally accomplished they had been working nightly for over seven years.

At this time another convict was lodged with them, a Paris embezzler, and they had to take him into their confidence. For six months he helped them, until everything was ready, except to provision the boat. Then the embezzler turned informer, hoping to gain favor thereby. Next night guards surprised the two marine engineers in their underground chamber, seized their tools, and put them into solitary confinement with ball and chain.

The subsequent investigation brought to light the entire plot. The seven long years of patient toil so impressed the French commandant that a year later he managed to obtain a pardon for the two engineers, and they returned to France.

HOW FROGS CAME TO BE.

Mythical Tale Accounts in Strange Manner for Existence of the Croakers.

Did you ever hear how frogs originated? It is a queer story, but then it happened a long time ago, when the world was young and all sorts of queer things were happening. We can, of course, believe as much or as little of such stories as we please, but at least they entertain us, says an exchange.

Now as to the frogs, they came into being because a weary, thirsty woman was prevented from getting a drink of water. Here is the way the story is told:

"Latona was a beautiful goddess, who lived with the other goddesses and gods on Mount Olympus, where Jupiter and Juno reigned, as you know. She was distinguished for many things, but chiefly for being the mother of Apollo and Diana. It seems that she incurred the ill will of Juno in some way and was banished from Olympus, with no place to put her foot and no shelter for her weary head, for Juno had made Terra, the Earth, promise that she should not find rest anywhere.

"Neptune, the god of the sea, however, took pity on the banished goddess and invited her to the Isle of Delos, which then floated under the water, but rose to the surface at his command. There she found peace and comfort, and there she brought up her two famous children, Apollo to become the god of the sun and Diana the goddess of the moon.

"But perhaps you are wondering what all this has to do with the frogs. It is said that one day while Latona was wandering desolate and weary with her children while they were yet babies she came to a pool of clear, sparkling water. Half dying with thirst, goddess as she was, she ran toward the pool to drink some of the cool water, but a crowd of ugly yokels surrounded it and kept her away.

"She had up to this time borne her privations and sufferings with patience and resignation, but at this act of wanton cruelty her patience gave way and turning furiously on the yokels she turned them all into croaking frogs, which they have remained to this day."

War and Population.

Statistics of population seem to show that after long and severe wars, in which many men are killed and the male part of a country's population is greatly decreased, there is for several years a preponderating birth of male children until the normal proportion between the sexes is restored. This seems to have been noted after the Thirty Years' war in Germany, after the Napoleonic wars in France, and even in more recent times after the siege of Paris.

Cost of Coronation.

The cost of the coronation of King Edward VII. establishes a record for modern times. It was considered a goodly and magnificent thing for the subjects of George IV. to spend £238,238 in putting a crown on his head but we have eclipsed their lavishness by £121,000. William IV. and Queer Adelaide were content with a modest £50,000.—London Tit Bits.

Rosedale and Linden Park Cemeteries

LARGEST IN THE STATE

LINDEN, N. J.

Beautiful and Accessible

2 Miles from Elizabeth, 7 Miles from Newark,

14 MILES FROM NEW YORK

On Main Line Pennsylvania Railroad

Why Lots in these Cemeteries commend themselves to Heads of Families and Investors

BECAUSE of the $1,000,000 Trust Fund provided for by the Trustees in each Cemetery, the income from which will keep the properties perpetually beautiful at NO EXPENSE TO LOT OWNERS.

BECAUSE such a guarantee, not found in any other cemetery, assures lot owners that the grounds WILL BE MAINTAINED PERMANENTLY AS BEAUTIFUL PARKS AFTER THE INCOME FROM THE SALE OF LOTS HAS BEEN EXHAUSTED.

LOTS SHOULD BE PURCHASED NOW

BECAUSE MORE ADVANTAGES ARE OFFERED TO LOT BUYERS in a new Modern Park Cemetery than in those established many years and, in most cases, no provision made for perpetual care without extra expense to lot owners. THERE ARE A GREATER NUMBER OF IDEAL LOCATIONS TO SELECT FROM, PRICES OF LOTS ARE ALWAYS LOWER AND TERMS MORE ADVANTAGEOUS.

BECAUSE life is most uncertain and EVERY ONE SHOULD ANTICIPATE THE INEVITABLE BY MAKING A CHOICE NOW OF A FINAL RESTING PLACE.

LOTS WILL PROVE A GOOD INVESTMENT

BECAUSE they are sure to increase in value and can be purchased NOW at the INITIAL or LOWEST PRICE and upon the most ADVANTAGEOUS TERMS.

BECAUSE the properties are ACCESSIBLE TO 4,000,000 PEOPLE, and considering the RAPID GROWTH OF GREATER NEW YORK and its TRIBUTARY CITIES and TOWNS, it is only a question of a SHORT TIME when LOTS in ROSEDALE and LINDEN PARK will EQUAL IN VALUE those of our MOST NOTED cemeteries.

FULFILLMENT OF PROPHECY

Chapter of English History Relating to the Title of the Prince of Wales.

Why is the heir presumptive to the British throne called the Prince of Wales? A long chapter of English history is epitomized in the title, says the New York Tribune.

Wales was nominally a principality of the kingdom when Edward I., also called Edward the Crusader, returned from the Holy Land, but it had its own line of princes and was practically independent. The Norman rulers of England had several times invaded the country, but the sturdy Welshmen had not been subdued. Edward's chief ambition after his experience in foreign wars was the subjugation of Wales and Scotland. In pursuing that ambition he began with Wales.

Llewellyn, the contemporary prince, had been captive in his youth in the hands of Edward's father, Henry III. Later he was a supporter of Simon de Montfort, who was the real ruler of England for several years during the latter part of Henry's reign, and was overthrown and slain by Edward at the battle of Evesham. After that battle, however, Llewellyn promised fealthy to Henry, before Edward set out on his crusade. Edward summoned him as a vassal to his coronation in August, 1274, but he refused to attend because not guaranteed safe conduct. Several other summonses were treated in like manner, but Edward, who was crafty, instead of at once making war, resorted to strategy.

Llewellyn was betrothed to Eleanora, the young daughter of De Montfort, a first cousin of the king. Eleanora's mother died on the continent in 1275, and in the following year she sailed for Wales with her brother Almeric. Edward intercepted the vessel off the Scilly islands and carried his two cousins to London. Llewllyn was served with another summons, but he again refused to obey, though he boldly demanded the release of his promised bride. Edward then declared his lands forfeited and within a year led an army into Wales. He overran the country, secured the support of Llewellyn's brother David, who had a grievance about his patrimony, and stripped Llewellyn of everything but his title and the limited sovereignty of Snowden and the Isle of Anglesey. Under penalty of a greater tribute than he could hope to pay, Eleanora was surrendered to him, and they were married before Edward and his court at Worcester in 1278.

Five years later, however, Llewellyn was again in revolt. Edward led a large army into Wales, but was not conspicuously successful until Llewellyn was killed in a skirmish. His head "was sent to Edward, who placed it on the walls of the tower of London, crowned with an ivy wreath, in mockery of a prediction of Merlin that when the English money should become circular, the prince of Wales should be crowned in London."

Edward soon reduced the country after Llewellyn's death, and he established his residence for a time at Caernarvon castle to personally conduct the pacification of the country. He had his queen with him, the heroic woman who had saved his life in Palestine by sucking a wound inflicted by the poisoned dagger of an assassin. At Caernarvon on April 25, 1284, was born his son and heir, Edward of Caernarvon, eventually the weak and contemptible Edward II. With a view to knocking the last prop from under the foundations of the native line of princes, the king commanded that the infant Edward should have the title of prince of Wales. And so, after all, was fulfilled the prophecy of Merlin, the seer.

A Turtle with a History.

At Fillmore, a hamlet near Bellefonte, Pa., Oscar Dunlap, a farmer, while walking over his farm accidentally stumbled over a large land turtle. On examining it he found on its shell artistically carved the names of Cale H. Kepheart and Ellis H. Williams, with the date of 1850. The lettering was almost as plain as the day it was put on, more than half a century ago, when the now old gentlemen were young men together. All these years the turtle has presumably been slowly crawling around in that vicinity. Mr. Kepheart, although almost eighty years of age, is still well and hearty and is able to do a fair day's work on his large farm, which is one of the best in the county. The finding of the turtle has brought to his mind many interesting historical events. Elias H. Williams, whose name also appears on the hard shell of the turtle, left Centre county years ago and is now one of the oldest conductors on a Pullman palace car train running between Chicago and Denver.

Tale of a Millionaire.

Some years ago a very wealthy man in England got it into his head that he had lost all his money. To pacify him his sons told him that they had saved the remnants of the estate and were able to offer him employment as a clerk. At $7.50 a week he worked as happy as a prince for the last 20 years of his life. When he died his estate amounted to nearly $15,000,000.

Seagull a Weatherwise Bird.

The seagull makes a splendid living barometer. If a convoy of seagulls fly seaward early in the morning sailors and fishermen know that the day will be fine and the wind fair, but if the birds keep inland—though there be no haze hanging out toward the sea to denote unpleasant weather—interested folk know that the elements will be unfavorable.—Labore Tribune.

Pretty Love Story in Which Venerable Democratic Nominee for Vice President Plays the Role of Star.

Washington (D. C.) Special.

News comes from Shepherdstown, W. Va., that ex-Senator Henry G. Davis, the democratic vice presidential candidate, will in the fall marry Mrs. Katherine Reynolds, widow of Dr. John Reynolds, of Shepherdstown.

Mrs. Reynolds is 70 years old, while ex-Senator Davis is 80.

There is an interesting story back of the approaching wedding. Many years ago, when Henry G. Davis was a brakeman on the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, he became a suitor for the hand of Miss Katherine Cushwa, whose family was one of the most prominent in Washington county, Md.

Miss Cushwa was a pronounced beauty and was the acknowledged belle in the section in which she lived.

Mrs. Reynolds and young Davis met for the first time at a dance at a country house, and frequently thereafter he became her escort.

The friendship thus begun speedily ripened into love. Davis proposed and the young woman was willing, but her parents could not reconcile themselves to the idea of their beautiful and accomplished daughter marrying a poor railroad brakeman, and the young man was sent on his way with a broken heart.

Young Davis disappeared, to rise rapidly in the railroad service, until he became the richest and most powerful citizen in his state, while Miss Cushwa became the bride of Dr. John Reynolds, a prominent physician of Shepherdstown, her former "flame" also in the course of time taking unto himself a life partner in a distant part of the state.

It was not until many years afterward that the two old sweethearts came together again, one as a widower and the other as a widow. The old spark rekindled, with the result that there will be a notable wedding at the quaint old town of Shepherdstown some time in the month of October, so the gossips say.

Mrs. Reynolds is remarkably well preserved, and for a half century or more has been social leader of Shepherdstown. She is the mother of two grown-up children, and the grandmother of a half dozen interesting boys and girls. She lives in a beautiful old-fashioned house, within a stone's throw of the Potomac, and many distinguished men and women have enjoyed her hospitality.

Henry G. Davis does not look his 80 years. To the casual observer he would appear to be not more than 65. He is more than six feet tall, erect and straight as in the days of his youth. His shoulders are square. He is well muscled. He has a springy heel and toe walk. There is not the slightest evidence of any loss of mental or bodily vigor in this choice of the democrats for vice president.

His face features are regular and bold. His nose is aquiline. His eyes gray and sharply penetrating, but withal kindly in expression and set wide apart. His face is not deeply furrowed, though fine wrinkles appear about the eyes. His beard and mustache of snowy whiteness are features that do more to denote advanced age than any other.

The whole bearing of the man denotes an alert, vigorous interest in life and the matters that appeal to him for action. He is not a dreamer, if his looks and conversation prove anything. But he is of a kind disposition. He laughs easily. He is the soul of good nature, and he is essentially democratic.

But before closing this story it is only fair to say that Mr. Davis emphatically denies that he is going to wed Mrs. Reynolds and states, moreover, that the publication of the foregoing romance has caused him intense pain.

The Queer Folks of Albany.

In Morse's American geography, published in 1805, a copy of which may be seen at the St. Louis exposition, appears the following unique description: "Albany is situated on the west bank of the Hudson river. . . . This city, in 1797, contained 1,263 buildings and 6,021 inhabitants, many of whom are in the Gothic style, with their gable ends toward the street."

FOOTBALL.

The Somerville football team has scheduled a game with the Orange Field Club, of this city, for Saturday, October 29. The game will be played here. The Somervillians will open the season Saturday, Oct. 1, at home with a game with Dunellen.

The football team of the Plainfield High School met for practice on the Crescent Oval yesterday afternoon in charge of Wm. Douglass. Unfortunately there is no member of the faculty who can coach the boys in the game, and they are obliged to work the best they can for themselves. The team is developing as well as can be expected without a coach, and they will be in good condition for the game with Leals' which will take place on Oct. 1. There will be no game today.

to his home in Bernardsville.

An exchange says of him:

"The candidate has been very successful and now lives in retirement at Bernardsville. The family has always been noted for its unflinching Democracy and the subject of this article is no exception to the general rule. While he has never sought public office, he has always been active in the Democratic ranks in his own county and as an adviser and counselor has rendered valuable service to the party."

"DEACON" CONWAY SAYS THAT HE HAS BEEN JILTED

A JOKE OF HIS CAUSED A DAMSEL TO TURN HIM DOWN.

Deacon Spencer Conway, of Calvary Baptist church, called at The Daily Press office today to say that he had reconsidered his intention to remove to Philadelphia. The deacon said: "I want a retreat on the question. I have lost the best friend that I had in Plainfield by speaking of this marriage question. I don't intend to marry the Philadelphia lady. That has stirred up a sensation and has caused me to find out that I have more friends in Plainfield, but the best friend that I had has turned her back on me. I will attend to my own business. My first announcement was all a joke."

While telling the story the deacon had tears in his eyes, weeping because a dusky dameel had "thrown him over."

CASINO RENOVATED, A HANDSOME PLAYHOUSE

BEAUTIFUL DECORATIONS AND HANDSOME FURNISHINGS MAKE IT INVITING.

A corps of painters and decorators from Woolston & Buckle's, yesterday completed extensive improvements to the Casino which have made the building handsomer than at any time since its erection. The alterations were planned by Manager Mace Edwards, having been given carte-blanche by Mr. Fisk and the work was carried out under his personal direction. The color scheme harmonizes perfectly and will prove restful to the eyes of the audiences. The main hall is done in a soft red and olive green with a finish of ivory on the ceiling. The proscenium arch is in aluminum and the heating arrangement is resplendent in bronze. New red curtains have been hung on the stage in place of the old gold drapings formerly in place and new furnishings have been placed throughout.

The entrance halls are in robin's egg blue and white and the auxiliary rooms have all been changed in varying hues. Handsome furnishings, fine carpets and many other embellishments have been added and everything is cosy and inviting. The bowling alleys in the lower part of the building are now being thoroughly overhauled and within another week everything will be in readiness for the busy season in prospect.

Dunellen A. C. Baseball Team, 1904.

Another one of the successful baseball teams in this vicinity this year is the Dunellen A. C. Thus far the team has won thirteen contests and lost four. This team was reorganized in the early part of June and has been putting up a good article of baseball. To Manager Vail much credit is due. He organized the nine and to his work is attributed much of the success attained.

The first contest was with the Reform A. A., of this city, and it was necessary to play ten innings, Dunellen winning by a score of ten to nine. Then a series of games was arranged between Dunellen and New Market, but after the first contest, which was won by Dunellen, the New Market boys refused, for some reason, to play the remaining games.

This was followed by a series with Clinton Avenue. Dunellen won the first contest by the score of 4 to 1, lost the second and third by scores of 18 to 3 and 9 to 4, and won the next two by scores of 3 to 2 and 2 to 0. After considerable trouble Manager Vail finally succeeded in arranging another series of three games with New Market. Dunellen won the first two by scores of 3 to 2 and 2 to 1, and New Market took the third game by a score of 5 to 1.

Phillip Smith, the crack Plainfield High School pitcher, twirled twelve of the seventeen games and his puzzling curves fooled one hundred and eighteen batsmen, who were called out on strikes. Two more games are to be played this season, and after the last one, Manager Vail is planning to give the team a "blow-out."

These contests have been won this year by the Dunellen team:

June 18, Reform A. A., 10 to 9; June 25, Clinton Avenue, 4 to 1; July 2, New Market, 4 to 3; July 4, a. m., Rahway F. C., 3 to 2; p. m., Garwood A. C., 14 to 4; July 16, New Market, 3 to 2; July 30, New Market, 2 to 1; August 13, Scotch Plains, 17 to 1; August 20, 3 to 2; September 3, Clinton Avenue, 2 to 0; September 5, a. m., Bound Brook, 2 to 1; p. m., Emeralds, Perth Amboy, 6 to 1; September 10, Cranford, 12 to 1.

These contests have been lost:

July 23, Clinton Avenue, 18 to 3; August 6, Clinton Avenue, 9 to 4; August 27, New Market, 5 to 1; September 17, Cranford, 12 to 10.

It is Manager Vail's intention to retain his present team for next season and he will arrange even a stronger schedule of games. The grounds will be improved and increased seating accommodations will be provided. The Dunellen fans have appreciated the efforts of the team by giving it loyal support and the season will close with a substantial sum in the club's treasury.

Hilda E. Gaul.

Miss Emily O. March, who has been secured as the speaker at the meeting for men in the large hall of the Y. M. C. Robert Treat Paine, Jr., four times offered the Democratic nomination for Governor of Massachusetts, twice the candidate of the party, and who, against the tremendous popularity of Governor Crane, polled the largest Democratic vote since the candidacy of William E. Russell, announces his intention to break away from the Democratic party, its candidate and its platform, and vote for Roosevelt for President.

The New York Times has figured out that in the election in Maine recently the Democratic vote was 29.5 per cent. larger than it was there in 1900, whereas the Republican gain was only 4.7 per cent. The Times says a similar change elsewhere would reduce the Republican plurality in New York to 6,554 and give a Democratic plurality of 7,272 in Illinois and of 40,000 in Indiana. In New Jersey, witht he same ratio of Democratic gain, the Republican plurality would be 24,634. In 1900 it was 56,899.—Newark Call.

WESTFIELD WINS SERIES

Plainfield Loses Final Contest By a Score of 3 to 1.

GREAT ENTHUSIASM

Many Brilliant Plays a Feature of the Game—The Score in Detail.

The Westfield Baseball Association by taking Saturday's contest with the Plainfield A. C., wins the championship between these teams. The aggregation from down the line has a record of six victories to Plainfield's four. The result cannot give Westfield the county championship as there are oher teams in the county that have not been defeated by Manager Denman's nine and the the Aeolians have defeated Westfield three out of four games played. Plainfield was defeated Saturday by a score of 3 to 1. The home team scored one run in the second and two runs in the third and that is all they got, but enough to win. Plainfield got its only one in the fourth. Jones got a free pass and scored on errors of Harbusch and Foster.

As was expected Westfield was padded. Eddie Daly, of the old Crescents, played second base; "Pop" Foster, of the Bridgeports, was in center and Harbusch was at the receiving end. Plainfield's only change was at first, Rogers, of Long Island, covering the initial bag. Garvin was on the slab and pitched a masterly game, as did also Waller. In the third inning Plainfield had a fine chance to tally several runs, after a series of bunts which filled the bases, but Waller worked steadily and prevented any scoring.

The Plainfield team with one or two exceptions played fast ball, a feature being a brilliant throw of Oregan from left to home plate, cutting off a runner. Jones at second also distinguished himself. Smithson and Seward for Westfield made brilliant plays in catching difficult balls. This game closes the series for the year.

MISS SCHUYLER WINS HILLSIDE CHAMPIONSHIP

EASILY DEFEATS MISS M. A. REINHART IN THE TENNIS FINALS.

Miss Sarah E. Schuyler won the title of champion of the women's tennis tournament at the Hillside Tennis and Golf Club Saturday, by defeating Miss Mary A. Reinhart. The score of the two sets was 6-1, 6-2, the contest taking place on the club courts. A large crowd ceased playing on the other courts, and gathered from the golf links to watch the deciding sets. It was expected that the two contestants were more evenly matched, but Miss Schuyler took the two sets with comparatively little effort. Nevertheless the play was interesting and both won much applause by their plays.

Miss Schuyler and Miss Reinhart won their places in the finals two weeks ago Saturday from an entry list of fourteen members. The finals were postponed from last Saturday on account of the men's tournament. Both participaters in the finals are prominent in Hillside sports, and have won tennis trophies. Miss Schuyler will receive the Hillside Tennis cup which is offered annually by the club.

Owing to the fact that a number of the contestants in the men's play were unable to be on hand, the semi-finals in that tournament were not played as scheduled, but will take place Saturday of this week. The preliminaries and second and third rounds were played off a week ago, leaving the following to contest for the semi-finals, and the cup: T. M. Day, Jr., J. S. Meyers, W. T. Glenney, F. W. Goddard, H. D. Bulkley and A. D. Beers. The first and last named are the only two who are known to have qualified for the last two rounds, the others having unfinished matches to play off.

ITALIAN CLAMBAKE ENDS IN A GENERAL MELEE

SANDOLCINO CAME LOOKING FOR TROUBLE AND SUCCEEDED.

"Buttin' in" to a clambake in full swing on Milton place under the auspices of seventeen of his countrymen, yesterday afternoon, Antino Sandolcino looked for trouble and was accommodated beyond all expectation. As four of the five kegs of beer provided for the seventeen had been disposed of without any waste, half of the merrymakers fell upon the belligerent Antino and in short notice a small-sized Port Arthur assault was in progress. He fled to East Front street with blood streaming down his face and with five Italians in his rear when Patrolman Higgins hove in sight and landed all six.

In the city court this morning, with the aid of two interpreters, Judge Runyon learned that the seventeen had gone to Milton place for a quiet time "lika da white man do" and Sandolcino came around and refused to go away when ordered to by Salve Velardo, chairman of the committee of arrangements. He slapped Michael Constantino in the face and was in turn struck with a club by Joseph Constantino, Mike's fourteen-year-old son. This led to the general melee and Sandolcino's face showed that it had been a target for a good many fists. As the clambake had been peaceful until his arrival and he was the cause of all the trouble, the five were let go. The court also considered that the beating Antino had received was sufficient punishment for him and sentence was suspended. The other prisoners taken were Patricio Janino, Antino Currato and Louis Velarde.

ANOTHER BASEBALL SERIES.

Elizabeth Agrees to Play Three Games With Plainfield.

Manager George Johnston, of the Plainfield A. C., has arranged a series of three games with Manager Frank Burks, of the Elizabethport Stars, the first of which will be played on Crescent Oval on Saturday. The second contest will be played on the oval on Saturday, October 8, and the third contest will be at Elizabeth on Saturday, October 22. By this arrangement, Saturday, October 15, is left open for the contest with the New York Nationals on the oval.

There will be no further contests with Somerville this season.

Dr. and Mrs. Franklin Warren White, of Boston, are the guests of Mrs. White's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry E. Bowen, of Watchung avenue.

SUNDAY-SCHOOL RALLIES

Annual Custom Followed Yesterday in Several Churches.

SPECIAL FEATURES

Services at the Park Avenue Baptist, Crescent Avenue, First M. E. and Congregational Schools.

Miss Florence G. Hawkins, superintendent, and George E. Hall, assistant superintendent, presided at the annual rally of the Sunday-school of the Park Avenue Baptist church yesterday afternoon. The rally day cards, which were tastily arranged in a frame at the upper end of the room, were distributed and the roll read by Mr. Hall, assisted by J. M. Hawkins and Harry Cumings. The primary class in particular showed a creditable record.

Rev. A. E. Finn delivered an address in which he advocated that each teacher should start a system of calling a roll of the names of the streets in which their pupils live. The latter would be expected to respond by giving the names of any new families who might have come to live in their neighborhood, who could then be visited and asked to send their children to Sunday-school.

Music was supplied by Whitney France, who rendered a cornet solo; Miss Vera Canfield, of Jersey City, Mrs. W. S. Lowry and Mrs. Charles Steiner, Miss Cora Brokaw, Charles VanWinkle and George F. Watts, who brought the proceedings to a pleasant close with quartette selections.

The rally day of the Congregational Sunday-school, yesterday afternoon, partook somewhat of the nature of a welcoming reception to the superintendent, Alexander Millar, who has recently returned from Germany.

In the first part of the service, a group of the younger children surrounded him on the platform and sang a welcoming song. To this Mr. Millar responded with a few words, expressing his pleasure at being home again, and referring briefly to his trip in Germany.

The service was in charge of the pastor, Rev. Charles L. Goodrich, who addressed the pupils. A quartette consisting of the following, rendered several selections: Miss Etta Raybert, soprano; Mrs. Ralph Miner, contralto; M. C. VanArsdale, tenor, and Stacy Reynolds, bass.

The Sunday-school of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church held its annual rally yesterday afternoon. In the absence of the secretary, no report was presented. The infant class rendered several songs and Rev. Dr. J. S. Zelie, the pastor, and George A. Strong, the superintendent, spoke. A special feature was a solo, "The Lord is Mindful of His People," which was rendered by Miss Hubbell.

Rally day exercises of a simple character were held under the auspices of the Sunday-school of the First M. E. church in Vincent chapel, yesterday afternoon, marking the change in the time of holding the sessions from morning to afternoon. The programme consisted of vocal solo by Mrs. Wentworth, contralto, and cornet solos by Miss Hilda Gaul. Then there was the roll call, 225 persons responding. Superintendent James R. Joy was in charge and he conducted an interesting review lesson. During the afternoon there were promotions in all of the departments of the school.

Bonn's Display of Millinery.

Of course, women are interested in all millinery openings, but there is one that they wait for especially and that is Bonn's, of West Front street. Mr. Bonn announces his fall and winter opening for tomorrow, Wednesday and Thursday, when he will show an exceptional line of the latest styles in millinery for both young and old. While Mr. Bonn carries a large assortment of ready-to-wear hats, he also trims hats to suit the purchaser.

Spellbinders at Work.

James E. Martine and Assemblyman S. S. Swackhamer spoke at a mass meeting held under the auspices of the Democratic Club, of Washington, N. J., at the place Saturday night. There was a big crowd present.

Borough Democrats to Meet.

The North Plainfield Democrats will meet at their old headquarters, at 79 Somerset street, Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, for the purpose of organizing a Parker and Davis campaign club.

Democratic Club Meeting.

An important meeting of the Plainfield Democratic Club will be held in the former I. O. T. Club rooms at North and Park avenues this evening. All members are asked to be in attendance.

PARKER'S VIGOROUS LETTER

In concluding his letter of acceptance, which will be found on pages 6 and 7, of this issue, Alton B. Parker, the Democratic candidate for President of the United States, says:

"I solicit the cordial co-operation and generous assistance of every man who believes that a change of measures and of men at this time would be wise, and urge harmony of endeavor as well as vigorous action on the part of all so minded.

"The issues are joined, and the people must render the verdict.

"Shall economy of administration be demanded or shall extravagance be encouraged?

"Shall the wrongdoer be brought to bay by the people, or must justice wait upon political oligarchy?

"Shall our government stand for equal opportunity or for special privilege?

"Shall it remain a government of law or become one of individual caprice?

"Shall we cling to the rule of the people, or shall we embrace beneficent despotism?

"With calmness and confidence we await the people's verdict."

COLORED MAN'S HORSE WON 2.24-CLASS EVENT

THREE RACES AT THE PLAINFIELD DRIVING PARK SATURDAY.

The first race, class 2:30, at the Driving Park on Saturday afternoon, was won by Dr. Gidden's Midget, who had an "walk over," in all heats. In class 2:40, Keenan's Pilotina Sphinx also gained an easy victory. Class 2:24, however, proved more exciting. The first heat was won by Brower's Albert L, but in the second he gave place to Moore's Lady West, a powerful but somewhat clumsy looking animal.

The third was won by Brantingham's The Lawyer, and as it was getting late when the time for the fourth heat to be run arrived, it was decided that it result should be final. It was the general opinion that The Lawyer would be victorious in the final heat, but at the last Lady West, who had been lagging behind, made a gallant spurt and came in first. E. V. Moore, her owner, is a colored man. The judges were J. W. Johnson and J. H. Green, of this city, and Nathan Robbins, of Metuchen, N. J., and the starter Edward Allen, of Flemington, N. J.

The following are the events and their results: Class 2:30—Dr. Gidden's Midget, 1st., 1st, 1st.; Carpenter's Miss Wheeler, 2d, 2d, 2d; Yournam's Seiger, 3d, 3d, 3d; J. Klotz's May Cost scratched. Time, 2 min. 29¾ sec., 2 min. 29¼ sec., 2 min. 28¼ sec.

Class 2:40 — Keenan's Pilotina Sphinx, 1st., 1st., 1st.; N. Smalley's Aloysia, 2d, 3d, 3d; Wood, Jr.'s Sadie Smith, 3d, 2d, 3d; Evans' Ruby Stranger, 4th, 4th, drawn. Time, 2 min. 34 sec., 2 min. 3 6 sec., 2 min. 3 2 sec.

Class 2:24—Moore's Lady West, 2d, 1st, 3d, 1st; Brantingham's The Lawyer, 3d, 3d, 1st, 2d; Brower's Albert L, 1st, 2d, 2d, 3d; D. Smalley's Ned Davis, 4th, drawn. Time, 2 min. 26¼ sec., 2 min. 27¼ sec., 2 min. 26½ sec., 2 min. 28 sec.

Golf Tournament to Begin.

VICTIM OF MALPRACTICE

Colored Woman's Death Result of Criminal Operation.

AN ARREST FOLLOWS

Louis Harris Makes Complete Confession When Taken Before the Body.

Alone in her apartments at 542 West Fourth street, Eva Weaver, an attractive young colored woman, died yesterday morning, the victim of a criminal operation performed upon her in New York city a short time ago. Circumstances in the case soon after the body was found led the police to investigate and the arrest of Louis Harris, a well known colored cook, was ordered by Chief Kiely. When confronted with facts and taken before the body, Harris made a complete confession and acknowledged that he was responsible for the trouble which led to the woman's submitting to malpractice. He is being held at police headquarters and will be turned over to the New York authorities this afternoon.

Mrs. Weaver came to this city from Richmond, Va., a year ago and despite the fact that Harris is married man with a family, he sought her company and was with her a great deal of the time. He occupied the lower part of the house at 542 West Fourth street and secured the upper apartments for her. Last month Mrs. Weaver went away from the place and did not return until two weeks ago. She had since been confined to her room and yesterday as one of Harris' children went to call on her, she was found dead in bed.

The body was removed to Cole's undertaking rooms and last evening an autopsy was performed by Drs. Lufburrow, Clawson and County Physician Westcott. Following the death, rumors of suicide, spread about the neighborhood, and this was generally believed until the doctors completed their examination. On the strength of their findings Harris was taken into custody. Members of the local colored churches are making an effort to raise funds to defray the expenses of burying the body.

Harris is well known throughout the city and is considered an excellent chef. For a long time he has been employed at local hotels and is credited with having made good wages, nearly all of which, the police say, was spent on women. He is a step-son of Rev. Scott Wallace, pastor of the Calvary Baptist church.

FRIENDS EMBARRASSED A PROSPECTIVE GROOM

N. G. CAMPBELL SHOWERED WITH RICE AND HIS TRUNK DECORATED.

Numbered among a big truck load of trunks which went out from the North Avenue station one morning last week, was one artistically decorated with pink ribbons and many forbelows that made the expressmen smile and look around for the owner. No one was in sight with which it could be connected and for the time being the embellishments remained a mystery. Many commuters who saw it were still further impressed with the fact that a wedding was "in the air" somewhere, when on the next afternoon, a young man was pursued through the Liberty street ferry houses and over to the Plainfield train by several young women who showered him with rice and confetti.

No blushing bride was with him and the mystery deepened until today when the trunk and the pursuit incidents were cleared up by the following announcement: "Miss Catherine A. Anthony, of Catawissa, Pa., and Nathan Garfield Campbell, of Prospect place, Plainfield, will be married in St. Matthew's Evangelical Lutheran church, Catawissa, Tuesday afternoon, September 27, at 3 o'clock."

Mr. Campbell is private secretary to Vice President W. G. Besler, of the New Jersey Central, and had sought to keep the fact of his coming marriage a secret but friends learned the state of affairs and had their little jokes before he got away.

Bible Society Meeting.

The annual meeting of the Somerset County Bible Society will be held at East Millstone, tomorrow. There will be representatives present from North Plainfield.

MISS CURRIE TELLS OF THE FRESH-AIR WORK

INTERESTS A LARGE CONGREGATION AT TRINITY REFORMED CHURCH.

Miss Sarah Currie, the superintendent of the Netherwood Fresh Air Home, and about twenty of the children under her charge, were present at Trinity church last evening, and took a prominent part in the service. Miss Currie came from New York with the children yesterday particularly for this service, and the youngsters' songs and recitations delighted a large and appreciative audience. The service was in charge of Rev. Dr. Cornelius Schenck.

There was no regular sermon last evening, but with the exception of brief addresses by Rev. Dr. George H. Whitney and Rev. Erskine M. Rodman, the service was devoted to Miss Currie's work. Miss Currie spoke at some length of the good which has been done at the Netherwood camp during the past year, and referred also to the work conducted in New York.

Miss Currie said that it was a mistaken idea that the children alone are reached through the work, referring to several cases where whole families have been brought under the helpful influence of the Home. She laid a special stress on the help which the mothers of the children have received, and in addition to a general description of the work, she quoted many interesting incidents in connection with the work conducted at the Netherwood Home during the summer. Miss Currie returned to New York after the service last evening.

At the conclusion of the service a collection was taken up and pledge cards circulated for the purpose of defraying a debt of about $200 for groceries and other supplies.

DEFECTIVE CHIMNEY CAUSES A $1,500 BLAZE

RESIDENCE ON THE BRUNSON FARM BURNED TO THE GROUND SATURDAY.

Evidently originating from a defective chimney, fire broke out in a residence on the former Vandeventer farm at Clinton avenue and Greenbrook road, Saturday evening, burning it to the ground. The place is owned by Augustus J. Brunson, of Crescent avenue, and the house was occupied by Samuel McMahon, who is in his employ. The flames were discovered by McMahon as he was returning from E. P. Gavin's place nearby, but they had already made great headway.

The borough department was summoned and the firemen responded only with the hose cart. Word was telephoned back and the engine was sent out, but it arrived too late to save the structure. The former Brunson residence and several barns nearby were in danger several times but were prevented from catching. The loss on the building is placed at $1,500 and in addition McMahon's furniture and 500 bushels of potatoes which he had stored in the cellar, were destroyed.

HIS NATAL DAY.

Thirty Friends of Arthur Ross Help Him Celebrate the Event.

Thirty friends of Arthur Ross, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ross, of Berckman street, tendered him a pleasant surprise party, Saturday evening, in honor of his twelfth birthday. The affair was arranged by the Misses Anna Martin, Helen Crook and Eleanor Gulberg and was a complete success in every respect. Music and games were features and supper was served at the close.

Among those present were the Misses Sarah Harper, Sadie Leahy, Sophia and Lillian Bows, Edna Johnson, Hazel Morrison, Dorothy Smith, Anna Smith, Helen Myers, Jennie and Gretchen Giebler, and John Harper, Robert Gulberg, Arthur Dunn, Fred Crook, Bergen Nailer, Harry Lievers, Joseph Green and John King.

CRANFORDS DEFEAT PARKS

Local Golf Team Outplayed in a Tournament Match.

WESTFIELD, 5; COLONIA, 5

Arthur Murphy Wins a Cup—Other Results on the Hillside and Park Club Courses.

The Park Golf Club team was defeated on Saturday on its own course by a team from the Cranford Golf Club, in the Central Jersey Golf League tournament. The visitors had much the better of the match, winning out by a score of 10 to 4. Rev. J. O. McKelvey, Gus. W. Faber and Herbert Rogers were the only ones on the local team to score, and the Cranfords won handily. The summary:

Cranford—F. W. Davis, 0; J. U. Edgcumbe, 0; O. W. Leighton, 3; L. M. Lyons, 3; J. L. Warner, 3; A. M. Edgcumbe, 0; K. Bigoney, 1. Total, 10.

Parks—Gus. W. Faber, 1; Rev. J. O. McKelvey, 2; C. O. Faber, 0; Charles A. Reed, 0; T. U. Dudley, 0; Herbert Rogers, 1; Samuel Townsend, 0. Total, 4.

In the weekly competition for the President's cup, Samuel Townsend and John L. Watson were tie for first place with a net score of 84, Nelson A. Miller finished second with a net score of 85, while Rev. Dr. H. K. Carroll and Gus. W. Faber divided the one remaining point, each making a net score of 89. For the Park Golf Club cup, Gus. W. Faber, Raymond B. Carroll and Nelson A. Miller took the points. These scores were posted:

Samuel Townsend, 97, 13—84; John L. Watson, 111, 27—84, Nelson A. Miller, 103, 18—85; Gus. W. Faber, 89, 0—89; Rev. Dr. H. K. Carroll, 105, 16—89; Raymond B. Carroll, 96, 5—91; Henry C. Wells, 106, 13—93; Charles L. Nichols, 115, 19—96.

An unusually large crowd of golfers were on the Hillside Tennis and Golf Club course on Saturday to take part in the various events scheduled, and the course was much improved. Arthur Murphy won a leg on the Men's Handicap cup with a net score of 76. These scores were posted:

Arthur Murphy, 84, 8—76; S. D. Lounsbery, 86, 8—78; W. L. Glenney, 77, plus 2—79; Dr. F. C. Ard, 88, 8—80; C. C. Burke, Jr., 98, 14—84.

In the weekly competition for the Golf Committee cup, A. L. Otterson won first honors with a net score of 74 and Arthur Murphy and S. D. Lounsbery finished second and third. These scores were posted:

A. L. Otterson, 92, 17—84; Arthur Murphy, 84, 8—76; S. D. Lounsbery, 86, 87—8; W. L. Glenney, 77, plus 2—79; C. B. Morgan, 85, 6—79; Dr. F. C. Ard, 88, 8—80; Willard Wadsworth, 88, 0—88; T. W. T. Maxwell, 111, 21—90.

For the Gaston cup these scores were returned:

A. L. Otterson, 92, 0—92; J. M. Uhler, 99, 3—96; Henry L. Hall, 98, 0—98; T. W. T. Maxwell, 111, 1—110.

Another match in the Central Jersey Golf League tournament was played on Saturday between teams from the Westfield and Colonia Golf Clubs. The match was played at Westfield and resulted in a tie, 5 to 5. The summary:

Westfield—Sherman, 0; Woodward, 0; Floyd, 2; Condit, 2; Cruse, 0; Trevvett, 0. Total, 5.

Colonia—Smith, 3; McIntosh, 2; Ward, 0; Brock, 0; Cruikshank, 0; Morris, 0. Total, 5.

The final round in the Governors competition was played on the Westfield course between Marshall Whitlatch and W. R. Davis. After playing eighteen holes the contestants halved the match and another eighteen holes will have to be played to decide it. H. E. Knight won the September handicap with a net score of 74.

A feature of the afternoon at the club was a euchre for the women, followed by a tea. Mrs. C. D. Orth won first prize and Mrs. H. W. Evans second prize.

Funeral of Charles S. Randolph.

Private funeral services over the body of Charles S. Randolph were held from his late home on Liberty street, Saturday evening. They were in charge of Rev. George B. Shaw, assisted by Rev. Dr. W. C. Snodgrass. Two selections were rendered by E. E. Runyon and William N. Runyon. The interment was made yesterday at Hillside cemetery.

Court Opens Tomorrow.

The September term of Somerset County courts will open at Somerville tomorrow. The list of Supreme and Circuit causes filed so far is a large one and there promises to be much work. Justice Garretson will preside, assisted by Judge Schenck.

POINTS FOR THE BUYERS

READY REFERENCES FOR THE LOCAL BARGAIN SEEKERS.

Were you inquiring for a good hotel? You can find no better than the Kensington. Don't put-up at a secondary hotel. Get in on the front rank.

Fred Ivamy's supply of fish is superior to anything which can be procured in the city. His salt and fresh water products are received daily.

John Wirth takes the cake for confectionery and pastry of all kinds. If you call at his headquarters, you'll take the cake yourself. Don't fail to make him a visit.

If your furnace needs attention before starting it this fall, better let A. H. Enander, of Park avenue, do the work. He is an expert in this work and will not overcharge you.

If you want milk, cream, eggs and butter that can always be relied upon, trade with Marchant Brothers, of North avenue, and you will have no trouble. Prompt deliveries are made to all parts of the city and vicinity.

Now that cold weather is coming on in earnest, it is time you were making arrangements for your coal supply, if you have done done so already. Boice, Runyon & Co., of Park avenue, will be ready to serve you at any time.

The First National Bank is founded on the strongest basis of any bank in this vicinity. Their capitalization exceeds that of the other city banks and their methods are founded strictly on business principles. Can you find a safer place to invest your money?

Notice the prices quoted in the advertising columns by the Atlantic and Pacific Tea Company on tea ad coffee. They will surprise you. You will be still more surprised, however, when you see the value of the goods for the amount of the price. The best coffee and tea in this city can be obtained at the A. and P. store.

Hill & Shupp, the West Front street dry goods merchants, are alive and up-to-date merchants and they are prepared for a big fall and winter trade. Every department is just filled with new and desirable goods, including dress goods, women's underwear, gloves, hosiery, men's wear and outing flannels, all at the lowest prices. In addition to the fine line of goods, valuable trading stamps are given to customers. These are worth a great deal.

SIXTY-SIX NOW DEAD

Southern Railway Wreck Horror Increases.

ENGINEER MAY HAVE SLEPT ON POST

Nothing Is Definitely Known Except That Orders Were Disobeyed by the Trainmen, Who Perished In the Collision.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Sept. 26.—One of the worst accidents that has ever happened in this state has occurred near Newmarket by which sixty-six people have been killed and 120 are reported more or less badly injured, several of whom will probably die.

Running on a roadbed in a supposedly high condition of maintenance and having about them every safeguard known to modern railroading, two trains on the Southern railway carrying heavy lists of passengers came together in a frightful head-on collision.

This appalling loss of life resulted apparently from the disregarding of orders given to the two trains to meet at a station which has for a long time been their regular meeting point.

The trains were due to pass at Hodges Station, but collided about one and a half miles west of that place, the westbound train running past the meeting point. Superintendent Loyall was in Chattanooga when the collision occurred and is en route to the wreck on a special train.

Every car in the eastbound train was demolished except the sleeper. Delong Rice of Nashville, Tenn., was riding in the sleeper with his two sons, and all escaped injury. Not one of the passengers on the westbound train was killed. A large number were going from Knoxville to Newmarket to attend the funeral of W. R. King, a prominent citizen of that place. James King, one of the dead, was a brother of W. R. King.

The death list as a result of the wreck will probably exceed seventy before tomorrow, as many of the injured are in a serious condition, and more deaths will occur at the hospital here. There have been six deaths already at that institution as the result of the collision, the last one occurring last night, when M. P. Gant, a prominent North Carolinian, residing at Shelby, N. C., passed away.

The track and equipment were in first class condition, and the crews were old and trusted employees, having been in the service of the company some twenty years.

The killed and injured occupied the coaches. There were four sleepers on the eastbound train, none of which left the rails, and their passengers were uninjured. Surgeons and nurses were promptly sent to the scene, and every attention is being given the injured.

Desperate Criminals Escaped.

BILLINGS, Mont., Sept. 26.—Ten prisoners, among them some of the most desperate criminals ever confined in the Yellowstone county prison, have made their escape from the jail here during the night and are still at large. The jailbreakers worked with great skill and quietness, and the escape probably would not have been discovered until morning had not the escaping men secured guns and held up J. W. Caughan, a business man, who was returning home. A posse is in pursuit.

Boston School Ablaze.

BOSTON, Sept. 26.—Eight persons were slightly injured and a property loss of about $125,000 was caused at a fire which practically destroyed the building used for St. Augustine's parochial school in South Boston. The loss is partly covered by insurance. No pupils were in the schoolhouse at the time. Those injured were foremen and spectators, who were more or less cut and bruised either by falls from ladders or by being struck by falling debris.

Box Factory Burned.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Sept. 26.—Fire that broke out in the Darling box factory in the north end destroyed the factory and the contents of the Harris lumber yard adjoining and damaged the Silver Springs bleachery and a small portion of the Corliss Engine company's plant. The loss is about $75,000. The flames spread threateningly and were not checked until practically all of the city's fire fighting apparatus had been brought into play.

Negro Confessed In Good Time.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Sept. 26.—The family of Judge James H. Mulligan, former United States consul to Samoa, has been saved from death by a negro servant breaking down just as a meal was being served and asking one of the family not to eat salmon salad which was ready to be served. A chemist afterward examined the salad and found it contained enough strychnine to kill fifty people.

A Railroad Man's Friend.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—Miss Helen Miller Gould will leave New York early next month for a twenty-three days' trip throughout the west and southwest to visit the Railroad Young Men's Christian associations along the line of the Gould roads. Miss Gould has shown much interest in the railroad men.

Five Dead, Cause Unknown.

A SECOND CONGRESS

Roosevelt Will Ask Nations to Join Peace Conference.

FOR GOOD WILL OVER ALL THE EARTH

Announcement Made at Reception In Washington to Interparliamentary Union Delegates Who Advocate Arbitration.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 26.—President Roosevelt has announced that at an early date he will ask the nations of the world to join in a second congress at The Hague for the promotion of arbitration.

The occasion of the announcement was the reception by the president of the delegates of the Interparliamentary Union, which recently held a session at St. Louis. At that session the following resolution was adopted unanimously:

"Whereas, Enlightened public opinion and the spirit of modern civilization alike demand that controversies between nations be settled in the same manner as disputes between individuals are settled—that is, by the judgment of the courts in accordance with recognized principles of law—this conference requests that the several governments of the world send delegates to the international conference to be convened at a time and place to be agreed upon by them for the consideration of the following questions:

"First.—Questions for the consideration of which the conference at The Hague expressed the wish that a future conference be called.

"Second.—The negotiation of arbitration treaties between the nations represented at the conference to be convened.

"Third.—The advisability of creating a congress of nations to convene periodically for the discussion of international questions.

"And respectfully and cordially requests the president of the United States to invite all the nations to send representatives to such a conference."

Dr. Gobat, the president of the union, introduced the assemblage to the president and stated in brief the object of their meeting. He spoke in part as follows:

"The Interparliamentary union, which they represent, is composed of members of national legislative bodies who believe that peace between the several nations is just as desirable as peace between individuals of one and the same nation and that peace can be secured and maintained by exactly the same means—namely, by arbitration."

In response to Dr. Gobat's speech President Roosevelt delivered the following address:

"Gentlemen of the Interparliamentary union, I greet you with profound pleasure as representatives in a special sense of the great international movement for peace and good will among the nations of the earth. It is a matter of gratification to all Americans that we have had the honor of receiving you here as the nation's guests. You are men skilled in the practical work of government in your several countries, and this fact adds weight to your championship of the cause of international justice. I thank you for your kind allusions to what the government of the United States has accomplished for the policies you have at heart, and I assure you that this government's attitude will continue unchanged in reference thereto. We are even now making steps to secure arbitration treaties with all other governments which are willing to enter into them with us.

"In response to your resolution I shall at an early date ask the other nations to join in a second congress at The Hague. I feel, as I am sure you do, that our efforts should take the shape of pushing forward toward completion the work already begun at The Hague and that whatever is now done should appear not as something divergent therefrom, but as a continuance thereof. At the first conference at The Hague several questions were left unsettled, and it was expressly provided that there should be a second conference. A reasonable time has elapsed, and I feel that your body has shown sound judgment in concluding that a second conference should now be called to carry some steps farther toward completion the work of the first.

"At an early date I shall issue the call for the conference you request. I again greet you and bid you welcome in the name of the American people and wish you God speed in your efforts for the common good of mankind."

Chicago's Excellent Play.

CHICAGO, Sept. 26.—A base on balls, a single and Green's triple gave the American locals two runs in the third inning, and two singles, a stolen base and Callahan's double added two more in the fifth. Two singles and a base on balls filled the bases for the visitors in the first inning, but White held them from scoring by excellent work and perfect support. Score: Chicago, 4; Philadelphia, 0.

Guards Withdrawn From Lynchers.

HUNTSVILLE, Ala., Sept. 26.—On the advice of Judge Speake of the circuit court orders were given for the militia to break camp and return to Birmingham. The guard at the jail was taken off, and the company has left for home. It is extremely improbable that there will be any more trouble during the trials of alleged lynchers.

Mang Broke World's Record.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—Louis Mang broke the world's record of 35 feet 8¾ inches for three standing jumps, held by Ray Emry of the New York Athletic club, by an inch and a quarter at the Mohawk and Mott Haven Athletic clubs' games at Mott Haven.

Sunday Excursion to Mauch Chunk.

There is no more popular resort for a Sunday than Mauch Chunk, and to reach it entails a delightful rail journey, and at Mauch Chunk there is a diversity of amusements, the chief of which is a ride over the Switchback. This journey occupies more than one hour, and leads over and around the mountains with widely changing scenes at every turn. The Switchback is a gravity road, and the speed attained is close to a mile per minute. Another feature is Flagstaff, the summit of which is reached by trolley, and from its pinnacle point there is a view extending over miles and miles of beautiful country. An interesting spot close at hand is Glen Onoko, a short distance above Mauch Chunk, and as it name implies, is a beautiful glen, with falls, cataracts, mountain paths leading to cool and delightful peaces. On October 2, 1904, the New Jersey Central is to run a popular excursion to Mauch Chunk from Plainfield by special train leaving at 9:20 a. m. Returning train will leave Mauch Chunk at 5:40 p. m., and the round trip will cost but $1.50. Frequent train service will be in effect between Mauch Chunk and Glen Onoko, and trains on the Switchback run every few minutes. 9 22 9 o

The New Floor Coverings.

Newark has never seen within her borders such a meritorious collection of acceptable patterns and tones as these:

We show all the leading Carpet numbers in full lines; not in sample rolls as do most other stores. We redeem in the department all the promises we make in print. Fully three times more the number of rolls of Carpet, Matting, Linoleums and Oilcloth displayed elsewhere.

Our Rug section contains a greater collection than ever. The Orient and Occident alike are represented here. Rugs big enough to cover the floor of a large room, or small enough for devotional purposes, are in our stock. Please note the fact that our rugs are bought and sold by experts of many years experience. Prices are not excessive.

Brussels Carpets
Our Body Brussels Carpets come from the most reliable manufacturers in America. They are perfect in warp and woof, and very handsome. Prices, per yard, 1.35 to 1.50

Tapestry Carpets
We sell Tapestry Carpets of the best makes only. They are very satisfactory for wear and lasting good appearance. We sell them, per yard, at 75c, 85c, 95c

SIX FORTS TAKEN.

Japanese Grip on Port Arthur Tightening.

ORLOFF DISGRACED FOR LIAOYANG.

Russian General's Desire to Engage the Enemy Spoiled Kuropatkin's Plan of Defense—He Loses His Command.

LONDON, Sept. 26.—It is reported from Tokyo that the Japanese have captured six forts in the second line of defense at Port Arthur. The hope of a speedy reduction of the fortress is running high.

A Chefu report says that as a result of the battle before Port Arthur the Japanese have succeeded in capturing several important positions, and now the Russian tenure of the big forts guarding the north, northeast and northwest sides of the town is seriously threatened. Chinese information places the Japanese losses under 3,000 for three days' fighting, and this comparatively small casualty list is due to the excessive care used by the Japanese in making their preparations for the advance. Russian sources, however, claim to have information that the Japanese losses were unusually severe, amounting to fully three times the number mentioned. Possibly the most important capture during the three days' fighting was that of Fort Kuropatkin, which, while of minor value with regard to preventing the entrance into the town of the Japanese, has been constructed for the purpose of protecting the source of the garrison's water supply. The control of this water supply is now in the hands of the Japanese.

A St. Petersburg report says that Major General Orloff, whose precipitancy in leaving Yentai to join in the attack on the heights of Sykwantun left flank and necessitated the abandonment of Liaoyang, will be detached from the Manchurian army and given another command in European Russia or perhaps he may be retired.

The detachment of General Orloff was ordered by General Kuropatkin, who has full power to do so without resorting to a court martial. The official report that Brigadier General Fomin of General Orloff's division was dead and the subsequent development that he is only severely wounded reveals the extent of confusion into which Orloff's division was thrown. General Fomin is in hospital at Harbin.

The rumor of cholera at Port Arthur received by a naval officer at Tsintau has caused the deepest concern in naval and military circles. It is hoped, however, that, even if the report is true, the outbreak will turn out to be a mild one and that it will be quickly checked by rigid discipline and the isolation of suspicious cases. Port Arthur has been free from cholera for several years, thanks to constant precautions.

A special dispatch from St. Petersburg says that Emperor Nicholas has sent the following autograph letter to General Grippenberg:

"The intense energy with which Japan is conducting the war and the stubbornness and high warlike qualities displayed by the Japanese impel me to considerably strengthen the forces at the front in order to attain decisive success in the shortest possible time.

"Since by this increase the units will reach a figure making their continuance in one army impossible without prejudice to the proper direction, maneuvering and mobility of the troops, I have found it necessary to divide the active forces in Manchuria into two armies, leaving one in the hands of General Kuropatkin. I appoint you to command the second. Your many years' service in warlike exploits and your wide experience in training troops assure me that you, following the general directions of the commander in chief, will successfully lead to the attainment of the objects of the war the army intrusted to you.

"God bless you for your great and glorious services to me and to Russia."

General Grippenberg is sixty-six years of age. He served in the Crimean war and distinguished himself in the Polish insurrection of 1863 and in the Turkestan campaign of 1867-68, and for his part in the latter he received the St. George's cross and a sword of honor. He commanded the Moscow guards regiment in the Turko-Russian war and in that conflict was promoted to the rank of major general.

The appointment of General Grippenberg and the reorganization of the army amounts to formal notice to the world, as the emperor frankly explains, that he intends to vastly increase the number of troops at the theater of war in order to force the struggle to a successful issue in the shortest possible time. It is intended to silence definitely all talk of foreign intervention by the announcement that Russia means to fight out the issue with Japan on the field of battle. Probably 300,000 additional men will be placed in the field.

German Prince For the Front.

TOKYO, Sept. 26.—Prince Charles of Hohenzollern has arrived here and was given an official welcome. He will meet certain high Japanese officials here, after which he will join the Japanese forces in the field without loss of time.

Burglars Got Thirty Cents.

UTICA, N. Y., Sept. 26.—Burglars blew the safe in the office of the Barber Asphalt Paving company in this city early yesterday morning and in doing so wrecked the small building. They got 30 cents, but the safe valued at $200, was ruined.

Plainfield, N. J., Sept. 26, 1904.

Mr. Parker's letter of acceptance, published in another column, is a masterly presentation of the Democratic claims for ousting the present administration and furnishes further proof of the lofty character of the standard bearer of the minority party. It is entirely free from "mud-slinging" and is a refreshing political document in that respect at least. His answer to Mr. Roosevelt's challenge in regard to the latter's arbitrary pension order, shows very clearly that Mr. Parker is of the type of statesmen who "would rather be right than be President" if it came to a question of sacrificing his chances for success for the sake of principle and honor. The majority of the New York papers sound Mr. Parker's praises for having issued such a direct, vigorous and wholesome contribution to campaign literature.

In declaring that he will take the Democratic nomination for Congress in the Fifth district if it is given to him unanimously, Farmer Orator James E. Martine has again silenced the slanderous report that he has become tired of going to the aid of his party in its hour of distress.—Newark Evening News.

And that is the greatest fault James E. Martine has. For the last thirty or forty years he has been spending his time and money in aiding the Democratic party. In return he has received some empty nominations; nominations given when there was little or no chance of success. Mr. Martine is too experienced a politician not to know that while he will receive a flattering vote in Plainfield and other places in the district where he is known and admired, he will be defeated by Mr. Fowler if named as the Democratic candidate in the Fifth district. "Jim" should be saved from his friends.

BEHIND CLOSED PORTALS

DOINGS OF THE LOCAL FRATERNAL ORDERS.

There will be a district meeting of Odd Fellows at Perth Amboy tomorrow night and both Plainfield Lodge, No. 44 and Queen City Lodge, No. 26, I. O. O. F., of this city, will be largely represented.

Plainfield Council, No. 711, Royal Arcanum, is planning to hold a banquet at Truell Inn on Wednesday night, October 12, for members only. The affair will be in charge of the entertainment committee.

Charles P. Russ and William D. Wolfskeil, of Elizabeth, were crowned thirty-third degree masons at the annual communication of the Supreme Council which closed in Boston on Thursday last after a session of three days. Seventeen New Jersey men were present. Admission to this degree is the highest honor which a mason can obtain.

Representatives from every council of the Catholic Benevolent Legion in this State will gather at Notre Dame Hall, Paterson, on Oct. 11, where this year's convention is to be held.

Before beginning the business of the day the delegates will assist at mass at St. John's church, United Paterson councils will act as a reception committee, and in the evening will tender to the visitors a banquet, for which preparations have not as yet been completed.

State President William J. Healy, of Harmony Council, Orange, will preside, and he will be assisted in carrying out the work of the convention by the State officers.

Rev. Mr. Pearson to Speak.

Rev. George P. Pearson, a returned missionary from Japan, will give an address in Warren chapel tomorrow evening. He is a decidedly interesting speaker and this will probably be the only opportunity Plainfielders will have to hear him. Mr. Pearson is one of the most prominent missionaries in the Presbyterian church and is supported by the Young People's Societies in the Elizabeth Presbytery.

Sunday, October 2, will be rally day for the Sunday-school at the First Baptist church.

CITY JOTTINGS.

—Patrick Connoly has accepted a position at Pond Machine Tool Co.

—Work at the Standard Surgical Works is very slack at the present time.

—Allie Farrell, of Rahway, has accepted a position with a local druggist as clerk.

—City taxes will be due on December 20 and not December 15. Heretofore, the taxes have been due on November 20, but a new State law changed the date to December 20.

—The Northeastern Telephone Company, whose poles have been placed along the outskirts of Rahway, has been held up two miles east of Millstone, being unable, as yet, to get the right of way. The company is engaged in building a trunk line across the State.

DEMONSTRATION

Your attendance at the exhibit and demonstration of THE "ARNOLD" GOODS For Women's, Infants' and Children's Wear, is earnestly requested, and we think it will well repay you.

A lady representative of the Novelty Knitting Co., who is an experienced demonstrator, will be with us for several days, beginning this week, to exhibit and explain the merits and points of superiority of these popular garments without importuning you to purchase.

The KNIT SPECIALTIES are endorsed and recommended by prominent physicians, and are widely known as REFORM GARMENTS of the highest character. They are healthful, sensible and serviceable.

The WOVEN GARMENTS are designed especially for beauty, comfort and economy. The "Arnold" Goods comprise in part:

WOMEN'S Accouchment Bands, Maternity Robes, Serviette Napkins and Belts, Knit Boudoom Slippers, Flannel Night Robes, Umbrella Drawers, etc.

CHILDREN'S Night Drawers with or without feet, Day Drawers, Night Gowns, etc.

INFANTS' Gertrude Suits, Diapers, Bands, Vests, Bibs, Night Gowns, Wrappers, Leglets, Bath Aprons, a complete Knit Outfit for $12.75, etc.

Even if not in present need of any of these goods, we trust it will be your pleasure to call upon us while the demonstrator is here, that she may be allowed to explain their merits and show you the large variety we carry in stock.

SUBURBAN NEWS.

DUNELLEN AND VICINITY

The local baseball cranks are very much dissatisfied over the outcome of Saturday's game with Clinton Avenue. Everyone was sure that the locals would win, and this made the disappointment greater than it otherwise would have been.

A football league has been formed in which the O. F. C., of Plainfield, a professional team from Westfield and the local football team will play. A silver loving cup has been offered by Harry Dreier, of Plainfield, to the winning team.

A crowd of young men walked to Washington Rock yesterday morning and played an exciting game of baseball. After the game they drank some of the refreshing soft drinks which are sold there.

The football team plays its first game at Somerville this Saturday. The lineup has not been given out as yet, but Captain Maltbie expects to have it after the practice tomorrow night.

Marshal Mohen arrested Fred Miner, of Plainfield, Friday, for being drunk and disorderly. When brought before Recorder Campbell he was fined $3.

A bowling contest was held Saturday night on Taylor's alleys between "Shorty" Alberts and Charles Lake. Alberts won by the score of 39 37.

Dory Apgar expects to complete his houses in Garwood in a few days, and from there he will go to Montclair where he will build three more.

Fred Ward, formerly of Dunellen, but now of Newark, spent Saturday and Sunday with Walter Craig, of Front street.

"Shorty" Alberts has accepted a government position in South America and will start for that place on November 16.

George Huff and family drove to Duke Park yesterday, where they spent the day looking around the place.

Walter Law has started in the tea and coffee business with his office at his home on Washington avenue.

Fred Giddes and Leon Spangler, of Philadelphia, spent Saturday at the home of the former's parents.

Work will be begun tomorrow morning on the stone flagging in front of the postoffice.

Joseph Hague and family have gone to St. Louis, where they will visit the exhibition.

George Apgar was confined to his home on Sunday by a slight illness.

Mrs. P W. Brakeley is spending this week in Easton, Pa.

LAINS AND FANWOOD.

One of the best games of baseball played on the local diamond this season was the contest Saturday afternoon between the local team and the Potter A. C. team, of Mount Pleasant. The local team won by 4 to 2. This was the deciding game of the series between these teams, each having won a game. Frentz and Baldwin were the battery used by the home team, while the Terry brothers were in the points for the visitors. But few errors were made by either team and the battle was a good clean game of amateur baseball which kept the spectators on edges until the last man was retired.

It was a hard game the local baseball cranks saw the P. A. C. team lose at Recreation Park, Saturday afternoon. Garvin pitched winning ball, but Umpire Watts' decisions at critical stages of the game were way off color, according to the decision of the local lovers of the game. This was the deciding game of the series, as Westfield has won six games to the P. A. C.'s four, but this hardly gives Manager Denman the county championship as the Aeolians have won their series against him and in turn have lost three straight games to the P. A. C.

The sale of delinquent tax properties which was advertised to be held Saturday afternoon in the Town Hall, did not take place as Special Collector Henry Guerrier was the only one present outside of those who were on hand to settle up or buy in their properties. So the sale was adjourned. In all, four came forward and settled in full for all claims against them and the properties were released.

Rev. Mr. Lissendum, of Freehold, and Rev. G. M. Shott, of the Baptist church, exchanged pulpits Sunday. Rev. Mr. Lissendum preached two able sermons which were enjoyed by large audiences, both services being well attended.

The weekly meeting of the B. Y. P. U. was held as usual last night at the Baptist church, the time being devoted to a song and praise service as prelude to the evening preaching service which followed.

Arthur Haskard, Edward L. Hand and Philip Jahn were interested spectators at the New York-Pittsburg National League game at the Polo Grounds Saturday afternoon.

Charles Elliott has entered Rutgers College, being a member of the class of '08. Charley has lived through his first week of hazing although he bears the marks of battles fought.

No Sunday ball game was played at Berkely Heights yesterday, so the local lovers of the game were obliged to journey to Elizabethport to witness the Star A. C. game.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Hollingsworth, of West Fourth street, spent Sunday with Mr. Hollingsworth's father, Loftus Hollingsworth, of Johnston's Drive.

Miss Nancy Wade had charge of the monthly missionary meeting of the Epworth League, held last night at the Methodist church.

Miss Loretta Kennedy, of East Front street, has been entertaining New York friends over Saturday and Sunday.

The Misses Heusten, of Cranford, have been visiting their cousins, the Misses Marsh, of Park avenue.

Miss Hattie Dobbins, of Kearney, has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. Ann Dobbins, of East Front street.

Robert and Lynus Walpole spent Saturday at the Passaic River fishing.

Henry Marsh, of Sandford avenue, spent Sunday with friends in town.

Miss Mary Jahn has returned from a visit with Newark friends.

SOUTH PLAINFIELD.

Mrs. Fanny Hamilton left here yesterday for Lehighton, Pa., where she will make her future home.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Linnabury and son visited friends in New Brunswick Saturday night and Sunday.

W. F. Hamilton, of Lehighton, Pa., spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Mundy.

Mrs. J. A. Cubberley and daughter will spend today and tomorrow at Trenton.

Miss Elizabeth Smith is entertaining a friend from out of town.

William Hamilton visited friends in Amboy yesterday.

5TH DIST. CONVENTION AT MORRISTOWN TOMORROW

CHARLES N. FOWLER TO BE RENOMINATED BY REPUBLICANS.

Plainfield's delegates to the Fifth Congressional convention of the Republican party to be held at Morristown tomorrow, will make the trip in autos and carriages, leaving from North avenue, opposite the station, at 9 o'clock in the morning. The Union county caucus will be held at the headquarters at Morristown at 11:30 and the convention will be called to order at noon.

Former Governor Foster M. Voorhees, of Elizabeth, will place Congressman Charles N. Fowler's name in nomination and it will be seconded by Morris and Warren counties. James T. MacMurray, of this city, will be the secretary of the convention.

Received Present of a Cotton Plant.

Chauncey F. Colthar, of Duer street, received a nice present through the mail last week. It came from George M. Park, of Emerson, Georgia, and consisted of a box of cotton just picked from the plantation, some of the pods still unbroken. Mr. Park was for years a resident of this city, where he lived on Duer street, and many of his friends here have received similar remembrances from him at different times. Mr. Park is at present the postmaster of Emerson, and has filled that capacity for several years.

They're Champion Whittlers.

Samuel Barmore and wife, champion whittlers of the world, will be in Levy Bros.' windows all this week, whittling photograph holders out of common pine wood. The holders will be given as souvenirs on the firm's fall opening day next Saturday.

Alton B. Parker's Letter of Acceptance

Sept. 26, 1904.

To the Hon. Champ Clark and Others, Committee, Etc.:

Gentlemen—In my response to your committee at the formal notification proceedings I referred to some matters not mentioned in this letter. I desire that these be considered as incorporated herein, and regret that lack of space prevents specific reference to them all. I wish here, however, again to refer to my views there expressed as to the gold standard, to declare again my unqualified belief in said standard and to express my appreciation of the action of the convention in reply to my communication upon that subject.

Grave public questions are pressing for decision. The Democratic party appeals to the people with confidence that its position on these questions will be accepted and indorsed at the polls. While the issues involved are numerous, some stand forth pre-eminent in the public mind. Among these are tariff reform, imperialism, economical administration and honesty in the public service. I shall briefly consider these and some others within the necessarily prescribed limits of this letter.

Imperialism.

While I presented my views at the notification proceedings concerning this vital issue, the overshadowing importance of this question impels me to refer to it again. The issue is oftentimes referred to as constitutionalism versus imperialism.

If we would retain our liberties and constitutional rights unimpaired we cannot permit or tolerate at any time or for any purpose the arrogation of unconstitutional powers by the executive branch of our government. We should be ever mindful of the words of Webster, "Liberty is only to be preserved by maintaining constitutional restraints and a just division of political powers."

Already the national government has become centralized beyond any point contemplated or imagined by the founders of the constitution. How tremendously all this has added to the power of the president! It has developed from year to year until it almost equals that of many monarchs. While the growth of our country and the magnitude of interstate interests may seem to furnish a plausible reason for this centralization of power, yet these same facts afford the most potent reason why the executive should not be permitted to encroach upon the other departments of the government and assume legislative or other powers not expressly conferred by the constitution.

The magnitude of the country and its diversity of interests and population would enable a determined, ambitious and able executive, unmindful of constitutional limitations and fired with the lust of power, to go far in the usurpation of authority and the aggrandizement of personal power before the situation could be fully appreciated or the people be aroused.

The issue of imperialism which has been thrust upon the country involves a decision whether the law of the land or the rule of individual caprice shall govern. The principle of imperialism may give rise to brilliant, startling, dashing results, but the principle of democracy holds in check the brilliant executive and subjects him to the sober, conservative control of the people.

The people of the United States stand at the parting of the ways. Shall we follow the footsteps of our fathers along the paths of peace, prosperity and contentment, guided by the ever living spirit of the constitution which they framed for us, or shall we go along other and untried paths hitherto shunned by all, following blindly new ideals which, though appealing with brilliancy to the imagination and ambition, may prove a will-o'-the-wisp, leading us into difficulties from which it may be impossible to extricate ourselves without lasting injury to our national character and institutions?

The Tariff and Trusts.

Tariff reform is one of the cardinal principles of the Democratic faith, and the necessity for it was never greater than at the present time. It should be undertaken at once in the interest of all our people.

The Dingley tariff is excessive in many of its rates and, as to them at least, unjustly and oppressively burdens the people. It secures to domestic manufacturers, singly or in combination, the privilege of exacting excessive prices at home and prices far above the level of sales made regularly by them abroad with profit, thus giving a bounty to foreigners at the expense of our own people. It levies oppressive and unjust taxes upon many articles forming in whole or part the so called raw material of many of our manufactured products, not only burdening the consumer, but also closing to the manufacturer the markets he needs and seeks abroad. Its unjust taxation burdens the people generally, forcing them to pay excessive prices for food, fuel, clothing and other necessaries of life. It levies duties on many articles not normally imported in any considerable amount which are made extensively at home, for which the most extreme protectionist would hardly justify protective taxes, and which in large amounts are exported. Such duties have been and will continue to be a direct incentive to the formation of huge industrial combinations, which, secure from foreign competition, are enabled to stifle domestic competition and proceed to monopolize the home market.

It contains many duties imposed for the express purpose only, as was openly avowed, of furnishing a basis for reduction by means of reciprocal trade treaties, which the Republican administration, impliedly at least, promised to negotiate. Having on this promise secured the increased duties, the Republican party leaders, spurred on by protected interests, defeated the treaties negotiated by the executive, and now these same interests cling to the benefit of these duties which the people never intended they should have and to which they have no moral right.

Even now the argument most frequently urged in behalf of the Dingley tariff and against tariff reform generally is the necessity of caring for our infant industries. Many of these industries after a hundred years of lusty growth are looming up as industrial giants. In their case at least the Dingley tariff invites combination and monopoly and gives justification to the expression that the tariff is the mother of trusts.

For the above mentioned reasons, among many others, the people demand reform of these abuses, and such reform demands and should receive immediate attention.

The two leading parties have always differed as to the principle of customs taxation. Our party has always advanced the theory that the object is the raising of revenue for support of the government whatever other results may incidentally flow therefrom. The Republican party, on the other hand, contends that customs duties should be levied primarily for protection, so called, with revenue as the subordinate purpose, thus using the power of taxation to build up the business and property of the few at the expense of the many.

This difference of principle still subsists, but our party appreciates that the long continued policy of the country, as manifested in its statutes, makes it necessary that tariff reform should be prudently and sagaciously undertaken on scientific principles, to the end that there should not be an immediate revolution in existing conditions.

In the words of our platform we demand "a revision and a gradual reduction of the tariff by the friends of the masses, and for the common weal, and not by the friends of its abuses, its extortions and discriminations."

It is true that the Republicans, who do not admit in their platform that the Dingley tariff needs the slightest alteration, are likely to retain a majority of the federal senate throughout the next presidential term and could, therefore, if they chose, block every attempt at legislative relief. But it should be remembered that the Republican party includes many revisionists, and I believe it will shrink from defying the popular will expressed unmistakably and peremptorily at the ballot box.

The people demand reform of existing conditions. Since the last Democratic administration the cost of living has grievously increased. Those having fixed incomes have suffered keenly; those living on wages, if there has been any increase, know that such increase has not kept pace with the advance in the cost of living, including rent and the necessaries of life. Many today are out of work, unable to secure any wages at all. To alleviate these conditions in so far as is in our power should be our earnest endeavor.

Trust Remedies.

I pointed out in my earlier response the remedy which, in my judgment, can effectually be applied against monopolies, and the assurance was then given that if existing laws, including both statute and common law, proved inadequate, contrary to my expectations, I favor such further legislation within constitutional limitations as will best promote and safeguard the interests of all the people.

Whether there is any common law which can be applied and enforced by the federal courts cannot be determined by the president or by a candidate for the presidency.

The determination of this question was left by the people in framing the constitution to the judiciary and not to the executive. The supreme court of the United States has recently considered this question, and, in the case of the Western Union Telegraph company versus the Call Publishing company, to be found in the one hundred and eighty-first volume of the United States supreme court reports, at page 92, it decided that common law principles could be applied by United States courts in cases involving interstate commerce in the absence of United States statutes specifically covering the case. Such is the law of the land.

Reciprocity.

In my address to the notification committee I said that tariff reform "is demanded by the best interests of both manufacturer and consumer." With equal truth it can be said that the benefits of reciprocal trade treaties would enure to both. That the consumer would be helped is unquestionable. That the manufacturer would receive great benefit by extending his markets abroad hardly needs demonstration. His productive capacity has outgrown the home market. The very term "home market" has changed in its significance. Once, from the manufacturers' point of view, it meant expansion; today the marvelous growth of our manufacturing industries has far exceeded the consumptive capacity of our domestic markets, and the term "home market" implies contraction rather than expansion. If we would run our mills to their full capacity, thus giving steady employment to our workmen and securing to them and to the manufacturer the profits accruing from increased production, other markets must be found. Furthermore, when our manufacturers are dependent on raw materials in whole or part imported, it is vital to the extension of their markets abroad that they secure their materials on the most favorable terms.

Our martyred president, William McKinley, appreciated this situation. He pointed out in his last address to the people that we must make sensible trade arrangements if "we shall extend the outlets for our increasing surplus." He said: "A system which provides a mutual exchange of commodities is manifestly essential to the continued and healthful growth of our export trade. * * * The period of exclusiveness is past. The expansion of our trade and commerce is the pressing problem. Commercial wars are unprofitable. A policy of good will and friendly relations will prevent reprisals. Reciprocity treaties are in harmony with the spirit of the times; measures of retaliation are not."

This argument was made in the interest of our manufacturers, whose products, he urged, "have so multiplied that the problem of more markets requires our urgent and immediate attention." He had come to realize that the so called stand pat policy must give way; that there must be a reduction of duties to enable our manufacturers to cultivate foreign markets. The last words of this president, who had won the affection of his countrymen, ought to be studied by every man who has any doubt of the necessity of a reduction in tariff rates in the interest of the manufacturer. They present with clearness a situation and a proposed remedy that prompted the provision in our platform which declares that "we favor liberal trade arrangements with Canada and with peoples of other countries where they can be entered into with benefit to American agriculture, manufactures, mining or commerce."

The persistent refusal of the Republican majority in the federal senate to ratify the reciprocity treaties negotiated in pursuance of the policy advocated alike by Mr. Blaine and Mr. McKinley, and expressly sanctioned in the Dingley act itself, is a discouraging exhibition of bad faith. As already mentioned by me, the exorbitant duty imposed on many an imported article by the Dingley tariff was avowedly intended by its author not to be permanent, but to serve temporarily as a maximum, from which the federal government was empowered to offer a reduction in return for an equivalent concession on the part of a foreign country. President McKinley undertook honestly to carry out the purpose of the act. A number of reciprocity agreements were negotiated, which, if ratified, would have had the twofold result of cheapening many imported products for American consumers and of opening and enlarging foreign markets to American producers. Not one of those agreements has met with the approval of the Republican masters of the senate. Indeed they did not even permit their consideration. In view of the attitude of the present executive, no new agreement need be expected from him. Nor does the Republican platform contain a favorable reference to one of the suspended treaties. The reciprocity clauses of the Dingley act seem destined to remain a monument of legislative cozenage and political bad faith unless the people take the matter in their own hands at the ballot box and command a reduction of duties in return for reciprocal concessions.

Independence For the Filipinos.

In some quarters it has been assumed that in the discussion of the Philippine question in my response the phrase "self government" was intended to mean something less than independence. It was not intended that it should be understood to mean nor do I think as used it does mean less than independence. However, to eliminate all possibility for conjecture I now state that I am in hearty accord with that plank in our platform that favors doing for the Filipinos what we have already done for the Cubans, and I favor making the promise to them now that we shall take such action as soon as they are reasonably prepared for it. If independence such as the Cubans enjoy cannot be prudently granted to the Filipinos at this time, the promise that it shall come the moment they are capable of receiving it will tend to stimulate rather than hinder their development. And this should be done not only in justice to the Filipinos, but to preserve our own rights, for a free people cannot withhold freedom from another people and themselves remain free. The toleration of tyranny over others will soon breed contempt for freedom and self government and weaken our power of resistance to insidious usurpation of our constitutional rights.

American Citizenship.

The pledge of the platform to secure to our citizens, without distinction of race or creed, whether native born or naturalized, at home and abroad, the equal protection of the laws and the enjoyment of all the rights and privileges open to them under the covenants of our treaties, as their just due, should be made good to them. In the accomplishment of that result it is essential that a passport issued by the government of the United States to an American citizen shall be accepted the world over as proof of citizenship.

Civil Service.

The statute relating to civil service is the outcome of the efforts of thoughtful, unselfish and public spirited citizens. Operation under it has frequently been of such a character as to offend against the spirit of the statute, but the results achieved, even under a partial enforcement of the law, have been such as to both deserve and command the utterance of the Democratic party that it stands committed to the principle of civil service reform and demands its just and impartial enforcement.

Reclamation of Arid Lands.

A vast expanse of country in the west, portions of which are to be found in each of the sixteen states and territories, mentioned in the law, is directly affected by the national statute—the outcome of intelligent and persistent efforts of leading citizens, providing for the reclamation of the arid lands for the benefit of home seekers. During the years of the development of the measure which finally received the vote of every member of the upper house of congress it encountered opposition, based to a large extent upon the view that the aim of its promoters was to secure the benefits of irrigation to private owners at government expense. The aim of the statute is, however, to enable this vast territory to reclaim its arid lands without calling upon the taxpayers of the country at large to pay for it. Whether the purposes of the bill will be fully accomplished must depend in large measure upon the ability, sobriety of judgment, independence and honesty of the officers of the interior department having this great work in charge.

In 1902 the main canals and ditches in the region affected aggregated more than 50,000 miles, and the work of reclamation is but in its infancy. The total cost of construction of the necessary head gates, dams, main canals, ditches, reservoirs and pumping stations was at that time a little over $93,000,000, which of itself suggests the hundreds of millions that may eventually be invested in the territory covered by the statute. The magnitude of the conception and the enormous expense its carrying out involves make us realize the overwhelming importance of a broad, capable and honest administration of the work authorized by the statute if effect is to be given to that part of the plan that relieves the country at large from ultimate liability.

Panama Canal.

An isthmian canal has long been the hope of our statesmen and the avowed aim of the two great parties, as their platforms in the past show. The Panama route having been selected, the building of the canal should be pressed to completion with all reasonable expedition.

The methods by which the executive acquired the Panama canal route and rights are a source of regret to many. To them the statement that thereby a great public work was assured to the profit of our people is not a sufficient answer to the charge of violation of national good faith. They appreciate that the principles and healthy convictions which in their working out have made us free and great stand firmly against the argument or suggestion that we shall be blind to the nature of the means employed to promote our welfare. They hold that adherence to principle, whether it works for our good or ill, will have a more beneficent influence on our future destiny than all our material upbuilding, and that we should ever remember that the idea of doing a wrong to a smaller, weaker nation that we, or even all mankind, may have a resultant good is repugnant to the principles upon which our government was founded.

Under the laws of the United States the duty is imposed on the executive to proceed with due diligence in the work of constructing the canal. That duty should be promptly performed.

American Shipping.

Our commerce in American bottoms amounts to but 8 per cent of our total exports and imports. For seventy years prior to 1860, when the Republican party came into power, our merchant marine carried an average of 75 per cent of our foreign commerce. By 1877 it had dwindled to 27 per cent. Now we carry but a contemptibly small fraction of our exports and imports.

American shipping in the foreign trade was greater by over 100,000 tons in 1810, nearly 100 years ago, than it was last year. In the face of the continuous decline in the record of American shipping during the last forty-three years the promise of the Republican party to restore it is without encouragement. The record of the Democratic party gives assurance that the task can be more wisely intrusted to it.

It is an arduous task to undo the effect of forty years of decadence and requires the study and investigation of those best fitted by experience to find the remedy, which surely does not lie in the granting of subsidies wrung from the pockets of all the taxpayers.

Investigation of Government Departments.

Recent disclosures, coupled with the rapid augmentation of government expenditures, show a need of an investigation of every department of the government. The Democrats in congress demanded it. The Republican majority refused the demand. The people can determine by their vote in November whether they wish an honest and thorough investigation. A Democratic congress and executive will assure it.

Army and Navy.

We are justly proud of the officers and men of our army and navy. Both, however, have suffered from the persistent injection of personal and political influence. Promotions and appointments have been frequently based on favoritism instead of merit. Trials and court martials have been set aside under circumstances indicating political interference. These and other abuses should be corrected.

Pensions For Our Soldiers and Sailors.

The national Democracy favors liberal pensions to the surviving soldiers and sailors and their dependents on the ground that they deserve liberal treatment. It pledges by its platform adequate legislation to that end. But it denies the right of the executive to usurp the power of congress to legislate on that subject. Such usurpation was attempted by pension order No. 78, and effect has been given to it by a congress that dared not [illegible] usurpation. It is said that "this order was made in the performance of a duty imposed upon the president by act of congress," but the provision making the imposition is not pointed out. The act to which the order refers, which is the one relating to pensions to civil war veterans, does not authorize pensions on the ground of age. It does grant pensions to those "suffering from any mental or physical disability or disabilities of a permanent character, not the result of their own vicious habits, which so incapacitates them from the performance of manual labor as to render them unable to earn a support." This specified requirement of incapacity is in effect set aside by order No. 78 as to all persons over sixty-two.

The war closed nearly forty years ago. In the meantime many of our soldiers and sailors long survived the age of sixty-two and passed away without receiving any pension. Skillful pension attorneys, hunting through the statute, failed to find there a provision giving a pension to all who had reached sixty-two. Many prominent veterans urged the justice of congressional action giving a service pension to all veterans. Bills to that effect were introduced in congress. And not until March of this year did any one ever claim to have made the discovery that the president had power to treat the statute as if it read that when a claimant had passed the age of sixty-two years he is necessarily disabled one-half in ability to perform manual labor and therefore entitled to a pension.

The present pension commissioner indicated his view of the order when in a recent address he thanked the president for what he had done and advised his hearers to use their influence that a law might be passed to the same effect. Full confidence, after all, seems not to have been placed on the defense of justification, for it is pleaded in mitigation that a former Democratic president did something looking in that direction. Even if that were so, which is not admitted, our present duty would be none the less plain and imperative. Our people must never tolerate the citation of one act of usurpation of power as an excuse for another. The first may possibly be due to mistake; the second, being based on the first, cannot be. In explanation, however, it should be said that the order relied on simply provided that the age of seventy-five years should be regarded as evidence of inability to perform manual labor. Few men are able to perform manual labor at that age, but nearly all men are at sixty-two. The first order is based on a fact that experience teaches; the other is based on the assertion of that which is not true as a general rule.

The old inquiry, "What are you going to do about it?" is now stated in a new form. It is said by the administration, in reply to the public criticism of this order, that "it is easy to test our opponents' sincerity in this matter. The order in question is revocable at the pleasure of the executive. If our opponents come into power they can revoke this order and announce that they will treat the veterans of sixty-two and seventy as presumably in full bodily vigor and not entitled to pension. Will they authoritatively state that they intend to do this? If so, we accept the issue."

This suggests the suspicion at least that the order was made to create an issue; that it was supposed to present a strong strategic position in the battle of the ballots. But as the making of that order was, in my judgment, an attempted though perhaps unwitting encroachment upon the legislative power and therefore unwarranted by the constitution, the challenge is accepted. If elected I will revoke that order. But I go further and say that, that being done, I will contribute my effort toward the enactment of a law to be passed by both houses of congress and approved by the executive that will give an age pension without reference to disability to the surviving heroes of the civil war and under the provisions of which a pension may be accepted with dignity because of the consciousness that it comes as a just due from the people through their chosen representatives and not as largess distributed by the chief executive.

Foreign Relations.

The foreign relations of the government have in late years assumed special importance. Prior to the acquisition of the Philippines we were practically invulnerable against attacks by foreign states. Those tropical possessions, however, 7,000 miles from our shores, have changed all this and have in effect put us under bonds to keep the peace. The new conditions call for a management of foreign affairs the more circumspect in that the recent American invasion of foreign markets in all parts of the world has excited the serious apprehension of all the great industrial peoples. It is essential, therefore, more than ever to adhere strictly to the traditional policy of the country as formulated by its first president and never, in my judgment, wisely departed from—to invite friendly relations with all nations while avoiding entangling alliances with any. Such a policy means the cultivation of peace instead of the glorification of war, and the minding of our own business in lieu of spectacular intermeddling with the affairs of other nations. It means strict observance of the principles of international law and condemns the doctrine that a great state, by reason of its strength, may rightfully appropriate the sovereignty or territory of a small state on account of its weakness. It means for other American states that we claim no rights and will assume no functions save those of a friend and of an ally and defender as against European aggressions. It means that we repudiate the role of the American continental policeman, that we refuse to act as debt collector for foreign states or their citizens, that we respect the independent sovereignty of each American state and its right to preserve order and otherwise regulate its own internal affairs in its own way, and that any intervention in its affairs by us is limited to the single office of enabling its people to work out their own political and national destiny for themselves free from the coercion of any European state.

Reform in Governmental Expenditures.

Twenty-eight years have passed since the Democratic party of the state of New York in convention assembled recommended to the national Democracy the nomination of Samuel J. Tilden as its candidate for the presidency and declared it to be "their settled conviction that a return to the constitutional principles, frugal expenses and administrative purity of the founders of the republic is the first and most imperious duty of the times—the commanding issue now before the people of the Union." This strong expression was called forth by the national expenditures for the year 1875, which amounted to $274,000,000—a situation which, in the opinion of a majority of our people, justified an imperative demand for reform in the administration of public affairs. As the expenditures of the last fiscal year amounted to the enormous total of $582,000,000, it is evident that a thorough investigation of the public service and the immediate abandonment of useless and extravagant expenditures are more necessary now than they were then. This astounding increase is out of all proportion to the increase of our population and finds no excuse from whatever aspect we view the situation. The national Democratic platform declares that "large reductions can easily be made in the annual expenditures of the government without impairing the efficiency of any branch of the public service." Can there be any doubt of the accuracy of this statement? Between the expenditures of the year 1886, amounting to $242,000,000, and those of the last fiscal year—the seventh after Grover Cleveland ceased to be president—aggregating $582,000,000, there is a difference so great as to excite alarm in the breasts of all thoughtful men. Even excluding the sum of $50,000,000 paid for the Panama canal rights and to the state of Panama, the expenditures of the last fiscal year exceeded the sum of $532,000,000, being more than double the expenditures of the government for all purposes during the first year of Mr. Cleveland's administration.

The expenses of the first four years succeeding the last Democratic administration amounted to the enormous average of $511,000,000 per year. This large expenditure was due to a considerable extent to the cost of the Spanish-American war, which occurred during that period. But the termination of that war brought no relief to the treasury, for the average annual expenses of the government during the three subsequent years ending June 30, 1904, were about $519,000,000, which is the largest sum hitherto reached during a like period since the close of the civil war.

This draft upon the revenues of the country has had the effect which might have been anticipated, and now we have presented the reverse of the situation, which led to the famous observation, "It is a condition and not a theory which confronts us," for, although the present incumbent found at the close of the first fiscal year during which he assumed control of the administration a surplus of receipts over expenditures of more than $91,000,000, there was an excess of expenditures over receipts at the close of the last fiscal year of $42,000,000, and the official monthly reports made by the treasury department show that the expenditures are continuously and rapidly increasing, while the receipts are diminishing.

In this connection it is interesting to note the recent administrative orders forbidding government officers from making public any statement of estimates on which future appropriations are to be based.

If a man of ordinary intelligence and prudence should find in the operating expenses of his business such a tremendous percentage of increase, would he not promptly set on foot an inquiry for the cause of the waste and take immediate measures to stop it, especially when trusted employees have been found dishonest and convicted and a widespread impression exists that a thorough investigation may discover other cases of malfeasance? When the chief executive reported to congress that "through frauds, forgeries and perjuries and by shameless briberies the laws relating to the proper conduct of the public service in general and to the due administration of the post-office department have been notoriously violated * * *" there was a general popular demand for a rigid, sweeping investigation by congress in addition to that undertaken by the executive himself. Such an investigation the Republican majority in congress would not permit, although the minority insisted that the interests of good government demanded it. And the minority was right. The liberality, patriotism and national pride of the people should not be made an excuse for waste of the public funds. Official extravagance is official crime.

There is not a sentence in the Republican platform recommending a reduction in the expenditures of the government, not a line suggesting that the increase in the cost of the war department from $34,000,000 in 1886 to $115,000,000 in 1904 should be inquired into, and not a paragraph calling for a thorough investigation of those departments of the government in which dishonesty has been recently disclosed.

The people, however, can by their votes, if they desire it, order such an investigation and inaugurate a policy of economy and retrenchment. It is safe to say that this will not be accomplished by indorsing at the polls the Republican majority of the house of representatives which refused the investigation and made the appropriations, nor by continuing in power the administration which made the disbursements.

Reform in expenditures must be had in both the civil, military and naval establishments in order that the national expenditures may be brought to a basis of peace and the government maintained without recourse to the taxes of war.

Conclusion.

I have put aside a congenial work, to which I had expected to devote my life, in order to assume as best I can the responsibilities your convention put upon me.

I solicit the cordial co-operation and generous assistance of every man who believes that a change of measures and of men at this time would be wise, and urge harmony of endeavor as well as vigorous action on the part of all so minded.

The issues are joined, and the people must render the verdict.

Shall economy of administration be demanded or shall extravagance be encouraged?

Shall the wrongdoer be brought to bay by the people, or must justice wait upon political oligarchy?

Shall our government stand for equal opportunity or for special privilege?

Shall it remain a government of law or become one of individual caprice?

Shall we cling to the rule of the people, or shall we embrace beneficent despotism?

With calmness and confidence we await the people's verdict.

If called to the office of president I shall consider myself the chief magistrate of all the people and not of any faction, and shall ever be mindful of the fact that on many questions of national policy there are honest differences of opinion I believe in the patriotism, good sense and absolute sincerity of all the people. I shall strive to remember that he may serve his party best who serves his country best.

If it be the wish of the people that I undertake the duties of the presidency I pledge myself, with God's help, to devote all my powers and energy to the duties of this exalted office. Very truly yours,

ALTON B. PARKER.

Why Lots in these Cemeteries commend themselves to Heads of Families and Investors

BECAUSE of the $1,000,000 Trust Fund provided for by the Trustees in each Cemetery, the income from which will keep the properties perpetually beautiful at NO EXPENSE TO LOT OWNERS.

BECAUSE such a guarantee, not found in any other cemetery, assures lot owners that the grounds WILL BE MAINTAINED PERMANENTLY AS BEAUTIFUL PARKS AFTER THE INCOME FROM THE SALE OF LOTS HAS BEEN EXHAUSTED.

LOTS SHOULD BE PURCHASED NOW

BECAUSE MORE ADVANTAGES ARE OFFERED TO LOT BUYERS in a new Modern Park Cemetery than in those established many years and, in most cases, no provision made for perpetual care without extra expense to lot owners. THERE ARE A GREATER NUMBER OF IDEAL LOCATIONS TO SELECT FROM, PRICES OF LOTS ARE ALWAYS LOWER AND TERMS MORE ADVANTAGEOUS.

BECAUSE life is most uncertain and EVERY ONE SHOULD ANTICIPATE THE INEVITABLE BY MAKING A CHOICE NOW OF A FINAL RESTING PLACE.

LOTS WILL PROVE A GOOD INVESTMENT

BECAUSE they are sure to increase in value and can be purchased NOW at the INITIAL or LOWEST PRICE and upon the most ADVANTAGEOUS TERMS.

BECAUSE the properties are ACCESSIBLE TO 4,000,000 PEOPLE, and considering the RAPID GROWTH OF GREATER NEW YORK and its TRIBUTARY CITIES and TOWNS, it is only a question of a SHORT TIME when LOTS in ROSEDALE and LINDEN PARK will EQUAL IN VALUE those of our MOST NOTED cemeteries.

HOPE FOR LADY CURZON.

After a Successful Operation Viceroy's Wife Has Rallied.

LONDON, Sept. 26.—A dispatch from Walmer castle late last night says:

"The improvement in Lady Curzon's condition continues, and the doctors state that if her strength can be maintained during the next two days there will be hopes of her recovery."

A successful operation has been performed upon Lady Curzon, and it was announced that her ladyship's condition was very grave—in fact, so grave that certain preparations for sustaining life were ordered by special train from London.

On the ocean in a race to reach the bedside of Lady Curzon Mrs. L. Z. Leiter, her mother, and her sister, Miss Nannie Leiter, are speeding to Antwerp on the Red Star liner Vaderland, having left New York by that steamer.

Canterbury's Ringing Appeal.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 26.—The Right Hon. and Most. Rev. Thomas Randall Davidson, the archbishop of Canterbury, sounded a ringing appeal for Christian unity at the open air service held in the cathedral grounds at Mount St. Albans yesterday afternoon. Not since President McKinley was present at the erection of the peace cross on the same spot after the war with Spain have as many people gathered at that picturesque spot. The crowd was estimated at from 20,000 to 25,000. Mrs. Roosevelt and the British ambassador, Sir Henry Mortimer Durand, with Mrs. Davidson, General and Mrs. Chaffee and Mrs. Hitchcock had seats to the right of the platform and joined heartily in the service.

Letter With $20,000 Stolen.

WHEELING, W. Va., Sept. 26.—It has leaked out here through postoffice officials that the postoffice at Woodsfield, O., thirty miles southwest of Wheeling, was robbed of a registered letter which contained $20,000 consigned from New York bankers to Woodsfield people. The receipt of the package was supposed to have been known only to the postoffice people. The robbers secured entrance through a back door, extracted the package from the safe and made good their escape. Bloodhounds have been used to track the robbers without success, and the postoffice inspectors are now on the scene.

Power House Wrecked.

UTICA, N. Y., Sept. 26.—The power house at Alexandria Bay, which supplies water for the village, was completely wrecked by an explosion of gasoline. Clarence Willis narrowly escaped death, he being in the oil room at the time of the explosion, which was caused by a spark from the dynamo. The explosion was heard for miles around, the force of which blew bricks and pieces of wood 500 feet in all directions. The plant was built last spring at a cost of $12,000. As this plant is the only means of furnishing water for the village, the people will be at a great disadvantage for some time.

Accidents Wipe Out Family.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Sept. 26.—A telegram was received at Gaffney, this state, announcing the death of Lee Hill at Jellico, Tenn., who was killed in an explosion in a powder mill. The corpse was expected at Gaffney, but instead a telegram was received stating that the corpse, accompanied by Scott Hill, his father, Lee Hill's wife and four children and single sister, was on the train which was wrecked near Knoxville and that all the parties were killed. The corpses

SPORTING NEWS.

VARIOUS SPORTS.

The board of directors of the North Plainfield High School athletic association has completed the revision of its constitution, and the newly made by-laws have been adopted by the school at large. There are a few changes in the wording of the constitution, and a number of new regulations affecting the winning of the school insignia were inserted.

Up to this year the pupils of the school have been entitled to wear the N. P. H. S. by playing in one game of baseball, football, basket ball, or hookey. The present board considered this regulation too easy, and incorporated the rule that a member of the association must play in at least three regularly scheduled games, representing the school with outside teams, in order to win the privilege of wearing the letters on caps or sweaters.

The board of directors have now under consideration the organization of a football team. The following committee was appointed to look into the football prospects, and to arrange for the team: Frank Webster, Stanley Fisher and Carl Steiner. In basket ball the prospects of the borough team are brightest. There are fifteen candidates out for the team, all of whom have had experience on the Y. M. C. A. junior teams. A practice game has been arranged for next week with the Hope chapel team, which will be played on the Hope floor.

DIAMOND DUST.

It is not generally known among the baseball fans, but Fred Smith, formerly captain of the Plainfield A. C. team, has been suffering with a very sore right arm for several weeks. This has been a serious handicap to his playing, in fact, it is a wonder that he has been able to play at all.

BASKET BALL.

A meeting in the interest of a basket ball league will be held tonight, when it is proposed to form an organization with teams from the Y. M. C. A. Hope chapel, Reform Club and the Business Men's class, of the Y. M. C. A.

Terry Case Adjourned.

In the city court this morning, a second adjournment was made in the case against William Terry, charged with reckless driving by running his wagon against one driven by Mrs. John P. Emmons and causing her to be thrown out. Terry declared he could produce witnesses to corroborate his story that the collision was merely an accident and the matter was put over until Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Calvin D. McMurtry, of Somerville, who witnessed the affair, declares it was due to Terry's recklessness.

In Justices' Courts.

Judgment was granted to the plaintiff in the suit of William A. Woodruff and James P. Homan against John and Honora Kelly in Justice Moffett's court this morning. The case was for the recovery of rent which was due on a house at the corner of East Third street and Fillmore avenue. The contract case of Charles L. Holstein against William VanEpps was heard before Justice Hand on Saturday afternoon and resulted in a verdict for the plaintiff for the full amount and costs.

Moody for Congress.

John Moody, of Cranford, the able chairman of the Union county Democratic committee, is being boomed for the party's congressional nomination in the Fifth district and it is reported that he would accept if the selection should be made unanimously. Former Prosecutor William R. Wilson, of Elizabeth, and James E. Martine, of this city, are also mentioned.

Confectionery in Babcock Building.

The Wilmington Candy Company, with headquarters at Wilmington, Del., has leased half of the old Woodhull & Martin store in the Babcock building, next to the main entrance, and on October 1 will open a large confectionery store. The company has one store in Trenton, one in Wilmington and a third in Pennsylvania.

Mr. Harsell's New Position.

William B. Harsell, a prominent member of Co. K, will leave Friday for Kenosha, Wisconsin, where he will take charge of one of the departments in the T. B. Jefferey Automobile Company factory. He will be accompanied by his wife and they will make their home in Kenosha.

In City Court.

Arraigned on charges of drunkenness, sentence was suspended on George S. Brown and Thomas Sheridan, the latter from Flemington, in the city court, this morning. They were arrested at different times yesterday by Patrolmen Higgins and Saunders.

CLINTON AVENUE A. C. LOCAL AMATEUR CHAMPIONS

DUNELLEN A. C. IS DEFEATED IN THE FINAL GAME.

In spite of the fact that many of the local baseball fans attended the Westfield game, a large crowd was present on Crescent Oval, Saturday afternoon, when the Clinton Avenue team won the local amateur championship by defeating the Dunellen team. The score was 5 to 3. It took but one inning of erratic pitching on the part of Smith, the High School twirler, together with a number of errors on the part of the Dunellen team, to put an end to their chances of winning the championship title. This inning was the fifth in which, as the result of a number of bunched hits, the Clinton Avenue aggregation netted three runs. A run in the previous inning, and another in the seventh was the extent of their scoring ability, but it was enough to settle the dispute with regard to the amateur championship of this vicinity. The Dunellen players were able to score but three runs. Their hits, five in number, though more than their opponents, were scattered and consequently of little value.

VanArsdale pitched a strong game for his team, and held the score down in good style. For the Dunellen team, Giles and Craig were always found ready to take anything that came their way.

The following is the line-up and the score by innings:

Clinton Avenue—Barnes, 1b; Beckman, 3b; B. Martin, 2b; O'Loughlin, c; Herman, rf; J. Martin, ss; Taylor, cf; Magne, lf; VanArsdale, p.

Dunellen — Giles, 2b; Craig, 3b; Mack, ss; Matthews, 1b; Hill, rf; Graham, c; Garvey, cf; Smith, p.

PARISH HOUSE PLANS.

Handsome Addition to be Added to Grace P. E. Church Property.

The plans for the new parish building of Grace Episcopal church are now ready and work will be commenced soon. The building will measure 53x10 by 73x8, and will be of brick faced with Martenville stone. On the second floor will be an auditorium. The architect is R. W. Gibson, of New York.

The addition is to be on the right side of the church edifice. In the basement there will be a morning chapel, demonstration room, and living room for the sexton. On the first floor there will be a Bible class room, infants' class room, rector's office, locker room and pantry. The second story will be principally occupied by a fine auditorium, capable of seating 271 people, and provided with an up-to-date fire escape as well as a stairway. There will also be five class rooms on this floor adjoining the auditorium.

PERSONAL.

Allen Vanderhoef, of Prospect place, who has been detained at home with an attack of blood poisoning in the left foot, has practically recovered and he returned to his position today.

J. Herbert Case and family, of Duer street; Samuel P. Case, of Plainfield avenue; John G. McLaughlin, of Somerset street, and Miss Carrie Kellogg, of Duer street, returned home Saturday from Friends Lake, N. Y.

Democrats Non-Communicative.

A meeting of the Democratic city committee was held Saturday evening but the members refuse to state whether or not any business was transacted. One of them said today that the date for the city convention had been set but that the date had slipped his memory. The delegates to the Democratic Congressional convention will meet in Democratic headquarters tonight.

One More Dentist.

Dr. Emerson G. Curry, of Woodstock, Ont., a graduate of the dental department of the University of Pennsylvania, has leased the old Reed & Coddington's office in the Babcock building and this week will open handsome dental parlors.

Daughters of America Social.

The lodge rooms of the I. O. O. F. at the Babcock building were the scene of a pleasant entertainment Saturday evening when the Daughters of America gave their annual social.

Engagement Announced.

The engagement of Charles H. Small, of New York, and Miss Susie E. Swan, of this city, has been announced. The wedding will take place next spring.

HONEYMAN'S PRIVATE TOURS
October 4—St. Louis Exposition. Ten-day Party.
Office: 18 North Avenue, Plainfield

Miss Kittie Bourke, of this city, has returned from a visit with relatives at Raritan.

M. E. Anthony, of Fishkill, N. Y., spent Sunday with friends in Plainfield and he visited Trinity Reformed church Sunday-school, of which he was superintendent for seventeen years.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Garvin have decided to remain here this week and they will stop at the Hotel Kensington. Mr. Garvin will pitch for the Plainfield A. C. the remainder of the season. Yesterday he played for Ridgewood.

—Wm. Jeffery and family moved Saturday from Mountain avenue to their new house on Duer street.

—Music was furnished for dancing at the Hillside Tennis and Golf Club Saturday night and a large number of the members remained for the evening. There was also an unusual number that remained for dinner. These social features have been a strong attraction at the club this fall, and no doubt will be continued until the close of the season.

Charles Miller and Alfred Driscoll, of this city, have returned from a visit with Raritan friends.

Miss Abbott, of West Front street, has returned to her studies at Mt. Holyoke College.

W. J. R. Hegeman, of Sycamore avenue, is expected home today after spending sometime at Boston, Mass.

Miss Mary Griggs, of Somerville, has been visiting Miss Mae Batchellor, of West Seventh street. The latter has entered Wellesley College.

Mrs. M. F. Elderton, of East Front stree,, has returned home from an extended visit with relatives in Staunton, Va. She was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Cockrun, who will remain with her a month.

FOWLER IS NOMINATED

Fifth District Republican Convention Names Him for the Congressional Race.

GREAT ENTHUSIASM

The Assemblage was Presided Over by John I. Blair Riley and was Attended by Many Plainfield Politicians.

Amid a scene of wild enthusiasm the convention of the Fifth Congressional District, held at Morristown, this afternoon, renominated Charles N. Fowler, of Elizabeth, as its candidate for election to Congress. When his name was announced prolonged cheers followed and for the time being further business was suspended. The convention is being held in the Lyceum Opera House and is one of the largest attended in many years. John I. Blair Riley, of Phillipsburg, is acting as permanent chairman.

With the conclusion of the outburst, Congressman Fowler was introduced and addressed the gathering at some length. At the beginning he spoke of the people of the Tenth District ten years ago giving him the commission to represent them in the Lower House of Congress and how for four successive terms he had been thus honored. Continuing he said:

"I prized their favor above price and strove to merit it for the reason that through each successive term I have been true to my duty. The new Fifth District has bestowed upon me this gift of confidence, richer than a jewelled crown because it came from the hands of men who are kings. I have never felt the fetters of a pledge and have always wore the burden of an obligation to serve my country a clear conscience, a free mind, with untiring devotion and patriotic purpose."

He then compared the Democratic and Republican parties and showed how the Democrats had shifted in their policy, admitting that the Republicans were right time and again, mentioning the Civil War and the gold coinage question. He spoke of the present and future work the Republican party had to do and then continued:

"Do you ask me to be your standard bearer—to hold aloft this old flag with no stripe dishonored, no star erased; the emblem of the Union saves, saves by the Republican party? I answer yes, a thousand times, yes. May the echo join with me in acclaim of a great and glorious Republican victory."

He retired amid further cheers and with the conclusion of all business other speakers are to be heard.

Congressman Charles N. Fowler.

HIGH SCHOOL BOYS TO FORM MUSICAL CLUBS

S. B. HOWE, JR., OF LEHIGH, WILL BE THE INSTRUCTOR.

In response to Principal Travell's appeal for members of the school who play stringed instruments to come out for the mandolin and glee clubs, a large number of the pupils have entered their names. It is the object of those in charge of the affair to have both a vocal and an instrumental club to represent the school.

The glee club will, in all probability, be the largest of the clubs and several enjoyable concerts are anticipated during the coming year.

The instrumental division of the school will undergo a more complete reformation this year than the glee club. Last year the banjo and mandolin club was composed of Chester Briggs, Theodore Gavett, Lucius Koons and Monroe Long, mandolins, and Gurth Williams, banjo. Koons and Long went with the class of 1904. It is expected that nearly a dozen of the pupils will join this club this year.

Both of the clubs will be under the direct supervision of Samuel B. Howe, Jr., of Lehigh University. Mr. Howe was the leader of the instrumental club for four years and of the glee club three years.

LOCAL DEMOCRATS WILL OBJECT TO UNIT RULE

THEY THREATEN TO LEAVE CONVENTION IF IT IS ADOPTED.

It having been learned that the Elizabeth delegates will demand the use of the unit rule at the Democratic Congressional convention to be held at Elizabeth on Thursday, caused a lively discussion at a caucus of the Plainfield delegates held at Democratic headquarters, last night. The meeting was called for the purpose of obtaining a concensus of opinion as to what position the delegates should take at the convention.

It was believed that the unit rule would practically deprive the Plainfield delegates from having their say at the convention and it was agreed that if this policy is adopted they would leave the convention and refuse to take any part in the nominations.

A request was received from the Elizabeth delegates, asking the Plainfielders to attend a preliminary meeting tomorrow night at the county seat. Many present strongly objected to this and questioned whether a conference would do any good.

In Justice Hand's Court.

Adjournment for two weeks was made yesterday in the contract case of Kenyon against Stocks. An exception to the court's right to hear the matter was made by the defendant's counsel, F. J. Biatz, and this led to the delay.

WALLACE MET HIS MATCH

Plainfield Desperado Fails in Attempt to Escape Jail.

BATTLED WITH DEPUTY

But Anderson Had College Training and "Larry" Lost the Fight.

In a daring attempt to escape from the Somerset County Jail at Somerville, Sunday night, Larry Wallace, a desperate character from this city, matched his physical prowess against the Princeton-trained muscles and endurance of Deputy Sheriff John W. Anderson, and lost.

Incidentally, what might have proved a general jail delivery did not occur, simply because that dual combat held the other prisoners spellbound and made them overlook a chance to easily gain their liberty.

Anderson, who is an alumnus of Old Nassau, who helped to make her athletic history, was in the corridor of the jail, preparing to look in the prisoners for the night. He was standing near the main entrance, when Wallace, who had concealed himself, sprang toward him and, goat fashion, butted him in the side. The attack knocked the deputy sprawling, but he almost instantly regained his feet and started in pursuit of the fleeing man.

Wallace was passing through the door of the outer corridor and was making for the street, when Anderson overtook him and a desperate hand-to-hand struggle between the two men began.

It is a good many years ago since the doughty deputy, as an undergrad who could wrestle all around his college mates, brought fame to the Orange and Black, but the Plainfielder probably hadn't heard of his foreman's record. At any rate, the ex-Princetonian hadn't forgotten some of the tricks and holds he'd mastered in varsity days, and he applied them with good effect upon his husky antagonist.

He is a much smaller man than Wallace, but this disadvantage was not serious enough to matter much. What did matter was the deadly grip the larger struggler kept on the windpipe of the other. That nearly meant defeat—perhaps death—for the plucky jailer, for it made him quite powerless to exert much strength against his heavier adversary.

Just as everything was becoming green and blue and black, Anderson mustered his fast failing breath in one loud cry for help. It reached the ears of little Miss Anderson, the young daughter of the deputy, who promptly summoned the police. For some minutes more the men kept up the struggle, but as the blue-coats' approach became audible, Wallace gave up.

"I'm beat all right," he said, and meekly let Anderson, puffing hard, lead him back to his cell.

During the fight a number of prisoners in the corridor became so excited that they failed to take advantage of the open door to escape.

Wallace was serving a sentence of eighty days for assault, imposed upon him by Recorder Doud in the borough court. He has served time repeatedly in the Union County Jail. He is known by the authorities of this city and throughout the county as a dangerous character. It is believed that he had confederates outside of the jail to aid him to escape.

Assistant Chief of Police Koch had been watching four suspicious characters from Plainfield who were hanging around on the outside of the jail shortly before Wallace made his futile attempt to escape, and he looked for them afterward but they had disappeared.

McKinley Club Dinner.

The McKinley Club, of Elizabeth, of which several Plainfielders are members, will give a dinner on Oct. 15, which will be the third anniversary of the organization of the club. The event will propably be held in Quien's Hall, where the dinner given by the club in 1902 took place. It is proposed to have prominent and good speakers and a good dinner. The hour will be 6:30 p. m. and October 15 will fall on Saturday.

Laying New Rails.

The Public Service Corporation is preparing to lay new rails in Watchung avenue, between North avenue and East Second street, before the work of paving the street with vitrified brick is commenced. Yesterday the work of putting in new curve rails at the corner of East Front street and Watchung avenue was commenced. The rails now on Watchung avenue were laid several years ago and are about worn out.

A VETERAN INSTRUCTOR

David Campbell Now in His 34th Year As a Teacher.

AN EVENTFUL CAREER

Secured His Education in Plainfield at the "Old Fourth Street" School.

With the opening of the present school term at South Stirling, the pupils who assembled were called to order by the very same teacher who had acted in a similar capacity thirty-four years before and who had been the instructor of the fathers and mothers of many of those before him. He is David S Campbell, of Dunellen, formerly of Plainfield, who has taught in district schools in Somerset, Union, Warren and Middlesex Counties since 1870 and who is still imparting the first rudiments of "The Three R's" in the district where he first began. One of the last of the "little masters" who divided the day's routine between hearing lessons from his younger charges and wondering how to keep the older ones from thrashing him, he is interesting from many points of view while his reminiscences are decidedly entertaining.

David S. Campbell.

He derived his own education in the Plainfield school at Arlington avenue and Fourth street, where the present Franklin building is and which was in charge of the late M. F. Marcley, by many regarded as the most efficient, if not the most conscientious instructor of his time in the State. Campbell's classmates numbered many of the city's most prominent men today and others who have made names for themselves in various parts of the world. Among those who are still living are John Vail, William Vail, Daniel Runyon, John Wyckoff, William Manning, Joseph Randolph, James Randolph, Sylvanus Compton, Cornelius Compton, Nathan Compton, Eugene Yarnell, Augustus Martin, Eugene Runyon, Joseph and Fred Busby, Oliver Leonard, Charles Remsen, Samuel Wilson, George Breen, William and David Linbarger, B. Frank Coriell, Jacob Manning, William S. Campbell, Dan Pound, George and Jeptha VanFleet, Henry and Elias Southard, Samuel Ayers, George Neal, Alex Titsworth, T. A. Rogers, C. B. Rogers, Mulford Estil, William and Joel Hedden, Nelson Runyon, Andrew and Randolph Thorn, Charles McGinley, Richard Coriell, John Campbell, Charles Randolph, Samuel Pound, Voorhees Laing, Stephen Staats, Bert Pyatt, Edward, John and Samuel Stewart, Simeon Randolph, Michael Reardon, Hugh Townsend, Hiram and Henry Woodland, John R. Morrison, Wallace Coriell, Jackson Pound and William Williams.

Leaving school in 1860 he occupied himself in various ways for ten years and in 1870 he received his first appointment as instructor in the old stone school house at South Stirling now used as a beer bottling establishment. His trustees at the time were John C. Cooper, Sr., David D. Smalley and Augustus Moore, while his pupils included the present Assemblyman E. E Cooper and his brother, John C. Cooper, Jr., who is now a trustee over the same school and all those in Warren township. In those days women teachers were very few as it required a man to maintain order. "Judge" Campbell, as he was called, had his hands full and there was many a day when he went home with bruises given him by some big, husky farmer's boy who sought to win smiles from the girls by "lickin' the teacher." He held the South Stirling school for one year and in 1871 took hold of the one at South Plainfield. From there he went to Whitehouse and resigned in order to teach the Foxhill school in Hunterdon County where he remained six years. After that he taught at Basking Ridge, Bed-

HARMONY WILL PREVAIL

Everything in Readiness for City Republican Convention.

BUCKLE FOR MAYOR

No Known Opposition to the Men Who Will be Placed on the Ticket.

Everything points to perfect harmony when the City Republican Convention meets on Thursday night to place a lock ticket in the field. The convention will be held in the party's new rooms in the Babcock building at 8 o'clock. It is understood that the slate is practically made. This includes the nomination of Former Councilman James F. Buckle for Mayor, to succeed Dr. O. L. Jenkins, the present incumbent. City Judge William N. Runyon will undoubtedly be renominated for another term, as will also Dr. J. B. Probasco, as school commissioner, and William A. Westphal, as freeholder.

There does not now appear to be the slightest opposition to any of these persons named and if there is any movement on foot to nominate others it has not crystalized itself into healthy opposition to the regular ticket.

James F. Buckle for some time has been talked of as the successor to Mayor Jenkins. He is in business here, easily accessible and his friends firmly believe that he has every qualification for the position. He is thoroughly acquainted with city affairs, and when president of the Common Council he was called upon to act as Mayor in the absence of Dr. Jenkins, thus gaining knowledge of the duties of the office.

William N. Runyon has filled the position of city judge for two terms with entire satisfaction, dispensing justice in a fair and equitable manner. As for Dr. Probasco, his several years' experience as a school commissioner is especially valuable to him and there is no known opposition to him in the Republican party. William A. Westphal has also served as freeholder several terms and being well-acquainted with his duties, his services are valuable. He has the reputation of having served the city well.

CHURCH ENTERTAINMENT ON AN ELABORATE SCALE

HOPE CHAPELITES TO PRESENT STORY OF THE SCOTTISH REFORMATION.

One of the largest and most elaborate of church entertainments yet presented in this city, the great religious drama and story of the "Scottish Reformation," will be given at Hope chapel on the evenings of October 31 and November 1. Rev. L. R. Howard, pastor of the chapel, is arranging the details for the production and between sixty and seventy persons will take part.

It is a combination of drama, allegory and stereopticon views augmented by a large chorus and magnificent costumes. It is a stirring, instructive and pathetic story told by lecture, dialogue, music and tableaux. Among the characters are John Knox, Queen Mary and her court ladies, Puritans, Scottish Clans, Scottish soldiers, etc.

Among those who have volunteered to assist in the entertainment are Mrs. John Sheridan Zelie, Mrs. Frederic Meade, Mrs. G. Stuart Simmons as Queen Mary, the Misses Tracy, the Misses VanBoskerck, Miss Carroll, Mr. and Mrs. Frederic H. Andrews, John Leal, Ira W. Travell, City Judge William N. Runyon, Elmer E. Runyon. David Bowden will take the part of John Knox. Tickets will be on sale at Schreiner's pharmacy in one week.

To Oust Colored Congregation.

Alex Kane, owner of the Fillmore Baptist church property, caused a notice to be served on the officers of the congregation today notifying them that he would take steps to dispossess them for non-fulfillment of an agreement. Mr. Kane holds a mortgage for $1,210 and according to the terms of the contract the congregation was to pay him $42.40 every three months with interest. This they have failed to do and he now proposes to take possession of his property.

F. W. Frost Returns.

Francis W. Frost, son of George H. Frost, of Watchung avenue, returned yesterday from London, where he has been all summer. He will at once assume the management of the Courier-News.

SOMERSET COUNTY COURT CONVENED TODAY

MATTERS OF INTEREST TO NORTH PLAINFIELD CONSIDERED.

The September term of the Somerset County Court was opened at Somerville, today. Justice Garretson was on the bench, and Justice Schenck was also present. There was a large attendance of citizens from all parts of the county, especially North Plainfield.

On a motion offered by Charles A. Reed, borough counsel, the matter of the executors of Henry N. Spencer against the Borough of North Plainfield was referred to Hugh Gaston, of Somerville, for the taking of testimony. A report will be received at the next term of court.

Considerable surprise was occasioned by the application of Adolph Bohren, of North Plainfield, for a new hotel license at No. 18 Greenbrook road. Friday was set as the time when the court will consider remonstrances against granting the license.

At the request of C. A. Marsh, Esq., who objected to the notice for trial, claiming that the case was not properly placed on the list, the case of Millie White against Dr. P. J. Zeglio was crossed off.

Samuel Townsend and J. V. N. Willis are the North Plainfield members of the Grand Jury. Notice was given that the cases ready would be called for trial on Thursday.

TRIANGULAR BASKET BALL LEAGUE ORGANIZED

LOCAL SCHOOL BOYS MEET AND ARRANGED A STRONG SCHEDULE.

The managers of the three scholastic basket ball teams met with Physical Director F. A. Henckel, last night at the Y. M. C. A. to consider the reorganization of a triangular league between the Plainfield High School, Leal's, and the Borough High School. The representatives of the various schools at the meeting were Paul Collier, for the City High School; W. K. Heicker, for North Plainfield, and Dudley Strong, for Leal's.

In the schedule of classes of the Y. M. C. A., Wednesday afternoons have been left open for interscholastic games, and in arranging the league schedule most of the dates were fixed for Wednesdays, beginning with December 7. On this date the City and Borough High Schools will meet. The other league dates are as follows: December 14, Leals against P. H. S.; December 21, N. P. H. S. against Leals; January 11, N. P. H. S. against P. H. S.; January 18, P. H. S. against Leals; January 25, Leals against N. P. H. S. In case of a tie, February 8 has been left as a open date.

The Wednesdays in October and November will be for outside games between the local schools and other teams scheduled to meet them. It is expected that all these dates will be filled up, as all three of the managers are trying to make a complete schedule. If they are successful, the public will be given the opportunity of witnessing an interscholastic game every Wednesday afternoon. On Monday evenings, the floor of the gymnasium will be reserved for inter-association games.

Celebrated Birthday Anniversary.

John Gettleson, of Watchung avenue, celebrated the fifty-fifth anniversary of his birthday, last Sunday. Many guests from Plainfield and other cities were present to assist in the celebration. Mr. Gettleson received several handsome presents, including a gift from Mrs. J. Fred MacDonald in appreciation of his services as night watchman at the silk mill. Among the out of town guests were Mrs. Prevelese, and Miss Jennie Barkley, of Fort Lee.

Harris Taken to New York.

Louis Harris, the colored man charged with complicity in the death of Mrs. Eva Weaver from the effects of malpractice, waived extradition proceedings yesterday and agreed to go at once to New York, the scene of the operation. He was taken to the metropolis by Patrolman McCarthy and turned over to the authorities.

FOR PERMANENT PAVEMENT

Belief That Entire Business Section Should be Considered.

WOULD BE CHEAPER

Present Cost of Repairs to Macadam Very Heavy, But Would be Eliminated by Improvement.

Now that the city has decided to pave Watchung avenue, between North avenue and Second street, with vitrified brick, the Public Service Corporation to stand its share of the expense, there has been some talk among the business men of the city of the advisability of having the streets in the center of the town similarly paved, making it uniform. It is believed that a majority of the property-owners in the business center would be willing to pay their share of the expense to have a substantial pavement laid for it would add materially to the value of their holdings.

As there have been several important real estate deals in the business section lately, the most notable being the purchase of the Park avenue property by the Plainfield Trust Company, when this property is improved, no doubt efforts will be made looking toward the betterment of the avenue. It has been said that before any new buildings are erected it would be an excellent idea to arrange for having the avenue widened as much as possible. At present the buildings, purchased by the Trust Company, are considerably outside of the building line. When the new structures are erected they will be placed on the line and this will result in giving the avenue a little more width. It has often been regretted that when Park avenue was originally laid out that double the width was not allowed. One of the main thoroughfares in the city and upon which there is so much travel should be half again as wide. South of the railroad bridge the avenue begins to get wider and from that point to the city limits it easily accommodates all traffic.

The proposed plans for paving suggested by some of the business men include East and West Front street, between Watchung and Central avenues, Park avenue, between Front and Fourth or Fifth streets. The expense for this work would be quite large, but shared by the property-owners and the city it would not make a burden, and besides it would be the beginning of permanent pavement. Another point in favor of this improvement is that the brick pavement would mean a great saving in the way of repairs, which with the present macadam is a necessity now and quite a bill of expense.

The heavy rains this year have damaged the streets in the city more than usual and is will require a considerable sum to repair them with top dressing and rolling. With a permanent pavement, such as brick, this expense would be eliminated. The first cost would be the greatest.

It is argued that the brick pavement is one of the best, as well as the least expensive, and if it works well on Watchung avenue, it would be economy to continue it elsewhere. No doubt some efforts will be made sooner or later to have the Common Council take up this question with a view to permanent improvement of the streets. Some persons who have made a study of the question argue that macadamized roads for a place like Plainfield are expensive things, for they constantly need attention where the travel is the heaviest.

Landmark Demolished.

Another landmark has been removed by the demolition of the old schoolhouse at Oak Tree. The building became so dilapidated that it was decided to take it down and improve the surroundings. There are many old residents who went to school in the building and it had quite a history. A new school building was built at Oak Tree a few years ago and there was no use for the ancient structure.

Y. M. C. A. Orchestra Rehearsal.

The members of the Y. M. C. A. orchestra met last evening in the Y. M. C. A. auditorium for their regular Monday night rehearsal. There was a good attendance. M. A. Korff, the leader of the orchestra, was in charge. The practice last evening was particularly in preparation for the fourteenth concert which will be given in October.

Burns-McQuirk Nuptials.

John Burns, of Somerset street, and Miss May McQuirk, of Raritan, will be married in St. Mary's church, this city, tomorrow afternoon at 5:30. After a wedding trip to Washington, D. C., they will make their home in the borough.

POINTS FOR THE BUYERS

READY REFERENCES FOR THE LOCAL BARGAIN SEEKERS.

A man who is particular about his appearance is sure to want his hair cut properly and he prefers a clean shave as you can get at M. B. Maynard's barber shop on North avenue.

J. M. Cahart, of Park avenue, is showing a fine line of new wall papers for the latest design and an early inspection would be to your advantage. Mr. Cahart also contracts to do first-class painting.

Dr. M. B. Stowe, of the Babcock building, is meeting with genuine success in the treatment of all troubles with the feet. A specialty is made in the treatment of corns, bunions and ingrowing toenails.

H. H. Smith, of Park avenue, opposite North avenue, always has on hand fresh poultry, butter and eggs that can be depended upon. The prices are reasonable and you will make no mistake in trading at this store.

Have you seen the fall offers of the Surprise store? All the latest styles and shades are to be found at the most reasonable prices. If you are not quite sure what the proper thing for fall wear is, you may satisfy yourself by a call at the Surprise store.

Don't decide upon the place you wish to put your money till you have looked into the prospects and the banking standing of the Plainfield Trust Company. The Trust Company is, and is becoming more every day, the leading banking house in this city.

Call up Hoagland, give him your order, and then rest assured that your order will be carried out. You can't feel that way over every express order, but if you make the acquaintance of Hoagland, you will find that there is no such thing as missed trains, and neglected baggage.

If you have just come to town and are looking for the best store in town, you will be directed to Peck's. If you consult the best people in the town, and ask them for the best store in town, you will be directed to Peck's. Whichever way you turn you are confronted with the fact that the only place for dry goods is Peck's.

The Plainfield Spring Water Company have solved the problem of giving to the public, pure fresh water, free from the large quantities of lime and other matters, which make ordinary water injurious to some people. There are many who are not affected by the use of ordinary city water, but it is for those whose constitutions can not stand this water, that the Plainfield Spring Water Company is useful.

Sunday Excursion to Mauch Chunk.

There is no more popular resort for a Sunday than Mauch Chunk, and to reach it entails a delightful rail journey, and at Mauch Chunk there is a diversity of amusements, the chief of which is a ride over the Switchback. This journey occupies more than one hour, and leads over and around the mountains with widely changing scenes at every turn. The Switchback is a gravity road, and the speed attained is close to a mile per minute. Another feature is Flagstaff, the summit of which is reached by trolley, and from its pinnacle point there is a view extending over miles and miles of beautiful country. An interesting spot close at hand is Glen Onoko, a short distance above Mauch Chunk, and as it name implies, is a beautiful glen, with falls, cataracts, mountain paths leading to cool and delightful pences. On October 2, 1904, the New Jersey Central is to run a popular excursion to Mauch Chunk from Plainfield by special train leaving at 9:20 a. m. Returning train will leave Mauch Chunk at 5:40 p. m., and the round trip will cost but $1.50. Frequent train service will be in effect between Mauch Chunk and Glen Onoko, and trains on the Switchback run every few minutes. 9 22 9 o

AMONG MEN IN THE SHOPS

SEEN AND HEARD IN PLAINFIELD'S INDUSTRIAL PLANTS.

John Enright, of the Manganese Steel Safe Company, has commenced a two weeks' vacation which is to be spent at Peapack and Pluckemin.

Charles Bush, of Watchung avenue, who has been summering in Toronto, Ont., has returned to Plainfield and will resume his position at the Potter Press Works tomorrow.

Slackness in the plate department of the Manganese Steel Safe Works led to a lay-off of three men, Saturday. In the small safe department work is unusually brisk.

Several of the former employes of the Aluminum Press Works at West Dunellen, have been ordered to report for duty and appearances indicate that work is to be resumed at the shop. Nearly all those who were laid off when the place shut down several weeks ago have secured positions elsewhere and may not return.

Visitors to Machinery Hall at the St. Louis Exposition have been struck with the completeness and immensity of the Pond Tool Works exhibit. The local concern has a great amount of floor space taken up in the display of its lathes, planers and boring mills, and during the greater part of the day some of the larger ones are kept in motion for the benefit of sightseers. High above the machinery and in a position where they can easily be seen from all parts of the building are nearly a dozen big signs with the simple announcement, "From the Pond Machine Tool Company, Plainfield, N. J., U. S. A." In comparison with other firms, the Pond exhibit is larger and better than any with one or two exceptions, and it is proving advertisement for the city as well as the company.

PERSONAL.

Frank Codwise, of Grandview avenue, is indisposed.

Arthur Denton, of Washington avenue, has entered Brown University for a full course.

John T. Baker, of Stelle avenue, has returned home from a stay at Easthampton, L. I.

Miss Meta Neighbour, of Middle Valley, has returned home after a visit with relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Marvin, of East Seventh street, are entertaining relatives from Westerly, R. I.

James F. Buckle, of Westervelt avenue, has returned from a visit of a few days in Pennsylvania.

Mrs. James A. Daley and daughter, of Watchung avenue, are visiting her parents at Worcester, Mass.

Laurence A. Whitall, who has been ill with rheumatism for about six weeks, has returned to work.

City Attorney Frederic P. Schoonmaker and his wife, of Bradford, Pa., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Titsworth, of the Babcock building, and on Saturday night a few friends were entertained in their honor.

DE RESZKE WON EASILY.

Speculation Stakes the Feature at Gravesend.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—De Reszke, the 4 to 5 favorite, easily won the Speculation stakes, selling, one mile and a sixteenth, at Gravesend track. Seymour made the pace to the stretch, where he tired, and De Reszke then went to the front and won by a length and a half. The fight for the place was very close between Damon and Cloverland, Damon being placed second and Cloverland third.

Reveille, backed down from 10 to 1 to 4 to 1, easily won the fifth race.

Lady Amelia, carrying 135 pounds, won the last race. She opened at 8 to 5, but went back in the betting, closing at 2 to 1, a split favorite with Ancestor.

New York, with W. Davis up, fell as the barrier went up in the Speculation stakes, the boy receiving a shaking up. Four favorites won.

Grand Circuit Racing.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 27.—The fourth annual grand circuit meeting opened at Oakley park here and will continue until Saturday next. The Ohio stake for 2:00 trotters, purse, $5,000, was the feature event of the day and was easily won by Tiverton, the well played favorite, in straight heats. Tiverton won the three heats in easy fashion, holding his only contender, George G., safely throughout. Angus Pointer won the 2:20 class pacing in straight heats from Morning Star and Fantine. Angus Pointer was the favorite and outclassed his field.

Yankee Won In a Black Squall.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—In a black squall from the westward which swept over Long Island sound an hour before sundown the seventy foot yachts Yankee, Virginia and Rainbow finished a race of twenty-one and a half miles under the management of the New York Yacht club's regatta committee. The Yankee, owned by J. Rogers Maxwell, won from William K. Vanderbilt Jr.'s Virginia by 3 minutes and 1 second and from Cornelius Vanderbilt's Rainbow by 7 minutes and 4 seconds.

Stroller Won at Worth.

CHICAGO, Sept. 27.—Scratches almost ruined the Fort Dearborn handicap, the feature event of the opening of the fall meeting at Worth. The original entry list had a total of twenty likely starters, but when the field was called to the post only four horses lined up, sixteen having been withdrawn. Stroller won the race after being all but left at the post. Cheboygah was second, five lengths in front of Gregor K. The stake was worth $1,700 to the winner.

Scotch Dance Was Best.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 27.—Scotch Dance was easily best in Delmar's feature. The Parrish colt went to the front in the first eighth and maintained a winning lead of three lengths to the wire. Tom Mankins was heavily played to win the second race.

Denver's Final Trial.

NEWPORT NEWS, Va., Sept. 27.—The United States cruiser Denver, having aboard the naval inspection board from Washington, composed of Commander W. C. Cowles, Captain I. S. K. Reeves and Captain Woodward, has put to sea on her final acceptance trial off the Virginia capes.

Boston Lumber Yards Ablaze.

Providence, R. I., Sept. 27. — The large lumber yards of Burrows & Kenyon on Washington street are burning, and adjoining property is threatened. A general alarm has called out all the fire fighting apparatus of the city and the police reserves.

MAKES WORK EASIER.

Plainfield People Are Pleased to Learn How it is Done.

It's pretty hard to attend to duties With a constantly aching back. Doan's Kidney Pills make work easier.

They cure backache.

They cure every kidney ill.

Jos. C. VanArsdale, carpenter and contractor, living at 213 Spooner avenue, says: "For several years I suffered from severe pains in my back, hips and loins so bad at times that it was almost impossible for me to get around and attend to my work. Any stooping or heavy lifting aggravated it and if I contracted a cold it always settled in my back and at such times my suffering was something intense. When Doan's Kidney Pills came to my notice I was in pretty bad shape and procuring them from L. W. Randolph's drug store I took a few doses when I found they were helping me and on completing the treatment I was quite free from pain. I always keep Doan's Kidney Pills on hand so as to have a sure remedy close by if the trouble should ever return."

WRECK CAUGHT FIRE

Maine Central Express Took Open Switch.

THREE DEAD, TEN SERIOUSLY HURT

Running Thirty Miles an Hour Train 24 Was Derailed, Piled Up and Cars Destroyed by Fire.

LEWISTON, Me., Sept. 27.—Three are dead, ten others seriously injured and some twenty more persons cut and bruised as the result of the wrecking of passenger train No. 24 on the Maine Central railroad, which ran into an open switch and crashed into a freight train opposite the state fair grounds, two and a half miles east of this city, late yesterday afternoon.

Engineer Kimball and Fireman Chapman were thrown forty feet from their cab. Chapman was killed instantly, and Kimball survived but a few seconds. The more seriously injured were removed to the Maine Central hospital.

The dead are William F. Kimball, Portland engineer; William Chapman, Rockland, fireman, and Almon Hodgson.

The more seriously injured are John R. Chase, Portland, baggagemaster, badly burned about face and hands; Eli Merriman, Portland, mail clerk, body burned and legs lacerated; Frank M. Snell, this city, car inspector, burned; A. T. Clark, express messenger, legs burned; E. C. Bickford, express messenger, legs burned; John W. Woodsum, this city, car inspector, burns on arms and body; Joseph E. Cook, Portland, traveling engineer of the Maine Central railroad, burns about head and body.

About a dozen other passengers were more or less seriously injured and were taken to the Maine Central hospital.

A parlor car was overturned, but none of the occupants were critically injured.

The wreckage caught fire almost immediately, those in the mail and express cars suffering chiefly from burns.

The train, which left Farmington at 2:25 o'clock for Portland, was made up of an express car, combination baggage and mail car, two day coaches and a parlor car.

It was running at a rate of thirty miles an hour when it took the open switch and plowed into the freight cars which had been side tracked. The engine and express car were practically demolished. The parlor car was thrown on its side, with the baggage and mail car piled on top. The smoker was turned at an angle of forty-five degrees, while the passenger coaches remained upright, although derailed.

When the wreckage caught fire from the engine the passengers of the smoker and day coaches became panic stricken, and many were cut in attempting to break through the windows.

It is claimed by some of the passengers of the wrecked train that the switch that caused the accident was not only open, but was locked.

Officers Arrested For Fraud.

BOSTON, Sept. 27.—George E. Stillings, Guy C. Stillings and J. Franklin Kniseley, president, secretary and Massachusetts manager respectively of the Preferred Mercantile company of this city, have each been held in $2,000 bail for the United States grand jury here on the charge of using the mails in a scheme to defraud. The government claimed that the company violated the lottery laws by disposing of diamonds by chance methods. Recently this company and all its officials were denied all mail privileges under a fraud order issued at Washington.

May Queen on the Rocks.

ST. JOHN, N. B., Sept. 27.—The steamer May Queen, plying on the St. John river and Grand lake, has been wrecked on the lake during a storm. No lives were lost, but fifty passengers and the crew suffered much discomfort. The steamer ran off her course during a thick mist, struck a rock and soon filled with water. The crew and passengers got the boats out, and in a short time all were safely landed. The steamer lies submerged in six feet of water, with a large hole in the bow. She may be a total loss.

Captain Has Met Foul Play.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Sept. 27.—Investigations made by the police have convinced them that Captain George Jorgensen of the barge Moonbeam, who disappeared Saturday, met with foul play. Captain Jorgensen was married Thursday. He took his bride at once to the barge, and on Saturday left her there while he went ashore to procure some provisions. He had upward of $500 in his possession at the time. He is a Dane, twenty-nine years of age.

Watson Won Tennis Finals.

TUXEDO PARK, N. Y., Sept. 27.—The interclub lawn tennis tourney held on the courts of the Tuxedo Tennis and Racket club for the club challenge cup reached the finals, in which C. F. Watson, Jr., and T. B. Souter, both of the Orange Lawn Tennis club, came together, which resulted in a victory for Watson.

Southbridge Pastor Dead.

SOUTHBRIDGE, Mass., Sept. 27.—Right Rev. Mgr. George Elzear Brochu, pastor of Notre Dame Catholic church, died here last night at the age of sixty-four years.

An Anti-American Senate.

BOGOTA, Sept. 27.—President Reyes is meeting with much opposition in the Colombian senate to the resumption of amicable relations with the United States.

The Republican spellbinders shout for the Flag; the Democratic stump-speakers for the Constitution, but the ward heeler in both parties only clamors for the dough.

Plainfield did not win the championship series but nevertheless the local fans saw some great games. Manager Denman is to be congratulated on having the strongest aggregation and Manager Johnston on doing the best he could under the circumstances.

HIGH SCHOOL BOYS IN TENNIS TOURNAMENT

GOOD SCORES MADE IN OPENING THE ANNUAL EVENT.

The annual fall tennis tournament under the auspices of the Plainfield High School Athletic Association, commenced yesterday afternoon on the courts of the Bronx Tennis Club, on Albert street. This is one of the important athletic features of the school year, and is always an event of much interest at the High School. The entry list this year is an unusually good one and contains the names of several ecxellent players. Chester H. Briggs, who has won the tournament for two years, will not enter the singles this year. Several members of the Bronx Club, including Howard Craig, last year's runner up, have entered for the tournament. The prize will be a silver cup offered by the association, and to become the permanent property of the winner.

A large number of High School pupils, together with several members of the faculty, assembled on the courts yesterday afternoon as Collier and Todd started the tournament. The court had just been put into condition, and the play was fast and interesting. In order that as many of the first round sets as possible might be played off, part of the tournament was contested on the Manning court, on Dunellen avenue. At the latter court, Taylor defeated Jahn, 6 0, 6 1; and S. Freeman defeated Bentley, 6 0, 6 1. The set between Collier and Todd resulted in a victory for the former by the score of 6-1, 6 3. The other sets in the preliminary round, which were played yesterday afternoon, resulted as follows: Gavett defeated Palmer, 6 3, 6 3; Doane defeated Williams, 6-0, 6-0; Strong defeated Brakeley, 6 3, 6-3; and Smith defeated Lapsley, 6 4 The remaining sets in the first round, and as many sets as possible in the second round will be played off tomorrow afternoon.

It is the hope of the committee in charge to complete the tournament in singles as soon as possible, as they have planned for a tournament in doubles to follow the present contest. The following names have been entered as contestants in the play for the championship in doubles: Craig and Briggs, the combination which ran away with the trophy last year; Collier and Thompson, Smith and Gavett, and Freeman and Strong. There will probably be at least three additional pairs entered in this tournament. The subject of a girls' tournament has been considered, but as yet nothing has been decided upon

REPUBLICANS TO RALLY AT ELIZABETH TONIGHT

PLAINFIELD DELEGATION WILL ATTEND BIG MASS-MEETING.

Congressman William P. Hepburn, of Iowa, one of the most distinguished campaign speakers in the country, will deliver an address at a Republican mass meeting to be held in Jacobs Theatre, Elizabeth, this evening. Congressman Charles N. Fowler will be the chairman of the meeting, which will be called at 8 o'clock by County Chairman Hamilton Fish Kean. Lee Fairchild, of California, a campaigner of National reputation, will also address the meeting. A large delegation from this city will be in attendance.

Special honors will be paid on this occasion to the Fremont and Dayton voters, for whom seats will be provided on the platform. Seats will also be reserved for Civil War veterans. Special accommodations will be made for women. The various Elizabeth clubs will meet at their headquarters and march to the theatre, while the visitors from this city and other places will be escorted from the depot. Datter's band will furnish music.

minster, Warrenville and in 1880 in North Plainfield township. That brought him into prominence locally and in 1882 he was engaged by Plainfield for the Reform school at Arlington and Fourth streets where he had received his own instruction. He remained there until 1884 and in recent years has been in schools located in nearby counties.

During his earlier experiences, teachers' salaries were smaller, the curriculum more circumscribed and the appliances more simple and primitive than at the present time, but brain matter was very much the same and those who have graduated from his classes have been well equipped for their life's work. There were many trying times when unruliness and other obstacles would have discouraged others less persevering but he continued on undaunted and even now has no intention of retiring from the field. He rides his wheel to and from school every day and though his time is well taken up, there is nothing he enjoys better than an hour's reminiscent chat about the time when he was "one of the boys" at the Fourth street school.

Miss Marguerite Bennett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Bennett, of Duer street, who was taken ill with typhoid fever while visiting relatives at Bensonhurst, L. I., was brought home Sunday. Although greatly fatigued she stood the journey nicely and is now doing very well.

DEMONSTRATION

Your attendance at the exhibit and demonstration of THE "ARNOLD" GOODS For Women's, Infants' and Children's Wear, is earnestly requested, and we think it will well repay you.

A lady representative of the Novelty Knitting Co., who is an experienced demonstrator, will be with us for several days, beginning this week, to exhibit and explain the merits and points of superiority of these popular garments without importuning you to purchase.

The KNIT SPECIALTIES are endorsed and recommended by prominent physicians, and are widely known as REFORM GARMENTS of the highest character. They are healthful, sensible and serviceable.

The WOVEN GARMENTS are designed especially for beauty, comfort and economy. The "Arnold" Goods comprise in part:

WOMEN'S Accouchment Bands, Maternity Robes, Serviette Napkins and Belts, Knit Bedroom Slippers, Flannel Night Robes, Umbrella Drawers, etc.

CHILDREN'S Night Drawers with or without feet, Day Drawers, Night Gowns, etc.

INFANTS' Gertrude Suits, Diapers, Bands, Vests, Bibs, Night Gowns, Wrappers, Leglets, Bath Aprons, a complete Knit Outfit for $12.75, etc.

Even if not in present need of any of these goods, we trust it will be your pleasure to call upon us while the demonstrator is here, that she may be allowed to explain their merits and show you the large variety we carry in stock.

SUBURBAN NEWS.

DUNELLEN AND VICINITY.

James Randolph, whose wife died a short time ago, intends to break up housekeeping and move to Elizabethport and make his home with his son. Mr. Randolph is the last of the old Greenbrook settlers who first moved there and built houses and started farming. In the last few years a great many modern houses have been built there and new people have come in, which seemed to drive the old ones out, for they have either moved away or died.

A party composed of Gus Todd, A. N. Randolph, T. W. Day, H. Garretson, N. Apgar, John Fenner and T. Stephen will take the 5:30 train to Keyport, N. J., where they will spend the day fishing.

It has been rumored about that Brit Martin, O'Loughlin and Scott, of the Clinton Avenue A. C., will play with the locals in their game against Perth Amboy on Saturday.

John Coyle has returned to work in the Levering & Garrigues Iron Works, after spending a week away from home.

William Dealaman has returned home from Virginia, where he has been spending a week's vacation.

Ambrose Birch, of Paterson, is spending a few days with his brother, Hughie Birch, of Front street.

Fowler Vail and family, who have been spending a week in the country, have returned home.

Running Elks' Wild West show passed through the borough yesterday afternoon.

Hughie Birch has accetepd a position with Willard N. Apgar & Co., carpenters.

Mrs. B. Conover, of Front street, is detained at her home by a slight illness.

Football practice will be held tonight on the Madison avenue grounds.

Lewis Churchill will return to Columbia College tomorrow morning.

The foundation for the Terry house has been completed.

'PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

The newly organized Scotch Plains bowling team will play the No Name team from Plainfield, on the West Side House alleys tonight. This is the first match game for the local team.

Mrs. Edward L. Hand, who is spending several weeks at Brimfield, Mass., for the benefit of her health, is improving very nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Thoma M. Paff, Jr., have been spending several days with Mrs. Paff's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Gere, in Brooklyn.

Mrs. Isaac Oliver, who has been spending several days with her sister, Mrs. Ann Dobbins, has returned to her home at Kearney.

The weekly ministers' conference meetng held yesterday in New York, was a memorial to the late Rev. Dr. G. C. Lorimer.

Louis B. Coddington and Charles Ball are at Morristown today, attending the Republican Congressional convention.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew G. Carpenter, of Plainfield, have been visiting William C. Stansbery, of Mountain avenue.

Miss Mamie Gallagher, who has been visiting Mrs. William H. Lee, has returned to her home in Metuchen.

Mrs. Isabella Billings is seriously ill at her home on Park avenue, her condition being considered critical.

The photographer who has been located on Park avenue, near the trolley, during the summer, has left.

The Orange F. C. football eleven will meet the strong Westfield team at Orange Oval Saturday afternoon.

The local ball team play the Willow Grove team on the local diamond Saturday afternoon.

Fanwood Council, R. A., holds its semi-monthly meeting in the Library rooms tonight.

SOUTH PLAINFIELD.

Miss Laura Manning is spending a few days at Asbury Park. Her sister, Mrs. Voorhees, will spend a few days here visiting her parents.

George W. Stowes, of Oak Tree, lost a fine St. Bernard dog on Saturday afternoon. It was killed by a car close to his residence.

William B. Manning has failed in strength and general health of late. He is under the care of Dr. W. K. Browning.

Nellie Hanna is seriously ill with pneumonia, with an inclination to typhoid.

Water will be piped to the Baptist church by the Middlesex Water Company.

Walter Sisty has returned home after a short visit with friends here.

Dr. Giddes, of Plainfield, went up the pond after ducks yesterday.

VETERANS TO ASSEMBLE AT FLEMINGTON OCT. 12

MANY PLAINFIELDERS WILL PARTICIPATE IN REUNION OF 30TH REGT.

The fourteenth annual reunion of the Thirtieth Regiment of New Jersey Volunteers will be held at Flemington on October 12. This yearly reunion of the veterans is an affair of considerable interest in this city, many members of the regiment being local residents. There will be delegates from various cities in this State, including Newark, Perth Amboy, Dunellen, Elizabeth, Bound Brook, Somerville, Raritan and Flemington.

The usual annual business meeting will be held at which the officers for the coming year will be elected and committees appointed to serve till the next reunion. The meeting will be in charge of J. Frank Hubbard, of this city, the president of the association. There will be speeches by several local members, and a patriotic programme has been arranged. The following local members of the organization will attend: J. Frank Hubbard, Nelson Runyon, the vice president of the association, Charles Randolph, Theodore Runyon, Randolph Thorn, J. Lance Mundy, Peter V. Weaver, David R. Weaver, Theodore Rutan, Samuel Moore, John B. Stryker, John Giddis, Jacob Manning and Ben Rogers.

The Thirtieth Regiment was one of the New Jersey regiments which enlisted for nine months. Their period of service, however, extended over fifteen months, in the years 1862, '63 and '64. The principal battles in which the thirtieth was represented were the battle of Petersburg, Chancellorsville and Frederickburg. In these engagements, the regiment suffered severe losses, as did all of the New Jersey troops at that time.

ARREST OF GURNEY.

Secretary of Embassy Held as Lawbreaker.

RUSHED CAR TWENTY MILES AN HOUR

Diplomats Are Relieved From Legal Responsibility and Judge Phelps May Have Exceeded His Authority.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—A Pittsfield (Mass.) dispatch says that Hugh Gurney, third secretary of the British embassy, was fined in the Lee district court for contempt of court and for violating the speed law in Stockbridge. Mr. Gurney was arrested by Deputy Sheriff D. A. Noble, who alleged that Gurney was operating his motor car at a rate of speed exceeding twenty miles an hour.

When arraigned in the Lee district court Mr. Gurney was accompanied by two other members of the embassy. He was asked to plead to the complaint which had been made and refused to do so on the ground that he was a British subject and a member of the British embassy.

Judge H. T. Phelps was on the bench. Mr. Phelps is a prominent resident of Lee and a promoter. He knows common law, but has had little experience with court matters. He knows, however, that Lenox residents have little respect for speed ordinances.

Judge Phelps said to the diplomat:

"You plead to the complaint or I will fine you for contempt of court."

When Mr. Gurney refused to plead the judge said:

"You are fined $25 for contempt of court and $25 for violating the speed law.

"An officer will accompany you to Lenox for the amount of the fine," said the court. The diplomat left the courtroom, accompanied by a deputy sheriff, who went with him to Lenox, where the money was paid over.

Judge Phelps was seen at the close of the court. "I don't care to discuss the case for publication," he said. "I will say that members of the British embassy or any other embassy will be treated the same as any citizen of the commonwealth in this court."

Notice of the action of a special justice at Lee, Mass., in finding Hugh Gurney, third secretary of the British embassy, was received at the state department in a telegram from Mr. Raikes, first secretary of the embassy, who is at Lenox. The department immediately transmitted this telegram in substance to the governor of Massachusetts, with the suggestion that he do whatever might be necessary to secure the diplomatic immunity of Mr. Gurney. It is believed at the department that the matter may be far more serious than the local officials at Lee seem to regard it. In the first place, by constitutional and statutory law the persons attached to an embassy are expressly relieved from any legal responsibility, and exemption even extends to domestic servants. Section 4063, revised statutes, declares that any writ prosecuted in any court of the United States or of a state or by any judge or justice intended to cause the arrest and imprisonment of any public minister or his servant shall be void. The succeeding section, 4064, revised statutes, provides that every person by whom any such protest is obtained or prosecuted, whether as party or attorney, and every officer concerned in its execution "shall be deemed a violator of the law of the nations and a disturber of the public repose and shall be imprisoned for not more than three years and fined at the discretion of the court."

It will remain for the governor of Massachusetts to take initial action in this case, which will require prompt redress. The last important precedent occurred in 1892 at the picnic resort of Bay Ridge, near Baltimore, when Dr. George, an attache of the Swiss legation in Washington, was arrested by a deputy sheriff on the charge of being a pickpocket and was searched and otherwise treated in a humiliating manner by the local authorities. The state department secured his release at an early moment through the governor of Maryland, who also caused the dismissal of the offending deputy and extended an apology for the incident. Though the Swiss minister might have pressed further punishment, he accepted what had been done as sufficient, but the matter was deemed of such importance that he could not give this notice to other governments unless the Swiss federal council had formally considered the case and expressed itself satisfied.

Poisoned Judge In Critical State.

MOUNT STERLING, Ky., Sept. 27.—News of an attempt to poison the family of Judge William May of Sayiersville, Magoffin county, has just reached here. Arsenic was used, and the meal was eaten without the family discovering anything wrong. Judge May, Mrs. Ed Stephens, Sheriff John Patrick and Ed Stephens were affected. Judge May is in a critical condition, but the others are out of danger.

Victims of Southern Railway Wreck.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Sept. 27.—A body at one of the morgues has been identified as that of David S. Fox of Birmingham, Ala., a victim of the Southern railway wreck near Newmarket, Tenn., and a body which was shipped to Birmingham for Fox is now said to be J. M. Daley of Detroit.

Burial of Ex-Mayor Edson.

ALBANY, N. Y., Sept. 27.—The body of former Mayor Franklin Edson of New York, whose funeral occurred in that city, has been brought here and buried in the family plot at the Rural cemetery.

GENERAL WRIGHT'S REPORT.

Political Utterances Regarding Philippines Affecting Natives.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—President Roosevelt is in receipt of a letter from General Luke E. Wright, governor of the Philippines, in which the governor discusses frankly some of the conditions which he encounters in directing the government of the islands. General Wright writes in part:

"The effect of the continued discussion as to the capacity of the Filipino for self government and his immediate or ultimate independence is having its effect here and makes our task more difficult than it otherwise would be. The less a man is equipped with intelligence and those qualities which make for good citizenship the more easily can he be persuaded that he is the possessor of all these qualities. This people have their full share of ambition and vanity, and they also have their full share of reckless half formed characters who are ready for intrigue in any direction which promises them profit or power. It is this class which has largely given force and direction to the agilpayan movement and has recruited its ranks from the ignorant and dangerous elements.

"In this general connection I may say to you as a matter of information that the agitation in the United States for Filipino independence and the spoken and written utterances of prominent men there who are urging it are all brought here and published in the native newspapers and are being made the text for editorials insisting that the Filipino people are now ready to become an independent nation. The effect of all this is distinctly injurious. Its tendency is to restore the influence of the old insurrection leaders and to make them active in preaching the old propaganda. This in turn has the effect of demoralizing and weakening the more conservative and thoughtful Filipinos, who fear that if they speak out as they really think they would be considered the enemies of their people and lose their prestige with them. Those of the more prominent and best educated, and who naturally have their ambitions, are inclined to join in the general cry."

Victims of New York Central Wreck.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—The body of Mrs. Newman Erb, wife of Vice President Erb of the Pere Marquette railroad, who was fatally injured in the wreck of the New York Central railroad near Lyons, was brought here on a special train and taken to the family residence. Mr. Erb, who also was injured in the wreck, was brought here on the same train. His condition is not serious, but his physician said that a small broken bone in one of his legs would confine him to his bed for some time. It is thought that the other injuries sustained by Mr. Erb in the crash were merely superficial and that he will soon recover from their effects.

Shipbuilding Works Bought In.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 27.—The Union Iron works, one of the properties of the former United States Shipbuilding corporation, was sold at public auction by order of the federal court of the district of New Jersey for $170,000. The only bidder was Francis D. Pollock, representing the reorganization company of the new Shipbuilding company, 70 per cent of the stock of which is owned by Charles M. Schwab.

Drowned Daughter and Self.

DAVIS ON STUMPING TOUR.

Itinerary of the Democratic Vice Presidential Candidate.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—Daniel McConville, chairman of the speakers' bureau of the Democratic national committee, has received a letter from Henry Gassaway Davis in which the vice presidential candidate said that he had completed arrangements for his speaking tour through West Virginia.

The start will be made from Baltimore on Monday, Oct. 10, after a meeting in that city which will be addressed by the vice presidential candidate, Senator Arthur Pue Gorman, ex-Senator William Pinkney Whyte, Senator John W. Daniel of Virginia, and ex-Senator David B. Hill of New York.

Senators Daniel, Hill and Whyte will accompany Mr. Davis on his entire trip through West Virginia. Stops will be made at every town along the lines of the Baltimore and Ohio, Chesapeake and Ohio and Norfolk and Western railroads.

On Tuesday, Oct. 11, the party will be divided so that two will speak at Piedmont and two at Kayser, and on Wednesday two will speak at Grafton and two at Clarksburg. On Thursday evening, Oct. 13, all four will speak at Wheeling, on Friday at Parkersburg and on Saturday at Huntington and Charleston.

On Monday morning the party will leave Charleston over the Chesapeake and Ohio for connection with the Norfolk and Western, and during the balance of the week speeches will be made at various points along that railroad.

Senator Gorman will join the party from time to time and will speak at several meetings in the larger towns.

INSULT TO CONSULATE.

Admiral Sigsbee at Carthagena Obtained Reiterated Regrets.

COLON, Sept. 27.—The American consulate at Carthagena having been twice recently besmeared with filth, Rear Admiral Sigsbee, with his flagship, the Newark, was ordered to proceed to Carthagena and investigate the circumstances. The gunboat Newport, Commander Mertz, joined the flagship.

In a communication to the governor, Luis Patron, Admiral Sigsbee says in part: "I find your expressions of regret for the acts of indecency on behalf of yourself and your government satisfactory, but that they have not been given sufficient publicity. I suggest additional precautions to prevent a recurrence of such incidents and fuller publicity of the government's expressions of regret in order to avoid a friendly visit assuming a more difficult feature."

Governor Patron complied by reiterating his regrets.

New Governor at St. John's.

ST. JOHN'S, N. F., Sept. 27.—Sir William MacGregor, the new governor of Newfoundland, has arrived here from Liverpool on board the Allan line steamer Siberian. He met with a warm reception at the landing. The warships Charybdis, Fantome and Calypso, which were in port, participated in the reception. Governor MacGregor has taken the oath of office and assumed executive dpties. It is understood that he brings assurances of the certainty of the ratification of the Anglo-French treaty by the French chambers this month.

Seeking a Warmer Climate.

WINNIPEG, Man., Sept. 27.—Word has been received here from a Doukhobor colony near Saskatoon, N. W. T., that a large body of Doukhobors has started on a march for the United States. This time they are not looking for Jesus, but are on the trek for a warmer climate. The affair is causing much excitement, as it is known to what extreme these people will go to obtain their ends. It is feared they have started on the longest pilgrimage they have ever had. The Canadian northwest mounted police is rushing to the scene.

Lady Curzon Better.

LONDON, Sept. 27.—The oxygen treatment of Lady Curzon is being continued, but the oxygen is administered in less quantity, and the patient is taking nourishment better. Lord Curzon, for the first time in a week, has ventured out for a walk on the sea front. Arrangements have been made to keep Mrs. Leiter, who is a passenger on board the steamer Vaderland, informed by wireless telegraph of the condition of her daughter.

Pope Protests.

ROME, Sept. 27.—The pope has addressed to the cardinal vicar a protest against the congress of freethinkers held here last week. The text is published in the Osservatore Romano, with a letter from the cardinal vicar inviting Catholics to attend a service of atonement to be held in all the basilicas of Rome on Thursday next.

Big Tannery Burned.

OLEAN, N. Y., Sept. 27.—Fire destroyed the Buswell & Hubbard tannery here, throwing about 200 men out of employment. The buildings and stock were insured for $125,000, the loss being total. There were about 14,000 hides on hand.

Education In Porto Rico.

SAN JUAN, Porto Rico, Sept. 27.—Porto Rico's 1,007 public schools opened, with 60,000 pupils enrolled. In the first school year during American occupation there were 800 schools, with 25,000 pupils.

White Boys Won.

RICHMOND, Va., Sept. 27.—After a fight of nine months waged by the white messenger boys the negro messenger service of the Western Union here has been abandoned and the white service restored.

GOWNS FOR AUTUMN.

Princess and Directoire Styles Are Both Considered Smart.

Princess gowns are to be worn again to a large extent. They will take the form of the genuine old fashioned princess dress, which has been modified of late out of all recognition.

Many of the new princess styles will be fashioned in two distinct pieces contrived in such a manner that the division is not visible.

A charming princess dinner dress is carried out in point de venise mounted on pale pink mousseline de soie. The decolletage is draped with white tulle and adorned with festoons of pearls. The sleeves, which open to reveal the shoulders and upper parts of the arm, are held by bretelles of pearls.

Directoire styles are to have great vogue this season, and when all the characteristics of this mode are not employed in a single frock there will be little hints of the directoire in most of the up to date costumes.

The picture is of a dainty little costume of cream colored voile with modified touches of the directoire style to be seen about the cape collar revers and cuffs of black taffeta. The cuffs have smart little frills of narrow lace edging, which shows up very prettily over the wrinkled undersleeve of mousseline de soie held at the wrist with velvet ribbon. The girdle is of the black taffeta and fastens with a long, narrow gilt buckle.

FASHION'S TREND.

Crosses as Pendants—Much Jewelry Is Now Worn.

A great deal of jewelry is being worn, and even the fastidious woman is not averse to wearing the mock gems in artistic and eccentric designs which a few years ago she would have considered bad form.

Garnets are again fashionable, and an old brooch of these pretty red stones, a real heirloom, is an object to be cherished and worn.

Crosses of all kinds will be seen dangling from my lady's little neck chain of thin linked gold. The mosaic cross set in dull Roman gold is a revived novelty, as is also the golden snare with ruby eyes worn around the throat.

A pretty stone that is coming into vogue and harmonizes well with the reddish tints to be seen in so many of the fall fabrics is the Mexican opal. It is not expensive and quite repays in beauty of coloring for an elaborate setting. Mexican opals linked with antique gold make a charming bracelet. Hatpins in this tone are exquisite for the keeping in position of hats trimmed with orange and red.

BROWN BEAVER HAT.

Women who possess old lace should always wear it, but it is too costly for the multitude, who need not, however, despair, for there are such admirable imitations, which demand a connoisseur to distinguish them from the original. The transparent lace trimmed dresses are very fascinating, and so are the flowered voiles and delaines, which only need lace for the yokes, but they all have to be made up over silk foundations.

The hat pictured is of light brown beaver, the high dented crown encircled with a roll of orange velvet. At the very much raised side are bunches of brown ostrich feathers and an orange aigret.

RELICS OF THE WAR.

ARMCHAIR OF GEN. LEE NOW OWNED BY OHIO VETERAN.

Plain Piece of Furniture Was Used by Confederate Chieftain All Through the War—Zollikofer's Sleeve Buttons.

Cincinnati (O.) Special.

A priceless relic of the war between the states, and one that is almost sacred in the eyes of the southern people, is in possession of J. M. Barnes, a veteran of the Union army, living on Station avenue, Winton place.

The Commercial Tribune states that it is the great armchair Gen. Robert E. Lee used in all of his campaigns from '61 to '65, and in which he sat when he surrendered the army of Northern Virginia to Gen. Grant at Appomattox courthouse.

Effort after effort has been made by former governors of Virginia, by confederate generals who fought under "Marse Bob," and who loved him well, and even by curiosity hunters, to secure the hallowed relic of the Lost Cause, but to all of them Mr. Barnes has given the same answer—that he, too, admired the great southern chieftain and intended to keep the chair as long as he lived.

Many years ago Former Gov. Wise of Virginia urgently pleaded with the owner of the chair to sell it to him in order that it might be placed in the Confederate museum, at Richmond.

Gen. Fitzhugh Lee, when governor of the Old Dominion, wrote in a similar strain.

Gen. Hawley, one of Lee's cavalry commanders, would buy it whether or no, and went so far as to send his son from Virginia to Winton Place to argue the matter with Mr. Barnes.

Colonel, now Judge, Albert S. Berry, of Newport, Ky., sent his friend, William Glenn, with an offer of purchase and a local dime museum sent a tempting offer.

At the time of the surrender at Appomattox Gen. Grant's orderly, and of whom he thought much, was J. M.

GEN. LEE'S ARMCHAIR.
(Used by Confederate Chieftain in All His Campaigns.)

Patterson, of Delaware, O., and a half-brother of Barnes. Patterson made the special request of Grant that he be allowed to keep the "Bob Lee rocker," as it was called in the confederate army. The request was granted, and the relic was shipped to the orderly's mother, Mrs. Belinda Patterson, at Delaware, who retained it until 25 years ago, when she gave it to Barnes.

The chair is a great massive piece of furniture. It is built of gum and has a cane seat and cane back. It is immensely heavy and cumbersome, but withal is comfortable and restful.

When it was captured it was in the natural wood, but a few years ago the veteran's young daughter Etha, decided that it was neither pretty nor ornamental, and taking it out in the backyard painted it a bright red and put a coat of gilt on the head piece.

Miss Etha had an unpleasant half hour when her father learned of what she had done.

Prior to that Mr. Barnes himself removed the great branching rockers and they now repose on a pile of rubbish in his cellar.

Seventeen years ago, when the National encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic met at Columbus, O., Mr. Barnes, who was then a member of Reno Post, No. 279, Williamsport, Pa., allowed the post to take the old relic to the great gathering.

There it was an object of the deepest veneration to the veterans who once hated Lee. It was surrounded by a great crowd all the time, and the old fellows considered it an honor and a privilege to sit in it.

Mr. Barnes has another relic which he prizes highly. It is a sleeve button that he took from the dead body of the confederate Gen. Zollikofer, after that officer had been shot to death by his West Point friend, Gen. Richard Frey, of the union army.

It is a cheap, gold-plated affair, and on it is enameled the head of a dragon.

"The death of Gen. Zollikofer was very dramatic," said Barnes. "It was at the battle of Mill Springs, Ky., and Zollikofer and Frey came face to face in the heat of the fight. The confederate leader smiled pleasantly at his former West Point comrade, and called out: 'How are you, Dick?'

"'Surrender!' said Frey in reply, and instantly the two men drew their revolvers. Zollikofer wore a long rain coat and this got in his way, so Frey had the draw on him first and shot him through the breast, killing him instantly."

Good Moral Prescription.

[illegible]ence is to the soul what [illegible] body.

MORE HUMANE WARFARE.

The Percentage of Deaths Steadily Diminishes as Weapons Grow More Deadly.

It is only a few years ago that M. Bloch wrote his book, "The War." This book is alleged to have moved the czar to proclaim his great message of peace.

M. Bloch gave terribly realistic pictures of modern war, and prophesied that it would be impossible in the near future for nations to engage in deadly struggle. War was to cost millions of pounds sterling a day, and men were to die like flies, says the Atlanta Constitution.

But what are the facts? Two great wars have broken out in the small space of time since M. Bloch gave his opinions to the world, and in every case his deductions, with the exception of cost, have proved to be false.

The fact is that while war is becoming more humane, the risk of being killed or dying of disease is very much minimized. Less than 100 years ago it was no uncommon thing for 50,000 or 60,000 men to be knocked hors de combat in a single day. In modern warfare, despite the mathematical precision of death-dealing weapons, these figures could not possibly be approached.

And there are reasons which are not apparent at first sight. In the first place, the trajectory—the height a bullet rises from the ground—of a modern rifle is only five feet in the first 500 yards, if the rifle be aimed point blank at advancing troops.

In olden days a bullet soared high in the air, particularly at the longer ranges, but in the olden days men advanced shoulder to shoulder to the attack. A regiment marched forward en masse, but nowadays all that is changed. In an attack men rush forward, at many paces interval, and the risk of their being shot is thus much lessened.

In short, while the manufacture of lethel weapons has advanced by leaps and bounds, the science of warfare has kept pace with that advance. And, further, the science of surgery has outstripped both the cunning of the warrior and the maker of the guns.

The modern bullet is not a man-stopper. The old Schneider bullet put the strongest man out of action, and occasioned a terrible pain, if the man were not struck in a vital part.

The Martini bullet followed. It was not so heavy nor so clumsily shaped as the Schneider, and an energetic man could struggle along although wounded.

Later came the Lee-Metford bullet, with its elongated body, and unless it strikes a man on the heart or brain it does not knock him hors de combat. In fact, several men shot through the brain in China and South Africa are serving in the army to-day.

Roughly speaking, during the past 100 years the percentage of killed and wounded in battle has fallen from 23 per 100 to somewhere about ten. That was the average of casualties in South Africa.

Perhaps the most deadly engagement in the history of international war was that of Borodino, between the French and Russians. The Russians lost some 40,000 men—the loss is occasionally put at 50,000—out of an army of 121,000; while the French lost 70,000 men out of 125,000. In comparison with the casualties in modern battle, the figures are appalling.

LACE MAKING IN BELGIUM.

A Thousand Schools Impart Instruction to Women and Children Workers.

Belgium has indeed become the great lace-making center of the world. With its 1,000 lace schools and 150,000 workers—chiefly women, though tiny children and even grown-up boys are by no means exempt from this dainty duty—it is turning out millions of dollars' worth of hand-made lace each year. The women lace makers are called dentellieres, says Woman's Home Companion.

Though the shop in the Belgian city is the mecca of the fair purchaser, it is the little town with its horde of lace makers that also interests the tourist. It is common all over Belgium, in fact, to see the humble lace maker working away in front of her cottage door. Usually there is a row of them—probably a score—who have gathered from one street before one particular house, where all day long "the needle plies its busy task." Between turns of the needle or twists of the bobbin the worker sings a song commending Saint Anne, patron saint of the dentelliers, which concludes, after declaring work a burden, with the wish that "every day was the fete of Saint Anne." It is as natural for these poorer women in Belgium to make lace as to eat, and even the babies are brought up on the bobbin, as it were. The little ones are placed in a low chair at one end of the row of lace makers, and given a simple pattern to do, that perhaps another franc may be secured for the family pocketbook.

There they work, day after day, at exceedingly low pay. From seven in the morning until seven at night, the toiler bends over the pattern, usually receiving daily one franc and 25 centimes—the whole amount equal to about 25 cents in American money—or even less, only 50 centimes a day, or ten cents, being not uncommon remuneration.

World's Wheat Crop.

A summary of a review of the world's wheat crop for the present year is as follows: United States, no probable increase in acreage or improvement condition; Canada, increased area; Russia, small sowing; France, smaller area, but better average crops. Austria-Hungary, favorable prospects; Germany, appreciable improvement; Italy, not so favorable; United Kingdom, smallest area on record; Australasia, double surplus of last year; Argentina, very large crop.

Why Lots in these Cemeteries commend themselves to Heads of Families and Investors

BECAUSE of the $1,000,000 Trust Fund provided for by the Trustees in each Cemetery, the income from which will keep the properties perpetually beautiful at NO EXPENSE TO LOT OWNERS.

BECAUSE such a guarantee, not found in any other cemetery, assures lot owners that the grounds WILL BE MAINTAINED PERMANENTLY AS BEAUTIFUL PARKS AFTER THE INCOME FROM THE SALE OF LOTS HAS BEEN EXHAUSTED.

LOTS SHOULD BE PURCHASED NOW.

BECAUSE MORE ADVANTAGES ARE OFFERED TO LOT BUYERS in a new Modern Park Cemetery than in those established many years and, in most cases, no provision made for perpetual care without extra expense to lot owners. THERE ARE A GREATER NUMBER OF IDEAL LOCATIONS TO SELECT FROM, PRICES OF LOTS ARE ALWAYS LOWER AND TERMS MORE ADVANTAGEOUS.

BECAUSE life is most uncertain and EVERY ONE SHOULD ANTICIPATE THE INEVITABLE BY MAKING A CHOICE NOW OF A FINAL RESTING PLACE.

LOTS WILL PROVE A GOOD INVESTMENT

BECAUSE they are sure to increase in value and can be purchased NOW at the INITIAL or LOWEST PRICE and upon the most ADVANTAGEOUS TERMS.

BECAUSE the properties are ACCESSIBLE TO 4,000,000 PEOPLE, and considering the RAPID GROWTH OF GREATER NEW YORK and its TRIBUTARY CITIES and TOWNS, it is only a question of a SHORT TIME when LOTS in ROSEDALE and LINDEN PARK will EQUAL IN VALUE those of our MOST NOTED cemeteries.

Port Arthur Fleet Will Attempt to Break Out.

WAR CORRESPONDENTS DISGUSTED

Japanese Play the War Game With Courtesy to Red Cross—Extensive Flank Movement East of Mukden.

LONDON, Sept. 27.—It is reported from St. Petersburg that Rear Admiral Wiren will attempt to break out of Port Arthur with his ships and return to Europe. The task of escaping from Admiral Togo appears to be hopeless if Admiral Cervera's attempt to get away from Santiago is remembered. Wiren's men, unlike the Spaniards, have had plenty of war experience and are in a desperate position.

A dispatch from Chefu says that the foreign military attaches and newspaper correspondents with the second army witnessed the battle of Liaoyang from a distance of eight miles and that they protested to the Japanese authorities because of this restriction upon their movements. General Oku replied that in the future they would be permitted to witness engagements from a distance of four miles, whereupon the correspondents left the second army deciding to make an attempt to reach Port Dalny.

Melton Prior, the famous British war correspondent, says he believes that, with the possible exception of the battle of Liaoyang, not one correspondent has seen a shot fired, and he even doubts if the Liaoyang fighting was really closely witnessed by any newspaper man.

A statement from a person on board the Russian hospital ship Mongolia, at Port Arthur, describing the fight following Rear Admiral Withoft's sortie, pays a tribute to the courtesy and consideration shown by the Japanese. The Mongolia was twice cut off from the squadron, but the Japanese signaled her to steer to the left, which she did. Once the Mongolia was between two fires, and frequently Japanese torpedo boats passed quite close to her, but she was not attacked throughout the fight and returned safely to Port Arthur.

A dispatch has been received at St. Petersburg from General Kuropatkin announcing that the Japanese are preparing an extensive turning movement east of Mukden.

A large force is advancing from Liaoyang, by way of Taitse, to Sianchan. Skirmishes have occurred in the valley of the Hun river and at Inpu, between Bentsiaputze and the railroad. There were many casualties in Inpu.

Kratz Trial at Butler, Mo.

BUTLER, Mo., Sept. 27.—The trial of Charles Kratz, member of the St. Louis council, for bribery was continued again by Judge Walter W. Graves because Kratz is critically sick after an operation for appendicitis. Before this continuance was granted Charles G. Hunt, one of the summoned jury panel, made affidavit that J. S. Francisco, one of Kratz's lawyers, had attempted to bribe him with $200 to vote for Kratz's acquittal provided he (Hunt) was chosen as one of the twelve to try the case. Because of this charge Mr. Folk filed motions to have the entire panel quashed.

Fatal Explosion of Alcohol.

MARION, Ind., Sept. 27.—An explosion of alcohol in the basement of the Marion hospital has resulted in the fatal burning of Burr Wallace, an employee, and a panic among the patients. Dr. Albert Davis, superintendent of the hospital, was painfully burned about the hands and face in an effort to extinguish the burning clothing on Wallace, who while his clothes were burning ran into the yard among the patients. Alexander Thompson, county superintendent of the public schools, is in a serious condition as the result of being removed from the hospital.

Will Be Easy on Jack Ashore.

HAVANA, Sept. 27.—As the result of representations by Minister Squiers the Cuban government has pardoned a sailor from an American warship who was sentenced at Santiago to two months' imprisonment for disorderly conduct. It is understood that severe sentences sometimes imposed by the Guantanamo and Santiago courts upon American sailors on shore leave will not hereafter be considered justifiable and that sailors in such cases will be turned over to their commanding officers for discipline.

Melton Prior's Complaint.

HONOLULU, Sept. 27.—Melton Prior, the British newspaper correspondent who arrived here on the Pacific mail steamer Mongolia from Yokohama, says he feels absolutely certain that the war in the far east will lead to European complications and to the most awful war in the world's history. Mr. Prior complains that Japan has displayed bad faith toward all the correspondents. This, he says, is his twenty-seventh campaign, and it is the only one in which he has seen nothing.

Congratulations For Parker.

ESOPUS, N. Y., Sept. 27.—Many telegrams came to Rosemount congratulating Judge Parker on his letter of acceptance. Some of the dispatches came from prominent figures in the Democratic party and a few from editors. A delegation of thirty-six Democrats from Poughkeepsie came to Rosemount and spent an hour with Judge Parker. Judge Parker and his secretary went to New York this morning.

SPORTING NEWS.

DIAMOND DUST.

Virgil Garvin won his game for Ridgewood against the Poughkeepsies on Sunday, striking out eighteen men.

The Murray Hills and Hobokens will play for the semi-professional championship of the East on Election Day at the Polo grounds.

"Chick" Cruzius, formerly of the Scotch Plains team, is now playing short-stop for the Summit A. A. team, and is making good.

Manager Denman released McManus and Patience at the ferry on Saturday, but they went to Westfield and the manager was glad to use them in the game.

Manager Johnston has decided to get a heavier-hitting third baseman for the rest of the season. He likes Courtney's work, but in stick work he has fallen off.

There is a feeling of general satisfaction that the Plainfield-Westfield series is concluded. A majority of fans have thought ten gmes too many and the interest was beginning to lag.

There is every possibility that the New York Nationals will play here on Saturday, October 15, and "Christy" Mathewson will pitch for the leaguers. Garvin will be in the box for Plainfield.

"Warry" McLaughlin, who is pitching for the Elizabeth Stars, had a day off Saturday, and he was extra man for Manager Johnston at Westfield. Owing to "Warry's" hitting ability, it was hoped that he would be put in the game.

Will Address Editors' Convention.

William Jeffery, of the borough, left this morning for White Plains, N. Y., where he will address the convention of New York State Republican editors on the Bostwick bill, which seeks to bring about taxation reforms in the Empire State. The honor accorded Mr. Jeffery is one seldom extended as the editors generally have no outsiders at their conventions.

Sister Sues Brother.

Suit in tort has been commenced in Justice Moffett's court by Miss Fannie Alston against her brother, John Alston, on the ground that he is unlawfully holding furniture which belongs to her. The matter will be heard by a jury Friday morning. Miss Alston is represented by Codington & Swackhamer, while Hetfield & Hetfield have been retained by the defendant.

Death of John H. Thys.

John H. Thys, of Scotch Plains, died last night after a long illness, at his father's residence at the corner of Terrill road and East Second street. He was thirty-six years of age and is survived by his father, Joseph Thys. The deceased was a prominent Odd Fellow and was very well known in Plainfield.

Miss Addie Roberts and Miss Work, of Prospect place, left today for Catawissa, Pa., where they will attend the wedding of N. G. Campbell, of the borough, and Miss Catherine A. Anthony, at that place.

VACATION DAYS ARE FIXED BY SCHOOL BOARD

MANY MATTERS CONSIDERED BY THE BOROUGH BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Included in a lot of routine business transacted by the Borough Board of Education at its regular meeting, last evening, was the approval of the first payment to Contractor W. O. Smith for work on the new school building. The remainder is to be turned over in various portions as the work is completed. On Superintendent Wightman's suggestion, the Board adopted the card system for cataloguing the books in the school library, which is now one of the largest of its kind in the State, numbering in all over 14,000 volumes. More are constantly being added and when the new building is occupied a surplus in the library extension fund will be spent in books.

Richard MacDonald and William Lunger were re-appointed truant officers and the following vacation dates were fixed: Election day, November 8; Institute and Thanksgiving Day, November 20 and 26; winter vacation, December 20 to January 5; Lincoln's birthday, February 12; Washington's birthday, February 22; Easter vacation, April 23 to 29; Decoration Day, May 30. Two sewing machines were ordered for the manual training department and certain recommendations in regard to disinfecting parts of the school buildings, made by Dr. J. Hervey Buchanan, will be followed out.

CAR VS. WAGON.

Latter Comes Out Second Best in Collision on West Front Street.

An upset hay wagon, the result of a collision with a trolley car, was the cause of a delay in the trolley service and a general blocking up of West Front street, near Clinton avenue, yesterday afternoon. The accident happened at about 5 o'clock and according to eye witnesses was in no way the fault of the motorman.

The hay wagon is the property of Charles Baldwin, and was bound from Dunellen to Plainfield. The trolley car was bound east, and was in charge of William Bunker, motorman, and William Seip, conductor. Baldwin was driving well over on the right side of the road, allowing plenty of room for the trolley to pass. Bunker rang his bell as he approached the wagon, but seeing that the vehicle was out of the way, he attempted to go ahead. When the front of the car was directly opposite the rear of the hay wagon, the driver pulled his horses to the left with the intent to turn into Mariners place and the collision followed.

Neither the horses or the driver were in any way injured, though it was a long time before the wreck was cleared. Mr. Baldwin was much disturbed over the event, and declared that the loss to him would be quite heavy.

BADE HER FAREWELL.

Miss Conover Departs to Resume Work at Hot Springs, N. C.

The King's Messengers Band, of the First Presbyterian church, tendered a farewell reception yesterday afternoon, to Miss Conover, of the Dorland Institute, Hot Springs, N. C., who has been spending her vacation in this city. Miss Conover is an earnest member of the band and has taken an active part in the work during her stay here. After prayer had been offered she was asked to deliver an address, and spoke for about half an hour on her work at the institute and described the people who live near Hot Springs and have the advantage of its teaching. They are on the whole, she said, of an inferior type, but many are anxious to learn and make most interesting pupils.

The meeting was brought to a close by the singing of "God Be With You Till We Meet Again," and it was announced that the sewing class of the King's Messengers would endeavor to help Miss Conover by sending her some of their needlework from time to time for the use of her pupils. She leaves Plainfield on Friday afternoon.

High School Basket Ball Tonight.

The basket ball team of the city High School will play a practice game with the Hope chapel team tonight in the latter's gymnasium, at 8 o'clock. The High School team will be the same as the one which represented it last year, with the exception of Doane, who will take the place of H. C. Fenno, who graduated. The school team will line up as follows: Collier, center; Thompson, forward; Freeman, guard; Doane, forward, and Gavett, guard. Harry Thompson will be in charge of the school boys.

—Neuman Brothers have just commenced a special sale on fancy crackers of all kinds. Low prices will be a feature and for some of the most important see their advertisement in today's issue.

FOWLER IS NOMINATED

Among them will be William D. Hepburn, of Iowa; Hon. Lee Fairchild, of California, and others well known in this vicinity.

Following the various caucuses, the convention assembled at 12 o'clock and James H. McGraw, of Madison, editor of the Railway Guide, was introduced by Former Mayor Charles J. Fisk, of this city, as temporary chairman. After the announcement of the various committees and a brief recess, John I. Blair Riley was made permanent chairman. C. S. Higgins, of Elizabeth, was made vice president from Union, and Charles J. Fisk, of Plainfield, and Charles B. Holmes, of Rahway, were reappointed members of the Congressional committee from Union county.

The platform adopted refers to the fact that the convention is being held just a half century after the birthday of the Republican party and endorses the National platform. It eulogizes Theodore Roosevelt and pledges him support. It approves the Republican platform of New Jersey and expresses gratification of the efficient Murphy administration and promises support to E. C. Stokes. It also refers to Fowler as a faithful servant and commends United States Senator John Kean.

Plainfield was well represented in the attendance outside of the delegates among the more prominent being City Judge William N. Runyon, John W. Murray, George Ball, Alex Ayers, John H. Cose and Edward Laing. The chairmen of the various delegations were as follows: Morris county, Charles S. Hopkins, of Boonton; Warren county, James S. Stewart, of Phillipsburg. Robert Jenkins was vice president of the Morris county delegation.

With the arrival of the Union county delegation this morning, the members repaired to Republican headquarters where the caucus was held at 11:30. It was called to order by Former Mayor Fisk, of Plainfield, and Thomas H. Sperry, of Cranford, was elected chairman, with James T. Mac Murray, of Plainfield, secretary. The following committees were appointed: Organization, A. M. Jones, Summit; credentials, W. G. Delameter, of Westfield; rules, C. H. Angleman, of Rahway; resolutions, Foster M. Voorhees, Elizabeth. Thomas H. Sperry was instructed to cast the Union county vote for Fowler.

SITUATION IN SOMERSET.

Daniel H. Beekman a Candidate for the Assembly.

The political situation in Somerset County is growing warmer as the convention day approaches and the session this year promises to be an exciting one. The Democrats now have a candidate for the nomination for member of Assembly, who is regarded as a very strong man.

The young law partner of ex-Judge John D. Bartine, Daniel H. Beekman, of Branchburg township, is the man and it is believed he would make a very worthy successor to Assemblyman Swackhamer, who has said he will not take a renomination. Mr. Beekman has decided to be a candidate for the nomination at the request of many of his friends, who confidently believe he would be elected to the office.

M. A. Brown Successor to Hillier.

Miss M. A. Brown, successor to Hillier & Co., announces that she is prepared to do all kinds of cleaning, dying, French and steam laundry work. Her rooms on West Second street have been attractively arranged in preparation for the opening which will be held Thursday and Friday. There will be the following attractions: A free demonstration of the Brown & Brown sewing cabinet; a talk by Mrs. Ball, the well known complexion specialist, and other interesting features. During the opening, women's white gloves will be cleaned at cut prices. A souvenir will be given to every visitor at the opening.

City Court Notes.

Caught by Patrolman Hamilton stealing coal from New Jersey Central cars at an early hour this morning, Thomas Harvey, colored, of West Third street, was fined $3 or twenty days in the city court today. He took the former. George Randolph, also colored, inebriated and boisterous, was arrested by Patrolman Overbaugh, this morning. He will be given a hearing tomorrow.

Father Boone Leaves Elizabeth.

Rev. Father Boone, who has been a curate at St. Patrick's church, Elizabeth, for several months past, has severed his connection with the parish and returned to his home here. Later he will go to Washington to complete his studies for the Sulpician Seminary. Rev. Father Lundy, of Newark, a graduate of Seton Hall College, will fill the vacancy left by Father Boone.

Miss May VanFleet, of East Third street, returned today from Somerville, where she has been visiting Miss Jennie Anderson.

IN THE CHRISTIAN FIELD

WORK IN THE CHURCHES OF THE CITY AND BOROUGH.

A covenant meeting will be held at the First Baptist church on Friday evening.

Instruction for confirmation will be given at St. Stephens' church Friday evening from 7 to 8 o'clock, and Saturday morning from 9 to 10.

The Women's Guild, of the St. Stephens' church, will meet tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Miller, of Fairview avenue. All are cordially invited.

Dr. Frank Whitney French has been appointed assistant treasurer of the First M. E. church, a portion of his duties being to take charge of the weekly envelope system.

Word has been received that Rev. Dr. J. A. Chambliss, pastor of the First Baptist church, will be at the mid-week prayer-meeting in the church tomorrow night and he will also take charge of the service beginning on Sunday.

A cordial invitation is extended to the meeting in Warren chapel this evening which will be addressed by Rev. George P. Pearson, the returned missionary from Japan. In view of the present war in the East his remarks should be doubly interesting.

Rev. Dr. Sheridan Zelie, pastor of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church, will meet the young people of his congregation tomorrow afternoon at 5 o'clock, for the purpose of forming another class for preparation for membership in the church. The class will meet for the following six weeks.

The Young People's Society, of the First Baptist church, will hold a "book social" Thursday evening at the church parlors. The affair is in charge the social committee, composed of Miss Velma Oakley, chairman; Miss Elizabeth Wilson, N. Douglas Drake, Miss Bessie TenEyck and Miss Ada Fountain. It is requested that all who attend the social come representing some book.

Miss Grace Johnson and sister, of Duer street, and Miss Mary Campbell, of West Front street, are visiting Mrs. A. E. Bushnell, of Newark.

Cyrus H. Kinsman, son of F. R. Kinsman, of Sherman avenue, left this morning for Ithaca, N. Y., where he enters Cornell University to complete his education as a mechanical engineer.

MOODY FOR CONGRESS

Not Unlikely That He Will be Named by Democrats.

CONVENTION TOMORROW

Martine Does Not Seek the Honor and Will Only Accept If Asked Unanimously.

The Democratic Congressional convention of the Fifth District will be held at Elizabeth tomorrow to name the opponent of Charles N. Fowler, who was renominated by the Republicans at Morristown yesterday. The convention will be held in the Lyceum Theatre building and will be called to order at noon.

John Moody.

Within the last few days, County Chairman John Moody, of Cranford, who practices law in New York, has loomed up as a formidable candidate and it is not improbable that he will be named. Mr. Moody's friends in Morris County have urged him to allow his name to go before the convention and it is understood that on the advice of Union County friends he will do so. James E. Martine, of this city, and William Wilson, of Elizabeth, are also being considered.

Mr. Martine said today that he is in no sense a candidate and has never been one despite the urgings of his friends. He added: "I'll accept the offer if it is made unanimously, but I want it distinctly understood that I am not seeking the place. If Mr. Moody is the choice of the convention, he will have my hearty support for I believe the nomination would be a good one. I do not see how Mr. Wilson can win and I am inclined to think that it would be inadvisable to pick him."

Mr. Martine's name will be presented to the convention by the Plainfield delegation.

WESTFIELD LAYS CLAIM TO COUNTY CHAMPIONSHIP

DENMAN DECLARES THAT IT IS ENTITLED TO THE HONOR.

Manager Charles Denman, of the Westfield ball team, takes exception to the disputed claim he makes for the Union County championship. He says that the fact that he has won thirteen out of twenty games played with Union County teams give him the championship. He also says that the Aeolians disbanded five weeks ago and in so doing put themselves out of the race. To use Manager Denman's words he says: "Westfield claims, and will be satisfied with nothing less than the championship of the county."

The seven defeats acknowledged by the Westfield manager include three games lost to the Aeolians and four lost to the Plainfield A. C. Of course, the Westfield team has not played the Elizabeth Stars and Manager Burke says that his aggregation will have to be reckoned with before the county championship is given out.

Jersey Central's Nine.

A picture of the New Jersey Central baseball team appears in the September number of The Railway Employe. Among the members of the team is Arthur Smith, of Grandview avenue. This team has made an excellent record this year and friends of it have been endeavoring to arrange a game with the Plainfield A. C., believing that it could defeat the locals.

SOMERSET DEMOCRATS MEET SATURDAY, OCT. 8

CHAIRMAN SHURTS ISSUES CALL FOR COUNTY CONVENTION.

Chairman Jacob Shurts, of the Democratic County executive committee, of Somerset County, issued a call yesterday for the county convention, which will be held in the Court House at Somerville on Saturday, Oct. 8.

The convention will be called to order at 11 o'clock. Candidates for the offices of sheriff and member of Assembly will be named.

Among those prominently mentioned for shrievalty honors are Jacob Shurts and David J. Carney.

Thus far three men have been mentioned in connection with the nomination for Assemblyman. They are Daniel H. Beekman, of Branchburg township, a lawyer, practising in Somerville; Major Nelson Y. Dungan, commander of the First Battalion of the Second Regiment, N. G. N. J., also a lawyer, and Assemblyman Swackhamer, of North Plainfield, who is likewise a lawyer.

Mr. Swackhamer has said that he will not accept the nomination. Major Dungan also refuses to accept the nomination. In conversation with a reporter Major Dungan said for business reasons he positively could not allow himself to be a candidate. Asked as to who would be the candidate, Major Dungan replied emphatically: "Samuel Swackhamer." "But," he was told, "Mr. Swackhamer declines to run." "Yes, I know he does," was the reply, "but I think he would accept if nominated."

HARVEST FESTIVAL.

The Salvation Army Will Observe the Annual Event From Saturday Until Tuesday.

The annual harvest festival of the Salvation Army will be held from Saturday night, October 1, to Tuesday, October 4, at the Army Hall on East Front street. Major Sheppard and Ensign Traub, of Newark, N. J., will conduct the services. Throughout the country these four days have been set apart for the festival, and Plainfield Salvationists are not likely to be backward in doing their part.

Although a service of this kind appeals more particularly to the agricultural class, it is possible for nearly everyone to help by giving freely of whatever they have that would be likely to meet with a purchaser. Poultry, fruit, vegetables, flowers, etc., will all come in useful, and however small the gift it will help to make the festival a success. The Salvation Army devotes the funds it raises in this manner to charitable purposes, and it should therefore appeal to all those who are anxious to see the poor and needy relieved.

Timbo Social Club Active.

At a meeting of the Timbo Social Club, last evening, funds were voted for the purchase of a piano to be installed in the rooms. The club now has forty members and during the winter months it will entertain members and friends with various unique functions.

Flag Raising at Bedminster.

A Democratic rally and banner raising will take place at Bedminster, Somerset County, tomorrow night. Thomas Moore is chairman of the committee of arrangements, so all who attend will be royally welcomed.

AFTER ANOTHER ROUTE

P. S. C. Will Try for Right of Way in East Second Street.

J. P. HOMAN'S OFFER

Trolley Company Seeks to Relieve the Congested Condition in Watchung Avenue.

That the Public Service Corporation believes it will find a way to relieve the congested condition at the Watchung avenue terminus without a great outlay of money, is apparent to the minds of many persons. The decision of the company as conveyed to the street committee by Col. Hine that it would not agree to pave Watchung avenue and East Front street for the privilege of laying a double track, gave the city officials the idea that it was looking for another way out of the present difficulty, and this is confirmed through a recent move it made.

J. P. Homan, who has just purchased the property at the corner of Watchung avenue and East Second street, which is occupied by the Public Service Corporation as a waiting room, has since sought to lease the company a portion of a fine building which he proposes to erect on that corner. He offered to make provision in the building for the company which would give it a waiting room and offices if they were desired, and give a ten year lease. The offer was rejected and at the same time Mr. Homan was given to understand that the company does not want to make Watchung avenue at that point a center of trolley traffic any longer than it can possibly help.

The company knows the conditions upon which it can lay double tracks through Watchung avenue, and is not willing to comply with them. In view of this, it is learned on the best of authority that the company has never given up its pet idea of laying tracks through East Secoond street, thereby giving the company a belt line in one section of the city. That there would be strong opposition to this plan goes without saying and it is doubtful if the Common Council would permit the company to lay tracks through such a narrow street.

If the corporation could only get a right of way through East Second street to its present road at Second and Richmond streets, it would give another route for the through cars now operated between Newark and Dunellen and Jersey City and Trenton and it would help to do away with the blocking of Watchung avenue, which is the case at present.

It has been known for a long time that the company has had its eye on East Second street and at one time when an effort was made to push the matter, the property-owners entered vigorous protest against their street being occupied with trolley tracks. A citizen in speaking about the matter today, said that the company is always anxious to get all that it can for as little as possible, but he did not believe that the city was asking too much of the company when the privilege of laying double tracks was offered for the paving of the street. This the citizen thought was little enough to demand of the company when it would be greatly benefitted thereby.

"When it is considered what other communities have received from the trolley company for privileges, it does not seem as though Plainfield has received very much," said another citizen. "They are given the best streets in the city and acorded every consideration and yet when the city wants anything from the company the request is denied. I only hope that the Common Council will be just as exacting of the company as it is of the city."

Y. M. C. A.'s New Prospectus.

The annual prospectus of the Young Men's Christian Association is a decided departure from the publications of former years, being somewhat more explicit in detail. It contains no cuts, though all the departments of the work are outlined at considerable length. There are a number of changes in the physical department, which have been mentioned previously in this paper, and in addition the prospectus announces that there will be bowling, hand ball and basket ball tournaments, together with the annual athletic and gymnastic championship contests.

Irving School Crowded.

Two more classes at the Irving School will shortly be placed on half day sessions owing to the crowded conditions of the rooms. Steps are being taken by the authorities to provide full accommodations and matters will soon be righted.

FOWLER CONVENTION AN ENTHUSIASTIC ONE

FORMER MAYOR FISK TOOK A PROMINENT PART IN THE PROCEEDINGS.

Chairman John I. Blair Reilly, at the First district Congressional convention at Morristown yesterday, appointed former Mayor Charles J. Fiske, of this city, as one of a committee of three to fill a vacancy on the ticket should it occur too late for the convention to be reconvened before election day. The Congressional committee was instructed to reconvene the convention, giving eight days' notice, if such a vacancy should happen in ample time to make a new nomination, but otherwise the special committee is empowered to select a candidate.

Charles J. Fisk.

After Congressman Fowler had delivered his speech, accepting a renomination as stated in yesterday's issue, Lee Fairchild, of California, entertained the delegates with a particularly witty address which caused continued applause. Congressman William P. Hepburn followed with a stirring speech which was equally well received. Next to the ovation given to Congressman Fowler was the reception accorded Former Governor Foster M. Voorhees, who placed Mr. Fowler's name before the convention.

When former Mayor Charles J. Fisk called the convention to order he got the first applause. Mr. Fisk informed the delegates that they had assembled to nominate the next Congressman from the Fifth district, which produced a hearty cheer. The former Mayor took a leading part in the convention. He called the Union County caucus to order and had the additional honor of calling the convention to order as well as being renamed as a member of the Congressional committee and vacancy committee.

DUNELLEN'S ELEVEN.

Captain Maltbie's Team Getting Into Form for the Season.

The Dunellen football team will meet for practice this evening on the regular field. All the candidates are expected to be present. The team this year will be the strongest which has represented the town on the gridiron for many years. There are several good players on the squad at present, many of whom have received training on local teams, and are experienced in the game.

The captain of the team is Robert Maltbie, and under his direction the team is developing into good form. Charles Lake is managing the team and has already secured a good list of games. Among the candidates for positions on the team are the following: Dick Rudd, John Coyle, Charles Titsworth, Frank Fletcher, Ernest Peters, Samuel Apgar, Charles Comberson and B. H. Brandon.

First Round Completed.

The first round in the High School tennis tournament was completed yesterday afternoon on the Albert street court. The play was decidedly uninteresting, for the most part the sets being easily won. The second round will be more interesting, the contestants being more evenly matched. The following were the scores in yesterday's play: Thompson defeated Reid, 6-1, 6 0; Fountain defeated Davis, 6 1, 6-0; Rubenstein defeated Opdyke, 6 4, 6 2; Craig defeated Freeman, 6-1, 6-3, and Best defeated Rockwell, 6 2, 6-3.

Piano Recital at Casino.

Miss Aeolia McRea, a very accomplished artist, will give a piano recital at the Casino, Thursday evening, October 13, assisted by Miss Emerson, a talented violinist. Miss McRea, as her name indicates, is of Scotch descent, and of titled lineage. The New York "Musical Courier" accords the highest praises for her performances.

SIXTY SMALL CAUSES

Large List for Consideration at Somerset County Courts.

NO JURY CHARGE

Testimony in Spencer Suit Against Borough to be Taken in This City.

Although the list of causes at the opening of the Somerset County court at Somerville, yesterday, numbered sixty, none of them were of enough importance to call for a special charge to the jury. Justice Garretson presided and Judge Schenck was also on the bench. Robert T. Brampton, of Bound Brook, is the foreman of the jury.

The case of the State against James Codington, formerly of this city, on a charge of bigamy, was called and his counsel Alvah A. Clark, made a motion for a nolle pros, on the ground that the defendant had a western divorce. His motion was granted.

The following licenses were renewed, Frank Linke, Smalleytown; Alfred E. Benz, Gallia; Jeremiah F. Burns, North Plainfield. The application of Adolph Bohren, of North Plainfield, for a hotel license, was laid over until October 17.

The following causes on the list are of interest locally:

George Lees against Albert Wickman, tort, Geo. W. V. Moy, Louis H. Aff. To be tried tomorrow.

Mary A. Hazeltine against Calvin D. McMurtry, replevin, Geo. W. V. Moy, William Newcorn. To be tried tomorrow.

Albert B. Bruen against Amos B. Rohu, Jr., contract, Geo. W. V. Moy, Dungan & Reger. Settled.

Millie White against Peter J. Zeglio, tort, W. S. Angleman, Craig A. Marsh. Off.

In the circuit are: Adolph Schmidt against John Massu, contract, H. K. Gaston, Codington & Swackhamer. Referred to Judge Schenck.

Mary J. Spencer et al against Mayor and Council of borough of North Plainfield, contract, James L. Griggs, Charles A. Reed. The court appointed H. K. Gaston referee in this case and he will sit in Plainfield to take testimony.

Common Pleas: Wm. H. Rogers against Mary A. Lee, contract, Dungan & Reger, Horace Codington. To be tried Oct. 17.

Justice Appeals: Frank A. Ballentine ads. David E. Mundy. Justice Cooper, James J. Meehan, Horace Codington. To be tried Oct. 17.

CONSOLIDATED TEAM TO PLAY AT WESTFIELD

OLD PLAINFIELD AGGREGATION TO DO BATTLE SATURDAY.

The statement so often heard at the present time to the effect that "Plainfield was better off when she had an amateur baseball team" will have an opportunity to be proven next Saturday, when the old consolidated team which played in 1903 will cross bats with the Westfield team. The game will take place at Recreation Park, starting at 3 o'clock.

It was in the Plainfield-Westfield series of 1902 that "Red" Waller first came into prominence, and "Jimmy" Montross added much to his fame as a pitcher. The series in 1903 was closely contested and interesting throughout. The first game was won by Westfield 1 to 0. The second went to Plainfield at the same score. The third game lasted for eleven innings, and neither side could score, the game being called on account of darkness. Westfield took the last two games by the scores, 5 to 0, and 11 to 2.

In some respects the year which marked this series of games was the greatest in the annals of Plainfield baseball.

The management of the local team will be in charge of George Firstbrook and Archibald Haequer. Mr. Firstbrook stated last night that the consolidated would probably be composed of the following players: Montross, pitcher; Allen, catcher; George Dupee, first base; Brit Martin, second base; Cooney, third base; Enright, short stop; Lederer, Flannery and Taylor will play in the field.

Governor's Day at Fair.

Tomorrow will be Governor's day at the Trenton fair and the attendance from this city promises to be large. The Grocers' Association will go in a body on its annual outing and many politically inclined will join in the handshaking.

F. O. E. TO HAVE BIG TIME ON OCTOBER 11

LOCAL AERIE TO BE INSTITUTED AT GATHERING OF THE ORDER.

The arrangements of the new aerie of the Fraternal Order of Eagles, which has been formed in this city, are progressing favorably and all indications point to a successful institution on Tuesday, October 11. Representatives have been invited from the aeries of Elizabeth, Newark, Jersey City, Bayonne, Passaic, Paterson, Hoboken and Trenton, and fully a thousand Eagles are expected to be present.

The new lodge will be instituted by Elizabethians. Following are the officers who have been selected: Past worthy president, R. P. Kampf; worthy president, Daniel G. Force; worthy vice president, Samuel Terry; worthy conductor, E. C. Searing; worthy chaplain, Arthur G. Adams; worthy inside guard, Frank March; worthy outside guard, John Butler; trustees, Lewis McIntosh, chairman, Laurence Powers and Edward G. Pope.

A preliminary meeting was held yesterday evening, at which President pro tem Daniel Force presided and about sixty Eagles were present. The reports of the committees were presented and a social session was then held. Speeches were made by Hugo Maul, of Watchung, and Mr. Massey, from Norwalk, Conn., and an informal musical programme rendered.

PRINCIPAL TRAVELL ARRANGES FOR DRILLS

J. D. MACNAB WILL INSTRUCT PLAINFIELD HIGH SCHOOL BOYS.

Principal I. W. Travell, of the city High School, made an address to the pupils yesterday morning in which he stated the value of good work at the beginning of the year, and urged upon the pupils that they make the best advantage of their time at the present.

In addition Mr. Travell outlined the course of study briefly for the benefit of the new pupils in the school. He announced that drill will be commenced in the near future, and explained the counts in the course which those who drill will receive. The affair will be conducted on a somewhat more extensive basis than formerly, and will count one-fifth of a point a year. This will permit a student for five years to drop a subject, it being equivalent to one point out of the sixteen required for graduation. It is the plan of the Board of Education to consider regular work in athletics in the same light, and allow a percentage on gymnasium work, and domestic science.

Mr. Travell announced that the drill work will be further explained next week, after a meeting of the officers has been held, and plans for the work outlined and accepted by the commandant. James D. Macnab, who has had charge of the drill for the last three years, will continue to serve in the capacity of commandant for the coming year. It is thought that the special credit inducement which the course in drill allows will cause many new cadets to join the ranks.

The officers for next year have not yet been appointed, though in all probability they will be chosen as formerly by competitive examination. Harry G. Thompson, who was captain of Company B last year, is now in line for Major, and will fill that position this year.

"Lakewood" Rammed Float Boat.

As a result of the New Jersey Central ferryboat Lakewood ramming with tremendous force float 11, of the Pennsylvania Railroad, tied up at the freight depot of the Pennsylvania pier, Jersey City, yesterday afternoon, an empty freight car on the lower side of the float was lifted from its trucks and landed bodily on the lower deck of the Lakewood forward. No passengers were injured, but the port guard of the ferryboat was wrecked and half the iron guard rail carried away.

Received Word of Brother's Death.

Mrs. R. V. Kinney, of Somerset street, received word today of the death of her brother, Rev. W. H. Pruch, in Minnesota. He visited in the city and borough a short time ago.

—A feature at Neuman Brothers' tomorrow: 150 baskets choice peaches at 50, 75 and 85 cents and $1 and $1.25 each. The quality is excellent and they are suitable for either table or canning.

CALLS SPECIAL ELECTION

Gov. Murphy Issues Proclamation to Fill the Vacancy.

IN FOURTH CONG. DIST.

Ira W. Wood is the Republican Nominee, and Robert L. Stevens the Democratic Candidate.

Governor Murphy yesterday issued a formal proclamation for a special election to fill the vacancy in Congress from the Fourth District, caused by the resignation of William M. Lanning to accept the United States District Court judgeship. The date fixed for the election is November 8, the regular election day, and each party in the district has already nominated its candidate to fill both the unexpired term and the full term which begins March 4.

Ira W. Wood.

Judge Lanning resigned last June and the Governor says that he did not issue the proclamation before because he desired to save the district the expense of a special election when there was no immediate necessity for the filling of the vacancy.

The Fourth District includes Somerset, Mercer and Hunterdon counties. Ira W. Wood, of Trenton, has been nominated by the Republicans for the place. He is a particularly able and influential man and the party leaders believe he will win. Robert L. Stevens, of Bernardsville, is the Democratic nominee. He also is a strong candidate and the fight will be a hard one.

SENTENCE DAY.

Judge Vail Imposes Heavy Fine on An Elizabeth Hotel Keeper.

Judge Vail, sitting in the Union County Court, at Elizabeth, this morning, passed sentence in several important cases. In the case of David Clifford and Joseph Duffy, guilty of horse stealing at Summit, sentence was suspended and the young men were turned over to the probation officer. The prisoners are each between twenty and thirty years of age.

Policeman Patrick Hickey, aged 71 years, who, two years ago, was found guilty of assaulting an insane man at Rahway, and who was sentenced to one year in State Prison, appealed the case. The upper court confirmed the action of the lower court and today Hickey begins to serve time.

Cortland B. Gardner, of the United States Hotel, Elizabeth, convicted of keeping a disorderly house, also appealed the case. In reconsidering the case this morning, Judge Vail imposed a fine of $1,000 and three months in the county jail.

Plains Bowlers Won.

The Scotch Plains bowling team won their first match game last night on The West Side House alleys, against the No Name team, of Plainfield, Scotch Plains taking two out of the three games, winning the first by a score of 667-650, losing the second, 635-605, and winning the deciding game by the score of 674-650. The Scotch Plains team has only recently organized but is fast developing and the club is arranging to meet some of the best teams through this section during the coming winter.

Noted Actor Recovering.

Edward Phillips, known on the stage as Edwin Varey, who has been at Muhlenberg Hospital for several weeks, was taken to his home in Washingtonville this morning. He is improving slowly.

They Know His Worth.

James E. Martine has accepted an invitation to address a big Democratic rally at South Amboy, Saturday evening.

POINTS FOR THE BUYERS

READY REFERENCES FOR THE LOCAL BARGAIN SEEKERS.

Charles Conover & Co., of Elmwood place, is now showing the new wall-papers and an early selection is desirable. You will make no mistake in trading with this firm.

J. Hervey Doane, the Park avenue jeweler, can sell you a suitable wedding present as low as any one and the goods will be all right. He guarantees everything sold by him.

T. S. Armstrong, corner of North and Park avenues. Thought that was the one you were looking for. Stop that headache without any fear of drugging your heart. Armstrong will fix you up.

Wireless electric doorbells may be a thing of the future but as they are not here yet, better let W. H. Pope put yours in place and wire it in the way the present demands. All manner of electrical work.

Peanuts? Yes, Lusardi has them. The best that can be had. He also sells all kinds of confectionery, fruit and soft drinks. Call at his store on West Front street, and see for yourself what he has to eat.

J. C Hansen can make an old house look like new, with nothing but a coat of paint. This is not true, however, of all painters. It pays to have work done by good ones. Hansen's the man. Yours is the house. Nuf sed.

If you are a customer of Roth & Co., the East Front street butchers, you have learned by this time that you are saving money. Only the best meats, poultry and fish are sold and the lowest prices always prevail.

So you've been looking around for a winter hat, have you? No wonder you can't find anything to suit you. Why don't you go to Bonn's, and see what a good hat is? All the latest styles and shades are to be found at Bonn's.

The H E. Gayle Hardware Company has just received a large shipment of fine ranges and stoves for heating purposes. Don't wait too long before preparing for winter. This company can also supply you with the best hardware at low prices.

The large cigar trade that Henry Eggerding enjoys is due to the fact that he has made no false representations to his customers. When he says that his cigars are made on the premises and cannot be equalled for the money, his word can be relied upon.

This is just the time of the year to select your new fall and winter suit and there is no better place to secure it than at M. Weinberger's store on West Front street. He has the reputation of giving full values. He will also make you a suit to order if you prefer it.

You may be fond of taking photographs but haven't the time to develop plates or films. If that's the difficulty, let Frank VanWinkle, of North avenue, do the developing. No waste, no experimenting, just the picture and at a very small cost. Cameras and camera supplies.

With the approach of fall in real earnest, millinery displays are made in all the shops, but nowhere in the city is there one more complete than I. H. Boehm's. The department is overflowing with new styles and up-to-date novelties, in charge of Miss Daley, who is always willing to receive visitors. For the present, all hats purchased at the store will be trimmed free of charge.

Sunday Excursion to Mauch Chunk.

There is no more popular resort for a Sunday than Mauch Chunk, and to reach it entails a delightful rail journey, and at Mauch Chunk there is a diversity of amusements, the chief of which is a ride over the Switchback. This journey occupies more than one hour, and leads over and around the mountains with widely changing scenes at every turn. The Switchback is a gravity road, and the speed attained is close to a mile per minute. Another feature is Flagstaff, the summit of which is reached by trolley, and from its pinnacle point there is a view extending over miles and miles of beautiful country. An interesting spot close at hand is Glen Onoko, a short distance above Mauch Chunk, and as it name implies, is a beautiful glen, with falls, cataracts, mountain paths leading to cool and delightful peaces. On October 2, 1904, the New Jersey Central is to run a popular excursion to Mauch Chunk from Plainfield by special train leaving at 9:20 a. m. Returning train will leave Mauch Cuhnk at 5:40 p. m., and the round trip will cost but $1.50. Frequent train service will be in effect between Mauch Chunk and Glen Onoko, and trains on the Switchback run every few minutes. 9 23 9 o

COUNTY W. C. T. U. TO HOLD YEARLY MEETING

CONVENTION WILL BE ADDRESSED BY A GUBERNATORIAL CANDIDATE.

The general public is cordially invited to attend the sessions of the twentieth annual convention of the Union County Woman's Christian Temperance Union in the Fulton Street M. E. church, Elizabeth, Thursday.

Mrs. Tomlinson, of this city, will preside, and there will be delegates present from the eight local unions of the county. Union No. 1, of Elizabeth, will serve luncheon at 12 and 6 o'clock in the church lecture room. About seventy-five women are expected to luncheon, and will be allowed to bring in their friends.

The speaker at the evening meeting will be a nominee for governor of New Jersey.

AT WILLIAMS COLLEGE.

Plainfield Young Men Who Are Included in the Large Number of Students.

As several young men from this city are students at Williams College, Plainfielders will naturally be interested shomewhat in that seat of learning. Williams Hall, formerly West College, the oldest building on the campus, is now open as a dormitory. It is handsomely and modernly equipped and accommodates about one hundred students. Fall is far advanced in comparison to Plainfield and the college heating plant was started several days ago.

The freshman class numbers 134, while the sophs, who entered 156, are now but 129. The first inter-class rush was on Thursday night and the sophs, though outnumbered, won the required two out of three. The young men from this city at Williams include Harold Nomer and Erwin Briant Leland, '06; Alden E. Moore and Kerro Knox, '07, and Harold C. Fenno, '08.

CITY JOTTINGS.

—During the month of August the Milford rural free delivery route, No. 1, handled 4,342 pieces of mail matter.

—The proposition of the Rockland Water Company, of Netcong, N. J., to furnish the town of Stanhope with water for $550 per year, will be accepted, provided the citizens vote the necessary money to carry out the plans. A special election will be held at which the proposition of bonding the town for $10,000 to lay mains, will be submitted.

—It is understood that the residents of Asbury, N. J., object seriously to the action of the New Jersey Central in changing the name of their town to Ludlow. The postoffice there has been named Ludlow for sometime. The change was made so that there would be no confusion between the names Asbury Park and Asbury, many persons being in the habit of referring to the former place as Asbury.

Society's New Game.

"Trail" has taken society by storm. It is something new, something different. "Trail" as the name implies, is founded on a popular hunting sport, is played with fifty-three fine cards in four colors, representing a fox to be chased and caught, and four packs of hounds of thirteen each. "Trail" has a constantly recurring interest for players as they perfect their playing from evening to evening, in marked contrast to certain recent boistrous games that bore the players at the end of an hour. With the one pack six other splendid, new, copyright games can be played. Two educational games, and two games of fun, making it suitable for all members of a family. "Trail" can be had of dealers or sent postpaid, 75c. gilt edge, plain 50c. Rules for the seven games free. Combination Card Game Co., Atlanta, Ga. 6

Alta Axworth Made a Record.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 28.—At the second day of the Oakley Park grand circuit meeting, in the Horse Review Futurity stake for foals of 1901, purse $7,000, Alta Axworth, after finishing sixth to Princess Athel in the first heat and second to Grace Bond in the second heat, won the race in three straight heats, making a world's record for the best five heats ever trotted by three-year-olds, as well as a world's record for the fastest fifth heat ever trotted by three-year-olds. Major Delmar will try to break the world's trotting record here tomorrow.

Parker to Help Hill to Wed.

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—The Hotel Seville, says the New York Sun, where Judge Parker is staying during his present visit to the city, is diagonally across Twenty-ninth street from the Little Church Around the Corner. Soon after the arrival of the judge a report was circulated in and about the hotel that the rumor that David B. Hill was to wed May Irwin, the actress, was really true and that the wedding was to take place at the Little Church Around the Corner and that Judge Parker was to be present as a witness. It had been announced at Democratic state headquarters that Mr. Hill was expected in the city during the day.

Vegetarian Congress at St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 28.—The fifth international vegetarian congress has opened here on the exposition grounds. As this was the first congress held in America the foreign delegation was large. The congress was called to order by the chairman, F. J. Conrad of New York city, who introduced President R. H. Reichard of the St. Louis Vegetarian society. An address of welcome was made by President Dr. Henry S. Chubb of the American Vegetarian society, Philadelphia, to which William E. Axon, LL. D., London, responded.

Thirty Persons Injured.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 28.—A list of the injured in the Iron Mountain railroad wreck, telephoned from Piedmont, Mo., contains the names of thirty-one persons. Late reports say that some of the injured are so badly hurt that it is thought they will die. The most seriously hurt are: R. S. Hayes, Fayette, Mo., injured on head, neck and hand; Mrs. J. W. Michaels, Little Rock, Ark., wound on head; H. H. Hill, Little Rock, Ark., shoulder dislocated, probably fatally injured.

Miss Bertha Runkle to Wed.

PEORIA, Ill., Sept. 28.—The engagement of Captain Louis N. Bash, U. S. A., to the novelist, Miss Bertha Runkle of New York, has been announced. Captain Bash, who is now serving in the Philippines, is the son of Major Bash, retired, of this city. The wedding is to take place at Miss Runkle's New York home late in the autumn.

Major Adams Dead.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 28.—Major Thomas Adams, assistant inspector general at the Presidio, is dead here from injuries received last Saturday when he was struck by a street car. He was fifty-nine years old and a graduate of West Point. In point of service he was the oldest artillery officer on the coast.

Mexican Murderers Condemned.

BOSTON, Sept. 28.—William T. Way of this city has been informed by Herbert H. D. Pierce, third assistant secretary of state, that the Mexican authorities had passed sentence upon the persons concerned in the murders of Mr. Way's brother Clarence and Edward B. Latimer, another American citizen.

Cashier Committed Suicide.

LONGFORD, Kan., Sept. 28.—J. J. Marty, cashier of the Longford bank, has committed suicide here. Despondency over long continued ill health is supposed to have caused the deed. He was representative from Clay county about eight years ago, having been elected by the Populists.

AIMING AT RAILWAY

Japanese Strategy In Vast Turning Movement.

EMPEROR NICHOLAS GOES TO ODESSA

While Reports Say a Force of Japs Has Crossed the Hun, It Is Thought They Are Only Scouting Parties.

LONDON, Sept. 28.—A St. Petersburg dispatch says that General Kuropatkin has learned from Chinese spies that the Japanese in carrying out their vast turning movement from Liaoyang in the direction of Donchang, in the valley of the Taitse, are aiming to strike eventually at the railway north of Mukden.

A Mukden telegram reports that the Japanese have crossed the Hun river fifty miles above that city, but it is believed that only scouting parties of Japanese have crossed the river.

The movement of Japanese forces on the Liao river which was reported in a dispatch from General Sacharoff to the general staff is all the more significant since Sianchan is the starting point of roads leading to Tie pass, Mukden and Sinmintin. The announcement that the Russians are fortifying Fakoman, twenty-five miles northeast of Mukden, shows that General Kuropatkin is preparing to check the flanking movement on Tie pass from the west in case Sinmintin should have to be evacuated.

The entire absence of news from Port Arthur, it is feared, indicates a closer blockade there. Hitherto dispatches from General Stoessel have been coming through regularly.

The admiralty has not received any details of the reported sea fight off Aniva, at the southeastern extremity of Sakhalin. The Vladivostok squadron, it is understood, is still in the harbor. The cannonading at Aniva was probably a Japanese attack on blockade runners.

A telegram received here from Batum reporting that reservists are being transported along the Caucasian coast brings the first intimation that troops there are being mobilized. There are only two army corps in the Caucasus, and one of these has apparently been ordered to the far east.

Prince Sviatpolk Mirsky was received in audience by the emperor. The prince will assume charge of the ministry of the interior tomorrow.

The emperor has left for Odessa. It is his intention to visit Tiraspol instead of Kishineff, as has been previously announced.

Women May Smoke In Public.

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—Women may smoke as much as they choose while riding in automobiles so far as the police department is concerned, according to an announcement made by Police Commissioner McAdoo. This announcement came after much newspaper comment had followed an arrest of a member of an automobile party Sunday evening, the arresting policeman taking occasion to rebuke a woman in the automobile for smoking in public. "The smoking was only an incident of the generally disorderly character of those in the automobile," said the commissioner.

Fraternal Societies Congress.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 28.—The national fraternal congress has convened here on the world's fair grounds. More than 500 delegates were present at the exercises, which were opened by William R. Eldson, president of the Missouri fraternal congress. President Francis welcomed the congress to the exposition. Addresses were made by President J. A. Patterson of the Canadian Fraternal association and Edwin O. Wood, president of the national fraternal congress.

Nott Memorial Celebration.

SCHENECTADY, N. Y., Sept. 28.—Arrangements have been completed for the Nott memorial celebration to be held by Union university tomorrow, commemorating Dr. Nott's installation as president of the college 100 years ago. Distinguished guests will be present, including three grandsons of the distinguished educator, Judge Nott of Washington, J. V. H. Nott of Katrine, N. Y., and Bishop Potter of New York.

Wild Cat Land Swindles.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Sept. 28.—United States special agents have arrested J. D. Anderson, representing realty companies of Indianapolis and Des Moines. The arrest was made on an order from the postoffice department which claims that the companies are wild cat schemes and that thousands have been swindled in all parts of the United States.

Crank Letter Writer Arrested.

DES MOINES, Ia., Sept. 28.—Charged with writing and sending threatening letters to President Roosevelt, Miss Roosevelt and Helen Gould, a man giving his name as Edward Dalheimer has been arrested by the United States authorities and has been lodged in jail at Fort Dodge.

D. H. Goss a Suicide at Strassburg.

BERLIN, Sept. 28.—D. H. Goss, president of the American institute at Strassburg, has shot and killed himself there. Mr. Goss left a letter saying he feared he was becoming insane and for that reason had decided to commit suicide. The American institute is closed.

New Minister From Guatemala.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—Senor George Munoz, who has been appointed minister to Washington from Guatemala, has arrived here and has called upon Acting Secretary of State Loomis to arrange for his presentation.

Plainfield, N. J., Sept. 28, 1904.

From the number of "green" motormen who have been responsible for fatal accidents in New York recently, it might be construed that the officials who do the hiring are badly afflicted with color blindness.

Secretary Loeb came out yesterday and declared he knew nothing of the reported engagement of Miss Alice Roosevelt to Representative Longworth. He might have continued and told what he doesn't know about a good many other things, including politics.

There is a strong movement on foot to name John Moody as the Democratic Congressional candidate for the Fifth district. Mr. Moody is chairman of the Union County Democratic committee and is an honest, courageous and able man, who would reflect much credit upon the party as its nominee.

Much discussion has followed the publicity of the fact that it costs E. R. Thomas, the well known railroad man $41.60 for a night's sleep in the Hotel St. Regis. Granted that he got his at bargain rates, imagine the bill that would have stared poor Rip Van Winkle in the face if the owners of the Catskills had been as exacting after his twenty year nap.

HOPE WINS SEASON'S FIRST BASKET BALL GAME

HIGH SCHOOL BADLY WORSTED BY THE Y. M. A. PLAYERS.

In a practice game at the Hope Y. M. A. gymnasium last evening, the team from the Plainfield High School was defeated by the Hope five, the score being 18 to 14 The game was advantageous to both teams in the fact that it showed the weak points, and the places where improvement is needed. The Hope boys displayed their familiarity with the small floor, and outweighed their opponents. On the other hand the High School aggregation was quicker, but lacked accuracy in shooting. The guards were slow in getting the ball down the floor and showed an inclination to rest at critical points in the game.

In the first half the school boys took some time to get together, and the ball was in Hope's territory most of the time. The score at the end of the first half stood 10 to 6 in favor of Hope chapel. The score was tied in the second half, showing that the High School players improved in their game. The lead gained in the first was not overcome, however, and the final score went down, 18 to 14, each adding an eight to their score in the last session of play.

Dilts was the star of the winning aggregation, his shooting being a feature of the game. Collier, of the High School, was good at passing, but his usual accuracy was lacking. Both he and Thompson got in some good team work. Considering the fact that both teams are decidedly fresh at the game this season, the prospects of both are very bright, and without doubt, both will improve by another game.

Line-up: High School—Collier, center; Thompson, forward; Doane, forward; Gavett, guard; Freeman, guard. Hope chapel—Dilts, forward; Duckworth, forward; Blimm, center; Emmons, guard; Porter, guard.

Goals from the field—Dilts, 7; Blimm, Emmons, Thompson, 4; Doane, 2; Freeman.

Gibeson Has Largest Exhibition at Trenton Fair.

New Brunswick will be well represented in a musical way at the Trenton Fair. J. Fred Gibeson will have the largest piano exhibit. Mr. Gibeson will introduce some new and original novelties in his exhibit, among which is a gold finished, hand-painted piano valued at $1,500. The name and pianos of J. Fred Gibeson are now well and favorably known all over the State. Mr. Gibeson's main warerooms are at New Brunswick, N. J. He sells a great many pianos in Plainfield. 9 28 2

SEEN AND HEARD IN PLAINFIELD'S INDUSTRIAL PLANTS.

There is considerable talk of the Pond Tool Works putting a baseball team in the field during next season, similar to the one maintained a few years ago.

President P. W. Hall has assumed personal charge of affairs at the Aluminum Press Works and for a time, at least, no successor will be appointed to former Superintendent J. W. Leary. The company has not been reorganized as has been alleged.

Work at the Scott Press Works at the present time is very brisk and the men are greatly pleased with the prospect of a very busy winter. This shop has kept running on full time and with the entire force while the other local concerns have been undergoing a dull period.

The Pullman Company's shops at Pullman, Ill., were opened Monday with a force of 2,000 men after a long shutdown. The employes went back under a new wage scale below the former one, but although much dissatisfaction was expressed, it is believed an advance will be made within a month or two.

Edward Langley, a former employe at the Potter Press Works who sailed recently for England, has written letters to local friends in which he states the machinists in the Kingdom are enjoying a prosperous season and that conditions are much better than in America. Langley will remain in London until spring and then return to this country.

Frank Sullivan, a former well known employe at Pond's, is now at the St. Louis Exposition in charge of part of the exhibit of the Bethelehem Steel Works, of Bethlehem, Pa. He has been in the employ of the concern for the past year and has made rapid strides in advancement. He formerly resided on West Sixth street and was a member of the Hope Y. M. A.

Elks Will Gather Tomorrow.

At a committee meeting held in the Kensington last evening, all plans were completed for the local Elks' outing and clambake tomorrow. It will take place on Mountain avenue, near Watchung Springs, and will be attended by members of the order from Elizabeth, Perth Amboy and Newark. The bake will be served at 1:30 by a Perth Amboy man who is said to be a past master in the art. A feature of the day's sport will be a baseball game between teams composed of married and single Elks.

The "Arnold" Goods.

Do you know that more than half the ills of childhood are the results of exposure during sleep.

Tuck him in ever so carefully and the average youngster will kick the covers off. But he can't kick off a suit of "Arnold" Knit Night Drawers—they are on to stay, and they cover him from the tip of his pink toes to his dimpled chin.

"Arnold" Knit Drawers come in all sizes from two to ten years, are of the fine knit porous fabric with double soles which last as long as the garments. Also made without feet. Price 60c upward.

Other admirable "Arnold" garments which your child can't very well do without are Knit Knickerbockers and Short Drawers, soft, porous, yielding to all motions and strains of the body. Washable and durable, handsomely made. Prices from 35c upward.

Then there are charming Baby Outfits of 14 specialties—all of the fine knit fabrics for 12.75 upward.

The "Arnold" system of dressing babies and children stands alone in its perfection, and is what every American mother wants.

How many times have you heard a mother say, "I want the very best for my child," although she may be a women of moderate means. This is the very woman we want to reach with the "Arnold" soft knit fabrics.

All that is soothing and non-irritating—all that goes to make the little one freest from restraint and compression—is contained in the 26 knit specialties of the "Arnold" line.

Again, we mention the "Arnold" Knit Night Drawers, (with or without feet). All you wish to protect your sleeping child. No care, no anxiety, no disturbed slumber. Tuck your child into bed in the "Arnold" Knit Night Drawers, and in the morning you will find him "lively as a cricket," with no cough, cold or sickness.

Sizes two to ten years, 60c upward. Those with feet have double soles, which last as long as the garment.

YOUR PRESENCE IS EARNESTLY REQUESTED ON THIS OCCASION.

No Mid-Block Stops.

The Public Service Corporation has had small signs placed at convenient points along its local lines indicating where trolleys will stop to take on passengers. Heretofore persons have had the habit of asking the motormen to stop at any place, some times several stops being made in one block. It is for the purpose of breaking up this practice that the signs have been put up. The old method resulted in the loss of considerable time on a trip.

Darling Mentally Unbalanced.

Wm. S. Darling, of this city, who was committed to State prison at Trenton for twenty years for the murder of Harry Dunham at New Market, has become mentally unbalanced through confinement and has been transferred to the State hospital in the same city. He has served but a short time of his sentence but it is doubtful if he will be returned to complete it.

JUNIOR BASKET BALL LEAGUE WILL BE FORMED

STRONG COMBINATION WILL PLAY UNDER Y. M. C. A. AUSPICES.

It is now a certainty that there will be a basket ball league among the younger players of the city during the fall and winter. A decision favorable to the formation of such a league has been received from Physical Director Henckel, and Boys' Secretary Robbie, and every effort will be made to make the league a success. The affair will be under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A., and will include teams from the following schools: Whittier, Leals' second, High School second, North Plainfield, second, and the juniors of the Y. M. C. A. For several years there has been a baseball league between the teams, but this is the first time that a juvenile basket ball league has been attempted.

That the affair will be a success there is no doubt, as each of the departments have entered into the scheme with a great deal of zeal. At a recent meeting of the Whittier Athletic Association, Fred Martin was elected captain of the team, and Roy Woodhull, manager. The team was out for practice on Phillips' tennis court, yesterday afternoon, and the candidates made a good showing. Regardless of the fact that the junior combination in the league will have the advantage of plenty of practice on the gymnasium floor, the supporters of the Whittier School have confidence that they will capture first place. The North Plainfield High School team will also be a strong one, many of their players being members of the Y. M. C. A. Leal's and the High School material will be used largely for the first team of the schools, and their second team will not be as strong, comparatively, as their baseball team was.

Record-Breaking Fast Freight.

HILL & SHUPP — Plainfield's Oldest Department Store. — W. FRONT ST.

Dress Fabrics

This stock has been carefully selected, this year, with a view of meeting every taste. The variety of weaves, colorings, etc., is complete. The designs are exclusive and values far greater than we have offered at other times.

The new dress goods are really luxurious in appearance, soft, rich, warm color tones, and all fabrics that will give good service.

At 75c—Granite Cloth, Cheviots, Henriettas.
At 79c—Extra value Etamine.
At 98c—Beautiful Nub Cheviot.
At 1.00—Venetians, Broadcloths, Whipcords, Mixed Tweeds, Mixed Cheviots.
At 1.25—Serviceable Scotch Tweeds.
At 1.45—Popular Water Proof Cravanettes.
At 1.48—Zibaline Plaids.
At 1.75 — Latest Fall Stripes English Tweed.

A special feature of this department and an idea introduced to Plainfield by this store is the "Dress Length" line which offers you dress or suit lengths of the very latest fabrics in exclusive designs. No two dress lengths alike and no two lengths of one pattern. By this means you secure a dress or suit pattern exclusively your own and avoid being accosted with that exasperating exclamation "Oh! Your suit is just like the one I bought yesterday."

These you'll find in great variety among which are Waterproof Cravanettes, Snowflake Tweeds, Fancy Gray Basket Cloth, etc. Prices from 75c to $1.75 per yard.

Silks.

We call your especial attention to a line of Guaranteed Black Taffeta Silks which are the best values we have ever offered. The guarantee is stamped on each yard.

ARTS AND SCIENCES

International Delegates Welcomed at Capital.

ALL NATIONS TO GIVE MUTUAL HELP

Such Assemblies, Said President Roosevelt, Help to Prepare Rules of Right and Equity Throughout All Lands.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—President Roosevelt received in the east room of the White House about seventy-five members of the international congress of arts and sciences, headed by the president of the congress, Professor Simon Newcomb, and Professor Hugo Munsterberg. President Roosevelt was presented to the delegates, among whom were many ladies, by Professor Newcomb. Addressing them, the president said:

"Professor Newcomb, Mr. Munsterberg, ladies and gentlemen:

"I wish to say that I peculiarly appreciate the privilege of greeting this body. Perhaps the happiest feature of our modern world life is the steadily increasing recognition of the fact that it must be a world life, that no nation can hope for the fullest development if it confines itself exclusively within its own boundaries, that progress must come from a frank recognition of the fact that each nation can help others and can be helped by them. I feel that not only do associations and gatherings such as this mean much for the scientific, the artistic, the intellectual development of all the nations taking part in them, but I feel also that these gatherings all help to prepare the way for the time when the great rules of right and of equity shall prevail among the nations exactly as they now in highly civilized countries prevail among individuals.

"I welcome you here. I feel that you are doing a great work and that it is an honor on behalf of the American republic to greet you."

The delegates, among whom were many of the most distinguished scientists of Europe and America, were then introduced to the president by Professor Newcomb and Professor Munsterberg.

Said He Was New York Chief.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 28.—A man giving his name as Captain Edward McHenry, who says he was once chief of police of New York city, and in whose pocket was found a "chief of police" badge, was arrested and locked up here at the request of Dr. William Smith, who charges him with embezzlement. Dr. Smith says that a few days ago McHenry brought him a letter purporting to be from Mrs. Smith, who is away from home. The letter asked that $100 be sent. Smith alleges that he gave up the money and that he subsequently discovered that McHenry had written the letter himself and appropriated the money. McHenry denies the charge.

Vesuvius Railway Damaged.

NAPLES, Sept. 28.—The eruption of Mount Vesuvius has greatly diminished. The stones ejected from the crater do not now rise beyond a height of 150 feet. The authorities have relaxed the restrictions placed upon the public when the eruption was at its worst, and people are permitted to ascend the mountain. The Funicular railway, however, was so badly damaged by lava that three months will be required to repair it. Meanwhile tourists and sightseers make the ascent in Sedan chairs. Many Americans are making the trip to inspect the volcano.

Miss Margaret Lynch's Body.

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—All doubt regarding the identity of the young woman who was buried in the Greenfield cemetery, near Mineola, N. Y., as Martha Laimbeer was removed when the body was exhumed and fully identified as that of Margaret Lynch of Brooklyn. The identification was made by the girl's mother and sister, who for some time had suspected that she had been buried under another name, and was further confirmed by a dentist who had filled Miss Lynch's teeth not long before her death.

Boll Weevil Invasion.

COVINGTON, Ga., Sept. 28.—An insect supposed to be a boll weevil has been found in this county on the plantation of L. F. Duke. The insect was subjected to a microscopic examination and compared to an enlarged picture of the boll weevil issued by the department of agriculture and, it is alleged, was found to be practically identical with the Mexican boll weevil. The insects have become quite numerous.

Could Not Bear the Ills They Had.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 28.—Four suicides have occurred here in the last twenty-four hours. Vincent Planellas, a freight handler, took carbolic acid. Maud Mars quarreled with her lover and jumped into the river. Louis Heller, a cooper, stabbed himself in the breast. Eugene Philaspere, a negro porter, was affected by reading of reports of suicides and swallowed two ounces of carbolic acid.

Marx on Trial.

NEW LONDON, Conn., Sept. 28.—The trial of Gershom Marx, the aged Colchester farmer, charged with the murder of Pavlo Rodecki, a Polish farmhand, has opened here. Some difficulty was experienced in obtaining a full panel of talismen to sit upon the case.

Admiral Terry Ordered Home.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—Rear Admiral S. W. Terry has been detached from command of the naval station at Honolulu and ordered home to await further orders.

Proceedings of the Board of Chosen Freeholders of Union County.

[OFFICIAL]

Adjourned meeting of the Board of Chosen Freeholders of the county of Union, N. J., held on Thursday, Sept. 22, 1904, at 2:30 p. m.

Roll call showed all members present except Freeholder Krouse—1.

The minutes of the previous meeting, reading of bills being omitted, were on motion approved as read.

From Sarah A. McNabb, by Chas. J. McNabb, as follows, viz.:

To the Board of Chosen Freeholders of the county of Union:

Gentlemen: Your petitioner is the owner in fee simple of that certain lot situate on the northeasterly side of Norwood avenue, in the city of Plainfield, county of Union and State of New Jersey, bounded on the northwesterly side by Green brook, and running thence southeasterly fifty-two feet along said Norwood avenue.

Now, therefore, your petitioner desires to have free access to and from her said lot for its entire frontage, but is prevented therefrom for a distance of about twelve feet thereof next adjoining the said Green brook by reason of the iron fence extending from the bridge toward East Front street; therefore your petitioner seeks to have said fence removed and placed at such an angle as not to hinder said access, satisfactory to the board.

Sarah A. McNabb.

Dated Plainfield, N. J., September 12, 1904.

On motion of Freeholder King received and referred to the county road committee and county attorney.

From M. H. Higgins, town clerk, Springfield, N. J., as follows, viz.:

At a meeting of the Springfield township committee, held on Sept. 2d, 1904, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, It has been proposed that the road leading from the old Westfield road to the township line, between Springfield and Westfield, be improved under the State road act; and

Whereas, This improvement is very desirable, and will be of great benefit to the township and to the section through which it passes; be it further

Resolved, That the township committee heartily endorses the proposed improvement, and recommends that Freeholder P. H. Meisel use every endeavor to secure the same; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of the above preamble and resolutions be forwarded to the Board of Chosen Freeholders of the county of Union and State of New Jersey.

On motion of Freeholder King received and placed on file.

From Chester C. Henry, city clerk, Summit, N. J., as follows, viz.:

Summit, N. J., Sept. 9, 1904.

To the Honorable Board of Chosen Freeholders, Union county, N. J.:

Gentlemen: I am directed by the common council of the city of Summit to request permission to open Morris avenue, from Ashwood avenue to a point about 500 feet westerly from Mountain avenue.

Yours very truly,
Chester C. Henry,
City Clerk.

On motion of Freeholder King received and referred to the county attorney and county road committee with power.

Director Hubbard then stated that the main object of the present meeting was to grant a public hearing on the petition of "The Morris County Traction Company," as heretofore presented to this board; he further said that the meeting was open to any and all who desired to be heard.

The board was then briefly addressed in favor of the petition by Messrs. Muchmore, Bonnell and Major Holmes, of Summit, ex-Freeholder Jones and Mr. Alden, of New Providence, Mr. Lum, of Chatham, and by others, residents of Springfield and Union.

Judge Cutler, counsel of the company, said that the company had no desire to injure or destroy any rights of the public or of private individuals, and suggested that the county road committee go over the route as laid down in the petition before further action was taken.

No objections to the petition as presented were offered.

Freeholder King moved that further consideration of the petition of "The Morris County Traction Company" be laid over to the next meeting of this board, which was so ordered without dissent.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

By the committee on line bridge between Springfield and Union:

To the Board of Chosen Freeholders, Union county, N. J.:

Gentlemen: Your committee on line bridge between Springfield and Union townships, Morris avenue, would respectfully report that they have examined the bridge, and find it in very bad condition, and would recommend that it be repaired at a cost not to exceed $3,000.

Signed, Noah Woodruff, Thos. J. Pierson, Benj. King, Committee.

Freeholders Meisel and Wahl, of the foregoing committee, did not sign the report.

Freeholder Brucklacher moved that the report be received and recommendation adopted, which was duly seconded.

Considerable discussion ensued, during which Freeholder Woodruff spoke in favor of repairing the present bridge, and Freeholders Meisel and Wahl urged the construction of a new bridge with a greater waterway, etc.

Engineer Bauer said that he was of the opinion that the present bridge could be repaired at a sum not exceeding the amount stated in the report as presented; the full extent of the damage to the bridge, however, could not be ascertained until a more thorough examination had been made. To build a new bridge would cost from $9,000 to $12,000, according to the style of construction.

Freeholder King moved as an amendment to Freeholder Brucklacher's motion that further consideration of the report be laid over to next meeting, which was so ordered.

By the committee on Mountain avenue culvert, Montalnside, N. J.:

To the Board of Chosen Freeholders, Union county, N. J.:

Gentlemen: Your committee respectfully report that they have examined the culvert, and recommend that a new culvert be built at a cost not to exceed $150.

Signed, Elston Darby, Peter H. Meisel, Emil Klee, Committee.

Freeholder Swain moved that the report be received and the recommendations adopted, which was so ordered on roll call by a unanimous vote.

Freeholder Pierson moved to adjourn, which was carried.

The director declared the board adjourned until Thursday, Oct. 6, 1904, at 2:30 p. m.

S. Rusling Ryno, Clerk.

LITERARY.

The novelette in the current number of Lippincott's Magazine is a tale of the Great Lakes from the pen of Karl Edwin Harriman. Its title is "A Lad's Love," and through its pages the island fisher-folk are presented as only one who loves them in their atmosphere of simplicity could do. The serpent in Eden comes (with a camera) from a near-by city and insidiously wins his way, amid the deep silence of the wood, into the favor of loving little Margy Kergan, whose true island lover has gone for a draught of the world's activity before settling down to "the simple life" with Margy. The story is an affecting one, relieved from deepest tragedy by native humor and a beautiful end.

If Mr. Roosevelt is elected, as most Democrats think he will be, what is to be the political history of the country for the next few years? Are the people satisfied, or are there forces of discontent, seeking fundamental change? Judge Parker was nominated, to a considerable degree, from the desire to suppress radicalism, led by Bryan, and incendiarism, led by Hearst. The important part of the Democratic campaign ended when Judge Parker was nominated. It had put itself in condition to go through the motions of a respectable opposition. It had failed to accomplish what some men hoped—to select a candidate and outline issues which should bring eloquently before the people what abuses indisputably exist, without expressing violence and ignorance.—Collier's for September 24.

Corporation Notice.

NOTICE OF ADJOURNMENT OF SALE OF LANDS FOR UNPAID TAXES AND ASSESSMENTS.

Collector's office, city of Plainfield, New Jersey.

Notice is hereby given that the sale of the several tracts or parcels of land in the city of Plainfield, hereinafter referred to, or any parts thereof severally sufficient for the purpose, on which taxes for the year nineteen hundred and three remain in arrears, pursuant to the act of the legislature of New Jersey entitled, "An Act for the Assessment and Collection of Taxes," approved April 8, 1903, and acts amendatory thereof and supplemental thereto, to such person or persons as will purchase the same for the shortest term and pay the tax lien, including interest and costs of sale, or in fee where no one will bid for a shorter term, which sale was publicly advertised to take place at the Collector's office, No. 151 North avenue, in the city of Plainfield, on Thursday, the twenty-second day of September, A. D., 1904, at two o'clock p. m., was at the time and place so specified, publicly adjourned at the request of persons interested, and in the discretion of the Collector, for four weeks, that is to say, to Thursday, the twentieth day of October, 1904, at two o'clock p. m., at the same place, and this short notice of said adjournment is given pursuant to said act of the legislature. The descriptions, by lot and block numbers, of the lots, tracts and parcels of land to be sold, as they appear on official assessment maps of the city of Plainfield, on file in the office of the city Collector, the names of supposed owners or persons to whom assessed, the amount of tax so in arrears and date from which interest is to be added at ten per centum per annum to date of sale, and fees and costs due thereon, and other particulars respecting said sale, are fully set forth in the advertisements of sale heretofore published in the Plainfield Courier-News and the Daily Press, the official newspapers of said city, for at least four weeks successively next, preceding said twenty-second day of September, 1904, (and also by printed copies of said advertisement in the office of said Collector, which said copies may be had on application to said Collector at his said office,) to which reference is hereby made for greater certainty.

WINTER COLOR SCHEME.

The Smart Autumn Petticoat—A Suggestion In Economy.

The colors to be most in vogue during the coming winter are what might be called indefinite tints, although the new colors are a little more pronounced in tone than the pastel shades. The fact is that strong definite colors wear themselves out too quickly by their insistence, whereas these softer shades compensate in virtue by trying the eye less.

For the woman who is obliged to study economy and has to make one frock do the duty of several a dress of inconspicuous indefinite color is a boon.

Black, brown and champagne colored silk petticoats are to be very fashionable this year. With the autumn tailored suits the brown and champagne skirts are quite a feature. The champagne petticoat is fashioned with two wide pinked out frills headed by rows of graduated brown velvet ribbon.

The woman who is going to invest in two tailor made costumes this fall should select one of the gowns in blue or green cloth and the other in white.

Pastel blue liberty silk fashions the dainty theater blouse herewith pictured. It is oddly made with the waist gathered around an emplecement of the silk adorned at intervals with groups of small gold buttons. These buttons also trim the center plait, which stops a little above the bust line. The puffed sleeves terminate in ruffles of lace. JUDIC CHOLLET.

MODES IN SLEEVES.

What the Fashionable Woman Will Wear on Her Arms.

Sleeves will receive an unusual amount of attention in the winter modes and will form the most important portion of the season's bodice. Styles are so varied that it is not necessary to have any two sleeves alike, no matter how many gowns are included in the wardrobe. Very few plain sleeves are seen, even the bishop's models being tucked at the top to form fitted caps and around the arm near the cuff to increase the apparent size at that point.

Sleeves made in two or three sections are not uncommon. They have fitted caps, from which depend deep flounces or ruffles of material. These flare out widely over an undersleeve of lace or tucking.

Some of the new sleeves have flounces gathered into a band that reach to a point half way between elbow and wrist, giving the impression of a three sectioned sleeve.

Accordion plaited sleeves are a new mode somewhat on the order of the popular "angel" variety. These are slashed from shoulder to hem on top and fall loosely to each side, displaying a closely fitted undersleeve of net or lace.

The attractive frock illustrated is of tan mousseline silk. The long, graceful skirt is elaborately trimmed at the bottom with a tan silk spotted with rings of a darker shade between other bands of brown velvet and cream lace insertion. The full blouse front and puffed sleeves of the bodice are of the spotted ring silk. The sleeves are banded with velvet, and about the upper part of the waist are fitted emplacements of the same material between insertions of lace. The high folded girdle is also of the velvet. Three graduated tabs of lace ornament each side of the bloused front.

SENATOR HOAR DYING.

Lies Unconscious and Can Take No Nourishment.

WORCESTER, Mass., Sept. 28.—Senator Hoar is dying. He lies unconscious and can take neither medicine nor nourishment. Dr. Warren R. Gilman, who is attending him, has said that everything has been done for him which could possibly be done and that there is practically no hope of his rallying.

Senator Hoar has remained in a state of coma into which he sank on Sunday night. At his home it was announced that he had passed a quiet night, having had considerable sleep. The bulletin issued by his son, General Rockwood Hoar, said:

"The senator is very weak. His pulse is very low. Death seems now to be a question of a few hours."

Late last night Dr. Warran R. Gilman, Senator Hoar's physician, expressed the belief that the senator would only live through the night. He is unable to swallow, is unconscious, and his vitality is almost gone.

As soon as the announcement of Senator Hoar's death has been made the fire department will notify the people by sounding the alarm, and church bells will toll for fifteen minutes.

Accident to Fairbanks Train.

WHITE HILL, Mont., Sept. 28.—The only approach to an accident that has occurred on Senator Fairbanks' tour took place at Dogan, in this state. It consisted in breaking off of the steps on one side of the private car Edgemore. There was a brief stop at this point, and the lower step was let down, and when the train started it struck the station platform, resulting in the demolition of the entire series of steps. Colonel Randdell stood on the steps, but escaped without injury. Senator Fairbanks was still standing on the station platform and did not try to enter the car until the train came to a full stop again.

Train Crew Held Responsible.

CHICAGO, Sept. 28.—Responsibility for the wreck of the Sunday school excursion train on the Chicago and Eastern Illinois railroad at Glenwood, Ill., when eighteen persons were killed and more than 100 others injured, has been fixed by the grand jury here when it voted to indict Frank E. Hoxie engineer; Frank Casper, conductor, and Charles H. Wright, brakeman of the freight train which caused the accident. Frederick Whiteman, train dispatcher, and Patrick Costello, fireman of the freight train, were exonerated by the grand jury, although they had been held responsible by a coroner's jury.

Canadian "Kilties" Before Edward.

LONDON, Sept. 28.—The Canadian "kilties" band gave a command concert before King Edward at Balmoral. The party included the Prince and Princess of Wales, the Duke and Duchess of Connaught, the Duke and Duchess of Fife, Premier Balfour and Captain Scott of the antarctic exploring ship Discovery. At the close of the concert his majesty expressed himself as delighted and personally complimented Conductor Robinson, whom he decorated with the Victorian order.

Grant to Command In East.

CHICAGO, Sept. 28.—Brigadier General Frederick D. Grant relinquished command of the department of the lakes here and left for New York to assume command of the department of the east. General Grant will be succeeded in Chicago by Brigadier General Frederick Funston, at present in charge of the department of the Columbia, with headquartetrs at Vancouver barracks, Washington.

Eleven Vessels Wrecked.

ST. JOHN'S, N. F., Sept. 28.—The steamer Virginia from Labrador reports that the coast was swept by a heavy gale last week and that eleven vessels, mostly fish laden, were driven ashore, the greater portion of them being totally wrecked. Seven sailors belonging to two craft were drowned. The crews of the other vessels wrecked reached shore.

Murder Over School Laws.

MOUNT AYR, Ia., Sept. 28.—Samuel Egly is dead and William Kling, his self confessed slayer, is in jail here as the result of a quarrel over the school laws. Both are directors and had met on school business when the difficulty arose. Egly is said to have threatened to strike Kling with an axe, and Kling shot him through the heart. Self defense is the plea.

Jury Disagreed In Election Trial.

KINGSTON, N. Y., Sept. 28.—The jury in the case of Cornelius Riggins and Eugene Way, charged with falsifying election returns at Eddysville has failed to agree and was discharged. The defendants will be rearraigned in December.

STALWART WON.

Hindoo Stakes at Gravesend an Easy Thing For Favorite.

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—Stalwart, favorite in the betting at 9 to 10, easily won the $15,000 Hindoo stakes for three-year-olds, distance about one and three-quarter miles, at Gravesend. Broomstick, paying 13 to 10 for the place, was second and Ormonde's Right third.

The Hindoo stakes is a new stake, with a guaranteed value of $15,000. It was first run last year and won by Hurstbourne. Only four three-year-olds faced the starter for this race, with the Thomas entry, Stalwart and St. Valentine, favorite. Ormonde's Right was quoted at 3 to 2, while 7 to 1 was laid against Broomstick. They were off to a good start.

St. Valentine was first to show, with Broomstick second and Ormonde's Right third. Passing the stand the first time St. Valentine was leading by a length from Ormonde's Right, who was a head in front of Broomstick. Stalwart was last, under a stiff pull. Around the turn and into the back stretch the field raced with positions almost the same. Rounding the far turn, Burns sent Broomstick into the lead. Redfern at the same time made his move with Stalwart and three-eighths of a mile from the finish was on even terms with Broomstick. From the head of the stretch to the wire it was only a question of how far Redfern cared to win by. Stalwart was being eased up in the last eighth and won by six lengths. Broomstick was one length and a half in front of Ormonde's Right.

Mud Runners Won.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 28.—Mud runners at long prices won the majority of races at Delmar park over a track made heavy by last night's rain. Albertola at 16 to 1 won the first race in a drive; Lady Lou was ridden hard to capture the second; Check Morgan was much the best in the third, and Lone Wolf won the fourth by a wide margin. Alcom R. beat the favorite by a length in the fifth race, and Laura Hunter won the sixth at a good price.

Spencerian at Worth.

CHICAGO, Sept. 28.—Spencerian added another victory to her already long list when she won the fourth and feature event at Worth from the Canadian mudder Reservation. Port Royal, the only other starter, was third.

Chief of Police Guilty.

ALBANY, Ga., Sept. 28.—The trial of Chief of Police Westbrook, on the sensational charges first preferred by Dr. L. G. Broughton of Atlanta in a sermon here three months ago, was concluded. Of the seven specific charges preferred the chief is found guilty of two—viz, drinking while on duty and in uniform and visiting barrooms while on duty and loitering at such places. The commission imposed a fine of $25 for each of these offenses and exonerated him on all other charges. Of the charge of assault on the minister, whom he cowhided following the sermon, the commission said: "We find Chief Westbrook guilty of this charge, but in our opinion the peculiar circumstances justified him as a man in pursuing the course he did."

An Ideal Location

Rosedale and Linden Park Cemeteries

LARGEST IN THE STATE

LINDEN, N. J.

Beautiful and Accessible

2 Miles from Elizabeth, 7 Miles from Newark,

14 MILES FROM NEW YORK

On Main Line Pennsylvania Railroad

Why Lots in these Cemeteries commend themselves to Heads of Families and Investors

BECAUSE of the $1,000,000 Trust Fund provided for by the Trustees in each Cemetery, the income from which will keep the properties perpetually beautiful at NO EXPENSE TO LOT OWNERS.

BECAUSE such a guarantee, not found in any other cemetery, assures lot owners that the grounds WILL BE MAINTAINED PERMANENTLY AS BEAUTIFUL PARKS AFTER THE INCOME FROM THE SALE OF LOTS HAS BEEN EXHAUSTED.

LOTS SHOULD BE PURCHASED NOW

BECAUSE MORE ADVANTAGES ARE OFFERED TO LOT BUYERS in a new Modern Park Cemetery than in those established many years and, in most cases, no provision made for perpetual care without extra expense to lot owners. THERE ARE A GREATER NUMBER OF IDEAL LOCATIONS TO SELECT FROM, PRICES OF LOTS ARE ALWAYS LOWER AND TERMS MORE ADVANTAGEOUS.

BECAUSE life is most uncertain and EVERY ONE SHOULD ANTICIPATE THE INEVITABLE BY MAKING A CHOICE NOW OF A FINAL RESTING PLACE.

LOTS WILL PROVE A GOOD INVESTMENT

BECAUSE they are sure to increase in value and can be purchased NOW at the INITIAL or LOWEST PRICE and upon the most ADVANTAGEOUS TERMS.

BECAUSE the properties are ACCESSIBLE TO 4,000,000 PEOPLE, and considering the RAPID GROWTH OF GREATER NEW YORK and its TRIBUTARY CITIES and TOWNS, it is only a question of a SHORT TIME when LOTS in ROSEDALE and LINDEN PARK will EQUAL IN VALUE those of our MOST NOTED cemeteries.

SPORTING NEWS.

DIAMOND DUST.

With Garvin pitching for the Plainfield A. C. against the New York Nationals, the locals should give the big leaguers a stiff game.

"Al." Farmer had a very sore right arm on Saturday and it affected his throwing to bases. He also failed to get his usual two hits.

The Amsterdams of New York, padded with four Chicago National League players, defeated the Elizabeth Stars on Sunday by a score of 3 to 1.

President John T. Brush, of the New York Nationals, says that winning the National League pennant is enough glory without playing the New York Americans for the championship of the country.

Manager Denman, of the Westfields, says that he will play three more games before winding up his season. He says that the fight for the pennant between Plainfield and Westfield was one of the most exciting in his career.

Many local fans have expressed the opinion that they hope that if Plainfield has a team next season it will refuse to schedule games with Westfield. They say they would rather see contests with Somerville, Elizabeth, Chatham, Madison and other teams in this vicinity.

Manager Lentz, of the Aeolians, stated on Saturday that next season his team will represent Cranford, the fans in that town having caught the fever. In consequence Garwood will not be represented. The Cranfords will be stronger than the present Aeolian team.

Robertson, who has been playing first base for Westfield, has been signed by Manager Johnston to play that position for the balance of the season. He is a fast fielder and a heavy hitter and should make a valuable acquisition to the team. A new man will also replace Courtney at third, it being the intention to get a man who can hit the ball and field as well.

There will be no further contests this year with the West Ends, of Somerville. It is learned that prior to the last game with the West Ends, about $500 was raised to defeat Plainfield, but unfortunately, most of the money was on paper and in promises and Manager W. H. Cawley found it impossible to make arrangements for another game, after clearing up expenses for the first exhibition.

GOLF.

The only events scheduled for the Hillside Tennis and Golf Club course on Saturday is the weekly competition for the Golf Committee and Gaston cups.

No regular event is scheduled for the Westfield Golf Club course on Saturday, but on Saturday, October 8, there will be play for the club championship gold medal. Qualifying round, best sixteen scores to qualify.

There are two more matches to be played in the Central Jersey Golf League tournament, one being on Saturday between Westfield and Cranford at Westfield and the other on Saturday, October 8, between Park and Colonia at Colonia. The Parks thus far have not made a strong showing in the series and they stand a poor chance of finishing near the top.

VARIOUS SPORTS.

The Summit Y. M. C. A., of which Frank Marclay, formerly of this city, is physical director, will hold its annual fall reopening of the physical department, October 18. On this date the Y. M. C. A. will be open to the public, an exhibition of the gymnasium work will be given, and a general reception to the friends of the association will be held. The regular classes will commence before the formal opening, starting up on October 3. Mr. Marclay was in this city yesterday, looking into the purchase of certain apparatus for the gymnasium, and planning for the fall opening.

FOOTBALL.

The Orange Field Club will play its first football game of the season with Westfield on the Randolph road grounds on Saturday. The field has been staked out and put in fine condition and the goal posts put in position. The Westfield eleven is considered very strong, some of the players formerly being with leading metropolitan teams.

In spite of the fact that many of the players were detained from practice by the tennis tournament, a good squad of High School football players turned out on the gridiron yesterday afternoon for the regular practice. The practice was short, but snappy, and the boys went through their manoeuvres in good style. They are working hard with a view to winning their series with Leals, whose team is almost the same weight.

I. O. O. F. MEETING.

District Session at Perth Amboy Well Attended.

The annual meeting of the Tenth District of the I. O. O. F., held at Perth Amboy, last evening, was attended by delegates from this city, Elizabeth, Newark and Westfield. The local lodges, Plainfield Lodge, No. 44, and Queen City No. 26, I. O. O. F., went to the meeting in stages.

Many prominent men in the order, including Grand Master Ross, of Cape May Landing, Grand Warden Pearsall, of Jersey City, and Past Grand Masters Stagg and Warden, made speeches. Past District Deputy John Becker, of this city, made an pleasing address.

Band Membership Increasing.

Two applications for membership were received during the meeting of the Plainfield Band last evening. The organization now has a personnel of twenty-two and it is thought it will be increased to thirty within a few weeks. As soon as matters can be arranged, the band will conduct a ball in one of the local halls.

HAPPENINGS OF THE LOCAL FRATERNAL ORDERS.

Franklin Council, No. 41, Jr. O. U. A. M., will meet tomorrow night and have initiation.

Columbia and Central Lodges, A. O. U. W., of this city, no doubt will make arrangements to observe the thirty-sixth anniversary of the Order to be celebrated quite generally in October. The plan is to have every lodge select one day in the month for the celebration. During the history of the order there has been paid out over one hundred and forty million dollars to the beneficiaries of its deceased members. The members in good standing August 1, 1904, aggregate 385,263 and the amount of beneficiary fund paid out in July last was $818,540.79

BIG MASS-MEETING.

Union County Republicans Hear Noted Men Speak at Elizabeth.

The first Republican rally of the campaign in Union county was held in Jacobs Theatre, Elizabeth, last night, and there was no bound to the enthusiasm and every available space in the theatre was occupied with people. Congressman Charles N. Fowler, presided, making a vigorous speech. Addresses were made by Congressman Hepburn, of Iowa, and Lee Fairchild, of California. They set forth the paramount issues of the campaign and at the same time reviewed the history of the Republican party.

Plainfield was well represented at the meeting, fully fifty citizens being present. It has been planned to hold four mass meetings in Plainfield, in connection with the campaign work in the county. The first one will be held on October 11 or 12, the second on October 18 or 19, the third on October 25 or 26 and the fourth on November 3 or 4. Charles N. Codding, of Westfield, is chairman of the county campaign work, and William Newcorn, of this city, is a member of the committee. Mr. Newcorn has charge of the work of securing speakers.

ATTRACTIVE DISPLAYS.

Levy Brothers to Have a Big Opening at Their Establishment.

The opening at Levy Brothers' dry goods store on Saturday will be an event of unusual interest in the city. The firm will at that time offer specials in dress goods, cloaks, millinery and dry goods in general. Since coming here six months ago, the firm his disposed of the Lederer stock and all goods in the store are new and the Saturday opening will mark the beginning of the sale of these goods.

During the past few weeks the store has been undergoing extensive repairs, carpenters and painters having improved it very much. The store is now roomy and very light and the additional shelving allows for the handling of a larger stock. The millinery department has also been improved. The men's department in the basement is also an added feature.

An attraction at the store this week is the Yankee whittler, who occupies a window for his work of carving handsome photograph holders. Crowds have been attracted by this fellow who is so handy with a jack knife. On Saturday each purchaser of a dollar or more worth of goods will receive one of these holders free.

Damage Case Non-Suit.

The counsel for the Pennsylvania Railroad Company secured a non-suit in the Middlesex county court at New Brunswick, this morning, in the action brought against that company by William Newcorn, Esq., for the death of John Bellof, of New Brunswick. Mr. Newcorn will take an appeal.

—Neuman Brothers are having a special sale of fancy crackers. Just note the prices they are asking for Uneeda's, oysterettes, Social Teas, grahams, saltines and Nabiscos and compare them with those of other firms.

SNAP SHOTS.

SIDE LIGHTS ON TIMELY TOPICS NOTED IN PASSING.

Included in an assortment of mail which came to Manager Maze Edwards, of the Casino, a few days ago, was a letter from his son, Rowland Edwards, containing a leaf from the register once used by the Merrimac House at Lowell, Mass., which occasioned him a great deal of surprise and brought a flood of memories. Among the names jotted down on the page was that of "Maze Edwards" under the date of January 2, 1886, placed there by him at the time he was managing the original "Mikado" company which toured the New England section that year. The troupe included some of the present day's best known theatrical people and among the fifty-five names of the members of the troupe on the register as well as Mr. Edwards' are those of Miss Augusta Roche, the original of all "Katcishas;" Gus Kammerlee, who was with the original Bostonians; John Mullaly, leader of this season's orchestra at Newport and Charles F. Lang, the noted tenor.

Rowland Edwards is now leading man of the "Her Mad Marriage" company and the leaf was discovered by him in a peculiar way. During his "business" in the play it devolves upon him to look over a register and one is always furnished by the property man. At Springfield, Mass., where the play was given, he flung the book open as usual and was going on with his lines when he was startled to see his father's name on the page in front of him. He enquired about the book but no one could explain to him how it had gotten from the Merrimac House or how it happened to be in Springfield. He secured the register and tearing the page out, sent it on to his father.

The younger Edwards has been meeting with decided success over the same route his father travelled years ago and he will shortly conclude it when his company appears at the American Theatre, New York, for the week beginning September 26. John O. Stetson, who owned the troupe managed by Maze Edwards, owned the original copyright for the "Mikado" and in 1886 had three companies covering the United States so that at least one performance was given in every city of any size.

TELLS OF HIS WORK.

Rev. George Pierson Addresses Large Gathering in Warren Chapel.

A large gathering of young people representing the Presbyterian churches of the city, filled Warren chapel last evening, to listen to Rev. George P. Pierson tell of his work as a missionary in Japan. Accompanying him was Rev. Kotara Hikaru, a native minister who is now studying in Union Theological Seminary, New York. Both delivered very interesting addresses, Mr. Hikaru at times speaking in his native tongue. Mr. Pierson endeavored to show the differences between the religions of the East and the Christian religion and how he had been striving to uphold the latter to those about him. He showed very clearly the state of uneasiness and unrest of the Japanese at this critical time and how many were turning to Christianity.

The meeting was arranged by the Young People's Society of the chapel and Theodore Mason presided, introducing the speakers. The decorations were elaborate and pleasing to the visitors.

Formal Opening of Physical Department Scheduled for Monday.

The formal opening and reception of the physical department of the Y. M. C. A. will be held Monday evening in the association rooms. The evening will be for the opening of the men's class, while on the following evening there will be a reception for the boys' department.

The affair is in charge of Physical Director Henckel, and Kenneth Robbie, the secretary of the boys' department. During both evenings, the entire building will be open to the public, and an informal entertainment will be provided. The work of the year in the physical department will be described by Mr. Henckel, while the services of Joe Lorrain, of Boston, have been secured as the principal feature of the entertainment. Mr. Valiant, of the physical work committee, will also make an address. The same form of entertainment will be held on the boys' night.

City Court Notes.

Charged by his wife with drunkenness and disorderly conduct, Henry Lewis, colored, pleaded not guilty before Judge Runyon in the city court this morning. Testimony showed that Henry was more sumed against than sinning and sentence was suspended. George Randolph, also colored, had sentence suspended, but John Dorgan, white, who was arrested for drunkenness, had his preference of $5 or twenty days.

ESTABLISHED MAY 10, 1887 — PLAINFIELD, N. J., THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 29, 1904. — TWO CENTS A COPY—$5 A YEAR.

James E. Martine.
Democratic Nominee for Congress.

FOR CONGRESS, FARMER-ORATOR

Democrats of Fifth District Name James E. Martine As Their Standard Bearer.

ENTHUSIASTIC SCENE

Convention Was Held at Elizabeth This Afternoon—The District Includes Union, Morris and Warren Counties.

Amid scenes of enthusiasm, James E. Martine, the "farmer-orator of New Jersey" and a distinguished citizen of Plainfield, was nominated at the convention of the Fifth district, at Elizabeth, this afternoon, as the Democratic candidate for Congress. The Plainfielder delivered a ringing speech in accepting the nomination flaying the Republican party without a "big stick" but with an eloquence which fully justified his claims as the orator of Jersey's Democracy.

County Chairman John Moody, of Cranford, as chairman of the last Congressional convention, called the delegates to order at the Lyceum theatre at 1 o'clock. The temporary secretaries were E. M. Meek, of Union; Joshua R. Salmon, of Morris, and J. J. Cullen, of Warren. As vice presidents these were named: J. J. Lane, of Union; Dr. Woolfe, of Morris, and Charles Quigg, of Warren county.

Mr. Moody stated the object of the meeting and briefly dwelt upon the issues of the present campaign. The various committees on credentials, resolutions, organization, rules and the like were announced and an adjournment was taken until 2.15 o'clock.

W. Allen Stryker, of Washington, Warren county, was selected as permanent chairman of the convention and the temporary secretaries were made permanent. After he made a short address, announcement was made that nominations for a candidate for Congress were in order. John Moody, of Cranford, placed the name of Mr. Martine before the convention, extolling his political virtues and the great work he has done for his party during the last forty years. The nomination was seconded by Mr. Flanagan, of Morris, and Francis Coyne, of Warren.

Mr. Martine was brought in by a committee appointed by the chairman. The "farmer-orator," after thanking the delegates, launching forth in an attack on the policies of the Republican party in the Philippines and on the Panama question, not forgetting to dwell at length on the effect of the Republican party's tariff law. Before closing he bitterly assailed Congressman Fowler for the speech of acceptance delivered by him at Morristown.

FLANAGAN, AN ELECTOR.

Former Congressman DeWitt C. Flanagan will be selected by the Fifth district convention at Elizabeth this afternoon, as a Democratic Presidential elector in place of W. J. Curtis, who resigned.

5TH DIST. DEMOCRATS FOR EQUAL TAXATION

PLATFORM AS ADOPTED AT CONVENTION THIS AFTERNOON.

The resolutions adopted ratify the platform of the National convention at St. Louis and pledges support to Parker and Davis, and then state: "We condemn the usurpation by the present executive of the Legislative functions, believing that the limitations to the Constitution of our government as adopted by the fathers is essential to the maintenance of free republican institutions.

"We favor such reduction of the tariff as will secure equality of the burdens and the equality of opportunities, believing that the present system fosters trusts and monopolies, the enemies of fair trade and free competition, and further believe such revision should be made by friends of the people and not by those who profit by the evils of monopoly."

After approving the State platform and pledging united support to Charles O. Black, the gubernatorial candidate, the resolutions say: "Equal taxation is the paramount issue of our State campaign. This is a question so important and of vital consequence to the people of the State that every citizen is interested in its solution." Expression is made that Mr. Black is the most capable man to be selected to see that equal taxation is brought about. The failure of the present Republican State administration to bring about reforms in taxation is pointed out. The Republicans tell each campaign, according to the resolutions, what they will do, but in ten years of complete control have done nothing.

"The use of money for corruption purposes at elections is condemned and the declaration made that representatives to Congress should be elected by the free will of the people unhampered by the free use of money at the polls."

UNION CO.'S CAUCUS AGREES UPON MARTINE

UNIT RULE DECIDED UPON BY DELEGATES LAST NIGHT.

James E. Martine, the farmer-orator of New Jersey, was agreed upon last night as Union County's candidate for the Congressional nomination to be made at the convention today in Elizabeth. The selection of Mr. Martine was made at a caucus of the delegation at Elizabeth last night. The unit rule was enforced and the delegation will vote solidly for the Plainfield warhorse. Former County Prosecutor William Wilson, of Elizabeth, was the only other candidate, John Moody, of Cranford, having withdrawn in Mr. Martine's favor.

William E. Tuttle, of Westfield, acted as chairman of the convention, and E. M. Meek, of Elizabeth, was the secretary. When the roll was called Cranford gave way to the Third ward of Plainfield, and A. H. Atterbury arose to nominate Martine. His speech was an assertion of the claims of Mr. Martine's friends and his remarks were received with cheers

DROWNED IN NEWARK BAY

John Earney, of this City, a Victim of Fatal Accident.

FELL FROM SCAFFOLD

Fellow-Workmen Fail in Frantic Effort to Rescue Him—Resided on West Second Street.

Overbalanced by the weight of a heavy beam which he was handling, John Earney, of West Second street, this city, fell from a scaffold at the Newark Bay bridge draw into the water below, yesterday afternoon, and was drowned before the eyes of his fellow-workmen. Several of them, including Thomas Deter, of East Second street, made desperate attempts to rescue him but on account of striking a projection during the fall, he was helpless and could not grasp the planks and ropes thrown nearby. He was an expect swimmer but his struggles were wild and he soon sank. The body was recovered later and is now at the morgue in Elizabeth.

Earney was thirty-six years old and came to this city from South Bethlehem, Pa., two years ago. He secured employment as carpenter with the New Jersey Central and was assigned to the Newark draw where the lift bridge is being installed. He was on top of a high scaffolding yesterday pulling up planks handed to him from below when he misjudged the weight of one of them and it caused him to topple over. It happened so quickly that none of the other men could locate his whereabouts in order to jump in after him and the only thing they could do was to throw in the ropes and timbers.

The drowned man boarded with Mr. and Mrs. David C. Bush in the Washington Hall building and at one time was a member of Court Plainfield, I. O. O. F. He is survived by his parents, a sister and brother, all of whom reside in South Bethlehem. The body has been taken in charge by the latter.

AN UNDERWEAR PLANT MAY COME TO PLAINFIELD

IF $15,000 WORTH OF STOCK IS SUBSCRIBED FOR HERE.

Several statements have been made about a large underwear factory coming here from Fonda, N. Y., but as yet no official reports have been received. Mr. Cone, a member of the company, gives Plainfield the preference of the three towns that are under consideration for suitable locations for the factory. New Brunswick and Freehold are both very eager that the plant should locate with them but Plainfield affords better opportunities for shipment and reaching the New York market.

The company wishes to dispose of $15,000 of stock in Plainfield and the establishment of such a plant here will depend largely upon the amount of stock that is subscribed for by people residing here.

The company will employ nearly a hundred hands with the probability of an increase in number after operations are begun in earnest.

Two or three buildings are under consideration here in Plainfield, and the company secured an option on the Schepflin building but it is understood that the interested parties have decided that they do not wish it. If the finishing plant only comes here the company will not find it necessary to erect a building of their own but should the company decide to locate all of their factories here a new building would be the result. An option has also been secured on the Bird property on the northerly side of Fourth street, near Park avenue.

Dunellen's First Game Saturday.

The Dunellen football team will play its first game Saturday afternoon with the team from Somerville. The game will take place on the latter's grounds. The team was out for practice last night and the boys are prepared to give their opponents a good game. The line-up has not yet been announced as Captain Maltbie wishes to try several men in various positions. The manager has arranged a strong schedule, and the boys have some hard work ahead of them.

Boom for I. P. Runyon.

Among those mentioned as a possible Republican candidate for Assembly in Somerset county, is Isaac P. Runyon, Esq., of North Plainfield. His friends believe that he would make a good run and if elected would ably represent the district in the lower branch of the Legislature.

ELKS AT THE SPRING

Plainfield Lodge, No. 885, B. P. O. E., Holding Clam-Bake.

JOLLY GOOD TIME

Wm. N. Runyon, Exalted Ruler, Captains Losing Ball Team.

Elks from Plainfield, North Plainfield, Somerville, New Brunswick, Jersey City, Elizabeth, New York, and other places stalked to Watchung Springs this morning to spend the day as the guests of Plainfield lodge, No. 885, B. P. O. E., of which Judge William N. Runyon is exalted ruler. There are at least 250 in the party which enjoyed the clambake at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

City Judge Wm. N. Runyon.

This morning, the married men defeated the single men in a game of ball by a score of 9 to 8. Judge W. A. Coddington was captain of the winning team, while Judge Runyon had charge of the single men. J. A. Staats acted as umpire. He escaped uninjured.

After the regular game two scrub teams played a game which was brought to a close when announcement was made that the "bake" was ready. Then the "boys" sat around and ate clams, corn and sweet potatoes. Spring water and other liquids to quench the thirst were passed about.

In Justice Huff's Court.

The following contract cases are returnable before Justice of the Peace Fred. J. Huff on Monday, Oct. 3: Willis & Co., corporation, against Frank VanWinkle; E. S. Alpough & Co., against J. E. Totten; John Doe against Nellie Apgar; Richardson & Boyton, corporation, against D. B. Pound & Bros.

Veterans' Reunion.

The annual reunion of the Eleventh Regt., N. J. Veteran Volunteer Association, will be held in Grand Army Hall, Morristown, on Thursday, Oct. 6. The business meeting will be called at 12 o'clock noon, and after the meeting there will be a banquet served by the women of Morristown.

Ball Team Banquet.

The Westfield Baseball Association will appropriately celebrate the close of the baseball season for its team on Saturday night, when Manager Denman will give a supper. Charlie will then explain how he won the "county championship."

Grant Club to Meet.

The U. S. Grant Republican Club, of the borough, will hold an important meeting tonight. Several plans in connection with the campaign are to thoroughly discussed.

ELECTION RETURNS.

Arrangements have been made by The Daily Press to display by stereotpican views the returns of the election on November 8. The results of the National elections in the pivotal States, including New York, New Jersey, West Virgina and Indiana, as well as the complete returns of the gubernatorial and congressional fights in the various counties and districts in this State will be displayed. Returns from the election in the various parts of Union county and Plainfield and North Plainfield will be shown. J. Hervey Doane and John Neagle will operate the camera, and the returns will be received by telegraph and telephone.

COUNSEL FAILED TO RECOVER HIS FEE

ACTION BROUGHT BY LOCAL LAWYER FALLS ON TRIAL.

Before Judge Vail at Elizabeth, yesterday, V. W. Nash, Jr., Esq., counsel for Mrs. Carrie Carbone, defendant in a suit brought by W. G. De Mesa, Esq., through his counsel, Abe David, Esq., and Samuel Schlimer, Esq., of Elizabeth, to recover counsel fees, secured a verdict of no cause for action.

The suit was started to recover $70 which Mr. DeMesa claimed Mrs. Carbone owed him for defending her in an action brought against her by the city. Mr. DeMesa claimed that he was to receive $175, that $105 had been paid and that $70 was still due. The defendant claimed that Mr DeMesa agreed to take the case for $75 and the balance, $30 paid, was for witness fees. The court held that Mr. DeMesa's claim was a reasonable one but that under the law agreements concerning fees must be made in writing or in the presence of a third party. In Justice Hand's court Mr. DeMesa secured a verdict in his favor, but yesterday's verdict at Elizabeth sets this aside.

MORRISTOWN'S PARADE A COMPLETE SUCCESS

BEAUTIFUL PROCESSION WITNESSED BY MANY THOUSANDS OF PEOPLE.

Pronounced by visitors from every part of the State to have been one of the finest processions of its kind ever seen in New Jersey, the parade of the Morristown fire department passed off successfully yesterday. Many Plainfielders were included in the thousands of spectators and all are enthusiastic over the manner in which the entire affair was conducted. Chief T. O. Deane was one of the invited guests and had been given a place on the programme but a pressure of other matters prevented his attending.

The procession was greatly enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Force, of Duer street, the former especially, having been a member of Gazelle Engine Company, of this city, for seventeen years.

Thirty companies and nineteen musical organizations were in line and it required forty minutes for the parade to pass a given point. The Somerville Chemical Company won frequent plaudits for its fine appearance and the "Darktown Fire Brigade," a burlesque, caused much amusement. The decorations were the most elaborate the town ever saw, the buildings being completely hidden by bunting and flags. A notable feature of the day was the fact that all factories, business houses and schools were closed.

P. H. S. TENNIS.

Play in Singles of Annual Tournament of High School Boys.

The play in the High School tennis tournament is progressing rapidly and the semi-finals and concluding matches are fast coming into view. There remain but three more matches to be played off in the second round, and in all probability the third round will be completed tomorrow. As the play progresses the matches are becoming more interesting than the opening games were. The competitors are better matched, and the playing is much faster. Most of the sets in the first two rounds turned out somewhat to the tune of 6-0, or 6-1; but some deuce sets may be looked for in the coming contests. The following is the result of yesterday's play:

Thompson defeated Strong, 6-4, 6-4; Freeman defeated Gavett, 6-3, 7-9, 6-0; Rubenstein defeated Howe, 6-0, 6-0. The remainder of the matches were uncompleted. Douglass defeated Best 6-1. The other set was not played Craig won one set from Smith, 6-2, and Taylor and Fountain broke even, each winning a set by the score of 6-4. The play will continue tomorrow, and if possible the singles will be completed this week.

Wedded at St. Mary's.

In St. Mary's church at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, Miss May McGuirk, of Raritan, was married to John F. Burns, of this city. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Egan and was witnessed by a large gathering of friends. Following a short trip, Mr. and Mrs. Burns will make their home at 438 West Third street.

HOWELL'S OPPONENT TO BE NAMED SATURDAY

CALL FOR DEMOCRATIC CONGRESSIONAL CONVENTION IN 3D DISTRICT.

The Democratic convention of the Third Congressional district will be held at Red Bank on Saturday. The delegates will meet in the town hall at that place at noon to choose a candidate to oppose Congressman B. F. Howell, of New Brunswick, who has been renominated by the Republicans. The call for the Democratic convention has been issued by George A. Viehmann, chairman of the convention which nominated Jacob A. Geissenhainer.

The Third district includes Middlesex, Monmouth and Ocean Counties. If the Republicans succeed in re-electing Mr. Howell it will be through a heavy vote cast for him in Middlesex County. Middlesex's vote is as essential in the Third district as is Morris county's vote in the Fifth district.

Congressman B. F. Howell.

Mr. Howell was renominated by the Republicans at a convention held at Asbury Park. He was elected to a fifth term in the House of Representatives two years ago, receiving a majority of 1,669.

RESENTS OUSTING FROM STATE COMMITTEE

W. J. KEYS, OF SOMERSET, INDIGNANT AT DELEGATES ACTION.

Former Senator William J. Keys, who was recently turned down at the Democratic State convention for re-election as a member of the State committee from Somerset County, feels highly indignant over the action of the delegates and the treatment accorded him by Senator Childs, who was elected his successor.

After relating how he had labored to advance the interest of the party in this county the former Senator said:

"When I heard there was a movement on foot to retire me I consulted with those whom I had always considered my friends. Sheriff McMurtry, Surrogate De Mond and Senator Childs all assured me there was no sentiment against me, and that I would be re-elected. Childs declared he would have nothing to do with the State committee, and that he would like to see me retained as the member from Somerset. Feeling that my interests were safe in the hands of my friends, I abandoned any further effort on my part to secure my re-election. When the delegates caucused Childs was nominated and elected. He did not decline the honor, and I feel that he has not treated me fairly. If he had said he wanted the place I would have made a fight, and I am satisfied I would have won out. I purpose to continue a resident of Somerset County, and will vote here in the future as I have done in the past fourteen years."

Gave Birthday Party.

In honor of the anniversary of her birthday, Mrs. Charles Sprague, of West Second street, entertained twenty friends at her home last evening. Music and games were enjoyed until a late hour and the affair concluded with a supper. Phonograph selections by George Kaeding were a feature. Among those in attendance were Mr. and Mrs. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Aitken, Miss Carrie White, Mrs. Howard, Mrs. Joseph Clark, Miss Christofferson, Miss Minnie McKane, Miss Elsie Clark and Mrs. Bowers.

STATISTICS OF BASEBALL

Records of Plainfield and Westfield in Recent Series.

EXCELLENT SHOWINGS

Hits, Runs, Errors, Strikeouts and Other Facts About the Games.

By way of comparison between the Plainfield A. C. and Westfield teams, it is interesting to note the results of the ten championship contests played this season. There was an extra game on the morning of Labor Day which did not count in the series, but which Plainfield lost. In the ten contests the Plainfield players were at the bat 330 times. They made thirty-one runs, sixty-four base-hits, stole twenty-one bases, made seventeen sacrifice hits, put out 260 opposing batsmen, had 130 assists and made twenty-three errors.

Against the above record the Westfield players were at the bat 365 times, made twenty-seven runs, sixty-one base hits, stole twenty-two bases, made fifteen sacrifice hits, put out 267 opposing batsmen, had 111 assists and made twenty-six errors.

In the matter of being at the bat, Plainfield exceeded them by five, and they made four more runs, three more hits, stole one more base, made two more sacrifice hits than Westfield. They put out seven less batsmen, but have a credit of nineteen more assists and made three errors less than their opponents.

As this record shows, Plainfield had the advantage in many ways, but careful observers of the contests claim that where Plainfield lost the series was in not being able to hit the ball at opportune times. An instance of this was shown in the last game on Saturday. In one inning the Plainfield team had the bases filled and two of the next batsmen struck out and the third flied out to Waller, thus losing an excellent chance to score several runs, provided there was a little hitting. There have been several instances of this in the ten contests.

In only two instances, on May 28 and September 3, did Westfield play an errorless game, while Plainfield played an errorless game on August 27. The most errors made in any one game was by Westfield on September 10, when they made eight misplays. Plainfield's highest number, six, was made in the first contest between the teams on May 28. In the hitting Westfield exceeded Plainfield in the greatest number in any one game on June 23, when they touched Davis up for fifteen. Plainfield made ten off of Waller on June 23. In one game, August 13, Waller was the most effective, allowing Plainfield but one hit, while on August 6, Westfield got but one off of Garvin. There were several games in which both sides were satisfied to get two, three, four and five hits.

The record for strike outs is held by the Plainfield pitchers with a total of seventy-nine against fifty for Westfield, all but three, which Thatcher, of the Brooklyns, had in one game, being credited to Waller. "Red" pitched in all but one game of the series. The highest number of strike outs is credited to Puttmann, of the New York Americans, who fanned thirteen Westfielders. Next comes Garvin with a record of twelve strike outs in his first game against Westfield and nine in the second contest against that aggregation. In his third game he struck out eight batsmen.

Despite these figures which show that Plainfield has been favored in many respects, the team was only able to win four games in the series. There are many who say that the Westfield umpire had much to do with Plainfield's defeat in some of the contests. He no doubt did the best he could, giving the decisions as impartially as he could. That his vision was off at times there is no doubt, but now that the series is concluded, it is poor policy to blame the umpire.

R. A. BANQUET.

To be Given by Plainfield Council on October 12.

The Grand Regent of the Royal Arcanum of New Jersey and his staff will be guests of Plainfield Council, No. 711, Royal Arcanum, at a banquet to be given at Truell Inn, on Park avenue, for members of the Council and its guests. It will take place Wednesday evening, October 12.

Since January, 1903, there have been added to the Council membership seventy-two names and five candidates are now ready to be received. It is the desire of the Council that the membership shall reach the three hundred mark by December 31 next.

POINTS FOR THE BUYERS

READY REFERENCES FOR THE LOCAL BARGAIN SEEKERS.

J. J. Leahy, of Richmond street, is an expert plumber and any work left in his charge will be promptly and satisfactorily attended to.

You like candy? Of course you do when its good. Every one does. That's why most people go to Mehrten's for their confectionery. That's why Mehrten sells more candy than any one else in the city.

Putnam & DeGraw, the West Front street dry goods merchants, have received their fall and winter shipment of goods and they would like to have you inspect them, believing that you will find just what you want.

After a meal at Timbo's model restaurant on North avenue, there is nothing to be desired. The food is so good, the service so excellent and the price so reasonable that every patron of this place is a satisfied one.

The home without music is sure to be dull. There's nothing like a phonograph to cheer things up and the stock at S. Frucht's West Front street store makes it easy to select one. All manner of musical instruments, including pianos.

Now you're on the right track. Go to Powlison & Jones for your furniture. They will do as well by you as any firm either in this city or in New York. They only handle the best, but their prices are not high. You will also find bed springs and mattresses to suit you.

Groceries of the sort that always mean a second order are the kind dispensed by W. W. Dunn, the Park grocer. Specials every day but at the same time his prices will bear comparison with those of any other local firm. Telephone orders if inconvenient to call.

"Meet Me in St. Louis, Louis" is the title of a song that is being hummed everywhere. Speaking of meat, have you ever noticed that Smalley Brothers' market is always stocked with the very best cuts? Their Jersey poultry is sought for all the year around.

There are other hats but it's ten to one that if you count up in a crowd, more of the Hawes make will be found than all the rest together. Any man will tell you that he prefers the Hawes because he gets full value for it in wear. James R. Blair is the exclusive handler in Plainfield. The fall styles are now being shown.

Fall hats and clothes at the Boston Cloak and Fur Company are the most approvd in style and cut. You should not have your winter dress made until you have seen the goods at the Boston Cloak and Fur Company. Everything in the line of suits, furs, millinery, and ladies' and misses' furnishings may be had at reasonable prices.

Shirley & Johnson, whose show rooms are located in the corner store of the Babcock building, will be pleased to have you call and see their big display of carpets and mattings. It was never more complete and just at the present time money can be saved by making selections. Shirley & Johnson comprise the firm which makes and rents awnings of every description.

Whenever you need anything in the line of pure drugs or medicines or if you want a prescription compounded accurately and promptly go to L. W. Randolph's drug store on West Front street. Mr. Randolph handles nothing but the best goods and he always strives to please his customers. The soda fountain is still a great source of attraction for the thirsty ones and you can get all kinds of drinks from a plain vichy to delicious fruit flavors with ice cream.

BOOK NEWS.

It is planned to issue on Thursday of each week items of library news. This will frequently take the form of book lists, such as lists of books recently added, lists on special subjects and like topics. Frequently the lists will be annotated, the aim being to make these annotations of real service to the reader, by giving him the opinion of a trustworthy critic as to the value of the books or a few words as to their scope. Borrowers should keep these lists. The Plainfield Public Library will furnish to anyone making application a list of its books on a given subject.

Public Library Notes.

Entertaining Biographies.

"Rich as we are in biographies, a well written life is almost as rare as a well spent one."—Carlyle.

From among the few "well written" biographies, are selected the following, every one of which is worth reading. A full list of the biographies contained in the Library may be obtained at the delivery desk.

Ady, Mrs. Julia C., Madame: a life of Henrietta, daughter of Charles I, and duchess of Orleans. "It is in Bousnet's magnificent funeral oration that the lovely princess is best known. * * * The book is interesting from the first page to the last."—Nation.

Ady, Mrs. Julia C., Sacharissa: some account of Dorothy Sidney, countess of Sunderland, her family and friends, 1617-1684. It was of the beautiful Dorothy Sydney of whom Steele wrote in the Tatler, "The fine women nowadays are at best but pretty girls to me who have seen Sacharissa, when all the world repeated the poems she inspired."

Boswell, James, Life of Samuel Johnson. 6v. "Boswell's Life of Johnson is one of the best books in the world."—Macaulay.

Eliot, George, Life; as related in her letters and journals, edited by J. W. Cross. 3v. "We are shown George Eliot not as an Olympian, but human * * * an eager, sensitive, frail, dependent woman."—Academy.

Allen, A. V. G., Life and letters of Phillips Brooks. "Dr. Allen sees the soul behind the man, and enables his reader to share something of his sight."—Lyman Abbott.

Gaskell, Mrs. E. C. S., Life of Charlotte Bronte. "Charlotte Bronte was so far fortunate * * * that her biography was written by the one woman among her contemporaries who had the most genuine fitness for her task."—Clement K. Shorter.

Hare, Augustus J. C., Memorials of a quiet life. "It leads us into one of the most refined and cultivated and lovely of English homes."—F. D. Huntington.

Howe, Mrs. Julia Ward, Reminiscences, 1819-1899. "Mrs. Howe had rare opportunities for knowing many of the prominent men and women of her time. Of these she gives us reminiscences as well as of the various movements in which she had been interested."

Lockhart, J. G., Memoirs of the life of Sir Walter Scott. 3v. "Next to Boswell's 'Johnson' the best biography in the language."—Leslie Stephen.

Longfellow, Samuel, Life of Henry Wadsworth Longfellow, with extracts from his journals and correspondence. 3v. "Full and delightful history of the external aspects of a lettered life in a refined society."—Nation.

Lowell, F. C., Life of Joan of Arc. "Best thing in the English language on the life and career of the Maid of Orleans."—H. Morse Stephens.

Morley, John, Life of Gladstone. 3v. The subject of most extensive discussion."—Dial.

Morse, J. T., Life and letters of Oliver Wendell Holmes. 2v. "A complete and most engaging piece of literary portraiture."—Dial.

Senlser, Alfred, Jean-Francois Millet, peasant and painter. "Millet is one of the most interesting of artists. Sensier was an intimate friend, and his biography is the authoritative one."

Southey, Robert, Life of Nelson. "A model biography in miniature, a duodecimo masterpiece." — Agnes Repplier.

Stephen, Leslie, Life of George Eliot. "By one of the most thoroughly trained biographics of the day."—Outlook.

Tiffany, Francis, Life of Dorothea Lynde Dix. "The life of Dorothea Dix was devoted to work in behalf of paupers, prisoners and the insane. * * \n unusually interesting story."

Trevelyan, Sir G. O., Early history of Charles James Fox. "It is the best picture that has ever been drawn of the transition from the old methods of statesmanship to the new. It is an admirable specimen of literary workmanship, and its charming pages are as instructive as they are fascinating."—C. K. Adams.

Washington, Booker T., Up from slavery; an autobiography. "In no other respect is his book more impressive and affecting than in that of his complete identification of himself with his people."—Nation.

Wise, John S., End of an era. "The 'era' is that of slavery in the United States and the 'end' was the Civil War. * * * Mr. Wise has the born gift of narration * * * and * * the annals of the great rebellion are enriched by such a book."—Nation.

FICTITIOUS ROOSEVELT LETTER

Socialist Party Disclaims Any Responsibility For Forgery.

CHICAGO, Sept. 29.—William Mailly, national secretary of the Socialist party, has issued a statement, in which he says:

"The Socialist party has no share in the responsibility incurred by the circulation of the fictitious letter said to have been written to Michael Donnelly by President Roosevelt. The letter bears on its face the evidence of its own spuriousness, for even if the president entertained the views attributed to him it would have been eminently tactless and foolish for him to have given them out in that form at this time.

"Every piece of literature issued by the national Socialist party bears the imprint of the national committee, and we are willing to accept any responsibility its issuance may bring. Our indictment is of the capitalist system, and we can find enough of truth to charge against it and both old parties without resorting to dishonest or questionable methods to make our case."

DONNELLY DENIES.

Forged Letter Said to Be From President Never Received.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29.—Secretary Loeb has made public a dispatch from United States Attorney Bethea at Chicago regarding the letter purporting to have been addressed by President Roosevelt to Michael Donnelly of Chicago, president of the Butchers and Meat Cutters' union, and severely arraigning labor unions. The dispatch says that Mr. Donnelly received no such letter. The telegram follows:

"I have seen Mr. Donnelly. He of course received no such letter as that referred to and expresses his desire to find the person who first printed it as a genuine letter and wishes to do anything in his power to counteract its extended effect."

Got It From a Machinist.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Sept. 29.—The editor of the Wisconsin Toiler, a paper purporting to be a labor organ and published in Eau Claire, Wis., claims that the alleged Roosevelt letter to Donnelly was handed to the editor by a member of the Machinists' union of Eau Claire. The machinist said he had clipped the letter from another paper.

Fairbanks Made Detour to Fair.

GREAT FALLS, Mont., Sept. 29.—Departing from the programme arranged by the national committee, Senator Fairbanks made a big detour in his Montana campaign in order to visit the Cascade county fair now being held at this place and address the residents and visitors here. His special train was run to this point from Butte after Tuesday night's meetings there, and early in the day he was receiving calls from the prominent men of the city, including United States Senator Gibson, who, although a Democrat, was a member of the reception committee.

Gurney Incident Summed Up.

LONDON, Sept. 29.—The Westminster Gazette accurately sums up the official opinion of the incident resulting from the fining by Justice Phelps of Lee, Mass., of Hugh Gurney, third secretary of the British embassy at Washington, for violating the speed law relating to automobiles and for contempt of court, saying: "It seems desirable that gentlemen connected with the legations should keep on the safe side of local law when they use motor cars, but if perchance they transgress the simplest, quietest plan is perhaps to waive their privilege and pay the fine."

Missed Rabbi, Killed Butcher.

HARTFORD, Conn., Sept. 29.—Louis Mazentar, aged twenty-eight, of this city, was shot to death yesterday at the slaughter house at Wilson's Station, three miles north of this city. He went to the slaughter house in company with a rabbi to butcher beef, and while there the rabbi had an altercation with an unknown hunter who carried a gun. Some hot words followed, and the hunter, aiming his gun at the rabbi, pulled the trigger. The charge missed the rabbi, but struck Mazentar, killing him instantly. The murderer is still at large.

Rats Brought Bubonic.

LONDON, Sept. 29.—Bubonic plague, it is officially announced, has broken out on board the steamship Bishopsgate, which has arrived in the river Tyne from Hamburg. When the Bishopsgate was discharging her cargo from Rosario, Argentina, at Hamburg recently a number of rats that had died of the plague were found on board. On the arrival of the steamer at Jarrow the boatswain was ill and was removed to a floating hospital. The case proved to be undoubtedly bubonic plague.

Guilty of Embezzling $3,174.

CHICAGO, Sept. 29.—J. G. Brown, whose father, James M. Brown, the well known horseman, was killed in a raid on the Garfield race track some years ago, has been found guilty of embezzling $3,174. Acting as administrator of his father's estate Brown is alleged to have loaned certain sums of money which later he was unable to recover when called upon for a settlement by Mrs. Lulu M. Rainey, one of the heirs.

Hinman Named For Senate.

BINGHAMTON, N. Y., Sept. 29.—The Republican senatorial convention for the Thirty-eighth district was held here, and Harvey D. Hinman of this city was nominated for senator.

Tie Game of Football.

WORCESTER, Mass., Sept. 29.—Holy Cross and Amherst played a tie game on Holy Cross field, neither side scoring.

COSSACKS ACTIVE!

Kuropatkin Reports Attack Near Khouandi.

THREE JAPANESE VESSELS SUNK

Chefu Report Says Japs Have Retired From Three Forts Which They Had Captured at Port Arthur.

LONDON, Sept. 29.—In a dispatch from Mukden General Kuropatkin reports that Cornet Mikheiff, with a detachment of Ural Cossacks, attacked the Japanese bivouacked at Khouandi, causing a great panic.

The same day the Orenburg Cossacks laid an ambush for half a squadron of Japanese cavalry, who returned their fire, but soon retired, having suffered considerable loss and leaving several dead on the field.

General Kuropatkin is silent on the subject of the Japanese flanking movements east and west of Mukden, from which the St. Petersburg war office concludes that Field Marshal Oyama has not yet begun to press his advance from Sanchan or up the Liao river valley.

A dispatch from Vladivostok says that, according to reports from Port Arthur, two Japanese torpedo boats and a Japanese steamer have been sunk by mines near Port Arthur during the last few days.

A Japanese cruiser of the Nitaka type, it is added, was badly damaged.

A Chefu report says that the Japanese losses in the last assault on Port Arthur, which began Sept. 19, were 17,000.

The Japanese were unable to remain in the three supplementary forts which they captured, and they retired at 4 o'clock on the afternoon of Sept. 26 after enduring several days of tremendous firing from the inner forts.

The most severe attacks were made on the supplementary forts of the Itz and Anshu mountain forts. The Russians had undermined the ground, and several hundred Japanese were blown up. Reports from the Miaotao islands mention a terrific report which shook the houses there.

The Russian ships, it is reported, took no part in the battle. The Russians are now building a new fort on Lisoti promontory.

A St. Petersburg dispatch says that the situation at Port Arthur is not reassuring. The blockade at last seems to be effective.

Admiral Togo's ships are arresting all the junks which try to enter the harbor and are sending them to Port Dalny. It is feared that this complete isolation may react on the spirits of the garrison.

Movements at the front, so far as disclosed by the meager dispatches received at St. Petersburg, are confined almost to continuous outpost skirmishes, by means of which General Kuropatkin is keeping in close touch with the Japanese along the whole of their entire front. Field Marshal Oyama's advance appears to be extremely deliberate. There are no indications as yet that he has begun to overlap Russian positions.

A Mukden report says that the Russian cavalry west of the railroad report an important Japanese movement and a threatened attack. No change eastward is reported. Four divisions of Japanese remain at Bentsiaputze, three divisions are supposed to be near the Yentai mines and two others west of them. General Mistchenko reports that he penetrated to the Yentai mines and found only small detachments of Japanese there.

No Mediation Possible.

ROME, Sept. 29.—A portion of the Italian press insists that the meeting of Premier Giolitti and Count von Bulow, the German chancellor, at Homburg was connected with the subject of mediation between Russia and Japan, but the Capitale, a semiofficial organ, gives voice to a contrary view and says, "Not only the Italian, but all European governments, consider that mediation is impossible now, when Russia fully trusts in her ability to turn the tide of battle in her favor and while Japan does not wish to lose the fruits of her victories."

Russians Pray For Victory.

MOSCOW, Sept. 29.—A popular open air prayer service was held here in the immense square fronting the Soukharoff tower, which was filled with devout crowds on bended knees praying for victory for the Russian arms. A resplendent marquee was erected at the foot of the tower, where clergy in gorgeous vestments celebrated a service of intercession amidst the singing of a thousand choristers.

Four Oystermen's Bodies Found.

CENTERVILLE, Md., Sept. 29.—The bodies of four oystermen of this place, whose boat capsized in Eastern bay last week, have been recovered, floating near where the overturned boat was discovered. Their names were Captain David Jones, Jack Wiggins and two young brothers named Coulter.

Lady Curzon's Condition.

LONDON, Sept. 29.—A late bulletin from Walmer castle says that Lady Curzon has distinctly rallied from her relapse and that her condition is less grave, although it was still critical. It is unofficially given out that the condition of Lady Curzon is a little improved.

Long President of Harvard.

BOSTON, Sept. 29.—At the annual meeting of the board of overseers of Harvard college former Governor John D. Long, who presided, was re-elected president of the board for the current year. Winthrop H. Wade, A. M., LL. B., was re-elected secretary for three years.

THE CONNECTICUT.

One of World's Greatest Battleships Launched.

ALICE B. WELLES WAS THE SPONSOR

Great Assembly Witnessed Plunge of Gigantic War Vessel Into the East River—Obstructions Discovered on Ways.

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—Before an assemblage of 25,000 persons, which included naval and army officers, governors and United States senators, the Connecticut, one of the two greatest battleships in the world, was launched at the New York navy yard today.

Secretary Morton and Rear Admiral Capps, chief constructor of the navy, attended the launching of the Connecticut in behalf of the government.

Miss Alice B. Welles christened the ship by breaking a bottle of champagne over the bow as the vessel glided into the water.

Among the invited guests were Grover Cleveland, Alton B. Parker, the Welles party, Senator O. H. Platt, Governor Abram Chamberlain of Connecticut, Governor Warfield of Maryland, Governor Murphy of New Jersey, Admiral Erben, Rear Admiral P. J. Cooper, Lieutenant General Adna R. Chaffee, Rear Admiral J. B. Coughlan, Major General Corbin, Rear Admiral Wise, Rear Admiral Strong, Rear Admiral C. H. Davis, Rear Admiral Lamberton, the Duke of Newcastle and Rear Admiral Rivet and staff of the French cruiser Dupleix.

Armed marines patrolled the inclosure wherein the preparations for the launching of the battleship Connecticut were made. Naval Constructor Baxter, who has general charge of the shipbuilding plant, said:

"It is true that an obstruction was found on the ways down which the Connecticut entered the water. It was sufficient to check the vessel. I will not say that it would have wrecked the Connecticut if it had not been discovered, and exactly what would have happened I am unable to tell. The obstruction was not a pile, and no dynamite was found. It was, however, nothing that could have dropped from the ship or come there by accident."

An officer of the navy yard declared that whoever made the attempt did a clumsy job.

"The most lax management," he declared, "could not help but have discovered the obstruction, and there was never any chance of the thing getting as far as a catastrophe. The scheme could not have been formed by any one familiar with navy yard methods."

As is usual before a large ship is launched, divers were sent down to see that the ways were clear. They went down for the first time on Saturday, and since the obstruction was found they have been making the most careful examination. They were sent down for the last time this morning before the ship was launched, and Naval Constructor Baxter, who had charge of the launching, was satisfied that everything was all right before he gave the signal which sent the great battleship into the water.

The Connecticut is a sister ship of the Louisiana, and both vessels were authorized by an act of congress in 1902. The Connecticut was built in a government yard and under government supervision, while the Louisiana was built by a private shipbuilding firm at Newport News, Va. The construction of both ships has been followed with keen interest, as it was recognized that it was a test of the government's ability to cope with private enterprise.

The Connecticut now launched will be the finest and most powerful boat in the American navy and will rank with the most powerful battleships of the navies of other nations. Notwithstanding the fact that a new plant had to be erected for the construction of the Connecticut this vessels is but 8 per cent. behind the Louisiana, although laid down two months later.

Officers Foiled Lynch Mob.

BLACKFOOT, Ida., Sept. 29.—As the funeral procession of Deputy Sheriff Sweet, who was killed by a man named Conroy Sunday night while the latter and his companions were attempting to rob some section men, was passing to the cemetery a mob was hastily organized, a rope procured and a rush made for the jail for the purpose of lynching Conroy. The officers, however, were too quick for the half formed mob and, with the aid of hastily sworn in deputies, protected Conroy and persuaded the crowd to disperse. Feeling is very high, and more trouble is feared.

MAKES WORK EASIER.

Plainfield People Are Pleased to Learn How It Is Done.

It's pretty hard to attend to duties
With a constantly aching back.
Doan's Kidney Pills make work easier.
They cure backache.
They cure every kidney ill.

Jos. C. VanArsdale, carpenter and contractor, living at 213 Spooner avenue, says: "For several years I suffered from severe pains in my back, hips and loins so bad at times that it was almost impossible for me to get around and attend to my work. Any stooping or heavy lifting aggravated it and if I contracted a cold it always settled in my back and at such times my suffering was something intense. When Doan's Kidney Pills came to my notice I was in pretty bad shape and procuring them from L. W. Randolph's drug store I took a few doses when I found they were helping me and on completing the treatment I was quite free from pain. I always keep Doan's Kidney Pills on hand so as to have a sure remedy close by if the trouble should ever return."

HOLLY STAKES.

Oiseau, Heavily Handicapped, Won Feature at Gravesend.

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—Oiseau, carrying 126 pounds and conceding weight to his entire field, easily won the Holly handicap, about six furlongs, at Gravesend. He was quoted at 3 to 1 in the betting. Oiseau took the lead at the lifting of the barrier and was never troubled, winning by three lengths from Broadcloth, who in turn beat Glorifier a head. Glorifier was played for a good thing, his price dropping from 6 to 1 to 7 to 2.

Lady Amelia, a three-year-old filly and carrying the crushing impost of 140 pounds, won the first race in a drive. She was heavily played by her stable, being backed from 16 to 5 to 11 to 5.

Walter Cleary, the odds on favorite in the steeplechase, finished first, but was disqualified for fouling Vestment. Walter Cleary was played from 8 to 5 to 4 to 5. Shorthose scored an easy victory in the fourth. Monacodor, a long shot, won the fifth race by a head, while Seymour won the last race easily.

Grand Circuit Racing.

CINCINNATI, O., Sept. 29.—A large and enthusiastic crowd witnessed the third day's racing of the grand circuit at Oakley park. The 2:12 class trot was the best race of the day, six heats being necessary to decide the winner. Patchen Maid, the favorite, won the first heat in a hard drive from Aerolite. In the second heat Patchen Maid led to the last sixteenth pole, when she broke, Aerolite winning the heat by a head from Calcine. Invader won the third and fourth heats from Aerolite, both being close finishes. The fifth was hotly contested and also won by Aerolite by a head from Euxenite, with Invader third. The three heat winners were sent to the post. Patchen Maid led to the stretch, with the other two close up, but Invader and Aerolite drew away from the black mare about fifty yards from home, Invader getting the decision by a nose. Patchen Maid finished third, a length behind.

Gloriosa at Worth.

CHICAGO, Sept. 29.—Gloriosa captured the feature event at Worth by a nose from Mr. Farnum after a hard drive through the stretch. Langford James, at 30 to 1, was third by five lengths. Gloriosa, which was entered in the race to be sold at $500, was bid up to $1,500, but was retained by her owner, "Boots" Durnell, for $1,500.

Pennsylvania Downed Swarthmore.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 29.—The University of Pennsylvania football team played their second game of the season on Franklin field, defeating Swarthmore college 6 to 4. Pennsylvania adopted new tactics, her efforts being rather to strengthen her defense than to attain a high score.

Yale, 22; Wesleyan, 0.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Sept. 29.—Yale defeated Wesleyan on Yale field by the score of 22 to 0, opening the university's football season. In appearance the Wesleyan team were like mere boys compared with Yale's, but Yale made only two touchdowns in each half.

Winners at Delmar.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 29.—The Eye, Lady Strathmore and Bourke Cockran were the winning favorites at Delmar park.

American Flag Over Africa.

RICHMOND, Ind., Sept. 29.—Bishop Hartzell, for twenty years a Methodist bishop in Africa, has delivered a striking address here. Bishop Hartzell declared he hoped to see the time when the American flag should float over a portion of African territory and that Africa can be divided by the great nations of the earth without war.

ODELL GIVES ANSWER

Governor of New York State Denies All Charges.

SAYS CUNNEEN HAS BEEN UNFAIR.

Statements False, Says Odell—Growth In Expenditures of State, Taken Item by Item, Can Be Easily Accounted For.

NEWBURG, N. Y., Sept. 29.—Governor Odell has given out the following in answer to Attorney General Cunneen's statement regarding the unconstitutional use of public funds:

"I have read Attorney General Cunneen's remarkable statement in the press. Divested of its generalities it makes the following charges: That public funds have been diverted in an unconstitutional manner to the beet sugar industry of the state; that the board of canal commissioners, consisting of the lieutenant governor, the comptroller, the state treasurer, the secretary of state, the state engineer and surveyor, the attorney general, all elective officers, who act with the superintendent of public works, the only officer appointed by the governor, had made an award of $18,618 in excess of that which he claimed to be proper; that in the appointment of the board of appraisers, provided for by legislation of the last legislature, I had fixed the salary contrary to statute. That he claimed was an indication that the $101,000,000 appropriated would not be sufficient to pay the place holders, because the salary of those employed in this and expert engineering work now was $6,083.30 a month, although no contract for the work has yet been allowed.

"The attorney general began his statement by disclaiming responsibility for the authorship of that remarkable document known as the Democratic state platform. Of this I am glad, because I do not believe that he has the slightest conception as to its truths, so far as it reflects upon my personal or official endeavors. If others, however, who mask behind it will be equally as specific in their charges as to my official conduct I shall be as ready and glad to meet them as I am to meet the specific allegations of Mr. Cunneen. The statement of the attorney general as to the beet sugar industry is ingenious in so far as it would create the impression that it was the product of one of the legislatures which had served with me during my four years of administration.

"The contrary, however, is the case, because this law was first enacted in the year 1897 and amended in 1898, the latter provision stating in explicit terms that it was the avowed purpose of the state to encourage for a term of not less than five years the cultivation of sugar beets by the farmers of the state and their manufacture into sugar. Both of these laws were signed by Governor Black. The appropriations during those two years, amounting to $75,000, were made for this purpose. Surely Governor Black's ability as a lawyer would have led him to disapprove of these measures if the narrow construction had been placed upon it in those days as the present attorney general gave to it in 1903. President Roosevelt as governor continued these appropriations during his administration. During the second year of my administration I objected to the bounty which was paid to the sugar manufactory as being excessive, and by the laws of 1903 the bounty was reduced to one-half cent per pound instead of a cent, as heretofore, with the distinct understanding, according to my recollection, that this bounty should cease with the appropriation of 1904.

"Has the attorney general been entirely fair, however, in his treatment of this matter? I do not recall that he objected to the appropriations in aid of the agricultural society of the state, yet they fall under the same inhibition, or that there was any objection upon his part to the appropriation for the Buffalo University For the Study of Cancer, to the Albany Medical hospital, to the Alfred university, to encourage the pottery industry in western New York and to the appropriations made for the support of the Juvenile society, a private organization, of which he is a member, and to other similar appropriations that have been made during his term of office. Neither is there any objection, so far as I know, on his part to the appropriation which has been growing steadily to the agricultural department for the extermination of the San Jose scale, which is in the interest of the orchard owners of the state and is as much in the direction of the encouragement of agriculture as is the aid given to those who cultivate the sugar beet.

"All of these items also go to show that the growth of the expenditures of the state, taken up item by item, can be easily accounted for. In reference to the charge that $16,000 was diverted from the public treasury by the unwise action of the canal board, I do not believe that the attorney general means to reflect in any way upon the integrity and honesty of his associates upon that board. The people of this state should not be misled by statements which lack substantial and specific direction. The charge that I am using my official position for the benefit of my party is as false as it is untrue. I am interested in the success of the Republican party because I believe in its principles, and the aid that can be given by me legitimately and without detriment to the interests of the state I purpose to furnish. The people of the state will find that there has been nothing that has occurred during the four years in which they have intrusted me this great office that can in any way reflect upon its honor and dignity."

Plainfield, N. J., Sept. 29, 1904.

These are the days when the ambitious office seeker has an abnormal love for his country.

The Republican Congressional convention for the Fifth district commended the "efficient and business-like administration of Franklin Murphy." Good joke.

A good coat of white paint would be beneficial to the city's big flag pole on Front street at the intersection of Park avenue. The pole needs a new dress of paint sorely and it is suggested that it be given it.

The reckless and foolhardy way in which automobilists speed over the streets of this city is simply criminal. Not a day passes but what a pedestrian has a narrow escape from being run down by a senseless chauffeur, who seems to have no regard for human life. Some steps should be taken to put a stop to the dangerous practice. Bring the offenders into police court and impose the heaviest penalty possible. Enforce the law!

The worst case of apathy yet reported—in fact a worse one cannot occur—is that recorded against New Providence township, in Union County, on September 13, the day of the primary elections. Not a solitary voter went to the polls; not a ballot was cast. The election officers sat for eight long hours, and afterward drew their pay, but not a citizen took interest enough in the election to even call to see what was going on. The election officers themselves did not bother to cast ballots and no nominations were made by either party. If there were a constitutional provision that such utter and absolute neglect should be construed to mean the abandonment of such a municipality into an adjacent one, the remedy might be drastic but not wholly unjust.—Newark Evening News.

The instance of apathy over the primary election cited is an extreme one, but in few places in the State was much interest shown at the polls. That the law is an excellent one in many respects there is no doubt but as far as bringing out the vote of either party it is a dismal failure. Under it little interest is displayed in the nominations much to the regret of those who believe that a good ticket can only be good when it voices the sense of the mass of a party. It is contended that the new method places the primary in the hands of designing men more so than under the old system.

PERSONAL.

Miss Conner, of Scranton, Pa., is a guest at the home of Rev. Dr. Yerkes, of West Seventh street.

Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey F. Stout, of Madison avenue, are home from a vacation trip in the South.

E. J. Patterson, of West Seventh street, is improving from an operation for appendicitis, performed recently at Muhlenberg Hospital.

Vice President and General Manager W. G. Besler, of the New Jersey Central, has been in Chicago and St. Louis on a business trip.

Sunday Excursion to Mauch Chunk.

There is no more popular resort for a Sunday than Mauch Chunk, and to reach it entails a delightful rail journey, and at Mauch Chunk there is a diversity of amusements, the chief of which is a ride over the Switchback. This journey occupies more than one hour, and leads over and around the mountains with widely changing scenes at every turn. The Switchback is a gravity road, and the speed attained is close to a mile per minute. Another feature is Flagstaff, the summit of which is reached by trolley, and from its pinnacle point there is a view extending over miles and miles of beautiful country. An interesting spot close at hand is Glen Onoko, a short distance above Mauch Chunk, and as it name implies, is a beautiful glen, with falls, cataracts, mountain paths leading to cool and delightful peaces. On October 2, 1904, the New Jersey Central is to run a popular excursion to Mauch Chunk from Plainfield by special train leaving at 9:20 a. m. Returning train will leave Mauch Chunk at 5:40 p. m., and the round trip will cost but $1.50. Frequent train service will be in effect between Mauch Chunk and Glen Onoko, and trains on the Switchback run every few minutes. 9 22 9 o

AMONG MEN IN THE SHOPS

SEEN AND HEARD IN PLAINFIELD'S INDUSTRIAL PLANTS.

John Honan, of West Fourth street, who learned his trade in one of the local shops, has been made foreman of the draughting department in a large concern at St. Louis.

Several local machinists are making preparations to leave next week for Taunton, Mass., where they will enter the employ of the Campbell Company, formerly of this city.

The Manganese Steel Safe Works has in course of construction several large vaults which are almost ready for shipment. In the past few months it has had a big business in small safes.

The Standard Surgical Works on East Fourth street is one of the few factories in this country which makes thermometers. The majority of them are imported and as a rule the work in America is directed by Germans.

The Carnegie Steel Company, of Pittsburg, has issued a circular letter which has aroused comment all over the country. It instructs the heads of departments not to employ men over thirty-five years of age in some and forty in others. This following out the "young man" plan adopted by several railroads and if it keeps up there will be nothing for the "old men" to do except become candidates for the vice presidency of the United States.

PERSONAL.

E. M. LaForge, of New Brunswick, has been visiting relatives here for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. John Swan and daughter, from Conshohocken, Pa., are visiting Mrs. Swan's father, E. B. Clark, of Crescent avenue.

Mrs. Florence Hand and son, of Elizabeth, who have been visiting Justice and Mrs. Hezekiah Hand, of East Sixth street, have returned home.

Charles P. Fraleigh, second vice president of the United States Life Insurance Company, and his family, have taken up their residence at Truell Court.

Mrs. H. A. Todd, of Duer street, has returned from Manasquan, N. J.

W. E. Lowe and family, of Park avenue, have returned from the Adirondacks, where they have been spending the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Herring, of Park avenue, are home from Vermont, where they spent their summer vacation. While away Mr. Herring caught a four pound bass, one of the largest ever taken out of the waters at that place.

On account of business interests, Mr. Griscom, who two years ago purchased the property formerly occupied by the late Miss Eleanor Roome, corner of Sycamore and Mercer avenues, will remove with his family to California this fall.

The "Arnold" Goods.

Do you know that more than half the ills of childhood are the results of exposure during sleep.

Tuck him in ever so carefully and the average youngster will kick the covers off. But he can't kick off a suit of "Arnold" Knit Night Drawers—they are on to stay, and they cover him from the tip of his pink toes to his dimpled chin.

"Arnold" Knit Drawers come in all sizes from two to ten years, are of the fine knit porous fabric with double soles which last as long as the garments. Also made without feet. Price 60c upward.

Other admirable "Arnold" garments which your child can't very well do without are Knit Knickerbockers and Short Drawers, soft, porous, yielding to all motions and strains of the body. Washable and durable, handsomely made. Prices from 35c upward.

Then there are charming Baby Outfits of 14 specialties—all of the fine knit fabrics for 12.75 upward.

The "Arnold" system of dressing babies and children stands alone in its perfection, and is what every American mother wants.

How many times have you heard a mother say, "I want the very best for my child," although she may be a women of moderate means. This is the very woman we want to reach with the "Arnold" soft knit fabrics.

All that is soothing and non-irritating—all that goes to make the little one freest from restraint and compression—is contained in the 26 knit specialties of the "Arnold" line.

Again, we mention the "Arnold" Knit Night Drawers, (with or without feet). All you wish to protect your sleeping child. No care, no anxiety, no disturbed slumber. Tuck your child into bed in the "Arnold" Knit Night Drawers, and in the morning you will find him "lively as a cricket," with no cough, cold or sickness.

Sizes two to ten years, 60c upward. Those with feet have double soles, which last as long as the garment.

HOPE C. E. ACTIVE.

Society Arranges to Give An Entertainment in November—The President Resigns.

The resignation of Charles Vincent as president of the Christian Endeavor Society, of Hope chapel, was accepted at a meeting last night. The question of selecting a successor was, however, left over until the next meeting.

A committee composed of Alexander Muir, Berry Marsh, Miss Breakey and Miss Belle Slorah was appointed to confer with the Plainfield Amateur Dramatic Club regarding an entertainment to be held in November. A lunch box social is also to be given shortly. After the business had been got through the usual sociable was held by the young people, at which games were played until about 10 o'clock and a very pleasant evening spent. Rev. Lawrence R. Howard was present and took a leading part in the amusements.

E. F. James, of Central avenue, is entertaining relatives from Minneapolis, Minn.

Dress Fabrics

This stock has been carefully selected, this year, with a view of meeting every taste. The variety of weaves, colorings, etc., is complete. The designs are exclusive and values far greater than we have offered at other times.

The new dress goods are really luxurious in appearance, soft, rich, warm color tones, and all fabrics that will give good service.

At 75c—Granite Cloth, Cheviots, Henriettas.
At 79c—Extra value Etamine.
At 98c—Beautiful Nub Cheviot.
At 1.00—Venetians, Broadcloths, Whipcords, Mixed Tweeds, Mixed Cheviots.
At 1.25—Serviceable Scotch Tweeds.
At 1.45—Popular Water Proof Cravanettes.
At 1.48—Zibaline Plaids.
At 1.75 — Latest Fall Stripes English Tweed.

A special feature of this department and an idea introduced to Plainfield by this store is the "Dress Length" line which offers you dress or suit lengths of the very latest fabrics in exclusive designs. No two dress lengths alike and no two lengths of one pattern. By this means you secure a dress or suit pattern exclusively your own and avoid being accosted with that exasperating exclamation "Oh! Your suit is just like the one I bought yesterday."

These you'll find in great variety among which are Waterproof Cravanettes, Snowflake Tweeds, Fancy Gray Basket Cloth, etc. Prices from 75c to $1.75 per yard.

Silks.

We call your especial attention to a line of Guaranteed Black Taffeta Silks which are the best values we have ever offered. The guarantee is stamped on each yard.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

Prayer Meeting Topic For the Week Beginning Oct. 2.

Topic.—How we are in training to succeed others.—Deut. xxxiv, 7-12; Josh. i, 1, 2.

By REV. S. H. DOYLE.

The worker may fall, but God's work goes on. God always has men in training to succeed the workers in His vineyard. A man of great worth and value dies and men exclaim, "Who can take his place?" But in a very brief space of time the gap is filled and the work goes on. The man was never born whose place could not be filled. Not that God calls one man to do another's work, but to carry forward His work. Joshua succeeded Moses, but he was not a second Moses, but himself. With the reaching of the promised land the work of the deliverer, the lawgiver, the organizer of church and state was over. He therefore is called to his heavenly reward, and Joshua, the general, replaces him, because the conquest of Canaan is now the duty of the hour.

God, knowing that this hour of transfer of place and power would come, had Joshua in training for it even before Moses died. "Joshua, the son of Nun, was full of the spirit of wisdom, for Moses had laid his hands upon him, and the children of Israel hearkened unto him." Thus Joshua was designated the successor of Moses and was in training for the time when the clock should strike the hour, and when it did strike he was ready. God must at all times keep training workers. It is wonderful how soon one must give up to another, and the work would suffer greatly if the newcomer were untrained. Moses was trained in Egypt and Midian for his great labors. David was designated as the successor of Saul long before the succession took place. Elisha was trained to carry on the work begun by Elijah. John the Baptist was the great worker for a time, but Christ and His disciples carried on the work after him.

Great preachers, great leaders, great workers, fall by the wayside, but somewhere, perhaps in an unknown, obscure place, God has one ready to take up and carry on the work. In fact, all young people, and especially Christian Endeavorers, should feel that they are in training to carry forward the work of God in larger spheres as the successors of those who now hold the important places. The future officers, leaders and workers in our churches will be the young people of today, and in what way could they be better trained than by pledging themselves to God in such an organization as the Christian Endeavor society? Our society is a training school. It is not an end in itself, but a means to an end, and that end is to prepare Christ's young people for the future work of the church. The business and professional worlds today want trained men, skilled workmen, and young men and young women spend time and money that they may prepare themselves for work. Shall Christian young people do less, especially when they have a training school at hand where no tuition is charged and there is practically no expense? When trained, God called Joshua to service. God wants picked workers today. Let us prepare ourselves and be ready when He calls us to any mission whatsoever to do His will.

BIBLE READINGS.

I Sam. i, 24-28; iii, 1; xvi, 4-13; I Kings xix, 10; Prov. xxii, 6; Eccl. xii, 1; I Cor. x, 31; xv, 28; II Tim. iii, 14-17.

An Enthusiastic Endeavorer.

One of the sprightliest speakers at the recent New York state convention at Buffalo was Fanny J. Crosby, "the blind hymn writer." Four addresses in one day, one of them before an audience of 3,000, is an unusual record for a lady eighty-four years old and blind from earliest infancy. Fanny Crosby, though belonging to the Methodist church, is enthusiastic in her support of Christian Endeavor and a firm believer in Christian Endeavor principles.

FANNY J. CROSBY.

Endeavor In Korea.

P. L. Gillett, Y. M. C. A. secretary for Korea, located at Seoul, writes of the interest in the Christian Endeavor society which he started there some months ago. He says: "Our society among the foreign children of the community is active and prosperous. The members are conducting a Sunday school every Sunday with an enrollment of about eighteen Korean boys and girls. They have also distributed some 4,000 tracts within the last few months. Our meetings are bright and interesting, because each member helps to make them so."

State Sunday.

New York is going to observe Oct. 10 as state Sunday. A special programme is being sent out from the state secretary's office to be used by the 2,500 societies. The day is for the purpose of making every one acquainted with the work of the state union.

From the Keystone State.

The latest compilation of Pennsylvania figures puts the total number of Endeavorers in the Keystone State at 135,000.

They organized 117 new Junior societies last year.

The press department of the state union sent out nearly 1,200 letters during the past twelve months.

Eighty-two new societies have been organized since July, 1902.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

Oct. 2: "The Sacred Writings."—II Tim. ii, 14-17.—Bible Study Rally Day.

By REV. WALTER J. YATES.

The vacation season is over, and the people are getting home and settled again into the regular routine of work. Business and school duties are resumed. We need to take up our church work also as speedily as possible. In a few weeks the holiday planning will claim attention. Social engagements will increase, and the time of many will be fully occupied. If we can secure the interest of our young folks in a plan of Bible study before their time is too fully engaged otherwise we shall have gained a great advantage. Our plans need to be well matured and then vigorously worked.

It is almost impossible to build up a strong Christian character without constant study of the Christian Scriptures. truth does not get hold of people and needs to know in matters of faith and practical living. Lack of knowledge of these things is the chief cause of backsliding among Christians and lack of conversion among other people. The Truth does not get hold of people and shape their lives because they do not realize it. It has never become real to them because they give no attention to the literature which contains it in the best form. "Faith comes by hearing, and hearing by the word of God."

Never was the close, persistent study of the Bible more needed than at the present time. The enlarged and more accurate knowledge of the natural world which we now have and the more reasonable views of God, man and the universe in their relations to each other now held deeply and vitally affect our understanding of the truths of religion and make absolutely necessary the study of the Bible from this new viewpoint.

The modern studies in language, the discoveries on the sites of ancient cities and explorations in Bible lands, the comparison of the sacred books of all the great religions of the world with each other and with the Christian writings—all these and many other influences combine to make the revelation of religious truth in the Bible more vitally important than ever before. Our view of the world is unlike that held by men in times gone by. We must put the eternal principles of divine truth found in our holy books into language and thought now current. We can do this only by careful and devout study of the Bible itself for ourselves. We must know what it has to say to us in our present conditions of life and with our new problems. To know how men walked with God in ages past is of value to us only as we learn thereby how we can now and here walk with Him.

The demand of the time above all other needs is a robust righteousness. This must be absolutely free from all cant and subterfuge, clear eyed, whole souled and honest as daylight.

There is but one place where such equipment has ever been obtained by any man in any age. In the secret place of the most high, in spiritual communion, the soul seeking receives the prophetic inspiration which is of the nature of salvation. The Spirit speaks most commonly and plainly through the written word. In searching the Scriptures we find the mind of the Master.

Our study will give best results when class work and individual investigation are combined. Our leagues should plan for systematic prosecution of a course during the autumn and winter. Some particular section should be selected, such as a single book, or, better still than this, a period of history or a particular topic, such as Hebrew prophecy, or the spread of the gospel in the apostolic age, or progress in practical religion from Joshua to Josiah, or application of the teaching of Jesus to the affairs of everyday life or any of a multitude that are pressing for attention at the present time.

Study all sides of the topic. Arrange to have an occasional lecture on the literature connected with the subject, on the geography of the countries, the contemporary history, the persons involved, the manners and customs of the period and such items of interest as are best treated in this manner. Illustrate these talks with the best views to be had.

Divide up the subtopics and have papers and talks given by as many different members as can be interested to take such parts.

Study anything and everything that will help to a better understanding of the subject in hand, but never forget that the best source of information is always the Bible itself. Read it over and over again and compare one part with another.

Whatever others do or don't do, as for you begin at once and persist in careful and regular study of the Bible.

Faith and Grace.

Faith and grace co-operate in working out the successive steps of redemption, in setting forth fully the ways in which God delivered His people out of Egypt to bring them into the promised land. This is a grand historic type of the way in which God brings sinners out of the bondage of sin into the rich inheritance of His promises.—J. B. Whitney.

In Our Father's Keeping.

The Lord keep watch between us, while parted here below.
You in your path of duty and I in mine must go.
We know not what's before us of happiness or pain,
Or if, this side of heaven, we'll ever meet again.
But in our Father's keeping, secure, serene and blest,
We'll do the work He gives us until He bids us rest.
And whether long the parting or soon to meet once more,
His loving care will guard us the parting days o'er.

DIED A DEATH OF HORROR

Snake Charmer Thrusts Rattler in His Mouth and Allows Reptile to Bite His Tongue.

Alfred Thurston, a snake charmer, frog and glass eater, who was out of work and despondent, entered the barroom of the New York hotel at Niagara Falls, N. Y., the other day and in sight of a hundred persons placed the head of a diamond back rattlesnake in his mouth and allowed the reptile to bite his tongue. He died some hours afterward in great agony. Thurston, when he entered the barroom, walked up to a man who had a glass of whisky in his hand.

SERPENT STRUCK AT HIM.

"They say that is good for snake bites," he said, pointing to the glass. "It isn't good for much else."

"I have got a snake in here," continued Thurston. "Would you like to take your whisky as a medicine"

The great rattler coiled about the man's arm. He held its head near his face, and while the men looked on in horror the serpent struck at him. Thurston caught the snake by the neck. Then he turned to the men in the saloon and, with a bow, thrust the reptile into his mouth. The next instant he fell to the floor with a scream, and the snake, breaking away, writhed across the floor. A man killed it with an ax as Thurston lay screaming in agony. He was removed to the hospital, where he died.

EATS NOTHING BUT GRASS

Spaniard in New York Has Found His Food in Park for Months and Thrives on It.

Senor Euhesbio Santos, a Spaniard living in Brooklyn, thrives on a diet of grass alone—just plain, ordinary grass, which he plucks in the park with his own hands. His only drink is water.

His story is corroborated by the people with whom he lives. He himself accentuated his tale by eating about a quart of fresh grass for the "gentlemen of the press" out of a two-quart soup tureen.

"Senor," he said in Spanish, talkng a mouthful of what remained in the large tureen, "I am a Spaniard. I went to Cuba from Spain 15 years ago. Before I was long in the island my health gave out.

LIVES ON DIET OF GRASS.

"'Starve yourself,' said my physician. 'Eat potatoes,' said he; 'eat potatoes.' I grew sick of potatoes. 'Then chew grass,' said the doctor; 'nice clean grass, and drink water.'

"So for six months my diet has been nothing but grass. Now I am in perfect physical condition. I never ail, I feel strong, and warm, and fresh, and I have forgotten what it is to have a headache."

Church Built of One Tree.

A Baptist church in Santa Rosa, Cal., capable of seating 200 persons, was built entirely of timber sawed out of a single redwood tree. Timbers, weather boarding and inner sheathing are all of wood, there being no plaster, bricks or mortar about it. The roofing, too, is made of shingles sawed from the same tree, and after it was all finished there were 60,000 shingles left.

Painless Tooth Extraction.

Tooth-pulling is a very simple and painless process in China. The dentist rubs a secret powder on the gum over the affected tooth, and, after about five minutes, the patient is told to sneeze. The tooth then falls out. Many attempts have been made by foreign dentists to ascertain the nature of this powder, but none have ever succeeded in doing so.

MODES FOR RAINY DAYS.

Military Touches on Rain Coats. Some Leather Trimmings.

The smart woman always contrives to look her best on a rainy day, and the nattiness of her toilet is a pleasure to behold and a comfort at the same time to the wearer.

A mackintosh is no longer a thing of ugliness, and any woman who will part with a few dollars has a chance of looking as smart on a rainy day as on the day when the weather smiles.

The military influence has crept into the trimming of the rain coat, and this strictly waterproof cloth garment is now adorned with epaulets braided in military fashion and trimmed with gilt buttons, and in some instances the coat is fastened with frogs made of a wash braid.

A STUNNING RAGLAN.

Leather plays a part on the new mackintosh and is to be seen sporting itself as collar, cuffs and belt on some of the most stunning wraps.

Evening frocks are reminiscent of the days of Marie Antoinette, and tulle is the fabric most liked for a young girl's ball gown. The bodices are pointed, and there is a decided change in the cut of the decolletage. The round neck is out, and in its place comes the V or square shape.

A new pair of sleeves will bring an old gown into line with the newest ideas just now. The mousquetaire sleeve made by shirring up the inside seam is a novelty that will appeal directly to the home dressmaker. Sleeves are even being made of a contrasting material, and velvet sleeves in a cloth gown are considered very smart.

Dainty ivory cloth gowns show a waistcoat of ivory braid, silver thread and a touch of pale blue.

The smart new rain coat illustrated is in tweed of a pretty pale gray piped with green suede. A feature of the coat is the adjustable double cape, which, when removed, reveals a perfectly modeled raglan sleeve.

THE SHAPES IN HATS.

Most Chapeaux Are Large—The New Fashion In Veils.

Large hats are certainly to the fore for all occasions. They are worn very much uplifted at the sides—after the fashion of the Gainsborough and Reynolds hats—and low over the forehead.

Among the new fall shapes are to be found the cavaliers. These large and picturesque hats have straight brims and high crowns and are tilted on the head at a decided angle. Some cavalier hats dip down over the face, and others flare back in a saucy fashion. This shape may be turned up at one side or both, or not at all, according to the fancy of the wearer.

AN EVENING HAT.

For trimming the cavalier hat plumes are mostly used, and on evening hats white feathers are the thing. On models of a gayer color black and white tips are attractively bunched.

The fashion of wearing veils draped over the brims of hats is fast disappearing, and the prettier style of arranging the veil either over the face or completely lifted is more becoming. The long ends of the veil are brought loosely around the throat and tied in a careless bow or pinned to one shoulder.

The charming cavalier hat illustrated is an evening creation in soft white felt adorned with two white ostrich feathers, one curling over the brim and one encircling the crown.

MAGNESIA SUBDUES BRUTE

New York Police Captain Says the Chemical Is More Effective Than a Revolver.

"Every man who is out late should carry a bottle of magnesia water with him," said Police Capt. Burdine to a New York Times reporter the other day. "There is no law against it, and it is far more effective than a pistol. It isn't a concealed weapon, and is just as deadly, when it is not used as a medicine.

"Not long ago a young fellow whose business keeps him out late at night was carrying home with him one of these bottles. It was in the pocket of his raincoat. Head down, he was breasting the storm, bound for his home port, when a woman rushed out of the darkness toward his port side.

"She begged for his protection. Her arms were extended, and she was coming at him like a football player ready to tackle. The young man was wise. He side-stepped, and thought of the bottle just in time to use it as a burly individual loomed to starboard, a blackjack in his hand.

"There was just time to hurl the bottle into the fellow's face. It exploded with a report that sounded like a bomb. The man, terribly cut and crying from the pain of the acid in his wounds, fled. The woman went with him.

"Later a man in terrible pain staggered into the station house, saying a dynamiter had hit him. It was 'Bill the Brute.' We very much wanted him."

CRABS CAUSE A STAMPEDE

Panic Among Women in a Trolley Car When Lively Crustaceans Leave Basket.

A man who said he is a Staten island official and ex-commodore of a yacht club there was the cause Thursday evening of a mild panic on a trolley car at Spring Lake, N. Y.

The car was crowded with women and children, and was going toward Asbury Park from Spring Lake, when several women suddenly began to scream. They mounted the seats and stood closely holding their skirts as they looked, horrified, at something on the floor.

The conductor, not knowing what had happened, signaled the motorman to stop, and when the car was brought to a standstill an investigation was made. The excited women insisted that there were snakes and small alligators in the car.

The Staten island man, who by this time appeared much embarrassed, explained that when he boarded the car he carried a basket of live crabs he had caught at Shark river. He placed the basket under the seat where he sat, and did not know that the crabs had crawled from the basket until the young women began to scream. The crabs had clung to the skirts of one or two of the women after they had climbed on the seats of the car.

Alcohol Ruins Complexion.

Society women of London have discovered that wines and liquors are hurtful to the complexion, making it blotchy, rough and red. They are, therefore, avoiding alcoholic stimulants, and drinking instead lemon barley water at their noon and evening meals.

Life Is Insecure in Italy.

In Italy, 30 persons out of 10,000 die by the assassin's knife. About four-fifths of the male population carry stilettoes.

A WONDERFUL OLD WOMAN

At Age of Ninety She Tackles Big Burglar and Holds Him for Several Minutes.

Sarah Ludlow Brown, of New York, 90 years old, the other morning at three o'clock dragged a would-be thief into a corner of her room and held him until her screams for help had awakened the other members of the family, dashed down the stairway of the apartment which is in West One Hundred and Thirty-third street, leaving behind two handsful of his hair beside a satchel of jewelry he had gathered as plunder, just as his captor's daughter

GRABBED BURGLAR'S HAIR.

Mrs. C. A. St. John, appeared in the doorway. After he had gone Mrs. Brown collapsed.

"I didn't think that I could do anything like that," she said last night. "Those poor old wrists don't look strong, do they. They have served their day well and I'm glad to have had a chance to show people the fact that merely because a woman is getting on in years doesn't prove she is useless. I awoke from a sound sleep, and saw a figure moving about the room. I knew whoever it was had no right to be there. I got up and grabbed his hair, holding his head down. I led him to a corner and waited for help. My voice is feeble and it was several minutes before any came. If I could only have steered him into a room and turned the key on him, I'd have felt that I'd have completed the task I had undertaken."

JOSEPH'S COAT FOR HORSE

Dyer's Pony in Many Colors Parades and Indignant Residents Protest in Vain.

"The purple cow" has been outdone by "the purple horse" in Glencoe, Ill. Otto Spinoza, proprietor of a dye house, has disturbed the sensibilities of residents by the purple, green, pink and other combinations of dyes with which he has "decorated" his white horse.

When the horse first appeared in a new color residents were amused, but as brilliant colors were added from time to time and the horse became less and less presentable, an attempt was made to have it kept from the streets. The police decided that the horse could appear in whatever tints its owner chose.

The village improvement society appointed a delegation to ask Spinoza to keep his horse less before the public. He refused, arguing that it made no difference whether the horse harmonized with the landscape or not, so long as it did its work faithfully and did not infringe upon the rights of others.

Danger in Tooth Brushes.

At a meeting of the board of guardians near Folkestone, England, one member moved that tooth brusnes should be supplied to the children's cottage homes under their care. Tooth brushes, he said, were as necessary as soap and water, but the mayor got up and vigorously opposed the motion, arguing that the stamina of Englishmen was being ruined by such fads. Probably many present in the board room, he said, had not used a tooth brush during the greater part of their lives. The majority of the guardians were of the mayor's opinion, and the children are to continue without tooth brushes.

Hundred Times Around Globe.

Dr. J. Furness Brice has traveled a great deal. He is the ship's surgeon on the ocean steamer Cymric, and is on his eight hundred and nineteenth voyage. So far he has traveled something like 2,500,000 miles, equal to 100 times around the globe.

An Ideal Location

Rosedale and Linden Park Cemeteries

LARGEST IN THE STATE

LINDEN, N. J.

Beautiful and Accessible

2 Miles from Elizabeth, 7 Miles from Newark,

14 MILES FROM NEW YORK

On Main Line Pennsylvania Railroad

Why Lots in these Cemeteries commend themselves to Heads of Families and Investors

BECAUSE of the $1,000,000 Trust Fund provided for by the Trustees in each Cemetery, the income from which will keep the properties perpetually beautiful at NO EXPENSE TO LOT OWNERS.

BECAUSE such a guarantee, not found in any other cemetery, assures lot owners that the grounds WILL BE MAINTAINED PERMANENTLY AS BEAUTIFUL PARKS AFTER THE INCOME FROM THE SALE OF LOTS HAS BEEN EXHAUSTED.

LOTS SHOULD BE PURCHASED NOW

BECAUSE MORE ADVANTAGES ARE OFFERED TO LOT BUYERS in a new Modern Park Cemetery than in those established many years and, in most cases, no provision made for perpetual care without extra expense to lot owners. THERE ARE A GREATER NUMBER OF IDEAL LOCATIONS TO SELECT FROM, PRICES OF LOTS ARE ALWAYS LOWER AND TERMS MORE ADVANTAGEOUS.

BECAUSE life is most uncertain and EVERY ONE SHOULD ANTICIPATE THE INEVITABLE BY MAKING A CHOICE NOW OF A FINAL RESTING PLACE.

LOTS WILL PROVE A GOOD INVESTMENT

BECAUSE they are sure to increase in value and can be purchased NOW at the INITIAL or LOWEST PRICE and upon the most ADVANTAGEOUS TERMS.

BECAUSE the properties are ACCESSIBLE TO 4,000,000 PEOPLE, and considering the RAPID GROWTH OF GREATER NEW YORK and its TRIBUTARY CITIES and TOWNS, it is only a question of a SHORT TIME when LOTS in ROSEDALE and LINDEN PARK will EQUAL IN VALUE those of our MOST NOTED cemeteries.

FOR INFORMATION concerning lots in these beautiful Park Cemeteries, and FREE transportation to prospective lot buyers, apply at once to any LEADING UNDERTAKER or offices of the Associations:

VISITORS AT WHITE HOUSE.

President Received Gunner Monssen, Who Saved the Missouri.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29.—This was one of the busiest days President Roosevelt has had for many weeks. Scores of visitors called at the White House, a great majority of them merely to pay their respects to Mr. Roosevelt.

Secretary Taft called in company with Major General Henry C. Corbin, who has been assigned to the command of the division of the Philippines. General Corbin bade the president farewell preliminary to his departure from this country. He will sail for Manila on Oct. 13.

The president received Mons Monssen, the gunner of the battleship Missouri, who by flooding the vessel's forward magazine prevented the total destruction of the ship and her crew at the time of the disaster, which cost the lives of more than a score of the Missouri's crew. President Roosevelt warmly congratulated Monssen on his personal bravery and complimented the conduct of the officers and crew of the vessel on the occasion of the disaster, adding that the men of both the American navy and the American army always were to be depended upon in times of danger or emergency.

Yale Foreign Mission Gets $17,000.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Sept. 29.—It is announced that Yale university has received $17,000 in gold from the British government to be placed to the credit of the Yale foreign mission, which is located in Changsha, China. The money represents the amount paid by the Chinese government for the murder of two English missionaries in Hunan two years ago. The missionary society to which the murdered missionaries belonged refused as a matter of principle to accept a cash payment for the murder. The Chinese government declined to take back the gift. The British government, to whom the sum had been paid over, had no claim on it. A number of English missionary societies refused to take the money, which now goes to the Yale Missionary society.

William Ziegler In a Runaway.

DARIEN, Conn., Sept. 29.—William Ziegler, the well known capitalist and arctic exploration enthusiast, was injured in a runaway accident at his summer home, Collender's Point. His coachman had turned the horses into the gateway of the estate while they were going at a considerable speed. The wheels cramped under the body of the vehicle, throwing it over, the occupants being rolled off on to the ground. The coachman in a moment had the horses under control, but not before Mr. Ziegler had been dragged a few feet. The family physician has examined Mr. Ziegler and finds that no bones are broken, although there are several contusions and evidence of a bad shaking up.

Did Not Lunch With Roosevelt.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29.—The report that John P. Redmond, a member of the British parliament, took luncheon with President Roosevelt last Monday was an error. Mr. Redmond was not in the city.

WESTFIELD'S HONORS IN STATE GOLF TOURNEY

WHITLATCH GETS GOLD MEDAL IN LEAGUE CONTEST.

Marshall W. Whitlatch, of the Westfield Golf Club, won the championship an gold medal offered by the Central Jersey Golf League, for the lowest gross score. The tournament was held on the Cranford Golf Club course on Tuesday, and attracted a large number of players. This contest, with one for a handsome cup for the lowest net score, resulted in good play. Mr. Whitlatch returned a score of 91. J. C. Edgecumbe, of the Cranford Golf Club, who had a handicap of 6, made the second best score, a 92, while W. A. Faber, of the Park Golf Club, playing from scratch, was third with a score of 93.

H. Hornblower and Fred Martin, of Cranford Golf Club, tied in the contest for the net score cup, Mr. Hornblower's score being 82, he having abandicap of 20. Mr. Martin's score was 102 minus 20. These two players are to play 18 holes next Saturday to decide the contest. Two crates of muskmelons were offered as a prize by Le Roy M. Lyon, of the Cranford Golf Club, to the four next best scores in the contest. The winners were R. I. Townley and Mr. Cruse, of the Westfield Golf Club, Mr. MacCormack, of the Colonia Golf Club, of Rahway, and J. C. Edgecumbe, of the Cranford Golf Club. The melons were divided among these contestants. There were 35 entries in the contests, and considerable interest was manifest.

Cranford and Westfield play a match game in the Central Jersey League tournament on Saturday. Each team has lost one game throughout the season, and which ever team wins, captures the handsome $50 prize cup offered for the championship.

Warner Risley to Wed.

Invitations are out for the wedding of Miss Beulah Ferguson, of New Brunswick, to Warner Risley, Rutgers '04, of Atlantic City, which will take place on Wednesday, October 5, at 7 o'clock at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. John Deinzer, on Albany street, in that place. Mr. Risley was very popular with his college associates. He is the first member of the class to take the bonds of matrimony. Mr. Risley holds a position in this city. Cornelius McCrellis, of College avenue, who was married to Miss Ryno recently, was a member of the class of '04, but did not graduate, being a member of it for a short time only.

Elizabeth Stars After Blood.

The Elizabeth Stars will come to Plainfield Saturday determined to take the scalp of the Plainfield A. C. Manager Frank Burke has considerably strengthened his team since the close of the minor league season and he has a fast fielding and heavy hitting team. The team will be accompanied by a large crowd of rooters. Manager Johnston does not propose to be caught as he was with the Somerville contest and he will have the goods on hand to win the game.

North Plainfield's Republicans.

The Somerville Messenger says: "Our Republican friends in North Plainfield seem to be in an unhappy frame of mind. Mayor Smalley, who was president of the U. S. Grant Republican Club, goes over to a new organization, which has not as yet been christened. There is a rumor abroad which says that ex-Senator Charles A. Reed and the Mayor are not holding love feasts as of yore."

Quietly Wedded.

Miss Emily Bennett and George A. Broadbent, both of Norwood avenue, were quietly married last evening, by Rev. J. O. McKelvey, at his home. The ceremony was witnessed by the bride's father and Mrs. Jessie Todd. A wedding supper was served at the bride's home and the young couple left on a wedding trip. They will reside on Norwood avenue.

Y. M. C. A. Leaders Meeting.

A meeting of the leaders' corps, of the Y. M. C. A. men's class, has been called for Friday evening at the association. The object of the meeting is to decide upon the gymnasium work to be pursued for the coming year and to plan for the opening exhibition. The meeting will be in charge of Physical Director Henckel.

Miss Ella Buell, of Bayonne City, is visiting her cousin, Mrs. H. C. VanEmburgh, of Richmond street.

ALIS FOOTBALL TEAM PREPARING FOR SEASON

NUMBER OF CANDIDATES FOR POSITIONS ON THE ELEVEN.

It is now a certainty that Plainfield will be represented by a football team on the gridiron this fall. It was at first supposed that the Alis team would not play this season, but the club has reconsidered their decision, and at a recent meeting, decided to begin practicing for a team at once.

The meeting held at the clubhouse last Tuesday evening was largely attended by football players, who have appeared on the field in former years.

The club has decided to play under the old name of "Alis," which has become to them a sort of battle-cry. The following names have been entered as candidates for the team: Half-backs, Wilson, Hardcastle and Becker; full-back, Whitney; quarter-backs, Phillips, Beard and Radford; center, Guinn; guards and tackles, Gwyer, Hobie, Cummings, Bougeois, Egan and Pond; ends, Meeker and Thayer. Roy Phillips, who has captained the team for the last five years, will fill that capacity again this year.

Several communications have been received from various teams in the State, and a good schedule is anticipated. The first games of the Alis team will probably be with the Orange Field Club, Dunellen and Somerville teams. With the exception of the last named, these will be practice games, and will be played as soon as the team has organized.

Butler Said Swear Words.

Patrolman Overbaugh came upon John Butler, colored, seventy-three years old and intoxicated, swearing the proverbial blue streak at Second street and Park avenue, yesterday morning. In the city court today he explained to Judge Runyon that his profanity was due to the fact that a white man had hit him in the ear with a potato. He was let go on probation and must report to Chief Kiely every Thursday what progress he has made in using only good language.

Will Return to Naval Academy.

Midshipmnn Frederick T. VanAuken, formerly of this city, will return tomorrow to the United States Naval Academy, after a month's leave. Mr. VanAuken entered the Academy about eighteen months ago and is now a second year man. He is a graduate of the City High School in the class of 1903. During his leave Mr. VanAuken has spent much of his time in this city, where he has been visiting friends.

Delegate to National Council.

The triennial meeting of the National Council of Congregational church will be held at Des Moines, Iowa, October 12 to 20. Rev. Charles L. Goodrich, pastor of the Congregational church here, will attend as one of the five delegates from the New Jersey State Association. Mr. Goodrich expects to be away from October 9 and 26.

Swedish Pilgrims' Concert.

Under the auspices of the Swedish Pilgrim church, a concert will be given in the church tonight at 8 o'clock. The programme will consist of instrumental and vocal music and reading, and Rev. C. L. Goodrich, pastor of the Congregational church, will make a short address. Refreshments will be served.

Fast Line Trolley Crash.

Two cars on the New Brunswick-Trenton fast line crashed together near the State Fair grounds yesterday, through a misplaced switch, and two passengers were severely hurt. A panic spread among the other occupants and further trouble was narrowly averted.

Young Girl's Mind Unbalanced.

Drs. Lufburrow and Lowrie yesterday examined the mental condition of Miss Lillian Holmes, eighteen years old, of West Second street, and found it unbalanced. The necessary papers were at once made out and she was taken to the State Hospital at Morris Plains.

Democrats Postpone Meeting.

The borough Democrats will meet on Friday evening at 8 and organize a campaign club. Last night the club rooms at 79 Somerset street were not ready for use.

Hope's Prayer Meeting.

Robert Love will lead the prayer meeting at Hope chapel tonight. The subject will be "The Great Commission."

UNION CO.'S CAUCUS AGREES UPON MARTINE

showing the popular hold the Plainfield stump-speaker has on the Democracy of Union county. County Chairman John Moody seconded the nomination. The Fifth ward of Elizabeth named Mr. Wilson. When the vote was polled, Martine had 43 delegates and Wilson only 15.

These were appointed by Chairman Tuttle as members of the convention committees: Resolutions, A. H. Atterbury, of Plainfield; credentials, Fred Hyer, of Rahway; rules, R. H. Mc Adams, of Elizabeth; organization, John Moody, of Cranford. John J. Lane, of Summit, was selected as a member of the Congressional committee and as a vice president of the convention.

The Plainfielders present were: Clarence Teel, Vincent L. Frasee, Walter L. Hetfield, J. V. F. Ditts, Charles Sturtevant, Clarence Waldren, W. A. Boone, Andrew Nolan, A. H. Atterbury, Patrick Reville and Michael Flynn.

THE CAUCAUSES.

Warren county's caucus was presided over by Francis Coyne, J. J. Cullen being secretary. DeWitt C. Flanagan came before the delegates and declined their vote for Congressional candidate and it was then decided to throw the county vote to J. E. Martine. Dr. Kline, of Phillipsburg, was named as a member of the Congressional committee.

Morris county tendered its support to its chairman, Mr. Flanagan, and he declined. It was then resolved to support Mr. Martine. J. O. Hooper acted as secretary of the caucus. E. S. Burke, of Morristown, was selected as a member of the Congressional committee.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. Lafayette Rosenstiehl, of Somerset street, is home from a long stay at Asbury Park.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Strong, of Central avenue, have been in the White Mountains.

Harry DeMeza, of West Second street, has returned from a visit with New York friends.

Frederick Smith, of Duer street, who has been quite ill for some time, is slightly improved.

George Egel, of L. W. Randolph's pharmacy, will return on Monday from his two weeks' vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. John Swan, of Philadelphia, are visiting at the home of E. B. Clark, of Crescent avenue.

A. L. Force and wife were the guests yesterday afternoon of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Leggett, at their home in Morristown.

Fred Endress, of West Front street, and William S. Nolson, of Watchung avenue, attended the State Fair at Trenton yesterday.

Mrs. Lydia Larew, of West Fourth street, and Mrs. Fred Sears, of Clinton avenue, have returned from a visit with relatives at City Island.

Miss H. Mae Batchelor, of the class of 1905, P. H. S., left yesterday for Wellesley, Mass., where she will enter the Freshman class of Wellesley College.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. VanDoren, who have been spending the summer here with relatives on Somerset place, will return to their home in Newark tomorrow.

O. F. C. to Play Somerset A. C.

The game which was to have been played between the football teams of the Orange Field Club and Westfield was cancelled last evening by the Westfield management. The Westfield manager stated that his team was in no condition to meet the local team, but as to further arrangements or the cause of cancellation he would say nothing. Manager Smith, after a hard search, managed to arrange a game with the Somerset A. C. The teams are evenly matched and have been anxious to meet for some time. Both will practice tomorrow night.

Firemen's Excursion.

An excursion to enable members of the Exempt Firemen's Association, of North Plainfield, to attend the celebration of the Flemington firemen at Flemington on Thursday, October 6, has been arranged. A special train will leave the Plainfield station at 10 o'clock, and return from Flemington at 8 o'clock.

A Temporary Pastor.

While no pastor has been selected as yet, the trustees of Grace M. E. church have secured Rev. A. C. Diefendorf to occupy the pulpit until a successor to Dr. Earp is secured. Mr. Diefendorf has preached in the church on several occasions.

—A monthly reception under the auspices of Eugene O'Reilly's dancing class will be held tomorrow evening in the Central building.

Plainfield Lodge, No. 885, B. P. O. E., initiated two candidates last evening and received several propositions.

A. O. H. AUXILIARY'S TRIBUTE TO MISS KEOGH

RECEPTION IN HER HORON GIVEN LAST NIGHT.

A social and farewell reception was held by the members of the Ladies' Auxiliary, District No. 1, A. O. H., last evening, in their rooms in the Coward building in honor of Miss Kate Keogh, the vice president of the society, who will shortly leave for Fort Douglass, Utah.

There were songs by Mrs. Morris Owens and Miss Mary Kiely, and the Misses Marian Meehan and Margaret Whelan entertained with recitations.

At the conclusion of the programme the president of the society, Mrs. Fitzgerald, made an address in which she expressed the good will of the members at large, and on behalf of the society bestowed their best wishes upon Miss Keogh. In concluding her remarks, Mrs. Fitzgerald presented the former vice president with a beautiful gold pin, the gift of the society. Miss Keogh responded to the presentation with a few well chosen words, in which she stated her sorrow at leaving the city, and extended her thanks to the society for their kindness.

Following the reception an informal dance was held. The music was furnished by Frasee. The committee in charge of the affair was the following: Mrs. Fitzgerald, chairman, Mrs. Frank Linke, Mrs. Thomas Walsh, Mrs. Morris Owens and Miss Julia Shea.

Landed Big Fish.

H. A. Todd, of Duer street, and F. C. Herbert returned last evening, from Barnegat, where they had been members of a fishing party. They brought with them several specimens of the largest channel and striped bass seen in the city. Two of the former weighed thirty pounds and were caught by Mr. Todd off shore with rod and line after an hour's work each time. The party had phenomenal luck during the entire trip.

SUFFERING WITH D. T.'S FALLS THROUGH A WINDOW

JOHN MILLER DROPS TWO STORIES, BUT ESCAPES WITH FEW BRUISES.

Suffering from a bad attack of the "Willies" or D. T.'s as they are sometimes called, John Miller, an engineer, of 1217 West Front street, saw blue elephants and three-eyed cows in his room at an early hour this morning. In seeking to give them battle he lurched toward an open window and plunged through to the ground two stories below. He was rendered partly insensible by the shock but emitted piercing yells that attracted the attention of Patrolman McGinley.

The officer summoned the patrol wagon and Miller was removed to headquarters. He had not fully recovered from his "shakes" and fall when arraigned before Judge Runyon and was unable to give any coherent account of what had happened. His landlord volunteered to take charge of him and he was released in his custody. An examination disclosed the fact that he had escaped with a few bruises and a slight cut.

Colored Wedding.

William E. Stone, of Fall Creek, Virginia, and Miss Georgia Phillips, of Scotville, Virginia, were married last evening at the parsonage of the Mt. Olive Baptist church. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. E. Jackson, the pastor of the church, and was attended only by the immediate relatives of the couple. Mr. and Mrs. Stone will reside in Newark.

The Union County Sunday-school convention will be held in the First Baptist church, this city, on Thursday, October 13.

There will be a meeting for Bible study and testimony at the W. C. T. U. rooms tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock. The meeting to be led by H. S. Miller.

J. F. BUCKLE IS NOMINATED

Naming of Republican Ticket Proves to be a Cut and Dried Affair.

DR. HEDGES, CHAIRMAN

Runyon for Judgeship, Probasco, School Commissioner, and Hubbard and Westphal Once Again for Board of Freeholders.

Perfect harmony, in fact love feast, prevailed at the Republican City Convention held last night at headquarters in the Babcock building. The announcement previously made that there would be no contests was absolutely true and the actual time consumed in placing a ticket in nomination did not exceed twenty minutes. The slate as prepared went through without a hitch of any kind, there being not even a murmur in opposition. While the entire delegation from the four wards was not complete, it was nearly so. However, this made no difference as the roll was not called.

As chairman of the Republican City Committee, Mayor O. L. Jenkins, called the convention to order. Dr. B. VanD. Hedges, of the Second ward, was chosen chairman and George E. Wean was made secretary. The call of the convention was read, after which the chairman appointed John H. Doane, of the Second ward, inspector; John Cose, of the Third ward, judge, and Harry C. Runyon, of the Fourth ward, teller.

The first business was that of proceeding to the nomination of a candidate for Mayor. The roll was called by wards, the First, through Charles S. Smineck, nominated former Councilman James F. Buckle, and in so doing mentioned the fact that he had served the city faithfully for years and measured well to the National standard-bearers of the party. The Second, Third and Fourth wards seconded the nomination of Mr. Buckle and the secretary was instructed to cast the ballot for him.

Next was the nomination of a candidate for City Judge. The First ward had no nomination, but when the Second ward, through Dr. T. S. Davis, nominated the present incumbent, William N. Runyon, it joined with the Third and Fourth wards in seconding the nomination and the secretary cast the ballot.

In nominating a candidate for school commissioner, City Clerk J. T. MacMurray, from the First ward, presented the name of Dr. J. B. Probasco to succeed himself. The nomination was seconded by the Second, Third and Fourth wards and the secretary cast the ballot.

The First and Second wards had no nominations for two members of the Board of Chosen Freeholders, but the Third ward nominated J. Frank Hubbard, of that ward, to succeed himself and the Fourth ward nominated William A. Westphal, of that ward, to succeed himself. Harry B. MacDonald nominated Mr. Hubbard and Harry C. Runyon presented the name of Mr. Westphal.

S. P. T. Wilbur had previously been mentioned as a candidate for Freeholder, but he withdrew his name before the convention was held, and his name was not brought before the delegates.

On motion of J. T. MacMurray, the chairman appointed a committee, one member from each ward, to fill vacancies, if any should occur on the ticket. Those selected were First ward, James T. MacMurray; Second ward, Dr. T. S. Davis; Third ward, Harry B. MacDonald; Fourth ward, Harry C. Runyon. After the appointment of this committee the convention adjourned.

POLITICAL RECORDS

Party's Choice for Mayor, Freeholder and City Judge, Have All Been Councilmen.

James F. Buckle, who was nominated for the office of Mayor at the Republican City Convention, last night, has for twenty-seven years been actively identified with the interests of the city and borough. He was born in Philadelphia fifty-two years ago next November and at the age of two years moved to Beverly, N. J., with his parents. He was living there during the Civil War and among other things sold newspapers to the soldiers at Camp Cadwallader. The scenes of the war are still vivid in his memory and through his veins runs the true blood of patriotism.

Mr. Buckle came to Plainfield in 1871, where he followed the business of painter and decorator. For twenty-five years he has been in partnership with L. B. Woolston. Fifteen years ago he resided in North Plainfield, where he served in the Borough Council for three years. He afterward moved to his present home in Westervelt avenue. Seven years ago he was elected to the Common Council by the Republicans and he continued to serve the city in this capacity for six years, three consecutive terms. During that time he served on all the important committees. He served as president of the Council one term. He has always been a Republican and striven for the success of his party. He has served as a member of the city and county Republican committees.

Mr. Buckle is a member of Jerusalem Lodge, No. 26, F. and A. M., Plainfield Lodge, B. P. O., Knights of Pythias, Royal Arcanum, the Plainfield Exempt Firemen's Association and the Unitarian church. He is married and has two daughters and one son.

William N. Runyon, who was renominated for the office of City Judge for the third term, at the Republican City Convention, last night, is a native of Plainfield. He attended the Plainfield Public Schools from which he was graduated, after which he entered Yale, where he completed the course and was graduated. He then decided to make the practice of law his profession and for several years the firm of Nelson & William N. Runyon has been one of the best known here and throughout this section of the State.

Mr. Runyon has always been actively identified with the Republican party in the city, county and State, and he has largely assisted in the success of the ticket in this city. He was first elected as City Judge two years ago, receiving a large majority. He succeeded himself for another term and has again been selected as his successor. During his service in the City Court he has dispensed justice with fairness and impartiality. Mr. Runyon is a member of Anchor Lodge, No. 49, F. and A. M., Perseverance Lodge, No. 74, K. of P., and Plainfield Lodge, B. P. O. E.

Captain J. Frank Hubbard, who is now serving his nineteenth year as director of the Union County Board of Freeholders, and who was nominated for another term at the Republican City Convention, last night, holds the record in New Jersey for longevity of service as a county or State official. There is not an official in the entire State who has served longer in the same capacity than has Captain Hubbard.

Mr. Hubbard was born in Burlington, Bedford County, New York, but has spent the greater part of his life in Plainfield, which he has represented in the Board of Freeholders for the past thirty-four years. His eighteen years of service have been broken only once, when for two years the board was Democratic. He was a member of the board those two years, and was re-elected director when the board again became Republican in 1894.

Captain Hubbard served actively in the Civil War, as captain of the Thirtieth New Jersey Volunteers. He is a member of Jerusalem Lodge, No. 26, F. and A. M., and the New York Commandery of the Military Order of the Loyal Legion. For fifteen years he has been treasurer of the Plainfield Water Supply Company. He is president of the City National Bank, a manager of the Dime Savings Institution, a trustee of Alfred University, and a member and officer of the Seventh-Day Baptist church. He is widely

DETERMINED TO OUST COLORED CONGREGATION

KANE SECURES MORE PROPERTY AND WILL DEMOLISH CHURCH BUILDING.

After many months of negotiating Alex Kane, the local contractor, yesterday secured title to the property at the corner of Third street and Fillmore avenue from A. G. Thorn. It is a lot 127 by 150 feet in length and width and makes him the owner of all the other ground on the west side of Fillmore avenue with the exception of one small parcel on the corner at North avenue. It is Kane's intention to clear the ground and erect sheds in order to better carry on his lumber and mason's material business.

To do so, the Fillmore Avenue church will have to be demolished and this is what Kane proposes to do. He has ended all parleying with the congregation and through his counsel, Assemblyman Swackhamer, has commenced ejectment proceedings. Yesterday he was offered a payment on the mortgage but he refused to accept it. He has announced to the pastor and members that he would appropriate the organ, a small affair, for other money which they owe him.

VISITS PLAINFIELD AFTER 32 YEARS ABSENCE

FORMER POLICEMAN ON DUTY ON NIGHT OF GREAT FIRE.

After an absence of thirty-two years from the city, George Schini, who was a member of the Plainfield police force in the early days, has been visiting friends and relatives here. He is now a resident of Philadelphia. During his visit he has noted many changes and he hardly knew the town. Thirty-two years ago he was on the police force here, and at the same time he had a shoe shop on Somerset street just back of Chris. Gloeckner's saloon. He was on duty as policeman the night of the big fire, Saturday, May 4, 1872, when the destruction of the city was threatened. He was also a member of Gazelle Engine Company and the old volunteer department.

The fire broke out Saturday morning, May 4, 1872, at 1 o'clock, in the building on the north side of Front street, near Somerset street, and Mr. Schini discovered the flames coming from the rear of Bachman's dry goods store. Simultaneously the fire was observed by Officers Sleeper and Clark, who were approaching from opposite directions. Officer Clark ran to the M. E. church, and sounded the alarm by ringing the bell, while Officer Sleeper proceeded to the Second Presbyterian church and rang the bell there. Joseph A. Hubbard also rang the bell in the Seventh-Day Baptist church.

The fire spread on the south from Bachman's store to S. S. Vermeule's clothing store, thence to O. Runyon's furniture ware-rooms, thence to P. Dunn's meat market, which were all destroyed; thence to Mrs. Conklin's notion store, where the flames were checked. The total number of stores destroyed were those occupied by Mrs. Conklin, O. Runyon, Peter Dunn, S. S. Vermeule, G. Bachman, William H. Voorhees, J. O. Campbell and M. Giles, the latter two and the first named being damaged mostly by water. The total loss was $51,534 and the insurance amounted to $58,000.

Danger Ahead for Someone.

Councilman Robert Lee has discovered that some of the red glass signs placed at the point where fire alarm boxes are located, have been broken, and he says if the guilty parties are found they will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law.

ELKS' BAKE A SUCCESS

Plainfield Lodge's First Outing Thoroughly Enjoyed.

SEVERAL SPEECHES

Baseball, Quoits and Other Games Provide Entertainment for All.

Everyone of the 250 Elks who came away from the first annual outing and clambake of Plainfield lodge, No. 885, B. P. O. E., yesterday, were unanimous in their opinion that for an initial effort it was the most successful they had ever attended. Everything on the programme went off without a hitch and there was not a dull moment from start to finish. Nearly the entire personnel of the local lodge was present while members of the order from Elizabeth, Newark, New Brunswick and Jersey City were also noted.

The bake was prepared by Louis Morris, of Perth Amboy, and was served by him at 2 o'clock. Promptness in alloting each man his portion was a noticeable feature and there was plenty of everything. Before the members and guests started in on the demolition of chickens, clams, green corn, blue fish and other viands, the Elk odes were sung while everybody stood up. The out-of-town visitors were welcomed by City Judge Runyon, who is the exalted ruler of Plainfield lodge, and the cordial greeting he extended placed them at perfect ease.

When the last course had been disposed of, Exalted Ruler Runyon rapped for order and in his ready way, called upon Mayor Viehmann, of New Brunswick, who first made the suggestion for an Elk lodge in Plainfield, for a few words. He responded in a happy vein, dwelling on the benefits of Elkdom generally, declaring that it added to the spiritual as well as material welfare of its members. Mayor Viehmann has long been one of the order's most enthusiastic followers and his remarks were listened to with rapt attention on the part of the Plainfield members. He was followed by former Senator Charles A. Reed, who asserted that the local lodge of Elks is a credit to the city and it is one of the best institutions. More songs were sung and dispersal was made to the ball ground where a second game was played between the married and single men teams.

The former was managed and coached by Judge Coddington while the latter was whipped into shape by Judge Runyon. The spouseless players won by a score of 11 to 10 and from the closeness it may easily be seen that excitement ran high. It required three umpires, David Smalley, J. A. Staats and W. W. Warnock, to keep track of things and even at that some of them were looking the other way when their best judgment was needed. Judge Runyon tallied the runs as they came in and the teams lined up as follows: Married—Oregar, p; Townley, c; Adams, 1b; Carroll, 2b; Rowley, ss; O. W. Runyon, 3b; Reed and Smalley, rf; VanEmburgh, cf; Bird, lf. Single—Hoyt and Woolston, p; Woolston and Slevin, c; Slevin and Hoyt, 1b; Zeglio, 2b; Blats, ss; C. Flynn, 3b; D. C. Smalley, Jr., lf; Overbaugh, rf; Hacquer, cf. Those who did not care to watch the game pitched quoits or amused themselves in various ways about the grounds.

The singing of "Auld Lang Syne" brought the festivities to a close and the return to the city was made shortly after 6 o'clock. Before quitting the place at the proposal of the exalted ruler, three rousing cheers and a vote of thanks were given the member of the Watchung Spring Water Company for the use of the grounds and valuable assistance rendered in various ways.

The committee which arranged the affair consisted of William N. Runyon, William A. Coddington and Fred Nelson.

OLD CONCRETE STONE PROVES TO BE A BANK

BROKEN BY LEWIS BLOCK FIVE FIFTY CENT COINS DROP OUT.

An old piece of concrete stone which had been lying in the yard at Lewis Block's home on North avenue, Dunellen, yielded up sudden wealth yesterday. Block, who is employed on the local trolley line, was strolling about the place and in a moment of idle curiosity, picked up an axe and struck the stone a sharp blow. It broke in half and to his great astonishment, five fifty cent pieces ranging in date from 1837 to 1837 fell out from a hollow in the middle.

Block picked up the concrete and examining it found the clear imprint of the coins. The stone had been lying in the yard for years but where it came from or how the coins came to be in it, no one in the borough can explain. He has carefully placed it away and is making a determined effort to gain a solution to the mystery.

BOOKS REPRESENTED BY THESE YOUNG PEOPLE

LOTS OF FUN AT FIRST BAPTIST YOUNG PEOPLE'S SOCIETY SOCIAL.

A congenial and fun-loving crowd was the one which attended the social of the Young People's Society, of the First Baptist church last evening, and which helped to make the affair the most successful which has ever been given by the society. About eighty young people were present. The affair was a "book social," in which every one represented some book either by their actions or by costume. This method of entertainment together with other social games lead to promote the good humor of the crowd and to make the young people better acquainted, and all traces of formality were laid aside.

Though many of those who attended the social were clever in their representations of the various books, the following are especially worthy of mention: Miss Ada Drake, who won the prize, representing "The Fatal Marriage;" Dr. Norman Probasco, "The Little Minister;" Miss Velma Oakley, "Oliver Twist;" Miss Harriet Mattison, "American History;" Miss A. L. Mackey, "Lambs Essays;" Miss Ella J. Mackey, "Les Miserables;" Miss Moffett, "Rose in Bloom;" Miss Johnson and Miss Etta Moffett, "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch;" Miss Ethel Webster, "Five Little Peppers;" Miss Cook, "Clover;" Miss Adams, "Under Two Flags;" Miss Etta Acker, "Beautiful Joe;" Miss Florence Moffett, "American Notes;" Miss Florence White, "The Scarlet Letter;" Miss Etta Lewis, "The Four Feathers;" Guion Fountain, "Opening of the Chestnut Burr;" Miss Fanny Devlen, "The Fatal Wedding;" Miss Ada Fountain, "Black Rock;" Miss Emily Coriell, "Beside the Bonny Brier Bush;" Miss Carver, "To Have and to Hold;" Miss Mary Moffett, "Past and Present;" Mrs. Mallison, "Through the Eye of a Needle;" Frank Simons, "World's End;" Harry Allen, "The Telegram;" Gideon Fountain, "We Two;" Cory Adams, "The Tale of Two Cities."

At the conclusion of the games refreshments of ice cream and cake were served by the committee, composed of the following members: Miss Velma F. Oakley, chairman; Miss Harriet Mattison, Miss Anna Mackey, Miss Ella Mackey, Mrs. J. B. Probasco and Fred Armstrong.

TOMORROW'S BALL GAME

First Contest Between Plainfield and Elizabeth.

GOOD ARTICLE LIKELY

"Warry" McLaughlin to Pitch for Elizabeth and Garvin for Plainfield.

There is every indication that the baseball game to be played on Crescent Oval tomorrow, between the Plainfield A. C. and the Elizabeth Stars, will be one of the best of the season. As this will be the first contest between these teams considerable interest is being manifested and the outcome will be watched by all the fans. Manager Frank Burke promises to bring a strong team here and he will make every effort to capture the first contest in the series of three. It is expected that "Warry" MacLaughlin, of the borough, will twirl for the Stars, although Luyster, of the Eastern League, will be on the bench in case anything happens. All the other positions will be filled by minor league players of ability.

Manager Johnston has not been asleep and he will present a strong lineup. He is confident of winning not only the first contest, but the majority of the series. Two changes will be made in the lineup. Robertson, of Fordham College, who has been playing in Vermont, will cover first base. He is a fast fielder and a heavy hitter. The other change will be on third base, where Eddie Daly will cover the bag in place of Courtney. Daly was a member of the famous Crescents of 1902 and he is playing as fast a game as ever, both in the field and at the bat. His many friends who saw him play at Westfield a week ago, said it recalled the old days to see him on the field. It is ten years since Daly has been in Plainfield and no doubt he will be given a warm reception. This is Manager Johnston's probable lineup:

Cusick, 2b; Bassford, rf; Cregan, lf; Farmer, c; Daly, 3b; Dietrich, cf; Robertson, 1b; Hartman, ss; Garvin, p.

Garvin has been practicing almost every day and he is in fine condition. He promises to equal his record of last Sunday, when he struck out so many men in the game against Poughkeepsie.

MISS H. M. CUMING NOW MRS. JAMES F. LA RUE

WEDDING AT THE HOME OF THE BRIDE'S PARENTS.

Miss Henrietta Woodward Cuming, of Putnam avenue, and James Franklyn LaRue, of E. Ninth St., were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Cuming, of Putnam avenue, last evening. Rev. A. E. Finn., pastor of the Park Avenue Baptist church, officiated.

The maid-of-honor was Miss Helen Frances Cuming, a sister of the bride. The best man was Asher Bissett, a cousin of the groom, and the ushers were Clarence B. LaRue, the groom's nephew, and Henry F. Cuming, a brother of the bride.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, the party entering the room while the strains of the Lohengrin wedding march were played softly on the piano. The ceremony was performed under a floral arch of green and white. The color scheme of the parlor and reception hall was pink and green, while the dining room was decorated in red.

The bride was attired in a gown of white point d'esprit, and carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses. The maid-of-honor was gowned in pink silk mousseline, and carried a bouquet of pink roses. After the ceremony an informal reception was held, at which time the bride and groom received the congratulations of their many friends. They received in the parlor.

After the reception and supper, the young couple left for a three weeks' wedding trip, during which time they will visit the St. Louis Exposition, and will spend some time at Washington. On their return Mr. and Mrs. LaRue will make their home on East Ninth street, of this city.

The bride and groom were handsomely remembered by their many friends with gifts of silverware, cut glass, furniture and china.

Making Improvements.

The Evening Times of Elizabeth is preparing to install two more Mergenthaler typesetting machines in its plant and the style and dress of the paper will be changed and improved.

W. C. T. U. HEARS PARKER

The Prohibition Gubernatorial Candidate Makes Address.

ANNUAL CONVENTION

Union County's Temperance Workers Re-Elect Mrs. Tomlinson President.

Plainfield, as well as all other parts of Union County, was well represented at the annual convention of the Women's Christian Temprance Union, of the county, held at Elizabeth, yesterday, it being one of the most enthusiastic gatherings held in recent years. Encouraging features were that the county membership is now 533, a gain of twenty-six over last year, and that there is a balance in the treasury.

Mrs. T. H. Tomlinson, of this city, presided at the convention. The morning was devoted to the presentation of reports and election of officers. The principal officers being chosen as follows:

President, Mrs. T. H. Tomlinson, Plainfield; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Morris L. Harlck, of Dunellen; recording secretary, Mrs. J. S. Robertson, of Cranford; treasurer, Mrs. M. P. Cox, of Cranford; superintendent of soldier and sailor work, Mrs. M. C. Dobbins, of Plainfield; superintendent Sabbath observance, Mrs. Mary Winter, of Plainfield; delegate to the National convention, Mrs. Decker, of Elizabeth; alternate, Miss J. S. Robertson, of Cranford.

The afternoon session was devoted to reports, reception of visitors and a memorial service for the members who have passed away during the past year. There was also a soprano solo by Miss Decker, of Elizabeth, and a recitation by Walter Ford, of Elizabeth.

In the evening Rev. James Parker, of Jersey City, Prohibition candidate for Governor of the State, made the address. It was a convincing and persuasive argument in favor of prohibition and the abolition of the liquor traffic.

It was announced that the Union County Institute will be held in Plainfield in May, 1905.

LOCAL BALL PLAYERS TO OPPOSE WESTFIELD

AMATEUR NINE WILL MATCH STRENGTH WITH DENMAN'S COLTS.

In order to demonstrate what this city can produce in the way of baseball players who go in for sport's sake, G. E. Firstbrook and Archibald Hacquer will tomorrow take the Plainfield Consolidated team to Westfield and match it against Manager Denman's aggregation. The local nine has been picked from among the best members of the 1903 league teams and the result has been a formidable array and one that will give the Westfield professionals a "run for their money." "Smiling Jimmy" Montross, who once were a Westfield uniform, will pitch for Plainfield and "Red" Waller will cover the slab for the other side. The game is to be called at 3:30 and from the enthusiasm manifested a large crowd of local fans will be in attendance.

The teams will line up as follows:

Westfield—Waller, p; Freeburg, c; Rochford, 1b; Burch, 2b; Smithson, ss; Barry, 3b; Mallen, cf; McManus, lf; Seward, rf.

Plainfield—Montross, p; Allen, c; Egan, 1b; Enright, 2b; Martin, ss; Conney, 3b; Flannery, cf; Taylor, lf; Overton, rf.

"Farmer" Smith, the High School phenomenon, will be held as reserve pitcher for Plainfield.

POINTS FOR THE BUYERS

Allen B. Laing has secured the contract for wiring the city's new $125,000 High School. In awarding it, the Board of Education took into consideration the fact that Laing's reputation for doing good work is of the best. Ask him for estimates.

VanSickle, the butcher, can supply you with the best possible dinner at the most reasonable prices. You don't want cheap meat, but you don't want fancy prices, either. You'l get neither by trading with VanSickle. Orders are promptly and correctly attended to.

You haven't heard of any complaints from those who use Lindsay's milk? There are none. There can be none, when all the milk that leaves his dairy is warranted to be certified milk. You can get richest cream at Lindsay's, and the delivery system is perfect.

The fact that the City National Bank's list of depositors increases daily is a practical demonstration that the Plainfield people recognize a substantial institution. It affords every advantage for banking money and besides has safety deposit vaults and lock boxes for all purposes.

Years of experience have made it possible for L. Moraller & Son, of Park avenue, to become authorities on the question of repairing watches. No matter what the original trouble has been, if it can be fixed they will do it. They do repair work of any description that is supposed to come within the jeweler's jurisdiction.

General Superintendent Huntington, of the New Jersey Central, has returned to his duties, after a western pleasure trip.

Victor Troyce, of Watchung avenue, left last week for Las Vegas, New Mexico, where he will make his home in the future.

Julius Leifke, of Germany, who has been visiting his brother, Henry Leifke, of West Front street, during the past two months, sailed yesterday morning for home on the Steamer Deutschland. During his stay in this country he enjoyed the trip with the Knights Templar to California. This was his first visit to this country and he was very much pleased with what he saw.

It is possible that Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Garvin may decide to live in Plainfield this winter. At present they are stopping at the Hotel Kensington. They have become attached to the city, believing it to be one of the most attractive in the country. Mr. Garvin is a native of Texas, but has never spent much time there since entering the ranks of professional baseball.

FOOTBALL.

Leal's School and the Plainfield High School football teams are hard at work in preparation for the first game of the season which will be played Saturday afternoon. The teams are about evenly matched in weight and an interesting contest is looked for. Last year the Leal's team was superior to the public school boys in every game, and the latter will make a special effort to square accounts this season. The average weight of both teams is from 130 to 140 pounds.

D. T. Mason has been chosen business manager of the Rutgers College football team. The schedule of games arranged thus far follows: October 1, Stevens, at Hoboken; 8, Haverford, at Haverford; 15, Ursianus, at New Brunswick; 22, Wesleyan, at Middletown; 29, Union, at Schenectady; November 5, Delaware, at New Brunswick; 12, University of Maryland, at New Brunswick; 19, Stevens, at New Brunswick. It is probable that a game will be arranged with New York University for November 8.

TENNIS.

That tennis is the most popular game in the city this fall is an undoubted fact. At the present time two tournaments are being held on courts in the city, and last week marked the conclusion of three annual tennis events. The High School and the Hillside players are now contesting for championship honors, and the Park and Hillside women's tournaments have recently been finished. The interest in baseball has noticably lagged, and even the golf links are more or less deserted for the tennis courts. With such an evident enthusiasm in the game, many of the players inquire. A number of the Bronx Club recently suggested that the four clubs, Hillside, Park, Cedar Brook and Bronx, meet to decide the city championship. The other clubs have not yet decided upon the subject, but if it is agreeable to all clubs, a meeting will be held in the near future to discuss the question, and to arrange for a club competition.

DIAMOND DUST.

As soon as the Plainfield A. C. baseball season is concluded Crescent Oval will be used by the Alis football eleven.

Virgil Garvin and "Warry" McLaughlin were out on Crescent Oval yesterday afternoon for practice. Both twirlers are getting in fine condition for Saturday's contest between the Plainfield A. C. and the Elizabeth Stars.

STRIKES AND SPARES.

There will be a meeting in the interest of bowling at the Y. M. C. A. Wednesday evening of next week. All those who are interested in the sport are welcome to attend. The purpose of the meeting is to reorganize a bowling team among the Y. M. C. A. members and if possibl to make plans for the formation of a bowling league. The association has been represented by a bowling team for the last three years and there is much probability that a league with Westfield and the Hope chapel bowlers will be formed. There will also be a championship tournament in bowling for which a medal will be offered. This tournament will be planned at the meeting next week and will be started as soon as possible.

LITERARY.

Collier's for October is a harvest number. It contains a striking article by Arthur Ruhl on "The Drama of the Harvest." The writer pictures the marvels of the great American harvest and shows how little our own people realize the real source and reason of our national supremacy.

Charles Belmont Davis, the brother of Richard Harding Davis, contributes to the October Red Book a short story with a fascinating title, "Mr. Blue-beard of Bellosguardo." It is a tale of American art students in Italy, with a peculiar romance to lend additional interest. John Ulitheroe Gilbert makes the illustrations.

The six men who control the amusements of the American public are Daniel Frohman, Al. Hayman, Marc Klaw, Abraham L. Erlanger, Samuel F. Nixon and F. Zimmerman, Jr. They are the men, according to an article in Leslie's Monthly Magazine for October, who make the mar stars, playwrighters, theatre managers and producers, and who determine what the public shall laugh at or weep over.

The picturesque personality of Thomas W. Lawson is well to the fore in the October issue of Everybody's Magazine. Not satisfied with the allowance of space given to his "Frenzied Fiance"-in the body of the magazine, he has burst the bonds of editorial convention and appropriated several pages in the advertising section, part of which he uses to reply to the scores of letters and inquiries which his remarkable articles have brought him. He deals with his critics in much the same spirit he handles the financiers—without gloves. Incidentally, the October issue of Everybody's is 550,000; the issue of September was 425,000, and a second edition had to be printed.

The first instalment of David Graham Phillips's new novel, "The Plum Tree Tree, or the Confessions of a Politician," appears in the October Success. It starts out in a strong, vigorous, epigrammatic manner, and dips well into the "inside" of things. Sydney Brooks, the noted English journalist, contributes a somewhat startling article on "Foreign Ignorance of American Affairs." Mr. Brooks declares that there are living British statesmen like Lansdowne and Balfour who do not even know where some of our principal cities are located, and tells about a certain Britisher who recently asked Justin McCarthy if the Mississippi River flows East and West.

The October number of The Popular Science Monthly contains the following articles: "A Traveler's View of the British Association Meeting," by President Henry S. Pritchett; "Reflections Suggested by the New Theory of Matter," by the Right Honorable Arthur James Balfour; "The Mathematical Physics of the Nineteenth Century," by Professor Horace Lamb; "Heredity and Evolution," by William Bateson; "On the Perception of the Force of Gravity by Plants," Professor Francis Darwin; "The Ethnological Work of Lane Fox," by Henry Balfour; "On Mountains and Mankind," by Douglas W. Freshfield; "Correlation of Reflexes and the Principle of the Common Path," by Professor C. S. Sherrington; "Invention and Discovery," by The Hon. Charles A. Parsons.

AMUSEMENTS.

In Australia things happen, and in "Mr. Wix of Wickham," the transplanted English musical comedy which E. E. Rice's company presented last night for the first time in America, at the Bijou Theatre, and the scene of which is laid in Australia, things of a nature calculated to please and amuse the audience happen from the rising of the curtain until the final fall. Few of the musical shows that have come to this country from England have had the snap and go of this production, and the vigor of its action coupled with a number of excellent songs and the capable work of the principals and chorus should make it an immediate and continuing success. The company includes Harry Corson Clarke, David Lushgow, Julian Dalton Kitinge, Sydney DeGrey, Frank Lalor, Arthur Wooley, Douglas Flint, Andrew O'Neill, Fred Waters, Milton Pollock, Thelma Fair, Alice Mande Poole, Laura Guerite, Catherine J. Hayes—"not slim, but prepossessing" — Frances Wilson, Cecile Mayer and David Abraham as a frolicsome kangaroo, with a chorus lively, energetic and attractive.

Play goers who are looking for a rare dramatic treat will find it in "A Texas Ranger," the new cowboy play in which Sydney Ayres, the young, romantic actor, takes the leading part. Mr. Ayres is supported by one of the best companies of players ever seen in New York. Among those may be mentioned, Edward Emery, Jack Drumeir, Alex. Kearney, Ted F. Griffin, Louis Theil, Howard Messmer, Wm. Phinney, Steph Hoyt, J. Ford Tichner, W. C. Tucker, Miss Florence Lester, Miss Grace Cahill, Miss Bessie Davis, Miss Effie Gillette and Miss Hattie Foley. "A Texas Ranger" is a true picture of ranch life in the great southwest, and is instructive as well as entertaining. Critics wherever the play has been seen speak in the very highest terms of it. The scenery is accurate and the furnishings come direct from Texas, where Mr. Ayres has spent several months in preparation of this play. "A Texas Ranger" was seen for the first time at the Fourteenth Street Theatre, New York city, last Monday night.

Lew Dockstader, the king of minstrelsy, and the only blackface comedian whose merits make an annual Broadway, New York, engagement profitable, begins an extended engagement at the Herald Square Theatre on Monday. Mr. Dockstader is by far the funniest minstrel who ever amused an audience and this year his songs and monologues are more screamingly funny than ever before, if such a thing were possible. Although the first part of the evening's entertainment shows the old time minstrel half circle, there are many new and novel specialties introduced, which do not detract at all however, from the songs and dances and jokes which have from time immemorial been identified with minstrelsy. Besides these features there are two big spectacular scenes which as spectacles of beauty have never been eclipsed in any theatrical entertainment whatsoever. An idea of the magnitude of Lew Dockstader's Great Minstrel Co., may be had when it is learned that two sixty-foot baggage cars are required for its transportation, that the production cost $35,000 and that it numbers over seventy people.

The season at the Garden Theatre opened auspiciously last Tuesday night, when Henry W. Savage offered to New York theatregoers George Ade's latest comedy, "The College Widow." Tuesday night also marked the beginning of the management of the Garden by Mr. Savage. A thoroughly representative and brilliant audience greeted Mr. Ade's play. It scored an instantaneous hit and is regarded as the greatest success of the many that have been achieved by both the author and the producer. Dorothy Tennant in the title role, Gertrude Quinlan as a haughty waitress, Amy Richard as an athletic girl, Lida McMillan as a professional chaperone, Frederick Truesdell, Edwin Holt, J. Beresford Hellis, Dan Collyer, Edgar L. Davenport, Fred Burton and all the other members of the large cast scored individual hits. Much credit for the success is due to the excellent stage management of George Marion. The third act, where "Billy" Bolton, the hero, makes a long run and wins the football game is one of the most exciting scenes.

Nasal CATARRH

In all its stages there should be cleanliness.

Ely's Cream Balm cleanses, soothes and heals the diseased membrane. It cures catarrh and drives away a cold in the head quickly.

Cream Balm is placed into the nostrils, spreads over the membrane and is absorbed. Relief is immediate and a cure follows. It is not drying—does not produce sneezing. Large Size, 50 cents at Druggists or by mail; Trial Size, 10 cents by mail.

Unusually Attractive Catalogue of a Five Acre Furniture Establishment.

"Show me a store's catalogue and I can tell what a store is," would be an apt transposition of a familiar phrase. Looking through the very complete 44 page fall catalogue of Amos H. VanHorn, Ltd., (73 Market street, Newark, N. J.) one is impressed with the immense variety of furniture, carpets, bedding, stoves and other home furnishings that establishment carries, a stock that very easily needs the five acre floor space it covers. As a guide to complete house furnishings, the many illustrations and prices this catalogue contains make it of real help; it is a book that should be in everyone's possession. A postal to Amos H. VanHorn, Ltd., 73 Market street, Newark, will bring a copy free to any address. This house claims to have the busiest stove and furniture store in town; the stock certainly bears to the claim.

Plainfield, N. J., Sept. 30, 1904.

The Democrats of the Fifth Congressional district are to be congratulated on having presented to the voters the name of a man worthy of a seat in the halls of Congress. In James E. Martine the Democrats have a candidate who commands respect and serious consideration. Few men are so well versed in the science of politics as is the distinguished citizen and gifted orator who has been selected as the opponent of Congressman Charles N. Fowler. On no question effecting the administration of National affairs is he without a fund of knowledge. The policies, past and present, have been made a life study by him and he has an ability to expound those of the Democratic faith in a manner which commands the attention of his hearers, even those who disagree with him. Whether Mr. Martine can defeat Mr. Fowler is another question. In fact, unless, Morris county should give him a majority his chances would not be bright, for Union county's Republican majority this year would be hard to overcome. The Republicans in this county are united, at least a far as can be judged by all outward signs. True, Mr. Martine will receive a complimentary vote in this city, although it is a Fowler stronghold, for those who know the farmer-orator admire his admirable qualities and many will be reluctant to cast a ballot against him. Mr. Martine should receive at least the vote of every Democrat in the district.

WHO THE CANDIDATES ARE

known throughout the county and respected for his many excellent qualities.

William A. Westphal, who was renominated last night by the Republican City Convention for Freeholder, has been actively engaged in politics for eighteen years. He has always been a staunch Republican and has worked faithfully for the success of his party. He was elected to the Common Council and served the city in a representative manner for two terms. He served on most of the important committees, performing excellent work. He was out of office for two years when his party elected him to the office of Freeholder. He is now serving his fourth term in this office and his record speaks for itself.

During his political career he has served as a member of the city and county committees and he was chairman of the finance committee in 1896 when McKinley was first elected to the Presidency.

Mr. Westphal is a member of Royal Arcanum, Red Men, Woodmen of the World and Degree of Pocohontas. Until recently he was engaged in the grocery business. He has always been popular not only with his party, but with those in the opposition, who have learned to admire his fearless manner in the performance of duty.

BOROUGHITES FORM GOOD GOVERNMENT CLUB

NORTH PLAINFIELD REPUBLICANS ORGANIZE PERMANENT ASSOCIATION.

Friends of the administration in North Plainfield formed The Good Government Club at a meeting in the borough last night, at which Mayor Newton B. Smalley, in the absence of President Peter A. Emmons, presided. A constitution and by-laws were adopted. The object of the club is to have the borough run in the interests of the taxpayers and for home rule in municipal affairs.

Former Mayor B. A. Hegeman, as chairman of the committee, presented the report on constitution and by-laws. There were sixty members present and before long the organization expects to number 200. Officers will be elected at a meeting next Thursday night. The club rooms are at No. 90 Somerset street. The association will be confined to Republicans.

GAVE GARDEN PARTY FOR WOMEN'S EXCHANGE

CHARMING EVENT ON LAWN HAD MANY FEATURES.

A garden party in aid of the Women's Exchange was held yesterday afternoon on the grounds of Mrs. H. M. Stockton's residence on Central avenue. The articles for sale were arranged on tables placed on the lawn on both sides of the house at some little distance apart. These were draped in a very picturesque manner with leaves and vines and decorated with flowers. The candy table was particularly attractive, and the gypsy tents, where two fortune tellers gave exhibitions of palmistry, were also very prettily arranged with carpets and cushions. The tea table was placed out in the porch.

The tables were presided over as follows: Mrs. William Stillman and Mrs. Taylor, cake table; Mrs. Lemuel Serrell, lemonade table; Mrs. Howard Tracy, tea table; Mrs. Harry Hill and Mrs. and Miss Uhler, fancy work and useful articles; Mrs. Burton Hall, candy table; Mrs. Martin, ice cream; gypsy camp, Mrs. Maxwell, Miss May Rodman and Miss Kittie Stewart; fortune tellers, Miss Julia Rodman. Brownies tent. Miss W. A. Reinhardt was in charge of the waitresses.

The reception committee was composed of Mrs. O. T. Waring, who is president of the Women's Exchange, and Mrs Julia M. VanBuren and Miss Elizabeth Cook, the two vice presidents. Mrs. Stockton, who gave the use of the lawn for the occasion and rendered other valuable aid was also present and took part in making it pleasant for everyone.

During the afternoon ping pong and clock golf contests were held under the direction of Mrs. Maxwell. The former was not concluded but at the time when play ceased Mrs. Maxwell was leading with Mrs. Lemuel Serrell and Mrs. Butler close behind. The clock golf contest resulted in a tie between Miss Julia Rodman and Miss Stewart, but in the final game, played to decide upon the winner, the prize fell to the former. Owing to the dull weather the attendance was not so large as it might have been, but in spite of this a profit of about $160 was made.

The "Arnold" Goods.

If you want to know how to dress your babe and child according to the latest ideas and in the most comfortable, rational and healthful manner.

If you want your child to be free from garments that cramp, bind and chafe, and enjoy garments that require no starch or hard rubbing, and thus wear twice as long as ordinary ones.

If you want to hear of the most charming fabrics, of the softest texture, and particularly adapted for baby's tender skin.

If you want to get many other ideas as to dress reform, where superfluous garments are discarded and simplicity substituted, then visit our Infants' department, where a demonstration of the "Arnold" underwear is in progress.

SUBURBAN NEWS.

DUNELLEN AND VICINITY.

A reception was tendered Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Piddington, last evening, in honor of the twentieth anniversary of their wedding. The affair was arranged by Mrs. Foster Sofield and Mrs. Wyckoff Voorhees and was attended by forty friends. Various amusements caused the evening to pass quickly and at 12 o'clock refreshments were served. Both celebrants were remembered with many presents.

The Misses Mary and Frances Hunt start Monday for St. Louis, where they will visit the exhibition. They will spend a few days with relatives in Cincinnati and Chicago on the return trip.

John Peters, Jr., the local tonsorialist, has given up his shop in order to accept a place in Jersey City. He will be succeeded by Dan Moody, who will begin business tomorrow.

A letter received from Dr. Nelson, who is in Silver City, New Mexico, states that his health has greatly improved and that he expects to return home, cured, in a few months.

Ziba Osmun, who is the proprietor of the stage route between Dunellen and New Market, found a bicycle chair while on one of his hourly trips yesterday.

Lester Meserole and family will take possession of the house formerly occupied by Mrs. M. A. B. Douglass about the first of the week.

A large shade tree has been taken out of the yard of Abe Smalley, of Front street. The looks of the place are greatly improved.

A sale of home-made bread, cake and pies will be held in the guild room of the Holy Innocents church on Saturday.

A five dollar gold piece is being raffled off for the benefit of the Dunellen Field Club. Tickets are ten cents.

Mrs. B. Conover has been suddenly taken seriously ill again and needs the constant attention of a nurse.

A regular monthly meeting of the Board of Education will be held Tuesday night.

John Logan will take possession of his new house about the first of the week.

A new barn is being erected on the property of J. H. Piddington.

BLACKSNAKE ENTERS THE STIRLING SCHOOL

TEACHER GIVES BATTLE WHILE IT SQUIRMS AROUND THE DESKS.

Startled by a shriek from one of his pupils, David Campbell, of Dunellen, teacher in the South Stirling district school, glanced up from his desk Wednesday to see the entrance of an unwelcome visitor into his classroom. A big blacksnake, of the kind common in that vicinity, was just dropping from the window ledge to the floor below within a few feet of where several little girls had been sitting. They fled before its approach and a mild panic was spreading among the entire feminine portion of the school when Campbell hurried down the aisle to intercept His Snakeship.

Seizing a heavy pointer he gave battle to the reptile and after several minutes of thrashing about among desks and books had it stretched out dead. It measured six feet in length, which is considered very large for that section. The snake had climbed up a small bush just outside the window and had stretched over to the ledge before it was noticed.

ROTH & CO.'S ANNIVERSARY.

Model Meat Shop Established Here a Year Ago.

Tomorrow marks the first anniversary of Roth & Co., the butchers, as merchants in this city. During the first year the firm has been established locally it has won the confidence of the people of Plainfield and vicinity. The result and outcome of its entrance to this city is constantly increasing patronage, which speaks volumes as to its verifications.

The firm cordially invites you to celebrate with them tomorrow by taking advantage of the very low prices at which they will offer meats, fish and poultry. They will have an unusually large supply for tomorrow and they want their many friends to have the benefit of it.

The Plainfield market is under the efficient management of J. Judas, who always strives to please every customer, no matter whether they purchase little or much. Roth & Co. owns twenty-six markets in New Jersey and every one is conducted in a first-class manner and the fact that every market is a success speaks well for the energetic firm.

KNICKERBOCKER
Shoulder Braces for Boys and Girls
Men and Women.

AN ERECT FORM is a very important factor in the appearance and health of man, woman and child.

"As the twig is bent, so the tree is inclined."—Just so with your boy or girl. Do they stoop and bend their shoulders? Our Knickerbocker Shoulder Braces correct this deformity—expand the chest and give true form to the shoulders.

Men and women also find them invaluable in correcting the stooping over habit.

Price 65c, 75c, $1.00.

MRS. HAZELTINE WINS SUIT AGAINST SHERIFF

SOMERSET COURT WOULD NOT ALLOW M'MURTRY'S DEFENSE.

Before Justice Garretson in the Somerset county court, yesterday, Mrs. Mary A. Haseltine, of New York, formerly of this city, won her suit against Sheriff Calvin D. McMurtry, replevin. The defense maintained by the sheriff's counsel, William Newcorn, was not allowed by the court and the jury was directed to render a verdict for the plaintiff. She was represented by George W. V. Moy.

The mother of the plaintiff, Mrs. Mary A. Luckey, conducted a boarding house at 19 Craig place, in the borough, and purchased provisions of Charles Arnold, a dealer in Plainfield. After repeatedly attempting to collect his bill Mr. Arnold levied on the furniture in the house and had the Sheriff do the work.

Mrs. Haseltine, the daughter, claims that her mother borrowed money of her from time to time and later on in payment for same transferred the ownership of the furniture, including the piano, to her and that the Sheriff had no right to levy on her furniture as she was not responsible for her mother's debts. The property was transferred by Mrs. Luckey to her daughter by two bills of sale, before the levy was made, and these were offered in evidence. Mrs. Haseltine sued to recover.

The defense endeavored to show that Mrs. Luckey knew and had been threatened with proceedings before she made the transfer of the furniture to her daughter and declared that she had done so merely to defraud her creditors. The defense also stated that Mrs. Haseltine was with her mother when Mrs. Luckey, when seeking credit of Mr. Arnold, stated she had her furniture as security, and Mrs. Haseltine at that time did not say the furniture was hers.

GARVIN NOMINATED.

Democratic Convention at Providence Name Ticket.

ARCHAMBAULT, KEENAN AND BROWN

Governor Accepted Nomination and Criticised Alleged Efforts to Frustrate Constitutional Reforms.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Sept. 30.—The Democrats of Rhode Island in state convention have nominated a state ticket, chosen presidential electors and then, separating into district conventions, named candidates for congress.

The men selected for state officers are: Governor, Lucius F. C. Garvin of Cumberland; lieutenant governor, Adelard Archambault of Woonsocket; secretary of state, John R. Keenan of Providence; attorney general, George T. Brown of Providence; treasurer, Edmund Walker of South Kingstown.

The candidates named for presidential electors are: John W. Davis of Pawtucket, David S. Baker of South Kingstown, Hamilton Fish Webster of Newport and James E. Sullivan of Providence.

D. L. D. Granger was renominated for congress in the First district and Franklin P. Owen in the Second district.

The platform indorsed the national platform adopted at St. Louis and pledged support to the national candidates, Parker and Davis.

Governor Garvin accepted the renomination in an address in which he criticised the Republican legislative majority for its alleged efforts to frustrate constitutional reform, and at the conclusion of his speech the convention adjourned.

Marx Trial at New London.

NEW LONDON, Conn., Sept. 30.—For the first time since the opening of the trial for murder of Joseph Pavill at Colchester, Gershon Marx showed signs of weakness when Dr. R. R. Gandy of Colchester, the medical examiner for the town, described in minute detail his examination of the body of his alleged victim. Marx stood up with his face pressed against the iron bars of the cage and followed every word of the witness with intense interest. When Dr. Gandy described the nature of the wounds and stated that nothing but a keen instrument could have severed the flesh tears trickled down the face of the prisoner, and he whined audibly. After the witness had left the stand, however, Marx appeared to get possession of himself and again assumed the stolid air he has borne all through the ordeal.

Canterbury and Washington.

NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—The archbishop of Canterbury, accompanied by Booker T. Washington, made a tour of inspection through the best and worst sections of the east side, including the thickly packed barracks on Mulberry street and the tenements in the neighborhood of Mulberry bend. The long rows of model flats along First avenue were also visited. The party was conducted by Jacob A. Riis, the founder of the Neighborhood settlement in Henry street, and the settlement was the first place visited.

Italians Got Nineteen Years.

KINGSTON, N. Y., Sept. 30.—The four Italians who robbed Paymaster Orson C. Longyear of the Hudson River Bluestone company a mile outside of Kingston, securing $2,600, were each sentenced by Judge Van Etton in the county court last night to nineteen years' imprisonment at Dannemora prison. Salvatora Congaosa fell insensible when the court's sentence was interpreted to him. The others received their sentences stoically.

Alonzo Jumped For Liberty.

BUFFALO, Sept. 30.—Alonzo J. Whiteman, who was arrested in St. Louis on a charge of forgery and was being brought to this city by detectives, jumped from the fast mail some distance east of here and escaped. The conductor, it is reported, refused to stop the train until it reached a suburb of this city. The detectives who had Whiteman in charge went back to search for their prisoner.

Home For Drunkards' Wives.

DES MOINES, Ia., Sept. 30.—Twenty thousand dollars to establish a home for drunkards' wives in Iowa is one of the bequests of the late James Callahan, the eccentric philanthropist millionaire. Mr. Callahan was a strong advocate of temperance during the latter years of his life and gave freely to the cause.

Murder on Moving Train.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Sept. 30.—Warrants have been sworn out for Hilary Altman, Charles Altman and Ivey Harvey, held here for extradition by the Georgia authorities on the charge of murdering Jackson Duncan and Jim Riley on a train moving through Georgia.

Charged With Counterfeiting.

ATLANTA, Ga., Sept. 30.—Charles A. Manston of a local engraving company was arrested charged with being connected with the counterfeiters' organization recently unearthed here. He was held in $1,000 bail, which was furnished. He denies his guilt.

Church and Titchener Named.

BINGHAMTON, N. Y., Sept. 30.—George L. Church of Afton has been nominated for member of congress and Edmund H. Titchener of this city for senator by the Democratic convention held here.

Weather Probabilities.

Fair; northwest winds.

FAIRBANKS' TOUR.

Senator Has Concluded Four Days' Stumping In Missouri.

MISSOULA, Mont., Sept. 30.—With a stop of an hour at this point Senator Fairbanks concluded his four days' speaking tour of the state of Montana. His special train was met at the railroad station by a committee of prominent citizens, and Mr. Fairbanks and party were escorted by the Young Men's Republican club and a brass band to a big tent near the depot. There were cheers of greeting as Senators Fairbanks and Dolliver were escorted to the tent. This being the residence of Congressman Dixon, he presided at the meeting.

Senator Fairbanks made an argument for the retention of the Republican party in power, saying that it had shown its capacity by the record already made and urging that this record is the best guarantee for the future. He contended that all its policy had been demonstrated to be to the interest of all classes of our people; hence the unwisdom of a change which could but lead to experiment along lines that had already proved disastrous.

While he was speaking a nearby locomotive insisted on blowing off steam, whereupon Mr. Fairbanks said it was like the Democratic orators "capable of making a great deal of noise, but of doing little else."

When the party left here it was still 150 miles from the state line on the west, but the schedule called for no more speaking until Sand Point, Ida., should be reached.

Wreck on Atlantic Coast Line.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Sept. 30.—A collision in which one life was lost and eleven people were more or less seriously injured has occurred on the Atlantic Coast line five miles from this city. A local passenger train, No. 41, ran into through train No. 35, which had been stopped unintentionally by the accidental pulling of the bell cord. A heavy fog prevailed, and the crew of train No. 41 had no reason to suppose that No. 35 had stopped. The private car of General Superintendent Denham of the second division of the Atlantic Coast line was partly demolished. Fireman Sam Davis of the accommodation train was pinioned under the engine and literally cooked to death.

Hadley's Good Words to Students.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Sept. 30.—President Hadley at the opening of the law school welcomed the students to the university. He warned the students that they must recognize and follow the high ethical standard of the profession. "Every day," President Hadley said, "we see unscrupulous lawyers who plan and scheme at evasion of the law. Men who sell their honor for gold oftentimes are called successful. But the men whose imprint will never be effaced from our memory, whose deeds stand brightest in history, have been men ever mindful of honor and integrity, not the men of wealth and social position."

Murder Suspected at New Haven.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Sept. 30.—An Italian laborer employed by the Consolidated Railway company as a track repairer came across the body of a man, badly decomposed, in a lot on the outskirts of the city. It was covered by a few inches of mud. The coroner stated that the body had been in the ground six or eight months, and on account of the advanced state of decomposition there was no chance to identify the features. Coroner Mix is of the opinion that the man was murdered and thrown in the grass there and that the body slowly sank into the mud.

Postmaster General Seriously Ill.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—Postmaster General Henry C. Payne is seriously ill at his apartments at the Hotel Arlington here. Marked symptoms of heart trouble have developed, and his condition has become so serious as to cause grave concern. Mr. Payne returned recently from a trip in the west and appeared to be feeling in much improved condition, though his health has been poor for a long time. At midnight Mr. Payne was sleeping quietly. Dr. Magruder was still in attendance.

Parker Reception In New York.

NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—A Democratic mass meeting will be held in Madison Square garden about the middle of October, at which it is the intention to have as speakers former President Grover Cleveland and a number of the foremost Democrats of the country. Arrangements have been perfected for the reception to be given to Judge Parker on next Wednesday night. Three thousand invitations are to be issued to members of the various Democratic organizations.

Princeton Graduate For Governor.

PRINCETON, N. J., Sept. 30.—Three hundred Democratic Princeton students last night organized a campaign club to work for Charles S. Black, a Princeton graduate and candidate for governor of New Jersey. A club also is being formed among the Republican students, and a joint debate is to be held in the near future.

Safe Blowers at Sullivan.

SULLIVAN, Mo., Sept. 30.—The safe in the postoffice here was blown open today and about $1,000 in money and stamps taken. The work is believed to have been done by three men who were seen about the town yesterday.

Canadian Parliament Dissolved.

OTTAWA, Ont., Sept. 30.—Parliament was dissolved last night. General elections take place on Nov. 3. The leading issue will likely be the transcontinental railway, which has received favorable legislation from the Laurier government.

CZAR'S NEW CHIEF.

Grand Duke Nicholaevitch Commander In Far East.

OYAMA NOW HOLDING DA PASS.

Stoessel Again Flatly Refuses to Yield Port Arthur to the Mikado—Russia Fortifying Mukden.

LONDON, Sept. 30.—A special dispatch from St. Petersburg says that Grand Duke Nicholas Nicholaevitch's commission as commander in chief of the Manchurian armies has been made out. The report is coupled with the revival of the story that Viceroy Alexeieff will return to St. Petersburg and become chancellor of the empire. The latter report is not credited in the best informed circles, although it is admitted that the viceroy will probably return if Grand Duke Nicholas is sent to the far east.

A Newchwang report says that the main force of the Russian army has retired to the north of Mukden. Strong bodies of troops have been thrown out to defend both flanks, and the southern approaches to the city have been carefully mined. The indications are that no serious attempt will be made to hold Mukden.

All is quiet at Vladivostok.

Grand Duke Alexander Michaelovitch has offered the hospitality of a specially constructed villa on his estate at Aitodor, in the Crimea, to officers wounded in sea fighting. Admiral Skrydloff has given permission to Lieutenant Dombrovski and Midshipman Baron Aminoff to accept the invitation, and they will start for Aitodor shortly.

Mukden advices say that the Japanese have at last developed their attack. They have captured Da pass and are pressing on General Kuropatkin's left flank. The war office at St. Petersburg is unable to confirm this officially because Kuropatkin's dispatches are following the emperor, but it is said by the general staff that all indications point to the news being correct.

It is believed the Russians abandoned Da pass without serious resistance. Several other passes of the Da range eastward of Bentsiaputze, twenty miles southeast of Mukden, are also in the hands of the Japanese.

Kuropatkin is evidently drawing in his forces to the less mountainous country northwestward, where he may decide to give battle. In the meanwhile sharp fighting is regarded as imminent southeast of Mukden, whence the Japanese are expected to deliver their main attack, the flank movement from the west being of secondary importance.

Da pass, or Ta pass, meaning Great pass, is situated about forty-five miles southeast of Mukden and about the same distance northeast of Liaoyang. It is about twenty-five miles south of the Hun river.

The Japanese attacked this pass, which was occupied by the troops of Generals Mistchenko and Samsonoff, on Sept. 24, but were twice repulsed.

The Japanese armies around Liaoyang are reported to be decimated by epidemics.

The Japanese are said to have dammed the Liao river abreast of Liaoyang, flooding the country, in order to protect their left flank.

War clothing is being received by the Japanese from America.

Again has General Stoessel flatly refused to yield Port Arthur to the Japanese. His determination so firmly expressed in the early days of the siege, when he declared that the fortress would fall into the hands of the enemy after a Russian rout and when he told his men that death was their only escape, is unshaken.

A friend of his said, "Even if instructions were sent General Stoessel to surrender he would surely follow the example of Nelson, who promptly became blind on the side of the signal telling him to cease fighting."

Handcuffed, Tried Suicide.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 30.—Joseph H. Edwards, former manager of a plow company's branch at New Orleans, who was brought here from Denver, en route to New Orleans to face charges of embezzling $15,000, attempted to commit suicide after leaving Denver. Though handcuffed he managed to break up a hand mirror and swallow some of the glass and when discovered was eating the sulphur ends of matches. Edwards is sick, but out of danger.

Engine Crew Swam Out.

RALEIGH, N. C., Sept. 30.—A southbound freight on the Norfolk and Southern railroad ran into an open draw over the Perquimans river, south of Elizabeth City, and the engine and one car went to the bottom of the river. The engineer saw the signal indicating that the draw was open, but his brakes refused to work. The engineer and fireman escaped by swimming.

Attempt to Loot Train Failed.

LYNCHBURG, Va., Sept. 30.—The attempt to wreck a freight train on the Chesapeake and Ohio railway near here evidently was planned by four men whose purpose was robbery. One of the men was on the train when it struck the obstruction, and when it stopped he began throwing merchandise from a car. The attempt to loot the train, however, was unsuccessful.

McCalla Says "Not Loaded."

VALLEJO, Cal., Sept. 30.—Rear Admiral McCalla is authority for the statement that the torpedo believed to be adrift in San Francisco bay is harmless, as it is not loaded.

GRAND CIRCUIT RACING.

Major Delmar Trial Postponed, Conditions Being Unfavorable.

CINCINNATI, O., Sept. 30.—The largest crowd of the meeting attended the grand circuit racing at Oakley park here. Major Delmar was carded to go against the world's trotting record of 2:02¼, but did not make the attempt on account of a strong wind.

The surprise of the day was in the 2:07 class, in which Red Bird, a hot favorite, was distanced after winning two heats and finishing a close second in another. In the first heat Pauline G. came with a rush at the end and won the heat by a nose from Red Bird. Red Bird won the second and third heats handily. In the fourth heat Red Bird broke at the first quarter, and before Walker could get him going right the entire field had passed him.

Sphinx took this heat easily, as well as the fifth, Pauline G. being the only contender. Pauline G. and Sphinx, the heat winners, fought it out in the sixth heat, the latter winning by a length.

Sixteen horses started in the 2:17 class trot, which was won by Red Lace in straight heats.

In the 2:10 class pace Robert Mc., the favorite, was nosed out by John Mc. in the first heat. The other three heats resulted in easy victories for Robert Mc.

Big Ben Won Pulled Up.

CHICAGO, Sept. 30.—With a track as sticky as a quagmire Big Ben, carrying top weight, beat a good field in the third and feature event at Worth. The winner was pulled up almost to a walk at the end and finished five lengths in the lead. Katie Powers barely got up in time to capture second place from Nannie Hodge. Big Ben was the only favorite to win.

Dolly Spanker at Gravesend.

NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—Dolly Spanker, the 7 to 10 favorite, easily won the Oceanview handicap, one mile and a sixteenth, at Gravesend. Leonidas made the running to the stretch followed by Dolly Spanker, who took command in the stretch and won by five lengths. Mineola beat Leonidas a head for the place.

Gasconne at Delmar.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 30.—Gasconne at 7 to 10 was the only winning favorite at Delmar park. Worthington cut across the field from the outside in the fifth race and caused a jam at the first turn. The horse finished second, but was disqualified.

King's Daughters Convention.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Sept. 30.—The triennial convention of the King's Daughters in the United States was formally opened at St. Paul's church by the celebration of holy communion and the welcoming address to delegates by Right Rev. Brewer, bishop of this diocese. The charge to the convention was made by Right Rev. Cloland Kinloch Nelson, bishop of Georgia. He asked the King's Daughters to direct their earnest work toward remedying the divorce evil.

Policeman Was Shot Six Times.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Sept. 30.—Policeman S. F. Hurst was shot and instantly killed by J. F. Anderson at Mayesville. The officer was shot six times, all of the balls taking effect in the chest and abdomen. It is said that Hurst drew a revolver first, but that Anderson was too quick for him. The shooting is said to have been the result of a personal matter. Anderson surrendered and was placed in jail.

Fire Followed Joiner's Death.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Sept. 30.—F. A. Joiner of Leroy, fifty-three years of age, an agent of the Standard Oil company, was struck by a freight train and instantly killed while driving over the New York Central tracks at Bergen, near here. Oil from the tank wagon dashed over the engine and caught fire, causing a fierce blaze.

PHELPS MADE AMEND

Governor Bates Hints at a Recall For Gurney.

JUDGE EXPRESSES PERSONAL REGRET

Government Will Reply to Complaint of Mr. Raikes, Giving Statement of Facts Regarding Arrest Incident.

BOSTON, Sept. 30.—After allowing time for the communications in the Phelps-Gurney case to reach Washington Governor Bates made public various letters bearing on the subject.

Governor Bates suggests that the attention of the British ambassador be called to the breach of the laws of Massachusetts under the belief that the ambassador will take such action as the case may demand.

The governor informed the state department that the judgment against Third Secretary Gurney of the British embassy has been vacated and the fines imposed remitted. He says that Justice Phelps expressed regret to the secretary by letter, a copy of which he forwards.

The governor also expresses regret that his want of knowledge of the law has resulted in an error of judicial authority in Massachusetts and expresses the hope that the statement of regret by Judge Phelps may be recognized as a conclusive disavowal of any intention of Massachusetts courts to ignore international law.

It is said here that the state department at Washington will prepare a communication to the British ambassador embodying Governor Bates' report. This will be in the nature of a reply to the complaint made by Mr. Raikes, the British secretary of embassy, and, while expressing regret at the occurrence, will present a sober statement of facts and the testimony adduced to show that Secretary Gurney did violate the local law.

The letter of Judge Phelps to Third Secretary Gurney was as follows:

"As justice of the Lee police court I find occasion to express my profound regret that through a misapprehension of the law I assumed that the court had jurisdiction over the person of a member of the embassy of the British government.

"Having become apprised of this error and seeking to make all possible reparation therefor the court has vacated and annulled all proceedings taken in the matter of the complaint against yourself and the erroneous judgment entered thereon.

"I beg further to express my profound personal regret that I should have been, without intentional error, the cause of your own personal vexation and annoyance, or that anything should have occurred which may have seemed to be, though not so in fact, a want of respect for the rights of a representative of the government of his Brittanic majesty."

Suicide Had Love Affair.

HARTFORD, Conn., Sept. 30.—Dr. Friend A. Phelps, formerly a practicing dentist of South Norwalk, shot and killed himself while in bed in a room he had hired in a Main street house here. A letter found in a pocket of the clothing indicated that the doctor was despondent over a love affair and his financial condition. It has been ascertained from friends that Dr. Phelps had been in failing health, due chiefly to nervous prostration. He was thirty-two years of age and unmarried.

A Golden Light That Failed.

LONDON, Sept. 30.—Mrs. James Brown Potter opened her season under her own management at the Savoy theater last night in a luckless manner with a four act romantic play, "The Golden Light," by George Daring, a pen name which is understood to be that of her sister. The play was so poor that after many expressions of ridicule from the audience the curtain finally descended amid chilling silence.

Senator Hoar Very Low.

WORCESTER, Mass., Sept. 30.—The death of United States Senator George F. Hoar is hourly expected, but at midnight the attending physicians stated their distinguished patient might live until this morning. He is maintaining to the last the wonderful fight he has made against death from the first, and it has seemed for the last twelve hours that he could not possibly live another hour.

New Rifles For Guardsmen.

ALBANY, N. Y., Sept. 30.—Adjutant General Henry has issued an order adopting for the use of the national guard the 30 caliber United States magazine rifles and carbines issued by the secretary of war. The Springfield rifles and carbines now in use by the state militia will be turned in to the United States army ordnance department.

Hearst's Case Against Coal Roads.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—Further hearing in the case of W. R. Hearst of New York against the coal carrying roads in the anthracite regions of Pennsylvania will begin before the interstate commerce commission at Chicago Oct. 11.

Arellano Received by Pope.

NAPLES, Sept. 30.—Cayeteno Arellano, chief justice of the Philippine Islands, who has been received in private audience by Pope Pius, has left for the Philippines. He will travel by way of the United States.

Heat Wave at Pittsburg.

PITTSBURG, Sept. 30.—A heat wave struck this city, sending the thermometer up from 69 degrees to 87 at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. A heavy rainstorm brought relief.

A NEW TREASURER FOR THE U. S. GRANT CLUB

JULIUS J. STAHL TAKES OFFICE VACATED BY MR. CLARK.

The U. S. Grant Republican Club meeting last night was attended by forty members. Sixty-six new members were enrolled. The banner committee reported that it had purchased two flags measuring about 15x10 feet each, which are to be draped in front of the club room, and a large transparency, which will be placed above the door. Julius J. Stahl was elected treasurer in the place of Robert Clark, Jr., resigned, and an executive committee, composed of the officers of the club and the finance committee, was appointed.

After a day next week, yet to be decided on, the club room will be open every night and newspapers, games, etc., will be provided for the members.

CITY JOTTINGS.

—The work of building the new county line bridge on Mountain avenue, between North Plainfield and Scotch Plains, will be started very soon. William Farrier, who has the contract for the mason work, will rush his part of the contract so that the bridge may be completed before the last of November.

SPORTING NEWS.

DIAMOND DUST.

The Toronto Eastern League Club lost $10,000 this season and the club has been taken over by the bondholders.

"Christy" Mathewson, pitching for the New Yorks yesterday against Chicago, was touched for fourteen hits, losing his game by a large score. The Windy City players had no trouble connecting with his curves.

RESIDENTS PROTEST.

Trimming Trees for Removal of House on Park Place Arouses Their Ire.

Work was commenced this morning removing the frame house from the North Plainfield school property to the new location secured for it by the owner, Frank Mobus. It will be taken along Park place to Duer street, thence down Duer street to a lot just beyond Greenbrook road.

In order to get the structure along, it was necessary to trim limbs from numerous trees on Park place and a storm of protest arose from property owners. Under the borough ordinance, however, they have no redress and the work proceeded.

The condition of Samuel B. Wallace, of Grove street, is alarming and his death is expected momentarily.

PAINT SPOILS MILK.

Fumes Contaminated the Milk and Rendered Large Supply Useless.

The entire milk output of the Ginna farm on Park avenue, was rendered useless on two successive days this week in a peculiar yet natural way. As the milking is completed by the employes, previous to its shipment to this city the fluid is placed in a cooling house. On Tuesday as it was about to be taken out the men noticed that it was flat and unfit for sale. What caused it remained a mystery and on Wednesday when the same thing occurred, an investigation commenced.

The trouble was soon traced to the cooling house itself, which had been undergoing complete renovation. The interior had been enamelled and painted and the fumes from the latter had penetrated the milk as it stood cooling, contaminating it slowly. Steps were taken to prevent a recurrence but as it was, the loss and inconvenience were very annoying.

Fall Opening at Paris Store.

The autumn opening of cloaks, suits and furs at the Paris Cloak and Fur Store, 214 West Front street, tomorrow, is sure to attract the women of Plainfield and vicinity. The display of goods will be one of the finest. The assortment is complete, quality the best and the prices the lowest. While it is economy to buy at any time, it is especially so during the opening days when special values are given in every department.

BOROUGHITE SUING A NEWARK PHYSICIAN

ACTION BROUGHT BY GEORGE LEES ON TRIAL AT SOMERVILLE.

The Supreme Court case of George Lees, of North Plainfield, against Albert Wickman, a Newark doctor, went to trial yesterday before Supreme Court Justice Garretson and a jury, at Somerville. The action is brought to recover damages sustained by the plaintiff by reason of the improper application of a plaster bandage which was applied to the plaintiff by the defendant at his office in Newark on March 11, 1903.

The bandage was applied for the purpose of reducing a curvation of the spine, from which the plaintiff has been suffering for a number of years. Four witnesses were examined on behalf of the plaintiff yesterday, there evidence showing that the bandage was applied while the plaintiff was in an unconscious condition from an epileptic fit and that when he was taken from the operating table, the bandage was found to be so high that he could not lower his arms and that he was sent home in this condition by the physician. The natural downward pressure of the arms, it is alleged, causing the bandages to cut into the plaintiff's arms and sides, causing deep gashes and resulting in paralysis of the right arm.

The plaintiff had not finished his side of the case when court was adjourned until Monday morning. The plaintiff is represented by George W. V. Moy, Esq., the defendant by Louis H. Aff, Esq., of Newark, and Alvah A. Clark, Esq., of Somerville.

PERSONAL.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Elmer P. Wheeler, of East Front street, on Wednesday night. The child weighed eight pounds.

Mrs. Erastus Freeman, Miss Adelia Heath, of Metuchen, and Mrs. Jerolaman and grandson, of Newark, are spending a few days at the home of Robert Clark, Jr., 59 Jackson avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward White will leave here in two weeks for Florida, where they will spend the winter. Their son, who is employed at the Scott Press Works, will remain in Plainfield, preferring this climate to that of the South.
